RESOLUTION FOR EDITING AND PUBLISHING OF JOURNAL

Resolved, That the Secretary of The General Conference be authorized to edit the Journal of The General Conference for publication; that he be authorized to make such verbal changes in the phraseology of the Journal as may be necessary to correctness and uniformity, but not so as to change the meaning of any action of The General Conference; and that the published copy, properly certified by him, be the official Journal of this Conference.

Resolved, Further, That the Publisher of The Methodist Church be authorized to publish the Journal of The General Conference, and to send a copy to each delegate of The General Conference, to each Bishop, to each member of The Judicial Council, and to each approved college, seminary, and theological school of The Methodist Church in the United States; the expense for publication and distribution to be charged to The General Conference Expense Fund.

See JOURNAL, Report No. 2 Commission on Entertainment and Program (Page 1223).

(Note abbreviations in Journal: (DB-1) means Document Book where all original papers and documents which came to the Secretary's desk are on file. The number refers to the number of the Document in the Book. (DCA-22) refers to the Daily Christian Advocate and the numeral to the page where the Reports, etc., can be found; Jurisdictions: Northeastern, NE; Southeastern, SE; Central, C; North Central, NC; South Central, SC; Western, W; Overseas Conferences, OS; (*) designates layman.)

CERTIFICATION

This certifies that the following pages constitute the Official Journal of the 1956 General Conference of The Methodist Church, held at Minneapolis, Minnesota, April 25-May 7, 1956, including the Officers, Personnel, Commissions, Committees, Representatives on Boards and Commissions, that acted during the Conference, or were elected by it, proceedings of business, communications, and other matter ordered printed by The General Conference.

ALPHABETICAL LIST OF RESERVE DELEGATES

* Before a name means Lay Delegate. Abbreviations in right-hand column after the names of the Conferences: NE, Northeastern Jurisdiction; SE, Southeastern Jurisdiction; C, Central Jurisdiction; NC, North Central Jurisdiction; SC, South Central Jurisdiction; W, Western Jurisdiction; OS, Overseas Conference.

Substitutions

Reserve Delegates were seated by the Committee on Credentials, from time to time during the sessions of The General Conference, including the opening session on Wednesday, April 25, 1956.

Where the single numeral (255) appears in parentheses, it indicates the page in the Journal where the Chairman of the Annual Conference Delegation made the substitution at the opening session, Wednesday, April 25, 1956.

Where three numerals appear in parentheses (1-17-1185), the first number refers to the Number of the Report of the Committee on Credentials; the second number to the name of the Reserve substituted; the third number to the page in the Appendix where the Report of the Committee on Credentials will be found. PLAN OF ORGANIZATION AND RULES OF ORDER

The Plan of Organization and Rules of Order of the General Conference shall be the Plan of Organization and Rules of Order of the preceding General Conference until they have been altered or modified by the action of the General Conference. Par. 508, 1956 Discipline.

(Note. All additions and changes from the 1952 Plan of Organization and Rules of Order are set forth in BOLD FACE type. Editor.)

For the Plan of Organization and Rules of Order for the 1960 General Conference see page 1228.

A. PLAN OF ORGANIZATION

I. Opening Session and Organization

The General Conference shall assemble at 10 A.M., on the day fixed and at the place determined upon in accordance with action taken by the preceding General Conference. The Holy Communion shall be celebrated by The Conference, The Council of Bishops being in charge; after which The Conference shall be called to order by the Bishop designated, as provided in Paragraph 8, Item 11, of the 1952 Discipline.

The following order of business shall be observed.

A. Roll Call. The Roll shall be called by the Secretary of the preceding General Conference in the following manner:

1. There shall be called the names of the Bishops who have died since the adjournment of the preceding General Conference, and likewise the names of Delegates-elect who have died.

2. The record of attendance shall be made in writing to the Secretary of The General Conference by

- a. The Secretary of The Council of Bishops for the Bishops, and

- b. The Chairman of each Delegation for its membership. The Chairman shall be provided with a blank form on which to report in writing the attendance of its members, noting absentees and substitutions, which Reports shall be tabulated by the Secretary and published in The Daily Advocate. Any Reserve seated in the place of a Regular Delegate shall have been duly elected as a Reserve Delegate by his Annual Conference, and shall meet the requirements set forth in the Discipline, Par. 21-25. Delegates, including Reserves, when the latter are substituted for a Delegate or Delegates, shall be seated in the order of their election, except when a Reserve is seated temporarily, in which case he shall occupy the seat of the Delegate for whom he is substituted. All Delegates arriving after the opening Roll Call shall be reported by the Chairman of the Delegation to the Committee on Credentials, in order to be properly enrolled.

3. A majority of the whole number of Delegates to The General Conference shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. (Paragraph 503, 1952 Discipline.)

B. Action on Plan of Organization and Rules of Order.

C. Election of Secretary. If a quorum be present, The Conference shall elect from the ministry or lay membership of The Methodist Church, on nomination from the floor, a Secretary, which election shall be by ballot if there be two or more nominees. (See Section IV.)

Should the Secretary not be a Delegate, he shall have the privilege of the floor, but without vote.

D. Committee Nominations and Elections. The Council of Bishops shall present nominations for the Administrative Committees, and such other nominations as are hereinafter committed to it, for election by The General Conference.

E. Miscellaneous Business.

F. Adjournment.

II. Episcopal Address

There shall be a session of The General Conference held at 8:00 P.M., on the opening day, for the purpose of hearing the Quadrennial Address of The Council of Bishops.

III. Presiding Officers

The Presiding Officers for the several sessions of The Conference, the opening session excepted (See Sec. I), shall be chosen from among the effective Bishops in the following manner: The Council of Bishops shall at the opening session nominate for election by The Conference a Committee on Presiding Officers composed of one Minister and one Layman from each Jurisdiction, and one Minister and one Layman from among the Delegates representing the Annual Conference outside the United States. The Committee thus constituted shall select the Presiding Officer for each session of The Conference, notifying the Bishop of his selection at least 24 hours in advance, and in each instance report its selection to The Conference prior to adjournment of the session immediately preceding.

IV. Secretarial Staff

1. The Secretary of The General Conference elected as hereinbefore provided shall serve until the next General Conference is organized and a successor elected.

2. The Conference shall elect, upon the nomination of the Secretary, such Assistant Secretaries from the Ministry or Lay membership of The Methodist Church, as it may deem wise.

3. If in the interim of the quadrennial sessions of The General Conference the office of Secretary shall for any reason be vacated, The Council of Bishops shall elect a successor to serve until the next session.

V. Entertainment and Program

There shall be a Commission on Entertainment and Program of The General Conference composed of one Minister and one Layman from each Jurisdiction who shall be nominated by The Council of Bishops and elected by The General Conference. The Secretary of The General Conference and the Treasurer of the General Administration Fund shall also be members ex officio, but without vote. This Commission shall determine the place and time (within such limits as may be set up by The General Conference) of the next General Conference and shall make all necessary arrangements in connection therewith including arrangements for the publication of a Book of Quadrennial Reports of the General Boards and other General Agencies of the Church, the same to be published by The Methodist Publishing House.

The Council of Bishops shall designate one of their number to convene and organize the Commission within eighteen months following the adjournment of The General Conference. The Commission shall arrange for the local entertainment of Fraternal Delegates for the reasonable period of time required for their presentation to The General Conference.

VI. Committees

The General Conference shall have the Standing Committees hereinafter indicated with such functions, responsibilities, and limitations respectively as are hereinafter prescribed, and such Special Committees as it may order.

1. Standing Administrative Committees

(1) Entertainment and Program. (See V, page 163)

(2) Committee of Chairmen. The Chairmen of the several Legislative Committees, the Chairman of the Committee on Rules, and the Chairman of the Commission on Entertainment shall be constituted a Committee whose function it shall be to arrange for the presentation of Committee reports to The Conference in such order as to expedite the business.

The Secretary of the General Conference shall convene the Committee of Chairmen.

(3) Correlation and Editorial Revision. There shall be a Committee of three known as the Committee on Correlation and Editorial Revision. This Committee shall be composed of three persons not members of The General Conference, appointed by The Council of Bishops. They shall be entitled to travel expense and per diem allowance, the same as the Delegates. The functions of this Committee shall be:

(a) To review all legislation enacted by The General Conference and to report promptly to the Legislative Committees concerned, or to The General Conference as the situation may warrant, any and all contradictions, duplications and inconsistencies discovered therein.

(b) To report to the Chairmen of the several Legislative Committees all changes it has made in the language of the Reports adopted by The General Conference.

(4) Courtesies and Privileges. There shall be a Committee of fourteen, composed of one Minister and one Layman from each Jurisdiction and one Minister and one Layman from among the Delegates representing Annual Conferences outside the United States, known as the Committee on Courtesies and Privileges, having the following duties and responsibilities:

a. To consider, as presented to it by members of The Conference, what said members regard as questions or matters of privilege, to decide whether they are such or not, and if they are regarded as being such, to recommend to The Conference that they be heard.

(NOTE: Only questions or matters of privilege which are so urgent that they cannot wait for consideration by this Committee may be presented immediately to The Conference as provided in Rule 9.)

b. To prepare with due regard for brevity, and present to The Conference for its action, such complimentary Resolutions as occasion may demand.

c. To arrange for extending courtesies of The Conference to any to whom they may be due, Fraternal Delegates and official visitors excepted.

d. To arrange for a Memorial Service, at some time agreeable to The Conference for Deceased Delegates-elect, for Bishops and General Officers of the Church who have died since the adjournment of the last preceding General Conference.

e. To limit its Report, including the statement of the Chairman and the hearing of such persons as may be presented, to a maximum of twenty minutes in any one business session. No person or persons shall be presented after the sixth day unless approved by a 2/3 vote of The Conference.

f. To prepare and publish in the Daily Christian Advocate contemporaneously with the list of the nominees for election to the Judicial Council, biographical sketches not to exceed 100 words in length for each nominee.

(5) Credentials. There shall be a Committee of seven on Credentials. To this Committee the Chairmen of the respective Annual Conference Delegations shall report, on a form provided for that purpose, the names of absent Delegates and of available Reserve Delegates to be substituted for said absentees. This Committee shall in turn report all such cases of absence to The Conference with recommendations as to the seating of Reserves if such are available. No Reserve Delegates shall be seated except by action of The Conference and after a Report has been made upon the case by this Committee, provided, the Reserve Delegates reported by the Chairman of the respective Annual Conference Delegations as substituted for absentees at the opening session shall be seated tentatively without the action of this Committee; provided, further, that such substitutions shall be reported to this Committee for review and Report to The General Conference for its action.

All changes in the personnel of the seated delegates of the Annual Conference delegations shall be reported to this Committee on blanks provided by the Secretary of The Conference. Per diem allowances shall be paid on the basis of the Report of this Committee.

(6) Fraternal Delegates. There shall be a Committee of seven whose function it shall be to extend the courtesies of

The Conference to the Fraternal Delegates and Official Visitors and present them to The General Conference at its pleasure. The terms "Fraternal Delegates" and "Official Visitors" shall be interpreted to include only persons who have been duly elected by the Christian Communions of which they are respectively members to represent the same before The General Conference, and who present the appropriate Credentials of such elections.

(7) Journal. There shall be a Committee of seven which shall daily examine the record of the Secretary comparing it with the stenographic record and report its findings to The Conference, recommending appropriate action. Any error subsequently discovered in a section of the Journal which has been approved shall be reported to The Conference for correction.

(8) Presiding Officer. See Section III.

(9) Reference. There shall be a Committee of Reference composed of one Ministerial and one Lay representative from each Jurisdiction, at least two of whom shall be lawyers and one Minister and one Layman from Conferences outside the United States, to be appointed by The Council of Bishops from the regularly elected delegates to the ensuing General Conference at the winter meeting of the said Council of Bishops, preceding the session of The General Conference. Said Committee shall meet with the Secretary of the previous General Conference at the seat of the Conference on the Monday preceding the opening of said Conference. This Committee shall be convened by the Secretary of The General Conference. After ascertaining that the Memorials, Resolutions and similar communications dealing with the regular business of The Conference meet the requirements herein specified, this Committee shall refer the same to the appropriate Administrative or Legislative Committees. This Committee shall be responsible for such assignment of all Memorials, which may be in the hands of the Secretary prior to the opening session, including the Episcopal Address, the Book of Printed Quadrennial Reports, and all other communications which shall come into his hands after the convening of The General Conference. The third day of The Conference shall be fixed as the deadline for the introduction of Memorials and Petitions.

The Committee of Reference may withdraw a paper after having assigned it to a Committee, either upon a request or upon its own motion. It may also withhold from reference or publication any document it shall deem improper, promptly advising the author, or authors, thereof of its action in order that an appeal may be made to The Conference if desired. The Committee shall publish as promptly as possible, in The Daily Advocate, lists of the communications it has referred to the several Standing Committees, identifying each by number, title, origin, and destination. No Memorial or Petition shall be assigned by the Committee of Reference to any General Conference Committee unless it comes from some organization, minister, or member of The Methodist Church, and also contains information essential to the verification of the alleged facts concerning its origin.

All Memorials should be presented in triplicate. Each should deal with only one general subject. Not more than one Memorial should be presented on a single sheet of paper.

(10) Rules. There shall be a Committee of seven on Plan of Organization and Rules of Orders. The Secretary of the Conference shall be an ex-officio member and one of the seven. To this Committee shall be referred any proposed Amendments to the Plan of Organization and Rules of Order. (See Rule 40.) To it may be referred any other matters relating to parliamentary order or procedure in the business of The General Conference.

This Committee shall restudy the Plan of Organization and Rules of Order and, after making such needed changes and adaptations therein as in its judgment are necessary, shall present them to The General Conference for consideration and final action, same to be published in the Journal of The General Conference.

The Plan of Organization and Rules of Order of the General Conference shall be the Plan of Organization and Rules of Order as published in the Journal of the preceding General Conference, until they have been altered or modified by the action of the General Conference. (See Par. 505, 1952 Discipline, The Methodist Church.)

(11) Sifting Committee. There shall be a Committee of seven to whom shall be referred, without motion or debate, all Questions, Proposals, Resolutions, Communications, or other matters not included in the regular business of The General Conference, as set forth in this Plan of Organization. This Committee shall determine whether or not the matter presented shall be considered by The Conference. If matters of the nature above described shall be introduced in open Conference without having been approved by this Committee, the Presiding Officer shall, as soon as he shall have discovered the character of the same, refer all such matters to this Committee without reading, and the same shall not be publicized in The Daily Advocate unless and until they have been approved and presented to The Conference by the Sifting Committee; provided, however, that should the Sifting Committee determine that any matter referred to it should not be brought before The Conference for consideration, then if a petition signed by twenty, or more, members of The Conference shall be presented to The Conference requesting consideration, unless a two-thirds vote of the members of The Conference present and voting shall refuse consideration, the matter shall be referred by the Sifting Committee to a Standing Committee of its choice.

(12) Tellers. There shall be a Committee of sixty, to act as Tellers for the purpose of reporting on count votes and ballots ordered by The General Conference. The Tellers shall be divided into two groups of thirty each. Each group shall have Reserve Tellers in such number as The Council of Bishops may deem proper.

2. Standing Legislative Committees

The General Conference shall have the following Standing Legislative Committees which shall consider all proposals looking toward new legislation or changes in the present legislation of the Church and report recommendations relating thereto to The Conference provided, however, that Reports and proposals from the regular Councils and Special Commissions of The General Conference may be presented directly to The Conference. The term "legislative," however, as descriptive of the functions of those Committees, is not to be interpreted with absolute strictness, inasmuch as they may consider matters calculated to eventuate in the form of Advices, Resolutions, Appeals, etc., as well as in legislation.

(1) Conferences. To this Committee shall be referred all Memorials, Petitions, Resolutions, etc., relating to The General, Jurisdictional, Central, Provisional Central, Annual, Provisional Annual, District, Quarterly, and Church Conferences, and Missions, and the organization of the Local Church.

(2) Education. To this Committee shall be referred all Memorials, Petitions, Resolutions, etc., relating to the Board of Education and to the interests and activities which by the law of the Church are made the concern of this Board.

(3) Lay Activities. To this Committee shall be referred all Memorials, Petitions, Resolutions, etc., relating distinctly to Lay Activities and the Board of Lay Activities.

(4) Membership and Evangelism. To this Committee shall be referred all Memorials, Petitions, Resolutions, etc., relating to church membership, including conditions, duties, and transfer thereof; and all matters pertaining to Evangelism and to the devotional life and literature of the Church, made by the law of the Church the concern of the Board of Evangelism.

(5) Ministry. To this Committee shall be referred all Memorials, Petitions, Resolutions, etc., relating to the ministry of the Church in all its forms, grades, and orders.

(6) Missions. To this Committee shall be referred all Memorials, Petitions, Resolutions, etc., relating to the Board of Missions and Church Extension and to the interests and activities made by the law of the Church the concern of this Board.

(7) Pensions. To this Committee shall be referred all Memorials, Petitions, Resolutions, etc., relating to the support of retired and supernumerary ministers, widows, and dependent children of deceased ministers, not including Bishops, and all matters relating to pensions of lay employees of Church Organizations, Boards, Agencies or Institutions.

(8) Publishing Interests. To this Committee shall be referred all Memorials, Petitions, Resolutions, etc., relating to the Board of Publication and to the interests and activities made by the law of the Church the concern of this Board.

(9) State of the Church. To this Committee shall be referred all Memorials, Petitions, Resolutions, etc., relating to social service, labor relations, Sabbath observance, divorce, amusements, and those elements, factors, and aspects of the social and spiritual welfare of the Church not made the responsibility of any other Committee.

(10) Temporal Economy. To this Committee shall be referred all Memorials, Petitions, Resolutions, etc., relating to Trustees, properties, church finance (general and local), and to such activities of the Church at large in and through its institutions and Boards as are not made the specific responsibility of any other Committee.

(11) Temperance and Prohibition. To this Committee shall be referred all Memorials, Petitions, Resolutions, etc., relating to temperance and prohibition of the liquor traffic and all matters relating to the Board of Temperance and to the interests and activities made by the law of the Church the concern of this Board.

(12) Hospitals and Homes. To this Committee shall be referred all Memorials, Petitions, Resolutions, etc., relating to the Board of Hospitals and Homes, to the interests and activities which by the law of the Church are made the concern of this Board, and to all the eleemosynary work and responsibility of the Church not comprehended in the responsibility of any other Legislative Committee.

(13) Inter-Denominational Relations and Activities. To this Committee shall be referred all Memorials, Petitions, Resolutions, etc., relating to Inter-Denominational Activities, relations, interest, and responsibilities of The Methodist Church, including the American Bible Society, the National Council of Churches of Christ in U.S.A., and the World Council of Churches.

(14) Judicial Administration. To this Committee shall be referred all Memorials, Petitions, Resolutions, etc., relating to the formal disciplining, trial, and appeal of members and ministers of The Methodist Church and relating to The Judicial Council and the Judicial procedure within the Church.

(15) Ritual and Orders of Worship. To this Committee shall be referred all Memorials, Petitions, Resolutions, etc., relating to Ritual and Orders of Worship.

(16) Enabling Acts and Legal Forms. There shall be a Committee of seven charged with the responsibility of preparing and presenting for adoption by The Conference such Enabling Acts and Legal Forms as may be needed in the continuing process of unifying the interests and agencies of the Church.

3. Membership of Committees

(1) Except as otherwise provided in the Plan of Organization, or ordered by The General Conference, the membership of all Committees shall be constituted by election of The Conference, on nomination of The Council of Bishops. In making nominations The Council of Bishops shall maintain as nearly as practicable and advisable an equal ratio of representation between Ministerial and Lay Delegates on all Committees.

(2) Legislative Committees numbered 11 to 15, inclusive (Hospitals and Homes, Inter-Denominational Relations and Activities, Judicial Administration, and Ritual and Orders of Worship Temperance and Prohibition, shall each consist of two Ministers and two Laymen from each Jurisdiction, and one Minister and one Layman from the Delegates representing Annual Conferences outside the United States.

(3) Each Delegate shall serve as a member of one of the Legislative Committees numbered 1 to 10. Within the Delegation each member shall choose from the Legislative Committees 1 to 10 the Committee on which he shall serve, the choice being made in order of election. (See footnote*) The Layman first elected shall be entitled to the first choice the Minister first elected to the second choice, and thus the right of choice shall continue to alternate between Lay and Ministerial Delegates in the order of their election; provided, that two members of a Delegation may not serve on any one of the above designated Legislative Committees 1 to 10, unless the said Delegation is represented on each of them. All Delegations composed of twelve or more members shall assign all members in excess of ten according to this same principle of distribution. (For example, a Conference with sixteen Delegates shall have two members on each of any six of these ten Committees, and one on each of the remaining four. Each Delegate may in the order of his turn to choose, select any one of these ten Committees, provided that the foregoing division of Delegates among the Committees is maintained.)

If a matter is under consideration in any Legislative Committee which in the judgment of any Annual Conference Delegation vitally affects the interests of its constituency, and if the said Annual Conference is not represented in the membership of said Committee, then the said Delegation may choose one of its number to represent its Annual Conference in the Committee when the matter judged to be vital to the interests of its constituency is under consideration. Such a person shall be entitled to sit with the Committee while this particular matter is being considered. He shall be entitled to the floor, subject to such limitations as are imposed on the regular members of said Committee, but he shall not be entitled to vote.

4. Meetings of Committees

(1) For Organization. The Legislative Committees shall

(*) FOOTNOTE: The following action was taken by the 1940 General Conference: (See page 698, Journal 1940 General Conference.)

"Your Committee recommends that the first choice on Committees should alternate from quadrennium to quadrennium between the Ministerial and Lay Delegates." This would mean that the Laymen had first choice of Legislative Committees in 1944. In 1948 the minister first elected had the first choice of Legislative Committees. In 1952 the Laymen first elected had first choice of the Legislative Committees. In 1956 the Minister first elected will have first choice of the Legislative Committees.

meet for organization on the afternoon of the first day of The General Conference sessions. Those numbered 11 to 16, inclusive, at 2:30 o'clock, and those numbered 1 to 10 inclusive, at 3:30. A Bishop appointed by The Council of Bishops and an Assistant Secretary appointed by the Secretary of The General Conference shall serve, respectively, as Chairman and Secretary to effect an organization in each of the several Committees.

- a. The first named on each of the other Committees shall act as Convenor, calling a meeting for organization at the earliest practicable date. The Secretary of The General Conference shall convene the Committee of Chairmen.
- b. The election of Chairman, Vice-Chairman, and Secretary of each Committee, both Administrative and Legislative shall be by ballot.
- c. The Assistant Secretary appointed for the organization of each Legislative Committee shall report in writing to the Secretary of The Conference at the earliest possible date the officers elected. In the case of all other Committees the Secretary elected shall make such report immediately to the Secretary of The Conference.

(2) Regular Meetings. The Legislative Committees 1 to 10, inclusive, shall meet each weekday at 2:30 P.M., unless otherwise ordered by The Conference, until their work is completed, and at such other times as the Committees may themselves determine.

Legislative Committees 11 to 16, inclusive, shall meet each weekday at 7:30 P.M., or such other times as they may themselves respectively determine until their work is completed.

(3) Quorum for Committee Meetings. A majority of the members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business in all Committees.

5. Function and Authority of Committees

(1) The Administrative Committees, without specific instruction or direction from The Conference, shall assume responsibility for considering and reporting to The Conference upon all matters which would logically fall within their respective purviews, if it seems wise to do so, as these are indicated hereinbefore.

(2) The Legislative Committees may not originate business, but shall consider and report only upon that which is referred to them directly by The Conference or through the Committee of Reference, the Sifting Committee, or the Committee of Chairmen.

VII. Proposal to Establish New Board Commission or Committee

When any proposal is submitted to The General Conference to establish an interim or continuing Board, Commission, or Committee, before final action is taken by The General Conference establishing such Board, Commission or Committee, said proposal shall be referred to the Council on World Service and Finance, or its Executive Committee, with the request that it bring to The General Conference an estimated Budget of the expense of operation of the proposed Board, Commission or Committee for the next quadrennium and a statement of how the adoption of such proposal will effect the Budget or Budgets for the existing Boards, Commissions or Committees as already presented by the Council on World Service and Finance.

VIII. Delegates' Expense Account

1. The Report of the Committee on Credentials shall be the basis for settlement with Principal and Reserve Delegates for their per diem allowance.

2. The total traveling expense shall be payable to the Principal Delegate if he be present and seated. If during the session of The Conference a Reserve Delegate is seated in his place, he shall adjust the travel expense with such Reserve on the basis of the time served by each.

3. Travel expense for Delegates to The Conference shall be on the basis of railroad fare by the most direct route (clergy fare for Ministers) lower berth or roomette (Pullman) and meals en route. Overseas Delegates will be allowed the equivalent of second class ship fare for that portion of their trip which is by water. When two or more Delegates come in one automobile the owner shall be allowed 6 cents per mile for his car plus the cost of room and meals en route. Guest passengers who are members of The General Conference shall submit only the cost of room and meals en route. In all cases Delegates shall report only the actual cost of travel.

B. RULES OF ORDER

I. DAILY SCHEDULE

Rule 1. The following shall be the daily order for The General Conference, Sundays excepted:

- (1) 8:30 A.M. to 9 A.M.—Devotional Service under the direction of The Council of Bishops
- (2) 9 A.M. to 12:30 P.M.—Conference business with recess for ten minutes at 10:30.
- (3) 2:30 P.M. to 5 P.M.—Committee Meetings.
- (4) 7:30 P.M.—Committee Meetings.

Rule 2. After devotional service the daily sessions of The Conference shall be conducted as follows:

- (1) Report of Committee on Journal of the previous meeting or meetings.
- (2) Report of Committee on Courtesies and Privileges.
- (3) Reports of other Administrative and Special Committees.
- (4) Calendar.
- (5) Miscellaneous business.

II. PRESIDING OFFICERS

Rule 3. The Bishop presiding shall be the legal Chairman of The General Conference. He shall decide Points of Order raised by the members, and shall rule on Points of Order not raised by the members, as he deems necessary to conform to these Rules of Order; subject, in both cases, to an appeal to The Conference by any member without debate; except that the Chairman and the Appellant, in the order here named, shall each have five minutes for a statement in support of their respective positions. A tie vote in the case of appeal shall sustain the Chair. When any Member raises a Point of Order he shall cite, by number, the Rule he adjudges to have been violated.

Rule 4. When the Chairman stands in his place and calls The Conference to order, no member shall speak, address the Chair, or stand, while the Chairman stands.

III. RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF MEMBERS

Rule 5. Attendance and Seating Reserves

No Member, unless hindered by sickness or otherwise from being present, shall absent himself from the sessions of The Conference without permission of The Conference, and all absentees shall be reported by the Chairman of the several Annual Conference Delegations to the Committee on Credentials on a form provided for this purpose. No Reserve Delegate shall have the privilege of membership until the substitution has been approved by The Conference, except at the first session of The Conference, as provided in the Plan of Organization, Division I, Section A, Sub-section 2b.

Rule 6. Directions for Securing the Floor

When a Delegate desires to speak to The Conference, he shall arise at his designated seat, respectfully address the Presiding Officer, using the term, "Mr. Chairman," and after recognition, proceed to the speaker's platform, where, before speaking, he shall give the Chairman, in writing, his name and that of the Annual Conference which he represents; which, in turn, the Chairman shall then announce to The Conference.

If by reason of the intended brevity of his remarks he speaks from one of the microphones in the aisles of the assembly hall, he shall first announce his name and the name of the Annual Conference which he represents, which in turn, the Chairman shall then announce to The Conference.

Rule 7. Interrupting the Speaker

No Member who has the floor may be interrupted except for a breach of order, or a misrepresentation, or to direct the attention of The Conference to the fact that the time has arrived for a Special Order, or to raise a very urgent question of high privilege.

Rule 8. Speaking More Than Once; Length of Speech

No Member shall speak a second time on the same question if any Member who has not spoken desires the floor, nor more than twice on the same subject under the same motion, nor longer than ten minutes unless his time shall be extended by The Conference, except as provided in Rule 37. This ten-minute limit may be reduced by a majority vote of the Conference at any time, and for any period of duration.

Rule 9. Question of High Privilege

A Member claiming the floor at any time for what he believes is a very urgent question of high privilege, shall be allowed to indicate briefly the nature of the question, and if it be adjudged by the Chair to be such, he may proceed at his pleasure or until the Chairman judges that he has exhausted his privilege. (See Plan of Organization, Division VI, Section 1, Subsection 3a.)

Rule 10. Voting Area of Conference

Only Delegates within the Area of The Conference when the vote is taken shall be entitled to vote. All Delegates within the Area at the time a question is put, shall vote, except such as shall have been excused for special reasons by The Conference.

Rule 11. Voting Procedure

Voting shall be by a show of hands unless otherwise ordered by The Conference. An "aye" and "no" vote if taken, shall be by signed ballot. A count vote may be ordered on call of any Member supported by one-third of the Members present and voting, in which case the Delegates shall rise from their seats and stand until counted.

No other business shall be in order when a vote is being taken or when the Previous Question has been called, until the process is completed, except such as relates to the vote itself, or that which can be appropriately fitted into the time while waiting for the Report of the Secretaries on a count vote, or an "aye" and "no" vote. The count shall be made by Members seated next to the aisles, who shall be designated by the Secretary of The General Conference, and whose names shall be printed in The Daily Advocate.

Rule 12. Division of Question

Before a vote is taken any Delegate shall have the right to call for a division of any question, if it is subject to such division as he indicates. If no Delegate objects, the division shall be made, but if there is objection the Chair shall put the question of division to vote, not waiting for a second.

Rule 13. Vote by Orders

The Ministerial and Lay Delegates shall deliberate as one body; but upon a call, by motion of any Delegate seconded by another Delegate of the same Order and supported by one-third of the Members of that Order voting, the Ministerial and Lay Delegates shall vote separately. But when The Conference votes by Orders no measure shall be passed without the concurrence of a majority of both classes of Delegates. In cases of such a vote the Order calling for it shall vote first; provided, however, that The Conference may not vote by Orders on a proposed Amendment to the Constitution. (1952 Discipline, Paragraph 10, Item 2.)

IV. BUSINESS PROCEDURE

Rule 14. Motion for Adoption of Reports and Resolution Unnecessary

Whenever a Report of a Committee signed by the Chairman and Secretary thereof, or a Resolution signed by two or more Members of The Conference, shall be presented to The Conference for its action, it shall be deemed in proper order for consideration by The Conference without the formality of a motion to adopt, and a second thereto.

Rule 15. Required Forms for Reports, Resolutions, Motions

All Resolutions and Committee Reports shall be presented in triplicate; and, when requested by the Secretary, motions, including amendments shall be presented in writing.

Rule 16. Reading of Reports and Resolutions

All Resolutions, Committee Reports, and Communications to The Conference shall be read by the Secretary except as otherwise provided in Rule 34.

Rule 17. Alterations of Motions, etc.

When a motion is made and seconded or a Resolution is introduced and seconded, or a Committee Report is read, or is published in The Daily Advocate, it shall be deemed to be in possession of The Conference, and may not be altered except by action of The Conference. (See Rule 33.)

Rule 18. Undebatable Motions

The following motions shall be acted upon without debate:

- (1) To adjourn, when unqualified, except to adjourn The Conference finally.
- (2) To suspend the rules.
- (3) To lay on the table, except as provided in Rule 37.
- (4) To take from the table.
- (5) To call for the Previous Question.
- (6) To reconsider a non-debatable motion.
- (7) To limit or extend the limits of debate.
- (8) To call for the Orders of the Day.

Rule 19. Rights of "The Main Question"

The main question may be opened to debate under the following motions:

- (1) To adopt
- (2) To commit

- (3) To refer
- (4) To substitute
- (5) To postpone
- (6) To reconsider

No new motion, Resolution, or subject shall be entertained until the one under consideration shall have been disposed of except as provided in Rule 11. The foregoing does not apply to secondary motions if otherwise allowable in the existing parliamentary situation.

Rule 20. Precedence of Secondary Motions

If any one or more of the following motions shall be made when one or more other motions are pending the order of their precedence in relation to one another shall be the same as the order of their listing below:

- (1) To fix the time to which The Conference shall adjourn. (This motion is subject to amendment, or it may be laid on the table.)
- (2) To adjourn.
- (3) To take recess.
- (4) To order the Previous Question.
- (5) To lay on the table.
- (6) To limit or extend the limits of debate.
- (7) To postpone to a given time.
- (8) To commit or refer.
- (9) To amend or to substitute (one amendment being allowed to an amendment.)
- (10) To postpone indefinitely.

Rule 21. Tabling Related Motions

No motion which adheres to another motion, or has another motion adhering to it, can be laid on the table by itself. Such motions, if laid on the table, carry with them the motions to which they respectively adhere, or which adhere to them.

Rule 22. Referring Reports, etc.

It shall be in order for The Conference to refer to a Committee a section or part of a Report or Resolution which is before The Conference for consideration, or any amendment offered thereto.

Rule 23. Procedure for Consideration of Substitutes

When a Resolution or Committee Report is properly before The Conference for consideration and action (even if amendments thereto are pending), a substitute therefor may be offered by any Member moving that the same may be substituted for the Resolution or Report under consideration. The motion to substitute may not be considered or put, however, until the original Report or Resolution is perfected, including consideration of and action on any amendments to it which may have been offered. The Conference may terminate this perfecting process by ordering the Previous Question on the motion to adopt the Report or Resolution. If this be done, the vote shall immediately be taken on any amendments, to the Report or Resolution then pending, but the vote shall not be taken on the adoption of the Report or Resolution, or on making the substitution until the substitute is also perfected. The main question, or Report, or Resolution, having been perfected, the substitute shall be considered, which consideration may be terminated at any time by ordering the Previous Question, in which case, after action on any amendments to the substitute then pending, the vote shall be taken on the motion to substitute. After this, without further notice, debate or amendment, the vote shall be taken on the motion to adopt, if the Previous Question thereon was ordered as above indicated as being allowable, or if it was ordered later. In the course of the foregoing perfecting process in the case of either the main question or the substitute, or both, the time to be consumed in presenting, considering and acting on amendments may be limited by action of The Conference. If this be done, the Previous Question may not be put on the adoption of the Report or Resolution, or on making the proposed substitution until two Members (including the Chairman of Committee presenting the Report and the member presenting the substitute, if the pending question is the adoption of a Report of a Committee) shall have spoken on each side of the proposal to substitute or adopt, as the case may be, after the motions to amend, if there be any, have been acted upon if there be those who desire so to speak.

Rule 24. Previous Question (See Rules 18-5, 23, 25, 37)

When any Member moves the Previous Question (that is, that the vote be now taken on the motion or motions pending) he shall indicate to what he intends it to apply, if any secondary motion or motions are also pending.

If he does not so indicate, it shall be regarded as applying only to the immediately pending question.

This motion shall be taken without debate, and shall require a two-thirds vote of those present and voting for its adoption, and if adopted the vote shall be taken on the motion or motions to which it applies without further debate except as provided in Rule 37.

Rule 25. Unlawful Motion After Speech

It shall not be in order for a Member immediately after discussing a pending question, and before relinquishing the floor, to make a motion whose adoption would limit or stop debate.

Rule 26. Exceptions to Majority Vote

A majority of those voting, a quorum being present, shall decide all questions with the following exceptions:

- (1) One-third of those present and voting shall suffice to sustain a call for a count vote in case the decision of the Chair is doubted. See Rule 11. A tie vote sustains the Chair, Rule 3.
- (2) A call for a vote by Orders shall prevail if sustained by one-third of the members of the Order from which the call came, present and voting. (See Rule 13.)
- (3) A two-thirds vote shall be required to sustain a motion to suspend (See Rule 39) or amend (See Rule 40) to rules; to sustain a motion for the Previous Question (See Rule 24); to set aside a Special Order; to consider a Special Order before the time set therefor, or any motion whose adoption would limit debate; to sustain the request of the Committee on Courtesies and Privileges for the presentation of any person after the sixth day of The General Conference; to sustain a petition against a ruling of the Sifting Committee.
- (4) A two-thirds vote shall be required to approve a proposal for a Constitutional amendment. (See Paragraph 10, Discipline.)

Rule 27. Reconsideration

A motion to reconsider an action of The Conference shall be in order at any time if offered by a Member who voted with the prevailing side. If the motion it is proposed to reconsider is non-debatable, the motion to reconsider may not be debated.

Rule 28. Calendar Regular: Non-Concurrence

The Secretary shall keep a Chronological Record of Orders of the Day and of Reports of Committees (See Rule 32) and this Record shall be called the Calendar, and the matters of business placed on it shall be considered in order, unless by a two-thirds vote of The Conference an item is taken up out of its order.

Legislative Committee Reports recommending Non-concurrence shall be kept upon a separate Calendar to be taken up when the regular Calendar is exhausted, or at the pleasure of The Conference, except when a Minority presents a Report recommending concurrence, in which case both shall be included in the regular Calendar.

Rule 29. Motion to Adjourn in Order Except—

The motion to adjourn, when unqualified, shall be taken without debate, and shall always be in order, except

- (1) When a Delegate has the floor.
- (2) When a question is actually put, or a vote is being taken, and before it is finally decided.
- (3) When the Previous Question has been ordered and action thereunder is pending.
- (4) When a motion to adjourn has been lost, and no business or debate has intervened.
- (5) When the motion to fix the time to which The Conference shall adjourn is pending.

The foregoing does not apply to a motion to final adjournment of The Conference.

V. COMMITTEES

Rule 30. Rules of Order of Legislative Committee

The Rules of Order of the General Conference shall be observed in meetings of Legislative Committees insofar as they apply.

Rule 31. Duties and Prerogatives of Committees

When a Memorial or Resolution or any similar item is referred to one of the several Legislative Committees, it shall be understood that the whole question with which the paper has to do is referred to that Committee for such action as it may deem wise. Committees shall report to The Conference upon all matters referred to them by The Conference directly or through the Committee of Reference. Committee Reports on Resolutions, Memorials, Petitions, etc., shall cite the same, identifying them by the numbers they bear respectively, in the published Reports of the Committee of Reference, or in some other suitable manner.

When a Committee ascertains that another Committee is or should, in its judgment, be considering a subject which the former is considering, it shall report the matter to the Committee of Reference for such adjustments as the situation may require.

Rule 32. Legislative Committees Report to Secretary

At the close of each day's meeting the Chairmen and Secretaries of the several Legislative Committees shall provide the Secretary of The Conference with copies in triplicate of all Reports adopted by their respective Committees for presentation to The Conference. The Secretary shall enter said Reports on the Calendar in the order in which they reach him, and shall furnish the editor of The Daily Advocate with one copy of each of the said Reports for publication in the next day's issue.

Reports from Committees (and Minority Reports) recommending proposed changes in the Discipline shall give Chapter Section, and Paragraph to be affected. They shall quote the language of the part it is proposed to change, underscoring it, and then state the language as it will appear if adopted, with the new part only in CAPITALS. The Daily Advocate shall follow the same rule in printing such reports substituting italics for Underscoring and Heavy Black-faced Type for CAPITALS.

Rule 33. Published Reports in Possession of Conference

A Report of any Committee signed by the Chairman and Secretary thereof and printed in The Daily Advocate shall be regarded as in the possession of The Conference, and on the day following its first appearance in The Daily Advocate, or any time thereafter, in order for its consideration at the pleasure of The Conference. The same rule shall apply to a Report of a Minority of any Committee signed by one-tenth of the members of the Committee or by ten members thereof. (See Rule 17.)

Rule. 34. Preparation and Printing of Reports

All Committee Reports shall be presented to the Secretary of The Conference in triplicate on paper provided therefor and bearing at the top the name of the Committee, its total membership, the number present at the time the Report was adopted, the number voting for and the number voting against the report respectively, and the number not voting. Reports of the Legislative Committees shall be printed in The Daily Advocate at least one day before being presented for consideration by the Conference and they shall not be read unless by its order.

Reports of Minorities of Committees adopted by them with a view to their being offered as substitutes for Committee reports shall likewise conform to this rule so far as it is applicable, indicating clearly to what Committee the respective minorities belong and for what Reports by Serial Numbers, etc., they propose the respective substitutes.

Rule 35. Committee Chairman Not in Harmony with Report

When the Chairman of a Committee is not in harmony with a Report adopted by the Committee, it shall be his duty to state the fact to the Committee, which shall elect one of its members to represent it in the presentation and discussion of the Report in the Conference; but if, in such a case, the Committee shall fail to select a representative, the Chairman shall designate a member to represent the Committee, and said representative shall have all the rights and privileges of the Chairman in relation to such Report.

Rule 36. Presentation of Report of Minority

A member selected by the signers of a Report of a Minority of a Committee to present the same, shall have the same rights and privileges in relation thereto which belong to the Chairman in the presentation of the regular (Majority) Report of the Committee, except that he may not present said Minority Report until the Majority Report has been presented, and shall then offer it as a substitute therefor, and except, further, that in closing the debate on the question of making the substitution the member presenting the Minority Report shall speak first and the Chairman last. (See Rule 23.)

Rule 37. Speakers For And Against

When the Report of a Committee is under consideration, it shall be the duty of the Presiding Officer to ascertain, when he recognizes a Member of The Conference, on which side he proposes to speak, and he shall not assign the floor to any member proposing to speak on the same side of the pending question as the speaker immediately preceding if any member desires to speak on the other side thereof.

Except for undebatable motions, no Report shall be adopted or question relating to the same decided without opportunity having been given for at least one speech for and one against the said proposal; provided that right is claimed before the Chairman or duly authorized member representing the Committee's Report or the Minority Report if there be such, is presented to close the debate.

When all have spoken who desire to do so or when (and after) the Previous Question has been ordered, the Chairman or/and duly authorized member or members presenting the Committee's Report (and the Minority Report if there be one) shall be entitled to speak before the vote is taken.

This right of the Chairman and/or other member or members to close the debate shall prevail in like manner to a limit of five minutes when a vote is about to be taken on a motion to amend, to substitute, to postpone, to refer, or to lay on the table or any other motion whose adoption would vitally affect the Report under consideration; provided that this five-minute limit shall not apply to a motion to substitute a Minority Report for a regular (Majority) Report of a Committee.

Rule 38. Legal Enactment

All actions of The General Conference of The Methodist Church shall become effective upon the final adjournment of the session of The General Conference at which they are enacted, unless otherwise specified, except as provided in Paragraph 591 of the 1952 Discipline.

VI. SUSPENDING, AMENDING, AND SUPPLEMENTING

Rule 39. Suspension of Rules

The operation of any of the provisions of this Plan of Organization or of these Rules of Order may be suspended at any time by a two-thirds vote of The Conference. Rule 26 (3).

Rule 40. Amending Rules

This Plan of Organization and these Rules of Order may be amended or changed by a two-thirds vote of The Conference; provided the proposed change or amendment has been presented to the Conference in writing and referred to the Committee on Rules, which Committee shall report thereon not later than the following day. Rule 26 (3).

Rule 41. Robert's Rules of Order Revised, Supplemental Authority

In any parliamentary situation not clearly covered by this Plan of Organization or these Rules of Order, The General Conference shall be governed in its action by Robert's Rules of Order Revised.

THE EPISCOPAL ADDRESS

OF THE BISHOPS

OF THE METHODIST CHURCH

TO THE GENERAL CONFERENCE

MINNEAPOLIS, MINNESOTA

APRIL TWENTY-FIFTH

NINETEEN HUNDRED FIFTY-SIX

The presentation of an Episcopal Address on the opening day of The General Conference has been the custom for nearly a century and a half. It is a review of the life and thought of the Church and its responsibility in contemporaneous life. The Address is written by a Bishop whom his colleagues choose by ballot. The contents are carefully and critically reviewed by the entire Council of Bishops. To it the names of all the Bishops are affixed.

It could hardly be expected that so large a company of men could agree in every detail of an Address covering so wide a range of subjects. Into the Address, however, are written the deep convictions of the Bishops and concerning its ideals and recommendations they are of one mind.

THE EPISCOPAL ADDRESS

The Bishops of The Methodist Church present this quadrennial message to The General Conference in the spirit of humility and thanksgiving. The evidences of God's presence and transforming power in human life are many and unmistakable. Today, just as in the first century, despite opposition, "the gospel is bearing fruit and expanding throughout the civilized world." Although the forces of evil are arrayed in strength against us, we are, nevertheless, "winning an overwhelming victory through Him who has given us His love." In Him we have found our strength, our protection and our safety. Therefore, with renewed confidence we proclaim Him King of kings and Lord of lords whose reign will be forever and forever.

We are reassured that "our labor cannot fail when it is linked with that of Christ." In that confidence we face the future without fear because "God has not given us the spirit of fear but of power and of love and of a sound mind."

"Glory be to God on High and on earth peace and goodwill toward men."

We pause to recall the former days and our departed colleagues in the Episcopacy. Their fellowship and labors among us are a precious memory—Robert Nathaniel Brooks, Urban Valentine Williams Darlington, Hoyt McWhorter Dobbs, Lewis Oliver Hartman, Frederick Thomas Keeney, Paul Bentley Kern, Francis John McConnell, Johann Wilhelm Ernst Sommer. "They all died in the faith not having actually received the things promised, but who seeing them at a distance hailed the sight with joy." With eyes fixed upon their true home they left us to be with God and all the company of heaven, and though "they cease from their labors their works do follow them."

We meet in this General Conference with a deep sense of our world-wide fellowship. We are thankful for that

"Dear uniting love
That will not let us part,
Our bodies may be far removed
We still are one in heart."

To our brethren, who in a time of uncertainty and in the midst of difficulties, have with unswerving devotion borne their witness to Christ, we send a message of love and assurance. "We thank God upon every remembrance of you" and we remind you that "for you our hopes are unshaken. You are not forgotten. Our anxiety is for all the churches and we never cease to thank God for you when we mention you in our prayers. You are teaching us how Christ Himself is our peace." We urge you for Christ's sake "to be careful about the way you live. Do not act thoughtlessly, but like sensible men and make the most of your opportunities." "Encourage one another with truth" and above all trust Him "who can keep you from falling and present you faultless before His presence with exceeding joy."

Our concern and responsibility are with the world-wide Church and God's Kingdom and with our relationship to both through Christ. The blessings of the gospel place upon us heavy obligations. The consideration of our responsibilities involves wide implications. The realization of our hopes requires right human action. We shall wait in vain for Christ's Kingdom to come on earth if we gaze idly and helplessly into a heaven of expectation. Vision must issue in action. We must, therefore, seek out our "Jerusalems" of service and empowerment, there to meet our Lord who goes before us, and to claim the fulfillment of His promises. While the outcome rests with God, the conditions of its realization are dependent upon men. It behooves us then to consider how we shall act, what we shall do, and with what we shall labor lest our labors be in vain and our work come to nought.

I. CONCERNING THE CHURCH

Its Mood

The mood in which we meet and deliberate needs first attention. Attitude will be a major influence upon the decisions reached and upon their acceptance and understanding by the Church. This General Conference will set an example by its own conduct. Let it be a demonstration of Christian understanding, of brotherly consideration and of unity and fellowship in the faith. Let it be an answer in Christian fellowship to the contention and division which are blighting the climate of human relations.

Our spiritual father and organizing genius, John Wesley, made the consideration of spirit the first concern of his 1744 Conference in the Foundry. There Methodism got its successful start in working together and avoiding schisms. Rules of order were secondary to rules of spiritual conduct. "Let all things be considered as in the immediate presence of God," was the first of Wesley's spiritual directives to Methodism's deliberative body. This was followed by the admonition to "meet with a single eye; to examine every point which is proposed to its foundation; to allow every person to speak freely whatever is in his heart and that every question raised be thoroughly debated and settled."

Urgency to action in the face of recurring crises has often deflected the representative Assemblies of Christendom from the cultivation of the spirit. Disappointing results have followed the neglect of a right spirit. Let us not permit this to happen here as we face major and baffling issues in the Church's life. Sensitivity to what is happening in the world is prerequisite to the victories we seek. Let us not repeat the mistakes of the past when so often the Church missed its great chance by ignoring the uncomfortable realities of the world which was its parish.

Its Environment

Methodism has a reputation for candor. Referring to the 1955 session of the British Methodist Conference, The London Times said, "The Methodist Church has never been afraid to look not only at the world but also at itself with a candid eye." The editorial rightly referred to the Conference as "the occasion when there can be forthright speaking about Methodism's position and progress." May such be the judgment of competent observers when this General Conference comes to adjournment.

The Church must seek a strategy by taking a fresh and steady look at the changing world. We believe that such a precedent is inherent in Methodist history. John Durbin, in 1836, declared that "the Constitution was to be interpreted by the history and circumstances of the times." Flexibility in application must attend the efforts of individuals and institutions who would serve the present age. But flexibility becomes the weather vane of opportunism and expedience unless it reflects, not only the circumstances of the times, but also the unchanging elements in the human scene.

Let the Church know the world it is to serve, but let the Church go forth to serve in the consciousness of its own nature, its authority, its mission and its power.

The Church, committed to our keeping, is set down in the midst of a seeking world. Possessing unprecedented material resources and scientific knowledge this generation is, nevertheless, "hungry for something more." Herein lies an opportunity comparable to those first-century experiences which gave the exponents of Christianity their chance.

But the Church must first know the nature of the need before she can administer an effective cure. The presuppositions of the past must be examined in the environment of the present before the Church can speak with authority and move with assurance. The Church's spiritual insight and alertness require a knowledge of the world in order to become an active force in "shaping things to come."

"The circumstances of the times" speak both defiantly and pleadingly to the Church.

The present age is baffled and frustrated by the multiplication of liability-producing assets. It increases its religious interest while decreasing its moral sensitivity. It acquires power and becomes progressively insecure. It accumulates knowledge but wisdom continues in short production; it multiplies human communications and blunders in human relations. It builds houses and destroys homes. It sees more but understands less.

This age of the world's most widespread political slavery is also a time of pervasive revolution. In human relations, in moral practice, in economic philosophy, in political thought and action, in spiritual concepts and in the acquisition and uses of knowledge, great changes are taking place.

Amid "the circumstances of these times" the Church is not wholly welcome nor is it completely at home. They have presented the Church with many opportunities, but they have also produced an alien climate for the Church's life and work. The Church is confronted by forces which challenge her presence and growth. There is a withdrawal from the exacting disciplines of Christianity's way of life. There is reflection upon Christianity's claim of uniqueness. There is a clever and powerful commercialism striving to make Christianity appear dull. There are its well-wishing blunders who would either shackle it to the past or identify it with every fad in thought and action produced by the passing scene, only to discover too late the truth of Dean Inge's laconic remark that "the Church which marries the spirit of the age will be left a widow in the next generation."

"The circumstances of the times" make these days an era of reconstruction. The furies of destruction seem to have spent themselves and the desire to rebuild is evident in the emerging mood of the common man. The foundations on which the world rebuilds itself, and the life it seeks to create, are spiritual as well as economic and the Church must accept its responsibility for its part in the rebuilding.

Today forces are gathering which historians believe "will determine the wave of the future." It is important that the Church prepare itself to create and direct these forces. They call "for a revival of religion which gives the individual effective spiritual help in leading his personal life." They challenge the Church to utmost spiritual exertion in propagating its faith. The Church "cannot afford to sit back and wait passively until mankind becomes disillusioned."

While seeing with an accurate eye what is taking place around us, let us in this General Conference "prepare (our) minds and fix (our) hopes calmly and unfalteringly upon the boon that is soon to be ours." The Church can meet these new situations with assurance when faith and work unite in the presentation of our gospel.

Its Nature

In times past the Church has missed many opportunities because it did not recognize its nature nor exercise the power and authority which sprang from its divine origin. Uncertain and fearful it buried its talent when it should have invested it, though the age was hazardous. Its thoughts then were too much upon what it had become rather than on what it was and ought to be.

Serving amid "the circumstances of the times" and directing "the wave of the future" require the Church to know its origin and destiny.

John Wesley set the example for this pattern in Conference procedure. Acquainting his followers with the true nature of the Church was a major educational task with him. Knowledge, he knew, was essential to understanding. And though his day was a time of spiritual and social urgency, crying out for immediate action, the minutes of his first Methodist Conference indicate his concern that the people called "Methodists" should think and believe before they would act.

In the commendable eagerness of Methodism to become contemporary and relevant the Wesley point of view is a counsel of effectiveness. Unless the Church for today relates its thinking and planning to history and seeks its authority and function in the knowledge of its origins, the fulfillment of its destiny will have to await a wiser generation of Churchmen.

Methodists ought to know how Wesley thought of the Church committed through him to their care. Wesley believed the Church to be divine in its origin and destiny; that it came from God and must move toward God. Our declaration that the Church is of God and will endure to the end of time is within the Wesleyan tradition.

Wesley found his doctrine of the Church in the Bible. Cutting through human traditions he saw the Church of the first century as "a congregation of faithful men in which the pure word is preached and the sacraments duly administered according to Christ's ordinances." Projecting itself through the ages it has been a fellowship of "men having the form and seeking the power of godliness, united in order to pray together, to receive the word of exhortation and to watch over one another in love, that they might help each other to work out their salvation."

Wesley held the belief that the Church is universal, though segmented in his day through organization.

Wesley rescued the term "catholic" from its parochial prison and restored it to freedom of association with all true believers. "The Catholic Church," he said, "is all persons in the universe whom God has so called out of the world as to entitle them to the proceeding character: as to be one in body, united by one spirit, having one faith, one hope, one baptism, one God and Father of all who is above all, through all and in all."

To him the Church was no "human affair," created by men and therefore belonging to men. Its nature is divine, its organization pragmatic and its function contemporary. Flexibility, relevance and transcendence make it timeless and man's "attendance, prayer, gifts and service" mediate its means of grace.

Its Authority

To this age such a Church is expected to minister with a firm and steady hand and speak with a clear and commanding voice. The assumption that man has repudiated authority is a misreading of the facts. It is a more accurate interpretation of the facts to say that authority in human life has been assaulted. An artificial climate of authority has been created by the external pressures of coercion and persecution designed to shatter the inner compulsions of life on which all valid authority is based. But the common man seeks authority. He still wants to know what is truth and who has the right to say so. The Church misjudges its constituency when it assumes that standards of truth are no longer looked for nor responded to. The Church defeats itself when it exchanges its divine revelation for a materialistic relativism and seeks to be heard by its facility in spiritualizing current opinion. Where there has been recent notable stirrings of religious interest they have been produced by proclamation of truth and not by a forum on its alternatives and relative merits.

Let it be said of Methodists, speaking to the world through this General Conference, that "there has been no equivocation about our message." Let us re-establish the landmarks of the Kingdom of God in plain sight for this questing and moving age. Let us re-set the signposts of Christian truth so that "he who runs may read."

Proclaiming the right of private judgment and the freedom of individual conscience, we must exercise them within our fellowship and fight for their re-establishment and preservation in the world. Claiming the right of decision we must justify it by making the right decisions. Holding to freedom with responsibility we must inculcate a new respect for experience through an interpretation of its lessons as a current guide to action. Utilizing the axiom in the application of scientific knowledge, we must not surrender its use in the validation of spiritual knowledge. Speaking to man's spiritual nature we must revive the language of revealed truth. Granting man the power to decide, the Church must open for him the Book which Protestantism holds as the rule and guide to man's faith and practice. Knowing the power of example, let the Church make sure that with candor and sincerity she can say, "Believe me for the very works' sake."

II. CONCERNING THE CHURCH'S MISSION

The Church needs a clear and compelling sense of its mission. Only an awareness of the significance of its mission and the dedication of its people to its realization will release its power to reach its goal. Strange times are not a formidable foe to the Church provided Christians keep their spiritual bearings while living and laboring amid adverse conditions. The Disciples of Jesus met successfully the resistance to their new religious experience because they knew where they were going and what they were commissioned to do. They heard the Master's voice above the babel of the competing voices of their day. They did not lose sight of their Major Commission to go, to preach, to teach, and to baptize and to make disciples. They were strengthened by the experience of His presence. They reached their decisions by the use of His methods. Therefore, they succeeded. The Church today has no less on which to proceed. If we seek it "God will give us perfect insight into His secret purpose and understanding of it in following the design He planned to carry out in Christ, that everything in heaven and earth should be unified in Christ's reign until He hath put everything under His feet and made Him the indispensable Head of the Church."

Our commission likewise is "to go, to preach, to teach, to baptize and to make disciples." What this means in terms of everyday experience for the Church and the world is the business of this General Conference.

Issues

For the accomplishment of this mission the Church must have a knowledge of the current issues which challenge it. Too often in ecclesiastical warfare great effort is wasted in fighting yesterday's battles. Epochs come and go. Issues change. And just as the Church of the hour must listen to what the centuries say, so the Church of the centuries must be aware of the spirit of the age.

The issues which the Church confronts are many. We call attention to a few of them. Freedom is one of the issues which stands either to thwart or advance the mission of the Church, and religious freedom is fundamental to the preservation of all other freedoms. "For the freedom that man needs, religion seems now to be the last bulwark and the final battleground." Wise men warn the Church that "religion may be the only field left for freedom of any kind in the world into which we are now moving." The nature of the freedom the Church must defend, as well as who and what are that freedom's enemies, and how they can be met and overcome, are primary concerns for an effective strategy on behalf of the Church's mission. The exercise of freedom must not be destroyed because some have taken advantage of it to do wrong. The Christian Church must fight for the right to meet all ideologies in "the free market of ideas."

Brotherhood is also a universal issue which touches the mission of the Church at every point. The Christian principle of brotherhood based upon the sacredness of the individual and his high value in the sight of God is being challenged by religious and political forces. It is being questioned also because of its slow application and adjustment to the growing conception of the human family as one. Here the Church has a two-fold task in fulfilling its mission. While applying the principle of Christian brotherhood universally, a quality of life must also be developed to sustain that brotherhood against the pressures of self-interest which surround it. The fatal weakness of many noble attempts to further brotherhood without the Christian mind and spirit lies in an inability to withstand the pressures of expediency and self-advancement. Qualifying for brotherhood is a prerequisite for those who demand the right of brotherhood.

The new birth, as well as the changed environment, is also an issue which involves the Church in the attainment of its goal. That the Kingdom of God comes from within is the root which nurtures the Christian society. But the principle of spiritual causation and of the logic of moral consequences are currently discounted in many popular versions of the drama for the better life. Man sins in such modern stories, but does not pay. He changes his world, but not himself. The Church cannot let a world destroy itself by a devotion to a principle of development whose falsity all experience confirms. A better world requires better men. What manner of person we ought to become is a consideration basic to the better world we seek to create.

Christianity's uniqueness is another issue where the Church meets serious opposition. Its enemies, seeing the source of Christianity's power in the maintenance of this claim, have sought to nullify it by specious argument and libelous caricature. Such attacks cannot go unchallenged. The acceptance of something less than the revelation of God in Christ may offer immediate advantages for some forms of Christian activity, but ultimately it corrupts the Church's life and deflects it from its mission. The superiority which Christianity claims lies in its power when wholly accepted. It is not the conferred superiority of special privilege reserved only for the culture which has espoused it. Its claim is to superior life like Christ's for all who accept, understand and apply its offer. The new patriotism of nationalism which attacks Christianity for its supreme loyalty to Christ calls the Church to a restatement of the reasons for its position.

A sympathetic understanding of the millions of people whose form of government is changing is essential if their religious needs are to be met. Neither economic nor political adjustments alone can produce the abundant life. The Gospel of Christ must be made relevant and available if the objectives of people striving for self-realization are to be reached.

There is a line behind which the Church cannot retreat if it is to insure itself an opportunity to make a Christian civilization. The Church must insist on the right to be heard on the merits of its mission fairly expressed and honestly judged. We ask no more but we can accept no less. The situation calls for a consideration of the price to be exacted not only for victory, but also for the temporary defeats that Wesley, Luther and the first Christians faced. In a weary age enamored with the easements of compromise.

the Church cannot yield either its rights or principles. Tacking with the winds of public sentiment and popular but passing attitudes gets the Church nowhere. Standing on the Christian ground of "finality with tolerance" Methodism interprets its mission in a world where both finality and tolerance are widely denied.

Achievements

The Church needs to review its achievements. Sensitive to its failures it forgets and allows the world to ignore its successes. The Church has not been idle nor ineffective. Methodism's current record of activity profits by comparison with the past. This has been a quadrennium of records exceeded. We have raised and expended more money for others and ourselves than in any previous quadrennium. As Methodism's part in financing the world mission, over 150 millions of dollars through World Service, the Advance for Christ, Conference Benevolences and the Woman's Society of Christian Service have been contributed during the quadrennium. Although disrupted and immobilized by World War II and its after effects, 1,500 Methodist missionaries are now helping 5,000 nationals carry on the Christian mission in upwards of fifty countries and in 125 languages and dialects. There are more Methodist educational institutions in other countries than in the United States. This ratio is also true of hospitals, clinics, dispensaries, social centers and orphanages. In social evangelism the Church outside the United States is conducting an experiment which may show the Church in the United States the way to succeed in a most difficult evangelistic field. The Church visible outside the United States has grown significantly in membership and in the number of baptized persons under instruction. With no figures available for the mainland of China the total Methodist membership, including preparatory members outside the United States, is now more than 1,200,000 and its Church School enrollment is more than 500,000. The Centennial of Methodism in India, Norway and Switzerland, to be celebrated in 1956, and in Japan to be observed in 1959, give the occasion for acquainting the entire Church with its power and work in these great lands. What has been accomplished in these countries is a source of deep satisfaction and encouragement to all Christians. Their present witness is a world-wide force for good.

The record of achievement for missions and church extension within the United States and its territories is equally encouraging. The Division of National Missions is now directing 2,700 home mission projects in the United States and its possessions. Outstanding is the leadership which has been given to the establishment of new churches which a population growth of 15% in a decade requires. During the quadrennium 1,200 new Methodist churches have come into existence. To advance this work in the fiscal year of 1954-55, $2,800,000 was loaned or given to 950 projects of church expansion by the Section of Church Extension.

The detailed accomplishments which will be reported to the General Conference by the Division of World Missions, the Division of National Missions, and the Woman's Division of Christian Service, are the result of statesmanlike guidance on the part of our Methodist leadership and of confident response on the part of our Methodist constituencies. New approaches form a large part of the story. Praise for their achievement and gratitude for their devoted service belong to them.

The world is coming alive. Shackles forged by eras now passing are being removed. Economic, social and intellectual emancipation are inevitable for all people. The world movements of liberation present problems which the Church cannot ignore. They require understanding by the Church and an identification with the struggle to establish Christian standards. They need the guidance of Christ's mind and the ethics of His conduct to achieve the good life.

The world is involved in a war of the spirit, a decisive war, the outcome of which will determine the shape of the things to come in every area of human activity. Our mission puts us in the midst of this struggle. Out of the deliberation and provision of this General Conference strength sufficient for victory must issue.

III. CONCERNING THE CHURCH'S CHALLENGE

While the achievements of the quadrennium are a cause for rejoicing, at no point can Methodism write "mission accomplished." On all fronts we have no alternative but to press forward "that those who have not been told about Him shall see and those who have not heard shall understand."

Life

The Church is faced with the necessity of increasing its vitality. Forces are at work in the world, open and devious, active and latent, which would limit and destroy its life. The assumption that the Church will endure to the end of time involves man's action as well as God's power. Thought and effort are required of us now to insure the universal witness of the Church for tomorrow. The Church will be judged by the side of nationalism, communism, paganism and materialism for its ability to serve mankind. Can the Church maintain its universality in the face of a rising nationalism? Can the Church propagate its uniqueness in expanding communist areas? Can the gospel be transmitted without the clothes of the culture which takes it? Can we prevent secularism from extinguishing the Church's spirit? Can we maintain organic and vital oneness in world Methodism? These are the questions now being discussed in all branches of Methodism and they require an affirmative answer.

Expansion

The Church is likewise confronted by a challenge to its expansion. The forces seeking the containment of Christianity offer the Church the right of existence but deny it the opportunities for growth. Christianity cannot accept this offer. By its nature Christianity dies if it does not grow. The Church cannot endorse or acquiesce in this untenable definition of religious freedom.

A static Church, satisfied with a "normal" growth and an institutional witness, cannot save the world. The times require more strenuous efforts and the expectation of unusual success. A continuation of institutional expansion, a greatly multiplied personal witness and organizational growth, comparable to the gains recorded in the days of Methodism's greatest enthusiasm, are the Church's guarantees that even the gates of hell cannot prevail against it. Attack, although it be in the nature of a siege, calls for vigorous counter-attack. The Church has no alternative but to take the field and risk all on the outcome.

How the Church thinks of its task and opportunity and what it does with its resources are the responsibility of all those who participate in its activities. With many of our membership contributing nothing and rendering no active service, the Church has a problem of ecclesiastical and spiritual logistics to deal with before it can assume the offensive in an all-out struggle for men's souls. When the Master, pointing to thousands of American communities without a church and relaying the Macedonian call for institutions and personnel in all of the countries where The Methodist Church is at work, bids us "give them to eat," it will be futile to discuss policy and method if we have not mobilized and consecrated our resources.

The spirit of the pioneer who responds to new frontiers will bring reinvigorating power to a Church tempted to be satisfied with its present pattern of achievement.

Fellowship

The task of re-establishing good public relations is also a major concern of the Church. Decades of incessant and world-wide propaganda against the Church have created barriers of ignorance and misunderstanding which require attention. Good will, however, is not always synonymous with popularity. Nor is it to be measured by toleration and security. The good will the Church requires for its work goes deeper into life than the fickle and superficial expressions of popularity. The modern methods of propaganda make popularity today a simulated reaction. The re-establishment of respect through a consistency which unites precept and example, and a demonstration of Christianity's power to produce and maintain a good life in the midst of the world's spiritual and social neuroticism, will inspire in the common man a confidence that no coercion can undermine.

Frontiers

The Church faces the challenge of a new and difficult frontier and will need to equip itself for survival amid these frontier conditions. Churchless communities are not simply a condition of the past. They are multiplying with the increasing mobility of present-day populations and they often remain churchless by the will of the communities themselves. City churches in too great numbers now stand as monuments to the life which once surrounded them and represent potential power now made impotent by a refusal to change their ministry to meet the city's spiritual need. Many of them are "waiting for the stirring of the waters" and for some organizational impetus to "push them in."

An area of ignorance is now invading the most literate sections of the world, especially ignorance of religion. The motion picture and the novel have taken great liberties in dealing with the religious themes they present. Historic accuracy and spiritual interpretation have been sacrificed on the altar of commercialization in response to popular demand. In a country which boasts the highest requirements for universal education the prevalence of religious illiteracy is disturbing.

The frontier of changing social and economic conditions presents the Church with its most fateful challenge. The Bandung Conference focused the world's attention on irresistible forces working to release Asia and Africa from many forms of bondage. This Conference spoke to the Church as well as to the State. The questions raised by this Conference must be answered by the Church in a way which will avoid the tragedies which occur when power is simply transferred rather than consecrated. The answer must unite all mankind in obedience to the Highest Power.

The challenge of the Church's mission is a call to obedience to the Divine Directive, to partnership with all who share Christ's sufferings and seek to do His work, to faith in the achievement of our highest hopes, to work with each other and with Christ for God.

IV. CONCERNING THE CHURCH'S RESOURCES

What are the prospects for advancing significantly the mission of the Church during the coming quadrennium? The answer will be determined in part by the resources and what the Church does with these resources.

People

One of Methodism's indispensable assets is its people. From the beginning its concern has been primarily with people and its vindication has been the people's response. The Methodist Church in the United States now has a membership of 9,313,278 and a preparatory membership of 1,187,805. This represents a gain of 2.4% for the quadrennium and should be evaluated in the light of the fact that during the quadrennium upwards of 1,000,000 inactive members were removed from the membership roll. The percentage of growth is greater in countries outside the United States where The Methodist Church is at work. Of the non-church members now in the United States it may be assumed on the ratio of strength and support that more than ten million of them would have some tie to the Methodist tradition. Leaders on our world mission fields do not estimate possible constituencies because they are limited only by our provision for reaching them.

Thus the human resources for establishing the rule of Christ are abundant. From experience we know that people respond in proportion to the recognition of their need and the ability of the Church to minister to their spiritual requirements. The Church is under obligation to make a continual study of people as people and to bring to their need the Christian cure.

Significant facts emerge in a diagnosis of man's state in the world today. The first is his need for spiritual wholeness. Divided moral loyalties, conflicting ethical standards, waning concepts of truth leave him frustrated and confused. Many find it too much for them and they either sink or drift. The medical profession estimates that more than fifteen million Americans need clinical treatment for their psychological ills and the number of so-called normal persons needing some practical help is many times that figure. To the Church they lift this question, "Canst thou minister to a mind diseased?" And the Church, when it fails to realize the possession of the power to cure, sets them adrift, often to seek treatment from the atheistic rather than the Christian psychiatrist.

The Church has a proven remedy. It is not the spiritual sedation of a success gospel, "some sweet oblivious antidote" by which the Church seeks to effect this cure. It is a process through which a man comes "to live his life in relation to God." "By it," John Wesley said, "we are saved from uneasiness of mind, from the anguish of a wounded spirit, from discontent, from fear and sorrow of heart, and from that inexpressible listlessness and weariness both of the world and of ourselves that we have so helplessly labored under. The love of God for all mankind we believe to be the medicine of life for all the evils of a disordered world, for the misery and vices of man. Wherever this is there are virtue and happiness going hand in hand."

It is time that the Protestant Church recognized these psychological and spiritual needs in so large a part of its constituency and sought to meet them through all of its manifold ministries.

The need for unity can best be ministered to by the Church when it is related to the current desire for fellowship. People are lonely and afraid in a world where modern science has eliminated distances and herded mankind together. The divisions are sharper and mankind is more conscious of them in a world where people are constantly rubbing elbows. The appeal of dialectic materialism for a "classless society" cannot be disassociated from the desire of people to be at one with each other. Tragedy has resulted when the Church has not demonstrated its possession of the true "classless society" which is the product of Christian brotherhood. The only true "classless society" is in Christ. Its genuineness displays the Christian label. The hope of unity through fellowship lies in a transcendent constraint and loyalty which binds all men to God through Christ and constrains them by that loyalty to live together as brothers.

The Church can also count on a sympathetic response from people to whom it offers its ministries. Their restlessness, they know, relates itself to their souls even though they may seek desperately for peace by means which deny this relationship. The response to visitation evangelism, where rebuffs are the exception and were commitments to the Christian way of life have averaged one out of three appeals, should encourage the Church to maximum effort in its chief business of saving souls. The years which lie immediately ahead can witness a world-wide advance in Christian living as amazing as the advances which have already been made on the economic levels if the Church proves worthy of this opportunity.

The people whom the Church seeks to bring into the Christian fellowship welcome an authority which respects the rights of their personality while providing a firm basis on which to build. In their hearts they are done with the quicksands of moral and intellectual relativism and the tyranny of dogmatism, be it political, social or religious. The Church will miss its opportunity if it mistakes the questioning of its authority as a signal to argument rather than as an appeal for elucidation. Behind the demand to know is the desire to be told plainly.

The times call likewise for special consideration of certain groups within the Church's constituency. The non-church members in the United States, though greatly reduced in percentages, still constitute 40% of the population. Inactive church members add another 20% to the total number in the population with no vital relation to the Church. The possibilities for recruiting new members outside the United States are even more favorable. The tendency for the Church to become static and content to hold its own is a beguiling temptation. The growth of Church membership to be rightly evaluated should be studied in relation to the expansion of "rival faiths" such as communism and the "nationalistic" religions including western secularism. The question, "Is Methodism becoming a static Church?" needs realistic consideration.

Methodism has a special responsibility in the field of evangelism. Fortunately the Methodist Board of Evangelism is equipped and alert to lead the Church in meeting its responsibility. Our Methodist message has been characterized as "an evangelism which is permanently congenial to a large part of humanity to whom it speaks in an idiom of peculiar congruency." It speaks to the people and their needs. Let us seek, therefore, the ways to maintain this power to speak a spiritual language which the common man understands.

The importance of youth as a resource in extending the rule of God is gaining the recognition it deserves in the thought of the Church. The General Conference of 1952 wisely instructed the Church "to place special emphasis during the quadrennium 1952-56 upon developing, improving and extending its Youth Program and upon reaching increased numbers of youth for the Christian life and membership in the Church." No world movement in modern times has come to power without capturing and utilizing the young people. Often the forces of exploitation are wiser in this respect than the children of light. Juvenile delinquency has its origins in the neglect of the young. The Church has been retarded in its mission because it has surrendered too often the young to other character-molding agencies. The cure for juvenile delinquency is basically spiritual. The Church must realize that it is both the custodian and the mediator of the four experiences which young people seek: the experience of being loved, the sense of security, the feeling of belonging and the consciousness of importance.

The gains recorded by The Methodist Church in its work with young people are significant. The Methodist Youth Fellowship has stopped the losses in youth membership and reports a gain of more than 118,000 for the quadrennium. Through "The Christian Witness" mission over 100,000 commitments to Christ were secured by Methodist youth. Encouraging also is the report that in one Lenten reading project young people purchased more than 300,000 books on our faith and our Church. Most significant has been the Church-sponsored Conferences for Youth which recognized their varied interests. The challenge of the Church to youth has become more realistic also, sensing the response of youth to the authority of truth, their eager capacity for dynamic loyalty and their insistence upon candor. The young have amazed this age by their response to a crusading challenge, their uncringing facing of the rigors of the good life, their lack of response to a religion of few demands and to a life of pampered security. Their story is a bright page in contemporary Church history. Often the young lead their elders and always they need their elders' help.

Our chief hope for securing the leadership required to fulfill our Christian mission lies in effective recruitment of our Methodist youth. The General Conference of 1948 created the Inter-Board Committee on Christian Vocations which is the recruitment arm of ten co-operating Boards and Agencies of the Church. It brings the call of full-time Christian service to the hearts of our young people at the local church level. Last year almost 29,000 young people in 73 Annual Conferences participated in Christian Vocations Institutes. The necessity for thus developing leadership in the Church in other countries and the present appeals for leadership in the Church within the United States call for increased attention to the recruitment and preparation of our young people for Christian life service.

What has been done with the young people provides encouragement to undertake what needs to be done for the youth in the United States still unreached by the efforts of the Church.

Family life the world around calls for the special attention of the Church. The family is traditionally the bulwark of the Christian faith. While much remains to be done to lift the quality of living within the home, hopeful signs appear everywhere. In spite of the coarsening effect of many mass media upon child life and of the threat of secularism to the solidarity of the home, men and women are increasingly devoted to family living. The family is returning to the practice of doing things together. Parents are eager to improve their relations with their children. Families are growing in size. 4,065,000 babies were born in the United States in 1954, the largest number of any year in our history. The home is of growing significance in our day. The establishment of the Christian home releases influences for good in all phases of human life. Paradoxically in the year 1953, when America reached a new high of 1,106,000 in the number of houses built, the number of homes dissolved by divorce is still alarmingly high. The statistics for 1953 indicate that there were 2,280,000 divorced persons living in the United States. The seriousness of the situation is indicated by the fact that there are now some 4,500,000 women and children in the United States whose lives have been darkened by desertion. The broken home is rightly credited with a tragic brood of social and personal ills. While the ineffectiveness of religious agencies in dealing with marital disasters cannot be blamed entirely for the situation which confronts us, they must assume their share of condemnation at the points where they have failed to do their duty toward the preservation of Christian family life. The New Testament pattern of family life—what it is, how it is created and preserved, its authority and cohesion—has been overshadowed by a secular pattern whose appeal is to physical gratification and emotional and social irresponsibility. The Christian concept of marriage as a spiritual contract confronts a resurgence of the pagan conception which would reduce the marriage contract in effect to a matter of registration. The Christian position must be lifted up in clear definition and made relevant to the conditions of modern life. "If there is a Christian pattern of family life, if there is a Christian doctrine of marriage and a Christian teaching on divorce, tell us plainly," say the common people.

A step forward in strengthening the Christian conception of marriage and the home has been made in the identification of the forces in modern life which cause their deterioration. A changing urban culture has increased transiency. Employed mothers now constitute one third of the labor forces. Activities associated with modern living outside the home siphon off energies and interests needed to make family life attractive and Christian. Emphasis upon the physical aspects of marriage has tended to reduce consideration of its spiritual aspects.

Increased participation by the Church in dealing with situations which affect family life is bringing to the individual new power in developing Christian family relations. The Methodist Family Life Conference, supported by Methodism's fine Christian homes which look to it for guidance, has already demonstrated its value. It is expanding in influence and opportunity and has commended itself as a constructive antidote to the pagan influences which have infiltrated modern home life.

Methodism has discovered the tremendous resources of the Laity. The union of the three branches of Methodism provided a large place for Lay Leadership and activity in the new Church organization and the rapid growth of the churches lifts up certain important questions regarding this relationship. The philosophy of Lay participation in Methodism needs to be popularized in order that the returns of Lay Activity in the work of the Kingdom may be commensurate with the potential. The quest for a program of participation is the increasing concern of the General Board of Lay Activities. During the quadrennium notable progress has been made in clarifying the function of Lay Activity in the Local Church and in developing services for the Laity to render. The formation of more than 10,000 Methodist Men's Clubs constitutes one most promising result of these efforts.

Clerical leadership in encouraging and developing Lay Activity is likewise needed. An expanding church will require greater Lay participation under Clerical direction. With the current shortage of ministers, the preaching and teaching function of the Laity could be put to much wider use. Church life in most communities, restricted now by lack of workers, has the Lay resources for revitalization if they are quickened by a sense of mission and channeled to the work which is suited to their aptitude.

The Church needs also to be alerted to the necessity of calling its most gifted Lay people to leadership. Too often leadership is assigned to the available or the willing rather than to the able and talented. Not only in the Local Church is this need to recruit the ablest Lay Leadership apparent, but it should also be a major concern in the selection of representation in the Annual Conference where Laymen participate equally with the Clergy on the level of decision.

Our Laity deserve more attention and help in developing their service to the Kingdom. They have contributed greatly to Methodism's success. Their largest contribution and deepest satisfaction come through participation in all of the work of the Church.

Education

The power of education to mold personality and to fix the pattern of society makes it a major resource for the Church's mission. No way of life in modern times has come to acceptance and control without the effective use of the educational resources.

Education is a function the Church cannot surrender nor neglect if its purpose is to give mankind a Christian mind.

In the beginnings of American Protestantism the importance of education guided by a Christian philosophy was wisely recognized. The first Protestant churches had two pastors, one to preach and one to teach. Religious education, now a major activity of the Church, had its origin in the convictions of our founding Fathers who believed that those who were to direct the material resources of a nation must be educated in the moral and spiritual values of life. Eight of the nine colonial colleges still surviving were founded by the Church. A valid explanation for the absence of any religious provision in early American law is the assumption that the recognition of the spiritual in education at that time was axiomatic. The historic influence of the Church in higher education in the United States may be appreciated through the fact that today 30% of the university students are in institutions sponsored by the Church.

Methodism has always recognized the primacy of education as a religious responsibility. The first two questions asked in the first Methodist Conference of 1744 were: "What shall we teach?" and "How shall we teach?" The time has come for the Church to restate its position.

The major educational concerns of Methodism have been threefold, centering in the public school, the Church School and the Christian college. Co-operation with educational leaders in achieving the highest functioning of the public school system in terms of the intellectual and moral development of the pupils and the enrichment of the national life has been characteristic of Methodists. Praise should be given to the men and women of Christian character and high moral purpose who are devoting their lives to public education. The public school, as well as the private school, is a fundamental part of America's pattern of education. It is a public responsibility whose adequate support by tax funds is justified. We are unalterably opposed to the diversion of such funds to the furtherance of private and sectarian schools. We, therefore, reaffirm our pledge to support the traditional American position regarding the function, conduct and maintenance of the public schools.

Methodism from the beginning has sought to develop an effective system of Christian education in its churches. The Report of the Board of Education's Division of the Local Church indicates the measure of its success. Losses have been turned into gains. Building and equipment estimated to cost $225,000,000 has been supplied during the quadrennium. Every phase of Christian education has been studied for the purpose of improvement. One sixth of the total number of Protestant students receiving religious training are enrolled in the schools of the Methodist churches, and more than 500,000 men and women are giving their services voluntarily to provide this instruction. The conditions have been met which, with larger support, assure significant progress in the coming quadrennium.

Higher education has likewise been a major concern of Methodism. Its present service is not fully realized. In addition to the 113 schools and colleges related to The Methodist Church, which provide education for one out of ten of the Nation's college students, there are 164 Wesley Foundations on college and university campuses. In-service education for 15,000 ministers is conducted through its Pastors' Schools and Correspondence Courses. It administers a Loan and Scholarship Fund for students which distributed $1,500,000 during the quadrennium. Today these services are threatened by the problems of mounting costs, expanding needs and the necessity for providing better campus facilities. While the annual giving of the churches for current maintenance of the colleges has increased during the last quadrennium, the goal of one dollar per member is a minimum requirement if Church-related Methodist colleges are to remain solvent and efficient. Furthermore, it is predicted that the number of young people going to college will double by 1970. To retain the Methodist student ratio of one in ten, facilities for at least 250,000 additional students must be provided.

Advantageously situated, Methodist higher education must have greatly increased financial support in order to fulfill its obligation to the Church, the community and to its youth.

Christian education, however, is not compartmental. It is all of one piece. Unless the Church is prepared to strengthen and expand its entire educational structure, the refurbishing of only one phase of it, whether it be in the Local Church or on the college campus, will fail to accomplish the total educational achievement of the Church's mission.

The extent of this expansion and the provision of increased support are basic concerns for this General Conference. They compel a consideration of the ground work on which the structure of a Christian society is built. They must take into account the spiritual "I.Q." of every individual on all levels from childhood to maturity. They require a realization that every person is a teacher whose obligation cannot be delegated. They demand the knowledge of an adequate Christian philosophy of education to inform the mind, to direct the will, elevate the thought, cultivate the tastes and create the dominant desires of mankind. They can be implemented only through a major crusade for adequate financial support.

The work of strengthening Christian education demands a realistic consideration of the provisions necessary to accomplish this educational task. More time must be devoted to it by the rank and file of Christian men and women. Better programs must be devised. More thought must be given to the historic Christian position than to the current secular opinion. Better equipment and resources in the home, church, community and college will be needed if the challenge is to be met. Larger financial provision will be required.

The setting for advance has been well laid. We, the Bishops of the Church, heartily support the proposals which will be made to this General Conference, calling the Church to a crusade for Christian education comprehensive in its scope and sufficient for the needs it encounters. We ask that the need be fully defined and that all of our people be acquainted with it. We urge upon the Church the courageous vision to undertake all that is required to give people everywhere the Christian mind. We believe that our people await a plan set forth by The General Conference to achieve this educational objective and to its successful accomplishment we commit ourselves.

The Ministry

use and replenishment of the ministerial resources needed for the accomplishment of the Church's mission.

Many Methodists do not realize the unusual asset the Church has in its ministerial resources nor the Methodist philosophy of their use. Overlooking these facts may lead to attitudes and policies which deter if not destroy the realization of Methodist objectives. The Methodist system of ministerial supply and administration is unique in Protestant polity.

At the present time there are 26,649 Ministerial Members of the Annual Conferences in the United States and its possessions, 6,234 approved Supply Pastors and 6,092 Ministers and Missionaries in our Overseas Conferences. One out of eight Methodist Ministers in the effective relation is serving in some type of special Appointment. Our Parish Ministers give pastoral oversight to more than 12,000,000 members and preparatory members of The Methodist Church.

A survey of our ministerial resources reveals a tremendous reservoir of power and poses serious questions concerning their preparation, use and replenishment. These concerns are fundamental since what the Church does about them will determine what can be done in every other area of the Church's Program.

Methodism's ministry may be called indigenous since it comes almost entirely from its own membership and actually supplies a considerable number of Ministers for other denominations. It is unique in its employment of the Local Preacher for the pastoral ministry. While in some Denominations 25% of the churches are reported to be without permanent pastors, there are virtually no churches, large or small, in Methodism without settled pastoral service and oversight. This unusual record in the provision for pastoral services to the churches becomes more significant when associated with the fact that 12% of the Methodist Ministers in the effective relation are set aside for some special service, either within the Denomination or with some related Church activity.

This record of Ministerial Supply and its employment is responsible for the leadership which produces the tremendous volume of Christian work by our people in and through the churches. Any adjustment of our Ministry to meet modern conditions should be evaluated by its ability to maintain the flow and effectiveness of this leadership.

We who are charged with the oversight of these Ministers pay them a well-deserved tribute for their dedication and their devotion to the work "whereunto they have been called." They are dedicated men and women who look on their ministry as "no human affair." We likewise recognize that their preparation and commitment are important factors in the service they render. We are concerned with the increasing tendency to multiply activities and to enlarge the machinery of organization which take the time and drain the energy of these men of God from the performance of their chief function. Activity is by no means synonymous with accomplishment and a reduction of activity of the "wheel spinning" variety, along with the development of trained lay employment in the temporal and organizational phases of church life, would result in much greater success in the preacher's "chief business" which is to save souls in the widest application of this commission.

The recruitment and preparation of the Ministry for the future is an immediate responsibility of the Church. While the figures on recruitment are encouraging, the statistics on preparation are disquieting. Every Bishop reports a response from his ablest young men to the challenge to listen for and respond to God's call to preach. The facilities and the means for their preparation, however, present a partially closed door through which this stream of called and dedicated youth would pass. Methodism's ten theological seminaries in the United States have more than 3,000 students now enrolled, a maximum number for their present facilities. Places are available in our Methodist seminaries for only five out of seven Methodist students now pursuing their theological studies. While there were 864 Methodist graduates from the seminaries in 1954, there were 1,129 Ministers removed from the itinerant ranks. This meant a replacement shortage of 20% with no additional Ministers provided for the current multiplying functional ministerial services and for new churches which should be established. To supply these services it is estimated that 6,800 additional Ministers will be needed during the coming quadrennium. The provision for financial aid to the theological seminaries from World Service amounting to $800,000 a year has helped but not met the demands which the Church has put upon these schools. Methodism must move up to a place beside those Denominations which, having recruited a carefully selected and spiritually called group for the Ministry, feel it a moral obligation, as well as a wise investment, to see that college and seminary education are available for them.

Our need is primarily and urgently for a pastoral ministry, men equipped both in training and attitude to do the work of a parish. Let this be the main academic concern of our seminaries and let the Church give supplemental support to the colleges and seminaries for this educational assignment.

The effectiveness of our Ministry is closely related to the polity through which it functions. From the beginning the Methodist system has been unique in the organizational life of Christendom. Evolved from the pragmatic basis of need, the structure of The Methodist Church has retained its fundamental principles while maintaining a flexibility which has applied the principles to new situations. Expediency, change for change's sake, novelty and popular demand have not dictated the course of Methodist organization and government.

A review of these distinctive features is a valuable preparation for decisions on adjustments in polity proposed to meet current needs.

Bishop Thomas Coke, defending the Methodist system in the early days, when a philosophy of Church Government was forming, attributed to the Methodist plan of supervision responsibility "for the vigor and activity to the resolves of the body, calmness and wisdom in deliberating and expedition and force in administration." The unity of Methodism, its growth and cohesion testify to the ecclesiastical statesmanship of its first Bishop.

The retention of a General Superintendency, as "an elective office and not as a divine appointment," itinerant in function and general in Church-wide responsibilities, has been decisive in avoiding the weakness of parochialism and in strengthening the world-wide Church. While changing times raise questions of adjustment, in the discussion of them, let the Church retain this perspective, lest an effort to improve may result in an action which destroys. The number of administrative duties placed upon the Bishop's office increases with each succeeding quadrennium. The Bishops do not seek relief from these multiplying tasks, they desire only to make their service more effective. For this they need adequate resources to maintain the functions of the General Superintendency in the life and work of our Church whose connectional system from the beginning has contributed so largely to the achievements of Methodism.

Twice the Methodist principle of organization has demonstrated its flexibility in its application to the Conferences which are the basic body in Methodist administration: once for the benefit of the World Church, when to the plan of Conferences was added the Central Conference, and again with the union of the three branches of Methodism when the Jurisdictional Conference became a part of the Methodist system. In each case The General Conference sought to meet a new situation by a provision that would not infringe upon nor destroy the basic plan of Methodist Conference organization. While perfection has not been achieved by these procedures, benefits are evident which should be preserved in any effort for improvement. The principle of regional organization is an established one not only in Methodism but in the modern administration of all worldwide ecclesiastical bodies. Nevertheless, with rapidly changing conditions in the world situation, in facilities for communication, and in group attitudes which provide the setting for the administration of the Church, our entire Conference system, basic and essential as it is, needs constant and constructive attention and review lest here also the principle lose some of its effectiveness through a tendency to rigidity and inflexibility. In the examination of our procedures we are encouraged by the example of Mr. Wesley who, at the London Conference of 1744, raised the question, "Need we be afraid of examining every point and every old idea" and replied, "No, if they are false the sooner they are overturned the better. If they are true they will stand the strictest examination."

The itinerant ministry is likewise basic in the connectional system of our polity. It recognizes a difference between ordination with the privilege of preaching and ordination with the responsibilities of Conference membership. This distinction should be borne in mind in every consideration of the ministerial office. Its value is demonstrated in its ability to supply our churches with continuous ministerial service and in the prolonged effectiveness of our preachers in service.

At its best our connectional system gives the preacher both freedom and security. It provides supervision without destroying initiative. It exercises control with constitutional safeguards for independent decision and action. It produces unity of action without denying the expression of individuality.

Giving

There is no way to compute the total philanthropy of Methodists. The teaching of the Church encourages its members to support every good cause and to exercise leadership and practice generosity in all sound benevolent enterprises. We do know, however, that in 1954 Methodists within the United States gave $384,500,000 for the support of their churches which was an increase of 269% over the amount they gave in 1942 and was the largest amount given by any Protestant Denomination. This record reflects the accumulative effect of a continual Crusade of Stewardship which began with the Crusade for Christ in 1944. It is an impressive figure and does not include the gifts of individuals to Methodist work not reported in the authorized statistical tables. These contributions assume greater significance when considered as free-will offerings, prompted only by a desire to give. They represent both generosity and sacrifice and we express our gratitude to all who gave.

An analysis of the statistics, however, discloses both disquieting and encouraging facts about the giving habits of the Methodists. We regret to report that they are "below average" givers, the average being $41.91 for all American Protestants as compared with $37.45 per capita giving for Methodists. On the other hand the increase in per capita giving in 1954 as compared with 1953 is above average for the Methodists, the average being $2.95 while the Methodists increased their per capita giving by $3.35.

The conditions prompting an increase in voluntary giving should also be in the thinking and planning of the Church. The national income has reached a new high record of 305 billions for 1954. It is estimated that it will reach 413 billions by 1960. By that date the studies also predict that the average yearly income per household in the United States will be $6,180. Present tax laws provide most favorable exemptions for religious and charitable giving. Industry and labor are making generous gifts to human welfare projects, an example being the 345 millions of dollars given by corporations to education in 1954. Never has there been a more propitious time to test the convictions of our people on the question of adequate voluntary support for our religious, educational and welfare activities.

By the side of this increased ability to give should be placed the need for giving. How are we going to take this world for Christ unless we provide the means for doing it. The enrollment in institutions of higher learning will double by 1970. Shall Methodists meet this obligation and opportunity with nothing more than its present educational facilities? The population of the United States will increase by 1960 to 180 millions requiring 50,000 new Protestant churches to maintain the present standard of services. Will Methodists provide their share of them? The world opportunity for Christianity is limited only by our ability to supply the personnel, equipment and maintenance. Let us not miss our opportunity because of mounting difficulties or by a diminishing sense of urgency.

The results in giving will be disappointing, however, unless the Church quickens the Christian incentive, educates its people in understanding and appreciation, and provides for a wider participation in giving on the part of its membership and constituency.

The motivation for Christian giving is scriptural and spiritual, not legalistic and prudential. When understood and appreciated as a means of grace it takes its place among the spiritual offices of our faith. The inculcation of this attitude toward giving is the beginning of an adequate response. It calls for sound education before great results can be realized through promotion.

Furthermore, the sacrificial giving of the people places upon the Church a moral obligation to deal constructively with the problem of dependency which tends to become habitual where supplemental help is available and not only delays the achievement of self-support, but also tends to create a static Church.

Let us not assume that the reason for insufficient giving to the work of the Church has been entirely the fault of the people. Often it has been the result of improper and ineffective planning and lackadaisical efforts to secure the widest participation. The financial goals proposed for the next quadrennium can be realized when method, motive and need are properly related.

Christian Co-operation

Saving the world is a task under God not for one Church but for all of the Churches working together. From the inception of the Inter-Denominational Co-Operative Movement, Methodism has been in the forefront of leadership and participation. Believing that the separate resources of the Denominations gain power through uniting, The Methodist Church has striven to become strong in itself and strong through its co-operation.

The principle of Church Union is established, but it is a reality not yet fully experienced. Encouraging progress, however, is evident both in the will of Protestants to unite and in the results of union gained through the present significant ecumenical organizations.

The position of the Methodists regarding ecumenicity is clear. It was, in fact, fixed by John Wesley who has been called "the most ecumenically-minded of all the great reformers." It is based on freedom and experience. Its symbol is the open hand and extended arm, not to absorb but to unite when hearts are one and minds meet.

Methodism has demonstrated the workability of the doctrine of Church Union within its own branches, not only in the results of its united activities, but in its ability to adjust its internal differences through democratic processes.

Methodism looks with sympathy upon the efforts now under consideration throughout the world to unite Protestant forces, but it looks also through the practical eye of the founder, John Wesley, lest the process by which union is sought may inadvertently destroy the creative genius of Protestantism's uniqueness.

Methodism has much to receive in the formation of the coming ecumenical Church. It also has much to offer. Its validation of authority through experience, its emphasis upon life and work, its adjustment to the Protestant spirit of individuality, its appreciation of difference, its repudiation of exclusiveness, its firmness with tolerance, its passion for evangelism and missions, its effectiveness through organization, bring to the ecumenical movement some elements of historic Protestantism practically applied without which its permanence cannot be realized.

With deep satisfaction we call attention to Methodist leadership in the current ecumenical movements. The Methodist Church has entered wholeheartedly into the work of the World Council of Churches, the National Council of Churches and the World Methodist Council. We believe that these bodies dramatically illustrate the coming oneness of the Christian forces. They have demonstrated their use as effective instruments in the advancement of the Christian enterprise.

We also note that the Ninth World Conference of Methodism will convene at Lake Junaluska in August 1956. Methodists from all parts of the world will be present and they will receive a most cordial welcome. We rejoice in the united Christian witness which Methodism bears through this instrumentality.

Communication

The Church is confronted with the opportunity of new and effective media of communication. Radio, television and the crusade to eliminate illiteracy bring the listening and reading world to the door of the Church. 95% of the householders in the United States have radios and 99% of the people are in reach of at least one television station. Two thirds of American homes now have television sets. Illiteracy is rapidly decreasing among the so-called underprivileged peoples of the world. Already more than 60 millions in 250 languages and dialects have been taught to read by the Laubach method, which makes the doom of world illiteracy only a matter of time. The Methodist Church must proceed to take full advantage of these extended methods of communication even though they are costly and require some shifting from older and less effective means of reaching people. Their value may be judged by the political and commercial efforts to utilize and control them.

The big question of cost, which really challenges the Church to do something more than to protest the low order of much that is transmitted by these means of communication, must be considered. Also the overshadowing question of policy, which could easily nullify the efforts of the Church even when the cost of these services has been provided, must have serious attention. Control may be subtly as well as openly applied to the detriment of religion. Protestants must insist upon air-ways and press-ways free to express what Protestants believe, and we must be prepared to pay the price for this right under conditions that are just and equitable.

The Church needs also to give thought to the content of the messages these means of communication transmit and their inevitable effect upon the life of the world. What the eye constantly sees and the ear hears inevitably determines what the mind believes and the person becomes. Nothing that touches the mind of man can escape being didactic.

From 1769 when Robert Williams began the Methodist book business in Philadelphia to the present, literature has been a major concern of The Methodist Church. We have moved from the first venture of a small hymnal to a vast system of publications which provides literature for all phases of Methodist life and work. Proving to be a successful business venture it has also been a mighty force in the propagation of the faith which is its original and continuing purpose. New opportunities for our literature are opening with the lifting of the cloud of illiteracy which has darkened the minds of at least one third of the world's population. A new reading public is being created. Commercial interests have been quick to sense this and the Communists are already supplying their literature to these new readers on the level of their intellectual development and their environmental interests and within the price range of their ability to pay. In the battle for the minds of these people the Church must not make the fatal blunder of too little and too late.

In the United States the problem of religious illiteracy centers in ignorance through lack of interest. A task of promotion confronts us. John Wesley insisted that "every preacher recommend to every society, and that frequently and earnestly, the reading of books we have published. Carry books with you," he said, "exert yourself in this and be not ashamed." "Why is it that people under our care are no better?" Take to heart Mr. Wesley's answer to this question: "Other reasons may concur but the chief reason is, we are not more knowing. We are not more knowing because we are idle. Read the most useful books regularly and constantly."

In 1952 the Bishops requested the Board of Publications to produce a Methodist magazine which would be "a bold venture" in religious journalism and which could attract at least 1,000,000 Methodist subscribers. Its Report, recommending a magazine for pastors and one for the families of the Church, has been received by The Council of Bishops. We look upon the proposal as a significant adventure in Church Publications and as one offering promise for the future.

V. CONCERNING THE CHURCH'S OBJECTIVES Program

Methodism is a Church continually on the march. It has always had a Program. True to its name it has sought to bring together its varied interests under one master plan that advances may be made on all fronts at the same time. The advantages of such a strategy are evident in the results. Fragmentary activities and haphazard planning are thus avoided. Organizations are united in a common plan while fulfilling a special responsibility for a part of the plan. The Methodist on the farthest outpost maintains his morale by the realization that he has a necessary part in the mission of a great Church.

The traditional policy by which a Church-wide Program is provided by The General Conference has kept Methodism mobile, contemporary and effective. It has enabled the Church to meet conditions as they arise and to utilize the mood of the times for Christ and His Kingdom.

The wisdom of this strategy has been repeatedly demonstrated in the response which has come to these Programs of Church-wide planning since Union. The Crusade for Christ, while exceeding our expectations financially, resulted in a score of gains in other Departments of the Church's life. The Advance for Christ and His Church has greatly increased the giving for benevolences and carried forward with it all the major causes of the Church through regular channels of Church promotion.

The Church now looks to this General Conference for another Quadrennial Program centering in an urgently needed effort which will increase the efficiency of the Local Church, strengthen our Church-wide projects, and make provision for the needs of our institutions of learning. A quadrennial objective so comprehensive and challenging will capture the Church's imagination and command the co-ordination of its full resources.

The Program of Methodism, through which the Church seeks to realize its spiritual objectives, is a co-operative task involving both man and God in an effort to redeem society. It seeks to understand "What is God's plan for the world?" and then by a definite program of full participation strives to carry out that plan. Its strength is measured by its conviction that a new world order in which Christ reigns is attainable. It holds that the good life can create the good society. It accepts responsibility for improving the conditions under which mankind now lives. Through it, Methodism seeks to answer the prophets of doom who say that the future is bleak, the Cassandras who see the world sinking, but with no power to halt its downward course, the good people who gaze into a heaven of expectation but are bound to inactivity by a theological deception which immobilizes them in the fight to take the Kingdom of this world for their Lord and Christ.

Methodists believe that tomorrow can be made better than today. We face the future with hope and we undertake the task of holy daring. Our confidence springs from the conviction that the way of God, though "oppressed for a time, in the end will ultimately triumph."

Christian Brotherhood

We live in a divided world whose well-being is threatened by group tensions, misunderstandings and incited hostilities. The only hope modern civilization has for the preservation of its gains lies in its ability to create a real brotherhood which will transform tension into participation, misunderstandings into appreciation, and hostility into co-operation.

The task is gigantic but the failures of the past provide guidance in the present and hope for the future. By now we should know that brotherhood is not a sectional concern. It is basic in all human relations and embraces all mankind. Our failures lift up the weakness of those systems which would peg the achievement of brotherhood solely by legislative and political controls. Around us lie the crumbling ruins of the materialistic efforts to produce a synthetic brotherhood in the matrix of self-interest. We should have learned also that the desirability of brotherhood has not yet gained universal acceptance and that its establishment, besides finding the way, involves the conversion of the opposition.

The nature of enduring brotherhood is organic. Its cohesion is spiritual. Its sponsor and protector should be the Church. True brotherhood cannot exist apart from the family of God. It finds its oneness in the fatherhood of man's Creator and its spirit in Christ, His Son. It awaits a demonstration from God's people. It must begin in the household of faith.

The Methodist position has been stated repeatedly. In historic language The General Conference of 1952 declared: "Ours is a World Church. As such its responsibility is to unite in one fellowship men and women of all races and nations. As Christians we confess ourselves to be children of God, brothers and sisters of Jesus Christ. This being true, there is no place in The Methodist Church for racial discrimination or racial segregation. 'To discriminate against a person solely upon the basis of his race is both unfair and unchristian. Every child of God is entitled to that place in society which he has won by his industry and his character. To deny him that position of honor because of the accident of his birth is neither honest democracy nor good religion.' (The Episcopal Address, 1952)

"In our world, our nation, and our Church, however, racial discrimination and segregation do exist. As sincere followers of our Lord it is our business to help free our world and our nation from these evils. But it is more immediately our imperative duty to confess our failure to achieve God's will in Methodism and then resolutely to set about achieving a Christian brotherhood in the Church that will be free from racial discrimination and segregation . . .

"As was stated in the Episcopal Address: 'We face the critical adjustment between the absolute Christian ideal and the human level upon which a retarded and hesitating Christian conscience moves; Christian truth and strategy must reach us where we are and lead us by divine grace to where God would have us be.'"

While looking down the long road toward the consummation of ideal human relations, let us also look back over the equally long road of improvement which the Church has already travelled. Let us give thanks for the wise and godly men and women, seeking to heal rather than to divide, who quietly and courageously have worked to improve our race relations and to lift the level of living for all. These sincere Christians are confined to no one geographical section, social status or racial group. Everywhere and from many angles they have been working to achieve brotherhood, and better race relations testify to the success of their efforts. Let us keep in mind also the instrumentalities through which we have come to our united strength, the advantages they have made possible as well as the changes by which their improvement is sought.

The struggle for self-realization in many parts of the world where Methodism is at work has at times threatened the very existence of a Church whose mission is to bring people to the full realization of their capacities through the power and example of Christ. To be true to our mission, and to support these God-implanted human longings against pressures which threaten the Church's life and work, courage, ingenuity and diplomacy on the part of the Church's leadership and people have been required in large measure and they have borne themselves well. The Church may be compelled to undergo many changes but its ministry of brotherhood will continue to bear a fruitful witness to the true fellowship which makes all mankind one in Christ.

The adjustment of race relations toward a more Christian brotherhood is an overshadowing concern of American Church life. The desire for better race relations is prevalent. The principle is no longer debatable. The sole question centers in a procedure which will preserve the good while eliminating the bad. No man at present is wise enough to chart the course the Church should take with completeness and precision. There are no perfect answers and no "either - or" alternatives; no iron-clad attitudes and no cure-all prescriptions to which we can turn for a quick solution of the problem. We are humbled before the command of our Lord in the consciousness that we have all sinned and come short of His expectation and that the devils of inequality and discrimination have resisted His children's efforts to exorcise them. Our hope for success is to unite in a common endeavor, bound together by a common purpose and conviction, motivated by a Christian spirit and to move in sure but calculated steps to the attainment of our vision of a Christian society. Let us make this our conscious endeavor and let us bring to its support a will to succeed.

In the spirit of our Methodist Fathers, who sought to establish principles by a practical consideration of what could be done, we can find the way to the realization of a true Christian brotherhood. Both those who lead and those who follow must understand the steps which, taken one by one, bring us nearer the goal. Furthermore, a good outcome requires a commitment on the part of Methodists as individuals to clear away the deterrents to brotherhood, and in their personal relations, to demonstrate the spirit of Christian brotherhood.

During the coming quadrennium the Church can make significant progress in the improvement of these relationships with benefit to all, provided it has a plan and seeks to live by its provisions.

The Union of the three branches of Methodism has strengthened our fellowship through understanding and united devotion to a common task. We believe that within the organizational framework of the united Church is to be found effective procedures for the development of Christian brotherhood.

Notable advances have been made under our present organizational structure. However, seventeen eventful years have passed since the long-to-be-remembered day when three separate bodies of Methodism dedicated themselves to be one Church. New issues have arisen and new duties confront the Church.

The Council of Bishops, therefore, recommends that a Commission large enough to be truly representative of all our people be constituted by this General Conference for the purpose of studying the Jurisdictional structure of the Church, its philosophy and its effectiveness and that it report its findings with recommendations to the 1960 session of The General Conference. Through this medium we believe that a way can be charted to advance the Church steadily toward the fulfillment of the Christian imperative for racial relations.

World Peace

The will of God for man cannot come to complete realization without peace in the world. The Church must promote peace. This ideal for Inter-National relations has suffered from rough handling by the conditions of world politics. Peace is not the natural offspring of the totalitarian state. The democracies have been divided as to a strategy for securing peace. National antagonisms continue to menace the peace of the world. While actual warfare has lessened, uneasiness describes the mood of those who see the delicate balance which is preventing a third world war. The world situation warns us that the permanence of peace has not yet been secured.

Recent efforts of national leaders resulting in "summit conferences" and the emerging "Geneva spirit" have represented, to use President Eisenhower's words, "the heartfelt longings of countless millions." Could the common people of the world vote on Inter-National issues they would decisively outlaw war as an instrument in the settlement of Inter-National disputes. Efforts to nullify the "Geneva spirit" in the conduct of Inter-National affairs should not be permitted to weaken that spirit in the American attitude. The democracies have an obligation to make this voice of the people heard and heeded.

The attainment of enduring peace is primarily a matter of knowledge and spirit. Wars continue not because they are inevitable but because the people "do not know the ways of peace" and therefore "have not aimed at whatever makes for peace." We have educated society to live in a world of war and not in a world of peace which explains why, when wars are won, the peace is so quickly lost.

The despair which accompanies the popular fallacy that wars are inevitable lifts with the realization that when we know "on what our peace depends" war can be avoided. It is this change in the world's point of view which should be the Church's serious concern. The Church can create the mind to peace and the will to peace provided it sees the struggle as a contest for ideological ascendancy. While seeds of "hate, revulsion and scorn toward those who disagree" are a part of totalitarian ideological strategy the Church can counteract it by exerting maximum efforts for understanding, brotherhood and co-operation.

Before peace becomes a reality a new morality must become the standard by which the acts of nations are judged; a common language must be spoken which not only contains the same words such as "freedom," "democracy," and "liberation," but which gives these words the same meaning regardless of who uses them. The United Nations and its agencies must be understood and supported not as instruments of propaganda for one point of view, but as the media through which, by conference, differences may be settled without resort to arms. Ten years of achievement have established the importance of the United Nations as a world organization through which peace and well-being on the Inter-National level can be aided. The Church, seeing its value, has strengthened the public support of the United Nations through interpreting its objectives, co-operating in its projects and endorsing its moral and ethical positions.

Disarmament must be considered as a multilateral project of primary importance for the guarantee of peace. The supply of arms for their bargaining power and the competitive rush to provide military equipment in anticipation of armed conflict present serious obstacles in the way of world peace. Efforts to secure a realistic method for the reduction of armaments by the major nations is a necessary safeguard against a third world war.

The horror of war in an age of nuclear power should increase the efforts to guarantee the use of atomic energy for non-military activities. To this end we commend our government for its Atoms-For-Peace-Program and the nations which have signed bilateral agreements with the United States to participate in this project. We approve the formulation of an Inter-National Statute which would create an Inter-National Agency under the United Nations to administer the Atoms-For-Peace Program. We call attention to the fact that atomic production for industrial purposes increases and with it the urgent needs of more effective safeguards against its military uses.

The economic burden of war must be seen as civilization's ultimate executioner. If in World War II the accumulated wealth of four centuries was shot away, what will be the economic consequences of a possible third world war? Leadership must be tested not by the power it commands but by the moral courage it expresses. Doors must be opened for understanding which can come only by fellowship. While working to avoid the dangers of imminent war, we must lay the foundations which insure the permanent structure of a world at peace.

A Christian Economy

We meet to consider the work of the Church at a time of unprecedented material prosperity in the United States. According to the Report of The Twentieth Century Fund, "Americans, now in middle life, have seen greater advance in our material living standards than in all the previous centuries of Western history." Avoiding a major catastrophe, the Report predicts greater economic advances in the immediate future marked by larger incomes, fewer working hours, less muscular expenditure in production, and greater output of goods. Interpreting their meaning, directing their uses, lifting up their origins and preserving these gains, are a part of the Church's Stewardship. The Board of Social and Economic Relations, established at the last General Conference, has sought to keep the Church conscious of its responsibility.

There are dangers in this rising tide of prosperity which can be avoided only through a Christian interpretation of economic life and to that end the Church speaks.

Its message is a reminder that the Founder of Christianity, Himself a worker by both word and deed, demonstrated a gospel of the abundant life. His principles, long ignored and often misinterpreted, emerge now to steady the world's hand which seems for the first time to have the achievement of economic well-being within the possibility of its reach.

His example must always be the standard by which our goals of economic well-being are set and our progress measured. The Christian economy is built on a Stewardship of all of life, including its resources and means of production. It is an economy of plenty and not of scarcity, since it is based upon the moral integrity of God as Creator and Sustainer. It believes that distribution, production and consumption, when properly co-ordinated, can meet the world's economic needs. It looks upon all men as workers in a society where all types of work are needed and all classes of workers are respected. It guards mankind from the exploiter who considers human beings as commodities to be manipulated for profit. It repudiates the erosive attitude in economic life which seeks to take without making an adequate return for benefits received. It recognizes an obligation to lift the level of life everywhere by the sharing of prosperity and encourages the efforts of governments and groups now aiding the economically distressed areas in their struggle for improvement. It is concerned with the questions recently raised by President Eisenhower: "How will these conditions affect the individual and his world, and what will they make out of him?" The Church accepts responsibility to guide society to a Christian answer.

The merger of the American Federation of Labor and the Congress of Industrial Organization in the United States, the emergence and growth of automation in industry, the interest of government in economic well-being, and the demand by labor for supplementary unemployment benefits with State support, reveal the tempo of change in economic action.

The Church must be alert to these changes and their significance for the future. The magnitude and rapidity of these socio-economic changes need Christian guidance if they are to accomplish their potential for good. The increased acceptance of social responsibility by Industry and the significant role of Labor in lifting living standards point the way to the social and economic improvement of mankind. Participation in decision-making by the workers and their shortened work week, along with an improved economic status, present the Church with challenge and opportunity in the development of Christian personality.

It is a primary task of the Christian society to help create conditions in which equity and justice may prevail in labor-management relations.

We are concerned by the recurring industrial civil war which destroys so many of the precious personal and social values which the Church is seeking to create and husband.

The Church has long supported the principles of arbitration and conciliation in the settlement of industrial disputes. These instruments offer media for the asserting of Christian principles in the settlement of such disputes.

The times require a wider enlistment of the moral and spiritual resources of the Church of Christ in meeting the necessities of an age in which atomic power, automation and personal anonymity are relentless constituents.

Human Welfare

The public interest in human welfare owes its origin to the Church's concern. Before a social conscience developed regarding the handicapped in life there was a Christian conscience seeking to carry the healing ministries of Christ to these neglected groups of society. Even today when such a large part of human welfare is directed by secular agencies, the motivation for the public support of these agencies comes from Church sources. The increasing public concern for health and social services is a tribute to the Christian Church which first sponsored them and a testimony to the continued need of the Church's interest in their provision and direction.

In spite of a growing sense of public responsibility the intangible elements which the Church brought to the care of the sick and the handicapped have often been overlooked. For a time the pattern of social work and physical healing in its emphasis upon methodology with governmental support ignored the spiritual factors essential to human welfare. Happily this trend has been reversed.

The experience of these years of expanding secular social services and of the diminishing influence of the Church in the areas of institutional care reveal a missing element which neither the support of the State nor the methods of the professional alone can supply. This missing element was identified in a recent Report of Social Agencies which stated that "larger institutions are not the solution for our growing population of people needing care." "Such a solution," the Report said, "overlooks completely one factor of the greatest importance not only to the health of these people but to their happiness and contentment. The factor is the universal need for affection, companionship and recognition."

This realization puts the Church once again at the heart of our world-wide program for the restoration of the mentally and physically sick and handicapped. All forms of social service now turn to the Church for guidance and participation in the provision for the physically old and in the nurture and rehabilitation of the uncared for children. These agencies acknowledge religion as a corrective power in conditions of social maladjustment.

While many services of the Church to these groups were reduced during this period of emphasis upon professional management and State control, efforts to create more Church-related hospitals and homes are gaining momentum.

Methodist statistics in this field of service are impressive. At present 204 hospitals, homes for the aged, children's homes and special agencies are related to The Methodist Church in the United States. They serve yearly at least 1,255,000 people and represent an investment of 325 million dollars.

In other lands the number of these institutions related to The Methodist Church are many more than those within the United States. The conduct of these institutions demonstrates an effective procedure which keeps such institutions Christian and Church-related in the service they render. The question of current maintenance, as well as a policy of expansion in the establishment of new institutions, calls for a pronouncement and a plan from this General Conference.

Not only is there need to multiply this institutional witness to Christ's concern for human welfare, but pilot projects operated by the Church are urgently needed to demonstrate the emerging power of religious-directed service to meet new situations in the care and cure of the helpless and the ill. If man's re-discovered soul is to be ministered to adequately, group practice uniting religion, medicine and social service, now coming into being, should be encouraged. In this task spiritual insight, professional proficiency, and personal dedication are needed to convey the Master's healing touch.

Moral Reform

The hoax of the legalized liquor traffic must be exposed if physical health, moral law and Christian character are to overcome their major enemy. For too long the purveyors of alcoholic beverages have been permitted "to weave a fancy dress around social drinking which conceals its real nature." The public has the right to know for its own protection what the return of the legalized liquor traffic in the United States has done to the people. Here are some of the pertinent facts. It has recruited 65 million habitual drinkers and the number is increasing by 250,000 a year. Today there are 7 million alcoholics and problem drinkers. One out of nine who starts to drink can expect to end in this group. The tragic difficulties of America's alcoholics involve at least 20 million other people. The use of liquor causes one out of four highway traffic deaths and 24% of all the highway traffic accidents. There are 432,736 licensed dealers in alcoholic beverages and 100,000 of these licenses are located in food stores. There is one legalized distributing center of alcoholic beverages for each 350 people in the United States. The traffic levies a direct cost of 10 billion dollars a year on the American people, to say nothing of the indirect costs which come because of it. The illusion that the liquor traffic is a profitable tax producer is exploded by the statistics which indicate that for every dollar of tax from the liquor traffic received by the Federal Government and the States they are required to expend from four to eight dollars in alcohol-created expense. Industrialists refer to the liquor traffic as their billion dollar headache, reducing days of production, increasing accidents, causing slow-ups and menacing workman relationships.

The by-products of alcoholic addiction across the world are both tragic and startling. They are a predominant cause for the high divorce rate, for broken homes and neglected children. They create a wide-spread disregard for the moral law with its resultant character deterioration. The correlation between sex atrocities and taproom acquaintances exposes a prolific breeding ground for crime.

The liquor traffic is a vicious business, unethical in its procedures, anti-social in its attitudes, entrenching itself by broken promises, circumventions, powerful governmental lobbies, high-powered and expensive advertising and the exploitation of the young.

Against this personal enemy and public menace The Methodist Church has directed its teaching and its persistent efforts for moral reform. Praise belongs to those agencies of the Church which, with small means at their disposal, have waged the fight, stood the abuse and returned repeatedly to the battle. The Methodist program of education, commitment, rehabilitation and legislation present the strategy for ultimate victory. These crusaders have had the encouragement of fair treatment from many men and women of character in public office and from an increasing number of publications dedicated to the impartial presenting of facts. They also deserve a larger support from our united Church.

In girding ourselves to battle for a sober world, let us keep clearly before us the areas of the main struggle and the courses of final success. The issue is primarily moral and the duty to carry on is a moral imperative. While treating the effects of this traffic which produces physical wrecks and moral derelicts, we shall fail unless we seek to eradicate the cause. The Christian recognition of social responsibility which admonishes us to desist if the "eating of meat maketh our brother to offend" puts the obligation of total abstinence upon both the strong and the weak.

Recognizing the territory we have lost, the temperance forces must unite in a strategy for incessant siege which advances step by step until the decisive issue can again be joined and won. Womanhood has suffered most from the evil effects of the liquor traffic. Appearing as a symbol of liberation and a badge of sophistication it has enslaved and not freed its patrons. Too often the vise-like grip of alcoholism has made its victims objects of pity rather than persons of charm. The re-enlistment of womanhood in the crusade for a sober nation is a prerequisite for the final overthrow of the liquor traffic.

We need to employ every available aid in arresting the mounting casualties which result from the uses of alcohol, but above all the Church must strengthen and expand its own ministries to the alcoholic and to the potential alcoholic. "Religious faith offers the surest guarantee of mental health, habit control and inner peace."

Gambling is another social and moral menace which calls for a clear pronouncement by the Church. Gambling has grown in the United States to a 35 billion dollar yearly business with 50 million customers. Its promoters have multiplied race tracks and succeeded in legalizing gambling in 25 States. The total effect of this big business has been bad. Under cover of the law permitting gambling the racketeers have moved in to exact a 20 billion dollar a year tribute from their gambling victims. The incidence of embezzlements bear a correlation to the establishment of new gambling centers. The passion to get something for nothing inflamed by widely publicized gambling schemes has resulted in the undermining of the basic moral and economic laws of life. Small gambling, often under the patronage of highly respected public institutions and community projects, becomes the training ground for the later customers of big-time gambling. "Pin-ball games, raffles, bingo and legalized give-aways, honeycombing our communities, are the bush leagues from which the major league gamblers are recruited." The Methodist Church has declared gambling "a menace to business integrity, a breeder of crime, a destroyer of good government and a demoralizing influence in society." Its dubious gains are neither needed nor wanted in financing the work of the Church. Through education and the promotion of legislation The Methodist Church will continue her efforts to protect society from gambling's deceitful clutch.

The use of tobacco has taken on a more ominous significance through the researches of medical science into its physical effects upon the user. The era of the professional endorser turned the attention of the American public from tobacco's known physiological harm to its reputed desirability as a social attainment. Clever advertising disarmed a public conditioned to make its judgments of a product's value by the radio and television entertainment which publicizes it. The release from the social disciplines following World War I has greatly increased the number of women smokers. The situation not only confronts society with a serious health problem, but it is also becoming an increasing danger as a fire hazard. Social amenities and personal courtesies often suffer through the thoughtlessness resulting from the dominant demands for the satisfaction of this habit-forming practice regardless of the comfort and rights of others.

To maintain a good society in which wide latitude of decision is accorded the individual, access to the full truth is essential. Unbiased medical opinion, advertising without protective coloring and the knowledge of both moral and social consequences, are just demands upon the publicity given to every habit-forming commercial product.

VI. CONCERNING THE CHURCH'S POWER

Christian Discipline

In setting the pattern for the strengthening and development of Christian conduct, John Wesley saw clearly the need for disciplined living. His penetrating mind convinced him that the breakdown of discipline had brought the practice of religion to its then current low estate. As a student of history he concurred with John Milton's observation that "all the moments and turnings of human occasions are moved to and fro upon the axle of discipline." So in ways which fitted the needs of his people, he established a discipline for responsible Christian living whose power lay in the fidelity with which it was practiced. As early as 1743 Wesley issued a plan designed to set and maintain the Christian standard of ethics and morality in personal and group living. It was specific rather than general. It dealt with procedures based on scriptural principles. It defined what a Christian must not do and what a Christian should do. It outlined the practices which would enable him to observe, with personal satisfaction, both the prohibitions and the injunctions. These General Rules proved to be both a blessing and a help to the layman seeking to build the habits of a Christian way of life. The Methodists, therefore, became a people with a clearly defined pattern of conduct. They were easy of identification. They developed a sturdiness in Christian living and demonstrated the value of a healthy Christian asceticism. They avoided the fanaticism of unbalanced emphasis by careful oversight and by group participation. They won the respect even of those who differed with them because of the consistency of their lives and their loyalty to their principles.

The proposals of Wesley to make strict lines of distinction in the ways of Christian living were alien to the mood of his times. At first they were the subject of abuse and ridicule. Many sincere people were shocked and many churchmen were scandalized by them. But the change which came to the life of England and the vitality which returned to the Christian movement validated Wesley's diagnosis of a cause and cure for religious decadence.

Today the Church faces a similar mood in the popular attitude toward Christian discipline and its influence upon the lives of Christian people. Self-imposed and Church-imposed restrictions are alien to the popular mentality. Spiritual oversight is resented and the admonition of one by another through testimony and correction is a vanishing practice in human relations. The cult of freedom, by which its adherents distort the word to mean the lack of all restraint, has become the real competitor to the disciplined life which is the badge of a redeemed society. It has proven also to be a Trojan horse by which pagan attitudes have infiltrated the Christian fellowship.

The time is upon us to take our bearings and to observe the effect which this libertarian mood is having upon the character of our people and the direction of their life. Studies reveal that the onset of personality and character disintegration under the pressure of modern living is greatest among those of indefinite faith and of laxness in the observance of Christian disciplines. The vitality and productivity of newer and smaller religious groups bear a striking relation to the restrictions imposed and the demands made upon their members. Educators agree that the breakdown of discipline is now their "number one problem." In the success of rival philosophies and secular activities the Church sees its own earlier strategy of the disciplined life taken over and used against it. The obligation to maintain a clear distinction between right and wrong and to judge current opinions and habits of living by that distinction is pressing. They safeguard the dignity and sacredness of truth and clear away an obstacle to holiness of heart and life. They open the door to Christ's presence and bring us under His ethical and moral influence.

The recovery of discipline will bring the Church again to the narrow gate and the straight way which the Master said would lead to life. What in Methodism has been thought of as archaic must in Methodist pragmatic fashion be put beside the needs of our daily living. What is expected of a Methodist, how should a Methodist act and what are the compulsions of his conduct, are questions which must again take definite form if a Church which has the organization and resources for establishing the Christian fellowship shall come to its full strength of influence. The return of discipline to the Christian life requires leadership on the part of our ministry. The observance of its commands, the practice of its habits and the demonstration of its principles must be seen in the daily conduct of the preacher.

Helps to avoid evil, to reject secular attitudes, to resist physical indulgence, to discern unethical conduct, to overcome looseness of speech, and to put down exhibitionism and carnality cannot be left solely to the individual, although his right to accept or reject them must be recognized. Nor can the development of the habits of kindness, charity, understanding, brotherliness, godliness, the Christlike manner and the art of seeking and accepting instruction be left to the sporadic efforts of promotional campaigns and to individual ingenuity alone. This discovery was a contribution of John Wesley to Christian nurture and the retention of his General Rules to this day in the Methodist Book of Discipline is not only a testimony to the value of his discovery, but also an injunction to make it relevant to the Christian life of our times.

The hope for the survival of Christianity as a distinctive way of life lies in its power to discipline at a time when the popular mood would erase the identifying marks of Christian conduct.

The Holy Spirit

The General Rules for Methodist conduct adopted in 1743 owe their continued significance to the Aldersgate experience which occurred in 1738. From the beginning the Wesley group had strict rules for their daily conduct. This current novelty in religion was responsible for the derisive name "Methodist" which the Church now so proudly bears. But those early attempts to produce inner peace and assurance through the meticulous observance of a definite mode of living all fell short of their expected result. They repelled rather than attracted. Intended to make men Christlike, they failed to show forth the charm of the Master. Their rigidity divided the Christian fellowship instead of building it up. After the most sincere attempts during his missionary assignment in Georgia to achieve conscious fellowship with God by rules alone, John Wesley admitted defeat. Legalism even in devotion to the most lofty ideal left him dissatisfied and uncertain. When he had completed his daily stint of good works he was still haunted by the question, "Have I done enough?" And there was no rule which by itself could give him the answer.

The complement of the rules of conduct was the possession of The Holy Spirit and that came at Aldersgate. It was the witness within which Wesley had lacked in making his Rules a creative force for Christian life and experience. This discovery made Methodism the giver of Christian life. It established the Law and the Spirit in their proper order. Behind and within the disciplined life it put the assured heart. It transformed the Rules from a straight-jacket of conduct imposed as a duty into a channel through which the Spirit of God found expression in the ordered ways of Christian living. It found in fellowship with God the impulse and guide to Christian action. This became the good news from God which Wesley brought to a despairing and groping people.

How much there is in the present religious scene which parallels the days of Methodism's beginnings! There are theological voices like the eighteenth century Diests who say that there is no news from God. There is the new school of theological futilitarians who say that the news from God is bad. There are the high-minded humanists who are undertaking a "bootstrap operation" to redeem society by their own self-created powers. There are the champions of a world-saving God who deny themselves the experience of His heart-warming fellowship. There are the victims of the revolt from religious authority who have listened to the blandishments of the exploiters and turned away from the One who has the words of life. There are the masses, good at heart but restless and wayward, waiting to follow in the way of those who have a sure word from God.

Facing that world and seeking to serve it, Methodism must keep clear its vision and firm its hold of the sources of its power. They are the assured heart and the disciplined life. Through this combination of faith and works, practically applied to contemporary life, there is good hope that the Kingdom of this world can still be taken for our Lord and for His Christ.

Forward

Looking back over the Methodist achievements of the past we realize how great the debt of the present is to those who have gone before. Looking out upon the world in which we live we see doors of opportunity opening everywhere which none can shut although behind them lurks the adversary. "And looking within shall we see God's people willing in the day of God's power?"

An old epoch is closing. What may replace it no one with certainty can say. But we do know that "God has not deserted the world He created" and that "no cause is forlorn with Christ at its Head."

His Church is at an hour of decision. Shall we, like the Ephraimites "armed and carrying bows, turn back in the day of battle" or shall we join the company of those who "do not draw back" but march face forward.

We choose to go forward!

Let us therefore commit ourselves to Him who can do exceedingly abundant for us more than we can ask or think according to the power that worketh in us, unto whom be glory in the Church through Christ Jesus, world without end. Amen.

Bishops of The Methodist Church

JOURNAL OF THE 1956 GENERAL CONFERENCE
THE METHODIST CHURCH
FIRST DAY, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 25, 1956
MORNING SESSION

Opening Session

The 1956 session of The General Conference of The Methodist Church (being the Fifth General Conference since the uniting of the three constituent Churches, and the Forty-fourth General Conference since the establishment of Methodism in America in 1874) convened in the Municipal Auditorium at Minneapolis, Minnesota, Wednesday, April 25, 1956, at 11 o'clock A.M., with Bishop Clare Purcell, of the Birmingham Area, Southeastern Jurisdiction, and President of The Council of Bishops of The Methodist Church, presiding.

Sacrament of the Lord's Supper—Bishop Ivan Lee Holt

Preceding the official opening of The General Conference, the Bishops, Delegates and visitors being assembled in Hennepin Avenue Methodist Church, the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered by Bishop Ivan Lee Holt, of the Saint Louis Area, South Central Jurisdiction, assisted by Bishops Clare Purcell, W. Earl Ledden, G. Bromley Oxnam, John W. E. Bowen, Edgar A. Love, Hazen G. Werner, Edwin E. Voigt, Fred P. Corson, W. Angie Smith, Paul N. Garber, Roy H. Short, Glenn R. Phillips, A. Raymond Grant, Friedrich Wunderlich of Germany, Sante Uberto Barbieri of Argentina, Newell S. Booth of Africa, Ralph A. Ward of China, Raymond L. Archer of Malaya, Julio Manuel Sabanes of Chile, Odd Hagen of Sweden, Shot K. Mondol of India, Joao August do Amaral of North Brazil, Hyunghi J. Lew of Korea, and Dr. Chester A. Pennington, pastor of Hennepin Avenue Methodist Church.

For Order of Worship see Appendix, page 1037.

Official Opening—Bishop Clare Purcell—James R. Houghton

Bishop Clare Purcell, President of The Council of Bishops of The Methodist Church, the Presiding Officer, called The Conference to order at 11:15 A.M., for the first business session, and announced Hymn No. 162, "O For A Thousand Tongues To Sing." The Conference stood, and under the leadership of James R. Houghton (*) (New England-NE) General Conference Director of Music, joined heartily in the singing of this great Hymn.

Gavel—Bishop Clare Purcell

Bishop Clare Purcell, the Presiding Officer, stated that the gavel he was using to open this General Conference was an historic one, being made from wood taken from under the chancel of the old St. George's church in Philadelphia, and that it had been used to open the First, Second, and now the Fifth General Conference of United Methodism.

Prayer—Bishop Marshall R. Reed

Bishop Marshall R. Reed of the Detroit Area, North Central Jurisdiction, led in prayer, The Conference joining in the Lord's Prayer at its conclusion.

Message from President Dwight D. Eisenhower (*)

The Conference stood, and Bishop Clare Purcell, the Presiding Officer, read the following message (DB-1) from the President of the United States, Dwight D. Eisenhower:—

The White House,
Washington, D. C.

To all who will participate in the forthcoming Methodist General Conference, I extend warm greetings. I am confident this meeting, which brings together Delegates from the United States and many other nations, will strengthen Inter-National good will and increase understanding among people of varying backgrounds.

I congratulate all of you on your continuing work for these causes and for the furtherance of human well-being in your home communities.

And I wish each of you well in such endeavors through the years to come.

Dwight D. Eisenhower (*)

By common consent the Secretary was instructed to make proper reply.

Welcome Addresses—Bishop D. Stanley Coors—Governor Orville L. Freeman ()—Mayor Eric G. Hoyer ()—Bishop Clare Purcell

Bishop D. Stanley Coors of the Minnesota Area, North Central Jurisdiction, Resident Bishop, was recognized, and warmly welcomed The General Conference to Minneapolis, and then presented Orville L. Freeman (*), Governor of Minnesota, to bring official greetings from the State of Minnesota.

Governor Orville L. Freeman ()*

Governor Orville L. Freeman (*), in well chosen words, officially welcomed The General Conference to Minneapolis in behalf of the citizens of the State of Minnesota.

Response—Bishop Clare Purcell

Bishop Clare Purcell, the Presiding Officer, responded in a most gracious way to the addresses of welcome of both Bishop D. Stanley Coors and Governor Orville L. Freeman. (*)

Message—Mayor Eric G. Hoyer ()*

Bishop D. Stanley Coors was recognized by the Presiding Officer and read the following letter from the Mayor of Minneapolis:—

To the Officials, Delegates and Committees,
The General Conference of The Methodist Church, Minneapolis, Minn.

Dear Friends:—

As Mayor of the City of Minneapolis, it is my privilege and honor to join with your 1956 Minnesota General Conference Committee in welcoming you to our city.

We are pleased to have the privilege of serving as host to your 1956 General Conference, and you will find that a hearty welcome awaits you on every hand. It is sincerely hoped that your stay in our "City of Lakes" will be so pleasant that you will return soon.

We in Minneapolis are grateful for the part our Churches have played in the progress of our community over the past one hundred years. This year our city is observing its Centennial Birthday, and in looking back over the years we recognize the great contribution The Methodist Church has made toward the wholesome atmosphere of our community.

The phenomenal growth of your Church during the recent years is certainly a tribute to its outstanding and consecrated leadership. May God richly bless your work.

The citizens of Minneapolis join me in welcoming you and in extending best wishes for your 1956 Conference. You may be assured of every co-operation from this office.

Sincerely,

/s/ Eric G. Hoyer (*) Mayor

Bishop Clare Purcell, the Presiding Officer, in behalf of The Conference, sent words of grateful thanks to Mayor Eric G. Hoyer (*), for his warm letter of welcome.

Quorum Present—Lud H. Estes

The Secretary of the last General Conference, Lud H. Estes (Memphis), properly certifying to the Presiding Bishop, Bishop Clare Purcell, that a quorum of the Delegates elected to the 1956 session of The General Conference of The Methodist Church was present, Bishop Purcell, the Presiding Officer, stated that "the 1956 session of The General Conference of The Methodist Church is now ready for the transaction of business. The next item of business is the election of the Secretary."

Rules Suspended for Election of Secretary—William S. Evans—Chester A. Smith (*)

Bishop Clare Purcell, the Presiding Officer, recognized William S. Evans (Memphis—SE) who made the following statement:—

Bishop Purcell, Delegates and visitors to The General Conference: I speak as the Chairman of the Delegation of the home Conference of Brother Lud H. Estes. I want to make a statement to The Conference, because I feel that if The Conference is fully informed you would be happy to do what I would like to suggest.

Brother Estes has served long and faithfully as the Secretary of this General Conference. Prior to that he served as the Secretary of the Uniting Conference. Prior to that he served for three quadrenniums as Secretary of The General Conference of The Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

As I have talked with him, he has advised me that he does not desire to continue as Secretary of The General Conference for another quadrennium. He has retired since the last General Conference, and today is perhaps as strong and as vigorous as he was four years ago, but he does not care to carry on again.

However, as I have talked with others who are Members of this General Conference, from different sections of our Church, we are all agreed that this Conference is desperately in need of his ministry. He has agreed to serve in all the helpful ministry he can to expedite the business of this Conference and to give such benefit as is necessary in the editing and publication of the Journal.

Therefore, to accomplish this, it seems that it would be best if we were to suspend the Rules so that he can be elected as Secretary of this General Conference, to serve until the proper editing and publication of the Journal and such other matters are finished. Also that this Conference at this time would elect a Secretary-Designate who would assume the responsibilities for the quadrennium.

Therefore, to accomplish those purposes, I would like to move you, sir, that the Standing Rules pertaining to the election of the Secretary be suspended, and that the Secretary be elected only for this General Conference, for a period after it until—which has occurred to me and to others with whom I have conferred—January 1, 1957.

The motion to suspend the Rules, being duly seconded by Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE), prevailed by more than the required two-thirds majority.

Secretary Nominated—W. S. Evans—C. A. Smith (*)

William S. Evans (Memphis—SE) nominated Lud H. Estes (Memphis—SE) to serve as Secretary of The General Conference of The Methodist Church until January 1, 1957, and to edit and have published the Journal of the 1956

General Conference. The nomination was duly seconded by Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE).

Secretary Elected—Lud H. Estes

There being no other nominations Lud H. Estes (Memphis—SE) was unanimously elected as Secretary of the 1956 General Conference of The Methodist Church to serve until January 1, 1957 and to edit and have published the Journal of the 1956 session of The General Conference of The Methodist Church.

Lud H. Estes (Memphis—SE) in well chosen words, expressed his appreciation of the action of The Conference in electing him Secretary to serve until January 1, 1957.

Secretary-Designate Nominated—Leon T. Moore—Ray H. Nichols (*)—Noah W. Moore, Jr.—Paul V. Galloway

Ray H. Nichols (*) (Northwest Texas—SC) was recognized and nominated Leon T. Moore (Philadelphia—NE) as Secretary-Designate, to assume office as Secretary of The General Conference of The Methodist Church on January 1, 1957. The nomination was duly seconded by Noah W. Moore, Jr. (Delaware—C) and Paul V. Galloway (Oklahoma—SC).

Secretary-Designate Elected—Leon T. Moore

Leon T. Moore (Philadelphia—NE) was elected by acclamation as Secretary-Designate of The General Conference of The Methodist Church, to assume office January 1, 1957.

No. 1 Courtesies and Privileges—Alexander K. Smith

Alexander K. Smith (Philadelphia—NE) a member of the Standing Administrative Committee on Courtesies and Privileges, as a matter of high privilege, because the Committee had not been organized as yet, called attention to the following "WELCOME, METHODISTS!" appearing in the Minneapolis STAR of this morning:—

Welcome, Methodists!

Today, thousands of Methodist Christians from all parts of the United States and overseas begin 15 days of important deliberations in the Minneapolis Auditorium, convening for their Quadrennial General Conference.

To this historic church of American Protestantism, we extend cordial greetings. May the Lord guide and bless your deliberations!

The Evangelical Lutheran Church

Headquarters: 422 So. Fifth St., Minneapolis, Minn.

Motion of Alexander K. Smith (Philadelphia—NE), duly seconded, prevailed, instructing the Secretary to make appropriate reply by telegraph.

Closing and Benediction—Bishop D. Stanley Coors

Various announcements were made by the Secretary, and the morning session of April 25, 1956 of The General Conference of The Methodist Church adjourned at 12:50 P.M. with the Benediction pronounced by Bishop D. Stanley Coors.

FIRST DAY, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 25, 1956 EVENING SESSION

Opening—Bishop Clare Purcell—Bishop W. Earl Ledden—James R. Houghton (*)

Pursuant to adjournment, the 1956 session of The General Conference of The Methodist Church, convened in the Municipal Auditorium, Minneapolis, Minnesota, in the evening session of the First Day, Wednesday, April 25, 1956 at 8 P.M., with Bishop Clare Purcell of the Birmingham Area, Southeastern Jurisdiction, and retiring President of the Council of Bishops of The Methodist Church, in the Chair.

Bishop Clare Purcell, the Presiding Officer, announced Hymn No. 381, "The Church's One Foundation." Under the direction of James R. Houghton (*) (New England—NE), Conference Director of Music, the Conference, standing, joined heartily in the singing of the Hymn.

Presiding Officer—Bishop W. Earl Ledden

Bishop Clare Purcell surrendered the Chair to Bishop W. Earl Ledden, of the Syracuse Area, Northeastern Jurisdiction, and newly elected President of The Council of Bishops, who presided at the evening session.

Gavel—Bishop W. Earl Ledden

Bishop W. Earl Ledden, the Presiding Officer, stated that the gavel he was using this evening was made from wood, taken from the altar rail of his boyhood church at Glassboro, New Jersey, where he preached his first sermon as a Bishop in The Methodist Church, two days after his consecration as Bishop.

Committee on Presiding Officers Excused—Lud H. Estes

Motion of Lud H. Estes (Memphis—SE) Secretary, duly seconded prevailed, that the Committee on Presiding Officers be excused for the transaction of business germane to that Committee.

Boston University Seminary Singers—James R. Houghton (*)

The Boston University Seminary Singers, were presented by James R. Houghton (*) (New England—NE) and under his direction rendered two selections:—1st "Behold, Now Praise The Lord," by Everett Titcomb, and 2nd "Still, Still With Thee," by Harriet Beecher Stowe.

Prayer—Bishop Arthur J. Moore

Bishop Arthur J. Moore, of the Atlanta Area, Southeastern Jurisdiction, led in prayer.

Boston University Seminary Singers—James R. Houghton (*)

The Boston University Seminary Singers under the direction of James R. Houghton (*) (New England—NE), then rendered the selection, "Alleluiah, Amen," by George Frederick Handel.

Appreciation—Bishop W. Earl Ledden

In behalf of The Conference, Bishop W. Earl Ledden, the Presiding Officer, thanked the Boston University Seminary Singers, and James R. Houghton (*) (New England—NE) for the inspiring music of the three selections so capably rendered.

Hymn 382—James R. Houghton (*)

James R. Houghton (*) (New England—NE) General Conference Director announced Hymn No. 382, "Glorious Things of Thee Are Spoken, Zion, City of Our God." The Conference, standing, joined in the singing of the Hymn.

Episcopal Address—Bishop Fred Pierce Corson—Bishop W. Earl Ledden

Bishop W. Earl Ledden stated that it is traditional and customary in The Methodist Church for The Council of Bishops to select one of their number to prepare and present the Episcopal Address. The Address is prepared, presented to The Council of Bishops, discussed and amended by them, and finally presented to the Delegates composing The General Conference; that Bishop Fred Pierce Corson of the Philadelphia Area, Northeastern Jurisdiction, had been selected to prepare this great Church document for the 1956 session of The General Conference of The Methodist Church, and that he would now present it to The Conference. The Conference stood in applause.

Bishop Corson Reads The Episcopal Address

Bishop Fred Pierce Corson asked The Conference to join with him in a moment of silent prayer and then read The Episcopal Address prepared for the 1956 session of The General Conference of The Methodist Church. At the conclusion of the reading the Conference stood in prolonged applause.

Bishop W. Earl Ledden, the Presiding Officer, in well chosen words, expressed the thanks and appreciation of The General Conference to Bishop Fred Pierce Corson, for his masterful address.

For Episcopal Address, see Journal, page 188.

No. 1 Presiding Officers—H. Hughes Wagner

H. Hughes Wagner (New England—NE) Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee on Presiding Officers, announced that Bishop A. Frank Smith of the Houston-San Antonio Area, South Central Jurisdiction, would preside at the session of Thursday Morning, April 26, 1956. For Report see page 1252.

Closing—Benediction—Bishop Ralph S. Cushman

Bishop W. Earl Ledden, the Presiding Officer, called attention to the devotional period beginning at 8:30 A.M. with the devotional message to be given by Bishop Herbert Welch.

After other announcements, The General Conference of The Methodist Church adjourned at 10:20 P.M. with the Benediction pronounced by Bishop Ralph S. Cushman, Retired.

SECOND DAY, THURSDAY, APRIL 26, 1956

MORNING SESSION

Opening—Bishop A. Frank Smith

Pursuant to adjournment, the 1956 session of The General Conference of The Methodist Church, convened in the morning session of the Second Day, Thursday, April 26, 1956, at 8:30 A.M., in the Municipal Auditorium, Minneapolis, Minnesota, with Bishop A. Frank Smith, of the Houston-San Antonio Area, South Central Jurisdiction, presiding, who announced that the Devotions would be conducted by Bishop Herbert Welch, retired.

Devotions—Bishop Herbert Welch—James R. Houghton (*)

James R. Houghton (*) (New England—NE) announced Hymn No. 89, "Joy To The World! The Lord Is Come." The Conference, standing, joined in the singing of the Hymn.

Apostles' Creed—Bishop Herbert Welch

The Conference, still standing, joined in the recital of the Apostles' Creed, led by Bishop Herbert Welch.

Devotional Message—Bishop Herbert Welch

Bishop Herbert Welch, retired, brought the Devotional Message of the morning, using as the basis of his Message, the passage, "When He, the Spirit of truth, is come, He will guide you," found in John 16:13.

At the close of his Message, Bishop Herbert Welch led in a brief prayer, and pronounced the Apostolic Benediction.

Bishop A. Frank Smith, the Presiding Officer, spoke words of commendation of the long service that Bishop Herbert Welch had so effectively rendered to the cause of Jesus Christ in the promotion of the interests of the same, represented by his activities in The Methodist Church.

Plan of Organization and Rules of Order—Bishop A. Frank Smith

Bishop A. Frank Smith, of the Houston-San Antonio Area, South Central Jurisdiction, the Presiding Officer, said some question has been raised as to the Rules under which we are operating, and made the following statement:—

"You will find on page 191 of the Handbook, at the top of the page, the declaration that the Plan of Organization and Rules of Order of The General Conference shall be the Plan of Organization and Rules of Order of the preceding General Conference until they have been altered or modified by action of The General Conference, Paragraph 505 in the 1952 Discipline.

There has been no action by this body modifying or altering the Rules. Therefore we are proceeding under the Rules found in the Handbook before you."

No. 2 Courtesies and Privileges—Alexander K. Smith

Bishop A. Frank Smith, the Presiding Officer, called for the Report of the Standing Administrative Committee on Courtesies and Privileges. Alexander K. Smith (Philadelphia—NE), Chairman of the Committee stated there was no Report for this session.

Commission to Study the Jurisdictional Form of Government—Presented by Harold A. Bosley Who Moved to Refer to Committee on Conferences—Referred

Harold A. Bosley (Rock River—NC) was recognized, and presented the following Resolution (DB-5) :—

An Enabling Resolution for The General Conference

The Episcopal Address has recognized the need of an immediate and thorough review of the philosophy and the effectiveness of the Jurisdictional Structure of government begun seventeen (17) years ago with the unification of the three branches of American Methodism. We believe that such a review is called for both by our experience with a new instrument of government, and, especially, by the several problems within The Methodist Church today which relate to the Jurisdictional form of government.

Therefore, Be It Resolved:

1. That this General Conference constitute a Commission for such study, the same to be elected by The General Conference on nomination by The Council of Bishops, as follows: two Bishops, two Ministers, and two Lay persons from each Jurisdiction; and in addition, one Minister and one Lay person for each five hundred thousand (500,000) church members or major fraction thereof in each Jurisdiction. Vacancies occurring during the quadrennium shall be filled in each instance by The College of Bishops of the Jurisdiction concerned.
2. That the Commission be asked:
 - a. To review the philosophy of the Jurisdictional System as an instrument of unity in the Church.
 - b. To ascertain the effects of the Jurisdictional System on the separate Jurisdictions and on the Church as a whole.
 - c. To evaluate the place of the Jurisdictional System in the future of The Methodist Church and make recommendations based on its findings.
3. That the Commission be authorized to determine its method of study, and that the expense of meeting and other expense which it shall deem necessary to the fulfillment of its duty shall be paid from the General Conference Expense Fund.
4. That the Commission be instructed to report its findings and recommendations to the 1960 Quadrennial Session of The General Conference. The Commission shall publish its Report not later than six months prior to the meeting of the 1960 General Conference. Copies shall be sent to members of the General Boards and Agencies, the Delegates to the 1960 General Conference, District Superintendents, Secretaries of Annual Conferences, and Conference Lay Leaders.

5. That the Committee on Conferences of the current session of The General Conference be authorized at its discretion to recommend referral of any Memorial before it relating to the Jurisdictional Structure to the Commission for Study.
6. This Commission shall be convened by the member designated by the Council of Bishops.

Harold A. Bosley (Rock River—NC) moved that the Resolution be referred to the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, and the motion was duly seconded.

Against Referring—Chester A. Smith (*)

Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) spoke against the motion to refer.

Postpone Reference—Loyd F. Worley—Not Adopted

Loyd F. Worley (New York East—NE), speaking under Rule 20 which gives precedence to a motion to postpone, over a motion to refer, moved to postpone referring until Friday morning, April 27, after recess at the morning session. The motion was duly seconded.

Against Postponement—A. Wesley Pugh

A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC) spoke against the motion to postpone, as follows:—

“Mr. Chairman, we seem to be opening up here for general discussion a matter which looks toward new legislation or changes in the Discipline, and under our Rule on page 197 of the Handbook, No. 2, it says, ‘The General Conference shall have the following Standing Legislative Committees which shall consider all proposals looking toward new legislation or changes in the present legislation of the Church and report recommendations relating thereto to The Conference.’

“It would seem to me therefore, there is no other alternative than to refer this immediately to the Committee instead of opening up for discussion here generally.”

Ruling—Bishop A. Frank Smith

Bishop A. Frank Smith, of the Houston-San Antonio Area, South Central Jurisdiction, the Presiding Officer, made the following ruling:—

“The Chair would have to rule, if Mr. Worley confines his remarks purely to a discussion of whether or not it should be referred, that he is in order unless the Chair is over-ruled. He is opposing the referring of this. Clearly, he should not discuss new possible legislation. If you, Mr. Worley, can confine yourself within the limits of that, and still meet the requirements of the Church Rules, you have the floor.”

Loyd F. Worley Speaks Against Referring

Loyd F. Worley (New York East—NE) spoke as follows:—

“Mr. Chairman. I will endeavor to do so.

“Thank you,

“This is a very important Resolution that Dr. Bosley has presented. No one holds Dr. Bosley in higher esteem than I do, and I am sure of his very conscious effort to do something for the peace and unity of the Church. This, however, is such an important Resolution that we all ought to have an opportunity of reading it in cold print. It sounded good. Nevertheless, is there any reason why we cannot wait twenty-four hours and have some opportunity of studying it in exact detail? Must we be hurried into action?"

"I sincerely hope that you will be calm enough, patient enough, willing enough to wait until tomorrow morning and study this in detail."

Against Postponement—Nolan B. Harmon

Nolan B. Harmon (Virginia—SE) spoke against the motion to postpone, as follows:—

"Dr. Bosley put this before us very plainly. Nothing will be put before us for adoption until the Committee to which it is referred shall bring its Report before us. Then the main question can be opened for debate. I see no sense in waiting one day by postponing for twenty-four hours. I support Dr. Bosley's motion to refer."

Motion of Loyd F. Worley—Not Adopted

The motion of Loyd F. Worley (New York East—NE) to postpone, on being put to a vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.

Motion to Refer Adopted—Harold A. Bosley

The motion of Harold A. Bosley (Rock River—NC) to refer the Resolution presented to the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, on being put to a vote of The General Conference, was adopted.

Order of the Day—Promotion and Cultivation—Bishop William C. Martin—Advance—Bishop Costen J. Harrell—C. C. Bell—Order Set

Bishop William C. Martin, of the Dallas-Fort Worth Area, South Central Jurisdiction, Chairman of the General Conference Commission on Promotion and Cultivation, and Bishop Costen J. Harrell, of the Charlotte Area, Southeastern Jurisdiction, Chairman of The General Conference Advance Committee, presented their Reports for the consideration of The General Conference, with a request that their consideration be made the Order of the Day for Saturday morning, April 28th, 1956, following the Devotional Message of that morning.

Motion of C. Cooper Bell (Virginia—SE), duly seconded prevailed, setting as the Order of the Day, the consideration of the Joint Reports at the time suggested.

Order of the Day—Report of the Study Commission on Theological Education—Eugene M. Frank—Order Set—Bishop Donald H. Tippet

Motion of Eugene M. Frank (Kansas—SC), duly seconded, prevailed, setting as the Order of the Day for Monday morning, April 30th, 1956, following the Devotional Message, the consideration of the Report of the Study Commission on Theological Education created by the 1952 General Conference; that the Report be printed in the Daily Christian Advocate prior to its presentation, and that Bishop Donald H. Tippet, of the San Francisco Area, Western Jurisdiction, Chairman of the Commission, be extended the privilege of the floor for the presentation of the Commission's Report.

Reports General Board of Pensions Referred—Bishop Ivan Lee Holt—Ira B. Loud

Bishop Ivan Lee Holt, of the St. Louis Area, South Central Jurisdiction, and President of the General Board of Pensions, presented three Reports from the General Board of Pensions, with the request that they be referred to the Standing Committee on Pensions.

Motion of Ira B. Loud (Texas—C), duly seconded, prevailed, referring the following Reports of the General Board of Pensions to the Standing Committee on Pensions:—

1st. Special Report on the Merger of the Illinois and Missouri Corporations.

2nd. Joint Report of the Council on World Service and Finance and the Committee on Pension Legislation of the General Board of Pensions.

3rd. The Report of the Committee of the General Board of Pensions on Pension Legislation.

Resolution on Integration—Thurman L. Dodson (*)—Referred

Thurman L. Dodson (*) (Washington—C) presented a Resolution on Integration (DB-6), and moved its reference to the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences. The motion to refer, being duly seconded, the Resolution was referred as follows:—

Whereas, we are living in an era of great travail and turmoil in the hearts and minds of men as it touches one of the most transcending questions of our times, involving the rights and dignities of human personalities, and

Whereas, the titanic struggle now going on in the world between two great forces for survival and supremacy in the lives of men and women everywhere, and with the world deadlocked, as it were, between the enlightened forces of Democracy, with its accent upon the dignity and equality of human personality on the one hand, with the forces of Atheistic Communism on the other, and

Whereas, in times like these, great religious bodies, like The Methodist Church, should translate its concept of the Christian ethic and ideal in these matters into unequivocal language, lest no one doubt that the Church is either too disinterested to proclaim its faith in the religion of Jesus Christ, or too timid to withstand the jeers or displeasure of a godless minority which insists upon its right to indulge in practices of segregation and discrimination while at the same time proclaiming their belief in the fundamental principles of Christianity, and

Whereas, it is essential that this 1956 Session of The General Conference reaffirm its faith in the efficacy of the Christian ethic and dynamic to solve all of our problems, however grave, and thereby contribute the weight of its influence upon the side of those who would eliminate every badge and indicia of a second class citizenship.

That none may misunderstand our position, Therefore Be It Resolved:

(1) That this Conference wholeheartedly and without reservation support the Supreme Court decision on Integration as just, sound and proper, and entirely consonant with the teachings of Christ.

(2) That this General Conference urge our people, both clergy and lay to prayerfully accept the decision of the Court and to join no movement or forces in their local communities which seek to undermine, thwart or subvert the decision.

(3) That we condemn mob violence and all attempts to inflame our people whether by violence, manifestos, Resolutions of Interposition, Citizens' Councils or any other devices which tend to perpetuate the sin of segregation.

(4) That we reaffirm our belief that segregation and discrimination are sinful and contrary to the teachings of Christ.

(5) That this Conference here and now abolish all forms of segregation so far as this General Conference may so do and in this connection refer this portion of this Resolution to The Judicial Council to determine the extent to which this Conference can be effective and to report its findings immediately to this Conference to the end that appropriate action may be had at this session of The General Conference.

(6) That we authorize the immediate appointment of a Commission on Integration to be composed as follows:

An equal number of Ministers and Laymen representing each Jurisdiction, and members of The Council of Bishops to be selected by The Council of Bishops. The aforesaid Commission on Integration shall explore the entire question of segregation as it affects The Methodist Church, and to make such recommendations and to initiate and institute such Constitutional changes as may be required so that The General Conference of 1960 can consummate the complete integration of The Methodist Church.

Resolution Re Constitutional Amendment—Chester A. Smith (*)—Action Postponed

Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) was recognized to present a Resolution concerning the introduction of a Constitutional Amendment concerning the abolition of the Central Jurisdiction.

Statement—Bishop A. Frank Smith

Bishop A. Frank Smith, of the Houston-San Antonio Area, South Central Jurisdiction, the Presiding Officer, made the following statement before Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) presented his Resolution:—

"The Conference will bear in mind that we are proceeding somewhat freely this morning because the Committees have not been able to begin their work, and Resolutions from the floor are properly referred. From deference to and respect for the Committees the Chair is of the opinion that general discussion should not be entered into until the Committees are set up for the purpose of consideration, and have had an opportunity to act. I am sure The Conference is grateful to these brethren for referring these matters to the proper Committees."

Resolution Presented—Chester A. Smith ()*

Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) presented the following Resolution (DB-7):—

"Whereas, The Council of Bishops at their Chicago meeting challenged the Methodist people to support the principles involved in the decision of the Supreme Court on segregation; and,

Whereas, we believe the present segregation of the Negro members of The Methodist Church is a violation of the teachings of Jesus, and it is without justification either in law, Christianity or biology, and should therefore be ended as soon as possible;

Therefore Be It Resolved, That we instruct the Committee on the State of the Church (later changed to Committee on Conferences. Editor) to prepare and present to The General Conference an Amendment to the Constitution of the Church, which, when ratified by a sufficient number of the Annual Conferences, would abolish the Central Jurisdiction, and place the Annual Conferences in that Jurisdiction in such remaining Jurisdictions under the Plan of Union as may be mutually agreeable to such Annual Conferences and to the said remaining Jurisdictions."

The motion being duly seconded, Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) started to speak to the Resolution.

Statement—Bishop A. Frank Smith

Before Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) started speaking, Bishop A. Frank Smith, of the Houston-San Antonio Area, South Central Jurisdiction, the Presiding Officer, made the following statement:—

"The motion is seconded, but you will suffer the Chair, Mr. Smith, to say you now are calling for the referring of a paper which carries with it explicit instruction which orders the Committee to do certain things. That certainly would call for general discussion here before this Conference would wish to so order the Committee. I think this Conference ought to understand that this carries with it specific instructions.

Going through ordinary channels it would be referred to the Committee for recommendation, and then come back to The Conference. However, Mr. Smith's Resolution is instruction specifying what the Committee shall do. Therefore this Conference, before such reference would be made would naturally wish to discuss the subject at length. That is for you to determine."

Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) then spoke to the Resolution.

Statement—A. Wesley Pugh

A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC) was recognized and made the following statement:—

"Mr. Chairman, I would like just respectfully to insist we begin to follow the Rules of Order, which require that any questions or proposals or Resolutions or communications which are not included in the regular business of The General Conference shall be through a Committee to adjudge whether or not they are privileged matters to be brought here and discussed like this.

I think it would refer to even the preceding Resolutions which have already been presented. They should go through the regular channels as other Memorials and other Resolutions do, and it would seem to me that we ought to require, even if we don't have any business this morning except to adjourn and have the Committees meet, which might be a good thing, that we follow these Rules and require that any matters that are presented here as privileged Resolutions shall be recommended by the proper Committee according to our Rules."

Ruling—Bishop A. Frank Smith

Bishop A. Frank Smith, of the Houston-San Antonio Area, South Central Jurisdiction, the Presiding Officer replied as follows:—

"You are eminently right, Doctor, but you will understand that this morning in the absence of Reports from the Committees, and following the Resolution presented by Dr. Bosley, which opened a general field in which there will be discussion, there is evidence, of course, that perhaps we have been a little freer than would have been the case were we further along in our proceedings."

Point of Order—E. H. Blackard—Recommended Change Accepted—C. A. Smith (*)

Embree H. Blackard (Western North Carolina—SE) raised the Point of Order, that the subject matter of the Resolution properly belonged to the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, and not to the Standing Legislative Committee on the State of the Church.

Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) accepted the suggested change of direction of his Resolution, and by common consent, The General Conference approved.

Motion to Postpone Action—Harold C. Case—Adopted

Harold C. Case (New England—NE) speaking under Section 7 of Rule 20, which states that a motion to postpone shall have precedence over a motion to refer, moved to postpone action on the Resolution of Chester A. Smith () (New York—NE), until the Resolutions previously presented separately by Harold A. Bosley (Rock River—NC) and Thurman L. Dodson () (Washington—C) and referred to the proper Committees, shall have been returned to The General Conference for full consideration.

The motion was duly seconded.

For Postponement—C. Cooper Bell

C. Cooper Bell (Virginia—SE) spoke in favor of postponement.

The motion of Harold C. Case (New England—NE) to postpone action on the Resolution of Chester A. Smith () (New York—NE) until after the Committee on Conferences had reported on the Resolutions referred to it by Harold A. Bosley (Rock River—NC) and Thurman L. Dodson () (Washington—C), on being put to a vote of The General Conference, was adopted.

Resolution to Create a Commission to Study the Jurisdictional System of The Methodist Church—G. Stanley Frazer—Referred

G. Stanley Frazer (Alabama—SE) presented (DR-8) the following Resolution for the Creation of a Commission to Study the Jurisdictional System of The Methodist Church, and moved its reference to the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences:—

Resolved:—That The General Conference create a Commission to make a thorough study of our Jurisdictional System embodied in the Constitution of The Methodist Church with special reference to its structure and effectiveness, particularly as it is related to our changing social and economic questions; and that such a Commission of a total of not more than 90 members be composed of an equal number of Ministers and Laymen, to be appointed by the Clerical and Lay Members of this General Conference on the following basis and in a manner hereinafter designated:

Each Jurisdiction shall be entitled to one member for a church membership of from 110,000 to 125,000; provided, however, that every Jurisdiction is entitled to a minimum of 4 Clerical and 4 Lay members of the Commission; provided further that the Delegates within an Episcopal Area meeting in one body will select such members, Clerical and Lay, to which they may be entitled, to serve on this Commission; provided further that where there are Areas with insufficient numbers of church members to entitle them to even one member, such Areas may join with another Area or Areas whose combined membership total may entitle them to one or more members of the Commission; and that this General Conference direct the Committee on Conferences to submit to this body for final approval a formula of representation so that each Jurisdiction within the United States may be equitably represented with an equal division for both Clerical and Lay members;

And that the Commission be divided into Jurisdictional Sections, following the boundaries of the presently existing Jurisdictions, with a Chairman, Vice-Chairman and Secretary of each Section; and that it shall be the duty of each Jurisdictional Section to conduct thorough studies and hearings in all Areas of the Jurisdiction dealing with social and economic questions that vitally concern the life and program of The Methodist Church and its constituents; that both the General Commission and the Sections operating within the Jurisdictions be convened at least once annually and that members of the Commission of any Jurisdiction be invited and encouraged to meet with other members at meetings of the Jurisdictional Sections whenever feasible and practicable; and that the Commission adopt such rules and procedure necessary for the conduct of its affairs.

And that the Council on World Service and Finance be instructed to provide all necessary funds for the expenses of the Commission in carrying out the intent and provisions of this Resolution, both in its General and Sectional activities.

And that all places on the Commission be filled as provided heretofore within sixty (60) days after the adjournment of this General Conference; and that the first meeting for organization be held in October or November, 1956, on the call and by being convened by the President of The Council of Bishops, or one of the Bishops appointed by him, and with the provision that the Bishops of The Methodist Church are recognized as official advisors in all matters relating to the work of the Commission.

That all Resolutions or Memorials pertaining to the place or structure of any Jurisdiction within The Methodist Church be referred to this Commission for future study; and that the Commission is hereby instructed to make a full Report of its findings and recommendations to the 1960 session of The General Conference.

That nothing in this Resolution be construed as being related to or affecting questions or proposals pertaining to the merger of any church, group of churches, or a District or Annual Conference, into other Conferences or Jurisdictions.

G. STANLEY FRAZER (Alabama—SE)
THOMAS S. HARRIS (Alabama—SE)
LEE ROY USSERY (*) (Alabama—SE)
H. PAUL MATHISON (Alabama—SE)

Statements—Bishop A. Frank Smith—G. Stanley Frazer

Bishop A. Frank Smith, of the Houston-San Antonio Area, South Central Jurisdiction, and Presiding Officer, made the following statement:—

“Now, if you will allow the Chair to clarify his own mind and the situation for The Conference; does not your Resolution direct, as did

Mr. Smith's Resolution, that the Committee on Conferences do certain things; or do you refer the Resolution to the Committee for such action as it may wish to take?"

G. Stanley Frazer (Alabama—SE) replied:—

"I think the intent is for its reference to the Committee on Conferences."

Further Statement—Bishop A. Frank Smith

Bishop A. Frank Smith, of the Houston-San Antonio Area, South Central Jurisdiction, and Presiding Officer, made a further statement, as follows:—

"I noted the word 'direct' and 'instruct.' It is understood that The Conference, if they vote to refer, is not directing that certain things be done. It is simply referring this Plan as it referred the Plan of Dr. Bosley."

Reply—G. Stanley Frazer

G. Stanley Frazer (Alabama—SE) replied:—

"That is correct, Mr. Chairman."

Further Statement—Bishop A. Frank Smith

Bishop A. Frank Smith, of the Houston-San Antonio Area, South Central Jurisdiction, the Presiding Officer, made a further statement, as follows:—

"The Chair may be allowed to say further with respect to the Council on World Service and Finance, I think we would not be permitted to instruct the Council on World Service and Finance in that particular, for the Discipline provides that no Agency may be set up by the Church until the Council on World Service and Finance has been apprized of the machinery involved therein, and of the probable expense, and has brought a Report to The General Conference.

Therefore, it would be out of order for us to instruct the Council on World Service and Finance in that particular, but to await their action at the proper time.

Now, Dr. Frazer, you are simply moving a proposal here without any instructions from this Conference, giving free liberty to the Committee, just as was the situation with respect to Dr. Bosley's Resolution."

The motion of G. Stanley Frazer (Alabama—SE) to refer to the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, without instructions, his Resolution for the Creation of a Commission to Study the Jurisdictional System of The Methodist Church, having been duly seconded, on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was adopted.

Resolution re Board of Publication—C. Anderson Davis—Referred

C. Anderson Davis (East Tennessee—C) presented a

Resolution, (DB-9) and moved its reference to the Standing Legislative Committee on Publishing Interests, as follows:—

Whereas, The General Conference of The Methodist Church of 1952 declared that segregation has no place in The Methodist Church, and

Whereas, it is unchristian, immoral and inhuman with no Biblical basis, and without foundation according to the United States Supreme Court, and

Whereas, Negroes are a definite part of The Methodist Church, and therefore, have a definite interest in the Publishing House; large amounts of materials are purchased by Negro churches, ministers and laymen from The Methodist Publishing House, it would, therefore seem reasonable that The General Conference should take this under consideration and make it possible for Negroes to have a voice in policy-making and administration of the Publishing House,

Therefore Be It Resolved, That The General Conference instruct the Board of Publication to up-grade Negroes in all classes of labor, and hire them in skilled positions in The Methodist Publishing House, and

Be It Further Resolved, That The General Conference instruct the Board of Publication to employ Negroes in Executive and Administrative positions.

Respectfully submitted,
The East Tennessee Annual Conference
C. ANDERSON DAVIS, Secretary

(Unanimously adopted by the East Tennessee Conference, meeting in Morristown, Tennessee, July 13-17, 1955).

(Signed) C. ANDERSON DAVIS

Statement—Bishop A. Frank Smith

Bishop A. Frank Smith, of the Houston-San Antonio Area, South Central Jurisdiction, the Presiding Officer, made the following statement:—

“Again we have instructions to the Committee on Publishing Interests. We have one more instruction which I am sure The Conference would not wish to adopt without general discussion upon all phases of the subject.

Can you not, sir, send that in as the other papers have been sent in, for reference to the Committee on Publishing Interests, stating your position without any instruction for the General Conference?”

Reply:—C. Anderson Davis

C. Anderson Davis (East Tennessee—C) replied:—

“That is the aim.”

Statement—Bishop A. Frank Smith

Before putting the question to refer, Bishop A. Frank Smith, of the Houston San-Antonio Area, South Central Jurisdiction, the Presiding Officer, made the following statement:—

"I am sure that is your purpose, Mr. Davis. The understanding is that it is not an instruction; it is simply a Resolution relating to the matter contained therein."

Resolution Referred

C. Anderson Davis (East Tennessee—C) moved the reference of his Resolution, without instructions, to the Standing Legislative Committee on Publishing Interests, and the motion to refer, being duly seconded, on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was adopted.

Order of the Day for Report of Commission on Church Union Reconsidered—Charles C. Parlin ()—Set for Today—Charles C. Parlin ()—Adopted

Motion of Charles C. Parlin (*) (Newark—NE), duly seconded, prevailed, that The General Conference reconsider its action of yesterday, setting as an Order of the Day for tomorrow the consideration of the Report of the Commission on Church Union, in order that the Report might be considered at the session this morning.

Motion of Charles C. Parlin (*) (Newark—NE) duly seconded, prevailed, setting as the Order of the Day, the hearing of the Report of the Commission on Church Union, to immediately follow the presentation of the Chaplains after the recess period of this morning's session.

Order of the Day—Report of Board of Publication Concerning the Church Paper's Program—J. Otis Young—Order Set

Motion of J. Otis Young (Ohio—NC), duly seconded, prevailed, setting as the Order of the Day for Monday, April 30th, 1956, following the morning recess period, the hearing of and action on the Report of the Board of Publication regarding the Church Paper Program for The Methodist Church.

Motion to Defer Nominations from the Floor until Tomorrow—Chester A. Smith ()—Out of Order*

Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) moved that nominations from the floor be deferred until tomorrow. The motion was ruled out of order by the Chair, as the Discipline provides that nominations from the floor shall be made at the time the nominations are made by The Council of Bishops. See 1952 Discipline, Paragraph 901, Article 1.

Biographical Sketches—Alexander K. Smith—Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam

Alexander K. Smith (Philadelphia—NE), Chairman of the Committee on Courtesies and Privileges, raised the question of the obtaining of the Biographical Sketches called for by the Plan of Organization, page 194, Handbook for Delegates, (3) Courtesies and Privileges, "f," in time for the publication in the Daily Christian Advocate, as required by Paragraph 901, Article 1, of the 1952 Discipline.

Werner to make a statement concerning the Report, said Order of the Day to follow immediately after the presentation of the "India Day" Order of the Day after recess at Tuesday morning's session, May 1st, 1956.

Recess

After various announcements were made, The General Conference of The Methodist Church adjourned for the morning recess of fifteen minutes.

Re-Convene—Bishop A. Frank Smith—James R. Houghton (*)

Bishop A. Frank Smith, of the Houston-San Antonio Area, South Central Jurisdiction, the Presiding Officer, called The Conference to order at the close of the recess period, and announced Hymn No. 60, "Praise to the Lord, the Almighty."

Under the direction of James R. Houghton (*) (New England—NE) General Conference Director of Music, The Conference stood, and joined heartily in the singing of the Hymn.

Boston Seminary Singers—Harold C. Case—Bishop A. Frank Smith—James R. Houghton (*)

Bishop A. Frank Smith, the Presiding Officer, recognized, and presented Harold C. Case (New England—NE) for a privileged statement.

Harold C. Case (New England—NE), President of Boston University, stated that the Boston University Seminary Singers began singing the great music of the Church twenty-nine years ago under the leadership of Dr. James R. Houghton () (New England—NE), organizer and sole Director all these years; that over one thousand ministerial students have sung under his skilled direction during that time; that the largest number of them have entered the active ministry; that the group here today are in training for full-time Christian service, with the active ministry as the objective of the majority of them; and that it was a privilege to present them to sing, under the direction of Dr. James R. Houghton () (New England—NE) their Director.

The Boston University Seminary Singers, under the direction of James R. Houghton (*) (New England—NE) then favored The Conference with the selection "The Spirit of the Lord Is Upon Me," by Everett Titcomb.

James R. Houghton (*) (New England—NE) requested all former Boston University Seminary Singers, Delegates or visitors, to come to the platform and join in the singing of the 130th Psalm.

The Boston University Seminary Singers, augmented by many from the audience, then sang the "De Profundis," the musical score having been written by James R. Houghton (*) (New England—NE) Director of the group of singers.

Bishop A. Frank Smith, the Presiding Officer, in behalf of The Conference, expressed its thanks to the Boston University Seminary Singers, and James R. Houghton (*) (New England—NE) Director, for their rendition of the soul-stirring hymns and special selections with which they had favored The Conference.

Order of the Day—Presentation of Chaplains—Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam

Bishop A. Frank Smith, the Presiding Officer, stated that the Order of the Day, the presentation of the Chaplains present, had arrived, and recognized Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, of the Washington Area, Northeastern Jurisdiction, and Chairman of the Commission on Chaplains of The Methodist Church.

Statement—Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam

Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam stated that there were 454 Methodist ministers in active duty at this moment; 147 in the Army, 129 in the Navy, and 178 in the Air Force; in addition 52 are serving in The Veterans Administration; 57 in corrective institutions, hospitals and homes; 90 are serving as civilians in the Civil Air Patrol; 545 Reserve Chaplains not on active duty, making a total of 1,198 Methodist ministers directly related to the Chaplaincy Service.

Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam then presented the Chaplains present. The Conference stood in applause.

Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam next presented the members of the Commission on Chaplains present, and then the Staff members of the Commission.

Chaplain Charles I. Carpenter Presented—Speaks—Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam

Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, Chairman of the Commission of Chaplains of The Methodist Church, then presented Major General Chaplain Charles I. Carpenter of the Peninsula Annual Conference, the Chief of Chaplains of the Air Force, and a member of this General Conference.

Major General Chaplain Charles I. Carpenter (Peninsula—NE) Chief of Chaplains of the Air Force, on behalf of his two colleagues, Chief of Chaplains of the Army, Chaplain Patrick J. Ryan, and Chief of Chaplains of the Navy, Chaplain Ed Hart, and on behalf of himself, as Chief of Chaplains of the Air Force, expressed to The General Conference, and to The Methodist Church, the sincere appreciation of the Armed Forces for the co-operation of The Methodist Church in furnishing ministers for the Chaplaincy.

Chaplain Edward McDonald Presented—Speaks—Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam

Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, Chairman of the Commission of Chaplains of The Methodist Church, next presented Chaplain Edward McDonald, Chief of Chaplains of The Veterans Administration.

Chief of Chaplains of the Veterans Administration, Monsignor Edward McDonald addressed the Conference, stating that in the area of Institutional Ministry there are over one hundred Methodist Chaplains, fifty of whom are ministering to the sick and wounded in the hospitals under the jurisdiction of The Veterans Administration. Bringing greetings from the Chaplains engaged in Institutional Ministry, he voiced his deep gratitude to the Commission on Chaplains of The Methodist Church for their part in helping make the ministry of The Veterans Administration so helpful and efficient as it ministers to the sick and wounded committed to its care.

Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam Closes Order of the Day—Prayer

Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, Chairman of the Commission on Chaplains of The Methodist Church, separately thanked Major General Chaplain Charles I. Carpenter, Chief of Chaplains of the Air Force, and Chief of Chaplains of the Veterans Administration, Chaplain Monsignor Edward McDonald in behalf of The Conference, and closed the Order of the Day with a short prayer.

Resolution—Chester A. Smith ()—Out of Order—Bishop A. Frank Smith*

Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) was recognized for a matter of special privilege and presented the following Resolution (DB-11) :—

“Be It Resolved, That we express our appreciation of the distinguished service being rendered to the men in our Armed Forces, and to the country as a whole by those who are serving as Chaplains in the Armed Forces and The Veterans Administration.

That we express our conviction that it would be more in keeping with the spirit of Jesus, the Prince of Peace, if the Chaplains were supported by the Church rather than by the Federal Government, and if they wore a distinctive uniform of the Church rather than the uniform of the Army.

We request The Council of Bishops to take the necessary steps to bring this about.”

Signed

Chester A. Smith

Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) moved the adoption of the Resolution.

Ruling—Bishop A. Frank Smith—Out of Order

Bishop A. Frank Smith, the Presiding Officer, ruled the motion out of order at this time, and made the following statement:—

“The Chair must rule, sir, that that paper should be referred to the proper Committee. That calls for long discussion in all probability. We have an Order of the Day, not because of the content, sir, of your motion, but because the Order of the Day has arrived, and the adoption or rejection of that motion would undoubtedly call for extended discussion, therefore, the Chair must rule the motion out of order at this time.”

Order of Day—Report of Commission on Church Union—Charles C. Parlin (*)—Bishop Ivan Lee Holt—Bishop Robert Gibson—Report Adopted

The Order of the Day, presentation and consideration of the Report of the Commission on Church Union, having arrived, Bishop A. Frank Smith, the Presiding Officer, recognized Charles C. Parlin (*) (Newark—NE) Secretary of the Commission for the presentation of the Report of the Commission.

Charles C. Parlin (*) (Newark) Secretary of the Commission on Church Union presented the Report (Quadrennial Reports, pages 636-647 inclusive), stating that the Commission had been working in three fields during the past quadrennium, as follows:—

First:—Towards a United Church in the United States of America.

A Proposed Plan of Union is attached to the Report, for information.

Second:—Attempting to break the road block of the ecumenical movement, namely, the closed community.

Third:—Worked with our Methodist brethren throughout the world, and important decisions will be made at Lake Junaluska, North Carolina, when the World Methodist Council meets there in August, 1956.

Bishop Ivan Lee Holt Speaks—Bishop Robert Gibson Speaks

Charles C. Parlin (*) (Newark—NE) requested the privilege of the floor for Bishop Ivan Lee Holt, Chairman of the Commission on Church Union, in order that he might speak to the Report.

By common consent, the privilege of the floor was granted, and Bishop A. Frank Smith, the Presiding Officer, recognized Bishop Ivan Lee Holt of the Saint Louis Area, South Central Jurisdiction, and Chairman of the Commission on Church Union since its creation by The General Conference of 1948 at Boston, Massachusetts, who spoke to the Report briefly clearly outlining the work done during the past quadrennium, and then presented the Right Reverend Robert Gibson, Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Virginia of the Protestant Episcopal Church, a Fraternal Delegate to this session of The General Conference of The Methodist Church that he might also speak to the Report. The Conference arose and applauded.

Bishop Robert Gibson Speaks

Bishop Robert Gibson, Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Virginia, and Chairman of the Commission on Approaches to Unity in the Protestant Episcopal Church, addressed The Conference, bringing greetings from the Protestant Episcopal Church and speaking to the Report, and of the progress made by the two Commissions on Church Union, in the consideration of the problems germane to their work as Commissions on Church Union.

Report Adopted—Charles C. Parlin ()*

On the motion of Charles C. Parlin (*) (Newark—NE) Secretary of the Commission on Church Union, duly seconded, the Report of the Commission was adopted. For Report see Appendix, page 1767.

Announcements—J. Wesley Hole (*)

J. Wesley Hole (*) (Southern California-Arizona—W), Chairman of The General Conference Commission on Entertainment and Program, was recognized for some privileged announcements.

Smith (Philadelphia—NE), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee on Courtesies and Privileges announced that the Memorial Service for the deceased Bishops, General Officers and Delegates-elect would be held tomorrow morning, Friday, April 27, 1956, and that Bishop Matthew W. Clair, Jr., of the Saint Louis Area, Central Jurisdiction, would bring the message of The Memorial Service.

Order of the Day—Presentation of Bishops' Wives—Alexander K. Smith

Alexander K. Smith (Philadelphia—NE), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee on Courtesies and Privileges, moved that an Order of the Day be established for the presentation of the wives of the Bishops on Saturday morning, April 28, 1956, immediately following the Order of the Day scheduled for consideration immediately after recess at the session of that morning, namely the hearing of Dr. Roy J. Ross, General Secretary of the National Council of Churches of Christ in the United States of America, and Dr. Samuel McCrae Cavert, General Secretary of the World Council of Churches.

The motion, setting the above Order of the Day, duly seconded, was adopted unanimously.

Harold C. Case Excused—H. Hughes Wagner

H. Hughes Wagner (New England—NE) was recognized and stated that Harold C. Case (New England—NE), a member of this General Conference, had been appointed by President Dwight D. Eisenhower (*), as member of a Committee to study the problem of education above the High School level; that the Committee had been called to meet in Washington tomorrow, and that as Chairman of the New England Annual Conference Delegation, he requested that Harold C. Case (New England—NE) be excused from the session of tomorrow, Friday, April 27 in order to attend the meeting of the Committee, and that Walter G. Muelder, Reserve Delegate from the New England Annual Conference, (NE) be seated in his place for tomorrow. By common consent the request was granted unanimously.

No. 2 Presiding Officers—Bishop John W. E. Bowen—H. Hughes Wagner

H. Hughes Wagner (New England—NE), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee on Presiding

Officers presented Report No. 2 of the Committee, announcing that Bishop John W. E. Bowen of the Atlantic Coast Area, Central Jurisdiction, would be the Presiding Officer for the session of Friday morning, April 27, 1956. For Report see page 1253.

Methodist Hymnal—Bishop A. Frank Smith

Bishop A. Frank Smith, the Presiding Officer, gave a brief historical statement concerning the preparation of The Hymnal being used at this session of The General Conference of The Methodist Church, and that of the original Commission members there are present at this General Conference of The Methodist Church, the following:—

The Methodist Episcopal Church:—Bishops Frederick D. Leete and Titus Lowe; Minister:—Oscar Thomas Olson; Layman:—James R. Houghton.

The Methodist Episcopal Church, South:—Bishop A. Frank Smith; Ministers:—Nolan B. Harmon, Ivan Lee Holt (Now Bishop); Laymen:—None present.

The Methodist Protestant Church:—None present.

Rules Suspended—Adjournment—Lud H. Estes—Adopted

There being no further business for the consideration of the Conference at this morning's session and the time of adjournment not having yet arrived, motion of Lud H. Estes (Memphis—SE) duly seconded, prevailed, that the Rules be suspended and that we do not adjourn, following announcements.

Announcements

Announcements of various kinds were made.

Thanks—Bishop A. Frank Smith

Bishop A. Frank Smith, the Presiding Officer, in well chosen words, thanked The Conference for its fine co-operation throughout the session of this morning.

Adjournment—Benediction—Bishop A. Frank Smith

Following the announcements, Bishop A. Frank Smith, the Presiding Officer, pronounced the Benediction, and The Conference adjourned at 12:00 o'clock noon.

No. 4 Courtesies and Privileges—Alexander K. Smith

Alexander K. Smith (Philadelphia—NE), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee on Courtesies and Privileges, was recognized, and presented the three following matters:—

First—Recognition of J. Q. Schisler—Bishop Paul E. Martin

Presented Bishop Paul E. Martin, of the Arkansas-Louisiana Area, South Central Jurisdiction, for the presentation and recognition of John Quincy Schisler (Tennessee—SE).

Bishop John W. E. Bowen, the Presiding Officer, recognized Bishop Paul E. Martin, who in well-chosen words, presented John Quincy Schisler (Tennessee—SE), retired Executive Secretary of the Department of the Local Church, General Board of Education, in which office he had so faithfully served since the union of the Methodist Episcopal Church, the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and the Methodist Protestant Church, retiring October 31, 1955.

John Q. Schisler, (Tennessee—SE) responded in an appropriate manner to the words of presentation of Bishop Paul E. Martin.

Second—Presented William R. Cannon for a Privileged Matter—Bishop Ivan Lee Holt

Requested recognition of William R. Cannon (North Georgia—SE) for the presentation of a privileged Resolution.

Bishop John W. E. Bowen, the Presiding Officer, recognized William R. Cannon (North Carolina—SE) who presented the following Resolution (DB-12) honoring Bishop Ivan Lee Holt, of the Saint Louis Area, South Central Jurisdiction, who is to retire at the approaching session of the South Central Jurisdictional Conference:—

Whereas, Ivan Lee Holt, a Brother beloved, and a Father in the Israel of our Methodism, has by reason of the age limitation which the law decrees come to retirement as an effective Bishop of The Methodist Church, though he is in full vigor, physically, intellectually, spiritually; and

Whereas, he has rendered extraordinary service, not alone to our Denomination and to the Protestantism of which we as a family are a large, strong and vital member, but also to Christendom at large, thereby strengthening the whole body of Christ on earth, and has contributed as much to ecumenical Christianity as any other single figure in our generation, and thereby has attained through this one accomplishment an abiding place in the history of the American Church; and

Whereas, in Methodism his gifts have been singular and universally potent in their effectiveness, having in liturgies given us our Book of Worship, in finance having directed wisely and well our Board of Pensions, securing for our aged the support and comfort their declining years require, and in Church Union having guided us at least, like Moses, to the border of the Promised Land; and

Whereas, in World Methodism and the Communion of our American family with our Denominational relatives beyond the seas, he has been an incomparable leader, standing like a Colossus astride the world; and

Whereas, in his walk with kings, he has never lost the common touch, but in all his gigantic enterprises for the Church, he has conducted himself as the humble disciple of Jesus Christ, never being too busy to help the needy, to comfort the sorrowing, and to love as God loves everyone he has ever met;

Therefore Be It Resolved, That we, the members of The General Conference of The Methodist Church, assembled in conclave at Minneapolis, Minnesota, in A.D. 1956, extend to Bishop Ivan Lee Holt our heartfelt thanks for all he has done for us and for the world, and assure him and the members of his family always of our admiration, our prayers, and our love.

Requested recognition of James P. Brawley (*) (Georgia—C) for a privileged matter.

“Resolved, That the name of David Dallas Jones, who for thirty years served as President of Bennett College, Greensboro, North Carolina, be enrolled among the list of the deceased leaders of The Methodist Church.”

On motion of James P. Brawley (*) (Georgia—C), duly seconded, the Resolution was unanimously adopted.

No. 1 Plan of Organization and Rules of Order—A. Wesley Pugh

A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC) Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee on Plan of Organization and Rules of Order was recognized and made the following statement regarding the change in the policy of the formulation of the plan of Organization and Rules of Order for The General Conference of The Methodist Church :—

Mr. Chairman and Members of The General Conference: The Rules Committee has asked me to call to your attention two or three matters. One matter has already been mentioned, that approximately fifty per cent of the membership of The Conference is here for the first time.

I should like to re-emphasize what the Presiding Officer of yesterday morning told you, that this year we begin a different procedure with reference to our Plan of Organization and Rules of Order.

At the last General Conference, at the suggestion of the Rules Committee, The Conference adopted a change in the Discipline which provides that the Plan of Organization and Rules of Order as adopted by the preceding General Conference and printed in its Journal, shall be the Plan of Organization and Rules of Order of General Conferences, so we did not need to have an adoption of those Rules.

However, that does not at all mean that these Rules are complete or perfect. It simply means that by doing this we obviate the necessity and the expense of ad interim meetings of the Rules Committee and we have a continuing plan of business and procedure.

Now, these Rules in this Plan of Organization may be amended. If there is something that any Delegate feels ought to be done to these Rules to provide for the business of this particular Conference, it may be offered and it will be referred to the Committee on Rules who will report the next day.

However, if there are no such suggestions, but you have suggestions for the changing of these Rules, constructive changes, during the Conference, we are charged with scrutinizing this whole Plan of these Rules in order to help perfect them, and before The Conference is over we shall present to you a revised and amended Plan of Organization of the Rules of Order which we shall ask you to adopt.

They will be published in the Journal and will be the plan for the next General Conference.

Now that, I think, will indicate to you what procedure you should take if you desire to suggest amendments or changes in these Rules. Any member of the Rules Committee will be glad to receive from any member of this body any suggestion of change that you have to offer.

The Committee would like to emphasize also what was mentioned yesterday by Mr. Hole that the microphones are placed here for your convenience and not for the purpose of obtaining recognition. The Rules state that any Delegate shall arise at his designated seat. Now, I realize that some of us are way back there, and it is pretty hard to see, and it is pretty hard to be heard, but probably this Rule ought to be followed in fairness to all, and it might be all right to offer a gentle suggestion to our Presiding Officers that they look back there and that they remember that sound travels slowly.

And as I have heard it said in The Conference before, if they hear two voices simultaneously and one is here and one is way back there they should conclude the one that travelled the farthest must have started first.

No. 2 Credentials—Elmer E. Matthews (*)—Adopted

Elmer E. Matthews (*) (New Jersey—NE), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee on Credentials, presented Report No. 2 of the Committee, and, on his motion, duly seconded, the same was adopted. For Report see page 1187.

Order of the Day—Quadrennial Program Presented— Chester A. McPheeters—Discussed—Amended—Adopted

The Order of the Day having arrived, the presentation and consideration of and action on the Quadrennial Program for 1956-1960, prepared by the Co-ordinating Council, in conjunction with The Council of Bishops, the Council on World Service and Finance, the Council of Secretaries, and the President and Treasurer of the Woman's Division of Christian Service (DCA No.1, pages 8, 9, 10, 11, columns 1-2-3 of each page and page 12, column 1) was presented by Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC), who had been designated by the Co-ordinating Council to present Report No. 1 of the Co-ordinating Council.

Method of Procedure—Chester A. McPheeters—Adopted

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) made the following statement regarding procedures:—

Now, Mr. Chairman, if we might have the consent of The Conference as to procedures. We would like to suggest that the presentation of this Quadrennial Program shall follow the same order as we have done in former General Conferences when Quadrennial Programs have been presented to The General Conference, and immediately after the presentation that we shall be permitted to bring to the platform several who will make brief statements concerning the Program, members of this General Conference of course, and also as we proceed to the discussion of the Program, we shall discuss it Section by Section as they appear in the Program.

If there should be others we would like to call on for statements, I am sure consent will be given.

May we have the consent of the body to follow this procedure, Mr. Chairman?

The General Conference, by formal vote, unanimously adopted the suggested plan of procedure.

Silent Prayer—Chester A. McPheeters

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) requested The General Conference to bow in a moment of silent prayer for God's guidance and blessings for the consideration of and action on the Report. An impressive moment of silence followed the request.

Question Raised—Lynn J. Radcliffe

Lynn J. Radcliffe (Ohio—NC) raised the following question:—

“Mr. Chairman: Does that mean there will be no opportunity for debate from the floor if we extend this to complete the presentation, or does it mean the presentation will be completed, and then we will adjourn, and have an opportunity from the floor to discuss this without haste and without pressure?”

Ruling—Bishop John W. E. Bowen

Bishop John W. E. Bowen, the Presiding Officer, ruled as follows:—

“It would mean of course, Doctor, just completing the presentation by Dr. McPheeters. Then the matter will be before The Conference for whatever The Conference wishes to do, to discuss and possibly amend.”

Statement—Chester A. McPheeters

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) made the following statement:—

“We will adjourn, and then have time without pressure to do that.”

the Section headed "Introduction," DCA No. 1, page 8, columns 1-2-3.

Ruling—Bishop John W. E. Bowen

Bishop John W. E. Bowen, the Presiding Officer, ruled as follows on the motion to adopt the Section headed "Introduction," :—

"Doctor, that will begin the debate, and we won't have time for that. Don't you want to hold your motion until after recess? That will then give plenty of time for discussion."

Statement—Chester A. McPheeters

Chester A. McPheeters made the following statement:—

"All right. This does conclude the presentation of the Report itself. We will next present it Section by Section for your discussion and approval."

Recess

The time for recess having arrived, The General Conference adjourned for ten minutes, after various announcements.

Re-Convene

Bishop John W. E. Bowen, the Presiding Officer, of the Atlantic Coast Area, Central Jurisdiction, called The Conference to order at the close of the Recess period.

Amendment Proposed—Lloyd F. Worley—Not Adopted

Lloyd F. Worley (New York East—NE) moved to amend Section 3 "Emphases," Sub-section (4) "d." "Christ and Our Freedoms," DCA No. 1, page 9, bottom of column 3, which reads as follows:—

d. Christ and Our Freedoms—"Ye shall know the truth and the truth will make you free." John 8:32

A continuing emphasis is to be maintained

(1) to work for the creation of a "responsible society";

(2) to interpret and apply the social implications of the Gospel, such as Freedom from want, insecurity and economic injustice;

Freedom from the evils of liquor, gambling, and narcotics;

Freedom from inadequate care of dependent children, the aged and sick;

Freedom from racial and class injustice;

Freedom from international disorder and war.

by the addition of the following paragraph (DB-17):—

"Freedom from interference by governmental agencies for our ministers and laymen in making these emphases effective in preaching, and practicing, in harmony with the spirit of the First Amendment to the Constitution of the United States."

The motion to amend, being duly seconded, Lloyd F. Worley (New York East—NE) spoke to the same.

Statement—Chester A. McPheeters—Does Not Accept

Amendment—W. Ralph Ward—Accepted

W. Ralph Ward (Pittsburgh—NE) moved to amend "4. Recommendations," DCA No. 1, page 10, column 1, by adding Recommendation "d" (DB-18) as follows:—

"d. In carrying out this Program the Bishops and District Superintendents shall look to the Pastors, and established Commissions and Committees of the Official Boards to achieve the goals of this Program."

The motion to amend, being duly seconded, W. Ralph Ward (Pittsburgh—NE) spoke to the same.

Statement—Chester A. McPheeters

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit) spoke to the pending amendment, as follows:—

"We, of the Committee are seeking to understand just what might be involved in the amendment proposed. Does this mean a Special Commission within the Local Church, or the use of the Commissions already established? We feel there is already within the structure of the Church as now—"

Statement—W. Ralph Ward—Amendment Accepted

W. Ralph Ward (Pittsburgh—NE) answered the question propounded, as follows:—

"The very point I am trying to make is that it is not a Special Committee or Special Commission, but the actual emphasis be placed on the things that are already established, namely, the Pastor and the Committees and Commissions which we have now. I feel it should be spelled out in the Recommendations if we are to use the normal channels established by the Church to give this Program effectiveness."

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) accepted the proposed amendment of W. Ralph Ward (Pittsburgh—NE) for the Co-ordinating Council, The Council of Bishops, the Council on World Service and Finance, the Council of Secretaries, and the President and Treasurer of the Woman's Division of Christian Service, no objection being raised by any member of the five Organizations involved, or by any member of The General Conference.

Amendment—Harold C. Phend ()—Accepted—Chester A. McPheeters*

Harold C. Phend (*) (Northwest Indiana—NC) moved to amend (DB-19) Section "1. Study and Analysis," DCA No. 1, page 9, column 2, which reads as follows:—

1. Study and Analysis: That an analysis be made by the Bishop and Cabinet of each Annual Conference of the situation within the Conference with reference to the "production story" of all its churches. Stress is to be maintained throughout the quadrennium on a Local Church development job. The District Superintendent, in his role as counselor, will think through with each church in his District the question of where it is now, the point of larger fruitfulness at which it might arrive, and how to get there. Techniques for doing this are to be provided.

by deleting the words "the Bishop and Cabinet," in line 2, and substituting therefor the words, "The Quadrennial Committee on the Local Church," and inserting a new sentence after the word "churches," in line 5 reading as follows:—

"The Quadrennial Committee on the Local Church shall consist of the Bishop, the District Superintendents, the Conference Lay Leader, and the District Lay Leaders."

so that the paragraph as amended will read:—

1. Study and Analysis: That an analysis be made by the Quadrennial Committee on the Local Church of each Annual Conference of the situation within the Conference with reference to the "production story" of all its churches. The Quadrennial Committee on the Local Church shall consist of the Bishop, the District Superintendents, the Conference Lay Leader, and the District Lay Leaders. Stress is to be maintained throughout the quadrennium on a Local Church development job. The District Superintendent, in his role as counselor, will think through with each church in his District the question of where it is now, the point of larger fruitfulness at which it might arrive, and how to get there. Techniques for doing this are to be provided.

2. Goals. Under the guidance of the Bishop and his Cabinet, goals are to be determined for the local churches of a Conference.

by deleting the words, "Bishop and his Cabinet," in line 2, and substituting therefor the words, "The Quadrennial Committee on the Local Church," so that "Section 2. Goals" as amended will read:—

"2. Goals. Under the guidance of the Quadrennial Committee on the Local Church, goals are to be determined for the local churches of a Conference."

Amendment Accepted—Chester A. McPheeters

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) accepted the proposed amendment of Harold C. Phend (*) (Northwest Indiana—NC) for the five Organizations involved, there being no objection raised by any member of the aforesaid Organizations, or by any member of The General Conference.

Amendment—Donald E. Redmond—Accepted—Question—H. Hughes Wagner

Donald E. Redmond (Southwest Texas—SC) moved to amend (DB-20) the amendment of Harold C. Phend (*) (Northwest Indiana—NC) accepted by Chester A. McPheeters for the five Organizations involved, by the addition of the following:—

"and one representative elected from each Conference Board represented in the Quadrennial Emphasis on the Local Church."

so that the amended amendment will read as follows:—

"The Quadrennial Committee on the Local Church shall consist of the Bishop, the District Superintendents, the Conference Lay Leader, the District Lay Leaders, and one representative from each Conference Board represented in the Quadrennial Emphasis on the Local Church."

Amendment Accepted—Chester A. McPheeters

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) accepted the proposed amendment of Donald E. Redmond (Southwest Texas—SC) for the five Organizations involved, there being no objection raised by any member of the aforesaid Organizations, or by any member of The General Conference.

Question—H. Hughes Wagner—Answered—Chester A. McPheeters

H. Hughes Wagner (New England—NE) raised the question as to whether this was another Commission in the Local Church.

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) stated that it was not, that it was a Commission on the Annual Conference level.

Amendment—Mangal Singh—Adopted

Mangal Singh (Delhi—OS) moved to amend (DB-21) "d. Christ and Our Freedoms, paragraph (2)" DCA No. 1, page 9, column 3, by adding at the close of the second sentence in paragraph (2) the words:—

"With special emphasis to churches in the under-developed countries of the world," so that the paragraph as amended will read:—

"(2) to interpret and apply the social implications of the Gospel, such as, Freedom from want, insecurity, and economic injustice, with special emphasis to Churches in the under-developed countries of the world:"

The amendment of Mangal Singh (Delhi—OS) on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was adopted.

Thanks—Bishop John W. E. Bowen

Bishop John W. E. Bowen, the Presiding Officer, expressed his sincere thanks to The Conference for the splendid cooperation it had given him in his responsibilities as the Presiding Officer of the morning.

Closing—Announcements—Benediction—Bishop Roy H. Short

After various announcements, the morning session of The General Conference of The Methodist Church, of Friday, April 27, 1956 adjourned at 1 P.M., with the Benediction pronounced by Bishop Roy H. Short of the Nashville Area, Southeastern Jurisdiction.

FOURTH DAY, SATURDAY, APRIL 28, 1956

MORNING SESSION

Opening—Bishop John Wesley Lord

Pursuant to adjournment the 1956 session of The General Conference of The Methodist Church, convened in the session of the Fourth Day, Saturday, April 28, 1956, in the Municipal Auditorium, Minneapolis, Minnesota, with Bishop John Wesley Lord, of the Boston Area, Northeastern Jurisdiction, in the Chair, who announced that the Devotions of the morning will be conducted by Bishop Dana Dawson, of the Kansas Area, South Central Jurisdiction.

Devotions—Bishop Dana Dawson—James R. Houghton (*)

Bishop Dana Dawson, of the Kansas Area, South Central Jurisdiction, announced Hymn No. "180, "Breathe On Me Breath Of God." The Conference, standing, joined in the singing of the Hymn under the leadership of James R. Houghton (*) (New England—NE), General Conference Director of Music.

Collect—Bishop Dana Dawson

Bishop Dana Dawson then led The Conference in the Collect found on page 513 of The Methodist Hymnal, entitled, "For Love of God And Man," after which he led in prayer.

Devotional Message—Bishop Dana Dawson

Bishop Dana Dawson, of the Kansas Area, South Central Jurisdiction, brought the message of the morning, entitled, "The Perfecting Imprint of the Heart," using as the basis for his remarks three passages:—

The first from one of the prayers of St. Francis of Assisi, "Where there is hatred let me so love."

The second from the writings of a 14th century layman, Raymond Love, "He that loves not, lives not; and he that lives that life cannot die."

The third from the Apostle Paul found in the Third Chapter of Colossians, in the fourteenth verse, "Above all things put on love, which is the bond of perfectness."

The closing Hymn was No. 179, "Spirit of God, Descend Upon My Heart." The Benediction was pronounced by Bishop Dana Dawson.

Bishop John Wesley Lord requested the Delegates to turn in their seats to face the right, as the photographer was in the gallery to take a picture of The General Conference from that angle.

No. 1, Journal—George B. Ahn (*)

George B. Ahn (*) (Central New York—NE) Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee on Journal, presented Report No. 1, of the Committee, and on his motion, duly seconded, it was adopted, as follows:—

“The Committee has examined the Journal for Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, and finds it correct.”

(Signed) George B. Ahn (*), Chairman

No. 5, Courtesies and Privileges—Alexander K. Smith

Alexander K. Smith (Philadelphia—NE), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee on Courtesies and Privileges, presented three matters as follows:—

First—Bishop Paul N. Garber—P.O.A.U.—C. Stanley Lowell

Presented Bishop Paul N. Garber, of the Richmond Area, Southeastern Jurisdiction, who in turn presented C. Stanley Lowell (Virginia—SE), Director of the Organization known as “Protestant and Other Americans United For Separation of Church and State.”

C. Stanley Lowell (Virginia—SE) brought greetings from and addressed The Conference on the mission of and progress being made by the Organization set up for the preservation of one of the basic tenets of Protestantism, namely, the separation of Church and State.

Second—Alaska Methodist College—P. Gordon Gould—F. P. McGinnis—Bishop W. Earl Ledden—Walter C. Gum—J. Otis Young

Presented P. Gordon Gould (Genesee—NE), Superintendent and Director of Work in Alaska, for the Division of National Missions of the General Board of Missions of The Methodist Church, who made a brief statement of the conception of the Anchorage Alaska Methodist College, and the progress that has been made in its realization, to date, and in behalf of the people of Alaska, presented to Bishop W. Earl Ledden, President of the Council of Bishops, and to the Bishops of The Methodist Church in the United States gavels, made by the Eskimos of Nome, Alaska, from whale teeth.

F. P. McGinnis (Alaska Mission—W) District Superintendent of the Alaska Mission, assisted P. Gordon Gould (Genesee—NE) in the distribution of the gavels to the Bishops.

Bishop Ledden Thanks P. Gordon Gould for Gavels

Bishop W. Earl Ledden, President of The Council of Bishops of The Methodist Church, fittingly expressed his own personal appreciation, and that of his colleagues, for the gavels, and that he would use his in presiding this morning.

Resolution Re Alaska Methodist College—Walter C. Gum—J. Otis Young

Walter C. Gum (Virginia—SE) was recognized and presented the following Resolution (DB-23) :—

1. The Methodist Church has a long history of vital concern for providing leadership in frontier areas. It has gone into eleven frontiers of the developing United States to establish schools, colleges, and universities even before these frontier areas became States.

2. Once again, this time under the Division of National Missions, we are so engaged as we move steadily forward to establish the Alaska Methodist college, as a fully accredited Church-related four-year Liberal Arts College at Anchorage, Alaska.

3. Alaska will be granted Statehood in the future. It will become a great economic empire. It is, therefore, an urgent necessity to provide for training indigenous leadership for her future. This is the concern of The Methodist Church, and to meet this need we are establishing The Alaska Methodist College.

4. When this project was first discussed eight years ago, so eager were the people of Alaska for higher educational advantages for their youth that eleven communities offered sites for such a college. They do not look upon this project as a Denominational enterprise but rather as one that will creatively meet one of Alaska's greatest needs.

5. Therefore, Be It Resolved, That The General Conference of The Methodist Church, meeting in Minneapolis in 1956, commend the people of Anchorage who have pledged over $720,000 for the founding of The Alaska Methodist College, and have purchased a site of 242.5 acres and deeded it to the Division of National Missions for the campus for the college. In so doing they have given a wonderful demonstration of their faith in the future of Alaska and of their confidence in The Methodist Church.

6. Be It Further Resolved, That we commend the Division of National Missions for leading our Church in this service to the great Frontier of Alaska.

And that we commend the more than 3,000 churches and individuals who have supported the Alaska Methodist College during the past year, and will continue to support it through the next quadrennium.

7. Be It Further Resolved, That we commend the Alaska Methodist

College to all of our people for consideration in their programs during this coming quadrennium.

(Signed)
Walter C. Gum

Walter C. Gum (Virginia—SE) moved the adoption of the Resolutions. The motion was duly seconded by J. Otis Young (Ohio—NC) and the Resolutions were unanimously adopted.

Third—Report No. 1 Hospitals and Homes—Ernest W. Peterson ()—J. Earl Moreland ()—Adopted

Presented Ernest W. Peterson (*) (Oregon—W), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Hospitals and Homes, for the presentation of a Report.

Ernest W. Peterson (*) (Oregon—W), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Hospitals and Homes presented Report No. 1, of the Committee, Subject, "Resolution in Recognition of the Ford Foundation Grants to Methodist Hospitals," DCA No. 3, page 119, columns 1, 2 and 3, and moved its adoption. The motion was duly seconded.

J. Earl Moreland (*) (Virginia—SE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Education, made the following statement:—

Mr. Chairman, I am wondering if it wouldn't be better if this Committee would be willing—we did not know the plan to present this Report—to hold this in abeyance until the Educational Committee might make its Report. It is not right to say so many millions have been given to The Methodist Church, $25 million was given to the colleges of The Methodist Church. We have not had time to prepare ours yet. I really believe it might be better, if it is satisfactory to this Committee on Hospitals and Homes, to hold this in abeyance and let the two go together as an expression of the appreciation of this Conference. If that will be satisfactory we will draw ours up today and submit it also.

Ernest W. Peterson (*) (Oregon—W), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Hospitals and Homes, replied as follows:—

In harmony with the request of The General Conference the citation has been prepared. It is dated as of this date. That is the reason why the General Committee asked for this privilege this morning, so that everything would be in harmony and in order. I see no conflict between this presentation and the other one that has just been indicated.

Citation Presented—Bishop William T. Watkins

Bishop William T. Watkins of the Louisville Area, South-eastern Jurisdiction, and President of the General Board of Hospitals and Homes of The Methodist Church, was recognized, made a short statement, and read the Citation, as follows:—

Bishop Lord and Members of The General Conference: It will be a very distinct pleasure for me to follow this directive you have just given, and present to the President of the Ford foundation this Citation from the Hall of Fame in Philanthropy. I think you know that this plan maintains a very high level in its selection of those who are to receive this award. May I therefore read to you the Citation which will be handed personally to the President of the Ford foundation:

"For unprecedented, exceptional and exemplary services to mankind, through outstanding grants which will serve as a stimulus to continued private support of Methodist hospitals in the United States, that they may render maximum Christian scientific service to their communities, the Ford foundation has been awarded membership in the Methodist Hall of Fame in Philanthropy, the Honor Society of the Healing and Helping Hand, by the Board of Hospitals and Homes of The Methodist Church."

The Report was adopted. See Appendix, page 1499.

Rules Suspended for Committee Meetings—J. Wesley Hole (*)—Adopted

Motion of J. Wesley Hole (*) (Southern California-Arizona—W), Chairman of the General Conference Commission on Entertainment and Program, duly seconded, prevailed by more than the required two-thirds majority vote suspending the Rules of Order, in order to make an adjustment in the time of Committee meetings for this afternoon, Saturday, April 28, 1956.

Time of Meetings Changed—J. Wesley Hole ()—Adopted*

Motion of J. Wesley Hole (*) (Southern California-Arizona—W), Chairman of the General Conference Commission on Entertainment and Program, duly seconded, prevailed, that Standing Legislative Committee, Numbers 1 to 10 inclusive, meet at 2:00 P.M. this afternoon, instead of their regularly scheduled time of 2:30 P.M.

Sunday Night Session Official—Ray W. Ragsdale—Amendment—Paul V. Galloway—Adopted

Motion of Ray W. Ragsdale (Southern California-Arizona—W), duly seconded, prevailed, making the Sunday night services at which Dr. Allan Walker of Australia is to speak, an official session of The General Conference of The Methodist Church, with an accepted amendment of Paul V. Galloway (Oklahoma—SC) that the entire proceedings, including the sermon, are not to be printed in the Journal.

Plan of Organization—Proposed Amendment—Referred—A. Wesley Pugh

A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC) presented a proposed amendment (DB-24) to the Plan of Organization and Rules of Order by the addition of the following sentence:—

"provided, however, that Reports and proposals from the regular Councils and Special Commissions of The General Conference may be presented directly to the Conference," at the end of the first sentence under the heading "2. Legislative Committees," page 197, 1956 Handbook For Delegates, so that the amended Section 2 will read as follows:—

2. Legislative Committees

The General Conference shall have the following Standing Legislative Committees which shall consider all proposals looking toward new legislation or changes in the present legislation of the Church and report recommendations relating thereto to The Conference, provided, however, that Reports and proposals from the regular Councils and Special Commissions of The General Conference may be presented directly to The Conference. The term "legislative," however, as descriptive of the functions of those Committees, is not to be interpreted with absolute strictness, inasmuch as they may consider matters calculated to eventuate in the form of Advices, Resolutions, Appeals, etc., as well as in legislation.

and moved its reference to the Standing Administrative Committee on Plan of Organization and Rules of Order. The motion, duly seconded, prevailed, and the proposed amendment was referred.

Tuesday Night Official Session—Charles V. Adams (*)—Adopted

Motion of Charles V. Adams (*) (Central Pennsylvania—NE), duly seconded, prevailed, making May 1, 1956, Tuesday night's observance of the India Centennial Celebration an official session of The General Conference of The Methodist Church, with the understanding that the full proceedings are not to be printed in the Journal.

Order of the Day—Report Commission on Promotion and Cultivation—Bishop William C. Martin—E. Harold Mohn—Bishop Richard C. Raines—Bishop Costen J. Harrell—Leon T. Moore—Jesse A. Engle—Bishop Lloyd C. Wicke

The Order of the Day having arrived, consideration of the Reports of the Commission on Promotion and Cultivation, and of the Advance Committee, Bishop John Wesley Lord, the Presiding Officer, presented Bishop William C. Martin, of the Dallas-Fort Worth Area, South Central Jurisdiction, and Chairman of the General Conference Commission on Promotion and Cultivation for the presentation of the Order of the Day.

Report Commission on Promotion and Cultivation Presented—Bishop William C. Martin—E. Harold Mohn

Bishop William C. Martin, of the Fort Worth-Dallas Area, South Central Jurisdiction, and Chairman of the Commission on Promotion and Cultivation, presented the Report of the Commission, speaking briefly to the same, and then presented E. Harold Mohn (North-East Ohio—NC), Executive Director of the Commission on Promotion and Cultivation, who gave a detailed report of the work of the Commission for the past quadrennium.

Report Committee on Publications—Bishop Richard C. Raines

Bishop Richard C. Raines, of the Indiana Area, North Central Jurisdiction, and Chairman of the Committee on Publications of the General Commission on Promotion and Cultivation, was next recognized and gave a brief resume of the work of the Committee on Publications for the quadrennium just ending.

Report Advance Committee—Bishop Costen J. Harrell—Leon T. Moore—Jesse A. Engle

Bishop Costen J. Harrell, of the Charlotte Area, Southeastern Jurisdiction, and Chairman of the Advance Committee, was next recognized, and succinctly gave the Report of the Advance Specials and Week of Dedication Projects coming under the direction of the Advance Committee.

Before Bishop Costen J. Harrell began his remarks, Secretary-Designate Leon T. Moore (Philadelphia—NE) requested the members of the Advance Committee, the Week of Dedication Committee and the Crusade For Scholars Committee, to come at once to the platform, taking the seats previously assigned to them.

Bishop Costen J. Harrell, at the conclusion of his remarks, presented the members of the above named groups to The General Conference, and then presented Jesse A. Engle (Virginia—SE), Executive Secretary of the Joint Section of Education and Cultivation of the General Board of Missions of The Methodist Church to speak concerning the aid received by the General Board of Missions and the Methodist Committee for Overseas Relief.

Time Extended—Chester A. Smith (*)—Adopted

The time of recess approaching, motion of Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE), duly seconded, prevailed, that the time be extended for five minutes in order that Jesse A. Engle (Virginia—SE) might complete his Report.

Request Bishop Costen J. Harrell

Bishop Costen J. Harrell of the Charlotte Area, Southeastern Jurisdiction, and Chairman of the Advance Committee, made the following statement:—

Mr. Chairman, this does not complete the Advance Report. We still would like to present to The Conference through Bishop Wicke the Report and presentation on the Week of Dedication. It will take a few moments. I wonder if someone on the floor will move that after recess this matter can be completed.

Ruling—Bishop John Wesley Lord

Bishop John Wesley Lord, the Presiding Officer, made the following ruling:—

That will require that you Suspend your Rules to change the Order of the Day. I will be happy to suspend the Rules if that is the wish of the body.

Motion to Suspend Rules—Embree H. Blackard—Not Adopted

Embree H. Blackard (Western North Carolina—SE) moved to suspend the Rules in order to complete the Report of the Advance Committee immediately after Recess, by permitting the completion of the Report to take precedence over the Order of the Day set for that time, namely the presentation of Dr. Roy G. Ross, General Secretary of the National Council of Churches of Christ in America, and Dr. Samuel McCrae Cavert, Executive Secretary of the World Council of Churches in the United States of America. The motion was duly seconded.

The motion of Embree H. Blackard (Western North Carolina—SE) to thus suspend the Rules, on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.

Recess

The Conference recessed for a period of ten minutes.

Reconvene—Bishop John Wesley Lord

At the conclusion of the Recess period Bishop John Wesley Lord, of the Boston Area, Northeastern Jurisdiction, the Presiding Officer, called The General Conference to order, and presented LeRoy A. Martin (Holston—SE) for a privileged announcement.

Tennessee Wesleyan College—Musical Program—LeRoy A. Martin

LeRoy A. Martin (Holston—SE), President of Tennessee Wesleyan College, stated that he desired to dedicate the program of music to be rendered by the Choir of Tennessee Wesleyan College to Bishop Charles Wesley Flint, whose grandson is a Junior in Tennessee Wesleyan College and a member of the Choir, and also to the memory of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pfeiffer, who gave large sums of money to Tennessee Wesleyan College.

LeRoy A. Martin (Holston—SE), President of Tennessee Wesleyan College then presented Professor Jack Houts (*) Director of the Choir.

The Choir of Tennessee Wesleyan College, under the direction of Jack Houts (*), Director, rendered the following musical selections:—

“Gloria in Excelsis,” by Martin Luther

“Give Me Jesus” by H. T. Burleigh

“Battle Hymn of the Republic” by Julia Ward Howe

Bishop John Wesley Lord, the Presiding Officer, thanked the Choir and Director Jack Houts (*), in behalf of The Conference.

Procedure—Orders of the Day—Bishop John Wesley Lord

Bishop John Wesley Lord, Presiding Officer, made the following statement regarding the parliamentary situation:

The Chair thinks that it has found a way through the dilemma in accordance with your vote not to Suspend the Rules. The Chair will call for the first Order of the Day, which will be the presentation of our two distinguished visitors; following that, the presentation of the Bishops' wives, which I have been informed is a very brief presentation.

And then, because the Committee on the Ministry has withdrawn its request for an order at 11:30 A.M., we could grant to the Advance Committee a concluding five minutes that they need for their Report before proceeding to the work of the Quadrennial Program Committee. If there is no objection to that the Chair will take that to be your wish and will proceed accordingly.

I hear no objection.

Order of the Day—National and World Council of Churches—Bishop William C. Martin—Roy J. Ross—Bishop Sante Uberto Barbieri—Samuel McCrae Cavert

The Order of the Day having arrived, the presentation of and hearing Dr. Roy J. Ross, and Dr. Samuel McCrae Cavert, Bishop John Wesley Lord, the Presiding Officer, presented Bishop William C. Martin of the Fort Worth-Dallas Area, South Central Jurisdiction, who in well-chosen words presented Dr. Roy J. Ross, General Secretary of the National Council of Churches of Christ in America. The General Conference stood in applause.

Dr. Roy J. Ross addressed The General Conference.

Bishop John Wesley Lord, the Presiding Officer, expressed the thanks of The General Conference, to Dr. Roy J. Ross, for his address.

Bishop John Wesley Lord, the Presiding Officer, next presented Bishop Sante Uberto Barbieri of the Buenos Aires Area, South America Central Conference, who then presented Dr. Samuel McCrae Cavert, Executive Secretary of the World Council of Churches in the United States of America. The General Conference stood in applause.

Dr. Samuel McCrae Cavert addressed The General Conference.

Bishop John Wesley Lord, the Presiding Officer, in behalf of The General Conference, appropriately thanked Dr. Samuel McCrae Cavert for his address.

Order of the Day—Presentation of Bishops' Wives—Alexander K. Smith—Mrs. Paul E. Martin

The Order of the Day, the presentation of the Bishops' wives having arrived, Alexander K. Smith (Philadelphia—NE), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee on Courtesies and Privileges, paid tributes to the wives of the Bishops, and introduced Mrs. Paul E. Martin, President of the Wives of The Council of Bishops, who addressed The General Conference, as follows:—

I have the honor of representing the lovely ladies who will just in the next few minutes be presented to you. We appreciate the fact that Dr. Smith and the other members of the Courtesy Committee granted our wish in presenting us in this manner. We are happy to be here, to enjoy the fellowship of this great Conference and we feel truly that we are a part of this fellowship.

Many fine and thoughtful courtesies are extended to us and we are grateful. We shall continue to pray for you as you face the tasks that are before you, and we feel that we know and believe that your hearts will be filled with love and motivated with love as you face these great tasks that are yours. We thank you.

The General Conference stood in applause, and saluted the wives of the Bishops, who were standing in the rear of the auditorium, in the section of seats reserved for them.

Report of Week of Dedication Committee—Bishop John Wesley Lord—Bishop Costen J. Harrell—Bishop Lloyd C. Wicke—James K. Mathews—Resumed

The consideration of the Report of the Week of Dedication Committee was resumed, under the direction of Bishop Costen J. Harrell.

Bishop John Wesley Lord, the Presiding Officer, presented Bishop Lloyd C. Wicke of the Pittsburgh Area, Northeastern Jurisdiction, and Chairman of the Committee on Week of Dedication, who briefly addressed The General Conference concerning the tangible results of the Week of Dedication Offerings, and then presented James K. Mathews (Bombay—OS), Associate General Secretary and Administrative Secretary for India and Pakistan of the Division of World Missions of the General Board of Missions of The Methodist Church, who stated that during the past ten years eight hundred and fifty Crusade Scholars have come to the United States for college work, that they had come from more than fifty-five different lands; have studied in more than one hundred American colleges and universities and pursued studies in more than fifty professions.

James K. Mathews (Bombay—OS) then presented the following Crusade Scholars:—

Miss Julia Frances Gibson (*) of the Republic of Liberia, studying at Peabody College
 Miss Edith Patrick (*) of India, studying at University of Wisconsin
 Miss Junko Tamura (*) of Japan, studying at Scarritt College
 Dr. Hector H. Coronado (*) of Mexico, studying at Cook County Hospital, Chicago, Ill.
 Dr. Major J. Jones (*) of Fisk University
 Maung Kyaw Win (*) of Burma, studying at American University

James K. Mathews (Bombay—OS) then requested that the former fourteen Crusade Scholars from overseas, who are Delegates to this session of The General Conference come to the platform. The Conference stood in applause.

James K. Mathews (Bombay—OS) next presented Miss Florence Cox (*) Director of the Crusade Scholars.

Crusade Scholars Speak—Julia Frances Gibson ()—Hector H. Coronado ()—Maung Kyaw Win ()*

Miss Julia Frances Gibson () of the Republic of Liberia, Hector H. Coronado () of Mexico, and Maung Kyaw Win (*) of Burma, each separately addressed The General Conference.

Reports Adopted—Commission on Promotion and Cultivation—The Advance Committee—The Week of Dedication Committee

The Reports of the Commission on Promotion and Cultivation, the Advance Committee, and the Committee on the Week of Dedication were adopted by a unanimous vote of The General Conference. For Reports see pages 1763.

Consideration of Quadrennial Program Resumed—Harold C. Case

Harold C. Case (New England—NE) moved to continue consideration of and action on the Report of the Co-ordinating Council on the proposed Quadrennial Program until the Report has been completed, as decisions to be made in connection with the Report will affect the work of virtually every Committee of The Council of Bishops, and the completion of the consideration of the Report now will be very helpful in expediting all of the work in the later sessions of The General Conference.

The motion, duly seconded, unanimously prevailed.

Proposed Amendment—Francis E. Kearns—Method of Procedure—Bishop John Wesley Lord—Withdrawn

Francis E. Kearns (Wisconsin—NC) moved to amend sub-section 1, "Study and Analysis," found at the bottom of page 9, column 2, DCA No. 1.

Bishop John Wesley Lord, the Presiding Bishop, made the following statement:—

Brother Kearns, would you grant the Chair a courtesy, please?

May I state this word on procedure. If I understand the action that was taken yesterday, when the Report was presented by Dr. McPheeters, you adopted that portion of the Report that is two-thirds down the first column on page 9. If you will turn to your Report, it is down to the heading, "The Quadrennial Program." I understand this has been adopted and it cannot come before us again except by way of a motion to reconsider.

Francis E. Kearns: I didn't understand that we had adopted that.

Bishop Lord: Let me conclude, Brother Kearns. This does not affect what you are going to do. It is just that I should like the rest of the Report to be considered.

We are acting under a motion from the Chairman, Dr. McPheeters, on motion to adopt the entire Report. You are doing it by Paragraphs, by Sections, seriatim. I should like to proceed, sir, in this fashion: For all of that Section of the Report which has not yet been adopted, we will perfect the Paragraphs and Sections by any amendments which you care to make, of striking out sentences, of inserting, of substitution for entire Paragraphs or sections. We will vote only on the secondary motions of amendment and substitution.

When we have completed such perfecting of the Report I shall put before you a motion for amendment on the entire Report. Then concluding, if I am still in the Chair, by putting the motion to adopt.

I think that will prevent us from reconsidering anything that has been adopted previously if we work under that procedure.

Therefore I take it, Brother Kearns, that we are now under that procedure, and you are moving an amendment. If you will tell us where it is and what it is we shall entertain that motion, and then we shall put it to a vote of the Conference.

Clarifying Statement—Chester A. McPheeters

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) presenting the Report of the Co-ordinating Council, requested common consent to complete a matter in connection with the pending Report, which had been accepted by the five Organizations concerned on yesterday, but that needed a clearer statement for the Journal, and the record of the action taken.

Common consent being unanimously granted, Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC), requested (DB-25) that the first sentence be deleted in the paragraph entitled, "1. Study and Analysis," found at the bottom of column 2, page 9, DCA No. 1, and which reads as follows,

"That an analysis be made by the Bishop and Cabinet of each Annual Conference of the situation within the Conference with reference to the 'production story' of all its churches."

and the following be substituted therefor

"There shall be a Quadrennial Committee for the Annual Conference. This Committee shall consist of the Bishop, the District Superintendents, one Pastor from each District, the Conference President of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, the Conference Lay Leader, the Chairman of the Annual Conference Boards included in the Program."

At the top of the column three, page 9, DCA No. 1, delete the paragraph which reads as follows:—

"2. Goals. Under the guidance of the Bishop and his Cabinet, goals are to be determined for the local churches of a Conference."

and substitute therefor the following:—

"2. Goals. This Annual Conference Quadrennial Committee shall determine the goals which are to be established in the local churches of a Conference."

Amendment Withdrawn—Francis E. Kearns

Francis E. Kearns (Wisconsin—NC) withdrew his proposed amendment as the statement presented by Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) included the Conference President of the Woman's Society of Christian Service.

Statement—Bishop John Wesley Lord

Bishop John Wesley Lord, the Presiding Officer, made the following statement:—

Now, then, I understand that we are working under the entire section entitled "The Local Church Emphasis," down to the section "II—The Higher Education Emphasis." Are there any amendments to that section?

Question Raised—Answered—Dillon W. Throckmorton— Chester A. McPheeters

Dillon W. Throckmorton (California-Nevada—W) ask what is meant by the word "insecurity," found in the second paragraph of (2) at the bottom of column three, page 9, DCA No. 1, and which reads as follows:—

"Freedom from want, insecurity and economic injustice."

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) replied

"I would take it that the meaning of the Committee is social, political, intellectual, every kind of insecurity involved."

Amendment—Wilmer Fell Davis ()—Not Adopted—
Chester A. McPheeters*

Wilmer Fell Davis (*) (Peninsula—NE) moved to amend (DB-26) Paragraph "4, Recommendations," Section "a" at the top of column 1, page 10, DCA No. 1, which reads as follows:—

4. Recommendations:

- a. That the carrying out of this Program to enrich and strengthen the Local Church be delegated to The Council of Bishops with the suggestion that The Council call upon all of the General Agencies of the Church for such assistance as The Council of Bishops deems necessary; by inserting the words, "including The Council of Bishops," after the words "the General Agencies of the Church," found in lines six and seven, so that the amended paragraph will read as follows:—

4. Recommendations:

- a. That the carrying out of this Program to enrich and strengthen the Local Church be delegated to The Council of Bishops with the suggestion that The Council call upon all of the General Agencies of the Church including The Council of Bishops for such assistance as The Council of Bishops deems necessary;

The motion, being duly seconded, Wilmer Fell Davis (*) (Peninsula—NE) spoke to the same.

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) spoke to the pending amendment as follows:—

Mr. Chairman, it would be my opinion that the responsibility being laid upon The Council of Bishops for the carrying out of this Program to enrich and strengthen the Local Church would certainly involve The Council of Bishops. Certainly that was intended.

The proposed amendment of Wilmer Fell Davis (*) (Peninsula—NE) on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.

Amendment—C. Anderson Davis—Accepted—Chester A. McPheeters

C. Anderson Davis (East Tennessee—C) moved to amend paragraph "3. Emphases, section (c), sub-section (4)" DCA No. 1, page 9, column 3, which reads as follows:—

(4) to encourage each church to see that the doors of the Local Church open out unto the whole world and to encourage each local church to assume its full share of responsibility in the total program of the Christian World Mission.

by inserting the words, "unto the whole local community and," after the words, "the doors of the local church open out," so that the amended Sub-section (4) will read:—

(4) to encourage each church to see that the doors of the Local Church open out unto the whole local community and unto the whole world and to encourage each local church to assume its full share of responsibility in the total program of the Christian World Mission.

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) accepted the proposed amendment of C. Anderson Davis (East Tennessee—C), for the five Organizations involved, no objection being raised by any member of the same, or by any Delegate of The General Conference.

*Amendment—Charles X. Hutchinson, Jr.—Accepted—
Chester A. McPheeters*

Charles X. Hutchinson, Jr. (New England Southern—NE) moved to amend Section “3. Emphases. Sub-section b Christ and Our Resources,” DCA No. 1, page 9, column 3, by the addition of a paragraph to be numbered 6, and which reads as follows (DB-28) :

“(6) The raising of the local level of pastoral support, especially in those Annual Conferences, whose salary level has scarcely reached the subsistence minimum.”

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) accepted the proposed amendment of Charles X. Hutchinson, Jr. (New England Southern—NE) for the five Organizations involved, no objection being raised by any member of the same, or by any Delegate of The General Conference.

Amendment—A. Wesley Pugh—Accepted—Chester A. McPheeters

A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC) moved to rephrase the paragraph on “Goals,” at the top of column 3, page 9, DCA No. 1 which had been edited by Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) and adopted by common consent this morning, and which reads as follows :—

“2. Goals. This Annual Conference Quadrennial Committee shall determine the goals which are to be established in the local churches of a Conference.”

to read as follows (DB-29) :—

“2. Goals. Under guidance of the Annual Conference Quadrennial Committee, goals are to be determined for the local churches of a Conference.”

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) accepted the proposed change in phraseology of A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC), for the five Organizations involved, no objection being raised by any member of the same, or by any member of The General Conference.

Amendment—Chester A. Smith ()—Chester A. McPheeters—Roy R. Roudebush ()—Adopted

Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) moved to amend the second sentence of paragraph entitled "1. Study and Analysis," rephrased this morning to read as follows:—

"There shall be a Quadrennial Committee for the Annual Conference. This Committee shall consist of the Bishop, the District Superintendents, one Pastor from each District, the Conference President of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, the Conference Lay Leader, the Chairman of the Annual Conference Boards included in the Program."

by the insertion of the words,

"and one Layman from each District," to immediately follow the words,

"one Pastor from each District,"

so that the sentence, as amended, will read:—

"There shall be a Quadrennial Committee for the Annual Conference. This Committee shall consist of the Bishop, the District Superintendents, one Pastor from each District, one Layman from each District, the Conference President of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, the Conference Lay Leader, the Chairman of the Annual Conference Boards included in the Program."

The motion being duly seconded, Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) spoke to the same.

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) spoke against the proposed amendment of Chester A. Smith (*).

Roy R. Roudebush () (North Indiana—NC) spoke in favor of the proposed amendment of Chester A. Smith ().

The proposed amendment of Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE), on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was adopted.

Question—H. Hughes Wagner—Chester A. McPheeters

H. Hughes Wagner (New England—NE) asked the following question:—

Mr. Chairman, this is not an amendment, but I would like to ask Dr. McPheeters a question. It has to do with the Local Church Emphasis and with the adoption of this Quadrennial Program. I refer to the first column, half way down the first column, where it speaks about the Week of Dedication:—

The second paragraph beginning "At the end of the quadrennium," this is in the review—we have a very inspiring presentation of the Week of Dedication this morning, and what a wonderful Program it is—but these words are used, "... thereby making it a continuing institution in the Church." And down a little later, "A movement thereby becomes an institution."

The question I want to ask is this: "Why, when a Program becomes a continuing institution is it not included in the continuing organization and structure of our Benevolence Program; to-wit, World Service?"

When a Program adopted on a Quadrennial basis has proved to be a permanently useful and good Program, why does it not become incorporated into the continuing structure of our Church which is the regular World Service? Why does it continue to be an independent as a Special Day.

Reply—Chester A. McPheeters

"That will come a little later when the Co-ordinating Council makes a Report on the Special Days because this week is considered as a special day.

"You can bring it up at that time which I think would be more appropriate."

Amendment—William B. Robinson—Accepted—Chester A. McPheeters

William B. Robinson (North-East Ohio—NC) moved to amend (DB-31) the second sentence of the paragraph entitled, "1. Study and Analysis," rephrased and adopted this morning, and which reads as follows:—

"There shall be a Quadrennial Committee for the Annual Conference. This Committee shall consist of the Bishop, the District Superintendents, one Pastor from each District, one Layman from each District, the Conference President of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, the Conference Lay Leader, the Chairman of the Annual Conference Boards included in the Program."

by deleting

"Chairman of the Annual Conference Boards," and substituting therefor, the words

"Chairman or persons selected by the participating Annual Conference Boards," so that the sentence as amended will read:—

"This Committee shall consist of the Bishop, the District Superintendents, one Pastor from each District, one Layman from each District, the Conference President of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, the Conference Lay Leader, the Chairman or persons selected by the participating Annual Conference Boards included in the Program."

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) accepted the proposed amendment of William B. Robinson (North-East Ohio—NC) for the five Organizations involved, no member of the same raising any objection, and no objection being raised by any member of The General Conference.

*Question Raised—Russell R. Patton—Answered—
Chester A. McPheeters*

Russell R. Patton (Kentucky—SE) raised the following question:—

I would like to ask Dr. McPheeters if on page 9 in the Study and Analysis—if he would accept the Conference Secretary of the Board of Education as one of the members of that personnel.

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) answered the question, as follows:—

I would think this previous amendment or suggestion would cover that, either a Chairman or one designated by the Board. Wouldn't that cover it?

II. The Higher Education Emphasis—Bishop John Wesley Lord

There being no further amendment proposed to Section "I. The Local Church Emphasis," Bishop John Wesley Lord the Presiding Officer, made the following statement:—

Are there any other amendments? Or are you ready now to pass on to Section II, which comes to a very significant part of the emphasis? I hear no objection. If there are no further amendments we come now to section II.

Could I instruct The Conference, if this is your wish? As I read through the Quadrennial Program, the first, second and third Paragraphs of this Higher Education emphasis are in the nature of the preamble or historical statement. I don't think that they would occasion debate.

We come to number 1, and I am going to ask Dr. McPheeters to read that Paragraph. It begins on the bottom of page 10, column 1, and concludes at the top of the second column on page 10. I think you will want to have that read, and then amended, if you see fit. Do I hear any question on the three Paragraphs preceding? I am trying, brethren, to get to the meat of this Program and to conserve time if I can.

Statement—Diamond R. Daniel ()*

Diamond R. Daniel (*) (Malaya—OS) was recognized and made the following statement regarding the Report:—

Mr. Chairman, I would just like to support this whole emphasis, this Quadrennial Emphasis, especially on higher education, especially with regard to Paragraph 3. The whole Report seems to spotlight the work in the United States and, therefore, I would like to just emphasize that there is a very great need for this type of work in Malaya as well; and I think in other parts of the Overseas Area.

The vision of the missionaries who came over there helped to establish Methodist high schools which have done invaluable service to the country, but there is a need for the establishment of seats of higher learning and so we look forward to this Quadrennial Program, during which time the establishment of such universities will be possible.

Objection to Reading—Lynn J. Radcliffe—Approved

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NE) started to read paragraph 1 at the bottom of page 10, column 1, DCA No. 1.

Lynn J. Radcliffe (Ohio—NE) was recognized and stated that the Report had been printed, and could we not dispense with reading? By common consent the further reading of the Report was dispensed with.

Amendment—George A. Butters—Paul V. Shearer ()—G. Alfred Brown—Chester A. Smith ()—D. Stewart Patterson ()—Mrs. Frank G. Brooks ()—Not Adopted

George A. Butters (Minnesota—NC) moved to amend (DB-32) paragraph 1 at the bottom of page 10, column 1, DCA No. 1, which reads as follows:

1. There shall be constituted a Quadrennial Commission on Christian Education, composed as follows: The effective Bishops in the United States; four Ministers and six Laymen from each Jurisdiction, nominated by The Council of Bishops and elected by The General Conference; the President of the General Board of Education; the Presidents of the three Divisions of the Board and twelve members of the General Board of Education, chosen by the Board or its Executive Committee; and, in addition, twenty members-at-large, chosen by the Commission on account of their experience and ability in the field of education and without reference to Jurisdictional Boundaries; the Executive Secretary of the Division of Educational Institutions; the Executive Secretary of the Division of the Local Church; the Executive Secretary of the Editorial Division. The Commission may elect advisory members without vote at its discretion. The Commission shall elect its Officers for the Quadrennium, and shall have general direction and supervision of the Quadrennial Educational Emphasis in accordance with the directives herein contained.

by deleting the words, "The effective Bishops in the United States," in lines three and four, and substituting there for the words, "four or five of the effective Bishops." The motion was duly seconded.

Proposed Amendment Amended—Paul V. Shearer ()—Accepted—George A. Butters*

Paul V. Shearer (*) (Iowa-Des Moines—NC) moved to amend the amendment by changing the words "four or five" to read "six" so that each of the six Jurisdictions might be represented.

George A. Butters (Minnesota—NC) accepted the amendment of Paul V. Shearer (*) (Iowa-Des Moines) to his proposed amendment, no objection being raised by the seconder of his proposed amendment, so that Paragraph 1, as amended will read:—

1. There shall be constituted a Quadrennial Commission on Christian Education, composed as follows: SIX effective Bishops in the United States; four Ministers and six Laymen from each Jurisdiction, nominated by The Council of Bishops and elected by The General Conference; the President of the General Board of Education; the Presidents of the three Divisions of the Board and twelve members of the General Board of Education, chosen by the Board or its Executive Committee; and, in addition, twenty members-at-large, chosen by the Commission on account of their experience and ability in the field of education and without reference to Jurisdictional Boundaries; the Executive Secretary of the Division of Educational Institutions; the Executive Secretary of the Division of the Local Church; the Executive Secretary of the Editorial Division. The Commission may elect advisory members without vote at its discretion. The Commission shall elect its Officers for the Quadrennium, and shall have general direction and supervision of the Quadrennial Educational Emphasis in accordance with the directives herein contained.

Against Amendment—G. Alfred A. Brown

G. Alfred Brown (Central Texas—SC) spoke against the proposed amendment.

For Amendment—Chester A. Smith ()*

Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) spoke in favor of the proposed amendment.

Against Amendment—D. Stewart Patterson ()—Mrs. Frank G. Brooks ()

D. Stewart Patterson () (Baltimore—NE) and Mrs. Frank G. Brooks () (North Iowa—NC) separately spoke against the proposed amendment.

Previous Question—Embree H. Blackard—Ordered

Embree H. Blackard (Western North Carolina—SE) moved the Previous Question on this particular amendment. The motion being duly seconded, the Previous Question was ordered on this particular amendment, by more than the required two-thirds majority vote of The General Conference.

Chester A. McPheeters Speaks—Amendment George A. Butters Not Adopted

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) spoke to the pending amendment as follows:—

Mr. Chairman, may I say just a word? There seems to be a bit of confusion; at least the terminology has been confused. This is not a Board we are organizing here; this is a Movement. This is a great Movement throughout the Church and it is very definitely felt, as it has been stated by Mrs. Brooks () and by Mr. Patterson (), that all of the members of The Council of Bishops within the United States should have contact with this Movement and really give it the kind of leadership it should have. The whole Commission was so organized that there was wide representation, but we do need to make the full impact upon the Church for a Great New Movement such as this as we have done in former Quadrennial Programs to have the full Council of Bishops upon this Commission.

The proposed amendment of George A. Butters (Minnesota—NC), on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.

Jurisdictional Conference Journals Referred—Lud H. Estes

Motion of Lud H. Estes (Memphis—SE), Secretary of The General Conference, duly seconded, prevailed, referring the Journals of the six Jurisdictional Conferences in the United States, to the Standing Legislative Committee on Publishing Interests, without reading.

Announcements—Leon T. Moore—Lud H. Estes

Leon T. Moore (Philadelphia—NE), Secretary-Designate of The General Conference, and Lud H. Estes (Memphis—SE), Secretary of The General Conference, separately made important announcements.

Program—Paul V. Galloway

Paul V. Galloway (Oklahoma—SC), Chairman of the Program Committee of the General Conference Commission on Entertainment and Program, announced the Programs for Saturday, Sunday and Monday nights respectively.

Privileged Motion—Charles R. Clegg (*) Action Postponed

Charles R. Clegg (*) (North Georgia—SE) moved that the retired Judicial Council members attending this General Conference session be paid their expense and per diem allowances.

Because of the probability of extended debate and the hour of adjournment nearing, by common consent, consideration was postponed until a later session.

No. 4. Presiding Officers—H. Hughes Wagner—Bishop W. Angie Smith

H. Hughes Wagner (New England—NE), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee on Presiding Officers, presented Report 4 of the Committee, and it was approved as follows:—

Your Committee on Presiding Officers is pleased to announce that the Presiding Officer for session of Sunday night, April 29, 1956 will be Bishop W. Angie Smith of the Oklahoma-New Mexico Area, South Central Jurisdiction.

No. 5. Presiding Officers—H. Hughes Wagner—Bishop Roy H. Short

H. Hughes Wagner (New England—NE), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee on Presiding Officers, presented Report No. 5 of the Committee, and it was approved as follows:—

“Your Committee on Presiding Officers is pleased to announce that the Presiding Officer for the session of Monday morning, April 30, 1956 will be Bishop Roy H. Short of the Nashville Area, Southeastern Jurisdiction.

(Signed)

H. Hughes Wagner, Chairman
William R. Cannon, Secretary

Thanks—Gavel—Bishop John Wesley Lord

Bishop John Wesley Lord of the Boston Area, Northeastern Jurisdiction, the Presiding Officer of this morning's session, thanked The General Conference for their spirit of co-operation in the conduct of the business of The General Conference.

Bishop John Wesley Lord, the Presiding Officer, made the following statement regarding the gavel used during the morning session:—

“I have long felt there was no wood hard enough that would allow me to preside at the four New England Conferences with all the assurance that I would like to have. This is a hard gavel. They told me it was a tooth, so there will be teeth in what we have to transpire from now on.”

Adjournment—Bishop John Wesley Lord

Bishop John Wesley Lord, the Presiding Officer, announced that The General Conference stood adjourned at 12:40 P.M., Saturday, April 28, 1956.

Adjournment:—

The General Conference adjourned at 9:57 P.M.

SIXTH DAY, MONDAY, APRIL 30, 1956

MORNING SESSION

Opening:—Bishop Roy H. Short

Pursuant to adjournment The General Conference of The Methodist Church convened in the morning session of the Sixth Day, Monday, April 30, 1956 in the Municipal Auditorium, Minneapolis, Minnesota at 8:30 A.M. with Bishop Roy H. Short, of the Nashville Area, Southeastern Jurisdiction, in the Chair, and further consideration of and action on Report No. I of the Co-ordinating Council, pending.

Bishop Roy H. Short, the Presiding Officer, announced that the Devotions of the morning would be conducted by Bishop F. Gerald Ensley, of the Des Moines Area, North Central Jurisdiction.

Devotions—Bishop F. Gerald Ensley

Bishop F. Gerald Ensley, of the Des Moines Area, North Central Jurisdiction, conducted the Devotional Service of the morning.

Hymn No. 73—Bishop F. Gerald Ensley—James R. Houghton ()*

Bishop F. Gerald Ensley announced Hymn No. 73, "Be Still, My Soul: the Lord Is on Thy Side," The General Conference, standing, joined in the singing of the Hymn, under the leadership of James R. Houghton (*) (New England—NE).

Responsive Reading—Gloria Patri

Bishop F. Gerald Ensley then led The General Conference in the Responsive Reading, "The Glory of God," found on page 575 of The Methodist Hymnal, after which The General Conference joined in the singing of The Gloria Patri.

Devotional Message—Bishop F. Gerald Ensley

Bishop F. Gerald Ensley then brought the message of the morning, from the theme, "Law and Persuasion," using as the basis for his remarks the Scripture found in the Gospel of St. John, first chapter, seventeenth verse, which reads as follows:—

"For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came through Jesus Christ."

Prayer and Benediction—Bishop F. Gerald Ensley

At the close of his remarks, Bishop F. Gerald Ensley led in prayer, and pronounced the Benediction.

Thanks—Bishop Roy H. Short

In behalf of The Conference, Bishop Roy H. Short, the Presiding Officer, expressed its thanks to Bishop F. Gerald Ensley for his timely message of the morning.

Business Session—Bishop Roy H. Short

Bishop Roy H. Short, of the Nashville Area, Southeastern Jurisdiction, the Presiding Officer, called The General Conference to order for its business session, following the Devotional Service of the morning, with further consideration of and action on Report No. I of the Co-ordinating Council pending.

No. 2 Journal—R. Merrill Powers

R. Merrill Powers (Rock River—NC) Secretary of the Standing Administrative Committee on Journal, presented Report No. 2 of the Committee, and on his motion, duly seconded, it was adopted as follows:—

“The Committee on Journal has examined the Journal for Saturday, April 28, 1956, and found it correct.”

(Signed) R. Merrill Powers, Secretary

No. 6—Courtesies and Privileges—Alexander K. Smith

Alexander K. Smith (Philadelphia—NE), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee on Courtesies and Privileges, presented the four following matters:—

First—Mrs. D. Stanley Coors—Message of Sympathy

Stated that Mrs. D. Stanley Coors, wife of our host Bishop, Bishop D. Stanley Coors, of the Minnesota Area, North Central Jurisdiction, had fallen and fractured an arm, and on his motion, duly seconded, the Secretary was instructed to send Mrs. D. Stanley Coors a message of sympathy, and assure her that the prayers of The General Conference were for her speedy recovery.

Second—Bishop William C. Martin—Citation—Bishop Costen J. Harrell

Requested recognition of Bishop William C. Martin, of the Dallas-Fort Worth Area, South Central Jurisdiction, for a privileged matter.

Bishop William C. Martin of the Dallas-Fort Worth Area, South Central Jurisdiction, being recognized, requested Bishop Costen J. Harrell, of the Charlotte Area, Southeastern Jurisdiction, to come to the front of the platform, in order that he might be presented a Citation of Appreciation, signed by thirty of those who had worked with him in the vital and far-reaching field of Advance Committee of the Commission on Promotion and Cultivation, and made the following statement:—

“Mr. Chairman and Members of the Conference: We greatly appreciate this privilege of making a presentation which should have been made at the close of the Report of the Committee on Advance, but time ran out. May I ask that Bishop Harrell come and stand with me here.

While he is coming here let me say that much really ought to be said here, but I have put it all into one sentence. I doubt if any of us know a man who is a more complete embodiment of these two elements which have been presented to us here this morning by our devotional speaker, that of the practical and mystical combination of the law and the gospel. And when the record is all in I think we are all agreed here this morning that few men in Methodism will be found to have left the influence of their lives in a larger and more permanent way upon the life of the Church than the man whom we honor at this moment.

Bishop Harrell, I hold in my hand a Citation which has been framed in such fashion that we hope it may find a place, rather prominent place in this new home which you and Mrs. Harrell are building at Atlanta, and to which you will be retiring after the Jurisdictional Conference. This is signed by thirty of those who have worked most closely with you in this assignment.”

The following Citation of Appreciation was handed Bishop Costen J. Harrell by Bishop William C. Martin, Chairman of the Commission on Promotion and Cultivation of The Methodist Church.

CITATION OF APPRECIATION

THE ADVANCE THE METHODIST CHURCH TO BISHOP COSTEN J. HARRELL

In recognition of your competent and consecrated fashioning of the “Second Mile” approach to missionary interest and support through in 1948-1952, and through The Advance in 1952-1956.

THE ADVANCE FOR CHRIST AND HIS CHURCH

Your vision, resourcefulness, and perseverance in making possible unprecedented growth in giving to Missions;

Your thoughtful and convincing interpretation of Christian Stewardship in support of the entire Program of The Methodist Church;

Your warm friendliness and personal devotion;

We, who have been closely associated with you in The Advance, present this token of our esteem and affection.

The General Conference stood during the presentation of the Citation.

Bishop Costen J. Harrell replied to the presentation of the Citation of Appreciation, as follows:—

“Mr. Chairman and my friends of this General Conference: These words coming from my dear friend and associate of many years quite overwhelm me. I hardly know what to say. I do say with all sincerity that I feel myself to be very unworthy of them, but he has at least stated here in this token that has been presented to me the things that I sincerely desire to be.

It brings to mind this introduction I had on one occasion from a colored friend of mine. I went to preach in his church one Sunday, when he arose to present me to the congregation, he said, “We have with us this morning a preacher who is also a gentleman.” I did not quite understand why he should think the ‘gentleman’ was necessary to be added, but he evidently thought so. I felt unworthy then of his unstinted praise, but he at least laid his hand on two things that I sincerely desired to be.

A friend of mine said to me not long ago, ‘I understand you are going to retire.’

I said, ‘No, I am being retired.’

There is some difference. I like to state it this way: I am entering into a new phase of my career, and this token that has come to me this morning warms my heart as there I enter.

Early in my ministry I purchased for my study a rather cheap print of Hoffman’s portrayal of Christ as a rich young ruler. It has hung in my study all these years since. And beside that there has been a parchment that was given me by a congregation that I had served, expressing some words of appreciation and affection for me, their former Pastor. This also has been hanging in my study.

And now this will come, for there are two things that I do yearn for in my active life and in all the years ahead: first, that I shall feel at all times the guiding hand of Him whom I confess to be my Redeemer; and beside that, the affection and the esteem of my co-laborers across the years.

These warm my heart and will keep my heart warm through the years that are ahead.

I thank you."

mittee, subject, "Amend Rules of Order, page 197 of the Handbook for Delegates, 1956 session of The General Conference Concerning Legislative Committees," and on his motion, duly seconded, Report No. 2 was adopted. For Report see page 1227.

Order of the Day—Report No. 1—State of the Church—
Lloyd A. Gustafson—Ordered

Lloyd A. Gustafson (North Iowa—NC) moved that an Order of the Day be established for Tuesday morning, May 1, 1956, for the consideration of and action on Report No. 1 of the Standing Legislative Committee on the State of the Church, immediately following the morning's devotions. The motion, duly seconded, prevailed.

Rule 15—Lud H. Estes

Lud H. Estes (Memphis—SE), Secretary, called attention to Rule 15 regarding motions and amendments to be presented in triplicate, stating that The General Conference was now invoking the Rule.

Consideration of and Action on Report No. 1—Quadrennial Program Resumed—Chester A. McPheeters—Section II
—Amended—Adopted

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) resumed presentation of Report No. 1 of the Co-ordinating Council and moved the adoption of "Section II, The Higher Education Emphasis," found in DCA No. 1, page 10, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 11, columns 1, 2 and 3; and page 12, column 1. The motion was duly seconded.

Amendment—Lynn J. Radcliffe—Accepted—Chester A.
McPheeters

Lynn J. Radcliffe (Ohio—NC) moved to amend Section II, DCA No. 1, page 10, column 1, (DB-33) following the words, "The effective Bishops in the United States," found in lines 3 and 4, by adding the following words:—

"two Central Conference Bishops, if they be in the United States at the time of the meeting of this Commission; if more than two are in the United States, The Council of Bishops shall select the two who are to serve."

J. Lynn Radcliffe (Ohio—NC) moved to further amend "Section II, The Higher Education Emphasis," DCA No. 1, page 10, column 2, by adding the words,

"also, the General Secretary of the Division of World Missions of the General Board of Missions," following the words, "the Secretary of the Editorial Division," found in DCA No. 1, page 10, column 2, line 16, so that the amended paragraph will read as follows:—

1. There shall be constituted a Quadrennial Commission on Christian Education, composed as follows: The effective Bishops in the United States, two Central Conference Bishops, if they be in the United States at the time of the meeting of this Commission; if more than two are in the United States, The Council of Bishops shall select the two who are to serve; four Ministers and six Laymen from each Jurisdiction, nominated by The Council of Bishops and elected by The General Conference; the President of the General Board of Education; the Presidents of the three Divisions of the Board and twelve members of the General Board of Education, chosen by the Board or its Executive Committee; and, in addition, twenty Members-at-Large, chosen by the Commission on account of their experience and ability in the field of education and without reference to Jurisdictional boundaries; the General Secretary of the Division of Educational Institutions; the General Secretary of the Division of the Local Church; the General Secretary of the Editorial Division, also the General Secretary of the Division of World Missions of the General Board of Missions; The Commission may elect advisory members without vote at its discretion. The Commission shall elect its officers for the quadrennium, and shall have general direction and supervision of the Quadrennial Educational Emphasis in accordance with the directives herein contained.

The motion being duly seconded, Lynn J. Radcliffe (Ohio—NC) spoke to the same.

Reply—Chester A. McPheeters

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) replied as follows:—

Mr. Chairman, may I call your attention to paragraph 3 under the Higher Education Emphasis, the middle of the paragraph:

The same task of strengthening our institutions of higher learning in other lands where the demand also is imperative and the urgency pressing is entrusted to the Central Conferences in which they are located with the assistance of the Board of Missions through the Division of World Missions and the Department of Work in Foreign Fields of the Woman's Division of Christian Service.

We attempted to take care of the matter in which you are interested, Dr. Radcliffe, but we felt this was a better way to take care of it.

Statement—Lynn J. Radcliffe

Lynn J. Radcliffe (Ohio—NC) made the following statement:—

“Mr. Chairman, then I move my amendment because it was that very paragraph that suggested that to me. I believe also in the policy making body there should be democratic representatives from the world field of The Methodist Church. I hope this will prevail.”

Amendment—Harald Lindstrom ()—Accepted—Chester A. McPheeters*

Harald Lindstrom (Sweden—OS) moved to amend the proposed amendment of Lynn J. Radcliffe (Ohio—NC), as follows:—

“Mr. Chairman, I would also like to move an amendment in the same way as the speaker before. I think it is important that we can integrate the work outside the United States with the work of the Church here in the United States and that this most important work which will be done by this Commission also include missionary education, which has to be planned also on a world scale. Therefore, I think it would be good for the whole Church to include two representatives on this Commission also from the Church outside the United States. I also wanted to add that such an arrangement would emphasize the structure of the Church as a world-wide Church and world-wide fellowship in the Church.

Thank you.”

Amendments—Lynn J. Radcliffe and Harald Lindstrom ()—Accepted—Chester A. McPheeters*

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) accepted the proposed amendments of Lynn J. Radcliffe (Ohio—NC) and Harald Lindstrom (*) (Sweden—OS), for the five Organizations concerned, there being no objection raised by any member of the said Organizations, or by any member of The General Conference.

Amendment—Weldon Crossland—Not Adopted

Weldon Crossland (Genesee—NE) moved to amend paragraph “b” Section 3, page 11, column 3, DCA No. 1, by deleting the word “may” in line one, and substituting therefor the word “shall,” so that the sentence will read, when amended,

“The Commission shall constitute from its membership a Committee to examine the Charters of the respective institutions related to The Methodist Church to determine the actual status of relationship.”

Reply—Chester A. McPheeters

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) stated that the provision found in paragraph “b” was not a mandate, as the reading of the paragraph plainly showed, as follows:—

3. To the specific directives above named, certain possible procedures are hereunder appended for the guidance of the Commission, the same being for the Commission’s consideration without the force of a mandate.

Amendment—Weldon Crossland—Not Adopted

The proposed amendment of Weldon Crossland (Genesee—NE) on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.

Amendment—J. Earl Moreland ()—Accepted*

J. Earl Moreland (*) (Virginia—SE) moved to amend (DB-34) paragraph “c”, Section 3, page 11, column 3, DCA No. 1, by adding the words, “and not less than 30 cents annually per member for the Wesley Foundations,” following the words “institutions related to the respective Conferences,” in lines 29 and 30, so that the amended sentence will read as follows:—

c. In an appeal to the membership of the Church for the support of our institutions, at least two approaches are possible; (1) a financial campaign and/or (2) an apportionment transmitted annually by the respective Annual Conferences to local churches and accepted by the respective Quarterly Conferences, as in the case of World Service and Conference Benevolences. The nature of the appeal and the financial goals and apportionments shall be determined by the Annual Conference concerned in each undertaking, and the Quadrennial Commission shall adjust its procedures accordingly. In many cases, special financial campaigns are advisable and will, we believe, be undertaken. It does not appear, however, that periodic appeals will provide for the continuing financial needs of our institutions. It is highly important that we develop in our whole constituency a conscience concerning the continuing support of our institutions and that a procedure be established in all our Conferences by which our people would contribute not less than an average of $1.00 annually per member for the support of institutions related to the respective Conferences, and not less than 30 cents annually per member for the Wesley Foundations. If such a Program could be made effective among nine and a half million Methodists in the United States, we would witness the dawn of a new day in higher Christian education.

Amendment Accepted—Chester A. McPheeters

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) accepted the proposed amendment of J. Earl Moreland (*) (Virginia—SE) for the five Organizations involved, there being no objection raised by any member of the aforesaid Organizations, or by any member of The General Conference.

School of Inter-National Service—Albert P. Shirkey

Albert P. Shirkey (Baltimore—NE) spoke to the pending Section II, with special emphasis on the School of Inter-National Service to be established on the campus of American University in Washington, D.C.

Amendment—Edmund L. Tink ()—Out of Order*

Edmund L. Tink (*) (Newark—NE) moved to amend (DB-35) the second paragraph in “e” “We,” page 11, column 2, DCA No. 1 by deleting the word “recommend” found in the first line of the paragraph, and substituting therefor the word “direct,” so that the amended paragraph will read as follows:—

We direct that the Council on World Service and Finance include a non-recurring item of $250,000 a year during the coming Quadrennium to establish a School of International Service in the nation's capital.

The motion being duly seconded, Edmund L. Tink (*) (Newark—NE) spoke to the same.

Ruling—Bishop Roy H. Short

Bishop Roy H. Short, the Presiding Officer, made the following ruling:—

"If you will pardon the Chair, under the Discipline, The General Conference cannot direct but only recommend to the Commission on World Service and Finance."

Question—Frank M. Templin—Answer—Chester A. McPheeters

Frank M. Templin (Indiana—NC) raised the following question:—

On page 11, the middle column, line 4 from the top of the page, in this sentence, "The Commission shall devise such methods of credit for the Local Church as it may determine."

In column 3, about midway down, paragraph (c), line 10: "The nature of the appeal and the financial goals and apportionments shall be determined by the Annual Conference concerned in each undertaking, and the Quadrennial Commission shall adjust its procedures accordingly." Is this to be the determination finally of the Commission or of the Annual Conference? I think the local church and the Annual Conference will be interested in this.

I want specifically the answer to this question: Is there any limit placed upon the use to which a college may put such monies as may be raised in this $1 apportionment? This question arises from a practical problem. The Indiana Conference is already committed to a $500,000 Dormitory Campaign to Evansville college, beginning 1957. Can such money be raised within the framework of this Apportionment?

I ask that question because we were told last Quadrennium that such money could not be raised within the 50 cent Apportionment. I would like the answer of the Chairman to this question.

Question Answered—Chester A. McPheeters

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) made the following reply:—

As we understand this, Mr. Chairman, the determination will be made by the Annual Conference itself. I think you have brought two matters together which really do not relate, if I may say. We have attempted to provide for some kind of credit for the giving of churches to this cause in the sentence at the top of the middle column. But in this manner, under paragraph (c), the Annual Conference would certainly make that decision. The local regional group would make that decision.

Information—Edmund L. Tink ()*

Edmund L. Tink (*) (Newark—NE) asked for further information on the relation of The General Conference to the Commission on World Service and Finance in the matter of "recommending" or "directing" as follows:—

It does not behoove a Layman to question a Chairman or a Bishop, but if I am correct in my assumption that the World Service Council is created by The General Conference and is responsible to The General Conference, then where does the authority come from that says The General Conference may only recommend to one of its Agencies, rather than occasionally direct if it so desires? That is a matter of information.

Ruling—Bishop Roy H. Short

Bishop Roy H. Short, the Presiding Officer, ruled as follows:—

It is the understanding of the Chair that when the Report comes back from the World Service Council this can be done. It is at this particular point that the idea of recommending obtains.

Amendment—Robert G. Mayfield ()—Accepted—Chester A. McPheeters*

Robert G. Mayfield (*) (Southwest Missouri—SC) moved to amend paragraphs "b," "c," "e," "f" and "g" on page 11, column 3, DCA No. 1, by inserting the word "educational," before the word "institutions," in lines 3, 7 and 11 of paragraph "b," and in lines 2, 21, 24 and 29 of paragraph "c," and in paragraph "e," line 3; in paragraph "f," line 6, page 11, column 3, DCA No. 1; page 12, line 4; column 1; and in paragraph "g," line 4, on page 12, column 1, DCA No. 1; so that the amended paragraphs "b," "c," "e," "f," and "g," will read as follows:—

b. The Commission may constitute from its membership a Committee to examine the Charters of the respective educational institutions related to The Methodist Church to determine the actual status of relationship. The bonds connecting a number of our educational institutions with the Church should be strengthened. It is recommended that in instances where such strengthening is desirable the Commission shall encourage the Trustees of the educational institutions concerned to take appropriate steps to alter their Charters accordingly.

c. In an appeal to the membership of the Church for the support of our educational institutions, at least two approaches are possible; (1) a financial campaign and/or (2) an apportionment transmitted annually by the respective Annual Conferences to Local Churches and accepted by the respective Quarterly Conferences, as in the case of World Service and Conference Benevolences. The nature of the appeal and the financial goals and apportionments shall be determined by the Annual Conference concerned in each undertaking, and the Quadrennial Commission shall adjust its procedures accordingly. In many cases, Special Financial Campaigns are advisable and will, we believe, be undertaken. It does not appear, however, that periodic appeals will provide for the continuing financial needs of our educational institutions. It is highly important that we develop in our whole constituency a conscience concerning the continuing support of our educational institutions and that a procedure be established in all our Conferences by which our people would contribute not less than an average of $1.00 annually per member for the support of educational institutions related to the respective Conferences and not less than 30 cents annually per member for the Wesley Foundations. If such a Program could be made effective among nine and a half million Methodists in the United States, we would witness the dawn of a new day in higher Christian education.

e. We recommend that the Commission give consideration to recommending to all our educational institutions that each shall set aside out of funds received from the Church a certain portion for permanent endowment, thus establishing a backlog of security.

f. We recommend that the Commission give consideration to constituting a Committee to work out a procedure whereby an appeal may go to our people in every Local Church to leave in their wills a bequest in some amount for some educational institution of learning in the Church.

g. We recommend that the Commission give consideration to constituting a Committee to promote a plan of appeal to the alumni of all our educational institutions. If, for example, each alumnus should recognize his obligation to the college or university at which he received his training and should resolve to return to her, either by gift during his life time or by bequest, the cost of his education over and above the fees he paid, a new loyalty would appear and a continuing avenue of support would be opened.

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) accepted the proposed amendment of Robert G. Mayfield (*) (Southwest Missouri—SC) for the five Organizations involved, there being no objection raised by any member of the aforesaid Organizations, or by any member of The General Conference.

Information—Syracuse University School of Citizenship and Public Affairs—Harold S. Swales

Harold S. Swales (Central New York—NE) stated for the information of The General Conference that Syracuse University, with its School of Citizenship and Public Affairs, is already training a large group of young people to do the thing that is proposed to be undertaken at the American University at Washington, D. C.

Amendment—James P. Brawley ()—Accepted—Chester A. McPheeters*

James P. Brawley (*) (Georgia—C) moved to amend (DB-37) paragraph "d," Section 3, page 11, column 3, DCA No. 1 by the addition of the following sentence at the close of the paragraph,

"with due recognition of the special needs of the educational institutions historically operated for Negroes."

so that the amended paragraph will read, as follows:—

d. We recommend that the Commission give consideration to requesting the several Annual Conferences to set aside a certain percentage of the sums received for their schools and colleges, such percentage to be remitted to the Division of Educational Institutions, and administered by it for educational institutions where there is special need with due recognition of the special needs of the educational institutions historically operated for Negroes.

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) accepted the proposed amendment of James P. Brawley (*) (Georgia—C) for the five Organizations involved, there being no objection raised by any member of the aforesaid Organizations, or by any member of The General Conference.

Amendment—Otis L. Collier—Accepted—Chester A. McPheeters

Otis L. Collier (Northwest Indiana—NC) moved to amend (DB-38) paragraph (1) in the middle of page 11, column 1, DCA No. 1, which reads as follows:—

(1) To interpret to our Church-related colleges and universities their place and function in the life of the Church and the obligation of these institutions to be Christian in teaching and in practice;

by the addition of the following sentence, at the close of the paragraph:—

"and in their policies relative to serving the youth of the local churches, the Conferences, and the areas from whom they would receive support."

so that the amended paragraph (1) would read as follows:—

(1) To interpret to our Church-related colleges and universities their place and function in the life of the Church and the obligation of these institutions to be Christian in teaching and in practice, and in their policies relative to serving the youth of the local churches, the Conferences, and the areas from whom they would receive support.

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) accepted the proposed amendment of Otis L. Collier (Northwest Indiana—NC) for the five Organizations involved, there being no objection raised by any member of the aforesaid five Organizations, or by any member of The General Conference.

Question—Edward W. Foote—Answer—Chester A. McPheeters

e. We recommend that the Commission give consideration to recommending to all our educational institutions that each shall set aside out of funds received from the Church a certain portion for permanent endowment, thus establishing a backlog of security.

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) replied,

"We would interpret that as meaning the Commission would recommend the Annual Conferences would make the decisions, and that they would be variable according to a local need or a local decision."

Previous Question—Embree H. Blackard—Ordered

Embree H. Blackard (Western North Carolina—SE) moved the Previous Question on all that is before The General Conference.

The motion, duly seconded, prevailed by more than the required two-thirds vote, and the Previous Question was ordered.

Amendments by Common Consent—Chester A. McPheeters

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) asked common consent to make the following two clarifying amendments. Common consent being unanimously given the following were adopted:—

First:—The addition of the President of the Conference Methodist Youth Fellowship to the personnel of the Annual Conference Quadrennial Program Committee, so that the amended paragraph, "1. Study and Analysis," DCA No. 1, page 9, column 2 will read as follows:—

"There shall be in each Annual Conference a Quadrennial Program Committee on Local Church Goals, consisting of the Bishop, the District Superintendents, one Minister from each District, one Layman from each District, the Conference Lay Leader, the President of the Conference Woman's Society of Christian Service, the President of the Conference Youth Fellowship, a representative of each of the Conference Boards taking part in the Program, and such additional persons as the Committee shall select."

The Communist proffers revolutionary proposals alleged to be scientifically based and designed to abolish the exploitation of man by man and to set up a classless society. Actually, Communism eventuates in the most degrading of exploitation. It exploits the mind, regiments the person, tyrannizes the soul. It lacks the cohesive power of love which is essential to social unity.

Re-write it to read as follows:—

The Communist proffers revolutionary proposals alleged to be scientifically based and designed to abolish the exploitation of man by man and to set up a classless society. Actually, Communism cannot obtain these goals for it lacks the cohesive power of love which is essential to social unity.

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) moved the adoption of the Report as amended. The motion was duly seconded.

Point of Order—G. Clifford Pettygrove (*)—Reply, Chester A. McPheeters—Ruling—Bishop Short

G. Clifford Pettygrove (*) (California-Nevada—W) raised the following Point of Order:—

A Point of Order or procedure, Mr. Chairman.

If we are to operate within our Rules, we would not be able to take final action at this time on this Report inasmuch as Rule 7, page 202 of the Handbook indicates that upon any proposal—if any proposal is submitted for the establishment of a new Commission, said proposal shall be referred to the Council on World Service and Finance, or its Executive Committee for determination of the cost of operating such a Commission.

Now I say, Mr. Chairman, that the Council on World Service and Finance—though I do not speak for it officially, but I am a member of it, has considered this matter and are well prepared to consider the Budget requirement. However, I do recall that by previous action today there has been some change in the composition of the Commission by the addition of Central Conference Bishops which may and probably will increase the cost of operating the work of that Commission. Therefore, it is imperative that our action at this time, as I see it, should not be a final action but only preliminary.

Reply—Chester A. McPheeters

What has been said of course is in keeping with the Rules of this body and we call your attention to page 199, column 3, DCA No. 5, that this matter has been included in the Budget of the Council on World Service and Finance. That has not been passed of course. But we can adopt the Report and leave the matter for the Council on World Service and Finance.

Ruling—Bishop Short

Bishop Roy H. Short, the Presiding Officer, made the following ruling:—

All right. It is only a recommendation to The General Conference anyway. That matter will come back when the Report comes in.

Report No. 1 Adopted

The Report, as amended, was unanimously adopted. There was applause. For Report see page 1768.

Closing Prayer—Bishop Charles W. Brashares

At the request of Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC), Bishop Charles Wesley Brashares, President of the Co-ordinating Council, led in a Dedictory Prayer for God's guidance in the achievement of the Goals and Purposes of the Quadrennial Program for 1956-1960.

Thanks—Bishop Roy H. Short

Bishop Roy H. Short, the Presiding Officer, in well chosen words for and in behalf of The General Conference, thanked the Co-ordinating Council for this significant Program with which they have challenged The Methodist Church.

Order of the Day—Report Study Commission on Theological Education—Eugene M. Frank—Bishop Donald H. Tippett

The Order of the Day having arrived, consideration of and action on the Report of the Study Commission on Theological Education, Eugene M. Frank (Kansas—SC) presented the Report of the Commission, found in DCA No. 4, pages 137-144 inclusive, and moved that if the Recess period should come before the Report had been presented, resumption of the Report should follow immediately after the Recess period. The motion, duly seconded, prevailed.

The Report is also found in the Book of Quadrennial Reports, pages 385-409 inclusive.

Eugene M. Frank (Kansas—SC) presented Bishop Donald H. Tippett, of the San Francisco Area, Western Jurisdiction, Chairman of the Commission, and requested the privilege of the floor for Bishop Tippett to speak to the Report. By common consent the privilege of the floor was extended to Bishop Donald H. Tippett.

Time Extended—William R. Cannon—Adopted

Recess time approaching, motion of William R. Cannon (North Georgia—SE), duly seconded, prevailed, extending the time for Bishop Donald H. Tippett to complete his remarks.

Corrections—Bishop Donald H. Tippett

Bishop Donald H. Tippett requested, and received common consent to make the following corrections:—

First—On page 141, column 3, DCA No. 4, in (13) delete the words, "corporately attached" in line three, and substitute therefor the words, "intimately related," so that the amended (13) will read:—

(13) the availability of an educational institution to which the school could be intimately related and the willingness of that institution to co-operate in the development of a Theological School,

Second—On page 142, DCA No. 4, column 2, under Resolutions, delete the words, "and the Central Kansas Conference have," and substitute therefor the word, "has," so that the amended paragraph will read:—

"The Kansas Conference has voted to provide an amount equal to a minimum of 20 cents per member per year for the 1956-1960 Quadrennium. Bishop Ivan Lee Holt tells me that at the proper time he will present this matter to his Conferences and he believes they will join the Conferences of the Kansas Area. This would mean a minimum support of $100,000 annually for at least four years for the seminary." Dana Dawson, Bishop, The Kansas Area."

Announcement—Leon T. Moore

Leon T. Moore (Philadelphia—NE) Secretary-Designate stated that a quantity of mail for persons whose last names begin with the initial C, G and W had been stolen from the Conference Post Office, and that the postal inspectors were on hand to answer questions concerning the same.

Committee of Chairmen Called—A. Wesley Pugh

A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee of Chairmen, called an important meeting of the Committee for the Recess period.

Recess

The time of Recess having arrived The General Conference recessed for ten minutes.

Reconvene—Bishop Roy H. Short—James R. Houghton (*)

Upon the expiration of the Recess period Bishop Roy H. Short, of the Nashville Area, Southeastern Jurisdiction, the Presiding Officer, called The General Conference to order, and announced Hymn No. 2, "Come, Thou Almighty King."

The Conference stood, and under the direction of James R. Houghton (*) (New England—NE), General Conference Director of Music, joined heartily in the singing of the Hymn.

Presented—Carl C. Bracy—Bishop Roy H. Short—Choir Mount Union College—Cecil Stewart (*)

Bishop Roy H. Short, the Presiding Officer, presented Carl C. Bracy (North-East Ohio—NC), President of Mount Union College, who in turn presented the Choir of Mount Union College and their Director, Cecil Stewart (*) (North-East Ohio—NC).

Mount Union College Choir—Cecil Stewart ()—James R. Houghton ()

James R. Houghton () (New England—NE) General Conference Director of Music, announced that the Choir of Mount Union College, under the direction of Cecil Stewart () (North-East Ohio—NC) would render the following selections:—

“Voix Celestes” by Gilbert A. Alcock
“My Soul Is A Witness” by Kenneth Billups
“Crucifixus” by Antonio Lotti

Method of Procedure—A. Wesley Pugh

A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee of Chairmen, moved that we observe the time of the adjournment of the morning session, and refrain from reading lengthy excerpts from the printed Reports, in order to save time and expedite the business of The General Conference. The motion, duly seconded, prevailed.

Study Commission on Theological Education Resumed—Bishop Donald H. Tippet

Consideration of and action on the Report of the Study Commission on Theological Education was resumed.

Bishop Donald H. Tippet requested, and obtained common consent for a correction in the first full paragraph on page 143, column 3, DCA No. 4, by deleting the word, “additional,” in lines seventeen and eighteen, and substituting therefor the word, “annual,” and then in line eighteen immediately following the word, “appropriation,” add the words, “or $75,000 for each school in the event there are two of them,” so that the amended paragraph will read:—

Over and above the expansion of the existing schools to 4,300 in enrollment, the Church should provide Methodist theological educational opportunities for 500 additional students. The Study Commission recommends that this number be accommodated through the establishment of two new theological schools. In order that the Church may assist in providing adequate support for these new schools through the initial years when private gifts for capital and current needs are only beginning, and when student enrollments will be developing and income from student fees limited, general Church support for the new schools should be made available in the amount of $150,000 Annual Appropriation, or $75,000 for each school in the event there are two of them, from World Service funds to be allocated through the Department of Theological Schools.

Motion to Adopt—Eugene M. Frank—William R. Cannon

Eugene M. Frank (Kansas—SC) moved the adoption of the Report. The motion to adopt was duly seconded by William R. Cannon (North Georgia—SE).

Motion to Refer—Chester M. Alter ()—Eugene M. Frank—Not Referred*

Chester M. Alter (*) (Colorado—W) acting under Rule 22 of the Rules of Order, which reads as follows:—

Rule 22. REFERRING REPORTS, ETC.

It shall be in order for The Conference to refer to a Committee a section or part of a Report or Resolution which is before the Conference for consideration, or any amendment offered thereto.

moved to refer the Report of the Study Commission on Theological Education to the Standing Legislative Committee on Education. The motion to refer, being duly seconded, Chester M. Alter (*) (Colorado—W) spoke to the same, as follows:—

"I would like to point out that the Commission on Study of Theological Education was born out of a recommendation adopted on April 29, 1952, by The General Conference Committee on Education. This Report deals with the subject of Education. We have a Committee which is authorized and held responsible for the study of such matters coming before The Conference as deal with the subject of Education.

In the second place, I would like to point out that there are many Memorials in the hands of the Committee on Education at the present time dealing with the subject of theological education in general and with this Report in particular.

We believe in democracy in The Methodist Church. We pride ourselves on the fact that every individual has a right to memorialize this Conference on subjects in which they are interested. I submit that if we proceed with the adoption of this Study Report at this time without giving consideration to the Memorials which are in the hands of a subsidiary body of this Conference that we will disenfranchise and emasculate the right of the people that we represent here in regard to the Memorials which they have submitted.

In the first place, this Conference has not yet had an opportunity to have the benefit of the study of a very technical matter on the part of our Committee on Education. Therefore, Mr. Chairman, I believe it is fair to our constituents, fair to those in this body who would like to have the benefit of study of this Report by the Committee on Education, to so refer it.

Thank you."

Eugene M. Frank Against Motion to Refer

Eugene M. Frank (Kansas—SC) spoke against the motion to refer, as follows:—

"May I just say it has been the feeling of the Study Commission that it was our responsibility to report directly to The General Conference. That almost every group within the Church, the Association of Theological Schools, the General Board of Education, has studied this Report very carefully. We felt that it would necessitate the presentation of the entire study, some 230-odd pages of material, to the Committee on Education, and in view of the remarks made by Dr. Pugh this morning and his motion, we feel that it is entirely proper for us to present this on the floor of The Conference to The General Conference as a whole so that we may all study it together."

The motion of Chester M. Alter (*) (Colorado—W) to refer the Report of the Study Commission on Theological Education, to the Standing Legislative Committee on Education, on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.

Amendment—Herbert E. Richards—Accepted—Eugene M. Frank

Herbert E. Richards (Idaho—W) moved to amend (DB-39) the first paragraph on page 142, column 3, DCA No. 4, under "Recommendations," by deleting the last sentence of the paragraph which reads:—

The authority for determining the exact location and type of organization for each school should be invested in a Committee on Theological Education to be designated by the Area named, the Department of Theological Schools of the Board of Education, and the University Senate.

and substituting therefor the following:—

The authority for the final approval of the exact location, the financial provisions, the time of implementing the decisions, and the chartering of each school shall be vested in the Department of Ministerial Education, Division of Educational Institutions, the General Board of Education, with the co-operation of a Committee on Theological Education to be designated by the Areas named. The authority for determining educational standards and criteria and all other matters normally under the jurisdiction of the University Senate shall be vested in that body in co-operation with the Committee on Theological Education to be designated by the Areas named.

so that the paragraph as amended, will read:—

Recommendations

The Study Commission recommends that authorization be granted for the establishment of two new Methodist theological schools to be developed during the 1956-1960 quadrennium with the objective of enrolling 250 students each, one to be established in the Ohio Area, North Central Jurisdiction, and the other to be established in the Kansas-Missouri-Nebraska Areas, South Central Jurisdiction.

The authority of the final approval of the exact location, the financial provisions, the time of implementing the decisions, and the chartering of each school shall be vested in the Department of Ministerial Education, Division of Educational Institutions, the General Board of Education, with the co-operation of a Committee on Theological Education to be designated by the Areas named. The authority for determining educational standards and criteria and all other matters normally under the jurisdiction of the University Senate shall be vested in that body, in co-operation with the Committee on Theological Education to be designated by the Areas named.

Eugene M. Frank (Kansas—SC) accepted the proposed amendment of Herbert E. Richards (Idaho—W) for the Commission, no objection being raised by any member of the Commission, or by any member of The General Conference.

Amend by Deletion—Mack B. Stokes—Substitute—Miss Georgia Harkness ()—Eugene M. Frank—Fred G. Holloway—Mangal Singh—James W. Henley—Lynn J. Radcliffe—Bishop Roy H. Short—Ernest W. Peterson ()—Pendleton Gaines ()—Not Adopted*

Mack B. Stokes (Holston—SE) moved to amend the Report by the deletion of Recommendation VIII, at the bottom of column 3, page 144, DCA No. 4, and which reads as follows:—

VIII. The Commission further recommends that such limited and temporary grants to non-Methodist theological schools as may be arranged in accordance with the recommendations of the Study Commission may be paid out of reserve moneys accrued within the Department of Theological Schools. The total amount so expended shall not exceed $25,000 in any one year.

The motion being duly seconded, Mack B. Stokes (Holston—SE) spoke to the same as follows:—

"First of all, let me say that I agree with the remarks that have thus far been made in presenting this extraordinary Report as a whole. It is a very able document and statesmanlike in its composition and in its presentation. However, I think as a matter of fact that there are several problems concerning this particular recommendation that make it difficult, if not impossible, for me to go along with it.

All of us know that we appreciate the contribution of non-Methodist theological schools in their training of our Methodist men. These things we deeply appreciate and were directly referred to with appreciation in this extraordinary Report. But I should like to say that there are several considerations here that I think should be seriously contemplated. First of all, you will notice that the amount of $25,000, or up to $25,000, which could be given to non-Methodist theological schools from reserve moneys within the funds allocated to Methodist theological seminaries. Now, it seems to me that in view of the fact that every single one of our Methodist seminaries have needs that go beyond anything that they now receive from the Church that this raises a serious question about this amount of money.

In the second place, it seems to me particularly inopportune at this time when we are asked to expand so much; that is, to increase our student body by a great deal and also at this time when we are asked to look toward the establishment of two new theological seminaries, to go ahead with this particular recommendation.

Moreover, this thought should be kept in mind: No Methodist seminary can receive large grants of money from the largest Grant Foundation, so far as I know at least, in this country, and the one reason for that is that they are Methodist theological schools. It seems to me that this raises some question at this point. So in the light of these considerations, I should like to support this motion that No. VIII be deleted.

Thank you."

Substitute—Miss Georgia Harkness ()*

Miss Georgia Harkness (*) (Troy—NE) moved (DB—40) as a substitute to the motion of Mack B. Stokes (Holston—SE) to delete Recommendation VIII, at the bottom of column 3, page 144, DCA No. 4, the following:—

VIII. The Commission further recommends that such limited and temporary grants to non-Methodist theological schools as may be arranged in accordance with the recommendations of the Study Commission may be paid out of reserve moneys accrued within the Department of Theological Schools. The total amount so expended shall not exceed $25,000 in any one year.

be retained, but that section (d), bottom of page 143, column 1, DCA No. 4, and the top of page 143, column 2, DCA No. 4, which reads as follows:—

(d) that the specific purpose to which these grants may be applied shall be limited to the provision of teaching personnel for courses especially relevant for Methodist students or to the strengthening of library holdings in subjects especially pertinent for Methodist interests.

be deleted; that for editorial consistency, delete the word, "special," before the word, "instruction," found in line six of the third paragraph of Recommendations of page 143, column 2, DCA No. 4, which paragraph reads as follows:—

That the Department of Theological Schools be authorized to initiate a temporary and limited program of grants to selected non-Methodist schools, in accordance with the recommendations of the Study Commission, for special instruction and services offered to Methodist students.

so that the amended paragraph will read as follows:—

That the Department of Theological Schools be authorized to initiate a temporary and limited program of grants to selected non-Methodist schools, in accordance with the recommendations of the Study Commission, for instruction and services offered to Methodist students.

and also delete the word "special," before the word "instruction," in the third paragraph under Recommendation VI,

That the Department of Theological Schools be authorized to initiate a temporary and limited program of grants to selected non-Methodist schools, in accordance with the recommendations of the Study Commission, for special instruction and services offered to Methodist students.

so the amended paragraph will read as follows:—

That the Department of Theological Schools be authorized to initiate a temporary and limited program of grants to selected non-Methodist schools, in accordance with the recommendations of the Study Commission, for instruction and services offered to Methodist students.

and that section (d) bottom of page 143, column 1, DCA No. 4, and top of page 143, column 2, DCA No. 4, reading as follows:—

"That the specific purpose to which these grants may be applied shall be limited to the provision of teaching personnel or courses especially relevant for Methodist students or to the strengthening of library holdings in subjects especially pertinent for Methodists' interests."

be deleted.

The motion to thus amend, being duly seconded, Miss Georgia Harkness (*) (Troy—NE) spoke to the same as follows:—

"Bishop Tippet has told us that education in these non-Methodist seminaries is regarded by the Commission as desirable and non-competitive. We all would agree—and I would agree fully with the last speaker—that most of our students ought to be educated in Methodist seminaries. However, we must reckon with facts. The Report on the Ministry that was called to your attention this morning in the blue pamphlet states that 77.8 of our Methodist seminary graduates are from Methodist seminaries, 22.2 from non-Methodist seminaries. We may not like that fact. It is, however, a fact to be reckoned with. The education of persons for the Methodist ministry in non-Methodist seminaries saves The Methodist Church a great deal of money.

Now, may I speak from the standpoint not of special pleading for the school in which I serve but simply as illustrative? If you will look on page 142, there is a map of the United States at the top of column 3. You will find great open spaces in the Pacific Northwest. There is no Methodist seminary 500 miles to the south of the Pacific School of Religion, approximately 1500 miles to the east and none to the north, to the Canadian line.

The Pacific School of Religion has Methodists as its largest constituent body, 62 Methodists out of a total registration of 160 students. It is serving this vast Northwest Area in preparation of young men for the Methodist ministry. This school pays $85,000 a year for the education of men for the Methodist ministry. Parenthetically, may I say almost all of them do go into the Methodist ministry, and I have heard that is not always the case from Methodist seminaries.

Now, compare this $85,000 a year which is paid not for the total education of the students in the Pacific School of Religion but for the Methodist students there, with what would be allocated if this limitation under (d) at the foot of Column 1, page 143, were applied. It takes a lot more than a Course in Methodist History and Polity to get a man ready for the Methodist ministry. Your Commission has stated there are ten fields, Old Testament, New Testament, Church History, and others. There is no Methodist Old Testament, there is no Methodist New Testament. The funds must be applied to the total education of students for the Methodist ministry.

If this limitation (d) and the word 'special' are permitted to stand, it means that one-sixth of the salary of one professor—virtually $800 to $850, 1 per cent approximately of the $85,000 that the Pacific School of Religion is paying to educate ministers in the Northwest—will be granted. I submit to you Methodists pay their bills better than that.

Reference has been made to the Sealantic fund. I freely admit that the Pacific School of Religion was one of six seminaries to receive such a grant. I remind you, therefore, that I make this amendment not as a matter of special pleading but there are many seminaries that are not amongst those six. If this may be deleted and the Department of Theological Schools be given authority to allocate these $25,000, not really a great sum compared with the nearly $1,200,000 elsewhere recommended, if the Department of Theological Schools may be given authority at their discretion to allocate this $25,000, then they may give it where it is most needed from the standpoint of geographical location and quality and quantity of instruction rendered in the education of students for the Methodist ministry. I hope, therefore, that these deletions may be made but that section VIII may be retained."

Eugene M. Frank Speaks to Pending Motion

Eugene M. Frank (Kansas—SC) spoke to the pending motion as follows:—

"These questions and many others were studied by the Commission. We were confronted with the fact that about 15 per cent of the students in Methodist seminaries are non-Methodist students which we are educating. We are confronted also with the fact that in the Pacific Northwest there is not the concentration of students for the ministry that we have in certain other Areas. There are many complicating factors in this problem and, Mr. Chairman, we prefer that the Conference itself shall determine its course in this regard."

Against Motion to Substitute—Fred G. Holloway

Fred G. Holloway (Baltimore—NE) spoke against the pending motion as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman, I am opposed to the substitute and am in favor of the previous motion, that this section be deleted. All of us, of course, are concerned about this whole question of the education of ministry for The Methodist Church. But we must bear in mind that it has two aspects. One is the aspect of the General Church, and one is the aspect of the Area which is concerned. No one here should imagine for a single moment that the support which the Methodist theological schools need comes in its entirety from The General Conference. I think it would be true that every seminary within The Methodist Church at the present moment is operating on an unbalanced Budget. It is true that within the Area in which we operate we must raise funds to balance our Budget annually, raise funds for the erection of buildings, etc.

I think in view of this fact all of us must bear in mind that we have both an Area problem and a General Church problem. If the statistics just brought to your attention representing one non-Methodist school are valid, namely, that $85,000 is spent there which does not come from The General Conference of The Methodist Church, I must point out that the theological school that I represent invests annually $290,000 for the education of Methodist students, and gets from the general Church about $60,000. There is need for additional resources. Where it is an Area problem it must be done within the Area.

Furthermore, Mr. Chairman, I would dislike very much to have The Methodist Church begin at this particular stage in making grants to non-Methodist institutions. Certain things could not be done until we bring the Budgets of Methodist theological schools within balance."

For Motion—Mangal Singh

Mangal Singh (Delhi—OS) spoke in favor the amendment of Miss Georgia Harkness (*) (Troy—NE) as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman, I do not think that I am the proper man to pass an opinion upon a matter that concerns especially the people of this country, but I believe that the deletion of the Section proposed by my friend on page 144 DCA will surely be against the spirit of The Methodist Church. I believe that in the new age we are trying to unite together. We must try to win the favor and confidence of our sister Churches all over the world. To delete that will be limiting the Christian attitude and Christian spirit.

I therefore feel very strongly to support the proposal and the substitute given by that lady, the previous speaker, that we must enlarge our vision and try to be one with other people of other Denominations. I therefore strongly support that view, and I would hope that the Conference will consider it very seriously and will consider that this is the thing that should be done in the new age to bring all Churches together and keep the body of Christ unbroken."

Against Substitute—James W. Henley

James W. Henley (Tennessee—SE) spoke against the proposed amendment as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman, I would like to speak against the adoption of the substitute motion. The amount of money involved is only $25,000. It would in no sense be considered an amount equivalent to recompensing the non-Methodist seminaries for the work that they are doing as a benefit to The Methodist Church in the preparation for ministers.

We do need to have in those seminaries some preparation specifically for the Methodist ministers. It is not guaranteed nor expected that it should be there, other than the general courses of preparation in seminary training.

I think it would be a very fine thing for us as a Conference to authorize this small amount, which would not in itself be adequate, I am sure, for the accomplishment of the purpose, as an expression of our hope that in our seminaries there will be training specifically in Methodist history and polity.

So I speak against the adoption of the substitute motion."

Previous Question—A. Wesley Pugh—Ordered

A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC) moved the Previous Question on the amendment of Mack B. Stokes (Holston—SE) and the substitute of Miss Georgia Harkness (*) (Troy—NE).

The motion, being duly seconded, prevailed by more than the required two-thirds majority vote, and the Previous Question was ordered.

Information Requested—Lynn J. Radcliffe

Lynn J. Radcliffe (Ohio—NC) requested the Chair to give a clear statement of the matter pending before The General Conference.

Bishop Roy H. Short Makes Statement—Ernest W. Peterson ()*

Bishop Roy H. Short, the Presiding Officer, made the following statement:—

“May the Chair attempt to state the situation. Dr. Stokes of the Holston Conference moved to delete Item VIII in the Recommendations on page 144. Miss Harkness offered a substitute for the motion to delete. The Secretary will read that.”

Ernest W. Peterson () (Oregon—W), Document Secretary read the substitute motion of Miss Georgia Harkness () (Troy—NE) as follows:—

“Miss Harkness moved as a substitute motion to retain Roman numeral VIII, and the following:

I move to amend the Section of the Report dealing with non-Methodist theological schools by the deletion of Sub-section (d) at the bottom of column 1, page 143, and the top of column 2, reading as follows”: (d) that the specific purpose to which these grants may be applied shall be limited to the provision of teaching personnel for courses especially relevant for Methodist students or to the strengthening of library holdings in subjects especially pertinent for Methodist interests.

Also for editorial consistency the deletion of the word “special” in the third paragraph under Recommendations, column 2, on page 143, and column 3, page 144.”

Point of Information—Pendleton Gaines ()—Eugene M. Frank*

Pendleton Gaines (*) (South Carolina—SE) spoke to the pending matter as follows:—

I have a question, namely, apparently those who have been speaking as opposed to Miss Harkness do not know that this $25,000 is nothing new. It has been allocated for a number of years. So all this business of this being a most inopportune time to start it is purely incidental, because it is my understanding that this $25,000 has been allocated before.

Is that right or wrong? I thought in our Education Sub-committee that we said this had been allocated. Miss Harkness merely wanted it allocated for a wider number of purposes. I would like information on that, Mr. Chairman.

Eugene M. Frank (Kansas—SC) answered the question as follows:—

The answer is no, Dr. Gaines. It has not been allocated previously. This is a new allocation. There has been no $25,000 allocation to non-Methodist seminaries.

Substitute—Miss Georgia Harkness ()—Not Adopted*

The substitute of Miss Georgia Harkness (*) (Troy—NE), on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.

Motion to Delete—Mack B. Stokes—Not Adopted

The motion of Mack B. Stokes (Holston—SE) to delete Section VIII of the Recommendations, on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.

Amendment—Ben H. Christner—Accepted—Eugene M. Frank

Ben H. Christner (Colorado—W) moved to amend the Report (DB-41) by adding to the third paragraph, under Roman numeral III on page 144, column 2, DCA No. 4, the following:—

“and that existing Seminaries shall be given special consideration so that the growth and service of such Seminaries shall not be halted nor hindered.”

so that the amended third paragraph will read as follows:—

The proportionate increase in financial support from World Service Funds be made to the Methodist theological schools on the basis of size, service and particular needs for the 1956-1960 quadrennium to the extent that such funds are available to the Department of Theological Schools, and that existing Seminaries shall be given special consideration, so that the growth in service of such Seminaries shall not be halted nor hindered.

Eugene M. Frank (Kansas—SC) accepted the proposed amendment of Ben H. Christner (Colorado—W), for the Commission, no objection being raised by any member of the Commission, or by any member of The General Conference.

Amendment—Chester A. Smith ()—Eugene M. Frank—Referred*

IX. The Commission further recommends that the Annual Conference Boards of Ministerial Training, and the District Boards of Ministerial Training be composed of an equal number of Ministers and Laymen.

The motion to thus amend, being duly seconded, Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) spoke to the same, as follows:—

“Mr. Chairman and Members of The General Conference: The Laymen now have no part officially in recruiting men for the ministry of the Church, and the Laymen have no voice in saying who shall become their preachers, who shall become Ministerial Members of the Annual Conferences. They should have that voice. We are still too much a Preacher’s Church.

The adoption of my amendment would give the Layman a part in this important work of the Church. If it be said that the Laymen are not able to do this, I answer that if Laymen know enough to elect Bishops they know enough to have a part in electing preachers.”

Against Amendment—Eugene M. Frank

Eugene M. Frank (Kansas—SC) spoke against the proposed amendment of Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) as follows:—

“Mr. Chairman, it is the Commission’s opinion that this does not belong in this particular Report. Every Quarterly Conference of course must begin a man’s pathway into the ministry, so that the Laymen have a complete opportunity in the Quarterly Conference to vote on the men who are preparing for the ministry. But it is our opinion that this does not belong in this particular place.”

Motion to Amend Referred—Russell E. Clay—Adopted

Motion of Russell E. Clay (Southern California-Arizona—W), duly seconded, prevailed, referring the proposed amendment of Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) to the Standing Legislative Committee on the Ministry.

Point of Information—Harold A. Bosley—Ernest W. Peterson ()*

Harold A. Bosley (Rock River—NC) requested a reading of the amendment of Herbert E. Richards (Idaho—W) which had previously been accepted for the Commission by Eugene M. Frank (Kansas—SC).

Ernest W. Peterson (*) (Colorado—W), Document Secretary, read the accepted amendment of Herbert E. Richards as follows:—

Deleting the last sentence under “RECOMMENDATIONS,” page 142, column 3, No. 4 DCA, and substituting the following:—

"The authority for the final approval of the exact location, the final provisions, the time of implementing the decisions, and the chartering of each school shall be vested in the Department of Ministerial Education, Division of Educational Institutions of the Board of Education, with the co-operation of a Committee on Theological Education to be designated by the Areas named. The authority for determining educational standards and criteria, and all other matters normally under the jurisdiction of the University Senate shall be vested in that body in co-operation with the Committee on Theological Education to be designated by the Areas named."

Harold A. Bosley (Rock River—NC) stated the accepted amendment covered in substance what he had intended to propose, and spoke to the question as follows:—

"Thank you. I believe that covers in substance the nature of the amendment I had hoped to make on V, on page 144. May I have just a moment in which to detail that in order that there may be some clear understanding of this matter?"

I am greatly concerned about the timing of what we are about to do. I would never be caught in the position of casting a vote against the improvement in the expansion of the theological training of the Ministers of our Church. I know so well how desperately needed that is. I am greatly concerned because of the timing involved in doing two things; first, the improvement of the facilities of the existing seminaries; secondly, the establishment of new seminaries.

It seems to me that a priority of needs needs to be very carefully observed; first, the Recruitment Program must be put underway with such vigor that it is clear that the existing facilities cannot even with adequate development take care of the men who will be coming into the ministry; secondly, we must be sure that the new seminaries when established will not become sub-standard seminaries.

Now I am greatly heartened by the assurance given by Bishop Tippet and Dr. Frank and others that we intend to establish nothing but topflight fully accredited seminaries.

I am more than a little disturbed by rumors I have heard from people who have been on the Study Commission and elsewhere that we have got to have some seminaries brought into existence to take men who cannot secure admission to existing seminaries.

Mr. Chairman, I think it ought to be the clear conviction of this Conference that there is no place in The Methodist Church for the training of men for the ministry who cannot measure up to the standards accepted by the American Association of Theological Schools, and heretofore conformed to by the theological seminaries of our Church.

I want simply to underscore the importance of seeing to it (1) that the Recruitment Program which is more the province of the Church than the seminaries, that this Recruitment Program gets underway and is brought to a point where we must have new seminaries; (2) that the facilities we have in existence, seminaries, are brought to their maximum; (3) that when new seminaries are established they must be of such a nature and in such a location and under such supervision that they will measure up to the high standard of quality which we have a right to demand of the seminaries of our Church.

Thank you."

Amendment—Miss Georgia Harkness ()—Eugene M. Frank—Daniel E. Taylor—Not Adopted*

Miss Georgia Harkness (*) (Troy—NE) moved to amend the Report (DB-43) to except the Pacific School of Religion of the College of the Pacific, Stockton, California from the limitations imposed by "d" at the bottom of page 143, column 1 and the top of page 143, column 2, DCA No. 4, which reads as follows:—

(d) that the specific purpose to which these grants may be applied shall be limited to the provision of teaching personnel for courses especially relevant for Methodist students or to the strengthening of library holdings in subjects especially pertinent for Methodist interests.

and by deleting the word "special," in the third paragraph of Recommendation VI, page 144, column 3, DCA No. 4, which would make the aforesaid paragraph read as follows:—

That the Department of Theological Schools be authorized to initiate a temporary and limited program of grants to selected non-Methodist schools, in accordance with the recommendations of the Study Commission, for instruction and services offered to Methodist students.

and also "that the Department of Theological Schools be permitted to designate funds to the Pacific School of Religion within the allocated $25,000 at their discretion."

The motion to thus amend being duly seconded, Miss Georgia Harkness (Troy—NE) spoke to the same as follows:—

"I wish to propose an amendment. The amendment that I proposed earlier and which was not sustained was on the basis of a general situation throughout the Church. I wish now to propose one which has particular reference to the Pacific School of Religion. It is proposed only on the basis of its geographical location which, as you will note from the map, places it in a unique position within the total structure of theological education.

This is the amendment I propose:

I move that the Department of Theological Schools, in view of the absence of a theological school—any Methodist theological school—in the Pacific Northwest, be authorized to except the Pacific School of Religion from the limitations imposed by "d" at the bottom of page 143, column 1, and top of column 2, and the word "special" in the third paragraph of Recommendations under section VI; and that the Department of Theological Schools be permitted to designate funds to the Pacific School of Religion within the allocated $25,000 at their discretion."

Amendment Not Acceptable—Eugene M. Frank

Eugene M. Frank (Kansas—SC) stated that the Commission could not accept the proposed amendment of Miss Georgia Harkness (*).

Against Amendment—Daniel E. Taylor

Daniel E. Taylor (Pacific Northwest—W) spoke against the proposed amendment of Miss Georgia Harkness (*) as follows:—

"I wish to speak against the amendment despite my profound respect not only for Dr. Harkness but for the faculty and administration and leadership of the Pacific School of Religion.

Reference has been made to the fact, and most properly, that in 35 per cent of the land area of the United States there is no Methodist seminary, and no accredited seminary whatsoever. The Pacific School of Religion endeavors to serve that vast domain. Nonetheless, in terms of distance alone, some of our border counties are a thousand miles from the Pacific School of Religion, and it is as though Duke University were adjacent to Boston and its needs.

To be more specific, several of our most excellent pastors have been and are in training in the Pacific School of Religion. We hope many more go. Nonetheless, over the past two decades at no time have more than five per cent of the men from the Pacific Northwest been in training at the Pacific School of Religion, and over that cumulative period nearly forty per cent have failed to return to us to serve in our particular section. All of this despite the fact that this most excellent school has in a certain sense already a privileged relationship to our Conference, and, if I mistake not, to certain other adjacent Conferences to it; that annually the very good claims and needs of our Methodist theological schools are presented by a single representative speaking for all of them on the Annual Conference floor with power and with care not to represent any unduly, but to present our claims.

Meanwhile, this most excellent school, and I am happy over their public relations work in it, as a privileged Committee; that is, a special Report Committee reporting directly the need, the possibility, the plan, the work of their school to our Conference; no other of the 73 accredited seminaries have that privilege, yet nonetheless they seem to fail either to recruit an appreciable percentage of our ministerial candidates nor to return much more than a simple majority of them to us afterward."

Amendment—Miss Georgia Harkness ()—Not Adopted*

The amendment of Miss Georgia Harkness (*) (Troy—NE), on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.

Debate Closed—Eugene M. Frank—Report Adopted

Eugene M. Frank (Kansas—SC) closed the debate for the Commission as follows:—

"Just this one final remark. The Commission is pleased beyond measure at the address given by Dr. Bosley just a few minutes ago. Bishop Tippetts tried in the presentation of the record to emphasize the absolute necessity of the highest type of accredited seminary, if one is to be established, and that it certainly must meet every type of accreditation of our University Senate and of the General Board of Education and all of the Agencies of our Church.

It is our desire that these be of the highest academic quality and not to accept any students who are inferior or who cannot be accepted in any other seminary.

We believe that this Report has put before you many of the salient facts that were developed in this study. We hope that The Conference will act upon it and give it favorable consideration."

The Report of the Study Commission on Theological Education, as amended, was adopted. For Report see page 1879.

Committee to Study the Ministry

Bishop Donald H. Tippetts briefly presented the Report of the Committee on the Study of the Ministry, which had been made an Order of the Day for consideration at this time, but had been withdrawn. See statement of Bishop John Wesley Lord, page 336 Journal. For Report see Appendix, page 1812.

Message of Sympathy—Merrimon Cuninggim—Ira B. Loud —Ordered

Merrimon Cuninggim (Northwest Texas—SC), Dean of Perkins School of Theology, Southern Methodist University, was unable to be present and participate in the presentation of the Report of the Study Commission on Theological Education, on account of the serious illness of his daughter.

Motion of Ira B. Loud (West Texas—C), duly seconded, prevailed, instructing the Secretary of The General Conference to send an appropriate message of sympathy to Merrimon Cuninggim.

Order of the Day—Report Board of Publication—Otis J. Young—Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy—Henry Miot Cox (*)—Lynn J. Radcliffe—John E. Marvin

The Order of the Day having arrived, consideration of and action on the Report of the Board of Publication on the Church Papers, J. Otis Young (Ohio—NC) presented the Report of the Board of Publication DCA No. 5, page 188, columns 1, 2 and 3.

J. Otis Young (Ohio—NC) requested the privilege of the floor for Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy a member of the Board of Publication, to speak to the Report. By common consent the privilege was unanimously granted.

Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy Speaks to Report

Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy of the Los Angeles Area, Western Jurisdiction, and a member of the Board of Publication, spoke to the Report of the Board of Publication.

Further Statement—J. Otis Young

J. Otis Young (Ohio—NC) made the following statement:—

Mr. Chairman and Members of the Conference: One additional statement should be made at this time. As you know, the action reported here stems from the directive of the 1952 General Conference. Your approval now does not preclude any later action you may care to take concerning the Central Christian Advocate.

J. Otis Young (Ohio—NC) then moved the adoption of the Report. The motion was duly seconded.

Point of Order—Henry Miot Cox (*)—Bishop Roy H. Short

Henry Miot Cox (*) (Nebraska—SC) raised the point of Order that the Report had appeared for the first time in the Daily Christian Advocate of this morning, Monday, April 30, 1956, and that according to Rule 33, which reads as follows:—

Rule 33. PUBLISHED REPORTS IN POSSESSION OF CONFERENCE

A Report of any Committee signed by the Chairman and Secretary thereof and printed in The Daily Advocate shall be regarded as in the possession of The Conference, and on the day following its first appearance in The Daily Advocate, or any time thereafter, in order for its consideration at the pleasure of The Conference. The same rule shall apply to a Report of a Minority of any Committee signed by one-tenth of the members of the Committee or by ten members thereof. (See Rule 17.)

could not be considered at this time without a suspension of the Rules.

Bishop Roy H. Short ruled the Point of Order well taken.

Rules Suspended—Lynn J. Radcliffe—Ordered

Motion of Lynn J. Radcliffe (Ohio—NC), duly seconded, prevailed by more than the required two-thirds majority vote, suspending the Rules for the consideration of and action on the Report of the Board of Publication.

Motion to Postpone Action On—John E. Marvin—Not Adopted

John E. Marvin (Detroit—NC) moved to postpone action on the Report of the Board of Publication for two or three days in order that the Members of The General Conference might be able to more fully study the contents of the Report, and its implications.

The motion to postpone action on the Report, being duly seconded, John E. Marvin (Detroit—NC) spoke to the pending motion as follows:—

"Now, Mr. Chairman, there are two or three questions I would like to ask the Board of Publication and/or The Methodist Publishing House for the consideration and enlightenment of the Members of this General Conference. Is it wise to change in this day of high-speed communications from a weekly to a monthly publication? To me, this appears to be a backward step instead of a Bold New Venture.

Bishop Kennedy a moment ago said something about living in a day of television, and so on. And yet, instead of having a weekly, we are going to a monthly. It seems to me that if this were to be a Bold New Adventure we would be moving from a weekly to a daily.

The present Christian Advocate has been tremendously improved in the last few years. It looks better and it reads better. It has a good news section of regional, national and world-wide religious coverage, both factual and interpretive. How can you possibly report in adequate volume the news of world Methodism and religion in general in a monthly, family-type magazine? We need more news of our Church and of other Denominations, not less. To know quickly what is going on in the Church helps keep Methodists informed in every section of the country, and helps bind us together in knowledge and effort.

As the Church's only general weekly news-magazine, the present Advocate holds a unique and responsible position in the life and work of Methodism. If we change to a monthly publication will we not be competing with several other monthly periodicals already serving special needs of Methodists as individuals and families? I am thinking of The Christian Home, The Methodist Layman, The Methodist Woman, World Outlook, The Voice, Pastor's Journal, Shepherds, and other fine monthlies. It seems to me that a Church as big as ours cannot afford to be without a national weekly news-magazine.

As for the so-called New Christian Advocate, which is proposed to replace The Pastor, I don't see the wisdom of a digest-size magazine. I am not sure that the ministers of this Conference and the Church would favor a departmentalized digest of such a general nature as is indicated by the prospectus before us. The present magazine, The Pastor has also shown great improvement in recent years, and I commend the Publishing House for this improvement. I like its strong, liberal and timely editorials. Why discard a name so fitting and self-explanatory as The Pastor?

I also believe that The General Conference should know more about the religious training of the new Editors. I understand that they are professional magazine editors and fine Laymen, but do they know religious history, religious trends? Can they distinguish a Carl McIntyre from a Reinhold Niebuhr? A Billy Graham from a Ralph Sockman? A Norman Vincent Peale from a Gerald Kennedy? Do they know evangelism, religious education and Christian social service?

These are important and necessary attributes of a Religious Journalist and Editor. I do not wish to reflect upon the qualifications of the new Editors, but I do know T. Otto Nall and have every confidence in his judgment and ability. He is both a well-trained minister with pastoral experience, and an able and effective religious journalist and Editor. He has rendered invaluable service to the Church as the Editor of a publication going into Methodist homes week after week.

Also, I would like to inquire about the status of the Central Christian Advocate. Is it to be continued or discontinued? And finally, Mr. Chairman, I raise a question on the cost of these colorful and expensive-looking publications. I believe The General Conference has a right to know the Budget set for this proposed changeover. It is rumored that the Budget is approximately $3 million. I don't know if this is true, but apparently a lot of Methodist money is at stake. The Publishing House is the steward of this Methodist money and answerable, I believe, to The General Conference through the Board of Publication.

These are some of the reasons why I propose that we delay our acceptance of the Report before us. This General Conference is not bound to the 1952 General Conference in this matter. There is no reason for hasty acceptance. Let us study the Report and the proposed publications before us before we indicate our approval."

Time Extended—M. Lafayette Harris—Adopted

The time of adjournment nearing, motion of M. Lafayette Harris (Lexington—C), duly seconded, prevailed, extending the time of this session sufficiently to enable John E. Marvin (Detroit—NC) to complete his remarks.

Nos. 6, 7 and 8 Presiding Officers—H. Hughes Wagner— Bishop D. Stanley Coors—Bishop H. Clifford Northcott —Bishop Arthur J. Moore

H. Hughes Wagner (New England—NE), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee on Presiding Officers, presented Report No. 6 of the Committee, designating Bishop D. Stanley Coors of the Minnesota Area, North Central Jurisdiction, as the Presiding Officer for Monday night, April 30, 1956; Report No. 7 designating Bishop H. Night Session Official—Lester W. Auman—Ruling—Bishop Roy H. Short—Out of Order

Lester W. Auman (New York East—NE) moved that the session of tonight, Monday, April 30, 1956, be an Official Session of the Conference.

Bishop Roy H. Short, the Presiding Officer, ruled as follows:—

Well, we are under a motion to adjourn. The Chair is not sure that is in order. I am sorry.

Thanks and Gavel—Bishop Roy H. Short

In well-chosen words, Bishop Roy H. Short thanked The General Conference for its kindness and patience during his Presidency of the morning:

Bishop Roy H. Short, the Presiding Officer, stated that the gavel being used at this session was made from wood taken from the first Methodist Church established in the bounds of the Tennessee Annual Conference of the Southeastern Jurisdiction.

Closing—Benediction—Bishop James H. Straughn

The General Conference adjourned the morning's session of Monday, April 30, 1956, at 12:45 P.M. with the Benediction pronounced by Bishop James H. Straughn, Retired, with the further consideration of and action on the Report of the Board of Publication pending.

R. Merrill Powers, Secretary

No. 7 Courtesies and Privileges—Alexander K. Smith

Alexander K. Smith (Philadelphia—NE), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee on Courtesies and Privileges, presented the four following matters:—

First—Communication—Indus River Annual Conference—Elijah D. M. Shafi

Presented Elijah D. M. Shafi (Indus River—OS) for the presentation of the following communication (DB-44):—

I have received greetings from The Methodist Church in Pakistan saying:—

“Convey our affectionate greetings to The General Conference now in session at Minneapolis, Minnesota.

We are continuing in prayer, day and night, for the success of The General Conference.

Indus River Annual Conference, West Pakistan

Motion of Alexander K. Smith (Philadelphia), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee on Courtesies and Privileges, duly seconded, prevailed, directing the Secretary of The General Conference to send a proper reply to the Secretary of the Indus River Annual Conference, West Pakistan, expressing our appreciation of their message and best wishes.

Second—Alben W. Barkley—William S. Evans—Message to Family—Adopted

Called attention to the sudden death of Alben W. Barkley, Senator from Kentucky and former Vice-President of the United States, a great Methodist Layman, and presented William S. Evans (Memphis—SE) his pastor for a privileged motion.

William S. Evans (Memphis—SE) moved that The General Conference stand a moment in silent prayer, and that the Secretary send a message of condolence to the family. The motion, duly seconded, prevailed.

Third—Earl R. Brown—Privileged Matter—Wilford C. Westenberger—Adopted

Presented Earl R. Brown (North-East Ohio—NC), General Secretary of the Division of National Missions of the General Board of Missions of The Methodist Church for a privileged matter.

Earl R. Brown (North-East Ohio—NC), General Secretary of the Division of National Missions of the General Board of Missions of The Methodist Church, presented Resolutions relating to Church Extension (DB-45) and on motion of Wilford C. Westenberger (Tennessee—SE), duly seconded, they were adopted as follows:—

Whereas, the 1952 General Conference issued a call for a vital and effective Church Extension Program to which Methodism responded by organizing over 1200 new congregations during the last quadrennium.

Whereas, the Episcopal Address to this General Conference takes notice of this advance and challenges the Church to renewed efforts in serving the multiplying number of churchless communities.

Whereas, the Program for the new Quadrennium urges our congregations to sponsor new churches in rapidly growing suburban areas and new industrial developments,

Whereas, a nation-wide survey by the Division of National Missions reveals an estimated need for 1572 new congregations next Quadrennium, and the fact that 1300 congregations already organized are now meeting in temporary quarters,

Therefore, Be It Resolved, That this General Conference hereby endorses all efforts to arouse Methodism to her duty to establish new congregations, by:

1. Urging our Pastors and church members to give the fullest possible support to this Program.
2. Requesting the Districts and Annual Conferences to continue the study of their Church Extension opportunities, and to promote Campaigns for the financing of the Program.
3. Urging the Annual Conference Agencies to utilize the services available through the Division of National Missions, such as

1. Supervision of Research and Survey; 2. Consultation for Architectural Planning; 3. Direction in Conducting Financial Crusades by Conferences, Districts or Individual Churches.
4. Requesting the Church to mobilize its total resources, in the Local Churches, in the Districts, within the Annual Conferences, and within the General Agencies to the end that a united and vigorous effort may be made in this field.

Be It Further Resolved, That this General Conference, in consideration of the crucial and critical nature of the present opportunities, urge our Church to immediate, thorough, and continuous action, to the end that Methodism may do her full share in ministering to all unchurched communities.

Fourth—Bishop John Wesley Lord—Bishop and Mrs. G. Bromley Oxnam

Presented Bishop John Wesley Lord, of the Boston Area, Northeastern Jurisdiction, for a highly privileged matter.

Bishop John Wesley Lord, being recognized by the Presiding Officer, Bishop H. Clifford Northcott, made the following statement:—

Mr. Chairman, four years ago Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam announced to the members of The Council of Bishops that at the session of the 1956 General Conference he would ask to be relieved of his duties as Secretary of The Council of Bishops.

I think many of us were stunned as we heard that announcement. We just could not believe that would ever take place, but the 1956 session has arrived. Bishop Oxnam has resigned as Secretary of The Council at the conclusion of this session and his successor, Bishop Roy H. Short, has been appointed.

But we could not let that occasion pass without due recognition, and so a Committee from The Council of Bishops was authorized to draw up a Resolution recognizing this event.

The Committee consisted of the Presiding Bishop this morning, H. Clifford Northcott, Arthur J. Moore, A. Frank Smith and the speaker.

The following Resolution was drawn up, and we felt that you would want to share with the colleagues of Bishop Oxnam on The Council of Bishops in that which we have to say to this, our trusted leader.

RESOLUTION OF APPRECIATION

“Appreciation: Be It Resolved, That this Council of Bishops of The Methodist Church assembled in Minneapolis, Minnesota on April 21, 1956, hereby records its deep appreciation of the magnificent and painstaking service which G. Bromley Oxnam has rendered to this body as its Secretary for the sixteen years since unification.

“With untiring industry, amazing insight into all phases of the complex problems of the Church, and with brotherly fairness, he has brought to his office high business-like efficiency. He has exalted what under some might have been a routine task into place of glorious service and honor.

"He has given his rich resources of mind and spirit without reserve. Through his knowledge of world problems in social and political fields, as well as in areas of religion and theology, he has been able to guide his brethren through the uncertainties of a changing order.

"In G. Bromley Oxnam, The Council of Bishops has had a leader who has with confidence shown the redemptive power of Christian faith.

"This statement is but a token of the love, respect, and gratitude in which his brethren hold him.

"(s) H. CLIFFORD NORTHCOTT
ARTHUR J. MOORE
A. FRANK SMITH
JOHN WESLEY LORD"

Bishop Oxnam, sir, would you allow me to present from your colleagues on The Council this engrossed Resolution of Appreciation in which we attempt to say the things that we feel so deeply in our hearts?

As you stand, permit me this further word. We did not feel that the Resolution was all that we wanted to do. We know, Bishop Oxnam, that the members of The Council of Bishops are what they are today and are more than they would have been without the impact upon them of your towering personality, your richly furnished and incisive mind, and your generous heart. But there is one to whom you owe much and from The Council of Bishops to you and to Mrs. G. Bromley Oxnam, with love and affection, we present this sterling silver reproduction of a Paul Revere bowl. It is the gift that the citizens of Boston give to high dignitaries and visiting emissaries. We present this to Mrs. Oxnam and we hope that she will share it with you and will now come and stand with you.

As she comes let me tell you a secret. This is Mrs. Oxnam's birthday. Do you want to sing "Happy Birthday" to you.

The General Conference, in unison, sang "Happy Birthday To You, Mrs. Oxnam."

Response—Mrs. G. Bromley Oxnam

Mrs. G. Bromley Oxnam responded in the following manner:—

Just one word. I want to say that this is the happiest thing that could happen to me, "Happy Birthday" on my birthday here at The General Conference.

Thank you so much.

Response—Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam

Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, of the Washington Area, Northeastern Jurisdiction, retiring Secretary of The Council of Bishops of The Methodist Church, responded to the occasion as follows:—

Mr. Chairman, Bishop Lord, and Members of The General Conference: I am, of course, deeply moved. The beauty of this bowl—I have seen it, an exquisite Paul Revere bowl—is matched only by the joy that is in my heart.

It has been an honor to serve this distinguished body of Christian brothers, and through them to serve you who represent The General Conference.

There are 75 living Methodist Bishops; 21 are in the Retired Relationship and 54 in the Effective Relationship. As a rule we have from 50 to 60 present at our meetings. Here there are 67. That means on every issue that we have considered at this General Conference we have had 67 different opinions. And, brethren, that is as it should be because as long as we keep our individualism and keep our independence the future is secure.

You would not think me appreciative if I spoke more than the simple word of gratitude, but this day is an extraordinary day for me. It is not only the birthday of Mrs. Oxnam, but it happens to be the tenth General Conference counting the United Conference I have had the honor to attend; it is the twentieth anniversary of my services as Bishop; it is the fortieth anniversary of my ordination; it is the sixtieth anniversary of joining a Sunday School—as it was then called in The Methodist Church. You will readily understand it is a day of deep significance, and to have these beautiful words from Bishop Lord and The Council of Bishops moves me far more than it is my ability to find words to express gratitude.

Order of Day—C. Cooper Bell—A. Wesley Pugh—Referred

C. Cooper Bell (Virginia—SE) moved that an Order of the Day be established for the consideration of and action on Report No. 1 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, Calendar No. 43, page 244, column 2, DCA No. 6, Subject, "Constitutional Amendment Providing for Transfer of Churches or Annual Conferences From One Jurisdiction to Another," and on Report No. 2 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, Calendar No. 44, page 244, column 3, DCA No. 6, Subject, "Commission To Study And Recommend Action Concerning The Jurisdictional System," immediately following the Devotional Service on Wednesday morning, May 2, 1956.

Statement—A. Wesley Pugh—Motion to Refer Adopted

A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee of Chairmen, stated that to facilitate the business of The General Conference, all future Orders of the Day should be channeled through the Standing Administrative Committee of Chairmen, and moved that the motion of C. Cooper Bell (Virginia—SE) be referred to the Standing Administrative Committee of Chairmen.

The motion, duly seconded, prevailed, and the motion of C. Cooper Bell (Virginia—SE) for an Order of the Day for consideration of and action on Reports Nos. 1 and 2 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, was referred to the Committee of Chairmen.

Exemptions From Provisions Paragraph 1102, 1952 Discipline—Chester A. McPheeters—Adopted

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) was recognized, and on his motion, duly seconded, the following Resolution (DB-46) was adopted:—

"Resolved, That the restrictions imposed by Paragraph 1102, 1952 Discipline, do not apply to membership upon the Special Commission established to direct the Educational Emphasis of the Quadrennial Plan, nor to any other Special Study Commission that may be appointed at this General Conference, charged with reporting to The General Conference of 1960."

¶ 1102. No person other than a Bishop shall serve at the same time on more than one Agency, and no Bishop shall serve at the same time on more than three Agencies; provided, however, that this limitation shall not apply to a Division of a Board, to an Inter-Agency Body, to the Commission on Chaplains or the Commission on Camp Activities, or to the Methodist representation on the World Council of Churches or the National Council of Churches; and provided, further, that a Bishop elected to the Council on World Service and Finance shall not serve on any other Agency during his term on his Council.

Co-ordinating Council—Order of the Day—Chester A. McPheeters—Referred

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) stated that the Co-ordinating Council, had some other Reports to present to The General Conference, and requested that an Order of the Day be established for their consideration of and action on, and that this request be referred to the Standing Administrative Committee of Chairmen. The motion, duly seconded, prevailed, and the request was referred to the Committee of Chairmen, for their consideration and action.

No. 5 Credentials—Elmer E. Mathews (*)

Elmer E. Mathews (*) (New Jersey), Chairman of the Committee on Credentials, presented Report No. 5 of the Standing Administrative Committee, and moved its adoption and printing in the Daily Christian Advocate, without reading.

The motion, duly seconded, prevailed. For Report see Appendix, page 1196.

Rules—A. Wesley Pugh

A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee on Plan of Organization and Rules of Order, stated the Committee had no Report ready at this session.

Rules Suspended—Leonard D. Slutz (*)—Adopted

Motion of Leonard D. Slutz (*) (Ohio—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Judicial Administration, duly seconded, prevailed, suspending the Rules, to permit consideration of and action on Report No. 1 of the Committee appearing for the first time in today's Daily Christian Advocate.

No. 1—Judicial Administration—Alternate Members of Judicial Council—Leonard D. Slutz (*)—Adopted

Leonard D. Slutz (*) (Ohio—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Judicial Administration, presented Report No. 1 of the Committee, Calendar No. 35, Subject, "Election Of Alternate Members Of The Judicial Council," found on page 237, DCA No. 4, columns 1 and 2, and explained the changes, as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman: Report No. 1, of the Committee on Judicial Administration, is found on page 237 DCA. It makes changes only with respect to the election of the Alternates to The Judicial Council. The first portion of the Report deals with the number of Alternates and amends the present provision so that there would be six alternates from each Class, Ministerial and Lay, or a total of 12 Alternates.

To make sure that our action today corresponds with the intent it reads, "Provided, however, that at the 1956 session of The General Conference two Ministerial and one Lay Alternate shall be elected for a term of four years, and three Ministerial and three Lay Alternates shall be elected for a term of eight years."

Then the Report goes on, and the essential part of it is that if there is a vacancy it shall be filled by an Alternate of the same Class and from the same Jurisdiction as that of the member whom he succeeds, if there is such an Alternate, and by the first elected if there is more than one. If there is no Alternate of the same Class and Jurisdiction the vacancy shall be filled by an Alternate of the same Class in order of election.

What happened is that during the last quadrennium there was a vacancy in The Judicial Council when the only member of The Council from the Western Jurisdiction died. The Alternate who filled his place was not from the Western Jurisdiction, although our law does provide that at least one member of The Judicial Council shall be elected from each Jurisdiction. And so on the basis of several Memorials we propose that the law be changed, so that the vacancy be filled by an Alternate of the same Class and from the same Jurisdiction, if there is one.

Then similarly we provide for an increase in the number of Alternates so that there would be six Lay Alternates and six Ministerial Alternates. They might not be elected from each of the six Jurisdictions but at least there would be six Laymen and six Alternates."

On motion of Leonard D. Slutz (*) (Ohio—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Judicial Administration, Report No. 1 was adopted. For Report see Appendix, page 1515.

Judicial Council Election—Correction—F. Murray Benson (*)—Harry A. Hanson—Lud H. Estes

The time for the election of members of The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church nearing, Lud H. Estes (Memphis—SE), Secretary of The General Conference, noted two corrections to be made on the printed ballot; namely:—F. Murray Benson (*) (Baltimore—NE) is a Reserve incumbent; Harry A. Hanson is a minister from the North India Annual Conference, Delhi Area, Southern Asia Central Conference, and not from the North Indiana Annual Conference, North Central Jurisdiction.

The list of Tellers found on page 77 of the DCA No. 2, columns 2 and 3, were announced, and Luther W. Wells (*) (Virginia—SE), Secretary of Ballots and Tellers, explained their duties.

Point of Order—Glenn M. Frye—Well Taken—Bishop H. Clifford Northcott

Glenn M. Frye (Michigan—NC) raised the Point of Order, that the Orders of the Day, previously set, precluded the taking of a ballot for members of The Judicial Council at this time, as The General Conference adjourned Monday morning, April 30, 1956, with consideration of and final action on the Report of the Board of Publication, pending; that the Orders of the Day, previously set, were as follows:—

1st. Report No. 1 of Standing Legislative Committee on State of the Church, Subject, "The Methodist Church and Race."

2nd. 10:45 A.M., India Centennial Presentation.

3rd. Report of Home and Family Life, with remarks by Bishop Hazen G. Werner.

4th. Election of members of The Judicial Council.

Bishop H. Clifford Northcott ruled the Point of Order well taken.

Calendar—Charles D. White—Postponed for Orders of the Day

Bishop H. Clifford Northcott, Presiding Officer, called for the Calendar. Charles D. White (Western North Carolina—SE), Secretary of the Calendar moved taking up the Orders of the Day, to be followed by the Calendar. The motion, duly seconded, prevailed.

Point of Order—Merrill C. Johnson—Lud H. Estes—Vote Today—Bishop H. Clifford Northcott

Merrill C. Johnson (New York—NE) stated that the names of the Nominees for membership on The Judicial Council should be published in the Daily Christian Advocate, for two consecutive issues immediately preceding the election, according to Paragraph 901 of the 1952 Discipline.

Lud H. Estes (Memphis—SE), Secretary of The General Conference, stated that the names had been published on yesterday and today.

Bishop H. Clifford Northcott, the Presiding Officer, requested The General Conference to indicate its wish concerning taking the first ballot for members of The Judicial Council today. The General Conference voted to take the first ballot today.

Report Board of Publication Resumed—J. Otis Young

At the conclusion of yesterday's session, consideration of and final action on the Report of the Board of Publication concerning Church papers, was pending. The Report of the Board of Publication was now resumed, with J. Otis Young (Ohio—NC) in charge of the Report.

Marshall T. Steel Speaks to Report

Marshall T. Steel (North Texas—SC) spoke to the Report and against the motion of John E. Marvin (Detroit—NC) to postpone action for two or three days, as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman and Brethren: I find myself in a considerable mess. I came up here to make a second to a motion, and, before I could get my breath, Dr. Marvin had the floor and made a motion to postpone action. Following that motion he made a most impressive address.

This morning I want to ask you to defeat this motion so that I can make the speech I came here to make.

Even if Dr. Marvin's motion is defeated, he has already won half of it, because he was asking for a two-day delay, and one day has already elapsed. Let me assure you that there has been no desire or intent on the part of anyone related to this problem to move in haste or to try to get The Conference to act without due consideration.

Back in 1948, at The Conference in Boston, you spent a good deal of time discussing the problems of our Church Literature and Publications and referred some of those problems to the Survey Commission.

The Board of Publication at that time appointed a Sub-committee on the Church Papers and they made an intensive study of problems related thereto for the next four years. Reports were made four years ago at the San Francisco Conference. Finally, you accepted the Report of the Survey Commission and referred it to the Board of Publication with power to act.

During this past quadrennium, the Sub-committee on Church Papers has continued its intensive work. Some two or three months ago they made a Report to The Council of Bishops and the Council of Secretaries, and they are here now making their Report to The General Conference. This thing has not been done in haste, but has had some eight years of fairly careful study and has been a matter of interest and discussion throughout the Church.

We who are on the Board of Publication surely want your interest and your support of the Program. We want you to have all of the information about it; if you want to change or rescind the action of a previous General Conference, it is within your province.

Now, Dr. Marvin raised a group of questions. Would you like for me to take a moment to try to answer them and share with you the information he sought?

He wondered why we should have a monthly Journal instead of a weekly Magazine and was apprehensive about what would happen to Methodism if instead of getting a Christian Advocate every week, our people only received a Journal once a month. There are several things that might be said about that problem. Dr. Marvin, there are 241,550 Methodists in the State of Michigan, from which you come. Only 450 of them subscribe to The Christian Advocate and get a weekly report from the Church.

Apparently, 241,550 of the Methodists of Michigan could make the adjustment without any great sacrifice.

This represents, my friends, one of the serious problems that the preceding Conferences have faced and that your Board of Publication has been facing. We have made several reader surveys. We made two through our own Circulation Department and were surprised at the information they revealed. We employed a professional agency to make a survey of our reader interest to see if we were mistaken in the information we had secured, but they confirmed it.

Of the people who answered the question in all three surveys, more readers of The Christian Advocate expressed a desire for a monthly magazine than for a weekly magazine. The interests and desires of a sampling of our subscribers seems to be worthy of our consideration.

We are also acting under the instructions of the last General Conference which, when it accepted the Report of the Survey Commission, instructed us to produce a Monthly Magazine for the family and a Monthly Journal for preachers. There is a considerable amount of interest in what this does to the news situation.

As far as we can tell from our surveys, the great bulk of our people are not primarily concerned with news. They have not been taking The Christian Advocate, which has been a weekly news magazine, and presumably they want some other kind of a religious journal. In Together there will be from month to month four or five pages of news and news interpretation, which would try to keep people abreast of the main trends within the Church, but would not, obviously, be a substitute for a daily newspaper.

One of the questions which Dr. Marvin raised was regarding Dr. Otto Nall. I am happy that he raised it. Dr. Marvin, I think that all of us on the Board of Publication would agree with you, even though it may not be modest to do it, that perhaps today we have the most attractive Christian Advocate that the Church has ever published and probably we have the best edited Christian Advocate we have ever had.

When that has been said, another fact has to be faced. Our high peak in subscriptions came approximately ten years ago, under the Editorship of Roy Smith. During his Editorship, a decline in the subscription list set in. That trend has continued. Since that high peak, we have lost more than 100,000 subscribers and have today 237,000 subscriptions which is about the number of subscriptions we had at unification.

I do not think this is a reflection on Dr. Nall. I think it is an indication of several trends within the Church. In part, it has been local church papers which as they have grown, subscriptions to The Advocate have diminished. In part, it may be an indication that our people do not want The Christian Advocate as we have produced it. If the trend continues which has prevailed throughout the last four years, of the 237,000 current subscribers to The Christian Advocate, 80,000 of them will not renew their subscriptions when they expire.

Now, in the light of all these facts, with repeated studies of Commissions and Committees, we have concluded that we ought to try some New Adventure in Journalism. We would like to try to produce a paper in Together which would be of interest to the family. It will have to appeal to some less active leaders in the Church than we have been reaching. One wants to be extremely careful in discussing this matter. We are basically interested in religious journalism and in making the finest contribution we can make through the technics of modern journalism to the religious life of our Methodist people. But apparently we are going to have to find a new approach that will command the interest of some of our less loyal and less devout people.

I wonder if this illustration would be helpful. If you go into the Boy Scout room of an ordinary church, it doesn't look like a church; it looks like a Boy Scout room. But in some real sense it is the church, and in that room the Church is performing one of its substantial ministries, drawing its boys, and in the Girl Scout movement, its girls, into the closer relationship to the Church. If you go into the average church dining room or kitchen, it doesn't look like a church. Nevertheless, most of us have found that the catering business was almost an inescapable responsibility of our ministry if we wanted to get to our people.

With our great regard for Dr. Otto Nall, the Board of Publication and the Publishing Agents and Mr. Case, the new Editor, have asked Dr. Nall to serve as Editor of the New Christian Advocate. We surely want to preserve for our Church all the genius of his ministry and services.

A question was raised about Mr. Case's ability to tell the difference between Ralph Sockman and Billy Graham. If he should make a mistake at that point, he could be forgiven. One of our Bishops couldn't tell the difference between Ralph Sockman and Chester Smith.

Leland Case is the son of a Methodist minister, a lifetime member of The Methodist Church. For some ten or fifteen years he sat under the preaching of Ernest Fremont Tittle. He served on his Official Board and was elected to the Executive Committee of that Board in that church.

I am glad that we found a Christian layman that can bring to the Church his professional and technical resources and dedicate them to the service of our Church. He has been most highly commended to us by all who have known him intimately. His associates in Arizona, in appreciation of his integrity and spirit, have decided that they want to put the new paper under his leadership into every Methodist home in their state. That in itself is not a small tribute.

Our Budget is high. Some $2,600,000 is a tentative Budget. We believe that we can produce that Budget and make it self-sustaining if you like the paper and can give it your endorsement. The Board of Publication has had to make some bold adventures. We spent over a half million dollars on the Interpreter's Bible before the first copy was off the press. We made preparations for that kind of adventure and it has been vindicated. We have made preparations for this adventure, and we would like to think that in the launching of this new Church Paper Program, we will do something as outstanding as we did in the publication of the Interpreter's Bible.

I hope you will not defer this matter but will give your endorsement to the Committee's Report."

Motion John E. Marvin to Postpone—Not Adopted

The motion of John E. Marvin (Detroit—NC) to postpone action for two or three days on the Report, on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.

Joe M. Young () Speaks for Report*

Joe M. Young (*) (Southern California-Arizona) spoke in favor of the Report, as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman, Members of The General Conference: I had written what I thought was a good speech for this occasion. I am not going to use it. Any speech I might make now will be a great anti-climax. But I want to talk briefly first to the Lay Delegates who are here.

I would like for you, if you will, to examine closely and carefully this Publication. Look at the table of contents. Look at the format. Look at the features that will be included in it. Ask yourselves this question: Is this the kind of a magazine I would like to have come into my home representing my Church? Is this the kind of a magazine that I would pick up and read even if I were not as interested in the Church as I am because I am interested in the content of the magazine? Is this the kind of a magazine the members of your family would pick up off the reading table perhaps instead of some of the more popular and attractive secular magazines that might be alongside? Is this the kind of magazine that people will buy and will read?

I believe this is what the homes of the Methodist people have been looking for. I believe this is the answer to the publication needs of The Methodist Church. I believe that the Laymen, the families of America and across the world, the Methodist families will buy this magazine and will read it.

Now I want to say a word to the Ministers about it. About the only objections I have heard have come from ministers who seem to be fearful. They say, "We can't promote this Magazine in our church."

Now, my good brothers, have no fear. Tucson, Arizona's churches are no different basically from the churches of any community across this land. We have large churches and small struggling churches that are partly supported by mission funds.

We used the same techniques that have been prepared by the Publishing House to promote this magazine among the churches of Tucson to see what would happen, the same techniques that will be available to every church in the country. We have some of the hardest-headed Chairmen of Finance Committees that you will find in the country. Our Official Boards have voted one hundred per cent, not because of Leland Case, but because of the Magazine, to place this in every Methodist home in our city.

Now, you can sell this magazine. Your Lay people will buy it, and they will read it.

It seems to me those two questions are the basic ones; if they will buy it and if they will read it. If it will carry the message of our Church to the homes of Methodists across the world, it is the kind of a publication I believe the Methodist Church wants.

I urge you to support the report of the Board of Publication."

Against Report—Chester A. Smith ()*

Chester A. Smith (*) (New York) spoke against the adoption of the Report as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman and Members of The Conference: This is a very difficult proposition, and I realize the very difficult problem which the Board of Publication has had to deal with.

I think we might conclude, as a result of the reading of our Reports, that our Methodist people do not race to read our Church Publications.

That presents us with a very difficult situation because we must then subsidize our Church Publications. If enough people will not support the Publications, then we must subsidize them.

Now, the question which confronts us in this new proposition is: Will we subsidize them to the extent of $2,600,000? Personally, I have looked over the format of the new proposed Christian Advocate and of the monthly magazine "Together." I do not approve of them. I think our people will not like them well enough to subscribe for them enough to bring in a revenue of $2,600,000. We cannot solve this problem, I think by changing our format.

The Zions Herald did that. You remember they changed from their format of a monthly magazine to a newspaper type publication, but it did not work. It did not prove a success.

Now, out of a membership of over 9 million in our Methodist Church, the circulation of The Christian Advocate at the beginning of this quadrennium was only 315,727. During the quadrennium the circulation declined by 66,521. The loss on The Christian Advocate; that is, the loss in revenue over and above what was received was $431,055.86. The loss on the Central Christian Advocate was $170,641.75 or a total loss of $601,697.59.

Now my own opinion is that we would better continue to subsidize The Christian Advocate as it is even at the expense of $431,055.86 than to go into this proposition which I think will produce a deficit at the end of the quadrennium not of $601,000 but of $1,600,000.

Now, we have subsidized our Boards. It costs us about $400,000 for the Board of Social and Economic Relations, The Commission on World Peace and the Board of Temperance and Prohibition. That is all right. We must subsidize these Boards. We must continue to subsidize our Church Paper, but I do not want to see us subsidize it to the extent of $2,600,000.

Therefore, I propose we do not accept this Report, but continue The Christian Advocate in its present format."

Previous Question—William R. Cannon—Ordered

On motion of William R. Cannon (North Georgia—SE), duly seconded, the Previous Question was ordered on all matters pertaining to consideration of and action on the Report before The General Conference, by more than the two-thirds majority vote.

Point of Information—Allen Whitfield (*)—Marshall T. Steel

Allen Whitfield (*) (Iowa-Des Moines—NC) asked for the following information:—

I ask for a point of information in order that I, together with the other Delegates to this Conference, may be properly informed as to the basic considerations that are involved in this matter. May I inquire what is the policy to be followed with respect to discontinuing other publications that are now being carried out under the general sponsorship of The Methodist Church?

Reply—Marshall T. Steel

Marshall T. Steel (North Texas—SC) replied, as follows:—

The New Christian Advocate would take place of the old Christian Advocate and the Pastor, the two publications previously published by the Board of Publication.

"Together" would be a new Journal for the family. So far as the Board of Publication is concerned, it is not moving to discontinue any other Journal. When The General Conference voted four years ago for these two papers, they did not vote, they did not even consider, so far as I know, the Central Jurisdiction Advocate. Presumably, at this time, that decision would not be made, for we have not yet determined what will be done concerning the CENTRAL JURISDICTION. If the Conference wants a separate Advocate for the Central Jurisdiction they would order that at a later time in The Conference.

There has been a question concerning the possible competition with a magazine like The Christian Home. The Christian Home is produced by the Editorial Division of the Board of Education and is curriculum material. There presumably might be some changes in it, but we understand that this would not indicate the discontinuance of it.

Information Requested—Ralph W. Sockman

Ralph W. Sockman (New York—NE) asked this further question:—

May I ask one further question? What is the attitude of the Woman's Society and Division about the competition, possible competition with the Methodist Woman and also what will be the status of The World Outlook? I am concerned whether we may have too many monthly magazines of a somewhat similar nature.

Reply—Marshall T. Steel

Marshall T. Steel (North Texas—SC) replied, as follows:—

How can any one person say what all the women in the Woman's Society will think about this move? We certainly do not think of ourselves as being in competition with the women of the Woman's Society. If we can produce a Journal that will be helpful to the family, we believe our women will be most grateful for it.

Information Desired—Allen Whitfield ()*

Allen Whitfield (*) (Iowa-Des Moines—NC) asked for further information, as follows:—

I do not desire to press these points, except I do desire information. I call your attention to page 151 of The Daily Advocate, Report No. III of the Co-ordinating Council, the last paragraph of proposed legislation, in which the Co-ordinating Council proposes that the Commission shall publish a free Local Church Program Journal for Pastors and Local Church Leaders.

Is it now contemplated that the New Christian Advocate will be published and at the same time a free Local Church Program Journal shall be made available for Pastors and Local Church Leaders?

Reply—Marshall T. Steel

Marshall T. Steel (North Texas—SC) answered the question, as follows:—

No. In a sense the New Christian Advocate would be helpful to all the ministers in facing their various responsibilities for leadership in the Church. It is not basically a Promotional Journal, and certainly the Board of Publication is not taking a position about what any of the other Boards can do regarding their work.

You will recall that during the last Quadrennium you have had "The Story" which was a Promotional Journal put out by the Commission on Promotion and Cultivation in addition to the Pastor.

Information Given—Mrs. Frank G. Brooks ()*

Mrs. Frank G. Brooks (*) (North Iowa-NC) gave the following information:—

Mr. Chairman, may I be permitted to give just a matter of information. The World Outlook is not a publication of the Woman's Division. It is a joint publication of the Board of Missions with two Editors, Miss McConnell and Dr. Sprinkle. I bring that just for clarification, that it is for the total Church.

Marshall T. Steel—Closes Debate

Marshall T. Steel (North Texas—SC) closed the debate for the Report of the Board of Publication.

Report Adopted

The motion to adopt the Report of the Board of Publication, on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was adopted. For Report see page 1861.

Personal Privilege—Loyd F. Worley

Loyd F. Worley (New York East—NE) as a matter of privilege for the house, made the following statement:—

A matter of privilege for the House. The opposition was completely shut off by a Previous Question. If we are going to have a battery of special speakers for these Reports without an opportunity for the opposition to state its case we shall be voting without adequate and complete information.

Ruling—Bishop H. Clifford Northcott

Bishop H. Clifford Northcott, the Presiding Officer, ruled as follows:—

I am sorry if the opposition was shut off. I was not conscious of that.

Resolutions—T. Otto Nall—John W. McKelvey—William W. Reid (*)—Adopted

John W. McKelvey (Philadelphia—NE) presented Resolutions of Appreciation (DB-47) concerning the long and faithful service of T. Otto Nall (Rock River—NC), Editor of The Christian Advocate, and on his motion, duly seconded by William W. Reid (*) (New York East—NE), they were adopted, as follows:—

Whereas, The General Conference is now beginning a new venture in religious journalism and thus is bringing to a close The Christian Advocate in its familiar role of a weekly visitor to the great Methodist family and to this extent terminating one of the most effective and cherished traditions of the Christian press since the invention of printing; and

Whereas, Dr. T. Otto Nall in serving as Editor of The Christian Advocate these many years with indefatigable diligence and selfless devotion has proved himself one and inseparable with that great company of significantly gifted men who through more than a century and a half have proved that the pen is mightier than the sword;

Therefore, Be It Resolved, That: we at this moment of change and transition wish earnestly to salute him with our unstinted expression of esteem and to assure him of our abiding confidence as he goes forward into the adventure of the coming years.

(Signed) John W. McKelvey

Announcements—Leon T. Moore—Lud H. Estes—Recess

After announcements by Leon T. Moore (Philadelphia—NE), Secretary-Designate, and Lud H. Estes (Memphis—SE), Secretary, The General Conference recessed for a period of ten minutes.

Reconvene—Bishop H. Clifford Northcott

At the close of the Recess period Bishop H. Clifford Northcott, of the Wisconsin Area, North Central Jurisdiction, the Presiding Officer, called The General Conference to order, for the remainder of the business session of the morning of Tuesday, May 1, 1956.

Hymn 256—James R. Houghton ()*

James R. Houghton (*) (New England—NE), General Conference Director of Music, announced Hymn No. 256, "Faith Of Our Fathers. Living Still," and led The General Conference in the singing of the same.

India Choir—James R. Houghton (*)—Bishop J. Waskom Pickett—Elijah Joshua

James R. Houghton (*) (New England—NE), General Conference Director of Music, announced the presence of the India Centennial Choir, and presented Bishop J. Waskom Pickett, of the Delhi Area, Southern Asia Central Conference, who in turn presented the India Centennial Choir, and its Director Elijah Joshua of the Delhi Annual Conference, Southern Asia Central Conference.

India Centennial Choir—Elijah Joshua

Under the direction of Elijah Joshua (Delhi—OS), The India Centennial Choir rendered several selections.

Thanks—Bishop H. Clifford Northcott

Bishop H. Clifford Northcott, the Presiding Officer, expressed the appreciation and thanks of The General Conference to Director Elijah Joshua (Delhi—OS) and the India Centennial Choir, for their presence and musical numbers.

India Night An Official Session—Paul V. Galloway

Paul V. Galloway (Oklahoma—SC), Chairman of the Program Committee, was recognized, and announced that tonight's session, Tuesday, May 1, 1956, would be an official session, known as India Night.

Previous Question Questioned—Ruling—Bishop H. Clifford Northcott

Bishop H. Clifford Northcott, the Presiding Officer, stated that there had been some question raised, during the Recess period, as to whether there had been a more than two-thirds majority vote when the Previous Question had been ordered before Recess on the motion of William R. Cannon (North Georgia—SE) on the consideration of and action on the Report of the Board of Publication; that he had consulted with his colleagues on the platform, and that they were unanimously of the opinion that the Previous Question called for had been ordered by more than the required two-thirds majority vote.

Order of the Day—Report No. 1, State of the Church—
“The Methodist Church and Race”—Amended—Charles
C. Parlin (*)

The Order of the Day having arrived, consideration of and action on Report No. 1 of the State of the Church, Calendar No. 33, Subject, “The Methodist Church and Race,” DCA No. 5, page 198, column 2 and 3, Charles C. Parlin () (Newark), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on the State of the Church, presented Report No. 1, and requested the following to come to the platform:—Clarence H. LaRue (North-East Ohio—NC), Paul R. Ervin () (Western North Carolina—SE), Waights G. Henry, Jr. (North Georgia—SE), William H. Horner (Genesee—NE), Frederick E. Maser (Philadelphia—NE), and Paul V. Shearer (*) (Iowa-Des Moines—NC).

Charles C. Parlin (*) (Newark—NE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on the State of the Church, made the following statement:—

This matter was considered by the Committee of Chairmen, and procedurally it was agreed as follows: Traditionally the State of the Church has always brought to the floor of this Conference statements dealing with policy. For the State of the Church to admit a statement on the principle of race would be a break in our tradition. On the other hand, the Committee on Conferences deals with the structure of the Church. It was the unanimous decision of the Committee of Chairmen, therefore, that the State of the Church should lead forward with a statement of principle on race, and that thereafter the Committee on Conferences would come forward with their provisions as to how, if any, to make the implementation in our Church structure.

Our Committee was faced with the difficulty of dividing the Memorials between the two Committees. You will remember the opening session of this Conference, the confusion in referring Memorials dealing with race to the State of the Church or to the Committee on Conferences. Our Committee, accepting the suggestion of the Committee of Chairmen, went into session, analyzed the Memorials before it, and sub-divided the State of the Church Committee into three Sub-Committees. One deals with World Order and Inter-National Relations. Another deals with Social and Economic Relations. A third deals with the Question of Race.

The importance of this subject may be emphasized by the fact that more than half of the total membership of the Committee of the State of the Church elected to serve on the Sub-Committee dealing with Race. This Committee debated the matter at several sessions, intensely but always within the framework of a Christian brotherhood.

Our Sub-Committee brought in a Report, and that was accepted by the General Committee. Since that time, since the printing in the DCA, a number of amendments have been approved. Your Committee has been willing to accept several. Therefore I am going to ask that the Vice-Chairman, Harold A. Bosley, present to you, as you work with your pencils on page 198 DCA, the amendments which the Committee has accepted, and then the Report as amended will be presented to you.

*Refer Report No. 1 State of the Church—Anthony Hearn
—Bishop H. Clifford Northcott—Out of Order*

Anthony Hearn (South Georgia—SE) moved to refer Report No. 1 of the Standing Legislative Committee on the State of the Church to the Standing Administrative Committee of Chairmen.

The motion, being duly seconded, Anthony Hearn (South Georgia—SE) spoke as follows:—

Mr. Chairman and Members of the Conference: I think it is generally agreed that this Conference will welcome coming to grips with this particular issue, and the sooner we have it the sooner the atmosphere will be cleared, so that we can come to the consideration of other important matters.

I think it is also generally agreed that this Conference would like to be freed from the fear and unrest at every session lest this particular matter be proposed.

I am moving that this be referred to the Committee of Chairmen.

Ruling—Bishop H. Clifford Northcott

Bishop H. Clifford Northcott, the Presiding Officer, made the following ruling:—

Brother, I think I would have to rule that your motion is out of order at this time. After the Report has been given you may make that motion, but not now.

Amendments by Committee—Harold A. Bosley

Harold A. Bosley (Rock River—NC), Vice-Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on the State of the Church, stated that the following four amendments had been voted on, and had been adopted by the Standing Legislative Committee on the State of the Church, and asked common consent to incorporate them (DB-48) into the Report No. 1 of the Committee. Common consent, being unanimously granted, the following amendments were added to Report No. 1 of the Committee, all being on page 198, DCA No. 5, column 3:—

1st. Point 3; the two sentences in Point 3 are to be separate paragraphs of Point 3.

2nd. Insert a new paragraph, to be numbered 4, to read as follows:—

That Bishops, District Superintendents, Pastors and Lay Leaders seek ways for the implementation of better fraternal relations between the Central Jurisdiction and other Jurisdictions where they are adjacent, by closer co-operation at Annual and District Conferences, and at Local Church levels.

3rd. That there be added to present Point 4, to be renumbered Point 5, the following words, “without discrimination or segregation,” so that present Point 4, now renumbered Point 5, will read as follows:—

That Methodists at National and Inter-National meetings of the Church make provision for equality of accommodations for all races, without discrimination or segregation.

4th. That present Point 5 be renumbered Point 6, so that Points 3, 4 and 5, as printed on page 198, DCA No. 5, column 3, will read as follows:—

That Methodist churches in changing neighborhoods rather than seeking new locations, early prepare their people to welcome into their fellowship all races as they become a part of their community.

That our Pastors, upon whom rests the responsibility of receiving individuals into Church membership, discharge that responsibility without regard to race, color, or national origin.

4. That Bishops, District Superintendents, Pastors and Lay Leaders seek ways for the implementation of better fraternal relations between the Central Jurisdiction and other Jurisdictions where they are adjacent, by closer co-operation at Annual and District Conferences, and at Local Church levels.

5. That Methodists at National and Inter-National meetings of the Church make provision for equality of accommodations for all races without discrimination or segregation.

6. That the many racial and national groups which make up our Methodist world fellowship be afforded the opportunity without discrimination to enjoy full participation in all the activities of the Church.

Paul R. Ervin () Speaks to Report*

Paul R. Ervin (*) (Western North Carolina—SE) spoke to the Report, stating that the Report had been formulated in response to the thirty-nine Memorials, listed at the head of the Report.

Motion to Adopt—Charles C. Parlin—Seconded

Charles C. Parlin (*) (Newark), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on the State of the Church, moved the adoption of Report No. 1. The motion was duly seconded.

Amendment—Chester A. Smith ()—Referred*

Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) moved to amend the Report (DB-49) by adding at its close a paragraph providing for the submission to the Annual Conferences of The Methodist Church of a Constitutional Amendment abolishing the Central Jurisdiction, and placing the seventeen Annual Conferences thereof within the territory of the remaining five Jurisdictions, under the Plan of Union, in a manner to be worked out as soon as possible. The proposed amendment was duly seconded.

Point of Order—Nolan B. Harmon

Nolan B. Harmon (Virginia—SE) arose to the Point of Order that the proposed amendment of Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) dealt with the implementation of the Jurisdictional System, which would be considered when the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences bring in their Report dealing with this matter, and therefore should be ruled out of order at this time.

Request for Ruling—Chester A. Smith (*)

Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) asked the following question:—

“Does the Chair rule I may not proceed with my argument in support of the amendment which I have presented?”

Ruling—Bishop H. Clifford Northcott

Bishop H. Clifford Northcott, the Presiding Officer, ruled as follows:—

“I think you have a right to complete your argument. However, I feel that a motion of reference would be in order.”

Motion to Refer—Asbury Smith

Asbury Smith (Baltimore—NE) moved that the proposed amendment of Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) be referred to the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences. The motion was duly seconded.

Point of Order—Chester A. Smith (*)

Chester A. Smith raised the Point of Order that he had the floor, and, therefore any motion to refer is out of order at this time, and requested permission to finish his argument.

Ruling—Bishop H. Clifford Northcott

Bishop H. Clifford Northcott, the Presiding Officer, ruled that Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) could complete his statement, which he did, as follows:—

“This, Mr. Chairman and Members of The Conference, is the most vital and the most important question which will come before this body from my standpoint. We have stated in the general Report that we do not want to be a Church which discriminates against the Negro, but the fact is we have discriminated against the Negro by segregating our Negro members into the Central Jurisdiction. It is a fact. The only way that can be changed is by an amendment to the Constitution, abolishing the Central Jurisdiction and putting the Negro members of the Church in the same position in which the white members of the Church now are. We can end—

Point of Order—Charles S. Kendall

Charles S. Kendall (Southern California-Arizona—W) raised a Point of Order and made the following statement:—

The Point of Order is this, that Brother Smith insisted on presenting this to the Committee, although we urged that he take it to the Committee on Conferences, following the recommendation of the Committee of Chairmen that our Committee Report—the State of the Church—would deal with principles and that this matter which he is presenting is quite properly to be a part of the Report of the Committee on Conferences. Repeatedly we tried to urge him to have that presentation there before that group, and it is not in order here and now. It would be perfectly in order when that other Committee’s Report, which was published in today’s DCA, is before you.

Without any unkindness, it seems to me that Brother Smith is entirely out of order in insisting on putting this in here.

Request for Ruling—Chester A. Smith (*)

Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) requested a ruling of Bishop H. Clifford Northcott, the Presiding Officer, if he could continue his remarks?

Ruling—Bishop H. Clifford Northcott

Bishop H. Clifford Northcott, the Presiding Officer, ruled that Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) could proceed with his remarks, which he did, as follows:—

Segregation in The Methodist Church is a fact. It has been a fact since 1939, when we adopted the principle of segregation by setting our Negro members apart by themselves in the Central Jurisdiction.

We did that in order to secure the Union of the Church, to win the support of our Southern brethren. We can end segregation only by repudiating that principle.

The United States Supreme Court in 1890 adopted the principle of segregation in the public schools when it decided that equal school facilities for white and Negro children in separate schools was legal. But in its historic Decision outlawing segregation, it repudiated that principle of segregation. And in that Decision, it gave the States in which segregation existed time to integrate its Decision.

Now Methodism, if it will end segregation, must repudiate the principle of segregation it adopted in 1939—just as the United States Supreme Court repudiated the principle of segregation (which it adopted in 1890) when it decided by its historic Decision declaring segregation unconstitutional that equal facilities for Negro and white boys and girls in separate schools was no longer legal or constitutional.

That historic Decision of the United States Supreme Court brought Methodism face to face with the question whether, in view of the Court's Decision, we will retain segregation in our Church or repudiate the principle of segregation we accepted in 1939 in order to secure Union.

The only body which can repudiate that principle of segregation we accepted in 1939 is the body that adopted it: namely, the Church itself.

The only body that can give the Church the opportunity of repudiating that unfortunate, un-Christian principle of segregation it accepted in 1939 is The Methodist General Conference, this present Conference.

We ought to do that, Brethren, in the name of the Master. We ought to do it in the name of the great Apostle Paul, who declared that God is no respecter of persons. We ought to do it if we are to continue to have any influence with the people of Asia.

When the newspapers come out the morning after our vote on this question, they will not go into any great, long argument, or give any great excerpt from Brother Parlin's Report. They will simply say in their headlines. "METHODISM KEEPS SEGREGATION." Or "METHODISM DISAVOWS SEGREGATION."

I want them to be able to say to the whole world that this Christian body—not a political body, not an economic body, or a body of businessmen, but Christian men and women meeting in the name of the Master—took the necessary steps to give The Methodist Church the opportunity to repudiate the inimical doctrine of segregation, the un-Christian doctrine of segregation by sending down to the Church the Amendment which I am proposing.

My Amendment, you see, follows out or parallels the provision or the action of the United States Supreme Court when it said to the States which now have segregation: "You may take a reasonable time to integrate our Decision, you do not have to do it immediately."

So by adopting my Amendment you will be saying to the Church, if it adopts the Amendment and abolishes the Central Jurisdiction: "You can integrate the Amendment within a reasonable time, and take a reasonable time to transfer the Annual Conferences now in the Central Jurisdiction into the Jurisdictions still remaining under the Plan of Union."

So let us follow the practice of the Supreme Court in adopting the Amendment, if and when it is adopted, and let us by submitting it follow the teachings of Jesus of Nazareth, Whose followers we are."

Motion to Refer—Embree H. Blackard—Adopted

Motion of Embree H. Blackard (Western North Carolina—SE), duly seconded, prevailed, referring the proposed amendment of Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) to the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences.

Amendment—W. Sproule Boyd (See page 451)

W. Sproule Boyd (Pittsburgh—NE) moved to amend the Report (DB-50), by deleting the second sentence in paragraph three, DCA No. 5, page 198, column 2, and which reads as follows:—

"Recognizing that we have not yet attained this goal, we rejoice in the progress made."

and substituting therefor the following sentence:—

"Recognizing that we shall not have attained this goal so long as we have within the organizational structure of our Church a Jurisdictional Conference based on race, rather than geography, we nevertheless rejoice in the progress that has been made."

so that the amended paragraph will read as follows:—

There must be no place in The Methodist Church for racial discrimination or enforced segregation. Recognizing that we shall not have attained this goal so long as we have within the organizational structure of our Church a Jurisdictional Conference based on race, rather than on geography, we nevertheless rejoice in the progress that has been made. The growing spirit of brotherhood throughout the Church strengthens our confidence that, under the leadership of the Holy Spirit, we will continue to go forward.

The motion to thus amend being duly seconded, W. Sproule Boyd (Pittsburgh—NE) spoke to same as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman and Members of The Conference, what I have to say will be said simply and humbly, but with very deep conviction. I have been waiting in vain thus far for this General Conference to say or do something prophetic and courageous. This Report, in my humble opinion, is neither courageous nor prophetic.

I think it is merely a repetition of pious phrases which we have been putting into Resolutions for years. It speaks of the amplification of our Lord's teaching. What is wanted now is not amplification but implementation. It has been suggested that implementation will be brought for our consideration in a day or so. I hope that is true. This Report says that we look to the ultimate establishment of a Christian society, but it does not take us one step in that direction beyond where we were when this Conference was called to order.

We know what the next step is. The next step is to acknowledge our sin. When we have five Jurisdictions based on geography and one Jurisdiction based on race, that is segregation, if words have any integrity as we use them, and segregation is wrong. Let us acknowledge the wrong. I am not sure just how much stronger this Report will become if this amendment should be adopted, but it would at least put us in the position of being honest enough to acknowledge a specific wrong within our Church. If we cannot do at least this much, I shall be discouraged and disheartened about Methodism.

This is a swiftly-moving world. Four years hence The Methodist Church may find itself in a very sorry position on this issue. While we are considering the state of the Church, let us not forget the state of the world.

I hope this amendment will be adopted."

Motion to Refer—Nolan B. Harmon—Not Adopted

Nolan B. Harmon (Virginia—SE) moved to refer the proposed amendment of W. Sproule Boyd (Pittsburgh—NE) to the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, and made the following statement:—

I again remind the House that we have before us this problem in its larger aspects to be discussed fully tomorrow as the Reports in our Advocate indicate. Throwing this into our minds today, this amendment, under the guise of a Constitutional change, takes away from the thorough consideration which our Committee on Conferences has had, and its opportunity to give us a deeper study than can be given here and, therefore, I move the reference of this amendment to the Committee on Conferences for incorporation in its Report tomorrow, if they wish to do so.

The motion to refer was duly seconded.

Point of Order—W. Sproule Boyd

W. Sproule Boyd (Pittsburgh—NE) raised a Point of Order and made the following statement:—

Mr. Chairman, this amendment does not propose any Constitutional change. It is simply a change in the phraseology of this Report. There is nothing proposed by way of Constitution or implementation. It is simply, in my judgment, an attempt to get this Conference to acknowledge something which I believe to be inherently wrong.

For Amendment—Dwight E. Walter ()*

Dwight E. Walter (*) (Ohio—NC) spoke in favor of the proposed amendment of W. Sproule Boyd (Pittsburgh—NE), as follows:—

"As I understood, what we are today doing is discussing general principles, and if this proposition put before us is not a general principle for us to confess that we have been wrong about something and look forward to rectifying that wrong, I think that it is a general principle, and I hope that this amendment will prevail."

Against Referring—Mrs. John A. Werner ()*

Mrs. John A. Werner (*) (Baltimore—NE) spoke against referring the proposed amendment of W. Sproule Boyd (Pittsburgh—NE) to the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, as follows:—

"I am a member of the Committee on Conferences.

I am speaking in opposition to the motion to refer. The Committee on Conferences has very clearly decided for itself that we deal with the structure of the Church, that pronouncements of principle should come from the Committee on the State of the Church.

However, in this paragraph where the amendment is offered, it involves, it seems to me, the State of the Church. It involves in a very broad way a principle which cannot be divorced from the State of the Church. I will vote against a motion in the Committee on Conferences that would include broad principle. This is the place where we will make a broad principle, a statement including a reference such as has been made by the proposed amendment. It can do no wrong. It can ease our consciences. It can set our paths straight.

We are in a world where we are being observed. What we say here is going to be important. Communism is on the run. It recognizes no difference in races. Pierce Hayes is sitting in the balcony because he doesn't have in China a Conference to come from and be on this floor.

Are we as Christians going to not admit first of all that we have a situation within us that is not going to attract the Negro race to our membership? We want all men to become members of The Methodist Church and our "Discipline" so states that anybody who believes in the Lord Jesus Christ, can become a member of our Church.

Let us not be afraid to admit there is something in the structure of our Church that refutes this basic principle. We recognize it and we will correct it. Give us time, but let's not refer this to another Committee which is before us now."

Parliamentary Situation—Carrol H. Long ()—Bishop H. Clifford Northcott*

Carrol H. Long (*) (Holston—SE) stated he was opposed to the motion to refer, and started to speak.

Bishop H. Clifford Northcott, the Presiding Officer, made the following statement:—

"Is there any one who wants to speak to the motion to refer? This is another speech also opposed—"

Against Referring—Carroll H. Long ()*

Carroll H. Long (*) (Holston—SE) spoke against the motion to refer the proposed amendment of W. Sproule Boyd (Pittsburgh—NE) to the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, as follows:—

“I am also opposed to the last speaker’s sentiments, if that is of value.

Mr. Chairman, it seems to me we are picking out the Central Jurisdiction as a symbol of discrimination. The Central Jurisdiction is not the only sin that is committed by us Methodists in the way of discrimination. I admit my individual sin in discrimination. I admit the sins in my own local church. I think that each person here to some degree discriminates in his own life in regard to race, but here we are picking out a symbol for our discrimination and are trying to make a mechanism which is one of law and government within the Church be the scapegoat for all of our sins in this realm.

I believe that this issue should be settled here and now, but I sincerely trust that we will not single out the Central Jurisdiction as the only sin which we bewail in regard to racial discrimination.”

Previous Question—Harold C. Case—Ordered

Motion of Harold C. Case (New England—NE), duly seconded, prevailed ordering the Previous Question, by more than the required two-thirds majority vote, on the motion to refer the proposed amendment of W. Sproule Boyd (Pittsburgh—NE), to the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences.

Charles C. Parlin () Closes Debate—For Referral*

Charles C. Parlin (*) (Newark—NE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on the State of the Church, closed the debate for the Committee, speaking in favor of the motion of Nolan B. Harmon (Virginia—SE) to refer the proposed amendment of W. Sproule Boyd (Pittsburgh—NE) to the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, as follows:—

“Mr. Chairman, as Chairman of the Committee, I have a right to speak on the motion to refer.

Of all the speakers, I believe only Brother Chester Smith was a member of the Committee on the State of the Church. I think I can fairly say that most of the arguments made were made in the debates of the Committee of the State of the Church.

It was felt that we were confusing things and doing our General Conference no great good if we tried to cross-reference the statement of principle which would come before you this morning and the argument on the structure of our Church which will follow thereafter.

I call your attention again to the vote of the Committee on this general proposition and the statement as it comes to you. I, therefore, hope that you will refer."

Motion to Refer—Nolan B. Harmon—Not Adopted

The motion of Nolan B. Harmon (Virginia—SE), to refer the proposed amendment of W. Sproule Boyd (Pittsburgh—NE) to the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.

Point of Information—Anthony Hearn—Charles C. Parlin ()*

Anthony Hearn (South Georgia—SE) asked the following question of Charles C. Parlin (*) (Newark—NE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on the State of the Church:—

The purpose of my premature motion at the beginning of this session was that we might unify our study and consideration.

I would like to ask Mr. Parlin, our Chairman, whether or not his statement meant that immediately following the discussion of this Report we would have the consideration of Reports No. 1 and No. 2 from the Committee on Conferences?

Reply—Charles C. Parlin ()*

Charles C. Parlin (*) (Newark—NE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on the State of the Church, replied, as follows:—

I believe it would not follow immediately, but that it would be on the Program for tomorrow in the light of whatever decisions we make today.

The Committee Reports you refer to coming from the Committee on Conferences are found at page 244. Those will be on tomorrow presumably.

Motion Re Reports Nos. 1 and 2 Standing Committee on Conferences—Anthony Hearn—Out of Order—Bishop H. Clifford Northcott

Anthony Hearn (South Georgia—SE) made the following statement:—

Mr. Chairman and Members of The Conference: I should think that this great Conference would not want to face a divisive issue repeatedly. I move, therefore, that we bring forward Reports No. 1 and No. 2 from the Committee on Conferences for consideration along with this Report.

and moved that Report No. 1 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, Subject, "Constitutional Amendment Providing For Transfer of Churches or Annual Conferences From One Jurisdiction To Another," DCA No. 4, page 244, column 2, and Report No. 2 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, Subject, "Commission To Study and Recommend Action Concerning The Jurisdictional System," DCA No. 4, page 244, column 3 and page 244, column 1, be brought to The General Conference at this time for consideration of and action on them, along with Report No. 1 of the Standing Legislative Committee on the State of the Church, Subject, "The Methodist Church and Race," DCA No. 5, page 198, columns 2 and 3.

Ruling—Bishop H. Clifford Northcott—Out of Order At This Time

Bishop H. Clifford Northcott, the Presiding Officer, made the following ruling:—

It seems to me that would be out of order, inasmuch as we have a motion for an amendment before us.

Previous Question—W. Ralph Ward—Not Ordered

W. Ralph Ward (Pittsburgh—NE) moved the Previous Question on the proposed amendment of W. Sproule Boyd (Pittsburgh—NE). The motion was duly seconded.

Against Previous Question—C. Cooper Bell

C. Cooper Bell (Virginia—SE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, stated that the Standing Committee on Conferences was not prepared at this time to bring Reports Nos. 1 and 2 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences to the floor of The General Conference.

Reading of Amendment Called For—Ray W. Ragsdale

Ray W. Ragsdale (Southern California-Arizona—W) called for a reading of the proposed amendment of W. Sproule Boyd (Pittsburgh—NE).

Information Requested—Embree H. Blackard

Embree H. Blackard (Western North Carolina—SE) asked who had spoken for and against the amendment of W. Sproule Boyd (Pittsburgh—NE).

Previous Question Not Ordered

The motion of W. Ralph Ward (Pittsburgh—NE) for the Previous Question, on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.

Against Amendment—William S. Evans

William S. Evans (Memphis—SE) spoke against the proposed amendment of W. Sproule Boyd (Pittsburgh—NE), as follows:—

"I speak in opposition to this motion. I am somewhat in the shape that the mouse was when he got in the stable with the mule. He said to the mule, "Now look here, big boy; don't you step on my toes and I won't step on yours."

Bishop Northcott: I don't know whether you are the mule or the mouse, Brother Evans.

William S. Evans: I had no reference to the Chair. I was referring to the other side.

The reason why I am in no opposition to this motion is because I feel that statements have been made here that all of us do not agree with. Our sins have been confessed by others, but some of us do not feel the deepness of that sin that some of you have confessed. Therefore, I feel that we should not here as a large body make a statement confessing everybody's sin when some of us have not accepted that position.

These Committees have worked together and they have brought out constructive statements, not only on the State of the Church but also in matters of Conferences, and I think with these deep studies by the larger groups they can bring to us a better Report than the larger body here can bring. Therefore, it seems to me that we should follow the leadership of the Committees like Mr. Parlin's and Brother Bell's and let us follow that and grow in grace rather than be continuously confessing each others sins.

We have our problem. Some of the other brethren seem to have the answer. We would like to have time enough to study this problem and come to the place in growth that we can each one confess his own sins.

I thank you."

For Amendment—Merrill W. Lindsey

Merrill W. Lindsey (Upper Mississippi—C) spoke in favor of the proposed amendment of W. Sproule Boyd (Pittsburgh—NE), as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman and Members of this General Conference: I feel that the time has come that The Methodist Church must come into close grips and vital grips with an issue that is affecting gravely the status of this our beloved Church of the world.

I speak as one who lives in that Area. There are multitudes of persons who are affected by this. And may I say here that the issue of segregation as such so fits the Negro that he can live with nobody and the southern white man so he can live with only his kind.

I believe that segregation as such has so fixed our Church until it has emasculated the Church of its vigor, raped it of its virtue, and even at this point we have it up for assassination.

I believe that a group of people as Negroes spending 245 years in slavery without a pay day and a group of southern white men and women who went through the period of reconstruction can certainly adjust themselves to this minor issue.

I believe today that the Church must come to grips with this problem and do something about it. How can we represent ourselves to the rest of the world? People are here from around the world—Asia and Africa—and how can we indoctrinate them with the love of Christ unless we can prove it and give a visible example of what Christ can do in the hearts of men.

I believe that if we can get the structure and the framework we Southerners can work this thing out. And I believe again that desegregation does not necessarily mean integration.

I was at church in Lake City, Minn. Sunday, the only Negro there. We certainly had desegregation, but there was no integration because I was the only one there.

I believe that this Conference should go on record as giving faithful and true statements, and certainly admitting our sins.

Thank you."

Against Amendment—Aubrey G. Walton

Aubrey G. Walton (Little Rock—SC) spoke against the proposed amendment of W. Sproule Boyd (Pittsburgh—NE), as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman, Members of The General Conference: We seem to be laboring under the misconception that if we were to abolish the Central Jurisdiction we will have done away with segregation in The Methodist Church. That is not the fact. We could do away with the Central Jurisdiction by one resounding vote of this Conference and we will still have segregation in The Methodist Church.

We have a regular constituted Committee of this General Conference working on this matter of the Jurisdiction. They have a Report ready to bring to us tomorrow when we can consider the matter in its proper form. I hope that this amendment will be voted down here and we may consider the matter properly tomorrow concerning the Central Jurisdiction."

Reading of Amendment Requested—Bishop H. Clifford Northcott—Ernest W. Peterson ()*

Bishop H. Clifford Northcott, the Presiding Officer, called for the reading of the proposed amendment of W. Sproule Boyd (Pittsburgh—NE), and Ernest W. Peterson (*) (Oregon—W), Document Secretary read the proposed amendment as follows:—

"On page 198 of The Daily Christian Advocate, the middle column, paragraph 3, line 3, beginning with the word "Recognizing," strike out that sentence: "Recognizing that we have not yet attained this goal, we rejoice in the progress made"; and substitute this statement:

"Recognizing that we shall not have attained this goal, so long as we have within the organizational structure of our Church a Jurisdictional Conference based on race rather than geography we nevertheless rejoice in the progress that has been made."

For Amendment—Kelly L. Jackson

Kelly L. Jackson (Washington—C) spoke in favor of the proposed amendment of W. Sproule Boyd (Pittsburgh—NE), as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman, I speak in support of the amendment because even at its best, even if it were passed, and I hope so, even then it would not go far enough because it would only serve as a foundation for a Program of Action, and I am hoping that this Church will eventually come to a place where it will have a Program of Action so far as racial issues are concerned.

I know, friends, that we are somewhat reluctant to face facts as they are, but I think the time has come when we must look in the face of facts and deal with them accordingly.

I do not wish to set before you the question of white and black and so on, but that is the issue, I think. I am afraid that we have in The Methodist Church made color or race our God instead of enthroning Jesus Christ, the Son of God. I think we must sometime come to the point whether or not we are going to have race as our God or whether or not we are going to accept a God revealed through Jesus Christ our Lord. And if we accept Him there can be no place in The Methodist Church or any other Church for racial segregation.

I bear in mind what was expressed in the combined thinking in the Episcopal Address delivered by Bishop Corson as he said, "Truly, we are Brothers and Sisters and because of that there can be no place in The Methodist Church for discrimination or racial segregation."

I bear in mind also the statement made by Bishop Arthur Moore when he was asked to speak with reference to the Casa Materna choir following their singing and he said, "This is evidence that The Methodist Church does not fly a national or a racial flag."

I pray God today that the racial flag shall be drawn down and we shall march as one army of the living God under the banner of Jesus Christ.

I do hope that this shall pass, that we might in truth become Brothers in deed and not in words. And I believe that this is truly a step toward the goal.

Mr. Chairman, I don't want to go back to my home without feeling that The Methodist Church has done something to move forward, at least one step in the right direction, toward settling this problem.

Bear with me just a moment. The other day at the close of one of the sessions I went into the street and a white gentleman approached me and said—he is not a Member of this Conference—'Brother, there is no racial segregation in the body of Christ, and I would not belong to any group that practices discrimination.'

Friends, we are a part of this great Church, and by the help of God I expect to remain a part of this Church. With all of these shortcomings, and many they are, yet I would not trade this Methodist Church for all the others put together. I believe we have the answer to the question if we under God will face it and deal with it accordingly."

For Amendment—Paul Athimuthu

Paul Athimuthu (Malaya—OS) spoke in favor of the proposed amendment of W. Sproule Boyd (Pittsburgh—NE), as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman and fellow Delegates: The Hindus who believe in Karma, who practiced untouchability and even unseeability for centuries, abolished untouchability by law and opened the doors of all temples and public places throughout India from the Himalayas to Cape Comorin by the influence of one man, Mahatma Gandhi.

Thank God that in a Christian country like America the white Christian Brothers do not practice untouchability. Some of them use the service of colored brothers in their houses, in their churches, in their social halls, but unfortunately they do not allow the same folks to worship in their sanctuaries along with them.

• When Hindus could do away with a social evil which existed for centuries in a decade, why not the Christians of America do away with a minor evil? I think we will have to look toward India for moral and spiritual leadership. We want a Gandhi or another Lincoln in America.

Here is a great challenge to the ministers of American churches where the colored Brethren are not allowed to worship. Who is going to open the doors of his church for the colored Brethren, irrespective of the consequences?

We will have to face the issues now or never. There is no use of postponing this issue; one day it has to be faced. Why not we as a Conference face it now?

Some may say there may be troubles, disturbances, uprisings and even murder. Abraham Lincoln would have foreseen these things when he emancipated the slaves. He had the courage to do it and even though it cost his life, God did not allow his cause to die, but it bore fruit and emancipation became a permanent thing.

You, the Bishops of The Methodist Church, and you, the Ministers of The Methodist Church, and you, the Lay Leaders of The Methodist Church consider this challenge, ponder over it, pray over it and then abolish this injustice, segregation. Open the gates of the Church, the social hall and other public places wide and allow the colored people to enter in. Remove the stigma, the inferiority complex of the colored man. Treat him as your Brother, not in words but in deeds. He does not need economic security; your rich country gives that. He needs social justice.

The whole world looks to this great Conference. What are you, the followers of Christ, who died not only for the white man but also for the colored man, and the followers of a brave man, John Wesley, going to do? I appeal to you to vote unanimously for this motion. Not only God but the whole of Christendom, of the whole world, would be behind you.

Against Amendment—Paul R. Ervin ()*

Paul R. Ervin (*) (Western North Carolina—SE) spoke against the proposed amendment of W. Sproule Boyd (Pittsburgh—NE), as follows:—

“Mr. Chairman and Members of The Conference: It is with some reluctance that I speak upon this subject. Together with other members of your Committee on the State of the Church and the Sub-Committee on Race, we have labored for many long weary hours to bring this Conference a statement which we had hoped would meet with your approval, realizing that it would be impossible for it to meet with your unanimous approval unless each and every one of you had had a part in the making of the statement. We hoped at least it would meet with the approval of the majority of The Conference.

You may be assured that every point discussed on the floor this morning and all of those which are in your minds now were fully and amply discussed in the Committee itself, and in the Sub-committee which drafted the Resolution which is before you.

For just a moment I would like to speak for myself and for a great segment of the beloved Methodist church of which we are all members. I will not presume to speak on behalf, at this moment at least, of all the Committee or even those members of the Committee who are on the platform with me. But I feel that in justice to the great section of the land from which I come, where The Methodist Church knows its wonderful strength and where it has been a great blessing to our people for many years, I would not be quite fair to them if I did not speak in opposition to this motion which has been suggested, this amendment.

May I say this to you: In the first place, I feel that this is an amendment which ought to go before the Committee on Conferences because it does refer to the structural organization of the Church with which the Committee on Conferences is dealing. I realize the force of the argument that the proposed amendment does set forth some statement of principle or position, and since it does it may be properly discussed in The Conference at this time, when the particular Resolution which we are considering is before The Conference.

I hope The Conference will not approve it. My hope is based upon these facts: Those who have spoken in favor of the motion start from the premise that the Central Jurisdiction is unwise and is discriminatory. There is much discrimination in favor of the members of the Central Jurisdiction by way of the allocation of Bishops and by way of the membership on Boards and matters of that sort. But I think that we ought not to consider this motion to amend purely upon that premise.

You will notice that in the third column of your Advocate on page 198, are these significant words: “We call upon our people to effect these adjustments” which may be necessary. “Let these things, however, be done in love lest the cause of Christ suffer at our hands.”

May I remind you, Members of The Conference, that there are many of us who must go back to our homes and convince our people of the wisdom of whatever action is taken at this Conference. May I remind you that there will be deep resentment upon their part if they feel that you have sought to castigate them, or if you have confessed for them their sins which they may have, or even those which they do not have.

I plead with you to let us bring forth from this Conference a Resolution upon this subject which we can go back and lead our people into the acceptance of. But do not place us in the position of having to shove them anywhere; we can lead them but we cannot shove them.

My Brethren, I hope you will make it possible for those of us who come from the Southeastern Jurisdiction to be able to return and wholeheartedly support what The Conference does. I do not believe that the proposed amendment will in any way assist us in that, but will tremendously injure our efforts."

Point of Order—Paul V. Galloway

Paul V. Galloway (Oklahoma—SC), Chairman of the Program Committee of The General Conference Commission on Entertainment and Program, raised the Point of Order, that an Order of the Day for the India Centennial Presentation had been previously set for 10:45 A.M. this morning, and made the following statement:—

Mr. Chairman, Point of Order. I speak not just as a Delegate, but as Chairman of the Program Committee. We are not in any way trying to affect this debate. It has nothing to do with the debate. However, notice in the Journal, page 15, the first day, that we made an Order of the Day at that time for 10:45 A.M. at which time the India group would make a special presentation. The reason I mention this is the fact some people have come this morning just for that presentation. Bishop Pickett assures me it will take between 10 and 12 minutes. I did not want to affect this debate and I did not want anyone to think we were trying to delay on that. But we would like if possible to have it this morning. We are perfectly willing to wait until 12:20 P.M. if we may, but this was one of the first Orders of the Day and we would like to have it before we close today.

Order of Day Takes Precedence—Merrill B. McFall

Motion of Merrill B. McFall (Indiana—NC), duly seconded, prevailed that we delay further debate on Report No. 1 of the Standing Legislative Committee, on the State of the Church, Subject, "The Methodist Church and Race," and proceed to the Order of the Day, the India Centennial Presentation, which had previously been ordered.

India Centennial Presentation—Bishop J. Wascom Pickett—Bishop Shot K. Mondol—Verner S. Mumbulo—Adlai C. Holler—Bishop W. Earl Ledden—P. C. Benjamin Balaram

The Order of the Day having arrived, Bishop H. Clifford Northcott, the Presiding Officer, presented Bishop J. Waskom Pickett, of the Delhi Area, Southern Asia Central Conference, who outlined the Program for the India Centennial Presentation, as follows:—

Mr. Chairman, Brethren of the Episcopacy, Members of The Judicial Council, Members of The General Conference, and visitors:

As Chairman of the Committee on the Celebration of the Centenary of The Methodist Church in India and Pakistan, it is my happy privilege to call upon a distinguished colleague, Bishop Shot K. Mondol of the Hyberabad area, which is the most rapidly growing section in India Methodism. He is also a Trustee and beloved leader of Inter-Denominational Christianity in India.

Among the many organizations to which he is giving notable leadership are the India Sunday School Union, the National Missionary Society, and the National Christian Council, of each of which he is President.

After Bishop Mondol has spoken will you, Mr. Chairman, kindly recognize Dr. V. S. Mumbulo, Ministerial Member of this body, from the Detroit Annual Conference (NC), to offer a motion, and Dr. Adlai C. Holler, Ministerial Member of the South Carolina Annual Conference (SE), to second it.

After action on the motion these brethren will present, will you please recognize Bishop W. Earl Ledden, President of the Council of Bishops, to receive a letter which Bishop Shot K. Mondol will present, I will then, with your permission, sir, call upon the Reverend P. C. Balaram to read a very short but very important communication.

Bishop J. Waskom Pickett Presents Bishop Shot K. Mondol —Address—Presents Gift

Bishop J. Waskom Pickett, of the Delhi Area, Southern Asia Central Conference, presented Bishop Shot K. Mondol, of the Hyderabad Area, Southern Asia Central Conference, who addressed The General Conference, as follows:—

Mr. Chairman, my Episcopal Colleagues, Delegates to The General Conference and friends: I very deeply and sincerely appreciate the kind words in which Bishop Pickett has introduced me to you. He is a great missionary and a true friend of India. We in India feel under an everlasting debt of gratitude to him.

This is a high moment for The Methodist Church in Southern Asia. To me, the privilege of making this presentation is a great personal honor.

I hold in my hand in this envelope a promissory note which I have been commissioned to deliver to the President of The Council of Bishops. This promissory note represents the heart-felt desire and the wish of the poor, humble and ordinary people of India to present a gift to The Methodist Church in America.

For a long time we have been recipients of your gifts. For a hundred years you have supported us and our work by your sacrificial gifts. This gift from us is a very humble token of our profound gratitude—a token of our abiding love and Christian fellowship and a token of our deep and sincere appreciation of all that you have done for us.

This morning, at our devotional hour, we sang that great stirring missionary hymn of the Church:

“Give of thy sons, to bear the message glorious,
Give of thy wealth to speed them on their way.
Pour out thy soul for them in prayer victorious,
O Zion, haste to bring the brighter day.”

True to the spirit of this hymn, you have sent your sons and your daughters to the far-flung corners of the earth, including India—an endless line of splendor, and some of your sons and daughters have not only labored in India but they lie buried in the soil of that land, a silent but eloquent tribute to their deathless devotion to Christ and His Kingdom. They fervently believed in the saying, "If God calls you to be a missionary, do not stoop to be a king."

You have unstintingly given of your wealth and given it generously and sacrificially, so that the seed of the gospel might be planted on the Indian continent. You have nurtured this seed with your solicitous care, your vigilant prayer, your deep devotion and unswerving loyalty. And as we come to the turn of the century, we find that that tiny seed has become a mighty tree, under the branches of which nearly 600,000 Methodists have taken shelter. Surely we can say it is the Lord's doing and it is wonderful in our eyes.

We who have been the recipients of so many blessings from you, both temporal and spiritual, come to you this morning with the humble request that you honor us by receiving from us this gift in the spirit in which it is given. It is our hope that this money may be used as a first installment toward the establishment of a Chair in one of the colleges or universities under the auspices of The Methodist Church for the study of Indian Life and Culture. One hundred thousand rupees (approximately $22,000) is but a drop in the bucket to fulfill such an ambitious project. Our fervent hope is that similar gifts may come from the high-minded people of America for the realization of this great dream.

When the idea of presenting this gift was first mooted, some people looked askance. Giving money to U.S.A.—which is pouring millions of dollars to other countries in foreign aid—why, this is carrying coals to Newcastle! What an absurd idea!

But when the object of this fund was explained to our people, the enthusiasm was tremendous. The doubters and critics were confounded. I shall never forget the gleam, the light, the smile, that lighted up on the faces of the people in the village when the purpose of this gift was explained. After I spoke, seven ill-clad villagers got up and said they would each give one goat to this cause. The Principal of a girls' school, where the students are mostly from poor homes, promised to raise 1000 rupees from her school. The idea caught on; the enthusiasm became infectious. We already have on hand four-fifths of this amount, and there is no doubt that the balance will be subscribed when the time for the Centenary Celebrations arrives in November of this year.

What a high honor and a great privilege it is for me, Mr. President of The Council of Bishops, to present this letter to you containing the pledge and the promise of your fellow Methodists in India, and with it our deep and abiding attention, our lasting gratitude and our love.

The Methodist Church in India is celebrating its Centenary this year. If the record of Methodism has been one of victory and achievement in the past century, it is but a foretaste and a foregleam of greater victory and greater glory that is yet to come to the Prince of Peace, the Savior of mankind, and the Savior of India—Jesus Christ, our Lord.

Motion to Accept Gift—Verner S. Mumbulo—Seconded—Adlai C. Holler

Verner S. Mumbulo (Detroit—NC) moved the acceptance of the gift in the following words:—

"Mr. Chairman, ladies and gentlemen of The Conference: This is an exceedingly precious and tender moment for me. Nearly half a century ago, I sat upon the bony knee of a long-haired missionary from India, and in my boyhood enthusiasm I said, "Lord, some day I'll go to India and I'll be a missionary there."

I never did. A few years later there came in the providence of God the inspiration of Bishop Pickett's life and ministry to me, and I shall never soon forget fifteen years ago how he took our baby daughter, then a child of seven or so, away by herself on the edge of a station platform and spread the love and charm of his glorious personality around that little heart, until today when she mentions the name of Bishop Pickett, it sounds like a prayer.

Now, after these years in which I did not go to India, except by proxy, because it has been my privilege and joy to minister to churches that have had tremendous missionary interest, however after all these years, a thing has happened and India is coming back to us, coming to us with the gift of love and the gift of togetherness which we realize in this Conference we so much need. It seems to me this is a symbol, a word that has been suggested today on this platform. This is a symbol of the thing we are really after in our day—togetherness in Jesus Christ.

Bishop, I move, sir, that this Conference accept with profound gratitude to the people of India and to our common God this magnificent gift of their love and of their unity."

The motion was duly seconded by Adlai C. Holler (South Carolina—SE), as follows:—

Mr. Chairman, it is to me a great privilege to stand before you to second this motion of acceptance of this magnificent gift. One of the goals of the Centenary Program of India and Pakistan was to raise a large sum of money, a part of which they now offer to this Conference. They have been truly world-wide in their vision. What a happy day it is when a parent receives a gift from his child. The result of that child's labor, initiative and love.

I have such a gift from my sons, which I pride beyond compare. I feel some of the same pride of the Methodists today when I realize that out of the endeavors of the past we now receive a magnificent sacrificial gift from a member of our beloved family.

I have the honor of having a sister who is a missionary, wife of one of our doctors in Pakistan, and so may God's blessing be upon our loved friends in Pakistan and India as we take the gift. So I second the motion."

The General Conference stood, and applauded, as the motion was unanimously adopted by a rising vote of thanks.

Bishop W. Earl Ledden Accepts Gift

Bishop W. Earl Ledden, of the Syracuse Area, North-eastern Jurisdiction, and President of The Council of Bishops of The Methodist Church, accepted the gift, with the following words:—

It is a moving privilege to accept this gracious and lovely gift from your hands, and from the hearts of your associates in India. There are some things we cannot cram into words. They break through language and escape. And that is why it seemed to me that the best thing I could do was to stand in silence and to receive this gift as many photographs were taken, for there was a moment that was beyond expression in words.

Think of it, after a century, to have a gift like this to come from the sensitive and generous friends and Brethren of ours in India.

I was thinking about the fact that I had been a pastor of two of the daughters of Dr. and Mrs. William Butler who started out this work a century ago. We had on the walls of our church a photograph of Dr. and Mrs. Butler and somehow the gracious spirit of India seemed to permeate that place. And so, while this is a historic moment, and I think the first time we have received such a gift as this, it is not the first gift that we have received from India.

For a long time now, India has been a living influence in the life and thought and consecration of our common Church. We have received certain insights which we would never have received if they had not come to us through these spiritually-minded Methodists of India. And to have this gift and to have it presented to The Methodist Church for the purpose of understanding something of the culture and the life and the spirit of India is a moving thing, for certainly America needs more understanding. When we talk about the under-privileged and under-developed countries, we are always thinking in terms of material things. There are some things that America lacks, and one of them is understanding of people far away. We put great emphasis upon the Voice of America. It is time for us to be thinking about the Ear of America and to be hearing and to be understanding. And this gracious gift which has been presented to us this morning across the long years ahead will help in the understanding of these dear members of our Methodist Family.

With great emotion and sincerity and a sense of profound obligation, I do represent all of you in accepting this gift from the hands of Bishop Mondol.

Time Extended.

The hour of adjournment approaching, by common consent the time was extended, to complete the India Centennial Presentation, and also to take care of some important matters, needing the attention of The General Conference at this morning's session.

Message from President of India—Bishop H. Waskom Pickett—P. C. Benjamin Balaram

Bishop J. Waskom Pickett, of the Delhi Area, Southern Asia Central Conference, next presented P. C. Benjamin Balaram (Delhi—OS), who read a communication (DB-51) from Rajendra Prasad, President of India, The General Conference standing for its reception, as follows:—

Rashtrapati Bhavan,
New Delhi,
22nd February, 1956

"I have been asked by the Indian Church to send a message on the occasion of the Centenary Celebration of The Methodist Church which is being held in Minneapolis, U. S. A., and I have great pleasure in sending my greetings to the Conference.

"In a world where moral and spiritual values are at a low ebb, such a representative gathering is bound to turn men's minds towards God and the Eternal verities.

"The Methodist Church in India has to its credit a lot of humanitarian work in the field of medical relief and care of the neglected. It is India's tradition to appreciate and welcome all humanitarian services without distinction of race or creed and contributions made to Inter-National and Inter-Racial understanding and co-operation.

"I wish the Conference every success.

No. 2 Committee of Chairmen—A. Wesley Pugh

A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee of Chairmen, was recognized, and reporting for the Committee of Chairmen moved the following schedule of operations for The General Conference:—

First—That the following Orders of the Day be established:—

(a) Consideration of and action on Report No. 1 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, Subject, "Constitutional Amendment Providing for Transfer of Churches or Annual Conferences from One Jurisdiction to Another," DCA No. 6, page 244, column 2, and of Report No. 2 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, Subject, "Commission to Study and Recommend Action Concerning the Jurisdictional System," DCA No. 6, page 244, column 3 and page 245, column 1, for Wednesday morning, May 2, 1956, following consideration of and action on the pending Report No. 1 of the Standing Legislative Committee on the State of the Church, Subject, "The Methodist Church and Race," DCA No. 5, page 198, columns 2 and 3, and a brief Report from the Commission on Family Life.

(b) Consideration of and action on Reports No. 2 of the Co-ordinating Council, DCA No. 3, page 31, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 32, columns 1, 2 and 3; and page 33, columns 1, 2 and 3; and of Report No. 3 of the Co-ordinating Council, DCA No. 4, page 31, columns 2 and 3, immediately following recess on Wednesday morning, May 2, 1956.

(c) On Thursday morning, May 3, following Reports from the Standing Administrative Committees, the Reports of the Council on World Service and Finance, DCA No. 5, pages 199 to 214 inclusive and DCA No. 8, page 350, column 3.

2. That The General Conference order a regular business session for Wednesday evening, May 2, 1956, to begin at 7:45 P.M.

3. That The General Conference order an afternoon and evening business session for Thursday, May 3, 1956 and Friday, May 4, 1956.

The motion, duly seconded, was unanimously adopted.

Statement—A. Wesley Pugh

A. Wesley Pugh (North Carolina—NC), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee of Chairmen, made the following statement:—

Mr. Chairman, it is necessary for me to make an additional statement. Following these recommendations which you have accepted, this will almost require that the Committee work be completed tomorrow, Wednesday. The Standing Legislative Committee Chairmen were of the opinion that if the Committee members work faithfully today and tomorrow all of the Reports from the Standing Legislative Committees can get onto the Calendar. The business is not far enough along as yet, we feel, to suggest a possible time for adjournment, but we are keeping in mind that you want the business to move along smoothly, yet not so rapidly as to feel under too much pressure when these very important and somewhat divisive issues come before us. So we hope we shall have some statement to make a little later on.

Conscientious Objectors—Referred to Committee on State of the Church—John E. Marvin—Adopted

John E. Marvin (Detroit—NC) presented a statement (DB-53) from the Central Committee of the World Council of Churches on Conscientious Objectors, and moved its reference, without reading, to the Standing Legislative Committee on the State of the Church. The motion to refer, duly seconded, was adopted, and the paper referred to the Standing Committee on the State of the Church.

Nos. 9 and 10 Presiding Officers—H. Hughes Wagner—Adopted

H. Hughes Wagner (New England—NE), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee on Presiding Officers, presented Reports Nos. 9 and 10 of the Committee, and they were adopted as follows:—

“Your Committee is pleased to announce for Reports Nos. 9 and 10, that the Presiding Officer at the session of Wednesday morning, May 2, 1956, will be Bishop Fred P. Corson of the Philadelphia Area, Northeastern Jurisdiction, and that the Presiding Officer for Wednesday evening's session, May 2, 1956, will be Bishop Lloyd C. Wicke of the Pittsburgh Area, Northeastern Jurisdiction.

(Signed) H. Hughes Wagner, Chairman
William R. Cannon, Secretary

Thanks—Bishop H. Clifford Northcott

Bishop H. Clifford Northcott, the Presiding Officer of the morning, thanked the members of The General Conference for their courtesies and help.

Announcements—Leon T. Moore—Lud H. Estes

Various announcements were made by Leon T. Moore (Philadelphia—NE), Secretary-Designate, and Lud H. Estes (Memphis—SE), Secretary.

Closing and Benediction—Bishop Edgar A. Love

The morning session of The General Conference of The Methodist Church, of Tuesday, May 1, adjourned at 12:45 P.M., with the Benediction pronounced by Bishop Edgar A. Love, of the Baltimore Area, Central Jurisdiction, with further consideration of and action on Report No. 1 of the Standing Committee on State of the Church, Subject, “The Methodist Church and Race,” DCA No. 5, page 198, columns 2 and 3, pending.

SEVENTH DAY, TUESDAY, MAY 1, 1956 EVENING SESSION

Bishop Arthur J. Moore, the Presiding Officer, announced the India Centennial Hymn, "Church of the Living God." Under the leadership of James R. Houghton (*) (New England—NE), General Conference Director of Music, The General Conference joined heartily in its singing of the Hymn.

Prayer—Bishop Clement D. Rockey

Bishop Clement D. Rockey, of the Lucknow Area, Southern Asia Central Conference, led in prayer.

Remarks—Bishop Arthur J. Moore—Presents Mrs. F. G. Brooks ()—Bishop J. Waskom Pickett*

Bishop Arthur J. Moore, the Presiding Officer, briefly addressed The General Conference and then presented Mrs. Frank G. Brooks (*) (North Iowa—NC), President of the Woman's Division of Christian Service of the General Board of Missions of The Methodist Church.

Mrs. Frank G. Brooks (*) (North Iowa—NC) brought a stirring message for the occasion.

Bishop J. Waskom Pickett Presented—Bishop Arthur J. Moore

Bishop Arthur J. Moore, the Presiding Officer, next presented Bishop J. Waskom Pickett, of the Delhi Area, Southern Asia Central Conference, who briefly outlined the India Centennial Program, which was rendered as follows:—

CHURCH OF THE LIVING GOD

Centenary, 6.7.6.7.6.6.6.

Grace and Wood Whetstone

Robert Kauffman

Church of the Living God, A light to all the nations,
We thank Thee for Thy care, Through all the generations.
Through conflicts and despair Thy truth hath shown the way.
With hearts made bold to serve We come unto this day.

Church of the Living God, That fainteth not nor sleepeth,
New hope for the oppressed And joy for him that weepeth:
These are thy gifts to men Who tread on toilsome ways,
To lighten loads of care And fill their hearts with praise.

Church of the Living God, His great compassion showing,
To bodies racked with pain A healing balm bestowing:
Come, light the darkened mind And set the spirit free.
Show forth the love of God, Man's true security.

Church of the Living God, Amid the storms impending,
Speak to our anxious hearts, Earth's bitter woes transcending.
O may we find in thee That fellowship sublime,
Of souls made one in Him, Who knows not race nor time.

Church of the Living God, Thy past hath been victorious.
Thy future all unknown His presence shall make glorious.
O lead us ever on Through darkness, doubts or fears.
Proclaim, exalt, reveal The Lord of all the years. Amen.

Alternate tune—Nun Danket.

Celebrating its Centenary in 1956, The Methodist Church in Southern Asia has sent an eighteen-voice choir to the United States. Recruited from among 500,000 Methodists, these young students and teachers come as ambassadors of good will. Each plays an instrument and half are trained in Indian classical dancing. Following a six-month tour in India they came to the U.S.A. where they are on tour until August when they will enter colleges for a year of graduate work. They will return to India in 1957.

Program Prepared by the Central Centenary Committee of the Methodist Church in Southern Asia

OUR GRATITUDE

The Methodists of India and Pakistan salute you.

We are celebrating together a hundred years of Methodist history in Southern Asia. We are grateful to you for joining with us this evening in giving thanks for the past and in our hopes and prayers for the future. You represent a large company who have helped make possible our life in Christ and we are confident that you will continue with us in witnessing about our Lord to our countrymen.

We number 542,734 in India and 40,427 in Pakistan. We have happy relations with those among whom we live and with our Governments. Our right to worship God as our consciences direct is acknowledged by most of our fellow citizens and is protected by law. We are encouraged to serve the public welfare by maintaining schools, hospitals and other institutions. We proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ without hindrance and are encouraged by the response of many of our countrymen.

We have been greatly helped by our countries' simultaneous achievement of Independence in 1947. Before that we were handicapped by a wide-spread disposition to regard our faith as foreign and ourselves as dependents of an alien government. Even now some of our neighbors persist in regarding us and our faith with disfavor but time and the law are on our side. When some have attempted to interfere with our rights the nations' trusted leaders have come to our defence.

We rejoice in the record our Church has made in its first hundred years in Southern Asia. A few of its many notable accomplishments are: (1) Bringing to Southern Asia the first lady missionary doctor, (2) Opening the first Hospital for women and children, (3) Founding the first modern College for Women on this sub-continent, (4) Starting the first Tuberculosis Sanatorium, (5) Bringing to these countries the first Missionary Public Health Doctor and the first Public Health Nurse. (6) Establishing the first Psychiatric Center under Christian auspices with a missionary and a national psychiatrist and psychiatric nurse, (7) Originating the Inter-Mission Business Office that now assists most Church and Mission organizations in their foreign exchange and internal financial transactions, (8) Introducing physiotherapy in the rehabilitation of Tuberculosis patients and (9) Loaning the first full-time Audio-Visual worker to the National Christian Council of India.

OUR HOPES

We look to the future with confidence. Our greatest days are ahead. The first quarter of our second century should bring larger growth and more fruitful service than any quarter of our first century. We propose to put emphasis in the immediate future upon:

(1) Strengthening local Churches by better training for Church membership, by extending the organization of the Women's Society of Christian Service, and the Methodist Youth and Young Adult Fellowships, by beginning the organization of Methodist Men and by building Churches at an accelerated rate, (2) Extending Christian Education by improving our Sunday Schools, our Program for the elimination of illiteracy, promoting the regular study of the Bible, increasing the number of selected boys and girls from Christian homes who attend our Boarding Schools (doubling, if possible, the number of scholarships while continuing to increase income from Indian sources for this purpose) and greatly improving the facilities for education in our schools and colleges.

(3) The Healing Ministry. Our Hospitals, Leprosy Homes and Tuberculosis Sanatoria are essential expressions of the spirit of Christ in our countries. They confirm and commend the Gospel to our own people especially the sons and daughters of Christian homes and to our neighbors of other faiths, or of no faith.

(4) By fighting against poverty. Many of our members have come from very poor families. Others have had to leave all their worldly possessions in order to become Christians. We are concerned that all of our members should be saved from the devastating effects of involuntary poverty. And we are conscious of a Divine Imperative to help others besides our members. We cannot be indifferent to poverty within our ranks or among any of God's people whatever their creed.

The Program we formulate must of necessity be too big for our resources of men and money. We hope our Governments will allow us to obtain help from you and that God will grant that our united efforts will bring results that will please Him.

Be assured that not only we who are Methodists in India and Pakistan, but vast numbers of others in our countries appreciate the work that you and your associates and your predecessors in the Church have done for our countries. We and they share your passion for peace and your dream of the Kingdom of God established throughout the world of men.

Warazawa, dnia April 4, 1956

To The General Conference of The Methodist Church at Minneapolis, Minnesota, U.S.A.
% Reverend Lud H. Estes,
1669 North Parkway, Memphis 12, Tennessee

Dear Bishops, Superintendents, Ministers and Lay Delegates:—

The world is in the hands of the living God, whose will for it is wholly good. In Christ Jesus, who lived and died and rose from the dead, God has broken the power of evil once for all, and opened for everyone the gate into freedom and joy in the Holy Spirit; and the end of history will be the triumph of His Kingdom, where we alone shall understand how much God has loved the world. This is God's unchanging Word to you all and to the world.

Millions of our fellow-men have never heard it. As you meet there from many lands, we pray God to stir up our whole Church to make this Gospel known to the whole world, and to call on all men to believe in Christ, to live in this love and to help for His coming. Till the day of His final victory our lives are hid with Christ in God, and no earthly disillusion or distress or power of hell can separate us from Him!

On behalf of all Methodists in Poland I send you heartily greetings and wish you God's blessings in all your debates.

(Signed) Joseph Naumiuk

Motion of Alexander K. Smith (Philadelphia—NE), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee on Courtesies and Privileges, duly seconded, directed the Secretary to make an appropriate reply.

Second—That at the convenience of The General Conference, The Council of Bishops to sing, rehearsed or unrehearsed.

No. 6 Credentials—Elmer E. Mathews (*)

Elmer E. Mathews (*) (New Jersey—NE), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee on Credentials, presented Report No. 6 of the Committee and moved its adoption and printing in The Daily Christian Advocate, without reading. The motion, duly seconded, prevailed. For Report see page 1200.

Rules—A. Wesley Pugh

A Report from the Standing Administrative Committee on Plan of Organization and Rules of Order was called for. A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC), Chairman of the Committee stated there was no Report at this time.

Report No. 3 Chairmen—A. Wesley Pugh

A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee of Chairmen, made the following statement:—

The Committee desires me to say that the business of The Committees is well advanced for this time in The General Conference. We feel we have made good progress up to this point. We shall have a meeting at the conclusion of the session this morning and depending upon the state of our business at this time, we hope that we shall have a recommendation for at least a target date of adjournment. Not later than tomorrow morning, perhaps even this evening, we might suggest a time for our adjournment.

Speeches Limited—A. Wesley Pugh

On motion of A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee of Chairmen, duly seconded, the following Resolution was adopted:—

Be It Resolved, That from this time forward, until The Conference business is completed, speeches shall be limited to five minutes, except in the case of a Chairman presenting a Report, who shall be allowed ten minutes. The same privilege shall be extended to the leader of a Minority Report. We request that the Presiding Officer indicate when a speaker has come to within one minute of the expiration of his time.

Ballot for Judicial Council Members—A. Wesley Pugh

Motion of A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee of Chairmen, duly seconded prevailed, that the business of The General Conference be interrupted at noon for the purpose of taking a ballot for Members of The Judicial Council, and that subsequent ballots, if necessary, shall be taken at such times as The General Conference shall select, upon recommendation of the Committee of Chairmen.

Memorials Processed—Lud H. Estes

Lud H. Estes (Memphis—SE), Secretary of The General Conference, stated that Memorial No. 4986 had been processed, and that all Memorials in the office of the Secretary were now in the hands of the Standing Legislative Committees.

Order of Day—Parliamentary Situation—Bishop Fred P. Corson—Report No. 1, State of the Church—Charles C. Parlin (*)

The Order of the Day having arrived, the continuation of the consideration of and action on Report No. 1 of the Standing Legislative Committee on the State of the Church, Subject, "The Methodist Church and Race," DCA No. 5, page 198, columns 2 and 3, Bishop Fred Pierce Corson, the Presiding Officer, stated the parliamentary situation as follows:—

May the Chair state the parliamentary situation as he understands it? We are now under an amendment to the paragraph which begins, "There must be no place in The Methodist Church for racial discrimination," and, if you wish it, the Secretary will read the amendment. Do you wish to have the amendment read? I assume that you are all familiar with that amendment. Let us bear in mind that that is the matter before us for discussion at this time.

Statement—Charles C. Parlin ()*

Charles C. Parlin (*) (Newark), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on the State of the Church, was recognized, and made the following statement:—

"In order to clarify the matter, and as a privilege to this body, I ask the floor for W. Sproule Boyd (Pittsburgh—NE), who has presented the motion now before us, for a statement, and then that the Committee be allowed to state its position with reference thereto."

Rephrased Amendment—W. Sproule Boyd

W. Sproule Boyd (Pittsburgh—NE) was recognized, and moved to delete the second sentence of the third paragraph of Report No. 1 of the Standing Legislative Committee on the State of the Church, Subject, "The Methodist Church and Race," DCA No. 5, page 198, column 2, which reads as follows:—

"Recognizing that we have not yet attained this goal, we rejoice in the progress made."

and substituting therefor the following rephrased version (DB-57) of his original amendment, which reads as follows:—

"Recognizing that we have not attained this goal, yet rejoicing in the progress made, we recommend that discrimination or segregation by any method or practice, whether by Conference structure or otherwise in The Methodist Church, be abolished with reasonable speed."

The original amendment of W. Sproule Boyd (Pittsburgh—NE) presented on Tuesday morning, May 1, 1956, read as follows:—

"Recognizing that we shall not have attained this goal so long as we have within the organizational structure of our Church a Jurisdictional Conference based on race, rather than on geography, we nevertheless rejoice in the progress that has been made."

W. Sproule Boyd (Pittsburgh—NE) made the following statement:—

“Mr. Chairman, if this is agreeable to the man who seconded it, I believe it was W. Ralph Ward (Pittsburgh—NE), and the Chairman of the Committee, then I should like to say just a word or two in addition.”

Question—Bishop Fred P. Corson

Bishop Fred Pierce Corson, the Presiding Officer, made the following statement:—

May the Chair ask the Chairman of the Committee whether or not the Committee is willing to accept this rephrasing of the amendment?

Reply—Charles C. Parlin ()*

Charles C. Parlin (*) (Newark—NE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on the State of the Church, replied as follows:—

I would like to have the position of the Committee reported to you by the Chairman of the Sub-Committee which handled this, although it was passed upon by the entire Committee yesterday, Harold A. Bosley (Rock River—NC).

Statement—Bishop Fred P. Corson

Bishop Fred Pierce Corson, the Presiding Officer, made the following statement:—

Now, I understand that the Committee is willing to accept this wording but the amendment is in the hands of the body, and if there is some objection to it we will have to put the vote. Is there any objection to permitting the Committee to accept this rewording?

I hear none. Therefore, Dr. Bosley, you have the floor.

Statement—Harold A. Bosley—W. Sproule Boyd

Harold A. Bosley (Rock River—NC), Chairman of the Sub-Committee of the Standing Legislative Committee on the State of the Church, dealing with this particular phase of the Report, made the following statement:—

The Sub-Committee appointed by the Committee on the State of the Church spent the better part of two hours after conference with W. Sproule Boyd, and in line with his suggestion trying to bring in a statement which we felt would be fair to the content and the intent of his amendment, and reflect also the great feeling on the part of this body that we wanted to say something as precise and as definite as we could in this area in line with principle.

I should like simply to report to you that a Sub-Committee of seven accepted this phrasing unanimously and that the entire Committee on the State of the Church, after hearing it read and discussing it, accepted it unanimously; so it comes to you with that support.

W. Sproule Boyd (Pittsburgh—NE) made the following statement:—

Mr. Chairman and Members of The General Conference: I think this is a stronger yet perhaps a more acceptable statement than the one which I originally presented. I have conferred with several persons, some on the Committee and some others, persons whose judgment I regard very highly, and they, too, believe that it is a more acceptable statement. My deepest convictions about this matter are, of course, unchanged but neither did I yesterday nor do I today have any desire to offend the conscience of anyone in The Methodist Church or any section of The Methodist Church. I trust I will be believed when I say that I was as critical of myself and of my own Conference and my own section of the country as of anyone anywhere.

I feel that all of us, not the South or the North, or the East, or the West, but all of us who are under the judgment of God are in this matter together. With the help of God we must find the solution together.

I think this statement with this proposed amendment as now phrased makes progress and I hope it will be approved, and for the good of all concerned I hope the Report as now amended will be approved speedily.

Amendment Accepted—Harold A. Bosley

Harold A. Bosley (Rock River—NC), Chairman of the Sub-Committee of the Standing Legislative Committee on the State of the Church, preparing this part of the Report, accepted the proposed, rephrased amendment of W. Sproule Boyd (Pittsburgh—NE) for the Committee, there being no objection raised by any member of the Committee, or by any member of The General Conference.

Statement—Bishop Fred P. Corson

Bishop Fred Pierce Corson, the Presiding Officer, made the following statement:—

Let the Chair state the situation as he understands it. The Committee has accepted this rewording as a part of the paper and there was no objection from the floor. Therefore, it becomes now a part of the main motion and we are under the main motion for discussion. It does not cut off debate. It simply eliminates an amendment.

Amendment—Donald E. Holbrook ()—Not Adopted*

Donald A. Holbrook (*) (Michigan—NC) moved to amend the Report by adding (DB-58) at the close of the Report DCA No. 5, page 198, column 3, the following:—

“7. We personally commit ourselves to activate these Resolutions and, by the help of God, will labor for Christian Brotherhood in our beloved Church and to free it from racial discrimination and segregation.”

The motion to thus amend, being duly seconded, Donald E. Holbrook (*) (Michigan—NC) spoke to the proposed amendment as follows:—

Mr. Chairman and Members of The Conference: To my mind we have in this position of the Church three provisions: First, we state certain truths of which we all agree; second, we make recommendations, and this amendment which I have made is the last, the commitment. I would like to liken it to something that I am very close to, and that is teaching of a Sunday School class. I have a high school class back in Michigan, and when I state to my class that belief in God is necessary and belief in his Son, Jesus Christ, is necessary, and when I say that these are truths that we accept in the Christian Church, that is fine. When I say that all Christians should come to that realization and belief, that is another good thing, that is the recommendation; but I say there is one lacking, and that is for me to say, "I believe." That is the point of my amendment. I think this Conference made up of these members representing all the churches of The Methodist Church should come in here and say, "We believe and we will exhibit that belief, that faith in what we have said, by adhering to those principles by our daily lives and what we have to do in life to make them possible and a realization."

Against Amendment—Charles C. Parlin ()*

Charles C. Parlin (*) (Newark—NE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on the State of the Church, replied as follows:—

It was our feeling that that is incorporated in the statement as it exists and that it is inherent in the statement which shall be issued by this Conference. There is nothing here at all inconsistent or in conflict with the statement as it exists, and if I might say just this word, there is merit in having as brief and as terse a statement as possible. We were urged by those who know to confine our statement to one or two paragraphs that would really state the case.

I am not authorized by the Committee to accept this. It is not inconsistent. We feel it is redundant, that already the principle is stated.

Amendment—Donald E. Holbrook ()—Not Adopted*

The proposed amendment of Donald E. Holbrook (*) (Michigan—NC) on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.

Amendment—John W. McKelvey—Mrs. Loretta L. Warlow ()—Not Adopted*

John W. McKelvey (Philadelphia—NE) moved to amend the Report by adding at the close of Item 1, DCA No. 5, page 198, column 3 (DB-59) the following words:—

"and beginning under God's guidance to put these policies and practices into effect."

The motion of John W. McKelvey (Philadelphia—NE)

being duly seconded by Mrs. D. Chester (Loretta L.) Warlow (*) (Philadelphia—NE), he spoke to the same as follows:—

Mr. Chairman and Members of The General Conference: Excellent as these recommendations in this statesmanlike Report are, they do not sufficiently answer the question tugging at our hearts, What shall we do now, and how?

If I sense the mood of the Church-at-large, it is sincerely the mood of my own congregation in Lansdowne, not the ambiguous hypocrisy of the ancient Pharisees who by shrewd mental footwork sought only to evade the weightier matters of the law, but rather the humble, chastened cry of the Philippian jailer, "Sirs, what then shall we do?"

It will of course be proper to begin with repentance, but our repentance will need to be spelled out with deeds and spirit meet for repentance.

The world around us is waiting not only for directives but for the right leadership in our directives. We are today as watchmen on the ramparts of the Kingdom who have no choice but to speak with no uncertain voice.

We do not propose to begin this stupendous undertaking as though in our wisdom and with the power of our right hand we can resolve the impasse before us. It is written, "Except the Lord keep the city, the watchman waketh but in vain." Even so, the world is looking to us with the muted longing of the oppressed and the bewildered and is saying, "Watchman, what of the night?"

And we must make answer. We must not shadowbox with this Apollyn of our age, this monster of racialism. We must grapple valiantly and now, but under God's guidance, with this power of darkness in whatever place it lurks. We must affirm here our unswerving loyalty to that truth in Christ which makes us free, beginning in our schools of learning, our Church Agencies and institutions, our churches, and our hearts.

In affirming this allegiance we need to rise therefore above the mandates of our Courts to a higher perspective and see that we stand as a Church under the sovereign judgments of Almighty God. It is He who has made us Brothers, and it is He who would set us in right relationship in His good time with each other and with Himself.

It is not only the eyes of The Methodist Church, but the eyes of 20 centuries that look down upon us at this moment wondering wistfully whether we possess the love and grace to fulfill our Christian destiny as we ought, or whether we shall totter under the irrevocable judgment, "Mene, Mene, tekel, upharsin: Thou art weighed in the balance, and found wanting." God forbid! Who knows but what this General Conference has come to the Kingdom for just a time as this?

I move, Mr. Chairman, the adoption of this amendment.

Against Amendment—Charles C. Parlin ()*

Charles C. Parlin (*) (Newark—NE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on the State of the Church, replied as follows:—

The Committee finds nothing here inconsistent with its statement. In fact, it feels that it is already covered, and that additional verbiage which is repetitious in form weakens rather than strengthens the statement. We therefore are not in a position to accept.

Amendment—John W. McKelvey—Not Adopted

The proposed amendment of John W. McKelvey (Philadelphia—NE) on being put to the vote of The General Conference was not adopted.

Question—Thomas O. Prewitt

Thomas O. Prewitt (Mississippi—SE) asked the following question:—

Mr. Chairman, Mr. Parlin, Members of The Conference: I would like to inquire of the Chairman of this Committee if, when this Report is adopted, it will be mandatory on all ministers to observe the principles here involved?

Just one further word before he answers the question. At the beginning of the paragraphs numbered 1, 2, 3, and so on, it says, "In this spirit we recommend . . ." The Committee seems to be recommending to this Conference. If this Report is adopted will it be just recommended to the ministers of the Church and others, or will it become a mandatory thing? I think The Conference ought to know that before we vote.

Reply—Charles C. Parlin ()*

Charles C. Parlin (*) (Newark—NE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on the State of the Church, replied, as follows:—

Being a lawyer I struggled with the word "mandatory."

Further Question—Thomas O. Prewitt

Thomas O. Prewitt (Mississippi—SE) asked a further question, as follows:—

"Will it be a requirement?"

Reply—Charles C. Parlin ()*

Charles C. Parlin (*) (Newark—NE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on the State of the Church, replied as follows:—

No. I would say, speaking now as a lawyer, that a recommendation of this General Conference is what it means. We are not a military Church. We cannot order our members. The order is the "Discipline," under which our preachers serve. This comes to them as a recommendation of this body, and their conscience and the "Discipline" must be their mandatory guides.

Question—Bishop Fred P. Corson

Bishop Fred Pierce Corson, the Presiding Officer, asked the following question:—

"Is the question answered, Dr. Prewitt?"

Reply—Thomas O. Prewitt

Thomas O. Perwitt (Mississippi—SE) replied, as follows:—

My reasons for asking this question are that I think this does come in the realm of conscience. In that realm nobody has any power over anybody else's conscience. If that is the intent of this Report, then I think that would cast a new light on it, for me. But if it is not, I would have to vote against the Report.

Previous Question Ordered On Entire Report—Henry M. Cox (*) Ordered

Henry Miot Cox (*) (Nebraska—SC) moved the Previous Question on the entire Report. The motion for the Previous Question, being duly seconded, prevailed, by more than the required two-thirds majority vote of The General Conference, and the Previous Question was ordered.

Charles C. Parlin (*) Closes Debate—Report Adopted

Charles C. Parlin (*) (Newark—NE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on the State of the Church, in closing the debate for Standing Committee, stated that the Report has been before The General Conference for two days, and must be understood, and that he commended it to The General Conference for their action.

Report No. 1 of the Standing Legislative Committee on the State of the Church, Subject, "The Methodist Church and Race," DCA No. 5, page 198, columns 2 and 3 was adopted, as amended. For Report see page 1692.

Report In Discipline of 1956—Charles C. Parlin ()*

Motion of Charles C. Parlin (*) (Newark—NE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on the State of the Church, duly seconded, prevailed, directing that Report No. 1 of the Committee be printed in the 1956 Discipline of The Methodist Church.

No. 1 Sifting Committee Resolution—Bruce L. Middaugh—Adopted

Bruce L. Middaugh (Erie—NE), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Sifting Committee, presented the following Resolution (DB-60), with the request that, if seconded, Gaither P. Warfield (Virginia—SE) be permitted to speak to the same for three minutes:—

Whereas, The Methodist Church has always been sensitive to humanitarian need and suffering; and

Whereas, Methodists have a Denominational responsibility in the plight of thousands of Chinese refugees who have fled in recent years their homeland; and

Whereas, the Refugee Relief Act of 1953 in its present form has not brought adequate relief to this particular group;

Therefore Be It Resolved, That The General Conference of The Methodist Church assembled at Minneapolis, Minnesota, respectfully requests the Congress of the United States at its present session to revise the above-mentioned legislation so as to make available at least 5000 additional United States visas under the Refugee Relief Act of 1953 for Chinese refugees residing in Hong Kong and other consular areas in the Far East.

(Signed) Gaither P. Warfield,
Methodist Committee For Overseas Relief

The Resolution, being duly seconded, Gaither P. Warfield (Virginia—SE), Director Methodist Committee for Overseas Relief, spoke as follows:—

Members of The Conference: The Methodist Committee for Overseas Relief had not planned to bring to this General Conference any statement regarding our Refugee Program. Our Church has responded so magnificently to our appeal that it now looks as if we shall attain our goal of assisting 5000 persons to enter this country.

An emergency, however, has arisen since this General Conference has assembled, which we believe deserves your attention. On Monday of this week the Department of State was forced to refuse any additional assurance for Chinese Refugees.

The present Refugee Relief Act of 1953 permits the granting of 5000 visas to such Refugees, in two categories. The first category of visas of 3000 was cut off early in this year. Four thousand visas under the total of 5000 have already been granted; 12,832 assurances have been sent to the consular offices overseas; 17,796 applicants have applied for migration.

Unless some revision of the present law permitting re-distribution of unused quotas is adopted, thousands of worthy Chinese will be denied a visa.

The Methodist Church has always had a tremendous stake in the thousands of Chinese Refugees who have fled their Communist homeland. They now eke out a precarious existence in Hong Kong, Singapore and other communities of the Far East. Bishop Ralph Ward and other Methodist leaders from this part of the world inform us that a large number of Methodists with sterling qualities are in these groups. They deserve our support.

Tomorrow the Sub-Committee on Refugees and Escapees of the Judiciary Committee of the United States Senate will meet in hearings to revise the present law. We do not ask for any increase in the number of visas. We simply ask through this Resolution a re-assignment of unused quotas, so that our Chinese brethren will not be forgotten. We believe this Resolution, if accepted by you, will play a determining role in assisting these Chinese. Therefore, we ask your support.

The Resolution, on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was adopted. See Appendix, page 1399.

Order of the Day—Report 1, Conferences—“Constitutional Amendment Providing For Transfer of Churches or Annual Conferences From One Jurisdiction to Another”—C. Cooper Bell—Leonard D. Slutz (*)—Nolan B. Harmon—Lance Webb

(Note:—For No. 2 see page 481.)

The Order of the Day having arrived, consideration of and action on Report No. 1 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, Subject, “Constitutional Amendment Providing for Transfer of Churches or Annual Conferences From One Jurisdiction to Another,” Calendar No. 43, DCA No. 6, page 244, column 2, C. Cooper Bell (Virginia—SE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences presented Report No. 1 to The General Conference, with the following statement:—

Mr. Chairman and Members of The General Conference: I do not think that in all of my life have I stood before this or any other group of human beings with a higher note of thanksgiving to God than is in my heart at this moment.

Just this morning your Committee on Conferences met for an hour. God has been with us. God has worked a miracle. In The Conference as I stand before you today there is no North, there is no South, there is no East, there is no West, there is no Northeast, Central or anything else. We have stood there united as the servants of Almighty God.

I sincerely say to you that if you will pass these suggestions from this Committee as we have done, and in the spirit in which we have done, we shall go away from here a united Methodist Church, stronger than ever before.

In that Committee for now the better part of a week, every phase of this proposition has been before us. Hour after hour has been spent in discussing it. And I want to say to you that if that Committee could but be the symbol of The Methodist Church, we stand upon a rock, that no power on earth can cause a schism in our Church. We are here the children of Almighty God.

I want to say that it is the general feeling of this Committee that the positions to which we have arrived we are accrediting to the presence of the Holy Spirit. We have not done it. We have prayed for an understanding of the mind of God, and we believe God has revealed that mind.

I ask you today to consider these Reports in the same spirit that we are presenting them to you, united in a marvelous way.

Before the Chairman of the Sub-Committees reads one or two items to you, let me call your attention to this: On these Amendments that are before you, printed in the Advocate, you will see that there the vote was unanimous. There is another Amendment that will be proposed this morning. It was unanimous with only one refraining vote.

You will notice in that second Report on the Commission that we are suggesting to you and recommending that you establish, the vote there was 68 in the affirmative, only 8 in the negative and only 2 not voting.

We stand together as the servants of The Methodist Church, with the nail-pierced hands of the Son of God, and my prediction is that when you have voted the Reports we shall all encircle the Cross of Christ as a band of Brothers and Sisters and go out as a united Methodist Church to win the world for Jesus Christ. I feel that that is our spirit.

I am very happy to present to you at this moment Leonard D. Slutz (*) (Ohio—NC), who is a member of our Committee and the Chairman of a Sub-Committee, who will present these Constitutional Amendments. After he has read them to you, I should like for you to hear from him, from Nolan B. Harmon (Virginia—SE), and then from Lance Webb (Ohio—NC) of the Ohio Conference.

I am happy, sir, to present to you Mr. Slutz, the Chairman of the Sub-Committee that dealt with the Constitutional Amendments.

Rules Suspended—Leonard D. Slutz (*)—Adopted

Leonard D. Slutz (*) (Ohio—NC) moved a suspension of the Rules of Order to provide for the addition of three amendments prepared by the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, and to be added at this time to the printed Report No. 1 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, Subject, "Constitutional Amendment Providing for Transfer of Churches or Annual Conferences From One Jurisdiction to Another," Calendar No. 43, DCA No. 6, page 244, column 2.

The motion to suspend the Rules of Order, being duly seconded, was adopted by The General Conference by more than the required two-thirds majority vote.

Amendments—Leonard D. Slutz (*) Presented

Leonard D. Slutz (*) (Ohio—NC) read Report No. 1 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, Subject, "Constitutional Amendment Providing for Transfer of Churches or Annual Conferences From One Jurisdiction to Another," Calendar No. 43, DCA No. 6, page 244, column 2, and presented the following three amendments, the previous suspension of the Rules of Order permitting their presentation at this time, namely:—

First—Section "b," paragraphs 2 and 3:—Delete the word "those" found in line 3 of said paragraphs 2 and 3, and substituting therefor the words, "Annual Conference members," so that the amended first sentence of paragraphs 2 and 3 will read,

"2. The remainder of the Jurisdiction from which transfer is to be made, by a two-thirds majority of the total Annual Conference Members present and voting."

"3. The Jurisdiction to which transfer is to be made, by a two-thirds majority of Annual Conference members present and voting."

Second—Add to Report No. 1 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, the following paragraph:—

"Whenever 25 per cent of the membership of the Central Jurisdiction have been transferred by this process to another Jurisdiction or Jurisdictions, the Bishop of the Area from which the largest number have been transferred shall be transferred to the Jurisdiction which has received the largest number by such transfer, and the representation of the Central Jurisdiction on the Boards and Agencies of the Church shall thereafter be proportionately reduced."

Before presenting the third Constitutional Amendment to be added to Report No. 1 of the Standing Committee on Conferences, Subject, "Constitutional Amendment Providing for Transfer of Churches or Annual Conferences From One Jurisdiction to Another," Calendar No. 43, DCA No. 6, page 244, column 2, Leonard D. Slutz (*) (Ohio—NC), made the following statement:—

Now I trust that you understand what is before us. May I say as briefly as I can what we have endeavored to do by this proposed Amendment is to make possible what every member of our Committee earnestly and sincerely desired. That is to make possible the voluntary integration of our Church on all levels. We are often branded, erroneously, as a segregated Church. We are not a segregated Church. The governing body of our Church is certainly integrated. The most important part of our Church, the Local Church and its membership, has no legal restriction whatsoever on membership by any person who wants to serve the Lord God and Jesus Christ.

Now we have had two structural stages where some of our critics have claimed that we were segregated. Relatively unimportant as they are, they have become symbols. This proposal makes possible the transfer of any Local Church, when it desires to transfer, to another Annual Conference that is willing to accept it. Nobody is compelled or forced to transfer, but he has the right to do so, and that is all that we as a General Conference enacting the laws of the Church can possibly do, is to provide legally the right to transfer where it is desired.

Then, second, we propose that on the Jurisdictional level it is possible for Annual Conferences to transfer from one Jurisdiction to another so that where there is that willingness the door is open.

We have debated this at great length, we have reached a unanimous Report recommending the adoption of this Resolution, and I move its concurrence by this General Conference. It requires a two-thirds vote.

Information Requested—Bishop Fred P. Corson

Bishop Fred Pierce Corson, the Presiding Officer, requested information from Leonard D. Slutz (*) (Ohio—NC), as follows:—

May I ask for the information of the Chair is this request on the entire Report or just this section of the Report? You now, if the Chair understands it, by the vote of the body have been permitted to add these proposed Constitutional Changes to Report No. 1, which is found on page 244 DCA, in order that they may become a part of the entire Report and therefore open for any discussion which may be desired. If that is the correct situation, then this is a part of the entire Report.

Information Given—Leonard D. Slutz ()*

Leonard D. Slutz (*) (Ohio—NC) gave the information, as follows:—

Mr. Chairman, it was my thought that perhaps we should adopt this Amendment first and then the other, but perhaps it would be well if we at least had both of them before us and then we could adopt them separately. The addition to our Report is at the top of the mimeographed sheet and is another proposed Constitutional Amendment. I will present it and then both will be before the body. It would be my thought that we would adopt them separately, but at least they will both be before you for your action.

Procedure In Hands of Conference—Bishop Fred P. Corson

Bishop Fred Pierce Corson, the Presiding Officer, made the following statement:—

If the Chair may say so, the procedure of adoption is then in the hands of this body. I am simply trying to get this matter before you in a parliamentary correct position.

Third Amendment—Leonard D. Slutz ()*

Leonard D. Slutz (*) (Ohio—NC) then presented Constitutional Amendment (c) to become a part of Report No. 1 Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, Subject, "Constitutional Amendment Providing for Transfer of Churches or Annual Conferences From One Jurisdiction to Another," Calendar No. 43, DCA No. 6, page 244, column 2, and which reads as follows:—

(c) Article I of Division Two, Section VIII of the Constitution of The Methodist Church shall be amended by adding at the end thereof a new Paragraph as follows:—

Abolition of the Central Jurisdiction

The Central Jurisdiction shall be abolished when all of the Annual Conferences now comprising it have transferred to and have been accepted by another Jurisdiction or Jurisdictions in accordance with the voluntary procedure of Article V of this section. Each remaining Bishop of the Central Jurisdiction shall thereupon be transferred to the Jurisdiction to which the majority of the membership of his Area have transferred, and the Central Jurisdiction shall then be dissolved.

so that Report No. 1 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, Calendar No. 43, as amended, will read as follows:—

COMMITTEE ON CONFERENCESReport No. 1

Subject: Constitutional Amendment Providing For Transfer Of Churches Or Annual Conferences From One Jurisdiction To Another.

Adopted April 30, 1956.

Memorial Serial Number, or Numbers, 2495, 2498, 2507, 2508,

2509, 2540, 3048, 3456, 3458, 3486, 3607, 3636.

Total membership of this Committee, 87.

Number present when this Report was acted on, 78.

Number voting for adoption of this Report, 78.

Number voting against the adoption of this Report, 0.

Number not voting, 0.

The Constitution of The Methodist Church shall be amended by adding a new Article to be known as Article V of Division Two, Section VIII and to read as follows:

(a) A Local Church may transfer from one Annual Conference to another in which it is geographically located upon approval by a 2 3 vote of those present and voting in each of the following:

1. The Quarterly Conference of the Local Church.
2. A Church Conference of the Local Church.
3. Each of the two Annual Conferences involved.

The vote shall be certified by the Secretaries of the specified Conferences to the Bishops having supervision of the Annual Conferences involved, and upon their announcement of the required majorities the transfer shall immediately be effective.

(b) An Annual Conference may transfer from one Jurisdiction to another upon approval by:

1. The Annual Conference desiring transfer, by a 2 3 majority of those present and voting. The Secretary of the Conference shall certify the vote to the College of Bishops of the Jurisdiction of which the Conference has been a part.
2. The remainder of the Jurisdiction from which transfer to be made, by a 2/3 majority of the total of ANNUAL CONFERENCE MEMBERS present and voting. The vote shall be taken in the other Annual Conferences of the Jurisdiction and certified by their Secretaries to the College of Bishops which shall determine whether 2/3 of the total vote in the Jurisdiction is favorable.
3. The Jurisdiction to which transfer is to be made, by a 2 3 majority of the total of ANNUAL CONFERENCE MEMBERS present and voting. The vote shall be taken in the various Annual Conferences of the Jurisdiction and certified by their Secretaries to the College of Bishops which shall determine whether 2/3 of the total vote in the Jurisdiction is favorable.

Upon announcement by the two Colleges of Bishops of the required majorities the transfer shall immediately be effective. Transfers under the provisions of this Article shall not be governed or restricted by other provisions of this Constitution relating to changes of boundaries of Conferences.

“Whenever 25 per cent of the membership of the Central Jurisdiction have been transferred by this process to another Jurisdiction or Jurisdictions, the Bishop of the Area from which the largest number have been transferred shall be transferred to the Jurisdiction which has received the largest number by such transfer, and the representation of the Central Jurisdiction on the Boards and Agencies of the Church shall thereafter be proportionately reduced.”

(c) Article I of Division Two, Section VIII of the Constitution of The Methodist Church shall be amended by adding at the end thereof a new Paragraph as follows:—

Abolition of the Central Jurisdiction

The Central Jurisdiction shall be abolished when all of the Annual Conferences now comprising it have been transferred to and have been accepted by another Jurisdiction or Jurisdictions in accordance with the voluntary procedure of Article V of this Section. Each remaining Bishop of the Central Jurisdiction shall thereupon be transferred to the Jurisdiction to which the majority of the membership of his Area have been transferred, and the Central Jurisdiction shall then be dissolved."

C. COOPER BELL, Chairman
JAMES P. BRAWLEY (*), Secretary

Leonard D. Slutz (*) (Ohio—NC) moved the adoption of Report No. 1, as amended, of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences. The motion was duly seconded.

Nolan B. Harmon Speaks to Report

Nolan B. Harmon (Virginia—SE) spoke in favor of the Report as follows:—

Bishop and Brethren: The presentation of this Amendment and its support by the Delegation from the Southeastern Jurisdiction and other places is a proof of that which has been stated time and again regarding the Jurisdictional System of The Methodist Church. That was not formulated, not drawn up with any idea of criticism behind it. It was drawn up to enable minorities to develop themselves, to express their lives better in their particular regions. And it was developed with the thought that there would be better administration in these geographic Jurisdictions than might be possible under a huge monolithic General Conference such as this.

But it was a Southern Plan. It was debated through the years, always with the feeling that at the heart of any possible union between the Methodist Episcopal Church and the Methodist Episcopal Church South there must be this Regional Plan.

There were two Jurisdictions thought of in 1920. There had been four in 1916. There came to be six in 1938. All this, with no idea of criticism, was in the plan in its formulation except those casual arguments and questions which do become involved in all the discussions of American life.

When the Plan had been finally accepted, the 19 Annual Conferences in the Methodist Episcopal Church were thought of. How were they to fit in the geographic plan? Now, they were Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Some of them stretched into the South.

There were two Plans. One was to let each Conference go into its own Region and that is the plan we have right now, if you wish it, or to let the group be allocated as a Jurisdiction to elect their own Bishops, Board Members, have their own representation, and that latter plan seemed best.

Then there began the storm against the idea of a Central Jurisdiction which has come to a fierce focus in this General Conference.

It has always been said that whatever the Brethren of this Central Jurisdiction want to do, whatever the Church might want to do, ought to be arranged, and so there are those of us who are this morning presenting this Amendment which, if voted upon by two thirds of

The General Conference, then goes to the Annual Conferences as being supported, enabling whatever churches and congregations wish to join, to join.

Although I think we can all support it, wherever a people, wherever a group of congregations or Conferences wish to be united, no one can gainsay that in any degree; and wherever congregations do not wish to be united—or Conferences—no hope can come from any pressure to make that come about; and so we feel giving this leeway we may find a consummation which will be something to put the Church upon a more even keel, certainly stop all the criticism of those who say you are pressing off one group in one particular place.

Now, your Annual Conferences are basic bodies, and these Annual Conferences of the Central Jurisdiction have had a noble record and they have given magnificent leadership, and they are men we have been proud to march with in all the churches and all the Committees and activities, and we still shall do so. They do what they think to be right. The Conferences joining them will do what they think to be right, always with the feeling that whatever is for the building of God's Kingdom, that it must and can be done.

And so we do commend to you this Amendment. It is not easy to get an Amendment through a General Conference. It will not be easy to get it through 141 Annual Conferences.

In every Annual Conference there are men who ask questions and make speeches and who will want to know this and want to know that, even as we will, but at least we do hope that we can all together work forward to this end.

And if you appoint a Study Commission it will watch with interest how this Amendment is progressing, will reflect from the various Conferences and from the different Jurisdictions what they feel and it may be that this very Jurisdictional pattern may be improved, for I wish to say to you now that the Jurisdictional Structure, the geographic, will not be changed, I do not believe, in this Methodism of ours. And indeed, Dr. John McKay, one of the great leaders of the Protestant world, once said to me that he believed that the coming world Church would have to be put together upon something like Methodism's regional plan.

We have done wonderful things, Brethren, in these seventeen years. There have been tensions, and those tensions, because The Methodist Church more than any other Church is widely distributed over America and reflects the heart of America in its every pulse beat.

The great Methodist faults that we have then are the great American faults and the great Methodist virtues—and thank God we have them, too—are the great American virtues, a part of this country, reflects its ties and now in this crucial time let's be together as Methodists and do what we can to help each other, and where we can shake hands and be in fellowship, let's do that looking forward to increasing His Kingdom and through our help build a better Christian world.

Speaks to Report—Lance Webb

Lance Webb (Ohio—NC) spoke in favor of Report as follows:—

Mr. Chairman and Members of The General Conference: It is my privilege to say a word concerning the spirit with which these Amendments to the Constitution were adopted by our Committee and are presented by us for adoption, for recommendation to the Annual Conferences.

We feel that we always need to distinguish clearly the difference between principles of spirit and methods of carrying these principles into action.

As Methodist Christians, we do believe in Christian Brotherhood, that all of us, whatever color, or nation, are God's children, but how shall we work and live together in this great family of God?

Well, obviously, there are differences in ideas and customs even within our great Church, and our ideas and customs must continually be brought into the searching scrutiny of the spirit of Christ.

For me to say my method is the only way is to make an idol out of a method and thereby to shut out the spirit of Christ-like love. It is for this great reason that many of us believe that the three Amendments to our Constitution will help us to live and work together in the spirit of love without condemning or castigating each other, each other's methods especially.

These Amendments take out the rigid structure and substitute a permissive structure, so that there will neither be forced segregation as in the past, nor forced integration as there would be if we were right now to abolish the Central Jurisdiction.

Neither forced integration nor forced segregation are in harmony with the spirit of Christ, which does not depend upon force but on love.

We have always had some voluntary segregation. Groups with natural interests and common backgrounds voluntarily segregate themselves at least in some of their actions. For instance, some of the largest colored churches in America today are not forced but voluntary, and are in all sections of the land.

Now, here is what these three Amendments imply as I understand them.

If all or any of the churches and Annual Conferences of the Central Jurisdiction desire to continue they may do so just as they are. If Local Churches desire to be transferred to another Annual Conference the way is open.

In Ohio we are ready and have been ready to welcome the churches of the Lexington Conference, but we are not going to abolish the Lexington Conference by fiat and by force, make them join us. The same will be true of the Jurisdictional System. If enough of the Conferences of the Central Jurisdiction desire to continue in the Central Jurisdiction the way is open. They may do so. No stigma will be attached either way.

But in the other Jurisdictions, we who are in the other Jurisdictions, do not desire to force them to join us. The emphasis, therefore, here—and this is the point that we wish to keep before us as we try to carry this back to our home churches and home Conferences—the emphasis here is a voluntary method on the spirit of positive, affirmative love, that each other do what we believe best, but does not attempt to force any one.

And it is in this spirit that we as your Committee on Conferences unanimously recommend this second Amendment. And I really believe that if we had been able to see the implications of it, we would unanimously have supported these Amendments. It is in this spirit, therefore, that we call upon you to join with us in making our Church a church united in the Love of Christ, and in the work of his Kingdom that shall never end.

Thank you.

Questions of Charles A. Stuck ()—Answers Leonard D. Slutz ()

Charles A. Stuck () (North Arkansas—SC) asked some questions for clarification and Leonard D. Slutz () (Ohio—NC) answered them as follows:—

Mr. Chairman, I am only asking for a clarification. In this Report No. 1 there seems to be no time limit involved, and it occurs to me that there might be an obstruction made by delaying action of a Conference or Conferences. I wonder if Dr. Slutz could enlighten me on that, please sir.

Leonard D. Slutz (*) I take it that the point is that an Annual Conference might not vote either way.

Charles C. Stuck (*) That is right.

Leonard D. Slutz (*) That is a possibility. I hadn't thought that an Annual Conference of The Methodist Church would do that, but if someone wanted to suggest an Amendment that the vote shall be taken in the other Annual Conferences at their first session after the adoption of this Amendment, after the matter has been submitted, or something of that sort—

Charles C. Stuck (*) Mr. Chairman, I am not a lawyer nor a preacher. I ask that you, please, sir, have the Sub-Committee Chairman prepare that, if they agree to it.

Leonard D. Slutz (*) I think perhaps we can agree on that in just a moment.

Charles C. Stuck (*) Thank you, sir.

Motion to Defer—C. Anderson Davis—Not Adopted

C. Anderson Davis (East Tennessee—C), moved to defer action on the Amendment, "Abolishing the Central Jurisdiction" until Report No. 2 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, Subject, "Commission to Study and Recommend Action Concerning the Jurisdictional System," Calendar No. 44, DCA No. 6, page 244, column 3 and page 245, column 1, shall have been considered and acted on.

The motion, being duly seconded, C. Anderson Davis (East Tennessee—C) spoke to the same as follows:—

Mr. Chairman, the reason for this Amendment—No. 1, it precedes the study, if the Study Commission is to be adopted by this Conference.

No. 2, if all the Annual Conferences of the Central Jurisdiction should be taken into other Jurisdictions, it would be segregation in just another form, which is, I consider, just as detrimental as the Central Jurisdiction.

No. 3, to take a few Conferences and put them into other Jurisdictions without some definite plans and time limit for the whole Jurisdiction would serve to leave a very weak Jurisdiction in the Church. By that I mean within the next five years, if five Annual Conferences of the Central Jurisdiction were put into other Jurisdictions without a time limit for the others, it would leave a very weak Jurisdiction for a period of years.

I feel that this Amendment should go to the Study Commission for certain plans, and that is why I am asking it be deferred until after we consider the second part of this Report which considers a Study Commission.

Against Deferring Lynn J. Radcliffe—Bishop Fred P. Corson

Lynn J. Radcliffe (Ohio-NC) spoke to the pending motion to defer, as follows:—

I am opposed to the motion to defer. I am opposed to all delaying action. I am opposed to a policy of study and wait. I believe we are ready for action now. I believe that this No. 1 Report is a statesmanlike attempt by Methodism to do something about this situation. I believe it will be a great value to have a Study Commission, that the Study Commission at the end of four years will have the experience of this experiment. But if we wait four years before we do anything, we will not be making progress. I hope this motion to defer will be defeated and that the motion of the Committee will be adopted. I should like to speak, then, Mr. Chairman, a word or two with regard to the main provision.

Question—Bishop Fred P. Corson—Answer Lynn J. Radcliffe

Bishop Fred P. Corson, the Presiding Officer, asked the following question:—

BISHOP CORSON: What is that, Dr. Radcliffe? What question did you ask?

LYNN J. RADCLIFFE: I am speaking, Mr. Chairman, and I am speaking against this motion which is before us which opens up the entire subject. I believe that as we take action and do not support this motion to defer that we shall be doing two things. We shall not only be providing for justice which is the unspoken demand of every heart, but we shall also be speaking for the spirit of love and togetherness. The time has come when we recognize that there is no North or South on this issue.

I regretted yesterday that some words were spoken in the spirit of acrimony. Jesus Christ sought to establish upon the earth a new society, a fellowship. The remnant of Israel spoken of by the Prophet Isaiah, had not succeeded, but the fellowship of Christ shall succeed.

I believe, Mr. Chairman, that if we delay action and merely pass pious platitudes, we shall be in danger of rightful criticism, but if we adopt this Report, take the available next step, start forward to build a Church in which there is no segregation but in which the possibility of voluntary integration is opened up, we shall be doing a statesmanlike and Christian thing.

Parliamentary Situation—Bishop Fred P. Corson

Bishop Fred Pierce Corson, the Presiding Officer, made the following statement:—

Now, let us keep before us the parliamentary situation. It is a motion to defer consideration until you have acted on the Committee Report No. 2. We are under the question of deferring.

For Report—Merrill W. Lindsey

Merrill W. Lindsey (Upper Mississippi—C) spoke in favor of the Report, as follows:—

Mr. Chairman and Members of this General Conference: I am against segregation and everything that it implies, because I believe that it is the most diabolic, satanic, pusillanimous, nefarious thing that ever happened.

Mr. Chairman, we know that these issues shall bring about a disruption in our organization but I believe that we, too, must give and take in these issues as a Jurisdiction. We want to be Christians and citizens. We want no more and don't plan to settle for any less.

I further believe, and it has been stated, that the Central Jurisdiction will give us indigenous leadership, but let us keep in mind the Church was not created to give any group a job, but to bring the Kingdom.

I hate to disagree with my brethren from the Central Jurisdiction relative to the weakening of it or taking from us the strength of the Jurisdiction; but, Brethren, we are not interested in giving any Jurisdiction any strength but in giving the Kingdom strength.

Now, may I say just a word relative to the Jurisdictional System? In the first place, I think that the Jurisdictional System as it is has weaknesses, because it limits the scope of election for the Episcopacy and does not allow the infiltration of new ideas into various Areas of our Church.

Again, I think that with as much at stake as we have today, we are not going to be successful in eating our pie and having it, too. We are going to have to give and take in these issues, and I believe that the Committee has done an excellent job in bringing forward a statesmanlike document that the Church can accept and lift its head with dignity and say that we are working toward perfection. Therefore, Mr. Chairman, I think that the Committee should be commended for the fine work that it has done.

For Deferring—Chester A. Smith ()*

Chester A. Smith (*) (New York-NE) spoke in favor of the motion of C. Anderson Davis (East Tennessee—C) to defer action on Report No. 1 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences until Report No. 2 had been presented, considered and acted on, as follows:—

Mr. Chairman and Members of The Quadrennial Conference: I am for doing anything which will permit you to submit this matter to the Church. I am opposed to the Reports as presented because they take away from the Church the opportunity of speaking on this question. Therefore, I am for deferring, because I want to present a substitute which will permit us to send down to the Church an Amendment to the Constitution which will give the Church an opportunity to speak about this great question. These Reports which have been presented do not give the Church that opportunity.

It was the Church which created the Central Jurisdiction. It was the Church which accepted the principle of segregation. It is, therefore, the Church which should be given the opportunity to speak against segregation and to express its opinion upon segregation, against segregation and in favor of abolishing the Central Jurisdiction and placing the Conferences now within the Central Jurisdiction in the remaining Jurisdictions under the Plan of Union. I, therefore, am in favor of deferring.

For Deferring—Miss Thelma Stevens ()*

Miss Thelma Stevens (*) (Newark—NE) spoke in support of the motion of C. Anderson Davis (East Tennessee—C) to defer action on the pending Amendment until Report No. 2 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences had been considered and acted on, as follows:—

Mr. Chairman, I would like to speak in support of the motion to defer this Amendment. I would like to make two or three statements very briefly.

In the first place, I think this General Conference may not recognize the fact that there are great dangers in adopting an Amendment of this type without adequate study. In the first place, I think we know that there are nineteen Conferences in the Central Jurisdiction. About fourteen of those Conferences are within the bounds of the Southeastern Jurisdiction. When we begin the process of emasculating the Central Jurisdiction, it will go over a long period of years and will be an unfair placing of that Jurisdiction in terms of its total leadership. That is one very important matter that should be considered.

The second thing is I think we recognize this Amendment as another delaying tactic to keep this General Conference from making its clear-cut statement on the fact that The Methodist Church has arrived at that period in its history—

Point of Order—Henry Miot Cox (*)

Henry Miot Cox (*) (Nebraska—SC) raised the following Point of Order:—

"I do not believe that the speaker has the right to the floor. I believe she is not a member of The Conference."

Ruling—Bishop Fred P. Corson

Bishop Fred Pierce Corson, the Presiding Officer, ruled as follows on the Point of Order:—

"I think, though, as one of the Secretaries, she has been seated, and can speak sir."

Point of Order—Henry Miot Cox (*)

Henry Miot Cox (*) (Nebraska—SC) made the further Point of Order that the right to the floor is accorded only to persons where legislation affects that person.

Ruling—Bishop Fred P. Corson

Bishop Fred Pierce Corson, the Presiding Officer, ruled as follows:—

"I think Miss Stevens would say it affected the work of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, which she represents."

Speech Resumed—Miss Thelma Stevens ()*

Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

I simply want to remind The Conference that this is a time in the history of the world when this General Conference must not delay its statement of unequivocal determination to move away from segregation in every form. Any delaying tactics must be avoided.

I am one person in this room who would welcome more than any other person, I think, the need to abolish the Central Jurisdiction. This Amendment will not do the thing that needs to be done by The Methodist Church.

I hope, Mr. Chairman, that this body will not adopt this Amendment but that it will refer to a Commission that will be properly directed and instructed to take steps immediately to do away with any form of segregation in The Methodist Church. Thank you.

Previous Question—Charles W. Woodward (*)—Ordered

Charles W. Woodward (*) (Baltimore—NE) moved the Previous Question on the motion to defer. The motion, duly seconded, prevailed by more than the required two-thirds majority vote, and the Previous Question was ordered.

C. Cooper Bell Closes Debate

C. Cooper Bell (Virginia-SE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, closed the debate on the pending motion to defer, as follows:—

Mr. Chairman and Members of The Conference, I want to say to you that there is nothing said in these statements that was not said time and time again in the Committee on Conferences. We looked at it from every angle. The composite judgment of every person voting in that Committee, which was unanimous, all the Jurisdictions, was that we take them up in the order as suggested to you. We sincerely hope that you will stand with your Committee on that.

Motion to Defer—C. Anderson Davis—Not Adopted

The motion of C. Anderson Davis (East Tennessee—C) to defer action on the Amendment "Abolishing The Central Jurisdiction" until Report No. 2 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences had been considered and acted upon, on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.

Recess

The time for the Recess period having arrived, The General Conference recessed for ten minutes.

Reconvene—Bishop Fred P. Corson—James R. Houghton (*)

Bishop Fred P. Corson, the Presiding Officer, called The General Conference to order at the end of the Recess period, and announced Hymn No. 364, "More Love To Thee, O Christ."

Under the direction James R. Houghton (*) (New England—NE), General Conference Director of Music, The General Conference joined in the singing of the Hymn.

Presented—Bishop J. W. E. Bowen—Bishop Fred P. Corson

Bishop Fred Pierce Corson, the Presiding Officer, presented Bishop John W. E. Bowen, of the Atlantic Coast Area, Central Jurisdiction, for a privileged matter.

Presented—Choir Claflin College—Hubert V. Manning—John H. Chadwell (*)

Bishop John W. E. Bowen presented the Choir of Claflin College of Orangeburg, South Carolina; the newly elected President of the same, Hubert V. Manning (South Carolina—C); and the Director of the Choir, John H. Chadwell (*) to The General Conference.

Presented—James R. Houghton ()*

James R. Houghton () (New England—NE), General Conference Director of Music, presented John H. Chadwell (), Director, and the Choir of Claflin College, to The General Conference, for their musical program.

Claflin Choir Sings—John H. Chadwell ()*

The Choir of Claflin College, Orangeburg, South Carolina, under the direction of John H. Chadwell (*) rendered the following program of three spirituals:—

"Yonder Come Day" by Frederick Hall (*)

"Religion Is A Fortune" by Noble Kane (*)

"Medley of Spirituals" by John H. Chadwell (*)

Thanks—Bishop Fred P. Corson

Bishop Fred Pierce Corson, the Presiding Officer, expressed the thanks of The General Conference to Director John H. Chadwell (*) and the Claflin College Choir for their inspiring music so ably rendered.

Parliamentary Situation—Report No. 1 Conferences—Bishop Fred P. Corson

Bishop Fred Pierce Corson, the Presiding Officer, made the following statement:—

May the Chair remind The Conference of the parliamentary situation. You are under the consideration of the entire Report, Report 1, of the Committee on Conferences.

For Report—Thurman L. Dodson ()*

Thurman L. Dodson (*) (Washington—C) spoke in favor of the adoption of the pending Report, as follows:—

Mr. Chairman, I want to speak in favor of this motion that is now before us, on the adoption of these Constitutional Amendments. I want to say that we appreciate all of the shortcomings of this Resolution, as far as it goes. We are not being fooled at all by it. We realize that this Amendment does not abolish segregation in The Methodist Church. But it does move in a direction toward which this great Church of ours ought to move.

Those of us in the Central Jurisdiction realize that when we take great steps like this, there are some temporary setbacks. But those of us also know that we ought to be willing and certainly we are ready to take our chances on the floor in these other Jurisdictions on the basis of worth and merit.

We believe that these Amendments do go a long way in eradicating from our Constitutional setup a rigidity which ought not to be there; that it does provide a fluidity which ought to be in a great Church which is as complex and heterogeneous as this Church is.

Those of us who have stood for integration in the school system know that in great places like New York, where integration has been the watchword for years, there is segregation in great centers like Harlem. And of course no amount of integration is going to obviate that sort of situation.

But we come to this situation where it is imperative in these times that this great Church should take some move in a direction toward integration. We regard this as a move in the right direction.

Further than that, the psychological impact of this movement on the part of this great Church will have a great influence upon a certain part of our country, where they are seeking and striving for leadership. I do not take the position that some of our friends do, and that some of the religious and political leaders of the South take. I believe there is a great majority in the Southland who are striving hard to find the right way, and they need an authoritative voice from a great Church like this to help them point the way.

I believe that this Amendment furnishes that vehicle with all of its limitations, with all of its shortcomings. I am hoping, therefore, that those of us who have had some misgivings about how it will affect the Central Jurisdiction will realize that the Central Jurisdiction is not asleep, that we know all the pitfalls that might lie inherent in it. But we are for it because we believe that it is a step forward under God.

I am hoping that this Conference will give the majority that it needs, and that under the impact of the publicity that will go out from this Conference, the world will know that The Methodist Church, the great Methodist Church, is on its way toward an integrated society.

We cannot expect these things overnight. I do not speak for gradualism, but I do know that the tenets of that great hymn are true. Cardinal Newman said in his great hymn, "I do not ask to see the distant scene. One step is enough for me."

We are asking now that under God we take this one step.

For Report No. 1—Robert S. Mosby

Robert S. Mosby (West Texas—C) spoke in favor of the adoption of Report No. 1 of the Standing Committee on Conferences, as follows:—

Bishop and Brethren, may I congratulate the Committee on seeing, because there is something in the Book which says a lot of folks have eyes and cannot see. May I congratulate us on having ears, so that we might be able to appreciate what the Committee has seen and what they have said for us.

I congratulate also The General Conference, my General Conference and yours, for the compliment that it is being accepted, in realizing that yesterday has no right to stand in the way of tomorrow.

We appreciate greatly the fact that we are on our way. And I speak with Brother Dodson when I say I see tomorrow unfolding before us, with that new sort of sentiment and understanding and feeling that will help us to walk together and not be afraid as we walk.

Too many times we have found that geographically we do not belong to The Methodist Church; we belong to a segment. But today we feel that we belong to the Church. God bless the Church for giving us this chance to feel again that Methodism is worthy of a growing positivism which belongs to the Negro, who belongs to the Church. We are part of the Church. We believe that we have something to do in the Church; not Central Jurisdiction, but Church. We believe that we belong in the Church.

Fifty years ago as a boy I joined the Church. Thirty-seven years I have been preaching in the Church. All up and down this country I have been going forward for Methodism, my Church, and today I am proud of my Church. God bless my Church!

May I ask you in the name of the Man who walks across the Calvaries of the world, even now, in the frontiers and valleys and forests and plains, that the preacher this morning told us about, in His Name, to follow in your vote on these Amendments to the Constitution, or these Constitutional additions, or these Constitutional changes—I don't care what you call them, but I ask you to vote for them.

Amendment—Delete Accepted Amendment—Merrill C. Johnson—Not Adopted

Merrill C Johnson (New York—NE) moved to amend the Report by deleting the additional Paragraph, accepted by common consent this morning, and which reads as follows:—

“Whenever 25 per cent of the membership of the Central Jurisdiction have been transferred by this process to another Jurisdiction or Jurisdictions, the Bishop of the Area from which the largest number have been transferred shall be transferred to the Jurisdiction which has received the largest number by such transfer, and the representation of the Central Jurisdiction on the Boards and Agencies of the Church shall thereafter be proportionately reduced.”

The motion to thus amend, being duly seconded, Merrill C. Johnson (New York—NE) spoke to the same, as follows:—

I have the feeling that this is a rider to the proposed Amendment of the Constitution, which we have had before us for study, and which I desire wholeheartedly to support. But if this is presented as part of the proposed Amendment and fails of the necessary number of approvals by Annual Conference, we shall have defeated the possibility of speeding the process by which a local church or an Annual Conference can be integrated into the Church.

I should like the Committee to have the opportunity at another time to propose this as another Amendment, which can be accepted or rejected by the Conferences.

Against Deletion—D. Trigg James, Sr.

G. Trigg James, Sr. (Holston—SE) spoke against the motion to amend by deletion, as follows:—

Mr. Chairman, I am speaking against the motion to amend by deleting this portion of the Report, accepted and placed in it this morning. I presume that The Conference is aware of the fact that certain yieldings have been necessary in order to come by an Amendment that has a chance of passing by a two-thirds majority in the various sections of the Church.

This Amendment has been placed here to spell out simply and practically what obviously could take place within the Quadrennium that is before us. Obviously the members of the Central Jurisdiction do not want a type of discrimination in reverse, and this Amendment purely provides that as the membership of the Central Jurisdiction is transferred to other Jurisdictions, they then shall have recognition for appointment and election to the various Boards and offices of the Church upon the basis of merit and not upon the basis of race.

Therefore the remaining members of the Central Jurisdiction in that Jurisdiction, following any transfers, would certainly want not to have representation in excess of the proportion which is now provided in the Constitution of the Church.

I hope, therefore, because of the fact of the implications throughout the entire Church, that this move to amend this Report will lose.

Motion to Delete—Merrill C. Johnson—Not Adopted

The motion of Merrill C. Johnson (New York—NE) to amend the Report by deletion, on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.

Clarifying Question—Allen B. Rice—Answers—Leonard D. Slutz ()*

Allen B. Rice (Northwest Indiana—NC) requested information for The General Conference, as follows:—

Mr. Chairman, I simply want to ask a question from the clarification standpoint. It seems to me this Paragraph needs to be more specifically spelled out, and I wanted to ask, I think Mr. Slutz, about such statements as "25 per cent of the membership," and "the largest number," and so forth. It seems to me those ought to be spelled out in terms of the Clergy and Lay Membership of The Conference, or some specific way that that is handled.

I also want to say I was in some doubt about the last portion of it, where it says that their representation shall be proportionately reduced. It seems to me if they were to be proportionately reduced it should be added somewhere. But they seem to think they are going to take their chance on that basis. However, I would like to ask regarding those matters of ambiguity.

Answers—Leonard D. Slutz ()*

Leonard D. Slutz (*) (Ohio—NC) gave the information requested, as follows:—

Mr. Chairman, the Committee was already prepared to suggest two editorial changes. One is the one you were talking about. We did not feel it was necessary, but so that it would be absolutely clear and so there would be no misunderstanding we suggest this editorial change on the mimeographed sheet, the lower portion of it, below the line, "Whenever 25 per cent of," insert the words "LOCAL CHURCH," so that it will read, "Whenever 25 per cent of the LOCAL CHURCH membership of the Central Jurisdiction . . ."

so that the amended paragraph will read as follows:—

"Whenever 25 per cent of the LOCAL CHURCH membership of the Central Jurisdiction have been transferred by this process to another Jurisdiction or Jurisdictions, the Bishop of the Area from which the largest number have been transferred shall be transferred to the Jurisdiction which has received the largest number by such transfer, and the representation of the Central Jurisdiction on the Boards and Agencies of the Church shall thereafter be proportionally reduced."

Amendment By Common Consent—Leonard D. Slutz ()*

Leonard D. Slutz (*) (Ohio—NC) asked common consent for the insertion of the following paragraph (DB-61):—

"The vote on approval of transfer, under either Sub-paragraph (a) or (b), and of the Abolition of the Central Jurisdiction under Sub-paragraph (c), shall be taken by each Annual Conference at its first session after the matter is submitted to it."

said insertion to immediately precede the last paragraph of Report No. 1 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, Subject, "Constitutional Amendment Providing For Transfer Of Churches Or Annual Conferences From One Jurisdiction To Another," Calendar No. 43, DCA No. 6, page 244, column 2, said last paragraph of the printed Report beginning with the words,

"Upon announcement by the two Colleges of Bishops . . ."

Changes Made By Common Consent

No objection being raised by any member of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, or of any member of The General Conference, the above two suggested changes proposed by Leonard D. Slutz (*) (Ohio—NC) were incorporated into Report No. 1 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences.

Further Explanation—Leonard D. Slutz () (Ohio—NC)*

Leonard D. Slutz (*) (Ohio—NC) made further explanations, as follows:—

I want to answer the question the brother asked, if I may. He asked about the matter of proportionate reduction. We felt it was impossible for us to predict exactly the course that our Church is going to follow in this matter. The brother from the Central Jurisdiction said that they were not too concerned, that if there might be some under-representation for a year or two or three until the next General Conference, that was an unimportant matter to them.

There are many, many details of this process that we are going to have to work with in the future. That is one of the things that the Study Commission that is proposed in our next Report will deal with but we feel that the important thing is to adopt this fundamental step, and then, more important than that, is what you and I and every other Methodist will do after we go home.

Substitute Proposed—Chester A. Smith ()—Not Adopted*

Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) moved as a substitute for Report No. 1 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, Subject, "Constitutional Amendment Providing For Transfer Of Churches Or Annual Conferences From One Jurisdiction To Another," Calendar No. 43, DCA No. 4, page 244, column 2, and also for Report No. 2 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, Subject, "Commission To Study And Recommend Action Concerning The Jurisdictional System," Calendar No. 44, DCA No. 6, page 244, column 3, and page 245, column 1, the following (DB-62) :—

"Be It Resolved, That we submit to the Annual Conferences of the Church, an Amendment to the Constitution, which if adopted would abolish the Central Jurisdiction, and place the Annual Conferences in that Jurisdiction in such remaining Jurisdictions as will be agreeable to those Jurisdictions and to the Annual Conferences of the former Central Jurisdiction."

The motion to substitute, being duly seconded, Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) spoke as follows:—

Mr. Chairman and Members of The General Conference: We have now reached a point when we are proposing to do something which will not abolish segregation in The Methodist Church, as one of the speakers has very frankly and fairly admitted. This will in a sense salve our consciences and permit us to go back to the Jurisdictions of the Church and say that we have done a great thing.

In my opinion we will not have done a great thing so far as abolishing segregation in the Church because we will not have given the Church itself, which created segregation, an opportunity to speak and to adopt an Amendment which if ratified would abolish the Central Jurisdiction and then would provide for the transferring of the Annual Conferences in that Jurisdiction to the remaining Jurisdictions.

I think we ought to face this question fairly and frankly. I am not interested in speaking here to please any particular section of the Church. I realize the men who have framed these Reports have great astuteness and great ability to do a thing which will seem to abolish segregation in the Church but which will not actually do it. The only body which can abolish segregation in The Methodist Church is the Church itself through the Annual Conferences adopting and confirming an Amendment to the Constitution.

I want us to send down that Amendment to the Constitution to the Annual Conferences in order to give them a chance to speak. I have already from this platform stated my reasons for doing that. I would not be able to go away from this Conference with a clear conscience unless I presented definitely to The General Conference this proposition which will give you a chance to speak on the proposition which I present.

If you vote my proposition down you prevent the Church from voting upon this question. If you vote for my substitute you may offend certain members of certain Jurisdictions but you will, in my opinion, have done your duty to the Church as a whole, and it is of the Church as a whole I am thinking and it is for the Church as a whole I am pleading. It should not be disfranchised. I want us to take such action that henceforth the words "Christian" and "Methodism" will be synonymous.

Parliamentary Situation—Bishop Fred P. Corson

Bishop Fred Pierce Corson, the Presiding Officer, made the following statement:—

Now let the Chair state the parliamentary situation. This is a Substitute for the entire Report. According to your Rule, it will be necessary for you to perfect the main Report before you can consider the Substitute. Therefore, we are not on the Substitute now but we are on the process of perfecting the main Report.

Information Requested—William B. Robinson—Answers—Leonard D. Slutz ()*

William B. Robinson (North-East Ohio—NC) raised the following questions, which were answered by Leonard D. Slutz (*) (Ohio—NC):—

Some of us are not perfectly clear concerning the mimeographed sheet, the additional Paragraph of Report No. 1. It seems to us as it was explained by Mr. Slutz a bit ago that whenever 25% of the Local Church membership of the Central Jurisdiction has been transferred it would mean that churches numbering 90,000 members, if I am correct in my mathematics.

Now we are not clear as to the implication there. I wonder if we could have a bit more explanation. If there are 360,000 members in the Central Jurisdiction, then the transfer would occur after 90,000 members have been transferred. Is that what you want?

Answer—Leonard D. Slutz () :*

If the figure of 360,000 is correct your mathematics is perfect.

Question—William B. Robinson :

Thank you. Well, it seems to us that it ought to be changed so that it would be when 25% of the Conferences involved rather than 25% of the membership of the church.

Answer—Leonard D. Slutz () :*

No. It was definitely our motion that it be 25% of the Local Church membership, of the people that might come from a Conference here and a Conference there, but I think if you read it through it can be followed.

Question—William B. Robinson :

May I ask a further question? Might it not leave a large number of churches with a very few Bishops supervising them if large Churches were to go and small churches were to remain?

Answer—Leonard D. Slutz () :*

It would certainly necessitate some readjustment of Areas, perhaps Conferences and Districts, and we recognize that there are many problems that might have to be faced. That is one reason the Study Commission is recommended so it can study those problems and work out the best possible way of handling it.

Statement—Bishop Fred P. Corson

Bishop Fred Pierce Corson, the Presiding Officer, stated that we are now on the main motion.

*Further Information Requested—Phillip C. Edwards—
Leonard D. Slutz ()

Philip C. Edwards (Baltimore—NE) raised a question which was answered by Leonard D. Slutz (*) (Ohio—NC), as follows:—

Mr. Chairman, I am asking a question of Mr. Slutz, a point of clarification in regard to the addition given just a few moments ago which pertains to the time at which an Annual Conference would be asked to vote on these Amendments. I believe his statement said the Annual Conference would vote at its first session after the Amendments were submitted.

I believe the procedure for amending the Constitution indicates if this Amendment is voted by this General Conference The Council of Bishops shall certify that the vote has been properly taken. Are we to understand that as soon as that certification has been made these Amendments will then be before the Annual Conferences? If that is the case, it may mean that The Council of Bishops would take such action and give such certification at this session, and then Annual Conferences convening, some of them within two or three weeks upon adjournment of this General Conference, would be expected to vote on these Amendments. Is that what this addition calls for?

Leonard D. Slutz (*) No, sir, it is not. This addition has nothing to do with the ratification of the Constitutional Amendment, which proceeds in the usual way. The proposal as I read it was this: the vote on approval of transfer under either Sub-paragraph (a) or (b), that is not the vote on the Constitutional Amendment. That is the vote on approval of transfer, either of a Local Church or of an Annual Conference, shall be taken by each Annual Conference at its first session after the matter is submitted to it. Of course you have an additional safeguard there, after the matter has been submitted to it, so I think it is pretty clear.

Amendment—Olin Y. Shute—Accepted—C. Cooper Bell

Olin Y. Shute (Newark—NE) moved to amend the Constitutional Amendment relating to the Abolition of the Central Jurisdiction by deleting the words "and have been accepted by another Jurisdiction or," and substituting therefor the word, "OTHER." so that the amended Paragraph will read as follows (DB-63):—

Abolition Of The Central Jurisdiction

The Central Jurisdiction shall be abolished when all of the Annual Conferences now comprising it have transferred to OTHER Jurisdictions in accordance with the voluntary procedure of Article V of this Section. Each remaining Bishop of the Central Jurisdiction shall thereupon be transferred to the Jurisdiction to which the majority of the membership of his Area have transferred, and the Central Jurisdiction shall then be dissolved.

The proposed amendment of Olin Y. Shute (Newark—NE) was accepted by C. Cooper Bell (Virginia—SE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, for the Committee, no objection being raised by any member of the Committee, or by any member of The General Conference.

Previous Question—Lynn J. Radcliffe—Ordered

Motion of Lynn J. Radcliffe (Ohio—NC), duly seconded, prevailed by more than the required two-thirds majority vote, ordering the Previous Questions on all that is before The General Conference.

Statement—Bishop Fred P. Corson

Now we will have to permit the Substitute to be perfected and then voted on, then vote on the Previous Question on the main motion at which time we will give the Chairman his opportunity to speak.

So the Substitute is now before us made by Brother Smith.

We are on the substitute now.

Against Substitute—Wiley C. Newman.

Wiley C. Newman (Memphis—SE) spoke against the substitute offered by Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE), as follows:—

I think we are under some misapprehensions about each other which directly affects our vote on the main question and on the Amendments. It seems to be assumed by Brother Smith and others that everybody in the South is opposed to giving our Negro Brethren brotherhood, dignity and recognition. That is not true.

Many of us have for years in the midst of the deep South preached and pleaded for Christian relationships on the battlefield where it was dangerous to hold and express such convictions.

It is comparatively easy, requires no heroism to speak boldly in this Conference, but if one wishes to win heroism let him go where the problem is acute and take a Christian stand.

Another misapprehension I think lies in the fear that the proposal of this Committee is a delaying action concocted by the South. It is not. We have no desire to delay action.

Let us clear our minds on what it is we are seeking to achieve. Are we seeking integration or Brotherhood?

If we are seeking brotherhood, we who live and work and run the risk in the South believe with all our hearts that this proposed Amendment to our Constitution will clear the way for us to work for it, to bring it about much more quickly than it could ever be done under coercion.

We are not seeking to escape our responsibility, and we are not afraid, but we believe this is the surest and the quickest way to achieve the purposes that this body obviously has at its heart. We hope that we can go back to our churches with a strong vigorous united approach of this General Conference to the whole question.

Information Requested—Miss Georgia Harkness ()— Given—Leonard D. Slutz ()

Miss Georgia Harkness () (Troy—NE) raised a question for information and Leonard D. Slutz () (Ohio—NC) answered it as follows:—

My question bears both upon the Substitute and upon the main motion.

The answer to it is very crucial to the way in which I shall vote, and I believe an answer to it may be illuminating for the House.

The question is:

If we adopt this Resolution proposed on the mimeographed sheet, does it become permanent and for all time our mode of eliminating the Central Jurisdiction? If it is a step, I am happy to vote for it.

If, on the other hand, it is a step which will preclude taking other steps four years or eight years hence, I cannot vote for it.

May I have clarification?

Answer—Leonard Slutz () :*

Mr. Chairman, nothing this General Conference can do can be permanent and forever. Every Amendment to our Constitution or law can be re-examined at the next session of The General Conference.

We have recommended the appointment of a Study Commission which we anticipate will come in with many recommendations for further steps, but this in our honest judgment is the fastest and longest step we can take now.

Substitute Motion—Chester A. Smith ()—Not Adopted*

On being put to the vote of The General Conference, the motion of Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) to substitute his Resolution on the Abolishment of the Central Jurisdiction by Constitutional Amendment, was not adopted.

Debate Closed—C. Cooper Bell—Report No. 1 Adopted

C. Cooper Bell (Virginia—SE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, closed the debate for the Committee, with the following statement:—

Mr. Chairman, all the opportunity that I wish to take is to thank this General Conference for your fine reception of this, if I understand your mind correctly.

Report No. 1 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, Subject, "Constitutional Amendment Providing For Transfer Of Churches Or Annual Conferences From One Jurisdiction To Another," Calendar No. 43, DCA No. 6, page 244, column 2 was adopted as amended, with only two votes being cast against the adoption of the Report. For Report see Appendix, page 1403.

The General Conference stood and applauded the action in the adoption of the Report.

Statement—Bishop Fred P. Corson

Bishop Fred Pierce Corson, the Presiding Officer, made the following statement:—

May I say that my colleagues are very careful to be sure that two-thirds of this body voted in favor of that amendment. Will the body permit the Chair to state that two-thirds did vote for that Amendment.

Form of Constitutional Amendment No. 9 Relating to Transfer of Churches or Annual Conferences—C. Cooper Bell—Adopted

C. Cooper Bell (Virginia—SE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, made the following statement:—

Mr. Chairman and Members of The Conference: Just a moment before we pass to No. 2. As we have it now, this is in the form of three Amendments. It occurs to us that it will help tremendously before the Annual Conferences to expedite this, if you will give your approval by letting the three be three divisions of one Amendment to be sent down to be voted on in the Annual Conferences.

and moved that the form of the proposed Amendment No. 9 to the Constitution of The Methodist Church shall consist of the three divisions (a), (b) and (c), as set forth in Report No. 1 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, just adopted, being considered as the three divisions of one Amendment.

The motion, duly seconded, was adopted.

Report No. 2 Conferences—"Commission to Study and Recommend Action Concerning The Jurisdictional System"—

C. Cooper Bell—John R. Wilkins—Ralph W. Sockman—Edwin L. Jones, Sr. (*)

C. Cooper Bell (Virginia—SE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, presented Report No. 2 of the Committee, Subject, "Commission to Study and Recommend Action Concerning The Jurisdictional System," Calendar No. 44, DCA No. 6, page 244, column 3, and page 245, column 1, and made the following statement:—

Chairman and Members of The Conference, I certainly wish to reiterate the wonderful spirit in which you did receive our first Report.

I sincerely believe the spirit that is in this Committee on Conferences is the spirit of God, and that Spirit is here in this General Conference at this moment. And it is in this spirit that we are submitting to you this second Report.

May I say to you, sir, in just a moment, for your Committee there was a large number of Memorials, quite a number of them bearing on the idea of abolishing the Central Jurisdiction, or the Jurisdictional system, quite a number on the retention of the system, including the Central Jurisdiction; also a number of Memorials suggesting A Study Commission.

We divided these out to Sub-Committees who analyzed them and brought before the whole Committee a complete and a fair interpretation of the spirit involved in these Memorials and then in the Resolutions that you yourselves have submitted to that Committee.

In every step carefulness has been taken by your Committee to give every viewpoint in our Church a fair consideration, and as a result of that then, a special Committee of Six—they were composed of John R. Wilkins of the Western Jurisdiction, Ralph W. Sockman of the Northeastern Jurisdiction, Charles Ray Goff of the North Central Jurisdiction, Robert E. Goodrich Jr., of the South Central Jurisdiction, Edwin L. Jones Sr. (*), of the Southeastern Jurisdiction and Prince A. Taylor, Jr., of the Central Jurisdiction.

We are proud, sir, that we are submitting to you a Report that had the recommendation and the approval of these majestic minds and spirits in our Church. And they have come before us with their Report that we are submitting.

I call your attention again to the fact that the vote on this was 68 to concur in this Resolution; eight against it and two not voting. It was all but a unanimous vote, only ten out of the number either against it or refraining from voting.

We have looked at this from every angle and we believe it has not only approval of our Conference, but that it is the mind of Christ. There is no idea here to set up a Commission that will tell this Committee to do this, or tell that Committee to do that because your Committee realizes there are various problems in the Jurisdictional system beyond the Central Jurisdiction, many that I might name if I chose to do it here this morning.

And we want to come here and create a Commission that we are submitting to you that will follow the course of what we have done here this morning, then look the whole matter in the face and with the best minds, I trust, of our Church and the warmest hearts, we shall come to The General Conference and present to you a finding that will augment the spirit of unity and progress of The Methodist Church.

I am very happy to present to you the Chairman of this Special Committee, John R. Wilkins (California-Nevada—W) who will read it for you.

After that, will you suffer the Committee to have Ralph W. Sockman (New York—NE) Edwin L. Jones, Sr., (*) (Western North Carolina—SE) to speak to the Report?

Amendment John R. Wilkins—Adopted

John R. Wilkins (California-Nevada—W), Chairman of the Sub-Committee which prepared Report No. 2 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, moved that the period (.) following the word "Bishops" in line twelve (12) DCA No. 6, page 245, column 1, be changed to a comma (,) and the following words added, "who shall convene this Commission within six months following the adjournment of The General Conference," so that the sentence in lines ten-twelve inclusive shall read:—

"There shall be a Convenor appointed by The Council of Bishops, who shall convene this Commission within six months following the adjournment of The General Conference."

No objection being raised by any member of the Committee, or by any member of The General Conference, the amendment became a part of Report No. 2 of the Standing Committee on Conferences.

By unanimous common consent the six paragraphs of the Preamble of Report No. 2 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, DCA No. 6, page 244, column 3, were not read. John R. Wilkins (California-Nevada—W) read the remainder of Report No. 2.

Statement—C. Cooper Bell

C. Cooper Bell (Virginia—SE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, then made the following statement:—

Now, the figures there indicate the constituency of such Commission, if the above proposed method is approved, and these are based upon 1955 membership figures which were secured from the Board of Evangelism in Nashville this past month, would make a total of 70.

Just a brief word. We have tried to make a fair and thorough study of all of the Resolutions and Memorials on this Subject. We have tried to secure a blending of the best proposals and recommendations from each of them. There has been a real sincere inter-change of thinking.

We believe it is another avenue and channel for progress in our Church, and that it will give some expression to the hopes and dreams of this General Conference and make possible creative work for a greater and more effective Church in the future.

Mr. Chairman, I move its adoption. The motion to adopt was duly seconded.

For Report—Ralph W. Sockman

Ralph W. Sockman (New York—NE) spoke in favor of Report No. 2 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, as follows:—

Mr. Chairman, Members of The General Conference: I did not ask the privilege of making this speech and you will be glad to know that I have no speech to make. But I am happy to respond to the request of a Chairman whom I feel to have served us so magnificently that I want to hold up his hands. I believe there is Old Testament precedent of holding up the hands of Moses. I asked Bishop Short whom I consider to be the best authority on the Old Testament in our Council of Bishops. The two persons were Aaron and Hur. Aaron has spoken. I am now Hur.

I feel that though my mind has no speech, my heart has a gratefulness. We have an old saying, a Chinese proverb, I think, that the longest journey begins with the first step. We have taken, I think, this morning in dramatic fashion that first step, but we have a long journey ahead of us.

Already on this floor there have been raised questions which will have to be answered. I think that this matter of racial discrimination is so far bigger than any Jurisdictional solution, so far broader than any sectional application, that we must now set ourselves to working out the spirit of the movement we have taken this morning, 'til it touches every church, every locality North and South, and every Conference.

Our hearts are in this movement. We must now put our heads into it. I think that this Commission, as we proposed it and if it follows those directions suggested to it, implementing the spirit of love, will have a task that demands the best minds of our Church for the next quadrennium.

I believe, and I say it with humility, we are taking a step this morning which we shall be proud to tell our grandchildren about in building a Church in which our grandchildren will grow up.

For Report—Edwin L. Jones, Sr. ()*

Edwin L. Jones, Sr. (*) (Western North Carolina—SE)

spoke in favor of Report No. 2 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, as follows:—

Mr. Chairman, Members of The General Conference: When I left home ten days ago, I had what I thought was an unchangeable determination to oppose anything that would tamper with the organizational structure of our Church. But as I sat together with five other members of this Sub-Committee, representing every geographical section of our country, starting with, it looked like, diametrically opposed ideas, something happened. Humbly I think the Spirit of God moved in that group.

We came to an unanimous agreement. Perhaps the reason I am asked to stand here and speak to you this morning is that you can see the vast differences that were apparent in that Committee to begin with—Dr. Sockman and a bricklayer—but we did reach an agreement.

Forty-one years ago, my wife and I (she sits in the fourth section of the gallery) were married. We took the solemn promise that it would be until death do us part; and it would be for better or worse. I got the better, she got the worse.

There have been some times of disagreement; there have been times when things had to be—there had to be an agreement of mind. She didn't run home to mama, neither did we seek the divorce courts. I will tell you what we did do. Hand in hand, we knelt at the mercy seat and found what God's will was for us to do. I can truthfully say that we are happier, that we are more deeply married today than we were when we first married.

Friends, I think that is a true parable. Seventeen years ago, this Church was married in a three-way sort of Union, coming from a three-way sort of Union.

The point I am making is the honeymoon is over. Hard facts of living and working together in a changing world are putting and have put terrific strains on us in certain areas. None of us wants to seek the divorce courts. None of us wants to do what a good brother from New York inadvertently said he would do. We know that there must be faults in this structure that was set up seventeen years ago.

Therefore, we do need a Commission that would study and assess calmly, expertly and thoroughly, our Jurisdictional Structure. Some of us believe that we have not used the Jurisdictional Structure to the best advantage in our Church. We think it can be improved. We think its results would be marvelous if it were used to a greater extent. Such a study must be directed so that it will be unbiased. It must not be swayed by Court decisions or by the NAACP or by State legislatures or by the lights of the White Cross or by anybody outside the Church.

The Study Commission must be so directed that it will seek primarily and unequivocally to find out what God's will is for us to do in and through our great Methodist Church.

Statement Parliamentary Situation—Bishop Fred P. Corson

Bishop Fred Pierce Corson, the Presiding Officer, made the following statement:—

Just before someone from the floor speaks, will you instruct the Chair as to what is your desire? You have ordered an Order of the Day for twelve o'clock. Do you wish to call that up or do you wish to continue this discussion? Someone will have to move it, if you do.

Motion For Order of Day—Charles V. Adams (*)

Charles V. Adams (*) (Central Pennsylvania—NE) moved that we now proceed to vote for members of The Judicial Council, and then continue discussion of the pending Report No. 2 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences. The motion was duly seconded.

Statement—Bishop Fred P. Corson

Bishop Fred Pierce Corson, the Presiding Officer, made the following statement:—

“Very well; that is the motion. It really doesn't need to be put, because you have already an Order of the Day for the election for twelve o'clock. Unless someone makes another motion, I will proceed on that assumption.”

Motion to Continue—Embree H. Blackard—Not Adopted

Embree H. Blackard (Western North Carolina—SE) moved to proceed with consideration of and action on Report No. 2 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, until it is completed. The motion was duly seconded.

Statement—Bishop Fred P. Corson

Bishop Fred Pierce Corson, the Presiding Officer, made the following statement:—

“Are you ready to vote? This is a matter of postponing an Order of the Day.”

Statement—A. Wesley Pugh

A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee of Chairmen, made the following statement:—

Mr. Chairman and Members of the Conference, I just call to your attention that the Committee of Chairmen this morning considered our procedure. They thought that even though we were in the midst of debate on one of these Reports, that at 12:00 o'clock, unless it was very apparent that it could be completed in a few moments, we would be in a better position if we went ahead with the election, which was the Order of the Day, and call this matter up as a pending matter in the next session, which will be tonight.

Motion to Postpone Order of Day—Not Adopted

The motion of Embree H. Blackard (Western North Carolina—SE) to postpone the Order of the Day, and continue consideration of and action on Report No. 2 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.

Statement—Bishop Fred P. Corson—Gavel Used

Bishop Fred Pierce Corson, the Presiding Officer, made the following statement:—

You will permit the Chair to make a brief statement. This has been a wonderful session for our Church and for the Kingdom of God. It has been something that all of us have prayed for. Many of us thought that perhaps it could not happen as it has, but God's Spirit has been here this morning. It has been in our hearts. What we have done I believe will greatly advance our opportunities to bring God's Kingdom in true Brotherhood among our people.

Let me say also that I presided this morning with a gavel that Francis Asbury used, back in old St. George's Church. It has great sentiment for me because I love that church, and because I think it is a wonderful shrine of Methodism. But more than that this day, the first Negro licensed to preach in The Methodist Church was licensed to preach in St. George's Church. So the using of the gavel has had great sentiment for me and for this session today.

I think before we take the vote we should stand and sing together, "Blest Be The Tie That Binds," and have Bishop Shaw pray for us.

Hymn No. 416—James R. Houghton ()*

Under the leadership of James R. Houghton (*) (New England—NE), General Conference Director of Music, The General Conference stood and joined in the singing of Hymn No. 416, "Blest Be The Tie That Binds."

Prayer—Bishop Alexander K. Shaw

Bishop Alexander K. Shaw, Retired, led in prayer, as follows:—

Thou heavenly Father, we come to Thee with a spirit of thanksgiving and of joy on account of the marvelous spirit that has been manifest among us here this morning. We thank thee for thy Church and its farflung battle lines to the ends of the earth. We thank thee for the progress that is being made and certainly for the future that is before us.

O bind us together, and come and remain in this world, so that the great thing for which our Master died, so that Thy Kingdom may come, Thy will may be done, on earth as it is in heaven. In Jesus' name we ask it. Amen.

Privileged Matter—C. Cooper Bell

C. Cooper Bell (Virginia—SE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, asked a privileged question, as follows:—

Mr. Chairman, just a matter of privilege for the Committee. We are not preparing to make a motion. We just wonder if you would like for us to continue this after this vote for The Judicial Council.

Statement—Bishop Fred P. Corson

Bishop Fred Pierce Corson, the Presiding Officer, replied, as follows:—

May the Chair make a statement. There is another Order of the Day which was fixed for this morning, namely, National Family Life. I think Bishop Werner probably has set that up with the thought that it would be held this morning. That ought to be in your mind when you decide whether we are to proceed with the Order, or whether we are to take this up, take up this Order which has been completed for the morning.

Withdraws—Noah W. Moore, Jr.

Noah W. Moore, Jr. (Delaware—C) who had been nominated by The Council of Bishops for membership on The Judicial Council, as a matter of high personal privilege, requested that he be permitted to withdraw his name from the voting. By common consent this was done.

First Ballot Judicial Council Members—Voting Procedure for Assistant Secretaries—Lud H. Estes—Adopted

Motion of Lud H. Estes (Memphis—SE), Secretary of The General Conference, duly seconded, prevailed, granting the Secretarial Staff seated on the platform, the privilege of voting there, instead of having to return to their seats in their Annual Conference Delegations.

Election Procedure—Lud H. Estes—Luther W. Wells ()*

Lud H. Estes (Memphis—SE), Secretary of The General Conference, outlined the procedure of voting.

Luther W. Wells (*) (Virginia—SE), Secretary of Ballots and Tellers, gave further directions concerning the voting process.

Statement Re Harry A. Hanson—Henry A. Lacy ()*

Henry A. Lacy (*) (Delhi—OS) as a matter of high privilege stated that Harry A. Hanson (North India—OS) is now living in Oklahoma, and would be available to attend meetings of The Judicial Council.

Number to Be Elected—Bishop Fred Pierce Corson—Lud H. Estes

Bishop Fred Pierce Corson, the Presiding Officer, requested the Secretary to state the number of Ministers and Laymen to be voted for.

Lud H. Estes (Memphis—SE), Secretary of The General Conference, announced that the Delegates were to vote for four Ministers and three Laymen.

Statement—Bishop Fred P. Corson

Bishop Fred Pierce Corson, the Presiding Officer, requested Marvin A. Childers (*) (Southwest Texas—SC), a member of The Judicial Council, to make a clarifying statement:—

Statement—Marvin A. Childers ()*

Marvin A. Childers (*) (Southwest Texas—SC), a member of The Judicial Council, made the following statement:—

There are two members of The Council whose terms would extend four years more, until 1960, except for the fact that they are 70 years of age and have to retire at this time. Dr. Spaughey and Judge Noble would each have four years more. So two are to be elected, one Minister and one Layman, to fill out those unexpired terms. Then there would be three Ministers and two Laymen to be elected for full eight-year terms.

Statement—Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam

Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, of the Washington Area, Northeastern Jurisdiction, and Secretary of The Council of Bishops of The Methodist Church, made a statement, as follows:—

Mr. Chairman and Members of The Conference: The law as it stands means that The Council of Bishops has to nominate to you four persons for each vacancy that occurs in The Judicial Council. There is nothing in the law that has to do with the Classes. That is unfortunate but it is true.

Therefore we did nominate 16 Ministers and 12 Laymen. Under the law I think it is necessary for you to vote for four Ministers and for three Laymen. You will then have to decide, after that vote is taken, which of those persons are to go into Classes. The law simply does not provide for it; it is unfortunate but it is a fact.

Ballot Spread—Luther W. Wells ()*

Under the direction of Luther W. Wells (*) (Virginia—SE), Secretary of Ballots and Tellers, the first ballot for members of The Judicial Council was spread.

Other Business—Rule 11

Under the provisions of Rule 11 of the Rules of Order, "Voting Procedure," which reads as follows:—

Rule 11. VOTING PROCEDURE

Voting shall be by a show of hands unless otherwise ordered by The Conference. An "aye" and "no" vote if taken, shall be by signed ballot. A count vote may be ordered on call of any member supported by one-third of the members present and voting, in which case the Delegates shall rise from their seats and stand until counted.

No other business shall be in order when a vote is being taken or when the Previous Question has been called, until the process is completed, except such as relates to the vote itself, or that which can be appropriately fitted into the time while waiting for the Report of the Secretaries on a count vote, or an "aye" and "no" vote. The count shall be made by Members seated next to the aisles, who shall be designated by the Secretary of The General Conference, and whose names shall be printed in The Daily Advocate.

The election of the Trustees of Drew University and the Board of Governors for Westminster Theological Seminary was taken up and completed, during the taking of the first ballot for members of The Judicial Council.

Trustees of Drew University—Henry Lyle Lambdin

Election Judicial Council Members—Question of—Bishop Fred P. Corson—W. Ralph Ward—Answer, Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam

The election of the Trustees of Drew University and of the Board of Governors of Westminster Theological Seminary, having been completed, Bishop Fred Pierce Corson, the Presiding Officer, inquired if the taking of the first ballot for members of The Judicial Council had been completed, and if there were any questions relating thereto.

W. Ralph Ward (Pittsburgh—NE) raised the following questions:—

Mr. Chairman, I believe this election is a very important matter. I confess to being one member of this body who is a little uncertain about it. I would like to ask the privilege that the Presiding Chairman announce clearly to this body how many are to be elected both in the Clergy and in the Laity and whether or not a ballot is invalid if it contains more or less than that number.

Statement—Bishop Fred P. Corson

Bishop Fred Pierce Corson, the Presiding Officer, made the following reply:

I will ask the Secretary of The Council of Bishops, who has just made a statement referring to those questions, to make the statement again.

Statement—Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam

Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, of the Washington Area, Northeastern Jurisdiction, and Secretary of the Council of Bishops of The Methodist Church, replied, as follows:—

Mr. Chairman and Members of The General Conference: You are to vote for four Ministers; you are to vote for three Laymen.

I take it your Secretary will have to indicate answers in the matter of whether the ballot is valid if it has less than seven names; that is, less than four Ministers or more; less than three Laymen or more.

Directions—Secretary-Designate Leon T. Moore

Leon T. Moore (Philadelphia—NE), Secretary-Designate, gave the following directions concerning the validity of ballots:—

Mr. Chairman, it is my understanding that if more than four or less than four are voted for the Ministerial group the ballot will be void. If more than three or less than three are voted for the Laymen the ballot for the Laymen will be void.

Term of Office—G. Alfred Brown

Motion of G. Alfred Brown (Central Texas—SC), duly seconded, prevailed that the first three Ministers elected, be elected for a term of eight years; that the first two Laymen elected, be elected for a term of eight years; that the last Minister and Layman elected, be elected for a term of four years.

Jurisdictional Representation—Frank M. Templin—Bishop Fred P. Corson—Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam

Frank M. Templin (Indiana—NC) requested information, as follows:—

“In Paragraph 901 of the Discipline the closing sentence ends, ‘Provided, however, that as a result of the election each Jurisdiction shall be represented on The Council.’ How is this done, and how is this related to the balloting?”

Bishop Fred Pierce Corson, the Presiding Officer, requested Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam to express an opinion on this matter:

Statement—Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam

Mr. Chairman and Members of The Conference: It would be presumptuous for the Secretary of The Council of Bishops to express an opinion involving The Judicial Council. Unfortunately, the law as written calls for you to vote as indicated; namely, for four Ministers and three Laymen. It also has a requirement that mathematically it might not be possible to reach a decision on the first ballot.

There is no good trying to debate this now because sooner or later this law will have to be considered and re-written. At present you will have to vote, and if on the vote it comes out that you do not have all Jurisdictions represented, I presume you will have to reconsider the matter and vote until you do.

Ballot Closed—Sealed—Charles S. Kendall

Under the direction of Luther W. Wells (*) (Virginia—SE), Secretary of Ballots and Tellers, the Tellers collected the votes and Bishop Fred Pierce Corson, the Presiding Officer, declared the ballot to be closed.

Motion of Charles S. Kendall (Southern California—Arizona—W), duly seconded, prevailed directing the Tellers to seal the ballot: to count it before the evening session, and to report the results on the call of the Presiding Officer of the evening session.

Reference Paragraph 2028—W. McFerrin Stowe

Motion of W. McFerrin Stowe (Oklahoma—SC), duly seconded, prevailed, referring Paragraph 2028 on "Religion and the Public Schools" in the 1952 Discipline of The Methodist Church, to the Standing Legislative Committee on the State of the Church, for their consideration of and action on, and subsequent report to The General Conference.

Evening Session—A. Wesley Pugh

A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee of Chairmen, called the attention of the members of The General Conference to the business session ordered for tonight at 7:45 P. M.

Nos. 11, 12, 13 Presiding Officer—Bishop Marvin A. Franklin—Bishop Hazen G. Werner—Bishop Newell S. Booth—H. Hughes Wagner

H. Hughes Wagner (New England—NE), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee on Presiding Officers, presented Reports Nos. 11, 12 and 13 designating the following Presiding Officers for the sessions of Thursday, May 3, 1956:—Thursday morning, Bishop Marvin A. Franklin; Thursday afternoon, Bishop Hazen G. Werner; Thursday evening, Bishop Newell S. Booth. The three Reports were received and ordered to record. For Reports see Appendix, page 1255.

Constitutional Amendments—Time of Voting—Lud H. Estes

Lud H. Estes (Memphis—SE), Secretary of The General Conference, made the following important announcement:—

Some confusion has arisen in regard as to when the Constitutional Amendments will be available for the consideration of and action on by the Annual Conferences, as many of the Annual Conferences will be meeting very shortly after the adjournment of The General Conference.

The Constitutional Amendments will be sent down in ample time and you are to take action on them AFTER you have received the Amendments from the Secretary of The General Conference.

Announcements—Leon T. Moore

Leon T. Moore (Philadelphia—NE), Secretary-Designate of The General Conference, made several announcements.

Thanks—Bishop Fred P. Corson

Bishop Fred Pierce Corson, the Presiding Officer for this session, thanked the members of The General Conference for their unfailing courtesy to the Chair this morning in conducting the business of The General Conference.

Closing—Benediction—Bishop James H. Straughn

The morning session of Eighth Day, Wednesday, May 2, 1956 The General Conference of The Methodist Church, adjourned at 12:35 P.M., with the Benediction pronounced by Bishop James H. Straughn, Retired, and further consideration of and action on Report No. 2 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, Subject, "Commission To Study And Recommend Action Concerning The Jurisdictional System," DCA No. 6, page 244, column 3, and page 245, column 1, pending.

Wicke of the Pittsburgh Area, Northeastern Jurisdiction, in the Chair, with the further consideration of and action on Report No. 2 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, Subject, "Commission To Study and Recommend Action Concerning The Jurisdictional System," DCA No. 6, page 244, column 3 and page 245, column 1, pending.

Bishop Lloyd C. Wicke, the Presiding Officer, stated that James R. Houghton (*) (New England—NE), General Conference Director of Music, would announce the Hymn, after which the Choir of Claflin College, Greensboro, South Carolina, would sing for The General Conference.

Hymn No. 72—James R. Houghton ()*

James R. Houghton (*) (New England—NE), General Conference Director of Music, announced Hymn No. 72, "This Is My Father's World." The General Conference stood, and joined in the singing of the Hymn.

Claflin College Choir—James R. Houghton ()—John H. Chadwell ()

James R. Houghton () (New England—NE), General Conference Director of Music, presented the Choir of Claflin College, Greensboro, South Carolina, and their Director John H. Chadwell (), stating that they had come at their own expense, to sing for The General Conference.

Claflin College Choir Sings—John H. Chadwell ()*

Under the leadership of Director John H. Chadwell (*) the Choir of Claflin College, Greensboro, South Carolina, rendered the following selections:—

"O Magnify The Lord With Me" by Ed Lynn

"O God I Call Upon Thy Name," Senfl

"A Spiritual—Ezekiel Saw De Wheel," by Dawson

Thanks—Bishop Lloyd C. Wicke

Bishop Lloyd C. Wicke, the Presiding Officer, expressed the thanks of The General Conference to John H. Chadwell (*) and to the Choir of Claflin College, Greensboro, South Carolina, for their coming without expense to The General Conference to sing for the same, and for the fine music they had so ably rendered.

Prayer—Bishop James C. Baker

Bishop James C. Baker, Retired, led in prayer.

Statement—Ruling—Bishop Lloyd C. Wicke

Bishop Lloyd C. Wicke, the Presiding Officer, made the following statement and ruling:—

The Chair seeks the guidance of the House. It is my understanding that the ballot that was cast this morning has been counted. Does it meet with your pleasure to hear the result of the ballot and cast another, or what is your pleasure?

Those who will agree to this Order, will you signify by lifting the hand. Of a contrary mind?

It will be done.

Results First Ballot—Judicial Council—Luther W. Wells ()—A. Wesley Pugh—J. Ernest Wilkins ()

Second Ballot for Members Judicial Council—Luther W. Wells (*)

The second ballot for members of The Judicial Council was spread, with Luther W. Wells (*) (Virginia—SE), Secretary of Ballots and Tellers in charge, who made the following statement:—

Mr. Chairman, I would like to suggest, when we pass out the ballots, before you mark them for the ones that you wish to vote for on the next ballot, you strike off the names of those we have elected so you will not go and vote for them and void your ballot.

Then I would suggest that since he has asked that his name be left off, you strike off the name of Noah W. Moore, Jr., in the Ministerial group; and when you mark your ballot, it will be for three Ministerial candidates and two Lay.

Voting having been completed, Bishop Lloyd C. Wicke, the Presiding Officer, declared the second ballot closed for members of The Judicial Council. The votes were collected by the Tellers, under the direction of Luther W. Wells (*) (Virginia—SE), Secretary of Ballots and Tellers, and the Tellers retired to count the same.

No. 4, Report Committee of Chairmen—A. Wesley Pugh

A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee of Chairmen, made the following statement:—

Mr. Chairman and Members of The Conference: This morning our Committee of Chairmen had a meeting following the regular business session and we decided to ask The Conference to allow Bishop Hazen G. Werner to bring in his brief Report, which he says will be quite brief, on the Commission on Family Life. This was intended to come in in the session early this morning but by an inadvertence it got pushed aside. I think in courtesy to him we ought to follow that and then take up the pending Report immediately following.

Therefore, I move that Bishop Hazen G. Werner be given time for the presentation of the Report of the Commission on Family Life, and that it be followed by consideration of and action on the pending Report No. 2 of the Committee on Conferences. The motion, duly seconded, prevailed.

Report National Family Life Committee—Bishop Hazen G. Werner—Lance Webb

Bishop Hazen G. Werner, of the Ohio Area, North Central Jurisdiction, and Chairman of the National Family Life Committee, presented the Report of the Committee (DB-66), and on motion of Lance Webb (Ohio—NC), duly seconded, the Report was received and ordered to record. For Report see Appendix, page 1853.

Parliamentary Situation—Bishop Lloyd C. Wicke

Bishop Lloyd C. Wicke, the Presiding Officer, made the following statement:—

May the Chair state the parliamentary condition. If I understand correctly, there was a Report pending, Calendar No. 44, found on page 244, in the Daily Christian Advocate. The Chairman of the Committee is Dr. C. Cooper Bell. Are you prepared to continue?

No. 2, Conferences—C. Cooper Bell

The continuing Order of the Day having arrived, consideration of and action on Report No. 2 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences. Subject, "Commission to Study and Recommend Action Concerning the Jurisdictional System," DCA No. 6, page 244, column 3, and page 245, column 1, C. Cooper Bell (Virginia—SE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, was recognized and made the following statement:—

Mr. Chairman, Members of The Conference: Just a privilege statement for the Committee. You will notice that in the number voting on this Report, the number present when this Report was adopted was 78. The number voting for adoption, 68. Those voting against, 8. The number not voting, 2.

This afternoon as we met to consider various matters, we had what I think was the finest love feast in that Committee that I have been in in many and many a day. The spirit there was truly moved by the Spirit of Christ. Several of the brethren who voted against this Report, or had abstained from voting stood upon the floor of the Conference and said that in light of what we did this morning, to count them as voting for it tonight.

I think that is a wonderful spirit, and God is moving with us.

Amendment—G. Stanley Frazer—Not Adopted

G. Stanley Frazer (Alabama—SE) moved to amend Report No. 2 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, DCA No. 6, page 244, column 3 and page 245, column 1, by deleting the first seven paragraphs of Report No. 2 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences (DB-67) which read as follows:—

The Committee recommends the following Resolution for adoption:

In response to the numerous Memorials and Resolutions before this General Conference requesting a study of the Structure of the Jurisdictional System, and to implement the recommendations contained in the Episcopal Addresses of 1952 and 1956;

"In our world, our nation, and our Church, however, racial discrimination and segregation do exist. As sincere followers of our Lord it is our business to help free our world and our nation from these evils. But it is more immediately our imperative duty to confess our failure to achieve God's will in Methodism and then resolutely to set about achieving a Christian Brotherhood in the Church that will be free from racial discrimination and segregation . . .

"The Union of the three branches of Methodism has strengthened our fellowship through understanding and united devotion to a common task. We believe that within the organizational framework of the United Church are to be found effective procedures for the development of Christian Brotherhood.

"Notable advances have been made under our present organizational structure. However, seventeen eventful years have passed since the long-to-be-remembered day when three separate bodies of Methodism dedicated themselves to be one Church. New issues have arisen and new duties confront the Church.

"The Council of Bishops, therefore, recommends that a Commission large enough to be truly representative of all our people be constituted by this General Conference for the purpose of studying the Jurisdictional Structure of the Church, its philosophy and its effectiveness and that it report its findings with recommendations to the 1960 session of The General Conference. Through this medium we believe that a way can be charted to advance the Church steadily toward the fulfillment of the Christian imperative for racial relations."

We hereby recommend that The General Conference of 1956 create a "Commission to Study and Recommend Action Concerning the Jurisdictional System."

and substituting therefor the following:—

In response to the numerous Memorials and Resolutions before this General Conference requesting a study of the Jurisdictional System, we hereby recommend that The General Conference of 1956 create a Commission to Study And Recommend Action Concerning The Jurisdictional System Of The Methodist Church.

so that Report No. 2 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conference, as amended, will read as follows:—

[44]

COMMITTEE ON CONFERENCES

Report No. 2

Subject: Commission To Study And Recommend Action Concerning the Jurisdictional System.

Adopted April 30, 1956.

Memorial Serial Number, or Numbers, Bosley Resolution. Frazer Resolution and 2532, 2542, 3087, 3093, 3192, 3196, 3197, 3198, 3215, 3449, 3460, 3479, 3487, 3488, 3625, 3628.

Total membership of this Committee, 87.

Number present when this Report was acted on, 78.

Number voting for adoption of this Report, 68.

Number voting against the adoption of this Report, 8.

Number not voting, 2.

In response to the numerous Memorials and Resolutions before this General Conference requesting A Study of the Jurisdictional System, we hereby recommend that The General Conference of 1956 create a Commission to Study And Recommend Action Concerning The Jurisdictional System of The Methodist Church.

A. This Commission shall be composed of one Minister and one Lay person from each Jurisdiction for each 500,000 church members or major fraction thereof, with a minimum of three Ministers and three Lay persons from each Jurisdiction. Members of the Commission shall be elected by this General Conference upon nomination by The Council of Bishops after consultation between the Bishops and the Chairmen of the Annual Conference Delegations within their respective Jurisdictions. Officers of the Commission shall be elected by the Commission from the above named and elected members. The membership shall also include twelve Bishops, two from each Jurisdiction and twelve additional Laymen, two from each Jurisdiction, nominated by The Council of Bishops and elected by The General Conference. There shall be a Convenor appointed by The Council of Bishops, who shall convene this Commission within six months following the adjournment of The General Conference. Vacancies occurring during the Quadrennium shall be filled by the College of Bishops of the Jurisdiction in which the vacancy occurs.

B. The responsibilities and authority, of this Commission shall be as follows:

1. To make a thorough study of our Jurisdictional system, with special reference to its philosophy, its effectiveness, its weaknesses and its relationship to the future of The Methodist Church.
2. To carry on studies and conduct hearings in all the Jurisdictions on racial segregation in The Methodist Church and all other problems related to the Jurisdictional System.
3. To develop courses of action directed toward greater Inter-Racial Brotherhood and the Spirit of Christian love.
4. In the performance of its duties this Commission shall draw upon the resources of other Agencies of The Methodist Church to assist in such research.
5. To distribute to the churches such facts and information during the Quadrennium as may be deemed helpful to the work of this Commission and of value to the Church.

6. To report its findings and recommendations to The General Conference of 1960, and which Report shall be printed and distributed to the Delegates of said General Conference at least three months prior to the convening of The Conference.

C. That the Memorials and Resolutions presented to and/or adopted by this General Conference dealing with the structure of the Jurisdictional System may be referred to this Commission.

D. It is recommended that this Legislation be referred to the Council on World Service and Finance for adequate financing for the work of this Commission during the Quadrennium of 1956-1960.

C. COOPER BELL, Chairman
JAMES P. BRAWLEY (*), Secretary

The motion to thus amend Report No. 2 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, Subject, "Commission To Study And Recommend Action Concerning The Jurisdictional System," being duly seconded, G. Stanley Frazer (Alabama—SE) spoke to it as follows:—

Mr. Chairman and Members of the Conference: I am sure that all of us are very anxious to continue the splendid spirit that was displayed in this Conference this morning. I was thrilled in listening to this great Choir, and to note that the gifted leader is from the city where I live, Montgomery, Ala. It proves that it is not only an inhabited place, but I trust that our presence among you will indicate that it is also civilized.

As a member of this Committee, and one of the two not voting, I think all of us felt there was a sincere warmth in all of our deliberations. I have worked with other members in trying to reach an agreement that would be fair and acceptable to our people in all the Jurisdictions. I believe that all of us were seeking a genuine approach to this problem. That is the deep concern of every one of us, not as a delaying action to postpone whatever should be done but an honest attempt to understand them and to find that answer consistent with Christian conscience. And to create an unbiased, undirected Commission evenly balanced, in no sense sectional, one that is uninstructed and holding a reasonable promise of success in the framework of the procedure proposed.

I regretted in our meeting the other afternoon that in the last hours of the meeting the Committee on Conferences inserted the words from the Episcopal Addresses of 1952 and 1956, and also other words. I have always read the Episcopal Addresses with a great deal of pleasure, and I have commended them to my people, and certainly I have spoken always most favorably of them, when my own Bishop had prepared them.

However, I do believe that in the insertions here, that whether consciously or otherwise we have directed this Commission. I believe that the function of our Committee is to deal with the Structure of the Church. Here we are undertaking to say in this Commission: You are to set apart, achieving a Christian Brotherhood within the Church, a Brotherhood that will be free from racial discrimination and segregation, and you are to implement this recommendation by every means at your disposal. You are to make a study of the Jurisdictional System, you are to conduct hearings in all of the Jurisdictions and to develop courses of action. But all of this must lead to one final verdict.

To attempt to create a biased condition, to appraise all of the facts in the case is as a Judge using his high office to influence a verdict in advance of the evidence to be submitted. It is contrary to the accepted basic principles of American jurisprudence. I do trust that we will not instruct this Commission. I believe that we are all anxious to move forward in the broad plains of understanding. I believe that we can have confidence in one another.

Let us give our support to a Commission that is uninstructed, one without any bars, one that is free to gather all of the facts as they really exist, in the belief that during the Quadrennium that is before us, The Methodist Church under God may become the leader in a great campaign of understanding and goodwill and helpfulness.

Against Amendment—Lester W. Auman

Lester W. Auman (New York East—NE) spoke against the proposed amendment of G. Stanley Frazer (Alabama—SE) as follows:—

I rise to oppose this amendment and to support the Report in its entirety. In the months preceding The General Conference two schools of thought developed. One school felt we should have just A Study Commission. The other school felt that we should make a strong pronouncement against the Central Jurisdiction, the principle of it, and take some very definite action toward its abolition.

No doubt both of these schools of thought were equally sincere. Now, we come in this Report to a middle ground between these two schools of thought; both have had to give way somewhat in order to get a Report that might meet the approval of the entire General Conference, but I for one believe that this preamble is definitely needed to give some direction to the work of this proposed Commission. How can we object to including in this Report the quotations from our Episcopal Addresses of the last two quadrenniums? We need to keep in mind just how an Episcopal Address is written. It must be reduced, so to speak, to the lowest common denominator. Only those things upon which all the Bishops agree can be put into this address.

Now, far be it from me to try to read or interpret the mind of our Bishops to this General Conference. If I attempt it, I may get spanked; but I have been spanked before.

I more than suspect many of our Bishops, if they were able to speak their own mind, would go much further than this pronouncement recommending this Commission to Study; but I say it is very significant that when Bishop Oxnam tells us they have sixty-seven voices and sixty-seven different opinions on most every subject, it is very significant that sixty-seven of our Bishops should have gotten together to recommend this Study Commission with a united voice.

I think when we take this back to our churches we need to be able to tell our churches that this proposal has the backing of our Bishops, and we need this in the Preamble.

I do not see how anybody can object to having this in the Report. Certainly we cannot, we who profess to be Christians can hardly object to this. We fellow-workers with St. Paul who said God has made of one blood all races of men that dwell together on the face of the earth, we who are worshippers of a God who so loved the world, the whole world, that He gave His only begotten Son that whosoever—white man, black man, yellow man, brown man—believe in him shall not perish but have everlasting life.

The world is moving forward in race relations, in government and in sports, and the Christian Church in general, and The Methodist Church in particular cannot afford to lag behind the world of sports and the world of government. We need during this General Conference to make use of every opportunity to send out to the world this word. We recognize there are weaknesses in our own structural system. We are determined to endeavor to take steps to clean our own house and we believe in and intend to practice the principles of Christian Brotherhood.

Amendment—G. Stanley Frazer—Not Adopted

The amendment of G. Stanley Frazer (Alabama—SE) to amend Report No. 2 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, on being put to a vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.

For Report—Harold A. Bosley

Harold A. Bosley (Rock River—NC) spoke in favor of Report No. 2 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, as follows:—

I should like to speak my wholehearted support of the proposed Report. I am sure it accomplishes everything I had hoped to accomplish by the Resolution which I presented earlier in The Conference and accomplishes other things in addition that deserve to be accomplished. I am more than happy with it. I would like to keep The Conference's attention though on one very serious thing about it, and that is that while it will certainly keep an eye on the whole problem of segregation as it exists in our Church, there are other problems that will come within the instant and immediate purview of this Commission. It has a broad general task to undertake to give us a critique of a new instrument of government in the light of seventeen years' experience with it, and we have no reason to think that the Commission is going to run itself or bring in comfortable answers.

I am all in favor of it and in favor of what it may do to, for and through us. Thank you.

Previous Question Moved—Charles P. Bowles

Charles P. Bowles (Western North Carolina—SE) moved the Previous Question on the adoption of Report No. 2 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences. The motion was duly seconded.

Amendment—Roy R. Roudebush ()—Accepted—C. Cooper Bell*

Before the vote on the Previous Question was put, Roy R. Roudebush (*) (North Indiana—NC) asked for information concerning the interpretation of paragraph seven, at the bottom of page 244, column 3, DCA No. 2, which reads as follows:—

“We hereby recommend that The General Conference of 1956 create a ‘Commission to Study and Recommend Action Concerning the Jurisdictional System.’” and moved to amend by deleting the word “create,” in line one, and to substitute therefor the words, “authorize the creation of,” so that the paragraph as amended, will read:—

“We hereby recommend that The General Conference of 1956 authorize the creation of a Commission to Study and Recommend Action Concerning the Jurisdictional System.”

C. Cooper Bell (Virginia—SE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, accepted the change in the wording of the paragraph for the Committee, no objection being raised by any member of the Committee, or by any member of The General Conference.

Previous Question Ordered—Charles P. Bowles

The motion of Charles P. Bowles (Western North Carolina—SE) for the Previous Question on the adoption of Report No. 2 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was adopted by more than the required two-thirds majority vote.

Rules Suspended—A. Wesley Pugh—Report No. 2 Adopted

Motion of A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC), duly seconded, prevailed by more than the required two-thirds majority vote, that the Rules of Order be suspended for the adoption of Report No. 2 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences.

Report No. 2 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, Subject, “Commission To Study And Recommend Action Concerning The Jurisdictional System,” DCA No. 6, page 244, column 3 and page 245, column 1, on being put to the vote of The General Conference was adopted. For Report see Appendix, page 1406.

No. 2, Conferences Referred—A. Wesley Pugh—Adopted

Motion of A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC), duly seconded, prevailed, referring Report No. 2 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences to the Council on World Service and Finance, for their consideration, action on and their report back to The General Conference.

No. 2, Co-ordinating Council—Chester A. McPheeters—Amended—Edwin R. Garrison—Paul G. James (*)

The Order of the Day having arrived, Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) presented Report No. 2 of the Co-ordinating Council, DCA No. 3, page 111, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 112, columns 1, 2 and 3; and page 113, columns 1, 2 and 3, and requested that Edwin R. Garrison (North Indiana—NC) and Paul G. James (*) (Iowa-Des Moines—NC) join him on the platform.

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) moved to amend the first paragraph under "Suggested Legislation," DCA No. 3, page 111, column 3 by deleting the words, "Beginning with," in line two, and substituting therefor the word, "emphasizing," and deleting the word, "in," in line three, and substituting therefor the word, "on," so that the amended paragraph will read:—

"To Replace Paragraph 761, 5

"The Week of Dedication shall be observed annually emphasizing Ash Wednesday and culminating on the first Sunday in Lent, which shall be designated as the Day of Dedication."

The motion to thus amend, being duly seconded, was adopted.

Motion of Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC), duly seconded, prevailed, adopting the second paragraph under "Suggested Legislation," DCA No. 3, page 111, column 3, entitled, "World Order Sunday," and adding the following new paragraph to Paragraph 246-9, 1952 Discipline of The Methodist Church, which reads as follows:—

"World Order Sunday shall be observed annually in each local church on the Sunday of or immediately preceding November 11th," so that amended Paragraph 246-9 will read as follows:—

Each local church may provide for the promotion of world peace through a Church Committee on World Peace, which shall report to the Official Board.

World Order Sunday shall be observed annually in each local church on the Sunday of or immediately preceding November 11th.

Special Days—Chester A. McPheeters—Amended

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) next presented that part of Report No. 2 of the Co-ordinating Council dealing with "Special Days," DCA No. 3, page 111, columns 2 and 3, and also in different form, DCA No. 5, page 258, columns 1 and 2, and moved the adoption of this part of Report No. 2. The motion was duly seconded.

Amendment—Chester A. Smith ()—Not Adopted*

Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) asked if "Children's Day" had been restored to its original position and situation in The Methodist Church.

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) stated that Report No. 2 does not restore "Children's Day" to its original place and situation in The Methodist Church.

Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) then moved to amend Report No. 2 by restoring "Children's Day" to its original place in the schedule of Special Days of The Methodist Church.

The motion to thus amend, being duly seconded, Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) spoke to the proposed amendment, as follows:—

"Now, Mr. Chairman and Members of The Conference: This was for many years a historic and important day in Methodism. It was a day when special attention was called to the importance of children in the Church and to the importance of taking up a collection, as I remember it, to assist those men and women to secure a higher education. I regret exceedingly that this important day has been pushed aside and no longer stands out among the great Sundays of our year in the way it used to stand out. I think it ought to stand out and it is for this reason that I make the amendment to the Report. I trust it may receive your support in the name of the boys and girls and for the sake of many members of the Church who desire that this day be restored and who have memorialized The General Conference, as I understand it, so to do."

Against Amendment—J. Earl Moreland ()*

J. Earl Moreland () (Virginia—SE) spoke against the proposed amendment of Chester A. Smith () (New York—NE), as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman, I would like, as Chairman of the Committee on Education, first of all, to say this matter came before us, both in 1952 and in 1956, and the Board unanimously agreed this year—I can't recall the vote in 1952—not to do what is now being proposed. So I think that it might be proper for this to be said at this point. I doubt that any member of the Board of Education, either the Staff or the Committee—though I would not undertake to speak for all members of the Committee, except the vote was taken that way—would oppose this amendment in every way.

Second, I think it should be said that we have come to a recognition in these seventeen years of the manner of observance of these days. I do believe that the Committee recommendation is a statesmanlike recommendation that will solve most of our problems that have to do with these Special Days.

I trust the amendment will be defeated and that this entire plan presented by Dr. McPheeters will be accepted."

Statement—Chester A. McPheeters

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) made the following statement for the Co-ordinating Council:—

Mr. Chairman, may I call to your attention that the Methodist Student Day, the second Sunday in June, is the day for the taking of the offering to the Scholarship Fund, if that question was raised. Children's Day has been placed under the third category and is the first Sunday in National Family Week, which is nationally observed.

Amendment—Chester A. Smith ()—Not Adopted*

On being put to the vote of The General Conference, the proposed amendment of Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE), was not adopted.

Amendment—Commitment Day—G. Lemuel Fenn—Adopted

G. Lemuel Fenn (Oklahoma—SC) moved to amend Report No. 2 of the Co-ordinating Council, by designating the second Sunday in December for the observance of Commitment Day, sponsored by the General Board of Temperance of The Methodist Church, and by transferring it from category "4, Days to Be Observed as Ordered by the Jurisdictional and/or The Annual Conference," to category "3. Days to Be Observed on a Church-Wide Basis—Without Offering."

The motion to thus amend, being duly seconded, G. Lemuel Fenn (Oklahoma—SC) spoke to the same, as follows:—

"Commitment day has been growing since the Board of Temperance has sponsored it. Last year they had to increase the number of orders for the Commitment Day cards. A survey indicates that it was observed in about 60 per cent of the churches. In the light of the Episcopal Address, we think it is important to continue it and have it in the Calendar as one of those days.

Thank you, sir."

For Amendment—Chester A. Smith ()*

Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) spoke in favor of the amendment, as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman and Members of The General Conference: I hope that this amendment will prevail. One of the most important questions before this country today is the abolition of the American liquor traffic which is our number one enemy, and the securing of more men and women and boys and girls who will become total abstainers from the use of intoxicating liquor.

It is very well that we set aside a day when this important matter shall be presented to the Church, to the boys and girls and adult members of the Church in a special way.

Anything which we can do here which will strike a blow at the liquor traffic and which will lend our support to total abstinence from drinking liquor is something we ought to do.

If we neglect to do that every brewery and every distiller who is carrying on this iniquitous traffic will laugh and say, 'Ah well, The Methodist Church must be taking a reactionary step on this great question.'

There was a day, my friends, when the liquor traffic feared The Methodist Church. I am sorry to say it no longer fears The Methodist Church as it once did, but let us neglect no opportunity to let the breweries and the distillers of this country who are enemies of all that is good in the country, let them know that we are not taking any reactionary step but are determined to outlaw their traffic again as we did back a number of years ago."

Against Amendment—W. Kenneth Goodson

W. Kenneth Goodson (Western North Carolina—SE) spoke against the adoption of the proposed amendment, as follows:—

Mr. Chairman, the amendment that has been suggested asks that we take it out of the category coming now under the supervision of the Annual Conference and put it in that category of days to be observed on a Church-wide basis without an offering.

I assume that there is no difference of feeling among us that Commitment Day should be observed around the Church, but in some Annual Conferences it is observed with an offering. And so I would hope that the amendment would be defeated and it might remain as it is, so that in the Annual Conferences where offerings are received such a procedure may continue.

For Amendment—Verner S. Mumbulo

Verner S. Mumbulo (Detroit—NC) spoke in favor of the proposed amendment, as follows:—

"I have no speech, Mr. Bishop, except to say I hope this amendment will prevail with or without an offering. I think that we are facing an issue in this connection which ought to be assisted by the feeling, by the action of this great Conference to give as much standing to Commitment Sunday across our Church as it is possible to do.

If you could have stood as I did a few weeks ago and seen a fine businessman come to my study and upon his knees ask that he might have one of the Commitment Cards to sign, and if you could have knelt and prayed as I did that day, you would have realized, as many of you Members of this Conference do, what it means to have a great Church behind you, which believes in commitment to total abstinence, and who puts this great thing with all the power and all the pressure and with all the love of the Church behind it to its people once a year.

I hope we will put this day back into the dignity, if I may use that expression, of General Conference order."

For Amendment—Charles I. Carpenter

Charles I. Carpenter (Peninsula—NE) spoke in favor of the proposed amendment, from the standpoint of a Chaplain in the Armed Forces, as follows:—

"Gentlemen, I represent you in the Armed Forces.

We have no bigger problem than the question of youth and liquor. It is time The Methodist Church took a stand with all of the firmness that it possibly can on this subject.

By relegating this day to a day that is a decision of an Annual Conference or a Jurisdictional Conference is not enough. It should be one of the days ordered by The General Conference.

Our youths are too important, gentlemen. I live with them. I work with them. There is not a thing too great for us to do, to do everything possible to try to get youths to make a decision to stay away from alcoholic beverage in every form, and this is one thing we can do—and should!"

For Amendment—B. Clyde Clark ()*

B. Clyde Clark (*) (Oklahoma—SC) spoke in favor of the proposed amendment, as follows:—

"I am very much in favor of this. Now, on the liquor question, we just heard from a man in our Armed Forces, is something that we ought to be very much interested in. And you know, what we do as a General Conference here, I think will have some influence on our young people. You know, too many of our young people are now getting to indulge in some kind of alcoholic beverage, and I am in hopes that we as a General Conference will put our approval on this, taking a collection and take it publicly—or they could ask for some money to support it—so I am very much in favor of this and hope we will adopt it."

Previous Question—Asbury Smith—Ordered

Motion of Asbury Smith (Baltimore—NE), duly seconded, prevailed by more than the required two-thirds majority vote, ordering the Previous Question on the pending amendment.

Closes Debate—Chester A. McPheeters

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) closed the debate for the Co-ordinating Council, with the following statement:—

Certainly no member of this Committee or Co-ordinating Council disagrees with anything that has been said in favor of temperance and abstinence and all the rest. The location of this Day in this category does not particularly degrade it. This is the order of The General Conference of four years ago and is in our Discipline in this fashion.

There is a wide variety of the use of the Day, and the Co-ordinating Council felt that possibly we should allow Conferences and Jurisdictions to make their decisions.

We favor some kind of a Commitment Day or we would not have put it in. Where it goes is not the matter of importance. These Days are just as important as the Days with offerings in The Methodist Church, and we offer it as such. Therefore, we would say that it should follow in this order. We leave it to you, however.

Amendment—G. Lemuel Fenn—Adopted

The proposed amendment of G. Lemuel Fenn (Oklahoma—SC) on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was adopted.

Information Requested—Amendment Proposed—G. Lemuel Fenn—Chester A. McPheeters—Amendment Withdrawn

G. Lemuel Fenn (Oklahoma—SC) requested the following information:—

Mr. Chairman, there are several Days called for on which to take Special Offerings. I notice that in total the number of those to be observed in the Church School and in the Church add up to six—if somebody will check it to see for sure if that is right. Is that right?

I want to make a point of information, please, on the matter of where an amendment should be made—referring this matter back to the proper Commission, to work on reducing the number of Sundays on which special offerings are to be made. Should that be made in connection with this Report, or should such an amendment be made when Report No. 8 of the Council on World Service and Finance comes before us? Should it be made now or should it be made then?

The information requested not being forthcoming at this moment, G. Lemuel Fenn (Oklahoma—SC) moved that the section of Report No. 2 of the Co-ordinating Council, dealing with "Special Days," be referred back to the Co-ordinating Council for their consideration on the matter of combining Special Days to be observed on a Church-wide basis with an offering, so that fewer Special Days will be established.

Statement—Chester A. McPheeters

Before the motion to refer could be seconded, Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) made the following statement:—

I raise a question, Mr. Chairman. The Co-ordinating Council does not have a quorum of its membership here now. If you want action at this time to control this quadrennium it will pretty nearly have to be done here. I don't know how we could possibly get our group together and get a vote on it.

Further Question—G. Lemuel Fenn

G. Lemuel Fenn (Oklahoma—SC) made a further statement, as follows:—

My thought, Mr. Chairman was, I would not like to make a motion saying that we are going to combine this or that without the opportunity for a Commission to give the whole matter proper consideration because certainly nobody wishes to damage any of these causes or to cause them to have less income, but the number of Special Days with Offering is increasing, and I wanted to make a motion in the direction of decreasing them. I am not prepared to make a motion which would state that we combine this one and this one in order to have fewer, but I thought the matter might be referred to the Co-ordinating Council.

Clarifying Statement—Chester A. McPheeters

Chester A. McPheeters made a clarifying statement, as follows:—

May I make a statement on that?

This Report—and you will look at it better on page 258 DCA than you will on page 111 DCA if you do not mind—is a result of varied attempts the Co-ordinating Council has been making for four years to bring us down to the minimum of Special Days.

We have been in touch with every Agency. We have asked the Council of Secretaries to assist us and we have just brought it in in this form so that you would see, the Church can see that there are six Sundays with offerings; otherwise, people have said there are too many. They have talked in terms of a dozen, but we have six Sundays with offerings, and this is the Report as a result of a quadrennium of study in attempting to reduce.

Motion to Refer Withdrawn—G. Lemuel Fenn

G. Lemuel Fenn (Oklahoma—SC) stated that with this explanation he would withdraw his motion to refer Report No. 2 back to the Co-ordinating Council.

Suggestion Re Universal Bible Sunday—Lemuel K. Lord—Approved

Lemuel K. Lord (New England—NE) moved that The General Conference suggest to the National Council of the Churches of Christ in America that Universal Bible Sunday be observed on a Sunday not in the Advent Season.

The motion, being duly seconded, Lemuel K. Lord (New England—NE) spoke to the same, as follows:—

"I think Bible Sunday is a Sunday that is very important in the Church Year and one that we all want to observe. I do think for those who think the Advent season is a season that is also very important that this interrupts the Advent program. Therefore, I think it would be good for Christendom to so order our Program that Universal Bible Sunday would be observed upon another occasion."

Statement—Chester A. McPheeters

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) made the following statement for the Co-ordinating Council:—

Mr. Chairman, as I understand, Dr. Lord's suggestion would be that this merely be suggested to the American Bible Society. There is nothing we can do about it as far as change is concerned. I don't quite see how we would amend this Report because you do not change this Day as far as we are concerned and we would have no right to change this Day, I would think. But you could make the suggestion, and it has been made.

Suggestion Adopted

The suggestion of Lemuel K. Lord (New England) that The General Conference of The Methodist Church suggest to the National Council of the Churches of Christ in America that Universal Bible Sunday be observed on a Sunday not in the Advent Season, on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was approved and adopted.

Information Sought—Paul V. Shearer ()—Chester A. McPheeters*

Paul V. Shearer (*) (Iowa-Des Moines—NC) raised the following question:—

I would like to ask a question of Chairman McPheeters; namely, on page 111 DCA is the proposed legislation following Special Days mandatory or in the nature of a recommendation?

Depending upon the answer of that question will be another question.

Answer—Chester A. McPheeters

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) answered the question, as follows:—

Mr. Chairman, we are establishing Special Days and in the adoption of the two items to which I think you refer we have established and defined these Days.

Further Question—Paul V. Shearer ()*

Paul V. Shearer (*) (Iowa-Des Moines—NC) asked a further question, as follows:—

I am particularly concerned as to the matter in reference to observance of Days with offerings and the problem at hand is that some of our churches are operating under a Unified Budget. Are we going to be technically in violation of the Discipline if we do not take an offering on these specified Days?

Answer—Chester A. McPheeters

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) answered the question, as follows:—

I would have no authority to make a decision at that point. I think possibly within your own conscience you might feel something about it. I don't know.

Further Question—Paul V. Shearer ()*

Paul V. Shearer (*) (Iowa-Des Moines—NC) raised a further question, as follows:—

The problem of course is that we have worked out down at Washington, for example, to present a Unified Budget and we are doing it this year. Now we come up against the specific legislation of The General Conference.

Answer—Chester A. McPheeters

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) replied, as follows:—

I would think, Mr. Chairman, in a Unified Budget, as I know churches do, if you would allocate certain amounts for these Days, for these funds, you would meet the spirit of the law.

Amendment—Alva I. Cox, Sr.—Not Adopted

Alva I. Cox, Sr., (North-East Ohio—NC) moved to amend Report No. 2 of the Co-ordinating Council, DCA No. 6, page 258, columns 1 and 2, Sections 1 and 2 under the heading "Special Days to Be Observed with Offering," by deleting the headings of Sections 1 and 2, which read as follows:—

"1. Days to Be Observed on a Church-wide Basis—With Offering," and

"2. Days to Be Observed in the Church School—With Offering," and combining Sections 1 and 2, to become Section 1, with the following title, "Special Days to Be Observed With Offering," renumbering paragraph 3 as 2, and paragraph 4 as 3, so that the amended Section will read

1. Special Days to Be Observed With Offering

Week of Dedication

The first five days of Lent including the first Lenten Sunday.

World Wide Communion Sunday

First Sunday in October

Race Relations Sunday

Second Sunday in February

Methodist Student Day

Second Sunday in June

World Service Sunday

Fourth Sunday of each month

Church School Rally Day

Sunday to be designated by the Annual Conference

2. Days to Be Observed on a Church-Wide Basis—Without Offering

Student Recognition Day	First Sunday after Christmas
Children's Day	First Sunday in National Family Week
Laymen's Day	Third Sunday in October
World Order Sunday	The Sunday of or preceding November 11th
Universal Bible Sunday	Second Sunday in December

3. Days to Be Observed as Ordered by the Jurisdictional and/or The Annual Conference.

The Sunday of Commitment
Retired Ministers' Sunday
Hospital and Homes Week
Rural Life Sunday

The motion to thus amend, being duly seconded, Alva I. Cox, Sr. (North-East Ohio—NC) spoke to the proposed amendment, as follows:—

Mr. Chairman, there are two or three points to be considered. Some of us have been working awfully hard not only in the direction of achieving Unified Budgets in local churches but also to achieve that sense of unity inside the Church that would get us over talking about Church and Sunday School, Church and Church School, etc. Therefore, it seems to me unfortunate to talk about these two offerings, one to be observed in the Church, the other in the Church School.

I call attention to the fact that the Discipline, Par. 233 now says that Race Relations Day and Methodist Student Day shall be observed in each Local Church. It does not say Church School.

There is a very practical matter so far as I am concerned. I have a very personal interest in the matter of the Church School Rally Day. I know that in the churches of our Conference for the most part where the offering is received it is received not only among the Church School classes but envelopes are distributed and an offering taken at a Sunday morning worship service. I certainly would not want to have this acted upon in such wise that would make impossible members of the Official Board and others who are not members of Church School classes making a contribution to this very important aspect of the Church's work.

Reply—Chester A. McPheeters

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) replied as follows:—

I would like to suggest that the Paragraph which was read concerning Race Relations of course was as read, but it appears in the section on the Church Schools and that is the reason that we listed it here.

How would many churches take care of the Church School Rally Day if you listed all of these under the one heading? I raise that question. However, I would see no objection if we can state it inclusively.

Further Remarks—Alva I. Cox, Sr.

Alva I. Cox, Sr. (North-East Ohio—NC) spoke in support of his proposed amendment, as follows:—

Mr. Chairman, it would seem to me that if we just struck out those caps under 2, "DAYS TO BE OBSERVED IN THE CHURCH SCHOOL," it would then read, "SPECIAL DAYS TO BE OBSERVED WITH OFFERING" and any local church could make its own decision then as to whether it gave the entire church family an opportunity to participate in any of them or all of them, and many churches do that with Race Relations Day, Student Day, and even in some churches the fourth Sunday is observed regularly not only in the Church School but throughout the church.

Question—Bishop Lloyd C. Wicke

Bishop Lloyd C. Wicke, the Presiding Officer, inquired of The General Conference, as follows:—

Does the Conference accept this change as the Committee does?

(Calls of "No" from the Conference.)

Against Amendment—Ralph W. Sockman

Ralph W. Sockman (New York—NE) spoke against the proposed amendment of Alva I. Cox, Sr. (North-East Ohio—NC), as follows:—

Am I to understand this would practically call upon the churches to observe about ten Special Collections if we fulfilled the spirit of this? Dr. McPheeters said that the churches could decide whether it would be done by the Church School or the Church, but what is your understanding? This is sort of an obligation put upon our consciences or our churches. Some of us have a hard time adjusting our preaching to 10 or 20 Special Days a year anyway and to have collections would make it worse.

Statement—Chester A. McPheeters

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) spoke to the proposed amendment of Alva I. Cox, Sr. (North-East Ohio—NC), as follows:—

I think I would agree with Dr. Sockman heartily that our arrangement is a better arrangement, but we would not want to be obstinate about it, however. If you do combine the two as suggested by Dr. Cox, you are then setting one Sunday each month for World Service Sunday, which would add about 11 extra Sundays per year if you want to do that. That is the reason I said we would not object.

Previous Question—Marshall T. Steel—Ordered

Motion of Marshall T. Steel (North Texas—SC), duly seconded, prevailed, by more than the required two-thirds majority vote of The General Conference, ordering the Previous Question on all before The General Conference.

Information—Russell E. Clay—Marshall T. Steel

Russell E. Clay (Southern California-Arizona—W) raised the question as to whether the Previous Question was ordered on the proposed amendment of Alva I. Cox, Sr. (North-East Ohio—NC) or on the entire Report No. 2 of the Co-ordinating Council.

Marshall T. Steel (North Texas—SC) stated that his motion for the Previous Question was on the proposed amendment of Alva I. Cox, Sr. (North-East Ohio—NC).

Closes Debate—Chester A. McPheeters

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) closed the debate for the Co-ordinating Council, with the following statement:—

After hearing your suggestions and your debate, the Chairman, and I believe the Committee on the platform and I believe the Council would still be convinced that our arrangement would be much more simple for the entire Church and I would trust that we might adopt it as it is here presented.

Information Desired—H. Hughes Wagner

H. Hughes Wagner (New England—NE) raised the following question and requested information concerning it:—

This is an inquiry. The other day I asked a question and you told me to wait until this matter came up. It is about the Day of Dedication and I truly am looking for information. I want to know what principle is followed or involved when a Program which is adopted either during a Quadrennial Program in the Advance or the Crusade or whatever turns out to be a good Program, thereby becomes established and a permanent feature of our Benevolence Program. How do you decide that it continues to go on as a Special External Addendum to our Benevolence Work and does not become a part of our continuing, perpetuated, established Benevolence Work which we call World Service?

In other words, why is it the Day of Dedication, with all its emphasis, all of its missionary values which we all admire and like, could not be incorporated by a Co-ordinating Council doing the co-ordinating, and put it back under a World Service aegis?

Answer—Chester A. McPheeters

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) answered the question as follows:—

That was brought to our attention, but we also considered other items, and agreed and felt that the Week of Dedication with all of its message, all of its spirit, needed to be lifted and high-lighted, and therefore should remain as A Special Day, rather than letting it be lost within the total World Service emphasis of the Church.

Information Requested—James P. Brawley ()*

James P. Brawley (*) (Georgia—C) asked the following question:—

My question is this: Race Relations Sunday is listed as A Special Day under "Observance in the Sunday School." Does that mean it is stricken from the Church-wide Observance as listed in the Discipline?

Answer—Chester A. McPheeters

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) answered the question, as follows:—

I attempted to point out that the Discipline now lists Race Relations Sunday under the section on Church School. Therefore we listed it here. That is the way the Discipline now lists it and defines it; although the Discipline does say on a Church-wide basis it still lists it under section on the Church School.

Inquiry—Bishop Lloyd C. Wicke

Bishop Lloyd C. Wicke, the Presiding Officer, asked James P. Brawley (*) (Georgia—C) if this answered his question?

Reply—James P. Brawley ()*

James P. Brawley (*) (Georgia—C) asked further information, as follows:—

No. I don't understand whether or not it is still to be observed on a Church-wide basis.

Answer—Chester A. McPheeters

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) replied as follows:—

It would be exactly as it has been the past quadrennium.

Question Answered—James P. Brawley ()*

James P. Brawley (*) (Georgia—C) stated that this was the information he was seeking.

Information Re Children's Day—Harold S. Swales

Harold S. Swales (Central New York—NE) requested information concerning Children's Day, as follows:—

Mr. Chairman, I request information. Does this, if we pass it, affect the Discipline, which says: "The first Sunday of National Family Week, or some other day selected by the Annual Conference, may be designated as Children's Day?"

If we pass this Report does it mean that we are taking away from the Annual Conference the right to select some other day for Children's Day?

Reply—Chester A. McPheeters

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) answered the question, as follows:—

I would think that an Annual Conference could make that decision, although the general Church would be observing the day, as listed here.

Information Re Golden Cross Sunday—C. Cooper Bell

C. Cooper Bell (Virginia—SE), a member of the General Board of Hospitals and Homes, requested information concerning the place of Golden Cross Sunday, as follows:—

As a member of the Board of Hospitals and Homes of the Church, a number of us are concerned about the Golden Cross Sunday, which is now in the Discipline—

Was that an oversight that that was not included, or what about that? That is now in the Discipline.

Answer—Chester A. McPheeters

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) answered the question, as follows:—

It was not included because it was only rather sectionally observed and we thought the Annual Conference could determine that.

Parliamentary Status—John W. Chittum ()*

John W. Chittum (*) (North-East Ohio—NC) asked for information, as follows:

I would like to ask for information, sir, about what the status is. Was the amendment proposed by Dr. Cox accepted, or is that the first item to be voted upon under the Previous Question?

Ruling—Bishop Lloyd C. Wicke

Bishop Lloyd C. Wicke, the Presiding Officer, replied:—

The Chair is of the opinion that is the first item to be voted upon.

Information Re Race Relations Sunday—Henry L. Dickason ()*

Henry L. Dickason (*) (East Tennessee—C) requested information concerning Race Relations Sunday, as follows:—

Mr. Chairman, I thought from this record that Race Relations Sunday is listed under the Church School. According to our Discipline we cannot find it, as was stated by the Chairman—that this is under Sunday School. Paragraph 1350: "As a means of educating the Church in regard to better Race Relations and the needs of Negro Schools, Race Relations Sunday shall be observed in all the congregations."

Reference is Paragraph 233, No. 3, which says: "Race Relations Sunday shall be observed in every Local Church" not the Sunday School.

Explanation—Chester A. McPheeters

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) gave the requested information, as follows:—

Mr. Chairman, I will just simply state what we said a moment ago, that this does say exactly as our brother has read it, but this appears to us to be under the section on the Church School, under the Board of Education. We are not attempting to confine this to the Church School. That is not our attempt at all. We just listed it to get it into a category and possibly if it needs to be shifted it can be. However, you are not going to do that now.

Discipline Cited—Bruce L. Middaugh

Bruce L. Middaugh (Erie—NE) called attention to Paragraph 233 of the 1952 Discipline of The Methodist Church, which reads as follows:—

"Par. 233. The following Special Days shall be observed in the Church School."

and called attention to Item 3, Race Relations Sunday.

Questions—John O. Gross—Answers—Chester A. McPheeters

John O. Gross (Kentucky—SE) asked some questions, which were answered by Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC), as follows:—

My question relates to the item just raised by Dr. Middaugh. I would like to ask Dr. McPheeters if Paragraph 233, Sub-Paragraphs 3 and 4, as now in the Discipline will remain as they are and may be interpreted as they now stand?

Chester A. McPheeters: We have nothing to do with those Paragraphs.

John O. Gross: Oh, yes. You have given legislation and have interpreted Race Relations and Methodist Student Day to be under Paragraph 233.

Chester A. McPheeters: Using the line, "The following Special Days shall be observed in the Church School." While that has been true, practically speaking, the Days have been observed by the local churches in the congregation.

John O. Gross: My question is, will these Paragraphs be changed or will we be permitted to continue the practices that have been built up through the years in the observance of these two Days?

Chester A. McPheeters: It was our intention that we should continue what has been practiced.

John O. Gross: Thank you.

Discipline Cited Re Golden Cross Sunday—Embree H. Blackard

Embree H. Blackard (Western North Carolina—SE) called attention to the 1952 Discipline of The Methodist Church, Paragraph 1569-1, which provides for Golden Cross Enrollment Sunday.

Information Re Layman's Day—R. Edwin Kimbrough

R. Edwin Kimbrough (North Alabama—SE) requested information concerning Layman's Day, as follows:—

Mr. Chairman, I am a freshman member of this body, and thus loath to speak. I have been waiting for someone to raise this point. I should like to inquire of the Chairman, Dr. McPheeters, concerning Layman's Day. The Co-ordinating Council recommends that it be observed on a Church-wide basis without offering.

I should like to ask him this: Do members of the Co-ordinating Council know that Layman's Day is observed by many Annual Conferences on a day not recommended, and that an offering is taken? If they are aware of this fact why do they not place Layman's Day under category 4, if it is true as you say that by placing an item or A Special Day under category 4 it is not degrading?

Answer—Chester A. McPheeters

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) answered as follows:—

This has been cleared with the Board of Lay Activities. I think there are a few churches who do as you say, but generally the Layman's Day is without offering.

Amendment Read—Ernest W. Peterson ()*

At the request of Bishop Lloyd C. Wicke, the Presiding Officer, Ernest W. Peterson (*) (Oregon—W) Document Secretary, read the proposed amendment of Alva I. Cox, Sr. (North-East Ohio—NC), as follows:—

Page 258, strike out in the box on that page the item of No. 2 and the sentence in capital letters, "DAYS TO BE OBSERVED IN THE CHURCH SCHOOL—WITH OFFERING," and include the next four items, Race Relations Sunday, Methodist Student Day, World Service Sunday, and Church School Rally Day, under the paragraph numbered 1. Remember the other two paragraphs 3 and 4 as paragraphs 2 and 3.

Amendment—Alva I. Cox, Sr.—Not Adopted

The proposed amendment of Alva I. Cox, Sr. (North-East Ohio—NC), on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.

Special Days Section—Adopted

The "Special Days" section of Report No. 2 of the Co-ordinating Council, DCA No. 6, page 258, columns 1 and 2, and also found in DCA No. 3, page 111, columns 2 and 3, on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was adopted.

Organizational Structure—General Agency Membership—Chester A. McPheeters—Adopted

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) presented the section, "Organizational Structure," DCA No. 3, page 111, bottom of column 3, and "1. General Agency Membership," DCA No. 3, page 112, top of column 1, and on his motion, duly seconded, both paragraphs were adopted.

Tenure Presented—Chester A. McPheeters

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) presented Item No. "2. Tenure" found on page 112, column 1, DCA No. 3, and stated that the word "twelve" had been substituted for the word "eight" in line three, of Paragraph 1104, Discipline of 1952. The Methodist Church, so that the amended Paragraph 1104 will read:—

"Tenure on any Division Board, Commission, or Council except The Council of Bishops and The Judicial Council, shall be limited to twelve consecutive years; provided, however, that this limitation shall take effect from The General Conference of 1952 and shall not be retroactive.

"In order to provide for continuing Divisions, Boards, Commissions, and Councils, it is recommended that each nominating and electing body give special attention to rotation of its representatives on these Agencies."

Amend by Deletion—Graham S. Eubank—Not Adopted

Graham S. Eubank (North Carolina—SE) moved to amend Report No. 2 of the Co-ordinating Council, by deleting the entire Section "2. Tenure," of Report No. 2 of the Co-ordinating Council, DCA No. 3, page 112, column 1, and which reads as follows:—

2. Tenure

The 1952 General Conference adopted an eight-year limit for the members serving on General Boards and Agencies, beginning with 1952. (Par. 1104). The Council has received complaints from some General Boards and Agencies with respect to this limitation. Careful consideration has been given to the feeling existing in some of the General Boards that the wisdom and experience needed, particularly in the handling of funds and investments, is adversely affected by the eight-year rule.

Your Council, therefore, recommends that the word "eight" in Par. 1104 be changed to "twelve"; and that in order to provide for continuing Divisions, Boards, Commissions, and Councils, it is recommended that each nominating and electing body give special attention to rotation of its representatives on these Agencies.

Change Paragraph 1104

Line 3 substitute "twelve" for "eight" and add

In order to provide for continuing Divisions, Boards, Commissions, and Councils, it is recommended that each nominating and electing body give special attention to rotation of its representatives on these agencies.

So that the Paragraph shall read:

"Tenure on any Division, Board, Commission, or Council except The Council of Bishops and The Judicial Council, shall be limited to twelve consecutive years; provided, however, that this limitation shall take effect from The General Conference of 1952 and shall not be retroactive.

In order to provide for continuing Divisions, Boards, Commissions, and Councils, it is recommended that each nominating and electing body give special attention to rotation of its representatives on these Agencies."

The motion to amend by deleting, being duly seconded, Graham S. Eubank (North Carolina—SE) spoke to the same as follows:—

The reason why I am making this motion is because if when we examine the number of members of the General Boards and Agencies of the Church we find that we do not have a great number of our people on these Boards. With a Church as large as ours I am quite confident that we have adequate leadership, Ministerial and Lay, to take their places when the law requires that some people be retired from those Boards.

Now, I believe that should we increase from eight to twelve, the next General Conference in 1960 will be seeking to add four more years to it. I believe in the leadership of our Church, that we have it in quantity and quality to meet the needs of Methodism on the General Boards and Agencies, regardless of what those needs may be.

For Amendment—W. Sproule Boyd

W. Sproule Boyd (Pittsburgh—NE) spoke in favor of the proposed motion of deletion, as follows:—

Mr. Chairman and Members of The General Conference: I would like to speak in support of this amendment. I believe that on every level of our Church life, from the local congregation on up to The General Conference of the Church and the General Boards, one of the problems is to integrate people into the life of the Church by finding places of service. I feel that in a Church with over nine million members, there are vast resources of leadership that we do not touch. I think that in eight years a person on a General Board can render a service and I believe it would be well thereafter to find the available persons who could replace him on that Board.

I have been a member of a Board for four years, not a very good member, I am sure. But I think, even if I should be on that Board another four years, which probably is doubtful, at the end of that four years that would be enough.

Against Amendment—Eugene L. Smith

Eugene L. Smith (Newark—NE), General Secretary of the Division of World Missions of the General Board of Missions of The Methodist Church, spoke against the proposed motion of Graham S. Eubank (North Carolina—SE) to delete Section 2 Tenure of Report No. 2 of the Co-ordinating Council, as follows:—

I speak as a Secretary of an Agency which is very vitally involved in this question before us. There is a precedent within many local churches and many Annual Conferences for the rotation of membership of Boards, and with this I am personally in hearty agreement. However, this particular question before us calls in effect for the rotation of Trustees, which is a slightly different matter, and at this point a very important matter. In actual fact, the action to limit the tenure of membership on a Board to eight years is to concentrate power in the hands of us who are Secretaries in a way which I do not think that this General Conference wants to do. I do not want that much power.

It takes time in a Division which operates in the complex and intricate matters of your Division of World Missions for men to become so acquainted and oriented that they can effectively participate in the real decisions of that Division. I cherish that effective participation on the part of all of our membership. I report to you accurately that if a man comes on eight years and is off in eight years, it will not be possible to get the real participation of the representatives of the Jurisdiction and the Members-at-Large on the level that it ought to be. The limitation to eight years is in effect, therefore, an undemocratic limitation.

Twelve years gives us that much more time to bring men into the real places of decision in the life of the Board.

I also speak with very great concern about the stewardship of the largest endowment funds in The Methodist Church. I as a clergyman simply do not have enough know-how to know how to handle the large endowments in your Division of World Missions if you require us to bring men onto the Finance Committee and then take them off within eight years.

Now, it has been suggested in support of the eight-year limitation that it might be possible to have the accumulated experience in the specialty of Church Finance by having the Co-opted Members remain on for more than eight years. But this I think is not the real desire of The General Conference. If your Co-opted Members who are not Members of the Board remain on for more than eight years have the weight of seniority and experience, what you are doing is concentrating power in the hands of men who are not members of the Board and, therefore, by the law of the Church in a sense are isolated from the spiritual concerns that must dominate the financial decisions. It is a much sounder stewardship of the largest endowment funds of the Church. It provides for much more adequate participation in the real decisions that are made within the Boards, if you will extend the membership for twelve years.

For Amendment—Allen Whitfield ()*

Allen Whitfield (*) (Iowa-Des Moines—NC) spoke in favor of the motion to amend by deletion, as follows:—

I speak in support of this amendment to keep the term of the Members of the Boards at eight years. The speaker who has just concluded his remarks made special emphasis of the point that it is necessary to secure continuity for a longer period than eight years in order to maintain the proper investment advice for the funds that are in the hands of these Boards. I would point out that the Report of the Co-ordinating Council makes no such limitation to the men who are dealing with the financial aspects of the General Boards. Therefore, his argument does not direct itself to the Report of the Co-ordinating Council in question.

Now, in addition, Members of The Conference, I want to point out that it becomes extremely difficult for this Church to bring to the top leadership of the Church young men and women, if you establish a system which does not permit a rotation in a shorter period than twelve years.

It is my judgment that there are enough men who are devoted Christian men in The Methodist Church to furnish a breadth of experience in connection with all matters that will come to the attention of these Boards, and the one great advantage of rotation is simply this: While it is true that there may be some loss in continuity, it is also true that the established order which may be in error will have a chance to be corrected by a rotation system which will bring to the Board Programs some new ideas, new personalities, and new Programs.

Against Amendment—George H. Atkinson ()*

George H. Atkinson (*) (California-Nevada—W) spoke against the motion to delete "Item 2, Tenure," as follows:—

I rise to ask that you please defeat this amendment. I listened to the last speaker with respect, but as a practical matter I do not believe his views are good.

Having served on the National Board of Missions for some two terms now, I have had a good chance to examine and check on the way it goes. Prior to going on that, my ideas were the same as many of the Laymen here, that the new members should take over, and so forth. But what we have found on the Board of Missions is this: that in the previous days the Staff was so deeply entrenched, their ideas were already fixed. You got to a meeting and practically were given the minutes of the meeting for you to approve by the time you got there, and the new members coming for the first time—simply that is all they could do.

Now, we have been several years working out a system where the experienced Lay Members and experienced Ministerial Members could get into the workings of the Boards and really have some effect on their policies. I don't want sixteen years. I don't want twenty years, but I do think if you have a rotating system of twelve years that you give the Lay members and the Ministerial members of these Boards a chance to understand what is going on and actually to do them some good.

If you start holding this to the eight-year rule, you will simply turn it back to the Staffs and all these people do is go and vote for what they suggest. He doesn't know enough to make any changes.

Previous Question—Paul V. Shearer (*)—Ordered

On motion of Paul V. Shearer (*) (Iowa-Des Moines—NC), the Previous Question, on the pending motion to delete "Item 2. Tenure," was ordered by more than the required two-thirds majority vote.

Closes Debate—Chester A. McPheeters

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) closed the debate for the Co-ordinating Council, on the pending motion to delete "Item 2, Tenure," with the following statement:—

Mr. Chairman, up until a few years ago there was no limited tenure on the membership of any of our General Agencies and Boards, at least established by The General Conference. It was felt at that time, after careful study, that there should be some limit.

Now, you can make the limit in one of two ways. You can make it by age, or you can make it by years of service. The recommendation to The General Conference of 1952 was to make the limit eight years of service on any Board or Agency.

During this quadrennium, the Co-ordinating Council was approached with the suggestion by one of its Boards to change, if they found a rotating plan, to change their Board. One-half every four years was not good. Therefore, the Co-ordinating Council has come to you with this suggestion that we set a twelve-year limit. There should be some limit—and so we set a twelve-year limit. Thus, a rotating plan would mean one-third each Quadrennium.

I call your attention to the fact that as you vote—and you are voting to delete, I understand, the Paragraph I didn't read in the proper place, the one which follows "Change Paragraph 1104," so that Paragraph shall read: "Tenure on any Division, Board, Commission, or Council except The Council of Bishops and The Judicial Council, shall be limited to twelve consecutive years; provided, however, that this limitation shall take effect from The General Conference of 1952 and shall not be retroactive," and so on—I trust that you will pass this, because we believe it is best for the Church and best for the Boards.

Questions—Dwight E. Walter (*)—Answers—Bishop Lloyd C. Wicke

Dwight E. Walter (*) (Ohio—NC) asked the following question:—

As I understood the motion that we are now voting on, it was to delete Paragraph 1104, and I wonder if that is to delete the Paragraph as it now stands, or is it to cut out this amendment?

Ruling—Bishop Lloyd C. Wicke

Bishop Lloyd C. Wicke, the Presiding Officer, ruled, as follows:—

As the Chair understands it, it is to eliminate the Paragraph under "Tenure." Is the Chairman in agreement?

Amendment Read—Ernest W. Peterson ()*

At the request of Bishop Lloyd C. Wicke, the Presiding Officer, Ernest W. Peterson (*) (Oregon—W), Document Secretary, read the proposed amendment of Graham S. Eubank (North Carolina—SE), as follows:—

The amendment by Graham S. Eubanks reads: I move the deletion of paragraph No. 2, Tenure, page 112 of The Christian Advocate report No. II of the Co-ordinating Council.

Further Question—Dwight E. Walter ()*

Dwight E. Walter (*) (Ohio—NC) raised a second question, as follows:—

Then, as I understand, it will not change the Discipline as it now stands if this amendment is adopted.

Ruling—Bishop Lloyd C. Wicke

Bishop Lloyd C. Wicke, the Presiding Officer, ruled, as follows:—

It would be the Chairman's understanding that your opinion is correct, sir.

Motion to Delete—Graham S. Eubank—Not Adopted

The motion of Graham S. Eubank (North Carolina—SE) to amend Report No. 2 of the Co-ordinating Council, by deleting "Item 2, Tenure," found on page 112, column 1, DCA No. 3, on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.

Item 2, Tenure—Adopted

The Section of Report No. 2 of the Co-ordinating Council, embracing "Item 2, Tenure," on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was adopted.

Motion to Adjourn—Lynn J. Radcliffe—Adopted

Motion of Lynn J. Radcliffe (Ohio—NC), duly seconded, prevailed, that after the necessary announcements, and hearing the results of the Second Ballot for members of The Judicial Council, we adjourn, with further consideration of and action on Report No. 2 of the Co-ordinating Council, pending.

Richard W. Campbell (*) (Central Pennsylvania—NE) moved that we take a Third Ballot for members of The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church.

Ruling—Bishop Lloyd C. Wicke

Bishop Lloyd C. Wicke, the Presiding Officer, ruled that, The General Conference being under an order to adjourn, the motion for a Third Ballot was out of order at this time.

Announcements

Announcements of various kinds were made.

Thanks—Gavel—Bishop Lloyd C. Wicke

Bishop Lloyd C. Wicke, the Presiding Officer, expressed his thanks to his colleagues of The Council of Bishops, for their unfailing support, and to The General Conference for its courtesy and generosity, and stated that the gavel he was using at this evening's session, came from the Old White House, and belonged to Brother Begley of Bluefield, West Virginia.

Adjournment—Benediction—Bishop Hiram A. Boaz

Bishop Hiram A. Boaz, Retired, pronounced the Benediction, and The General Conference of The Methodist Church adjourned its evening session of the Eighth Day, Wednesday, May 2, 1956, at 10:10 P.M., with further consideration of and action on Report No. 2 of the Co-ordinating Council, pending.

NINTH DAY, THURSDAY, MAY 3, 1956

MORNING SESSION

Opening—Bishop Marvin A. Franklin

Pursuant to adjournment the General Conference of The Methodist Church convened in the morning session of the Ninth Day, Thursday, May 3, 1956, in the Municipal Auditorium of Minneapolis, Minnesota, at 8:30 A.M. with Bishop Marvin A. Franklin, of the Jackson Area, Southeastern Jurisdiction in the Chair, and further consideration of and action on Report No. 2 of the Co-ordinating Council pending.

Bishop Marvin A. Franklin, the Presiding Officer, announced that Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy of the Los Angeles Area, Western Jurisdiction, would conduct the Devotional Service of the morning.

Devotional Service—Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy

Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy of the Los Angeles Area, Western Jurisdiction, conducted the Devotional Service, as follows:—

Invocation—Hymn—Prayer—Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy—James R. Houghton ()*

Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy offered a short invocation and announced Hymn No. 20, "We Gather Together to Ask the Lord's Blessing." Under the leadership of James R. Houghton (*) (New England—NE), General Conference Director of Music, The General Conference, standing, joined in the singing of the Hymn, after which Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy led in prayer, at the close of which The General Conference joined with Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy in the Lord's Prayer.

Devotional Address—Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy—Hymn—Benediction

Using as the basis of his message the words found in Deuteronomy 2:3, "You have wandered in this wilderness, turn northward." Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy brought the message of the morning from the theme, "God Speaks to Us," and its conclusion led in prayer.

Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy announced Hymn No. 264, "March On, O Soul, With Strength." The General Conference, standing, joined in the singing of the Hymn under the direction of James R. Houghton (*) (New England—NE), General Conference Director of Music.

Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy then pronounced the Benediction.

No. 5 Journal—Nathan R. Graham (*)

Nathan R. Graham (*) (Florida—SE) presented Report No. 4 of the Standing Administrative Committee on the Journal (DB-69) and on his motion, duly seconded, it was adopted as follows:—

“The Journal for Tuesday morning and Tuesday evening, May 2nd., has been examined, and found to be correct.”

(Signed) Nathan R. Graham (*)

No. 9 Courtesies and Privileges—Alexander K. Smith

Alexander K. Smith (Philadelphia—NE), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee on Courtesies and Privileges, presented the following two matters, and action was taken, separately on each, as indicated:—

First—Bishop Richard C. Raines—Bishop Hyungki J. Lew

Requested recognition of Bishop Richard C. Raines for a privileged matter.

Bishop Marvin A. Franklin, the Presiding Officer, recognized Bishop Richard C. Raines of the Indiana Area, North Central Jurisdiction, who presented to Bishop Hyungki J. Lew of the Methodist Church of Korea, a moving picture film, entitled, “Report Korea,” made by the Radio and Film Commission of The Methodist Church, depicting the use made of the funds contributed to the Bishops’ Appeal for Korea, and of others for the rebuilding of churches and Methodist institutions in the land of Korea.

In well chosen words Bishop Hyungki J. Lew, expressed the sincere appreciation of The Methodist Church of Korea for the gift of $1,600,000 contributed through the Bishops’ Appeal for Korea, 70% of which was used for the rehabilitation of churches, schools, hospitals and other institutions, and 30% for general relief.

Second—Bishop Ivan Lee Holt—Louis Spilman ()—Edwin L. Jones, Sr. ()

Requested the recognition of Bishop Ivan Lee Holt for a privileged matter.

Bishop Marvin A. Franklin, the Presiding Officer, recognized Bishop Ivan Lee Holt, of the Saint Louis Area, South Central Jurisdiction, who made a special announcement concerning the approaching World Methodist Council to be held at Lake Junaluska, North Carolina early in September, 1956.

Louis Spilman () (Virginia—SE) and Edwin L. Jones, Sr. () (Western North Carolina—SE) made additional announcements concerning the same.

No. 7 Credentials—Elmer E. Mathews (*)

Elmer E. Mathews (*) (New Jersey—NE), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee on Credentials, presented Report No. 7 of the Committee, and on his motion, duly seconded, it was adopted without reading, and ordered printed in the Journal. For Report see Appendix, page 1203.

No. 5 Committee of Chairmen—A. Wesley Pugh

A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee of Chairmen, presented the following matters separately, which were adopted, on his motion, said motion being duly seconded:—

1st. That time of this afternoon's session be set at 2:30 P.M., and the time of tonight's session be set at 7:45 P.M.

2nd. That there be one session held on Saturday, May 5, 1956, with the Recess Period at 11:00 A.M. and the time of adjournment at 2:30 P.M., and made the following statement concerning this session:—

"The time of the afternoon session needs no explanation. The session on Saturday does need some explanation. We have discovered that arrangements have been made for a great meeting here Saturday night, which requires that we relinquish our places here in the auditorium not later than 3:00 or 4:00 o'clock.

Having considered all of these possibilities and also our obligation to the Program Committee we felt rather than have a very abbreviated session in the afternoon it would be much better to have one long session; have a good breakfast and a little recess and coffee at 11:00 o'clock, and continue our session until 2:30, have just one session on Saturday."

3rd. That we set as the tentative date for final adjournment the end of the morning session of Monday, May 7, 1956, and made the following statement concerning this matter:—

"Now as to the time of adjournment. We are just as anxious to get away from here as anybody, I am sure. However, considering the fact that there are two very important Committees that are going to have to work a good deal of this afternoon yet, maybe this evening some, in order to get their Memorials work through into Reports to be presented here to this General Conference, we could not see how, under the limitations of a brief Saturday afternoon, we could get through the business of The Conference in the way you would like to do it, without feeling tremendous pressure, without feeling great restrictions had been placed upon you, the delegated Members of The General Conference.

When we say 'at the end of the morning session' of course, we realize that gives some latitude. That could go on until the middle of the afternoon. But we feel that we ought to aim at least at that as our target date of adjournment. We do not feel, in justice to the great matters that are still before us, that it could be sooner than that."

A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee of Chairmen, at the request of the Committee, made the following statement:—

"Further, Mr. Chairman and fellow Delegates, the Committee on Chairmen have asked me to remind you that The Conference moves along only as rapidly as you will allow it to move. If you desire to consume an hour or so on a trivial amendment, I do not see how it can be prevented, without our moving restraints which you would not like. Therefore, the Committee feels that if an amendment is offered which is not of too great importance, that you try to move it along as rapidly as possible and not consume an hour or so on an amendment that could be settled in ten or fifteen minutes.

Further, may I request—and this is an official request from the Committee—that you confirm the following: The afternoon session, at 2:30 will be held as announced, but it will be necessary that we excuse two of our major Standing Legislative Committees from this session—the Committee on Conferences and the Committee on the State of the Church. They have a good deal of work yet to finish. If we let them have this afternoon, excuse them from The Conference session, they will finish their work by this evening. That is, they will feel that they are instructed to do so.

In view of that, as we go ahead with the work of The General Conference and allow them to continue in their Committees, when we come, if we do come to matters which are controversial or involve any serious debate or discussion, we should in fairness to them defer action upon those portions of Reports or total Reports in which they would like to be involved, so far as the debate and discussion and understanding of the issues are concerned.

With this understanding, I should like to move that we do excuse these two Committees from the afternoon session and that the business proceed somewhat as I have indicated."

Committees on Conferences and State of the Church— Excused—A. Wesley Pugh

On motion of A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee of Chairmen, duly seconded, the members of Standing Legislative Committees on Conferences, and the State of the Church, were excused from this afternoon's session, with the proviso that if a vote was taken for Members of The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church during the afternoon session, the members of each Committee would be permitted to vote at their respective places of meeting.

Question—N. J. Golding—Answer—A. Wesley Pugh

Nathaniel J. Golding (North Mississippi—SE) asked how would the voting for Members of The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church be taken care of if these two Major Committees were excused?

A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee of Chairmen, answered:—

"Of course we would not presume to take a vote on The Judicial Council in the absence of these Committees, unless The Conference would permit them to be polled at their meeting place."

No. 6 Chairmen—Ratio of General Conference Membership—A. Wesley Pugh—Nolan B. Harmon—Referred

A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee of Chairmen, stated that the Committee had discussed the present ratio of membership in The General Conference in regard to the growth of The Methodist Church in the Annual Conferences, and presented Nolan B. Harmon (Virginia—SE) for a Resolution concerning the same.

Resolution Re Membership in General Conference—Nolan B. Harmon—A. Wesley Pugh

Nolan B. Harmon (Virginia—SE) presented a Resolution (DB-69) touching the matter of membership in The General Conference, and on his motion, duly seconded, it was referred to the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, as follows:—

"Whereas, the Constitution of The Methodist Church provides that The General Conference shall be composed of not more than 800 delegates; and

Whereas, under the present Statutory Provision allowing The General Conference to determine the ratio of representation in The General Conference within the limits fixed by the Constitution, the ratio has been fixed as one Ministerial Delegate for every 70 Ministerial Members of an Annual Conference; and

Whereas it appears that it is entirely possible for the Church so to grow during the next four years that under the one Delegate for every 70 Members ratio, more Delegates may be elected than can be seated without creating a Conference whose membership shall be above the Constitutional limit;

We, the Standing Administrative Committee of Chairmen of The General Conference do hereby recommend that the ratio of representation of Delegates to Conference Membership be altered to 'one Ministerial Delegate for every 75 members of the electing Annual Conference'";

And you will understand, Brethren, that of course an equal number of Laymen will always be elected.

"And to effect this change we recommend that Paragraph 501 of the present Discipline be changed accordingly.

"Directive: In Paragraph 501, line 2, change word '70' to '75' so that the line as amended will read:—

"The General Conference shall be composed of one Ministerial Member for every seventy-five Ministerial Members of each Annual Conference."

Signed Nolan B. Harmon

Parliamentary Situation—Bishop Marvin A. Franklin—Lud H. Estes

Bishop Marvin A. Franklin, the Presiding Officer, made the following statement concerning the parliamentary situation:—

"Now we come to further business of this Conference, and I would like to state to you what appears to the Chair to be our situation:

You have a continuing Order on the election of Members of The Judicial Council.

You have a pending matter that was unfinished at the close of the session last evening.

You have an Order of the Day, consideration of the Report of the Council on World Service and Finance.

It would appear to the Chair that you may wish to continue your balloting first; dispose of the matters pending, second; and then take the Order of the Day."

Motion of Lud H. Estes (Memphis—SE), duly seconded, prevailed, that the order of procedure outlined by Bishop Marvin A. Franklin, the Presiding Officer, be approved.

Question Re Judicial Council—Louis Spilman (*)—Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam

Louis Spilman (*) (Virginia—SE) raised the following question concerning each Jurisdiction of The Methodist Church being represented in the membership of The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church, with a request for a statement from Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, Secretary of The Council of Bishops of The Methodist Church:—

"Mr. Chairman, I think there is a good deal of question that every Jurisdiction be represented on The Judicial Council. I would like to ask, as a matter of privilege, that Bishop Oxnam, make a statement concerning this particular point."

Statement—Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam

Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam of the Washington Area, Northeastern Jurisdiction, and Secretary of The Council of Bishops of The Methodist Church, answered the question, as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman, a request from The Conference is of course a command. This is a little difficult; may I state the situation slowly, and I trust clearly.

The Judicial Council is composed of nine persons, five Ministers and four Laymen. There is a requirement, however, in the choice of these nine persons that each Jurisdiction be represented.

At this Conference because of retirement and death, and because of Classes expiring, it is necessary for you to elect seven persons. Of the seven, four are to be Ministers and three Laymen. You have now elected two Ministers and one Layman, which means that you have yet before you the necessity of electing two additional Laymen. At the present time your election has resulted in the following situation:

The Northeastern, the Southeastern, the North Central, and the Central Jurisdictions are represented. The Western and the South Central are not represented. In previous General Conferences, even though a person received a majority vote, he was not declared elected until the provision which calls for one person from each Jurisdiction had been met. The announcement however up to the moment has been an announcement of election. It would appear that the entire balloting would be invalidated unless in the choice of two additional Ministers and two additional Laymen, representation should come from the Western and the South Central Jurisdictions. This is simply a statement of fact.

Will you pardon one additional word? The law is so drawn that it would appear wise for The General Conference to think of future re-drafting. I mention this not to confuse. The Council of Bishops is required to nominate four persons for each vacancy. Suppose we were now nominating the entire Jurisdictional Council. Four times nine would be thirty-six. If The Council of Bishops sent you six nominations from each Jurisdiction, you would have the thirty-six. But it is mathematically possible for you to elect six of those persons from one Jurisdiction, and three from another, making nine, and therefore having four Jurisdictions unrepresented. You can see the mathematical problem that is involved here.

The legislation perhaps should be re-drafted. At the moment the situation is, four Jurisdictions are represented by your present choices; two must be represented if you are to follow the law. They are the Western and the South Central Jurisdictions."

Third Ballot Judicial Council—Luther W. Wells (*)

The Third Ballot for members of The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church was spread, under the guidance of Luther W. Wells (*) (Virginia—SE), Secretary of Ballots and Tellers.

Second Ballot Read—Embree H. Blackard—Bishop Marvin A. Franklin

Embree H. Blackard (Western North Carolina—SE) requested that the results of the Second Ballot for members of The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church, announced last night, be read for the benefit of the Members of The General Conference.

Complying with the request, and for the information of

The General Conference, Bishop Marvin A. Franklin, the Presiding Officer, ordered the reading of the Second Ballot for members of The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church, and the same was done by Luther W. Wells (*) (Virginia—SE), Secretary of Ballot and Tellers.

Dallas L. Browning Withdraws

Dallas L. Browning, Ministerial Nominee from Indiana—NC, requested that his name be withdrawn from the ballot, after he had expressed his appreciation to The Council of Bishops of The Methodist Church for nominating him and to all those who had voted for him.

Question—Carl W. Haggard ()—Reply—Bishop Marvin A. Franklin*

Carl W. Haggard (*) (Kentucky—SE) asked for the following information:—

“I am asking for a point of information. On the two Jurisdictions that are not represented in our voting, are we to vote for both Ministerial and Lay Delegates for those two Jurisdictions, or just Ministerial, or just Lay?”

Bishop Marvin A. Franklin, the Presiding Officer, answered as follows:—

“Well, the Chair would say the only requirement is that there be at least one representative from each Jurisdiction, and it makes no difference whether that one be a Lay or a Clerical Member.”

Instructions—Luther W. Wells ()*

Luther W. Wells (*) (Virginia—SE), Secretary of Ballots and Tellers, gave further instructions concerning the proper taking of the Third Ballot for members of The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church.

Excused Committee Members to Vote—Frank C. Love (*)

On motion of Frank C. Love (*) (Central New York—NE), duly seconded, prevailed, granting the privilege of voting for Members of The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church, to the excused members of the Standing Legislative Committees on Conferences and the State of the Church at their respective places of meeting, should the Fourth Ballot be taken during their absence from the seat of The General Conference.

Third Ballot Taken—Luther W. Wells (*)

The Third Ballot for members of The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church was spread, the votes collected, and the Tellers retired to count the same, under the direction of Luther W. Wells (Virginia—SE), Secretary of Ballots and Tellers.

Report No. 2—Co-ordinating Council—Resumed—Chester A. McPheeters

Consideration of and action on Report No. 2 of the Co-ordinating Council was resumed, the same having been under consideration at the time of adjournment of the session of Wednesday night, May 2, 1956, but not completed, with Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) presenting Report No. 2.

On the Platform—Edwin R. Garrison—Paul G. James ()
—James P. Stafford ()

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) asked that Edwin R. Garrison (North Indiana—NC), Paul G. James () (Iowa Des-Moines—NC), and James P. Stafford () (Mississippi—SE) come to the platform to assist in the presentation of Report No. 2 of the Co-ordinating Council.

Amendment by Common Consent—Chester A. McPheeters

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) requested common consent, which was unanimously granted, to change the headings on "Special Days" found on page 258, DCA No. 6, columns 1 and 2, and which reads as follows:—

Questions—George H. Atkinson ()—Answer—Chester A. McPheeters*

George H. Atkinson (*) (California-Nevada—W) raised the following questions:—

“Does this mean that the Fourth Sunday morning collection from every church must be given to World Service? You should clarify that matter, whether that is Sunday School alone or church. When you change this heading you leave that matter an uncertainty.”

Chester A. McPheeters:—It could be either, because in some churches they do both, but it could be either.

George H. Atkinson (*):—As determined by an individual church or Conference?

Chester A. McPheeters:—Apparently as determined by the church.”

Methodist Committee for Overseas Relief—Chester A. McPheeters—Adopted

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) moved the adoption of "Item 3. M.C.O.R." DCA No. 3, page 112, column 1. The motion, duly seconded, prevailed.

4. Social Action Boards—Action Deferred—Chester A. McPheeters—W. Ralph Ward—Frank C. Love ()—Harold A. Bosley*

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) presented "Item 4. Social Action Boards," DCA No. 3, page 112, column 2, for the consideration of The General Conference.

W. Ralph Ward (Pittsburgh—NE) requested that action be deferred on this particular Item, until a Report from a Sub-Committee of the Standing Legislative Committee on the State of the Church touching the merger of the Social Action Boards on the Annual Conference level could be presented as an amendment.

Frank C. Love (*) (Central New York—NE) Chairman of the Sub-Committee of the Standing Legislative Committee on the State of the Church, stated the Sub-Committee was recommending a merger on the Local Church and Annual Conference level and approving the recommendation of the Co-ordinating Council for a further study on The General Conference level.

Harold A. Bosley (Rock River—NC), Vice-Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on State of the Church, stated that the Committee would act on the Report of the Sub-Committee this afternoon, and suggested a withdrawal of "Item 4. Social Action Boards," from further consideration at this time.

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) stated that "Item 4. Social Action Boards," DCA No. 3, page 112, column 2, would be withdrawn from consideration of and action on by The General Conference for the present.

5. Survey Recommendations—Chester A. McPheeters—Adopted

On motion of Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC), duly seconded, "Item 5. Survey Recommendations," DCA No. 3, page 112, columns 2 and 3, was adopted.

1. Acquisition of Property—Chester A. McPheeters—Adopted

Motion of Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC), duly seconded, prevailed, adopting "No. 1. Acquisition of Property," of the Section on "Property Matters and Methodist Foundation," DCA No. 3, page 112, column 3.

2. Methodist Foundation—Chester A. McPheeters

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) presented Item 2, DCA No. 3, page 112, column 3 and page 113, column 1, entitled "2. Methodist Foundation," together with "Suggested Legislation," DCA No. 3, page 113, columns 1, 2, and 3, and moved their adoption. The motion to adopt, being duly seconded, Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) spoke to the Report as follows:—

"Now, Mr. Chairman, we come to No. 2, Methodist Foundation. For a number of years, there has been a growing interest in the creation of a Methodist Foundation. That interest has been stimulated by inquiries which have come from individuals desiring to arrange for the distribution of estates and from lawyers whose clients have asked to make such inquiries. For many years, the churches and Church Institutions have set up permanent endowment funds to support themselves and the causes which they represent. Annual Conferences have established Conference Foundations. Boards and Agencies have built up large endowment funds and Annuity Plans which have proved of great value to people in contributing and to the causes supported.

The inquiries which have come to the Council of World Service and Finance have indicated, however, that there are people who desire to do something on a larger scale for The Methodist Church than the Annual Conference and the more general scope than our Boards and Agencies. They have sought to give a substantial gift or to leave large bequests to The Methodist Church, in fact the Council on World Service and Finance now administers some moneys which have been given for such purpose.

The conviction has grown among leaders in this field that an Incorporated Foundation would serve the Church as no Annual Conference Foundation and no Board Permanent Fund or Endowment Fund could possibly do. Moreover, it is believed that a carefully planned Foundation would not only serve the Church, but it would actually attract larger gifts and bequests to the Church. Some instances are known where we believe gifts have been lost to the Church, because no such Foundation was found in existence. Even though these have been directed to other permanent funds within the Church, they have turned from the Church and have given large gifts and large bequests to more general philanthropic or religious institutions.

The General Conference of 1952 specifically requested the Coordinating Council to study and to bring a proposal to this General Conference. Our Council now would like to present that plan. It has been studied very carefully under a Committee led by Mr. Paul G. James (*), an attorney from Des Moines, Iowa. I call your attention to the recommendations which are here made and then the legislation, and it will be before you. Mr. James is here to answer questions which might arise concerning this Foundation.

Now, the legislation is here before you implementing these Recommendations. You have the formation of The Methodist Church Foundation, Inc., with selection of its Trustees within the Council on World Service and Finance.

You have paragraph 4, beginning with the objects and purposes for which the Corporation is to be organized and a listing of the uses of the money as the income from the investments of this Methodist Church Foundation, Inc.

This entire plan, Mr. Chairman, has the unanimous support of the Co-ordinating Council. We have had consultations with the Council on World Service and Finance and with other groups within the Church, as we have had our other consultations in presenting the program to you."

Question Raised—Pendleton Gaines ()—Answered—Paul G. James ()

Pendleton Gaines (*) (South Carolina—SE) raised the following question:—

"Mr. Chairman, a number of us who work for Methodist Institutions, Colleges, Hospitals, Children's Homes, Homes for the Aged, have been discussing this matter on the floor and off the floor of this Conference for several days. I wish to ask a question of Dr. McPheeters or his legal expert. As I understand it, this is sort of a holding company for the World Service and Finance Commission, or rather it legalizes the World Service in terms of a Foundation. Those of us that have to beg or borrow or steal or cajole a dime or a quarter or a dollar here and there for our colleges and hospitals in the Conferences realize that there is enough competition already on the Conference and Jurisdictional level.

In our Committee on Education, we wondered if this National Foundation would tend to propagandize or to come into Conferences and compete with philanthropic persons whom we are trying to charm and persuade to give money to Wofford College, our college, or any other particular college, or hospital, that might be concerned. We would like that question answered. Will this Foundation come down on the local level and actively solicit funds that might otherwise go to local institutions?"

Paul G. James (*) (Iowa-Des Moines—NC) gave the following answer, for the Co-ordinating Council:—

"Mr. Chairman and friends, it is not intended that The Methodist Church Foundation, Inc., be a competing Organization, but rather a co-operating Organization. It is not an attempt to take over as a Holding Company for the Council on World Service and Finance or any other body. The Council on World Service and Finance very graciously agreed, and it was an unanimous proposal from the Co-ordinating Council and the Council on World Service and Finance that their co-identity of the two Boards for the next quadrennium is submitted to you as a matter of economy of operation. They very graciously agreed that their Board would for the time being, with your approval, serve as the Board of Directors also of the Foundation, so that when they meet there will be no occasion for a duplication, no expense in connection with calling another Board together, and that their officers and their headquarters would be available to serve the Foundation, which would save a great deal of money until the Foundation gets on its feet. This idea of competing I understand, and I appreciate it. However, there are people in our Church who are interested in our colleges. There are people who are interested in our Homes. There are people who are interested in our Hospitals. There are other people who are interested in other phases of our Church activity.

We are not attempting to stake out areas of vested interests in the Methodist dollar. We are attempting to open avenues that will attract not only Methodist dollars who are interested in their wider field of service and who are interested in furnishing funds that will serve as emergency, places to which all of our Boards and Agencies and Institutions may turn in case of grave need. There are many people who wish to contribute to such a fund who do not feel themselves competent to determine where the need is greatest. And you will notice that in this declaration of objects and purposes, the Directors of the Foundation are directed to co-operate with all of our Agencies and Institutions in furthering their respective Programs."

Second Question—Pendleton Gaines ()—Answer—Paul G. James ()

Pendleton Gaines (*) (South Carolina—SE) asked this further question:—

"Mr. Chairman, that answers most of my question. One more brief question. The University and College Presidents with whom I have talked still wonder exactly how much active solicitation for this Foundation will take place on the Conference level."

Paul G. James (*) (Iowa-Des Moines—NC) replied, as follows:—

"That will have to be determined by the Board of Directors and the management of the affairs. I have this feeling, that the Board of Directors of this Foundation will be for the time being and until you change it the same Board of Directors as manages the Council on World Service and Finance. They will be elected and selected by The General Conference. I have faith that the Bishops and the Ministers and the Laymen selected and elected by this General Conference with their dedication to all of Methodism will carry on in the spirit of Methodism and it will not be a competitive but a co-operative enterprise, in which the interests of all will be guarded and faithfully served."

Questions—Frank C. Love ()—Answers—Paul G. James ()

Frank C. Love () (Central New York—NE) asked several questions, which were answered by Paul G. James () (Iowa-Des Moines—NC), as follows:—

"There are two questions I would like to ask. I haven't had time to study this in detail, but in the third paragraph, on page 13, in the first column, under 'Suggested Legislation,' the last sentence, 'but it shall not take any action contrary to or in conflict with any action or policy established by the Board of Directors of the Foundation,' I would like to ask the speaker whether there is any provision in any part of this proposed legislation or Constitution which shall direct that the action of such Board of Directors shall always be in conformance with the direction of The General Conference.

Paul G. James: Yes. This is a General Conference Commission or Board. I might say that we have the protection, as I suggested a moment ago, first that the Directors are selected by you. Second, in case of any conflict or overlapping, the Co-ordinating Council established by you is vested with jurisdiction to iron out any such difficulties, and if the Co-ordinating Council is unable to resolve it, every Board, Agency and Institution of this Church is subject not only to regulation but to the death penalty from The General Conference.

So I assume that, from the standpoint of the dedication of the people whom you select and your general overall supervision, that the possibility of any over-reaching or breach of trust would never be considered.

Frank C. Love: Would there be any objection to inserting the words 'by The General Conference,' or 'by the Board of Directors of the Foundation'?

Paul G. James: Well, it says here in the next paragraph, subparagraph 2: 'The action of The General Conference shall be binding on The Methodist Church Foundation, Inc.' That is the last sentence in 2.

Frank C. Love: Thank you. One further question. In the last column, under 4, paragraph 3, it states that the amount to be charged to the Council on World Service, and so forth, shall be determined by The General Conference.

Will we be submitted a tentative or proposed Budget for the expense of this Foundation before we leave here?

Paul G. James: If this plan is adopted it immediately becomes a matter that is subject to the financial control and limitations placed upon it by the Council on World Service and Finance, the same as the Budget is submitted for other organizations. I assume that the same procedure will be followed, that upon the adoption there will be a motion to refer it to the Council on World Service and Finance."

Against Methodist Foundation—Chester M. Alter ()*

Chester M. Alter (*) (Colorado—W) spoke against the adoption of the "Methodist Foundation" section, as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman, the question has been asked whether this Foundation would result in duplication in the solicitation of funds of many Agencies, Boards, Institutions, etc. The answer was given that that was not the desire or the purpose. But I call attention of the members of this Conference to Objective 1, bottom of column 1, page 113, which states specifically that one of the main objectives is competition. It says the Foundation shall prepare materials in co-operation with another Agency. (Commission on Promotion and Cultivation. Editor)

It says that the Foundation shall develop mailing lists. For what purpose? We all know; it is a good purpose. But my question is whether the Foundation should prepare mailing lists for that purpose.

To make personal visitations. We are asking for the appointment of a Director and a Staff to make visitations.

To employ such other means within Budget limitations as may be deemed necessary. To encourage the making of gifts.

I submit that The Methodist Church overall is a big organization. We have many kinds of activities. When we develop the same technique that the United States Government has developed, to put an umbrella over all of our individual responsibilities and assign those responsibilities to a top-side organization, then we are traveling a dangerous route.

I for one think that our individual members, church members, our individual Boards and Agencies should retain responsibility for their own welfare and their own destiny, rather than to assign the responsibility for our destiny to some big top-side organization. I am opposed to the formation of a Methodist Church Foundation."

Question—Chester A. Smith ()—Answer—Paul G. James ()

Chester A. Smith () (New York—NE) asked the following question, which was answered by Paul G. James () (Iowa-Des Moines—NC), as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman and Members of The General Conference: I desire to ask the Chairman one question before I proceed further. The questions is: Is this the same matter which was before The General Conference of 1952?

Paul G. James: This matter was presented in 1952. The General Conference approved a Methodist foundation, then reconsidered it the next morning and reversed their position and referred it to the Co-ordinating Council for study and recommendation to this General Conference."

Against Methodist Foundation—Chester A. Smith ()*

Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) then spoke against the adoption of this Section of Report No. 2 of the Co-ordinating Council, as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman. That is my recollection of what happened.

The reason why The General Conference of 1952 reversed its previous action was this: It found out that they were proposing, the proponents of this matter, to create a Commission with a highly-salaried Secretary who had already been decided upon. They proposed to have a yearly Budget of, I think, $85,000. When we found out that that was the setup, that that was what they were proposing to do, we reversed our action very properly, our previous action, and then in order to save the face of those who proposed the proposition we submitted it for study.

I am opposed to this proposition because of the fact that this creates another Commission. It creates another highly-paid and highly-salaried Secretary. He will duplicate, in my opinion, the work of the other Agencies of the Church which are seeking to secure gifts. He will travel throughout the Jurisdictions. There will be duplication of effort. He will interfere, if he does his duty and earns his money, $10,000 or $12,000 a year salary, as he probably will be paid, with a highly-paid Staff. It will probably result in $65,000 or $100,000 expenses every year.

Mr. Chairman, I think we ought not to create any more of these highly-paid Secretaries. We ought not to create any more of these Commissions and Boards which are certainly able to be taken care of with our present setup. I want to know before I vote on this matter how much it will cost. If it is going to cost $100,000 a year I am opposed to it. We do not know how much it will cost. If we pass this proposition this morning and then submit to it the World Service Council, we are very largely in their hands. The safest way is to defeat this proposition now."

K. Morgan Edwards (Southern California-Arizona—W) moved to delete (DB-71) that Section of Report No. 2 of the Co-ordinating Council, beginning on page 112, column 3, DCA No. 3, entitled "2. Methodist Foundation," and continuing to the end of the Report, embracing "Suggested Legislation," found on page 113, DCA No. 3, columns 1, 2, and 3, and which reads as follows:—

2. Methodist Foundation

"Pursuant to referral to it by the 1952 General Conference, your Co-ordinating Council has carefully considered this subject and adopted the following recommendations to The General Conference with respect to the establishment of a Methodist Church Foundation:

1. That a Methodist Foundation be established, to be known as 'The Methodist Church Foundation, Inc.'

2. That such Foundation be incorporated under the laws of the State of Illinois.

3. That the Directors of 'The Methodist Church Foundation, Inc.,' be the same persons as the persons designated as members of 'The Council on World Service and Finance,' and they be directed to take the necessary legal steps to incorporate said Foundation accordingly.

4. That The General Conference of 1956 refer to the Co-ordinating Council for study during the quadrennium the matter of the composition and the manner of selection of the Directors of 'The Methodist Church Foundation, Inc.,' to the end that the Co-ordinating Council recommend whether the presently recommended composition and manner of selection of the Directors of the Foundation be continued or be changed.

Suggested Legislation

The Methodist Church Foundation, Inc.

The Council on World Service and Finance shall authorize its Board of Directors to cause to be incorporated an organization to be known as "The Methodist Church Foundation, Inc." under the laws of the State of Illinois. The first Board of Directors shall be all of those persons who shall then be members of the Council on World Service and Finance of The Methodist Church.

The Methodist Church Foundation, Inc. shall hold an annual meeting, elect the usual Officers and transact such business as may be committed to it under this authorization. The Board of Directors shall elect an Executive Secretary who shall have general supervision of The Methodist Church Foundation, Inc.

There shall be an Executive Committee of The Methodist Church Foundation, Inc. consisting of the Officers of the Foundation and six members to be elected annually by the Board of Directors. The Executive Committee shall meet on the call of the President, or of a majority of the membership thereof, and shall act for the Foundation and exercise its powers in the interim between the meetings of the Foundation; but it shall not take any action contrary to or in conflict with any action or policy established by the Board of Directors of the Foundation.

The objects and purposes for which the Corporation is to be organized are as follows:

To aid and give financial assistance to churches and to religious, charitable and educational philanthropies and religious, charitable and Educational Institutions of or related to The Methodist Church, including the Benevolent Boards and Agencies of The Methodist Church; to aid in the support and maintenance of worship and religious services in Methodist churches; for the advancement and furtherance of interests and activities of The Methodist Church which are under the supervision of or are related to The Methodist Church, including the Benevolent Boards and Agencies of The Methodist Church; to do things necessary, suitable or proper for the accomplishment of any of the purposes hereinbefore enumerated; but this Corporation shall not engage in activities which are not either religious, charitable or educational in purpose, nor, shall it engage in any activities consisting of carrying on propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual.

The Methodist Church is the Church formed by and pursuant to the Plan and The Declaration of Union of The Methodist Episcopal Church, The Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and The Methodist Protestant Church, which Plan and Declaration of Union were unanimously adopted by the Uniting Conference at Kansas City, Missouri, May 10, 1939.

In pursuance of its objects and purposes The Methodist Church Foundation, Inc. shall have the authority and responsibility to perform the following functions:

1. The Methodist Church Foundation, Inc. shall prepare materials, in co-operation with the Commission on Promotion and Cultivation, develop mailing lists, make personal visitations, and employ such other means within Budget limitations as may be deemed necessary to encourage the making of gifts, devises and bequests to The Methodist Church Foundation, Inc. as a means of expressing the donors' continued interest in the support of the World Service Fund, one or more of the World Service Agencies, or any Agency, Institution, or project belonging to or related to a Local Church, a District, Annual Conference or The General Conference of The Methodist Church.

2. The Methodist Church Foundation, Inc. is authorized to receive, invest and administer gifts, devises and/or bequests within such restrictions of investment policy and/or distribution of funds as may be imposed upon it by The General Conference so long as these restrictions do not countermand the expressed wishes of a donor in the administration of his/her specific gift. It shall have authority to decline any proffered gift (s) if in its judgment such declination would be in the best interests of The Methodist Church. When a testator or donor makes a devise, bequest, or gift to The Methodist Church Foundation, Inc. without instructions for its use, the Board of Directors shall, with the Council on World Service and Finance, recommend quadrennially to The General Conference, for its action and determination, the Agency (ies), project (s), or object (s), which shall receive the income and/or principal from said undirected gift (s) and the amount or percentage of the income and/or principal to be distributed to each. The action of The General Conference shall be binding on The Methodist Church Foundation, Inc.

3. Receive from Annual Conference Boards of Trustees, Conference Foundations, Local Church Boards of Trustees, or any Agency, Institution or Organization connected with The General Conference, an Annual Conference or a Local Church such capital funds as may be desired to be placed with the Foundation.

4. Co-operate with Local Churches, Annual Conferences, Agencies, Institutions and Organizations of The Methodist Church and their Committees on Wills and Legacies in such ways as may be deemed mutually helpful.

So far as practicable and to the extent deemed desirable by the Board of Directors of the Foundation, the treasury functions of The Methodist Church Foundation, Inc. shall be performed by the Central Treasury of the Council on World Service and Finance of The Methodist Church.

Until such time as the funds of The Methodist Church Foundation, Inc. are of sufficient amount to carry its own costs, the cost of Promotional Materials shall be a prior claim upon the World Service Fund as set forth in Paragraph 737-10 of the 1952 Discipline and the administrative costs shall be a prior claim on the General Administration Fund. The amount to be charged to the Council on World Service and Finance and the amount to be charged against the General Administration Fund shall be determined by The General Conference.

The officers shall be President, one or more Vice-Presidents, Executive Secretary, Recording Secretary-Treasurer, and such other Officers as the Board of Directors may deem desirable, and the Board of Directors shall fix and prescribe their duties. The members of The Methodist Church Foundation, Inc. shall be those persons who shall be selected or appointed by The General Conference of The Methodist Church as members of the Council on World Service and Finance of The Methodist Church in such manner and at such time as may from time to time be determined by The General Conference. The Directors of The Methodist Church Foundation, Inc. shall be those persons who shall be members of the Corporation from time to time elected or appointed as such as hereinabove provided."

Point of Order—R. F. Curl—Ruling—Bishop Marvin A. Franklin

R. F. Curl (Southwest Texas—SC) raised the following Point of Order:—

"The Point of Order is that our Rules state that the speeches shall alternate, for and against a proposition. There have been two speeches against this proposal, and no speech in favor of it. I would like to make a speech in favor of it."

Bishop Marvin A. Franklin, the Presiding Office, ruled, as follows:—

"Since that Report has been under consideration, a new motion has been made and seconded. Brother Edwards is entitled to speak, sir."

For Deletion—K. Morgan Edwards

The motion being duly seconded, K. Morgan Edwards (Southern California-Arizona—W) spoke in support of his motion to delete "Section 2. Methodist Foundation," as follows:—

"I move the deletion of the Report of the Co-ordinating Council on page 112, column 3, beginning at numeral 2 and continuing to the end of the Report in column 3, page 113.

I am eminently in favor of the Foundation principle. I am the pastor of a church which has a Foundation with resources in excess of a million dollars. When you talk of the Foundation as a depository it is an excellent principle. However, I believe that the Boards and Agencies which are to be favored by this Foundation are already in a position to act as a depository for the trust funds which are to be invested and used.

I am opposed to the establishment of a Foundation as an agency of cultivation and promotion for two reasons: The first one has already been covered very adequately by other speakers. It is impossible to co-ordinate and correlate all of the Agencies suggested in this Report. We merely set up more machinery, additional expense.

The second and more serious reason, I think, was implied in the first speaker's statement, who asked a question. If we are to turn over to a distant Agency the cultivation of funds for causes with which they are not closely identified, and into which they have not lived their way, they will merely burn over the ground. I am not at all interested in protecting people of means from additional appeals, but I am desperately interested that we shall protect the generous impulses of these people from scattered cultivation. I believe that when we come in the interest of our colleges and theological seminaries and all the other Agencies that we shall find scorched earth.

It has already been called to your attention that this matter was before The General Conference four years ago. It was hastily adopted, and then a motion for reconsideration was given. After carefully weighing in the balance it was found wanting.

I believe it is time now for The General Conference to set this proposal aside and to recognize that it is thoroughly impractical to establish this kind of agency for the purposes outlined. I hope the Conference will delete the section on the Methodist Foundation."

Against Deletion and for Report—R. F. Curl

R. F. Curl (Southwest Texas—SC) spoke against the motion to delete Section "2. Methodist Foundation," and for the adoption of this Section of the Report No. 2 of the Co-ordinating Council, as follows:—

"Speaking against the motion for deletion and in favor of the Report of the Co-ordinating Council.

Brethren, Sisters, come let us reason together.

Four years ago there was brought before The General Conference at San Francisco a Report from the Council on World Service and Finance recommending the formation of a Methodist Foundation. It was adopted by an overwhelming vote of The Conference. There began to be mutterings and statements that this Foundation would be in competition with our Boards and Institutions. That it was a dangerous thing, because it would drain away the support that ought to go to these Boards and Institutions.

The Council on World Service and Finance asked for the reconsideration of the legislation which had established the Foundation and asked for its referral to the Co-ordinating Council. The Council on World Service and Finance had given four years of study to the principle of a Foundation. The Co-ordinating Council has given four years of very faithful study to the same subject. It comes with the same kind of recommendation after four years of study that the Council on World Service and Finance had brought to you four years ago. Let us look a moment or two at the purposes of this Foundation.

The purposes of this Foundation do not expect nor do they include any super-organization. The statement is clear and simple that it is to be presently constituted through the Council on World Service and Finance, so that there will be no extra cost for attendance upon meetings and the like, in the promotion of the Foundation.

In the second place, the Council on World Service and Finance is ready to propose a Budget for this Foundation, a very modest budget, $25,000 for the Foundation, plus $25,000 that is already in the Budget of the Council on World Service and Finance, for the cultivation of Wills and Bequests. There has not been, so far as I know, any criticism from any Board or Agency of the Church, of the Committee on Wills and Bequests, as it has sought to cultivate the leaving of money to our Institutions. It is expected that the Foundation would not be trying to secure gifts for itself, but gifts for The Methodist Church, the large proportion of which would certainly be directed gifts and administered for the specific process for which directed.

I hope that, as we think of the way in which the Co-ordinating Council, set up by The General Council of 1952, has considered this proposition, that we will vote to support a well-organized, a well-considered proposal which I think will be for the interest of every cause and institution in The Methodist Church."

Against Methodist Foundation—Charles V. Adams ()*

Charles V. Adams (*) (Central Pennsylvania—NE) spoke against the adoption of the Section on the Methodist Foundation, as follows:—

"I am as amazed as any other member of the 1952 General Conference is amazed, at this Report as it has come back after it was rejected in the way it was rejected, as has been said, at San Francisco.

It was rejected not only because of the cost—that was staggering—but it was rejected, I am very sure, because of the principle at stake. As has been said, the World Service Commission now has the authority to go to the Church and ask for Endowments, for Wills, and so on. If your mail is the same as mine, you have had at least a half-dozen of these statements from the World Service Commission during this past year justifying the statement that has just been made.

Now, then, in the proposal that has come to us in this Report, there is, as has been brought out in this meeting, and I am not going to use part of my five minutes to restate it, this statement that they are to make personal supervision, personal visitation, personal appeals, plus all the other promotions that would be back of this kind of organized effort. We asked why this was to be done, and we were told that there are people who want to make large donations to The Methodist Church or to its Organizations, and have not felt that they could do it under the present setup.

This—is the same General Conference which has expressed to the Ford Foundation its sincere gratitude for the appropriation of many millions of dollars to the Organizations, the Hospitals, the Colleges, the Schools, of our Church. Certainly they did not make those appropriations without a careful investigation of the investment policies, the organizational setup, of the Schools, of the Colleges, and so on.

It would seem to me that it would be a poor idea for this General Conference to raise in the mind of the Ford Foundation or other large institutional givers, any doubt as to the way in which the money is handled by the folks into whose care it has been given. We have in the one Board in our Church a fund of plus 6 million dollars that has come in and is used for the pension of our missionaries. That came because of the devotion of a person and a family, and that relationship to that task.

I cannot think, Brethren, Sisters, that anybody who is interested in The Methodist Church will not be wanting to state to what cause their money is to go.

I want particularly to call your attention in Paragraph 3 of the proposed legislation, that the Foundation shall receive from Annual Conference Board of Trustees, Conference Foundation, Local Church Boards of Trustees, or any Agency, Institution, or Organization connected with The General Conference, an Annual Conference or a local church, such capital funds as may be desired to be placed with the Foundation.

That, I submit to you, is an overall Agency reaching into the very last organization, into the very last one of our churches.

I wonder if, for a moment, we could still our minds so we could get the echo of a thing that was said in the pageant on India, when the women's organization was set up, and where there was the first suggestion of centralized control of the funds of The Methodist Church. The statement was made that, 'You get the money. Let us administer it.'

The resounding reply from the women of the Church, 'the women will administer their funds,' is such, that I am hoping, Mr. Chairman and members of The Conference, that the women not only, but the men of this General Conference, shall so support this amendment as to delete this from the Report of the Co-ordinating Council, that it never again will be brought to a General Conference of The Methodist Church."

Questions—Henry M. Zimmerman ()—Answers—Paul G. James ()—Recess—Bishop Marvin A. Franklin

Henry M. Zimmerman () (Kentucky—SE) asked a series of questions, which were answered by Paul G. James () (Iowa-Des Moines—NC) as follows:—

"I want to ask a question, Mr. Chairman.

I have been a member of The Board of Trustees of The Methodist Church ever since 1940. This is my question, Mr. Chairman:

Is it intended that this Foundation replace the Board of Trustees? It was rumored to that effect, and we were assured by Bishop Charles Brashares that that is not the intention, but the Board of Trustees are incorporated to do these things. This Corporation shall receive and administer new trusts and funds, so far as may be legal, be it successors of the Trustees of the Methodist Episcopal Church, The Methodist Protestant Church, and so on.

That is my first question.

My second question is that of course which has been raised. I wonder if this Conference realizes that this will cost $50,000 per year; that they will have to raise 1 2/3 million dollars before the cost can be met. Is that correct?

Paul G. James: Mr. Chairman, Friends: Of course it is quite impossible to, either here or at San Francisco, meet the rumors and the stories that are circulated to try to defeat a Plan or Program submitted to The Conference. I would like to meet this suggestion here, and the inquiry, as to whether this is intended to replace the Board of Trustees.

The answer is obviously no.

The Board of Trustees of The Methodist Church, is incorporated in the State of Ohio. They serve, as I understand, the same function with respect to the corporate secular organization of The Methodist Church as the Board of Trustees of a Local Church. They are not and never will intend to be and have never exercised, the powers of a promotional body.

Henry M. Zimmerman: That is correct.

Paul G. James: It is not intended to supplant them. They will carry on as they have in the past, performing the service that is delegated to them by the Discipline.

Second, in answer to your question as to costs, that was the thing, as I understand, among some others, that I prefer as a Layman not to even remember. It occurred behind the scenes at San Francisco in which this was defeated, on statements in regard to astronomical figures of cost. We have worked on this faithfully for four years, not only in the Co-ordinating Council but with the wonderful advice and assistance and co-operation indispensable, of the members of the Council on World Service and Finance. It was for that reason that they have offered their services and their office and their Treasury Department in order to reduce the expense to a bare minimum. It is very fine of them to do that, and while even a year ago it seemed impossible that we could find our way through the welter of problems that confronted us, that were laid on the table for us to consider, giving no consideration, of course, to other matters that were not before us, by some amazing miracle we come before you with a unanimous Report.

If we have achieved nothing else from that in working for you, we are proud of that result, at least.

Now, the Protestant Episcopal Church has established a Foundation; the Presbyterian Church has established a Foundation. There is nothing in this that requires anyone to turn over any funds to The Methodist Foundation.

It is a Servicing Agency. There is nothing in the Discipline that requires any Annual Conference or Conference Claimants' Board, Preachers' Aid Society, to turn any funds into the Methodist Board of Pensions. But if they desire to do so and avail themselves of the services of that body in administering and investing and protecting their funds, they may do so. That is true here. That is purely permissive, and there are many funds held by Institutions in this Church; that is, we all know as a practical matter, are too small to be properly diversified and managed effectively.

If those Institutions desire the services of a Foundation in managing those funds for them, that service will be available, not mandatorily—they don't have to—it is merely a service that is rendered to our Institutions to help them protect and to get the largest possible return on their investment.

We are not requiring anyone to turn over anything, and I might say that the gentleman who read from Paragraph 1 on page 113 did not read the rest of the paragraph. Now, if you will read from where he left off, you will get a little light, '... employ such means to encourage making gifts, devises and bequests to the Methodist Foundation, Inc.' and then he stopped there—but it says this: '... as a means of expressing the donor's continued interest in the support of the World Service Fund, one or more of the Agencies, World Service Agencies—'"

Time for Recess—Bishop Marvin A. Franklin

Bishop Marvin A. Franklin, the Presiding Officer, made the following statement:—

"Bishop Franklin: Just a moment, please. We are within a moment of Recess. What is your will?

Henry W. Zimmerman: May I make this final statement, Bishop, please?

There is a great need for an effort to find the people who will put our institutions in their wills. That can be done. I have spoken to that proposition—

Bishop Franklin: Just a moment. We are at the time of Recess. What is the will of the Conference?"

Previous Question—Ray H. Nichols (*)—Ruling—Bishop Marvin A. Franklin

Ray H. Nichols (*) (Northwest Texas—SC) moved the Previous Question on all that is before The General Conference. The motion was duly seconded.

Bishop Marvin A. Franklin, the Presiding Officer, made the following ruling:—

"The man has the floor. That motion is really out of order until we have the floor, but I have called for you to tell me what you want to do, whether you want to extend the time. If not, we will stand at Recess."

Recess—Bishop Marvin A. Franklin

Bishop Marvin A. Franklin, the Presiding Officer, stated that The General Conference was at Recess for fifteen minutes.

Reconvene—Bishop Marvin A. Franklin—James R. Houghton (*)

At the end of the Recess period, Bishop Marvin A. Franklin, the Presiding Officer, called The General Conference of The Methodist Church to order, and announced Hymn No. 23, "Come Thou Fount of Every Blessing."

Under the direction of James R. Houghton (*) (New England—NE), General Conference Director of Music, The General Conference stood, and joined in the singing of the Hymn.

Rust College Singers—Bishop Marvin A. Franklin—Bishop Willis J. King—James R. Houghton (*)

Bishop Marvin A. Franklin, the Presiding Officer, presented Bishop Willis J. King of the New Orleans Area, Central Jurisdiction, who in turn presented the Rust College A Cappella Choir of Holly Springs, Mississippi, which is in the New Orleans Area, with their Director, Miss Natalis Doxey () (Upper Mississippi—C), and Assistant Director L. Van Buren () (Upper Mississippi—C).

James R. Houghton (*) (New England—NE), General Conference Director of Music, then presented the Rust College A Cappella Choir, with the statement that they had come at their own expense to sing for The General Conference of The Methodist Church.

The Rust College A Cappella Choir, under the direction of Miss Natalis Doxey (*), then rendered the following selections:—

“A Mighty Fortress Is Our God,” by Luther Olds
 “Lord, Bring Dat Sinner Home,” by Graydon R. Clark
 “Wake, Awake For Night Is Flying,” by Christiansen

Thanks—Bishop Marvin A. Franklin

Bishop Marvin A. Franklin, the Presiding Officer, expressed the thanks of The General Conference to the Rust College A Cappella Choir and their Director, Miss Natalis Doxey (*), for their presence and the inspiring music they had just rendered.

Parliamentary Situation—Bishop Marvin A. Franklin

Bishop Marvin A. Franklin, the Presiding Officer, stated the parliamentary situation to be as follows:—

“Now, the parliamentary situation is this: We had a brother in possession of the floor. We had an amendment or deletion up for discussion, and now there comes a continuing Order. There comes the result of the Third Ballot for The Judicial Council. If there is no objection, would you like for me to give the result of this Ballot that you may continue your balloting?”

I hear no objection, and here is the ballot. Will you listen well?”

Results Third Ballot Members Judicial Council—R. F. Curl—Donald A. Odell (*)—Elected

The results of the Third Ballot for members of The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church were announced by Bishop Marvin A. Franklin, the Presiding Officer, as follows (DB-72):—

Ministerial members:—Total votes cast 733; Void 8; Total number of good votes 725; necessary to a choice, 363.

Fourth Ballot Spread—Bishop Marvin A. Franklin—Luther W. Wells (*)

Bishop Marvin A. Franklin, the Presiding Officer, stated that the members of The General Conference were to elect one more Ministerial and one more Lay Member of The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church.

Question—Louis Spilman ()—Answer—Bishop Marvin A. Franklin*

Louis Spilman (*) (Virginia—SE) inquired if all the six Jurisdictions were now represented on The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church?

Bishop Marvin A. Franklin, the Presiding Officer, stated that each of the six Jurisdictions now has membership on The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church, and therefore the Members of The General Conference could vote for any of the remaining nominees in completing the full membership of The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church.

The Fourth Ballot was spread for remaining Members of The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church. Bishop Marvin A. Franklin, the Presiding Officer, declared the ballot closed, and the votes were collected by the Tellers under the direction of Luther W. Wells (*) (Virginia—SE), Secretary of Ballots and Tellers, and the Tellers were excused to count the same.

Per Diem Payments—J. Wesley Hole (*)

J. Wesley Hole (*) (Southern California-Arizona—W), Chairman of The General Conference Commission on Entertainment and Program moved that the members of The General Conference be paid on the basis of thirteen (13) full days of attendance.

The motion, duly seconded, prevailed.

J. Wesley Hole (*) (Southern California-Arizona—W), Chairman of The General Conference Commission on Entertainment and Program made the following statement relative to the per diem checks:—

“Now may I make just two statements concerning this, very briefly. Dr. Lugg requests that the per diem allowance be paid to the Principal Delegates, even in the event a Reserve was seated for a day or two in place of the Principal, and that the adjustment be made between the Principal and the Reserve Delegate. It is impossible for him in this brief time to prepare the checks and to find out exactly who was seated and for what length of time.

His office is prepared to distribute the Expense Blanks through the Pages to the Chairman of each Delegation. Will the Chairman of each Delegation please see that these Blanks are completed, on the basis of the instructions given on the Blanks, and returned to Dr. Lugg's office before you leave here at noon. If you will please co-operate with this request it will facilitate the work of his office. Thank you very much.”

Parliamentary Situation—Bishop Marvin A. Franklin—Report No. 2. Co-ordinating Council

Bishop Marvin A. Franklin, the Presiding Officer, stated the parliamentary situation to be as follows:—

“Our situation at this time is that we are on the consideration of the amendment which is to delete a part of this Report from the Co-ordinating Council.”

Statement—Henry M. Zimmerman (*)

Henry M. Zimmerman (*) (Kentucky—SE) made the following statement:—

“I begin my statement by asking if this Foundation would replace the Board of Trustees. May I say this, to this Conference: that if that is desirable and will tend to economize it will be agreeable with the Board of Trustees. We have no desire to perpetuate ourselves, but you would have to work pretty hard to meet or to equal the expenses that we have in a year. It was $619 for last year, including that of a Secretary.

I think, and I started to say this, Bishop, in confidence, that there is a need for someone to look after the Wills of the people who want to leave something to our Institutions. But you are entering a very competitive field with the Board of Education, the Board of Missions, and so on and so on. If you can find some way to do it, fine; do it, but I am afraid that now as it was set up it is too expensive an operation."

Substitute—Against Foundation—Robert D. Blue ()—Not Adopted*

Robert D. Blue (*) (North Iowa—NC) moved as a substitute (DB-73) for the amendment of K. Morgan Edwards (Southern California-Arizona—W) to delete paragraph "2. Methodist Foundation," of Report No. 2 of the Co-ordinating Council, that paragraph 1 of the "Suggested Legislation," DCA No. 3, page 113, column 1, be deleted. It reads as follows:—

"The Council on World Service and Finance shall authorize its Board of Directors to cause to be incorporated an organization to be known as 'The Methodist Church Foundation, Inc.' under the laws of the State of Illinois. The first Board of Directors shall be all of those persons who shall then be members of the Council on World Service and Finance of The Methodist Church."

The motion to substitute, being duly seconded, Robert D. Blue (*) (North Iowa—NC) spoke as follows:—

"Gentlemen, it seems to me that the situation is this: that the difficulty we are struggling over here and struggled over four years ago, is the fact that if we set up a Foundation with power to get out mailing lists and propaganda and so forth, that we will be infringing upon the work of various Boards and Agencies. I am suspicious that at least half of the Delegates to this Conference are Trustees for one group or another. I believe that if we eliminate Paragraph 1, which provides for this promotion and cultivation and set up a great Trust Company that can administer Wills and Trusts as a Financial Institution, we can achieve the purpose that is suggested by this Report.

I speak with some experience in this matter. I am President of the Board of Trustees of Friendship Haven at Fort Dodge, Iowa, and President of the Foundation which that Institution has set up. I know as a matter of having written Wills for people who are interested in this sort of thing, that there is a demand for this type of organization.

Our stumbling block, as I have said, is the fact that we do not want to create another Organization which will be in competition with existing Organizations. If we can but get into our thinking the concept of a Financial Institution, a Trust Organization that has the ability to receive and administer funds, then we will be able to create an Institution which can be of great worth to the existing Agencies of the Church and to the benefit of the Church as a whole."

Against Methodist Foundation—J. Earl Moreland ()*

J. Earl Moreland (*) (Virginia—SR) spoke against the Methodist Foundation as follows:—

"First of all I wonder if we realize just what this represents? This is a monolithic organization, alien, as I understand it, to the whole history and traditions of The Methodist Church. I believe there is no place in The Methodist Church for such an organization that proposes to do what this one does with the Church. There are 1,966 organizations counted thus far which raise and receive money, and we are not yet through counting.

May I suggest, for example, in the second place that this area is well covered by all the existing Boards, Organizations, Schools, Hospitals, Homes for Children, Homes for the Aged, by the Foundations for independent colleges which minister to our Methodist colleges in 38 States where independent colleges are organized and seeking funds through well-organized Foundations, by Boards of Missions in 138 Annual Conferences, Boards of Education, and so on. I will not take the time of this Conference to enumerate any further. I submit, sir, that this is covered by this point.

In the third place, I would like to raise a question which I believe—I may be wrong, but I discussed it with Presidents of Colleges and Universities almost all over the country, because we heard about this in advance. I could find no one who favors it; who would be wise enough, even in The General Conference if we were incorporated, to do this job. If a man comes to us, as is provided in Sections 1 and 2, and says, 'I have a million dollars to give to The Methodist Church,' who is wise enough to tell him where to put that money?

I would just like to ask that question. I would refuse membership on any such monolithic monstrosity. I certainly hope that we defeat this completely from beginning to end."

For Methodist Foundation—Ira B. Loud

Ira B. Loud (West Texas—C) spoke for the Report, as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman and Members: I rise, sir, to speak against the substitute and against the amendment and in favor of the Report as is, presented by the Co-ordinating Council. This is the reason:

We are representatives from a certain section of The Methodist Church which certainly stands in need of the kind of services which could be rendered by The Methodist Foundation. Our Annual Conferences are weaker, our Boards of Pensions pay only a meager pittance to our retired ministers, every college within our section is in need of support and such Church Extension is a grave need among us. I hope, sir, that after this has been studied by the Co-ordinating Council of The Methodist Church for the last quadrennium that this Conference will see fit to give support to the recommendation of the Co-ordinating Council, which will give us the opportunity to give a larger service in The Methodist Church."

Previous Question—W. Ralph Ward

W. Ralph Ward (Pittsburgh—NE) moved the Previous Question on all before The General Conference. The motion was duly seconded.

Question—Allen Whitfield ()—Ruling—Bishop Marvin A. Franklin*

Before the motion for the Previous Question could be put to the vote of The General Conference, Allen Whitfield (*) (Iowa-Des Moines—NC) asked the privilege of submitting an inquiry before the Previous Question is ordered.

Bishop Marvin A. Franklin, the Presiding Officer, ruled, as follows on this request:—

"I think it will be in order after the Previous Question. I would rule that after the Previous Question, if it is ordered, it will be in order, and I will recognize you after the Previous Question is voted up or down."

Previous Question Ordered

The motion of W. Ralph Ward for the Previous Question, on all before The General Conference, duly seconded, prevailed by more than the required two-thirds majority vote of The General Conference.

Questions—Allen Whitfield ()—Answer—Paul G. James ()

In pursuance with the ruling of Bishop Marvin A. Franklin, the Presiding Officer, Allen Whitfield () (Iowa-Des Moines—NC) made the following inquiries which were answered by Paul G. James () (Iowa-Des Moines—NC) as follows:—

"Allen Whitfield: Could I inquire from the Chair or the individual presenting the Report of the Co-ordinating Council, as to whether or not the existing provisions of the Discipline, Paragraph 737, Sections 8 and 9, are a duplication of this proposed Agency?

In connection with this inquiry, I want to raise this particular question to illustrate in a hypothetical case: as a member of the Board of Social and Economic Relations, if a client of mine came into my office and wanted to give a substantial sum of money to endow that work, to what Agency of The Methodist Church would such a fund be given? Would it be given to the Board of Social Economic Relations, to the Trustees of The Methodist Church, to the World Service and Finance Commission, or to what Agency?

Paul G. James: My good friend, Allen Whitfield, I am afraid that if we entered into a legal discussion as to how to so place a bequest or a devise in a Will, to designate a specific Institution, we might be here a long, long time. The difficulty is that we frequently find clients who want not to designate, because they do not feel they are competent, they do not know the situation in general. They want to give their money where someone in a position of responsible authority can use it to plug a hole in the dyke, save an Institution, put it to uses in an emergency. They want some Agency in the Church that they can delegate that, to see that the money is used to the best possible advantage.

They do not feel capable of doing it. If they want to give it to a Methodist Hospital or to one of our colleges, it is very easy to designate it. If they don't, a Foundation can take care of it and use it to meet those emergencies in general situations.

Allen Whitfield: Then, Mr. Chairman, would it not be possible to accomplish all that is covered by this Report under the provision of Section 713 of the Discipline with a proviso that undesignated gifts shall be administered by the Trustees of The Methodist Church under the direction of The General Conference?

Paul G. James: Only in part, Mr. Whitfield. I am glad you asked that question.

The Trustees of The Methodist Church, as I pointed out, are related to The Methodist Church at large, the General Church, much as the Trustees of the Local Church are related to the Local Church. What we need, as the Protestant Episcopal Church has recognized, and as the Presbyterian Churches recognize, is a great promotional body that will secure funds to use to meet emergencies and to fill great human needs, as a promotional organization visualizing areas of service to humanity that are not being served by specific boards."

Point of Order—Harold H. Hughes—Ruling—Bishop Marvin A. Franklin—Well Taken

Harold H. Hughes (Virginia—SE) raised the Point of Order that the brethren involved were debating the issue.

Bishop Marvin A. Franklin, the Presiding Officer, ruled that the Point of Order was well taken.

Substitute of Robert D. Blue—Read—Ernest W. Peterson ()*

The members of The General Conference asking for a reading of the substitute of Robert D. Blue () (North Iowa—NC), at the request of the Presiding Officer, Bishop Marvin A. Franklin, Ernest W. Peterson () (Oregon—W), Secretary of Documents, read the proposed substitute, as follows:—

"I move as a substitute to the motion to delete paragraph 2 of the Report of the Co-ordinating Council by striking out paragraph one of the 'Suggested Legislation.'"

Question—Harry O. Ritter—Reply—Bishop Marvin A. Franklin

Harry O. Ritter (Kansas—SC) asked specifically where paragraph 1 could be found in the Daily Christian Advocate.

Bishop Marvin A. Franklin, the Presiding Officer, stated:—

Closes Debate—Paul G. James ()*

Paul G. James (*) (Iowa-Des Moines—NC) closed the debate on the matter before The General Conference, with the following statement:—

"Mr. Chairman, in substance the purpose and purport of this motion to delete would strike from our recommendation and Report the authority proposed to be granted to the Foundation to co-operate with all of our Boards, Agencies and Institutions in promoting the common interests and concerns of the Church and help them in every way possible.

If they don't want that assistance, certainly nobody is going to push it down their throats, but it simply affords The Foundation the right to give such promotional aid and assistance from time to time as may be necessary. If they don't want any assistance from the General Church, or Foundation, in their promotion activity, then strike this out.

It is merely a voluntary service. We felt that the Foundation might be of some value to our Annual Conferences. If they don't want that service, we are certainly not going to force it upon anyone."

Question—K. Morgan Edwards—Ruling—Bishop Marvin A. Franklin

K. Morgan Edwards (Southern California-Arizona—W) asked the following question:—

"I am asking the question to be sure the House understands that if the motion to substitute prevails, we do not then vote on the motion to delete the amendment to delete, is that right?"

Ruling—Bishop Marvin A. Franklin

Bishop Marvin A. Franklin, the Presiding Officer, ruled, as follows:—

"That takes the place of the motion to delete, as the Chair understands it."

Substitute—Robert D. Blue ()—Not Adopted*

The substitute of Robert D. Blue (*) (North Iowa—NC) to strike out Paragraph 1 of the Suggested Legislation, found at the bottom of column 1, page 113, DCA No. 3, on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.

Amendment of Deletion—K. Morgan Edwards—Adopted

The proposed amendment of K. Morgan Edwards (Southern California-Arizona—W) to amend Report No. 2 of the Co-ordinating Council by the deletion of section "2, Methodist Foundation," DCA No. 3, page 112, column 3 and page 113, column 1, and "Suggested Legislation," DCA No. 3, page 113, columns 1, 2 and 3, on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was adopted.

No. 2 Co-ordinating Council—Adopted As Amended

Report No. 2 of the Co-ordinating Council, DCA No. 3, page 111, columns 1, 2 and 3; (See also DCA No. 6, page 258, columns 1 and 2); page 112, columns 1, 2 and 3 down to "2. Methodist Foundation," in column 3 was adopted as amended, with the exception of Section "4. Social Action Boards," DCA No. 3, page 112, column 2, which was withdrawn, by common consent, to be considered and acted on at a later time when the Standing Committee on the State of the Church would report a proposed amendment to "Section 4. Social Action Boards." For Report see Appendix, page 1801.

No. 3—Co-ordinating Council—Chester A. McPheeters—Edwin R. Garrison—Adopted

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) presented Report

No. 3 of the Co-ordinating Council, DCA No. 4, page 151, columns 2 and 3, and requested that Edwin R. Garrison (North Indiana—NC) explain the proposed legislation, after he had moved the adoption of Report No. 3, which was duly seconded.

Legislation Explained—Edwin R. Garrison

Edwin R. Garrison (North Indiana—NC) explained the proposed legislation, as follows:—

“Mr. Chairman and Members of The General Conference: We have presented this Report to you in order to give The General Conference an opportunity to make a clearcut decision concerning the number and the type of periodicals promoting the work of the General Agencies to be sent to the Local Church.

We ought to say in the very beginning that this is totally unrelated to the New Christian Advocate which you have already voted.

The General Conference in 1944 instructed the Council of Secretaries to bring a Report to The General Conference of 1948 outlining a plan to correlate the work of the Boards and to avoid duplication in the periodicals and materials that they were sending out.

They came to The General Conference of 1948 without any Report and early in the sessions of The Conference a Special Committee of 31 was set up, and it was that Committee that asked for the Survey and was granted that request.

In 1952 the Survey Report was received. As a result of the study at that time, the Commission on Promotion and Cultivation was set up, and you would do well, I think, to review the provisions under which it operates, Paragraph 750. It provides that this Commission shall eliminate duplication, overlapping and competition between the Agencies.

We congratulate the Commission on Promotion and Cultivation for the large measure of progress that they have made. You noted that they have been sending out various free materials on a Calendar basis, and the overall impression of that is good. However, as a result of the action in 1952, setting up this Commission, the general impression went out through the Church that the Commission had been given a mandate to consolidate the Promotional Periodicals into one. It was not true that the mandate was given.

The Commission on Cultivation and Promotion has been unable to arrive at a recommendation for one Promotional Periodical, and as a result four years later we are spending twice as much for these materials as we did in 1952.

This paragraph which we propose mandates the Commission on Promotion and Cultivation to provide one Promotional Journal for the General Agencies to go to the Local Church.

It excepts The Methodist Woman and The Methodist Layman because, although they have promotional material in them, they are subscription magazines and are directed to the total membership of those respective bodies rather than to the leaders of the Local Church.

The third thing we would call to your attention about this proposed legislation is that it is permissive in its details. We believe that the Commission on Promotion and Cultivation is entirely competent to decide those details.

We do not attempt to say whether it should be a monthly or a quarterly, nor do we say precisely when they shall begin this work. We would assume that they would do it during this quadrennium, and we would assume they would continue the present periodicals until opportunity for transfer has been made.

This proposed journal would include such materials as are now found in The Story, in The Pastor's Journal, in The Voice, but not in the Clipsheet, in Church and Campus, and in Shepherds. Shepherds is excluded because they are not using World Service money for this, and they ought to be excepted, but the Council feels that their periodical is a part of the competitive unco-ordinated approach which we are trying to solve.

The members of the Co-ordinating Council will yield to no one in their respect and in their affection for the Secretaries upon whose backs the burdens of these Boards are placed. They will bear us witness, we believe, that in our own areas all of us are actively supporting their work, and we trust that they will feel perfectly free to speak as we consider this matter today, but we would be untrue to our stewardship as a Co-ordinating Council if we did not say to you that after our study we believe that the Church wants and needs one Promotional Journal and that if it is creatively published it will secure a wider readership than the combined publications do now, that it will better advertise the resource materials available from those Boards, and that it will end much of the hostility which is engendered for the Boards by the present competition.

We call your attention to the fact that is given to us in the Report of the Commission on Promotion and Cultivation that in June, 1954, the establishment of a new periodical was authorized called 'The Story.' They are now operating on a cost, we are informed, of about $100,000 a year. When we saw this we thought that perhaps this was going to be the answer, but I would invite you to take out your pencils and figure on what has happened since then.

Church and Campus has cut its expenditures by $6,000. The Voice under a drastically cut Budget has worked heroically. The Pastor's Journal expends approximately—this costs the Board approximately $4,000 more now than it did then, and the Board of Evangelism spends three times as much now as it did in 1949 for Shepherds.

There is a total decrease in expenditures of these magazines that I have listed of approximately $8,000, but we do not think that this is very significant in comparison with the $100,000 that has been added.

Our Council believes that these Secretaries are realists, and that what they need is a mandate from the Church, and when they get it, that they will provide one Promotional Periodical for these General Agencies that will be an honor to themselves and a source of pride to the Church.

We have brought this to you in order to give The General Conference an opportunity to say what it wants. Do you want one Promotional Journal or do you want to send all these Agencies out with your blessing and say to them, 'Be fruitful and multiply'?"

Amendment—Ray W. Ragsdale—Not Adopted

Ray W. Ragsdale (Southern California-Arizona—W) moved to amend Report No. 3 of the Co-ordinating Council, by adding the following (DB-74) at the close of the Report No. 3, DCA No. 4, page 151, column 3:—

"or to any publication not subsidized in whole or in part by World Service Funds.

If any World Service Agency desires to publish a Promotional Program Periodical that requires World Service Funds, it shall secure the approval first of the Co-ordinating Council, and then of the Council on World Service and Finance."

so that paragraph as amended will read:—

"The Commission shall publish a free Local Church Program Journal for Pastors and Local Church Leaders. This Journal shall present to the Local Church for its use the Program and Promotional Materials of the General Agencies in a correlated manner and shall be in lieu of General Agency Promotional Periodicals. This does not apply to The Methodist Woman and The Methodist Layman, or to any publication not subsidized in whole or in part by World Service funds.

If any World Service Agency desires to publish a Promotional Program Periodical that requires World Service Funds, it shall secure the approval first of the Co-ordinating Council and then of the Council on World Service and Finance."

The motion to thus amend, being duly seconded, Ray W. Ragsdale (Southern California-Arizona—W) spoke to the same, as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman and Members of The General Conference: I do not believe it is the desire of this Conference to eliminate an Agency publication as useful as Shepherds magazine, a great instrument of evangelism that does not cost The Methodist Church one cent. Actually, this magazine saves World Service Funds in the amount of $10,000 to $15,000 a year because it has eliminated the expense of all general mailings of the Board.

Shepherds magazine is supported from the sale of evangelistic literature. The sale of evangelistic literature which is promoted through Shepherds is an important part in the success of Methodism's great evangelistic movement.

No one knows whether this could continue in the proposed single Promotional Journal for we have not seen a prospectus of it. If it cannot, then the Board of Evangelism has no alternative than to return to the costly direct-mail method of getting samples of its material upon the desks of the Pastors of Methodism. This would be true of the Board of Missions, Board of Education, and Board of Temperance also.

This amendment would do two things: It would make possible the continuance of a publication that costs the Church nothing. And it would provide the procedure with safeguards, whereby other World Service agencies could publish Promotional Periodicals of their own if the need demands.

I am concerned at two points, at the point of stewardship in the use of World Service Funds, and at the point of our effectiveness in getting the job of the Church done. Take the matter of Stewardship—presently Shepherds magazine takes nothing from World Service Funds, Church and Campus takes $12,000, The Voice costs $30,000, Pastor's Journal, $9,000, The Story, $100,000. This adds up to $151,000.

The Story is a quarterly publication. If it remains the same size but were published monthly, as surely it would have to be if it were effective as our Journal of Promotion, it would cost $300,000 annually. This is $149,000 more than the present publications combined cost us. We could start five or six new churches in California, or Texas or Florida, with that money if we saved it.

Or, to approach it in another way, the new Journal published monthly will cost $300,000 annually. Since the cost of this Journal is a prior claim on World Service funds, this would mean that the Board of Missions would be deprived of $184,000, or 61 per cent of the cost of publishing the Journal which it otherwise would have. $184,000 would support approximately 75 missionaries.

I am concerned with our stewardship over that important World Service dollar!

Moreover, I am concerned about getting the job done in this great Church of ours. There are 10,000,000 of us—so many of us that if we were all lined up in a column of two, three feet apart, standing still the column would reach from Los Angeles to within forty miles of the Nation's Capital.

We are a big Church—a massive and mighty institution! It seems absurd to me to think of running anything as big as The Methodist Church with virtually all the Program and Promotional material of all its Agencies funneled through a single Editor and a single Magazine.

Unless this paragraph is amended in the manner I am proposing, we may find that we have sacrificed good stewardship and effectiveness for doubtful streamlining. I do not believe this Conference wants to make that mistake."

Amendment to Amendment—Chester A. Smith ()—Not Adopted*

Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) moved to amend the proposed amendment of Ray W. Ragsdale (Southern California-Arizona—W) by adding "THE VOICE" the publication of the General Board of Temperance of The Methodist Church, to follow the words, "The Methodist Laymen," found in the last line of the Paragraph on "Proposed Legislation," DCA No 4, page 151, column 3, so that the amendment as amended will read (DB-75) :—

"The Commission shall publish a free local church Program Journal for pastors and local church leaders. This Journal shall present to the local church for its use the Program and promotional materials of the General Agencies in a correlated manner and shall be in lieu of General Agency Promotional Periodicals. This does not apply to The Methodist Woman, The Methodist Layman, THE VOICE or to any publication not subsidized in whole or in part by World Service funds.

If any World Service Agency desires to publish a Promotional Program Periodical that requires World Service Funds, it shall secure the approval first of the Co-ordinating Council and then of the Council on World Service and Finance."

The motion to thus amend the amendment, being duly seconded, Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) spoke to the same, as follows:—

"Now Mr. Chairman, we may in this discussion and in whatever confusion there may be in some of our minds with reference to this preceding amendment, be tempted to make a very grave mistake by eliminating what I think is one of the great publications of this Board of Temperance, namely, The Voice. It has access to our Church to present the great cause of temperance and prohibition. It ought not to be silent when the liquor people are spending, I believe, between $500,000 and $1,500,000 to advertise their products in the newspapers, in the magazines, on the radio and by television, to try to induce more people to drink, although there are now 4,000,000 addicts to the intoxicating liquor habit, four million confirmed drunkards. They are striving by every means in their power by the use of the printed word to induce more people to do it. We must not neglect the power of words in the great cause of temperance and prohibition.

When Neil Dow set out to make Maine the first prohibition State of all the States, it is said that he flooded the State of Maine with prohibition literature. We cannot afford to take one backward step in our fight against the liquor traffic. One of the great means of persuading people to righteousness and to total abstinence is the printed word. We must bring the power of words into this fight.

You remember the great tribute the Master paid to the power of words when he said, 'Heaven and earth shall pass away, but My words shall not pass away.'

Let us in that same spirit use the power of words in behalf of temperance, total abstinence and prohibition of the liquor traffic by keeping this paper addressed especially to this subject, keep it before the minds and hearts of Methodists.

It would bring joy to every brewer and every distiller to know that we had taken a backward step upon this question and had silenced this great publication of our Church.

We must not do that, brethren. We must stand firm and use the power of words in the great cause of temperance and prohibition. I hope, therefore, in spite of the fact that it may cost $30,000 a year—it is an insignificant sum compared with the money we spend on other matters—we must not neglect, we must not permit this Voice of this great Agency of the Church to be silenced."

Against Both Amendments—Alvin J. Lindgren

Alvin J. Lindgren (Wisconsin—NC) spoke against both the amendment of Ray W. Ragsdale (Southern California—Arizona—W) and the amendment to the amendment, proposed by Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE), as follows:—

“Mr. Chairman, I am against both of the amendments. It seems to me that the main proposition before this General Conference is one of principle, the principle of promoting all of the Agencies and Boards of the Church through one unified approach. It is not an attempt to silence the emphasis on temperance through The Voice nor reduce the effectiveness of our Program of Evangelism as outlined in Shepherds. As I see this, it is an opportunity for us to co-ordinate all of these Agencies in one publication which I believe many more of our Pastors will read, and the Program will get down into the actual Local Church arena of operation more effectively than if we continually send the pastors several different periodicals filled with more material than most of them have time to read in their busy schedules.

I hope that we will not be confused in the attempt to substantiate each of these individually on the grounds that we are silencing them or that their emphasis will not be heard. It is more than just a matter of finance; it is the matter of co-ordinating and simplifying the structure of our Church to more effective use by our Pastors who, I believe, will read a co-ordinated material and use it much more effectively than these various publications coming to them at the present time.”

For Amendment to Amendment of Chester A. Smith ()—
D. Stewart Patterson ()

D. Stewart Patterson () (Baltimore—NE) spoke in favor of the amendment of Chester A. Smith () (New York—NE) to the amendment of Ray W. Ragsdale (Southern California-Arizona—W), as follows:—

“Mr. Chairman, I rise to support the amendment as offered by Mr. Chester Smith. Last night this Conference gave a very decisive voice to its sentiment and belief in abstinence, and anything that will tend to defeat the traffic in alcoholic beverages. It seems to me The Methodist Church spoke its mind in an effective voice.

Surely this morning we do not want to negate that which last night we said and did, nor to make more difficult the effective efforts not only to inform and inspire our people but to give a positive leadership which goes even beyond the bounds of our own Church.

I for one, Mr. Chairman, hope we are not going to become dollar-wise in printing, and at the same time in influence and leadership foolish and poor in relationship to a very vital cause.

Let's look at two or three facts. The Voice has proven its value and its effectiveness, not only to The Methodist Church but beyond our Church. Secondly, I would call your attention that a good deal seems to be spoken on the part of the pastors with reference to the quantity of material. As a Layman I am not overburdened with receipt of materials from the Promotional Agencies of the Church. I have not yet in the business world noticed the automobile dealers, the plumbing supply dealers, the clothing dealers, the grocerymen coming together and saying, 'Let us have one big omnibus publication and put everything into it, and we will check list and buy it all.' I think I am correct, sir, in saying this protest against these does not come from the Laity.

In the second place, The Voice as a recognized publication of a mighty Protestant body goes to Congressional leaders, and certainly if there is a group in Washington who need the expression from the Church and guidance of the Church it is our Congressional leaders who welcome guidance. It also goes to other Denominational Leaders, and they look to The Methodist Church.

Last night you heard a very effective word from Chaplain Carpenter, Chief of the Air Chaplains, pleading with the Church, which would do much to minimize the education needed among our young people. The Voice goes to Methodist Chaplains, more than 500 of them stationed in all parts of the world with the military forces. They use it as an effective educational weapon.

Mr. Chairman, The Voice is not a propaganda sheet, but it is in truth a voice of Methodism, and I for one would urge that we not now silence The Voice of Methodism in this very important matter."

Previous Question—C. R. Wood (*)—Ordered

C. R. Wood (*) (North Alabama—SE) moved the Previous Question on all before The General Conference. The motion, duly seconded, prevailed by more than the required two-thirds majority vote, and the Previous Question was ordered.

Question—Ray W. Ragsdale—Ruling—Bishop Marvin A. Franklin

Ray W. Ragsdale (Southern California-Arizona—W) asked the following question:—

"The Previous Question being on all that is before The General Conference means that we vote on the amendment to the amendment, and then without further debate move right on and vote on the amendment itself?"

Bishop Marvin A. Franklin, the Presiding Officer, ruled,

"That is the order, sir."

Question—Allen B. Rice—Ruling—Bishop Marvin A. Franklin

Allen B. Rice (Northwest Indiana—NC) raised the following question:—

"This is a matter of clarification. I tried to get in before. I believe I am in order. The question was raised about expense. So far as I know, no figure was given to us by the Council on World Service and Finance of the expense for this new Publication, as such. I would like to have that figure as realistic information."

Bishop Marvin A. Franklin, the Presiding Officer, ruled, as follows:—

"We have had many questions on the cost of this. I would say the Previous Question has been ordered and we must proceed to carry out the order of this Conference."

Question—Marshall T. Steel—Answer—Ray W. Ragsdale

Marshall T. Steel (North Texas—SC) asked the following question:—

“Mr. Chairman, a question for clarification, sir.

Does Dr. Ragsdale’s amendment make it possible for The Voice to be published as it is being published?

I am trying to find out if you have two motions to support The Voice. I think that Dr. Ragsdale’s amendment would support both publications.”

Ray W. Ragsdale (Southern California-Arizona—W) answered the question, as follows:—

“Yes, sir. The amendment I proposed provides for the procedure whereby The Voice could continue with the consent of the Co-ordinating Council and of the Council of World Service and Finance.”

Question—Lynn H. Corson—Answer—Ray W. Ragsdale

Lynn H. Corson (New Jersey—NE) raised the following question.

“Mr. Chairman, does not this first amendment provide that The Voice must gain the permission of the Co-ordinating Council for publication?”

At the request of Bishop Marvin A. Franklin, the Presiding Officer, Ray W. Ragsdale (Southern California-Arizona—W) answered the question, as follows:—

“Yes, sir. The situation as I understand it is that if Mr. Smith’s amendment is passed this specifies that The Voice along with The Methodist Woman and The Methodist Layman and any periodical which does not cost World Service funds anything, shall be continued. If this amendment is not passed then we have before us my amendment which provides the procedure whereby The Voice or any other Agency, with the consent of World Service and Finance Council and the Co-ordinating Council, might be continued.”

Further Question—Lynn H. Corson—Ruling—Bishop Marvin A. Franklin

Lynn H. Corson (New Jersey—NE) asked a further question, as follows:—

“Then we are to understand that if Mr. Smith’s amendment to the amendment passes it is mandatory to publish The Voice?”

Bishop Marvin A. Franklin, the Presiding Officer, ruled, as follows:—

“Well, it seems to the Chair that it was simply said that this does not apply to The Methodist Woman, The Methodist Layman and The Voice. I don’t know whether the Chair interprets that correctly or not.”

Question—Roy R. Roudebush ()—Ruling—Bishop Marvin A. Franklin*

Roy R. Roudebush (*) (North Indiana—NC) raised the following question:—

"Mr. Chairman, my understanding is that Mr. Smith's amendment is an amendment additional to Dr. Ragsdale's amendment, so that if Mr. Smith's motion is passed we will still have Dr. Ragsdale's motion to vote upon. Is that correct?"

Bishop Marvin A. Franklin, the Presiding Officer, ruled as follows:—

"That is the parliamentary situation. It is introduced in the nature of an amendment to the amendment. Are you ready?"

Chester A. Smith () Starts to Speak—Ruling—Bishop Marvin A. Franklin*

Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) was recognized and started to speak. His remarks were ruled out of order by Bishop Marvin A. Franklin, the Presiding Officer, on the grounds that the Previous Question had been ordered, and any further arguments were out of order.

Closes Debate—Chester A. McPheeters

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) closed the debate for the the Co-ordinating Council, as follows:—

"Our present situation reminds me of a story that Bishop Moore told at one of our meetings, about a man down in Georgia who had a wayward son. He became so exasperated with that boy that he finally in utter desperation said to a neighbor friend, 'I don't know what I'm going to do with him. What would you do?'

The neighbor, taking advantage of the situation, said, 'If your boy were my boy I'd kick him out!'

The father immediately rejoined by saying, 'If my boy were your boy I'd kick him out, but he is my boy.'

I think we are in that kind of a situation at the moment. We are not trying to kick out anybody. We are trying to co-ordinate, and we feel as the Co-ordinating Council that we have had a directive from this General Conference to bring to you the kind of recommendation we have brought.

You have a rather interesting situation, Members of The Conference. You have a situation of a great Board with a publishing department that can make profits. Out of the profits can come supports for the promotional periodical of that agency. I refer to the Board of Evangelism and Shepherds.

On the other hand you have a Board of Temperance which has no way at all of producing any money to support any kind of a periodical to promote its work. Certainly it is not in the thought of the Co-ordinating Council to crowd The Voice out of existence. We need The Voice; the Church needs it, the country needs it. I think it is the finest that has ever been, and it is doing a real service.

However, in this situation it seems to us that there are some rather basic principles involved. I am not sure how far I should go in mentioning them. Twelve years ago there began in the Church an agitation for the reduction of promotional periodicals. That has increased until this Church spent $250,000 in order to try to bring this to a point where we might have a co-ordinating kind of a Promotional Pastor's Journal. That was one of the recommendations of the Survey Commission.

We did other things as a result of that Survey, and that Survey was made by those who were professional in the field and knew how to make surveys. They came back to us with facts which showed that a Co-ordinating Journal, taking the place of five or six of these Promotional Journals, would save the Church about $300,000.

I can refer to you the page in the Survey Report which would show that. If that were true then we have a feeling it is true now. However, we wanted to bring the issue and let you decide. Not only the men of this Conference but men of every Annual Conference, in every District Conference, are constantly saying, 'There is too much material coming to our desks. What can we do about it?'

The mention has been made that there has been some kind of resentment against even the Programs because of this multiplicity of material that comes to the minister's desk.

What we are saying to you this morning, we have laid down a simple principle here. If you want a Co-ordinated Program, Promotional Program Journal for the Pastors and the Church Leaders, there is only one way to do it and that is to mandate the Commission on Promotion and Cultivation to see that that is done.

We thought we had done it four years ago, but discovered that it was not a mandate but merely permissive. Now we are asking you, do you want the continuation of all of these Journals and Periodicals coming to your desk month after month? If you do, then vote for the amendments. If you do not, and you think we ought to have one Co-ordinated Promotion Journal, vote for Report 3 of your Co-ordinating Council."

Ruling—Bishop Marvin A. Franklin

Bishop Marvin A. Franklin, the Presiding Officer, made the following ruling:—

"The Chairman has had his last word, and I rule that it is time now for us to enter into the voting on these amendments. If you will adopt the amendment offered—"

Question—William B. Robinson—Ruling Bishop Marvin A. Franklin

William B. Robinson (North-East Ohio—NC) raised the following question:—

"Mr. Chairman, some of us are going to be influenced by the answer to this question. How are we to vote? We have not been told anything concerning the format, the cost or any material of that kind. If the Chairman could make a statement that would clarify the matter it would help some of us, anyway, to make up our minds in voting."

Ruling—Bishop Marvin A. Franklin

Bishop Marvin A. Franklin, the Presiding Officer, ruled as follows:—

"That is somewhat beyond our range at this time, it seems to me. We have had a full debate on this. I believe the Conference desires to vote on it."

Amendment to Amendment—Chester A. Smith (*)—Not Adopted

The amendment of Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) to the amendment of Ray W. Ragsdale (Southern California-Arizona—W) on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.

Amendment—Ray W. Ragsdale—Not Adopted

No one having received the required number of votes for election, Bishop Marvin A. Franklin, the Presiding Officer, declared the result, "No election."

Fifth Ballot—Luther W. Wells (*)—Instructions—Bishop Marvin A. Franklin

Bishop Marvin A. Franklin, the Presiding Officer, stated that on the Fifth Ballot the Delegates should vote for one Minister and one Layman, without regard to Jurisdictional boundaries.

The Fifth Ballot was spread for members of The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church.

Bishop Marvin A. Franklin, the Presiding Officer, declared the ballot closed, and the votes were collected, and the tellers were excused, and retired to count the same, under the direction of Luther W. Wells (*) (Virginia—SE), Secretary of Ballots and Tellers.

At the request of Luther W. Wells (*) (Virginia—SE), Secretary of Ballots and Tellers, The General Conference granted unanimous common consent for the results of the Fifth Ballot to be sealed, counted after lunch, and reported to the afternoon session of The General Conference.

No. 14—Presiding Officers—H. Hughes Wagner

H. Hughes Wagner (New England—NE), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee on Presiding Officers, presented Report No. 14 of the Committee, and it was adopted as follows:—

"We are pleased to announce that the Presiding Officer for Friday morning's session May 4, 1956, will be Bishop Costen J. Harrell of the Charlotte Area, Southeastern Jurisdiction; for Friday afternoon's session, May 4, 1956, Bishop Willis J. King, New Orleans Area and Overseas Area, Central Jurisdiction; and for Friday night's session, May 4, 1956, Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy of the Los Angeles Area, Western Jurisdiction."

(Signed) H. HUGHES WAGNER, Chairman
WILLIAM R. CANNON, Secretary

Parliamentary Situation—Bishop Marvin A. Franklin

Bishop Marvin A. Franklin, the Presiding Officer, made the following statement regarding the parliamentary situation:—

"We are within ten minutes of adjournment, and I would like to say to The Conference you have an Order of the Day, but I question if you would want to take it up before luncheon, now. That is the Report of the Council on World Service and Finance. Unless I am otherwise directed, we will wait on that."

Motion to Adjourn—Embree H. Blackard—Adopted

Motion of Embree H. Blackard (Western North Carolina—SE), duly seconded, prevailed, that after the necessary announcements, we do now adjourn.

Announcements—Charles C. Parlin (*)—Lud H. Estes—Leon T. Moore

Announcements were made by Charles C. Parlin (*) (Newark—NE); Lud H. Estes (Memphis—SE), Secretary, and Leon T. Moore (Philadelphia—NE), Secretary Designate.

Honoring Chester A. Smith ()—Paul R. Ervin ()

Motion of Paul R. Ervin () (Western North Carolina—SE), duly seconded, prevailed, that when we adjourn at noon today, we do so in honor of Chester A. Smith () (New York—NE), one of the oldest members of The General Conference in point of service.

Thanks—Bishop Marvin A. Franklin

Bishop Marvin A. Franklin, the Presiding Officer of this morning's session, in well chosen words, expressed his appreciation of the members of The General Conference and their fine co-operation in the proceedings of the morning's session.

Adjournment—Benediction—Bishop Willis J. King

The morning session of the Ninth Day, Thursday, May 3rd., 1956 adjourned at 12:30 P.M. with the Benediction, pronounced by Bishop Willis J. King of the New Orleans Area and Overseas Service of the Central Jurisdiction, the matters pending before The General Conference being the continuing Order of the Day, the election of members of The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church, and the consideration of and action on the Reports of the Council on World Service and Finance.

NINTH DAY, THURSDAY, MAY 3, 1956

AFTERNOON SESSION

Opening—Bishop Hazen G. Werner

Pursuant to adjournment The General Conference of The Methodist Church, convened in the afternoon session of the Ninth Day, Thursday, May 3, 1956 at 2:30 P.M., in the Municipal Auditorium of Minneapolis, Minnesota, with Bishop Hazen G. Werner, of the Ohio Area, North Central Jurisdiction, in the Chair, who announced that James R. Houghton (*) (New England—NE) would lead in the singing of a Hymn to be followed by prayer by Bishop H. Bascom Watts, the matters pending before The General Conference of The Methodist Church, being the continuing Order of the Day, the election of Members of The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church, and the next Order of the Day, consideration of and action on the Reports of the Council on World Service and Finance.

Hymn—James R. Houghton ()—Prayer—Bishop H. Bascom Watts*

James R. Houghton (*) (New England—NE), General Conference Director of Music, led The General Conference in the singing of Hymn No. 70, "The Lord's My Shepherd, I'll Not Want," The General Conference standing, after which Bishop H. Bascom Watts, of the Nebraska Area, South Central Jurisdiction, led in prayer.

Motion for Recess—Paul V. Galloway—Withdrawn—A. Wesley Pugh

Paul V. Galloway (Oklahoma—SC) moved that in view of the fact that the ladies had prepared coffee and cookies for the afternoon, that a Recess of ten minutes be taken at 4 P.M.

A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee of Chairmen, requested that the motion for a Recess be withdrawn at this time, as he desired to offer a plan of procedure, at the proper time, coming from the Standing Administrative Committee of Chairmen.

The motion of Paul V. Galloway (Oklahoma—SC) for a recess at 4 P.M., was withdrawn.

Parliamentary Situation—Bishop Hazen G. Werner

Bishop Hazen G. Werner, the Presiding Officer, stated the parliamentary situation, is as follows:—

"We have now this afternoon two matters before us directly. One is the matter of the election of Members of The Judicial Council, and the other is the Order of the Day for Reports from the Council on World Service and Finance. I think it would be your desire, unless I hear some word to the contrary or objection, that we proceed with election of the Members of The Judicial Council. If we have a Ballot, we will await the Report of this Ballot now.

Evidently, the votes are still being counted.

Are there any matters of business at this time before we enter the Order of the Day?"

No. 7 Committee of Chairmen—A. Wesley Pugh

A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee of Chairmen, reported for the Committee, as follows:—

"Speaking for the Committee of Chairmen, I want to point out to you what the procedure was to be this afternoon with reference to our business. It was the thought of the Committee of Chairmen that we would go right ahead with the Order of the Day, which is the Report of the Council on World Service and Finance, and proceed right through with it, unless we came to some point which involved serious controversy. If we come to such a point, in justice and fairness to the many Committee members who are working in other places, I shall ask the privilege of moving to defer that until they can be in the room with us.

Further, if we conclude that Report of the Council on World Service and Finance, we should go to the Calendar, the Legislative Calendar."

Parliamentary Situation—Bishop Hazen G. Werner

Bishop Hazen G. Werner, the Presiding Officer, stated that if this was in agreement with the mind of The General Conference, we would immediately take up the consideration of and action on the Reports of the Council on World Service and Finance, which was the Order of the Day, previously set. The General Conference, by unanimous common consent, approved the plan of procedure.

Motion Re Afternoon Session—A. Wesley Pugh—Paul V. Galloway

A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee of Chairmen, moved that The General Conference work through the afternoon session Thursday, May 3, 1956 without a Recess period, adjourning approximately at 4:45 P.M., as many Sub-Committees still had plenty of work to do. The motion, duly seconded by Paul V. Galloway (Oklahoma—SC), prevailed.

Order of the Day—Reports Council on World Service—Bishop Clare Purcell—Thomas B. Lugg

The Order of the Day having arrived, the consideration of and action on the Reports of the Council on World Service and Finance, Bishop Clare Purcell, of the Birmingham Area, Southeastern Jurisdiction, and President of the Council of World Service and Finance, was recognized for the presentation of the Reports of the Council.

Bishop Clare Purcell requested that Thomas B. Lugg (Illinois—NC), General Secretary and Treasurer of the Council on World Service and Finance, and the members of the Council on World Service and Finance who have been assigned to speak to the various Reports to come to the platform, as follows; Charles S. Kendall (Southern California-Arizona—W), Henry W. Blackburn (Florida—SE), Frank W. Bevan (Troy—NE), R. F. Curl (Southwest Texas—SC), George B. McKibbin () (Rock River—NC), Luther W. Wells () (Virginia—SE), and Charles F. Berkheimer (Central Pennsylvania—NE).

Financial Report—Thomas B. Lugg, Treasurer Council on World Service and Finance

Thomas B. Lugg (Illinois—NC), General Secretary and Treasurer of the Council on World Service and Finance, made a statement regarding the Financial Reports of the Council on World Service and Finance, and moved that the Treasurer of the Council on World Service and Finance be authorized to complete the Financial Report for the quadrennium 1952-1956, and that it be published in the Journal of The General Conference of 1956. The motion, duly seconded, prevailed. For Report see Appendix, page 1920.

The statement of Thomas B. Lugg (Illinois—NC), General Secretary and Treasurer of the Council on World Service and Finance, is as follows:—

“Mr. Chairman, before I present the men who are to handle individual sections of the Report, I desire to report briefly to The General Conference.

The 1952 Discipline, Paragraph 739, requires of the Treasurer of the Council a Report to each Quadrennial Session of The General Conference, a full Report of the Financial transactions of the Council for the preceding Quadrennium. This Report is recorded in the 1956 volume entitled ‘Quadrennial Reports.’

Our Reports are found on page 519 to page 604, inclusive. Here will be found the Reports for the first three years of the Quadrennium. If you consent, it is the desire of your Treasurer that you receive these Reports, request your Treasurer to complete the Quadrennial Report as soon as possible after the close of the fiscal year and file the same with the Secretary of The General Conference for inclusion in the Journal. The Financial Reports will also be included in the Sixteenth Annual Report of the Council on World Service and Finance.

These three-year Reports have been audited and the audits have been approved by the Council on World Service and Finance. It has been customary, Mr. Chairman, to include the Quadrennial Report in the Journal or in the Appendix to the Journal.”

Thomas B. Lugg Reports for Eleven Months

Thomas B. Lugg (Illinois—NC), General Secretary and Treasurer of the Council on World Service and Finance, made a report of the work of his office for the first eleven months of the closing year of the quadrennium 1952-1956, as follows:—

“Mr. Chairman, I would like to take long enough to tell you about the first eleven months of this year.

Our books were closed yesterday noon, so I think you are the first ones who have had an opportunity to know how we came out for the first eleven months.

World Service has shown us to date a total of $8,010,022, which is 2.59 per cent increase over the first eleven months of last year. In view of the fact that some of our Conference Treasurers and our Chairmen of Conference Commissions have been at The General Conference during the latter part of April, I think this is splendid that we are maintaining an advance.

The Advance Specials are 12.14 per cent ahead of last year, a total for Advance Specials to date of $3,882,500.

The Week of Dedication is slightly behind last year, but we have received up-to-date a total of $507,645.

The Fellowship of Suffering and Service, with receipts of $679,000, which is 5.10 per cent ahead of last year.

The Television Ministry has made a 20.68 per cent increase over the preceding year and has had a total of $143,000, plus, to date.

The Episcopal Fund shows 4.69 per cent increase.

The General Administration Fund is slightly behind, but I have confidence that that will come up.

The Inter-Denominational Co-operation Fund, with receipts of $255,000 is .63 per cent ahead of last year.

I wanted you to have that, Mr. Chairman, to know—that you might know—that our churches are back of our Benevolence Program, and I think are writing a very remarkable record. These receipts are encouraging.

With your co-operation as you go to your homes, you can further lift the sights of our Methodist members, calling them to even greater giving for the extension of Christ's Kingdom on earth. When the Church becomes local, it dies. The Church which is motivated by Christ helps, heartens and heals people in all areas and conditions of life. I am happy the way in which the Church is responding to this challenge.

Mr. Chairman, our No. 1 Report will be handled by Dr. Kendall. This is the Report on World Service Budget Recommendations, and is found on page 199 of your DAILY ADVOCATE.”

No. 1—Council on World Service and Finance—“World Service Budget Recommendations”—Charles S. Kendall—Adopted

Charles S. Kendall (Southern California-Arizona—W) presented the first section of Report No. 1 of the Council on World Service and Finance, entitled “World Service Budget, Recommendations," DCA No. 5, page 199, columns 1, 2 and 3, and page 200, DCA No. 5, column 1, down to "Special Requests to Annual Conferences," and moved its adoption. The motion was duly seconded.

In presenting the Report, Charles S. Kendall (Southern California-Arizona—W) made the following statement:—

"We are presenting, first of all, the Report found on page 199 and carried over to the middle of column 1 on page 200.

May we say that this first Report has to do with our recommendation for the Budget? After we have discussed this, there will be opportunity to adopt the first part. Then we will take up the Special Requests to Annual Conferences on page 200, and you have an opportunity to adopt that. Then, if you have adopted that, we go on to Report No. 2, which will have to do with Apportionments to Annual Conferences. Then, Report No. 3 will be the Episcopal Fund, and so on.

Obviously, you have looked at this and it is before you.

It would not be our disposition to go through this sentence by sentence but to lift up one or two things. Since it has been pointed out that quite a few people at this Conference have not had the experience before of looking into these Budgets, I think it would be in order to say how they are presented.

The Council on World Service and Finance is no star chamber; but rather the Boards and Agencies of the Church, months and months before this Conference, go into their needs and their projects and the hopes and the things that they can do if they are able to do, and then when finally those things are prepared, they all come together—the Secretaries—at the same time and make their Budgetary Askings. It is the custom now that as these askings are presented, instead of a Secretary presenting his own problems and Budgetary Askings and then leaving, they all stay through so that everyone knows what everyone else is asking for, what they are trying to do, what they hope to do; so there is an opportunity to see others' hopes and plans. There are many things undoubtedly that work to the advantage of the Church in eliminating overlapping at that point and every one has sympathy for and interest in the needs of the Boards.

It is the responsibility of the Council to take the askings and to weigh the askings on the one hand, which in this case this year were over $17,000,000, against what seems to be the "givability" of our Church, which for the past quadrennium was over $9,000,000, and then try to decide there in between what we have actually demonstrated we can do and what we could spend advantageously if we had the money, where we can bring the need and the money together.

After a long discussion and careful consideration, the Council felt that they could arrive at $12,200,000. Now, this is a firm figure. Someone said, 'That means a million a month for four years, or $48,000,000.'

Coincidentally, it does mean a million a month, but it is not a slogan. It was arrived at realistically and afterwards, sure, it is a million a month for each year, forty-eight months, $48,000,000. This represents, it seems, a tremendous increase, over 25 per cent. On the other hand, dollar-wise or cents-wise so far as the membership of The Methodist Church is concerned, the giving over the past quadrennium per year was $1.06 per member. If we should adopt this Budget of $12,200,000, it will mean a Budget or a per capita gift per Methodist in the United States for all of these tremendously worth-while things of the magnificent sum of $1.31 per member, an increase of twenty-five cents per person.

If you would care to look in column 3, page 199, you would see that this is broken down in three various Claims. The first numeral 1 at the top of column 3 is Prior Claims. These total $575,000.

II, farther down column 3, is fixed sums to be paid annually from the World Service receipts totaling $595,000.

Column 3, the balance of the receipts for the regular World Service Program shall be distributed according to the following ratios, and here are demonstrated the ratios and below the actual dollars.

Now, in past years the ratio had considerable significance, but this year the ratio is only coincidental. In other words, it was the desire of the Council to give every Board and Agency a substantial increase dollar-wise and this could not be done by simply, say 25 per cent across the board to every Board and Agency, because their askings and the needs were not the same. So there is no attempt to compare these ratios in this quadrennium with any of the past. Whatever the ratio happens to be this time and what it may be four years from now, from now on, will be merely coincidence. It is only demonstrated that as it adds up, it will be 100 per cent of the dollar.

Below that are the dollar askings of the Agencies. You may go through those and find they total $12,200,000. There is not the slightest doubt but that every group, every Board and Agency as it presented its needs and hopes, askings, could, I think, wisely and for the glory of the Kingdom have used the amount they asked for. On the other hand, the amount that we feel with extra effort this General Conference can approve is probably going to be represented by this amount that we have suggested, $12,200,000.

In the next Report you will see how this is to be apportioned and that is the time of very sober thought.

Mr. Chairman, I move the adoption of the report, all of page 199, and on page 200 to the middle of column 1."

Question—Merrill C. Johnson—Answer—Thomas B. Lugg

Merrill C. Johnson (New York—NE) raised the following questions:—

"On the top of the third column, page 199, there is a Budget Item for the Committee on Wills and Bequests of $25,000, with a NOTE indicating that if The General Conference approves the establishment of the Methodist Church Foundation that money would be directed to the purposes of that Foundation.

In the Quadrennial Reports on page 532, in the Report of World Service on Apportionment and World Service Special Gift, under the heading 'Preferred Charges' in the year June 1, 1952 to May 31, 1953 there was an allotment of $168.80 for that purpose.

During the past two years there has been something over $20,000 in one year and $25,000 in another.

My question is one for information as to whether this item in the Budget might not be put into General World Service for distribution, or is that amount now in view of the decision of this Conference this morning still needed for Wills, Bequests and Gifts?"

Answer—Thomas B. Lugg

Thomas B. Lugg (Illinois—NC), General Secretary and Treasurer of the Council on World Service and Finance, answered the question of Merrill C. Johnson (New York—NE) as follows:—

“Mr. Chairman, in view of the action of this morning, the matter in brackets that has the word ‘Note’ on page 199, the top of the third column is to be crossed out. I think that answers the first question.”

The NOTE reads as follows:—

(NOTE: If the General Conference approves the establishment of The Methodist Church Foundation, Inc. as is being recommended by the Co-ordinating Council, the Methodist Church Foundation shall be substituted for the Committee on Wills and Bequests.)

The second question is that in 1948 your General Conference authorized the Council on World Service and Finance, then the General Commission on World Service and Finance, to set up a Committee on Wills, Bequests and Gifts.

It has functioned since that time, not always as intensively as at the present time. This will come up again later on, as was noted.

The National Council has gotten the co-operation of Protestantism to emphasize the year 1956 as the year when Christians remember the Church in their Wills. The Council of Bishops and the Council on World Service and Finance have both given approval to the matter of special emphasis on Wills, Gifts and Bequests that come out of wills, and this Budget was a Budget approved by the Council.

I would say that not every year would the Budget be that much, this is a time of intensive emphasis, but that it is a desirable thing. It is emphasizing the making of Christian Wills on the part of individuals remembering the Local Church, remembering the Conference Institutions and then also giving the corporate titles of all the World Service Agencies.

It is impossible to say that we have gotten so much money from Wills, Bequests and Gifts in the Council because this is an overall emphasis. I would like to see it stay there as it is, not increased of course, but within that Budget.”

For Report—Lynn J. Radcliffe

Lynn J. Radcliffe (Ohio—NC) spoke in favor of the Report, as follows:—

“Mr. Chairman and Members of The General Conference: This Report comes to us at a time when we are in the midst of carrying forward routine business, and yet it is no routine Report.

I believe that there are few more significant moments in The General Conference than right now. We have been adopting great Programs and adopting great principles, but the whole work of missions is in this Report. We remember the Crusade for Christ, and the tremendous enthusiasm with which that was adopted at Kansas City. It was one of those few high moments of General Conferences that I remember.

We remember the Advance, and how the entire Church was mobilized for the Advance.

We remember the Continuing Advance.

We have this quadrennium a new Quadrennial Program emphasizing the Local Church and Institutions of Higher Learning, but germane to that Program and part of it was their determination that missions should move forward steadily. This Report makes that possible.

I hope, Mr. Chairman, that as we adopt this Report we will not do it merely as a piece of routine business. This, too, is one of the high moments of The Conference for we are striving together to raise our World Service giving from $9,600,000 in the past quadrennium to $12,200,000 in the new quadrennium.

When we realize that the number of missionaries is still pathetically small, 1,500 to conquer the world, just twice the number of Delegates to this General Conference. The great continent of Asia, which may this quadrennium be deciding the future destiny, will depend upon our Missionary Program.

Mr. Chairman and Members of The Conference, I hope that as we adopt this Report we will adopt it with enthusiasm and consecration and mean it, and go back to our churches to see that this, too, shall be a quadrennium of crusading and of advance and that the missionary cause of the Church shall once again move strongly forward."

Question—Harold S. Swales—Answer—Charles S. Kendall

Harold S. Swales (Central New York—NE) raised the following question:—

In Column 3, Section III, under the ratios, we have Theological Schools. Then down in the next paragraph below number III we have Ministerial Education. I would like to ask a question as to why these headings are different.

Charles S. Kendall (Southern California-Arizona—W) replied, for the Council on World Service and Finance,

"The answer is the Headings are synonymous, sir."

Section of Report Adopted

The Section of Report No. 1 of the Council on World Service and Finance, Subject, "World Service Budget Recommendation, 2 found on page 199, DCA No. 5, columns 1, 2 and 3, and page 200, DCA No. 5, column 1, down to the heading "Special Requests To Annual Conferences," in the middle of column, was adopted.

No. 1 Council on World Service and Finance—Charles S. Kendall—Adopted

Charles S. Kendall (Southern California-Arizona—W) next presented the closing Section of Report No. 1 of the Council on World Service and Finance, DCA No. 5, page 200, columns 2 and 3, Subject, "Special Requests To Annual Conferences," and moved its adoption. The motion, duly seconded, prevailed, after the following statement from

Charles S. Kendall (Southern California-Arizona—W) :—

"Page 200, beginning at the middle of the page 'Special Requests To Annual Conferences,' you, of course, have already adopted the Quadrennial Program, but let me point out that under Section 8 there has been added—let's take Section B, line 7, line 6, a goal of at least a dollar per member. Then you remember it was inserted, and you did move, as you willed, also there be 30 cents per member for the Wesley foundation.

Then we move on to column 2 indicating the need for Church Extension and then under 3 the recognition of the Television Ministry.

The Church has demonstrated by its interest our concern in and recognition of the impact of television across the nation and our part as a Church in it. And it was the feeling of the Council that we could not do justice to the work of the Television Commission under Apportionments. Therefore, we set them free through this Resolution for a Special Fund which could be channeled, as you will read in column 3, that page, the top of the page, through the Bishops, District Superintendents and Pastors with the aid of the Conference Commission on Promotion.

This will give special opportunity for this ministry to expend itself as Conferences and churches across our nation take a special interest.

With those comments, I move the adoption of this portion of the report."

The Report was adopted. For Report see Appendix, page 1983.

Further Statement—Charles S. Kendall

Charles S. Kendall (Southern California-Arizona—W) made the following statement, concerning the World Service Budget for the quadrennium of 1956-1960 :—

"Mr. Chairman, may I have just a moment? When this becomes real and comes into our own local churches, then again we will look at the load which we are capable of carrying.

Several years ago when I was learning to fly I had an experience I don't want to have again. We landed at a little field a mile high. The air was rare. We, with two other young ministers in the back of the plane, finished what we wanted to do and took off again, making the mistake of taking off not too long after a DC-6 which had preceded us. The DC-6 had gone, but I found as we taxied down the runway and finally lifted, running out of runway, that the air was still very turbulent. The plane was doing all it could. The motor was 'reeving' up as fast as it would go. The plane was performing to the best of its ability.

We had run out of runway and there was only cactus and rock around, and however I was able to climb the earth seemed to climb with me and we hovered along there seeing very clearly all the rocks and the spines of these cactus ten or twelve feet above the ground. We couldn't gain altitude. Ahead were piles of granite boulders that constitute part of Oak Creek.

The boys weren't smart enough to be scared. I was. I realized that we were running out of time. And then suddenly I felt the buffeting which comes because, as you come up toward a cliff, there is a movement beyond yourself, a pressure of air moving, and we caught ourselves in a thermol. The motor's revolutions were the same, the altitude of the plane itself, its attack on the air was still the same, but by the grace of God, not our wisdom, we found ourselves in a stream moving upward, and as it moved, the best that we could do now meant the difference between death and salvation, and we flew away.

As we go, if it is on the heavy wing load of a depressed psychology, we will have a hard time, would have a hard time to repeat against what we have done this last quadrennium; but the whole emphasis of this General Conference is that we know there is a stream moving upward; furthermore, instead of an unpredictable stream, it is a stream we can always find, and this for the Kingdom of God will see us, if we will, not just the $12,200,000 but beyond that, for Christ's Kingdom, and for the salvation of our nation and our world."

Thanks—Thomas B. Lugg

Thomas B. Lugg (Illinois—NC), General Secretary and Treasurer of the Council on World Service and Finance, as a matter of high personal privilege, expressed his hearty thanks for the adoption of Report No. 1 of the Council on World Service and Finance, as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman, I would like to express my thanks to all of you for the fine spirit in which you received this Report which I can assure you is a very difficult Report which our Council worked long hours on in order to try to do that which was best for the Church."

No. 2—Council on World Service and Finance—"Apportionments to Annual Conferences"—Thomas B. Lugg—Henry W. Blackburn—Amended—Adopted

Thomas B. Lugg (Illinois—NC), General Secretary and Treasurer of the Council on World Service and Finance, presented Report No. 2 of the Council stating that the heading, "Apportionments To Annual Conferences," had been inadvertently omitted by the printer, and requested Henry W. Blackburn (Florida—SE) to present and explain Report No. 2.

Henry W. Blackburn (Florida—SE) presented Report No. 2 of the Council on World Service and Finance, DCA No. 5, page 200, column 3, and page 201, columns 1, 2 and 3, and asked common consent to correct some typographical errors made in setting up the Report in type. Common consent being unanimously granted by The General Conference, Henry W. Blackburn (Florida—SE) made the following corrections:—

1st. In paragraph 3, DCA No. 5, page 200, column 3, change the last word reading "denominations," to the singular, "denomination."

2nd. Insert the heading, "Our Recommendations Are," after the fourth paragraph, and before the paragraph numbered 1, DCA No. 5, page 200, column 3.

3rd. That the statement "For Information Only," DCA

No. 5, page 201, columns 1, 2 and 3, show how the Apportionments have been worked out.

4th. DCA No. 5, page 201, column 3, paragraph 1 under "The adjusted Annual Conference Apportionments," which reads as follows:—

"1. When the decimal apportionment is less than 20% above the amount apportioned annually for the 1952-56 quadrennium, the present apportionment is increased 20%."

insert the word, "to" before the "20%" in the last line, so that paragraph 1, will read as follows:—

"1. When the decimal apportionment is less than 20% above the amount apportioned annually for the 1952-56 quadrennium, the present apportionment is increased to 20%."

5th. In the last paragraph, DCA No. 5, page 201, column 3, which reads as follows:—

"Provided, however, that no Annual Conference shall receive an Apportionment more than 20% of its decimal Apportionment of this Quadrennium."

change the "20%" in line three to read "120%," so that the corrected paragraph will read

"Provided, however, that no Annual Conference shall receive an Apportionment more than 120% of its decimal Apportionment of this Quadrennium."

Henry W. Blackburn (Florida—SE) made the following statement relative to Report No. 2 of the Council on World Service and Finance:—

"I am sure that the Members of The Conference have studied these printed tables which give the proposed Apportionments of the several Annual Conferences.

Let me say first of all that the members of your Council are gratified by the almost universal acceptance and paying of the Apportionments during the past Quadrennium. You will remember that at the time of Union the several branches of the Church did not handle the General and Conference Benevolences in the same way. As a matter of fact, they were handled so differently that we were a long time finding a set of factors that would enable us to make the Apportionments equitably throughout this extensive Denomination of ours.

It has been heartening through these 16 years to see that we have been growing together steadily in our way of handling our Benevolences Funds. I remind you that for three Quadrenniums we were unable to find factors and we simply said at each successive General Conference to go back to your several Jurisdictions and Conferences and raise 10 per cent more than you had, or 25 per cent, or 33 1/3 per cent more than you raised in the last Quadrennium.

During these 12 years we have been growing together. Conferences and Jurisdictions that had very heavy General Work Apportionments and light Conference Benevolence Apportionments began to shift, so that four years ago we were able to find a set of factors that proved workable with certain variations.

We are very happy to report to you this afternoon that we have grown together very much more rapidly under the application of these factors. While we recognize that they are not ideal and our work could not be a perfect work, the plan has certainly been workable, and we believe that we would make a serious mistake to change those factors at this time. We are making some changes in the variations.

You have just adopted Report 1, in which you have set as your minimum goal an amount of $12,200,000. That represents an overall increase of 25 per cent. Your Council feels that in view of an overall increase of 25 per cent it would be perfectly fair for us to expect that every Annual Conference should increase its giving by at least 20 per cent. In an effort to protect those Conferences that are still paying below the decimal we felt that we should continue the protective clause and we are not making any Apportionments that exceed an increase of 35 per cent.

We have studied the effect of these factors on the whole Church very carefully throughout the Quadrennium, and we find that a few Conferences were done an injustice. Those Conferences that were paying more than the decimal, and having even the minimum applied, we found were with an Adjusted Apportionment up to 140 per cent from 130 per cent of the decimal of the past Quadrennium. For the protection of those Conferences we are proposing that no Annual Conference shall be apportioned an amount in excess of 120 per cent of the decimal of the past Quadrennium.

We believe that with these variations we have prepared the best possible plan for making the Apportionments to the Church. We are grateful for the wonderful spirit that has been manifested on every hand, and we expect of course that we will have a continuance of this very fine acceptance and paying of our world service apportionments.

Mr. Chairman, I move the adoption of Report No. 2. I will be glad to answer any questions."

Amendment—Lester W. Auman—Not Adopted

Lester W. Auman (New York East—NE) moved to amend Report No. 2 of the Council on World Service as follows (DB-77):—

"Mr. Chairman. I move that the Quadrennial Annual Apportionments to the Episcopal Areas of the Annual Conferences computed on the decimal, recorded in column 2 of the Tables, be substituted for the Adjusted Apportionments in column 4 of the Tables, and that the Report be amended to conform to this change."

The motion to thus amend, being duly seconded, Lester W. Auman (New York East—NE) spoke to the same as follows:—

"It may seem very presumptuous for me or for any Member of this General Conference to make a proposal directly contrary to the proposal by the Council on World Service. However, it seems to me there are some things that ought to be said to this General Conference in this connection, and I feel the only way I can have the privilege of saying them is to make this motion.

Prior to unification we had two traditions. In the Church, South, the World Service and the Conference Benevolences as I understand it—if I am wrong someone will soon correct me—were combined very much as they now are in our united Church. In the Church, North, World Service and Annual Conference Benevolences were kept entirely separate. It was even contrary to the Discipline for any one local church to put its World Service Funds and Annual Conference Benevolences in the same treasury.

Due to these traditions we had two different practices in these two sections of our country. In the Church, South, they had large recognition of Conference Benevolences. In our Church here in the North we put the special emphasis on World Service.

In a transitional period I can readily see the reason for these Adjusted Apportionments, but it seems to me that we are fast getting away from that transitional period. This formula itself is based upon membership, non-building budgets and previous giving.

Please note the previous World Service giving is one of the factors in determining the decimal for these Apportionments. Where the previous giving has been low that factor tends to keep the Apportionment low. So those churches or Conferences or Areas which had a lower giving to World Service received proportionately a lower giving because of that factor in the decimal.

We had the proposal that no Area would be increased more than 20 per cent, and that those below the decimal should not be increased more than 35 per cent. That means that in these Areas where the World Service giving has been low, they are apportioned 65 per cent of their decimal Apportionment. Some of the churches in the Northeastern and North Central Jurisdictions are apportioned 120 per cent of their Apportionment according to the decimal.

It seems to some of us that this is not altogether fair. I know the argument will be that in this way we will get in more money, but I have a strong conviction that if we have a formula we ought to apply it equally to all the Conferences and Areas in all parts of our Church.

Therefore I make this proposal. There is great dissatisfaction in the Northeastern Jurisdiction over these Apportionments. Our own New York East Conference did write to our Commission on World Service, protesting the fact that we were going to receive an additional raise this year. In our own New York Area we shall receive an advance of $75,000. That is 20 per cent above what we would receive as an Apportionment on the decimal formula.

I will just say I want to bring these facts to the attention of The General Conference. It may be this amendment will not be adopted. But I believe that those of us who have this conviction should stand up and be counted, so that we could give notice to the World Service Commission that we are looking towards a period in the near future when the decimal system may apply equally to churches all over the country."

Against Amendment—Finis A. Crutchfield, Jr.

Finis A. Crutchfield, Jr. (Oklahoma—SC) spoke against the proposed amendment of Lester W. Auman (New York East—NE) as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman, I should like to speak against the substitute motion made by the gentleman who preceded me at the other microphone. As I understood his proposition he wishes to substitute the second column of figures for those being recommended by the Council. Is that correct?"

I would like to call your attention on page 203 to the second column of figures in which it was recommended that the Indian Mission Conference of Oklahoma should be given a 3800 per cent increase, or something to that effect; from $101 to $3,841.

I think this in itself is indicative of the fact that those who originally planned the second column did not take into account when they planned these suggestions the average income in an Area, nor the advances that had been previously made, nor the standard of living as applied to certain Conferences that relate to economic conditions in those regions, nor the heavy burden of Benevolences that obtained in certain Conferences that are not a part of World Service, or actually the Annual Conference Benevolence Budget.

For example, the gentleman who preceded me, if I understood the place from which he comes, I think the average income in his State is 4400 per cent greater than in my State. And I know there is no group of Methodists in his State that compares in need to the Indian Mission, for example. That column that he is proposing to substitute is a set or list of figures that has been worked out, it seems to me, without due regard to the ability of people to pay, to their need, or to an understanding of the type of mission work that is being done in these regions.

I urge all of you Members of this General Conference to bear this in mind. Even though this is a small amount, psychologically and almost economically it will wreck the Indian Mission in Oklahoma if we adopt his proposal.

I propose that we stay with the Council's Report."

Information Requested—Luther B. Felder—Answer—Henry W. Blackburn

Luther B. Felder (Texas—C) asked the following question:—

"I am seeking information. On page 200, at the bottom of the page, 'We recommend that the World Service Apportionment be distributed to the Annual Conferences on a decimal derived from the following factors:'"

I would like to get an explanation of those factors. The Conference in which I am a member has double the apportionment that is given to another Conference of the same membership. I am seeking information, Mr. Chairman."

Answer—Henry W. Blackburn

Henry W. Blackburn (Florida—SE) answered for the Council on World Service and Finance, as follows:—

"Yes, sir. The first factor that is used is membership, one-third on the basis of the membership. We think that that is a good factor, because every person who joins the Church should expect to support the Church.

The second factor has to do with total non-building giving. We think that represents the ability of a people to give. We think that is the factor that has enabled us to have a set of factors that is workable at all.

In answer to the question concerning the wide difference in the askings of the several Conferences, in the Central Jurisdiction the year before this plan was instituted the West Texas Conference failed to get its World Service Funds in on time. So they were not accredited during that year. The funds went in the next year.

The third factor, based on previous World Service giving, came into effect and made the asking of the West Texas Conference very low in comparison to an adjoining Conference. It is one of the accidents that our plan could not possibly take care of. We are greatly in hopes that the Conference that has profited, if we could call it that, by this mistake will voluntarily help to rectify it.

Now let me say in answer to the criticism of the factor, that if the third factor should be changed and the decimal should be used throughout it would increase the apportionment to the Central Jurisdiction overall by 50 per cent.

There are Annual Conferences in the South Central Jurisdiction that would have increases up to 80, 90 and even 100 per cent. And let me say that your Council on World Service and Finance cannot completely ignore Conference Benevolence giving to Advance Specials.

It so happens that the two Southern Jurisdictions that have not been giving up to the decimal are giving a very high per capita amount for total Benevolences. I notice that the South Central Jurisdiction that has not given so much on General World Service is giving greatly in excess of the average for the whole Church, whereas the Northeastern Jurisdiction is giving for total Benevolences less than the average for the whole Church.

Your Council on World Service could not ignore those very important facts. I will be very glad to give you the percentages of increase by Jurisdictions that will indicate to you that the factors we are now using will bring the Church together. It is doing it very rapidly.

During the first three years of this Quadrennium, as compared to the last three years of the last Quadrennium, the increase in giving to World Service, General World Service, in the Central Jurisdiction, was 29 per cent. I will not read the fractions.

In the North Central Jurisdiction, 17 per cent.

The increase in the Northeastern Jurisdiction was 14 per cent.

The increase in the South Central, for the whole Jurisdiction, was 35 per cent.

The increase in the Southeastern was 31 per cent.

In the Western it was 18 per cent.

So we believe if the Conference will hold steady we will make great progress again in the new Quadrennium and have very soon, the Church on an even keel.

I sincerely trust that you will vote down the amendment and favor the plan that has been proposed by your Council. And let me say for the Council that we have kept an open mind to every proposed set of factors. It will be the continuing policy of your Council so to do. We are seeking light. We covet your prayers and your help and your suggestions."

Against Amendment—Edwin L. Jones, Sr. ()*

Edwin L. Jones, Sr. (*) (Western North Carolina—SE) spoke against the proposed amendment of Lester W. Auman (New York East—NE) as follows:—

"When the Council on World Service and Finance considered this very problem that Dr. Blackburn has raised, in the last Quadrennium, they found some solution, not a complete solution, and it was adopted at San Francisco.

We again placed the same things that Dr. Auman brought to our attention on the Council on World Service and Finance, in our studies for this Report. We did not dodge them. There were members in that Council that brought the same arguments that Dr. Auman has raised, and yet they came to the unanimous opinion that this is the best thing that can be proposed at this time.

They put the Council on notice, however, that they hoped that within another four years we could all get on the decimals. Just as an example of a few things that would happen if the amendment is carried—and I take these at random:

The Central Texas Conference would have its apportionment raised 125 per cent.

The South Carolina Conference in the Central Jurisdiction would have its apportionment raised 1750 per cent.

The California-Nevada Conference that we know is a liberal Conference, would have its apportionment raised 60 per cent.

Now, on the other hand, two good Conferences—and I did not have time to pick them all out—that we know are liberal, that we know support World Service, North Indiana would be decreased 12 per cent; the New York East Conference, Dr. Auman's Conference, would be decreased 15 per cent.

I do not believe that Dr. Auman meant to stand at the microphone and plead that his World Service Apportionment be decreased. I firmly believe that what he meant to say was what he concluded with, and that he did not expect this amendment to be passed, but that he hoped within another Quadrennium we could be on the decimal.

I hope the amendment will be defeated. Thank you."

Amendment Lester W. Auman—Not Adopted

The proposed amendment of Lester W. Auman (New York East—NE) on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.

Report No. 2—Adopted

Report No. 2 of the Council on World Service and Finance, Subject "Apportionments To Annual Conferences," DCA No. 5, page 200, column 3, and page 201, columns 1, 2 and 3, on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was adopted. For Report see Appendix, page 1990.

Results Fifth Ballot Judicial Council—J. Russell Throckmorton—Elected

The results of the Fifth Ballot for members of The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church, were announced by Luther W. Wells (*) (Virginia—SE), Secretary of Ballots and Tellers, as follows (DB-78):—

Ministerial members:—Total number of votes cast 725; void 2; total number of good votes 723; necessary to a choice 362.

J. Russell Throckmorton (Central Kansas—SC)	434
Harold H. Hughes (Virginia—SE)	175
Albert S. Trulock (South Georgia—SE)	25
Ben H. Christner (Colorado—W)	18
Harry A. Hanson (North India—OS)	18
H. Hughes Wagner (New England—NE)	18
Cleo C. Sessions (Central Texas—SC)	11
John Owen Smith (South Carolina—SE)	7
Ralph Taylor Alton (Wisconsin—NC)	6
Walter G. Williams (Colorado—W)	4
Ray Wilson (Detroit—NC)	2

Bishop Hazen G. Werner, the Presiding Officer, announced that J. Russell Throckmorton of the Central Kansas Annual Conference, South Central Jurisdiction, having received the required number of votes, had been elected a Ministerial Member of The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church, term of office to expire 1960, thus completing the number of Ministerial Members on The Judicial Council to be elected at this session of The General Conference of The Methodist Church.

Lay members:—Total number of votes cast 725; void 2; total number of good votes 723; necessary to a choice 362.

Ivan Lee Holt, Jr. (*) (Saint Louis—SC)	317
Paul R. Ervin (*) (Western North Carolina—SE)	221
Leon E. Hickman (*) (Pittsburgh—NE)	82
F. Murray Benson (*) (Baltimore—SE)	32
Robert D. Blue (*) (North Iowa—NC)	17
William G. Brown (*) (Holston—SE)	17
Samuel W. Witwer, Jr. (*) (Rock River—NC)	17
Lester C. Cecil (*) (Ohio—NC)	8
Charles G. Howard (*) (Oregon—W)	6

Bishop Hazen G. Werner, the Presiding Officer, announced that no Layman having received the required number of votes for election, the result of the Lay Ballot, was "No election."

Sixth Ballot for Lay Member of Judicial Council

The Sixth Ballot for a Lay member of The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church was spread.

Question—Adlai C. Holler—Ruling—Bishop Hazen G. Werner

Adlai C. Holler (South Carolina—SE) asked if a motion would be in order at this time to take the first ballot for Clerical Reserves while the ballot for the last Lay Member of The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church was being taken.

Bishop Hazen G. Werner, the Presiding Officer, ruled, as follows:—

"I think perhaps since the Ballot is already in process, we had better not do that at this time. Wait until we have elected fully, and then turn for the Reserve Members to another balloting."

Directions—Luther W. Wells ()*

Bishop Hazen G. Werner, the Presiding Officer, declared the ballot to be closed, and the votes for the remaining Lay Member of The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church were collected by the Tellers, under the direction of Luther W. Wells (*) (Virginia—SE), Secretary of Ballots and Tellers.

By common consent, Luther W. Wells (*) (Virginia—SE), Secretary of Ballots and Tellers, was authorized to seal the votes collected in the auditorium, until he could collect the votes from the members of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences and the Standing Legislative Committee on State of the Church, who had been excused from this afternoon's session of The General Conference of The Methodist Church in order to complete their Committee work.

The Tellers, under the direction of Luther W. Wells (*) (Virginia—SE), Secretary of Ballots and Tellers, retired to count the results of this ballot.

Duet—James R. Houghton ()—Bernard Vessey ()

James R. Houghton () (New England—NE) and Bernard Vessey () (Colorado) favored The General Conference with a duet, entitled, "Softly and Tenderly," which was greatly appreciated by all present.

Thanks—Bishop Hazen G. Werner

Bishop Hazen G. Werner, the Presiding Officer, thanked both of them, in behalf of The General Conference.

No. 3—Council on World Service and Finance—"The Episcopal Fund"—Frank W. Bevan—Amended—Adopted

Frank W. Bevan (Troy—NE) presented Report No. 3 of the Council on World Service and Finance, Subject, "The Episcopal Fund," DCA No. 5, page 201, columns 3; page 202, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 203, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 204, columns 1, 2 and 3; and page 205, columns 1 and 2, explaining "Section I. Bishops Elected By Jurisdictional Conferences," as follows:—

Mr. Chairman and Members of The Conference, Report No. 3 of the Council on World Service and Finance series of Reports, page 201: We present the Budget for the Episcopal Fund. In the first section there is a change from last year, in 1, which we are offering this year for the quadrennium. Instead of $10,000, the salary of the effective Bishops is to be $12,500.

Numeral 2, the allowance for a retired Bishop or Missionary Bishop to be $4,500, which is a change from $4,000.

The allowance for the widow of a deceased Bishop or Missionary Bishop is changed from $2,400 to $2,750.

There is no change in 4.

There is a change in 5, allowance for an Episcopal Residence, from $2,400 to $3,000.

No. 6, there is a change in the allowance for secretarial and office expense from $4,000 to $5,000.

At the end of the sixth line in 9, where we have meetings of The Council of Bishops, this is a new insertion "and of the annual meeting of his College of Bishops." That is new.

No change in 10; no change in 11; no change in 12.

Frank W. Bevan (Troy—NE) moved the adoption of "Section I. Bishops Elected By Jurisdictional Conferences," DCA No. 5, page 202, columns 1 and 2. The motion was duly seconded.

Question—Chester A. Smith ()—Answer—Thomas B. Lugg*

Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) asked the following question:—

Mr. Chairman and Members of The General Conference: I desire to ask the Chairman with reference to No. 10, the middle of the second column on page 202. The Council of Bishops shall determine and schedule the travel of its members on official visits to Overseas Conferences. The expense of such travel is to be paid from the Episcopal Fund.

I desire to ask the Chairman whether or not the Bishops from abroad when they come to the United States on an official visit are authorized and do travel first-class?

Thomas B. Lugg (Illinois—NC), General Secretary and Treasurer of the Council on World Service and Finance, at the request of Frank W. Bevan (Troy—NE) answered the question, as follows:—

Mr. Chairman, having come, we don't ask them how they came. We advise them to use air coach if they fly, or the tourist class if they come by boat or ship. This is the basis on which, as I understand it, the Board of Missions operates in connection with their missionary travel.

Amendment—Chester A. Smith ()—Accepted*

Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) moved to amend paragraph 10, DCA No. 5, page 202, column 2, by adding,

"That Bishops from abroad when traveling to the United States to attend the meetings of The Council of Bishops, or other official meetings, be authorized to travel first-class."

so that paragraph 10, as amended, will read as follows:—

"10. The Council of Bishops shall determine and schedule the travel of its members on official visit to Overseas Conferences. The expense of such travel is to be paid from the Episcopal Fund. That Bishops from abroad when traveling to the United States to attend meetings of The Council of Bishops, or other official meetings, be authorized to travel first-class."

The motion to thus amend, being duly seconded, Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) spoke to the motion, as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman and Members of The Conference, I was greatly disturbed at our last General Conference in 1952 to learn that the Delegates to The General Conference coming from abroad were compelled to travel tourist class, not first-class, as the Delegates of the United States travel first-class in attending meetings of The General Conference. It is for this reason, now in order to get this principle established, at least so far as the Bishops are concerned, that I now make this motion that in their visits to the United States from abroad they be authorized to travel first-class."

Speaks to Amendment—Merrill B. McFall

Merrill B. McFall (Indiana—NC) spoke to the proposed amendment of Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman and Members of the Conference: There is not one of us who would want the Bishops from abroad to travel second-class or third-class or anything else. I am sure we are not opposing this motion to amend or to add, whatever it is. But, as I understand it, this is a matter for the Board of Missions, and I would like to ask Dr. Lugg if that is not true? It is a matter of policy of the Board of Missions, and it is not something which we legislate here at this point. We can recommend to the Board of Missions but it seems to me it would have to be done that way.

I ask Dr. Lugg merely for information."

Question—Bishop Hazen G. Werner—Answer—Chester A. Smith ()*

Bishop Hazen G. Werner, the Presiding Officer, asked the following question:—

"May we ask Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE), did you say Delegates to The General Conference, or Bishops traveling from abroad?"

Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) replied as follows:—

"I said Bishops traveling from abroad, because this particular Section 10 refers to Bishops.

If you would consider me in order, I would like also to add to the motion."

Ruling—Bishop Hazen G. Werner

Bishop Hazen G. Werner, the Presiding Officer, ruled, as follows:—

"It doesn't pertain at this point. If you meant Bishops, then I think Dr. Lugg will reply to the question of Merrill B. McFall."

Answer—Thomas B. Lugg

Thomas B. Lugg (Illinois—NC), General Secretary and Treasurer of the Council on World Service and Finance, answered the question of Merrill B. McFall (Indiana—NC), as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman, we co-operate with the Board of Missions on travel expenses, but so far as this particular item is concerned, it is a matter of the Episcopal Fund paying the travel and so the Board of Missions is not directly involved.

I don't know whether the members of the Board of Missions would care to say anything on this or not.

It is our understanding, and I haven't traveled overseas so I only speak from hearsay, that tourist class on these luxury liners is a very adequate accommodation."

Questions—Glenn M. Frye—Answers—Thomas B. Lugg

Glenn M. Frye (Michigan—NC) asked the following questions which were answered by Thomas B. Lugg (Illinois—NC), General Secretary and Treasurer of the Council on World Service:—

"I would like to ask a question of Dr. Lugg.

When foreign Bishops are instructed to come tourist, is that same condition implied upon Bishops of the United States when they travel under orders to the foreign lands?

Thomas B. Lugg: You are touching an item—I misunderstood your question; but let me say this, some of the Bishops, they tell me that on the Atlantic the tourist or cabin class is very, very satisfactory. On the Pacific you can't travel tourist class with any satisfaction at all.

I wonder if you would allow us, therefore, to use some discretion and judgment and see that our Bishops are well cared for, and I am sure that they would want to co-operate in the same way.

Glenn L. Frye: Mr. Chairman, my question was: If there is a restriction, is there a restriction placed upon Bishops of the United States when they travel that is asked of Bishops of Foreign Conferences when they travel? That was my only question.

Thomas B. Lugg: They tell me they travel as suggested here, all the same.

Glenn L. Frye: But what is 'the same'?

Thomas B. Lugg: On the Atlantic they find tourist or cabin class very satisfactory. Going on the Pacific it is not possible, if you go by ship. Most of our Bishops are flying these days.

Bishop Werner: Glenn Frye does that give you a satisfying answer?

Glenn L. Frye: No, sir.

Bishop Werner: We better put in the session of The Council of Bishops.

Dr. Lugg, do you want to say anything further about that matter, or is that just—may the Chair just say, the understanding is that there is no restriction in respect to this, and there is every attempt made that men either coming from abroad to America or from America going abroad, to travel comfortably, but particularly so that it is possible to facilitate whatever is the mission on hand."

A. Wesley Pugh Speaks to Pending Question

A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC) spoke to the pending question, as follows:—

Mr. Chairman and Members of The Conference: Now, I am a little ignorant on this travel business, and when you talk about first-class travel on the seas, I always had an idea that that was for kings and princesses and movie actors and actresses and people like that who travel in luxury. I may be wrong, but when you talk about first class that is what I think of. I ask this question sincerely and earnestly because the same question confronts us in the Committee on Rules with reference to Delegates. Is there somebody who has authoritative information who can discriminate between first class, second class, tourist class and cabin class, and all of these things that confuse us somewhat? Mr. Smith has asked for first-class travel. That sounds like luxury to me. That isn't what he desires, I think.

Eugene L. Smith Speaks to Pending Question

Eugene L. Smith (Newark—NE), General Secretary of the Division of World Missions of the General Board of Missions of The Methodist Church, spoke to the pending question, as follows:—

I am not an authority on travel, but I personally would be most uncomfortable to be under instruction to travel the Atlantic first class. I don't like to carry a tuxedo. I understand you don't go first class on the Queens or on the United States without a tuxedo and formal dress. It would be altogether inappropriate for this General Conference to lay down that rigid kind of ruling when first class on the Atlantic means one thing, first class on the Pacific means something else, first class on the Indian Ocean means something else and first class on the air lines means something quite different.

I think that this is quite an unfortunate amendment, Mr. Chairman.

Gabriel Sundaram Speaks to Pending Question

Gabriel Sundaram (Hyerabad—OS) spoke to the pending question, as follows:—

Mr. Chairman, I travelled in the tourist class from India to this country. I was given one of the lowest decks. There is a sun deck, and there is a main deck, an H deck, an A deck, a B deck, a C deck and D deck. I was at the very bottom. I was one among four people. We had only one basin for all four passengers in the berth. The sea was somewhat rough. I was most uncomfortable. While we do not want to spend the money of The General Conference, and while we do not want to go in any luxury, we feel that the trip was most uncomfortable and we were very unhappy.

It is not correct to say that all tourist classes in the luxury ships are good. In fact, there are some tourist berths in the luxury ships which are very, very poor and, therefore, the general statement that tourist class in luxury ships is good is not a correct statement because there you have first class, which I think is too good, then there is second class and then there are many types of tourist classes and what we have here provided have been the very worst types of accommodations.

Edwin L. Jones, Sr. () Speaks to Pending Question*

Edwin L. Jones, Sr. (*) (Western North Carolina—SE) spoke to the pending question, as follows:—

"I am not an authority on travel. I am not a travel agent, but I do travel a great deal. I have been to Europe and back three times in the last three months. Each time I went tourist in the air. It saved my company $100 each way, so that in three round trips, I saved my company $600. It took me thirteen hours going over and it took me seventeen hours coming back. I flew in the same plane that ten other passengers flew in who paid first class passage.

The first-class passengers were given at the $100 extra fare free liquor. They had two more courses in the meal. They traveled in the same plane. They had the same pilots. So far as I could tell it was the same thing except for the things that were given them that I didn't want.

There were the heads of four of the largest corporations in this country travelling each time, not the same heads, but travelling each time tourist. I love Bishops, the ones I have come in contact with. I do not believe that they want to waste The Conference's money. I believe that this amendment should be defeated."

Statement—Bishop Hazen G. Werner

Bishop Hazen G. Werner, the Presiding Officer, made the following statement:—

"Just a moment. You have before you this amendment now. The question is called for. Are you ready to vote?"

Point of Order—J. Dewey Muir—Ruling—Bishop Hazen G. Werner—Well Taken

J. Dewey Muir (Illinois—NC) raised a Point of Order, as follows:—

My Point of Order, Mr. Chairman, is this: We are dealing with a section which has to do with Bishops and the expense of Bishops elected by the Jurisdictional Conferences. If this amendment is to be dealt with at all, it seems to me, it should come under that section of the Report having to do with travel expense for Bishops elected by Central Conferences.

Ruling—Bishop Hazen G. Werner

Bishop Hazen G. Werner, the Presiding Officer, ruled, as follows:—

"I think we have here a Point of Order that is appropriate. We have been discussing a matter that isn't germane to this particular section on Jurisdictional Bishops."

Proposes to Change Amendment—Chester A. Smith (*)— Rulings—Bishop Hazen G. Werner

Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) asked for the privilege of changing his proposed amendment to read

"That the standard of travel for all Bishops be the same."

Bishop Hazen G. Werner, the Presiding Officer, ruled, as follows:—

"I believe, Chester Smith, that I would have to rule that your motion is not in order, and your previous amendment is before us, and the amendment itself, as stated is not germane to this particular section. I am afraid that we have to vote on this section."

Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) asked the following question:—

"Mr. Chairman, have you ruled that The General Conference has not the privilege of granting me the privilege of changing my amendment as I have read it?"

Bishop Hazen G. Werner, the Presiding Officer, ruled as follows:—

"I would have to rule that your motion is still not germane to this particular section. It deals with Jurisdictional Bishops only."

Proposed Amendment—Chester A. Smith ()—Accepted—
Thomas B. Lugg*

Thomas B. Lugg (Illinois—NC), General Secretary of the Council on World Service and Finance, stated that the Council on World Service and Finance would accept the proposed amendment of Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) for both sections where it appears.

Amendment—Harold C. Case—Adopted—Reconsidered

Harold C. Case (New England—NE) moved to amend Section 1, DCA No. 5, page 202, column 1, which reads as follows:—

"1. The salary of an effective Bishop shall be $12,500.00 per year." by substituting the figure $15,000.00 for $12,500.00, so that Section 1, as amended will read:—

"1. The salary of an effective Bishop shall be $15,000.00 per year."

The motion, being duly seconded, Harold C. Case (New England—NE) spoke to it as follows:—

"In 1948-52, for that Quadrennium, the salary of the Bishops was $9,000. For the Quadrennium 1952-56 it has been fixed at $10,000. This was an increase of 11 per cent in four years. But during the past Quadrennium the increase in the salaries of the Pastors of the Church has been 19.1 per cent. The rate of increase in each of the past two years has been 6 per cent. Project this into the quadrennium and the eight-year increase for the pastors of Methodism would be 43.3 per cent.

To accomplish this for Bishops would require a minimum of $14,300. But for the first time in the history of the Episcopacy there is to be in this Quadrennium a deduction of 3 per cent from the gross salaries of the Bishops in connection with retirement salaries. With other deductions this will require a minimum salary of $15,000, to grant to each Bishop approximately $2,500 additional income.

Most of the other salaries for officers in the Church are settled annually. There has been only one adjustment of salaries for Bishops in four years. If the advance to $15,000 per year is voted it will mean an increase of approximately three-fourths of one cent per member per year on the apportionment on World Service, but if this is done it will improve our own estimate of the value of our Bishops to the Church. It will increase their stature and they must deal with the affairs. It will stimulate local churches to give serious consideration to the improvement of pastor salaries, and will provide our Bishops with approximately $2,500 per year additional take-home pay.

Even this adjustment, my friends, will provide approximately 77 per cent of the purchasing power in 1956-60 that the Bishops of the Church had in the quadrennium 1940-44. I very sincerely hope that this amendment in the interest of justice and equity will prevail."

The motion of Harold C. Case (New England—NE) on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was adopted.

Motion to Postpone—John R. Van Sickle ()*

John R. Van Sickle (*) (Rock River—NC) moved that action on this matter be postponed until the members of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences and the Standing Legislative Committee on State of the Church, absent by authority of The General Conference in Committee meetings, could be present to consider and act on the same.

Statement—A. Wesley Pugh—Bishop Hazen G. Werner

A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC), Chairman of the Committee of Chairmen, made the following statement:—

"I was asking one of the Committee Chairmen back here whether we were getting to a point of controversy where, in justice to the Committee Members whom we have excused this afternoon, who are doing work in Committees, we ought to defer this until they are here. We agreed to do that at the beginning. It seems to me this is a divided situation where we ought to wait until these Committee Members come back."

Bishop Hazen G. Werner, the Presiding Officer, made the following statement:—

"If the Conference so desires we will then delay the discussion on this particular motion. We were informed that controversial matters were to be carried over until such a time that members of these Committees could be here in a body."

Question—A. Wesley Pugh—Ruling—Bishop Hazen G. Werner

A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC) raised the following question:—

"Mr. Chairman, does The General Conference give consent, then, that the announcement of this vote as you have made it is to be expunged and we do not have to make a motion to reconsider?"

Ruling—Bishop Hazen G. Werner

Bishop Hazen G. Werner, the Presiding Officer, ruled, as follows:—

"I am afraid we will need to reconsider, because the vote was taken before you spoke."

Point of Order—Harold C. Case

Harold C. Case (New England—NE) made the following Point of Order:—

"Mr. Chairman, Point of Order. The Chairman has announced that the vote has been taken and has asked the House if there is any question. It has been settled."

Motion to Reconsider—Lynn J. Radcliffe—Adopted

Lynn J. Radcliffe (Ohio—NC), who voted for the proposed amendment of Harold C. Case (New England—NE) moved to reconsider the action of The General Conference in adopting the proposed amendment of Harold C. Case (New England—NE) in order that The General Conference might defer action on the matter, until the members of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences and the Standing Legislative Committee on the State of the Church, should be present.

The motion of Lynn J. Radcliffe (Ohio—NC) to reconsider the action of The General Conference in the adoption of the proposed amendment of Harold C. Case (New England—NE), on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was adopted.

Motion to Defer Action—Lynn J. Radcliffe—Adopted

Motion of Lynn J. Radcliffe (Ohio—NC), duly seconded, prevailed that further action on Report No. 3 be deferred, until the absent members of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences and the Standing Legislative Committee on State of the Church, are present.

No. 4—Council on World Service and Finance—"Budget—General Administration Fund"—R. F. Curl—Amended—Adopted

R. F. Curl (Southwest Texas—SC) presented Report No. 4 of the Council on World Service and Finance, DCA No. 5, page 205, columns 2 and 3, Subject, "Budget—General Administration Fund," and requested common consent, which was unanimously given by The General Conference, for the insertion of the following three Items:—

Item 12. Family Life Conference	$ 8,750.00
Item 13. Commission to Study Jurisdictional System	$50,000.00
Item 14. Commission on Church Union	$ 3,500.00

In presenting Report No. 4 of the Council on World Service and Finance, R. F. Curl (Southwest Texas—SC) made the following comments:—

"Mr. Chairman and Members of the Conference: The General Administration Fund of The Methodist Church is not the glamor girl of the Church; in fact, it is the maid-of-all-work. I do not expect that anyone is going to be unduly excited or particularly enthusiastic about the items in the General Administration Fund. However, they are all very important items.

You will notice that this Report is arranged with first the Budget proposed, second an explanation of the items in the Budget, and third, certain recommendations from the Council.

I would like to ask you to add three items in the Report that is before you. They have come through action of The General Conference in setting up or authorizing certain other projects under this fund.

As Item 12, Family Life Conference, $8,750.

As Item 13, the Commission to Study the Jurisdictional System, $50,000.

As Item 14, the Commission on Church Union, which is not new, but whose request was delayed in adoption until today, $3,500.

That makes, I believe, a total of $462,750. So far as the Council on World Service and Finance knows, only two other items are pending, which should be included in this Budget if The General Conference takes certain actions that it may take.

One of them is the item of Religion in American Life. That item was in the Budget this Quadrennium for $20,000. The Council is prepared to recommend $20,000 for the next Quadrennium if The General Conference approves Religion in American Life as an object which can receive from the Administration Fund.

The other is the matter of $4,250, to be added to the Methodist Historical Society for St. George's Church in Philadelphia and John Street Church in New York. A Report will be brought which will recommend that these two Historical Shrines be supported. The Council will be prepared to recommend that amount if The Conference authorizes these Shrines as being objects to be supported out of the General Administration Fund.

I do not think that I need to say anything about this, except to tell you that these other items are included, and the total for the General Administration Fund will be approximately 19 per cent more in the Quadrennium to come than it has been in the past Quadrennium.

The recommendations are simply the standard recommendations from Quadrennium to Quadrennium by which the Council on World Service and Finance can administer the General Administration Fund."

The motion of R. F. Curl (Southwest Texas—SC) for the adoption of Report No. 4 of the Council on World Service and Finance, duly seconded, prevailed. For Report see Appendix, page 2006.

No. 5—Council on World Service and Finance—"Inter-Denominational Co-operation Fund"—R. F. Curl—Adopted

R. F. Curl (Southwest Texas—SC) presented Report No. 5 of the Council on World Service and Finance, DCA No. 5, page 205, column 3; page 206, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 207, column 1, Subject, "Inter-Denominational Co-operation Fund," and moved its adoption. The motion was duly seconded.

Amendment—Norman W. Clemens—Not Adopted

Norman W. Clemens (Wyoming—NE) moved to amend Report No. 5 of the Council on World Service and Finance, DCA No. 5, page 206, column 2, by requesting the Council on World Service and Finance to designate from the amount allocated to the National Council of Churches for General purposes, a suitable amount for defraying of travel expenses of Methodist members of the Committee of the National Council.

The motion to thus amend, being duly seconded, Norman W. Clemens (Wyoming—NE) spoke to the same, as follows:—

"The reason for proposing this amendment is that, although the traveling expenses of Methodist members of the General Board are provided for in this Budget, the expense of Methodist members of Committees or Departments of the National Council is not provided for. This means that either Methodist members must pay their own expenses in attending these highly important meetings, or that they cannot afford to attend at all. The result is that Methodist participation at the point of planning and implementing the Program of the National Council is greatly reduced.

In view of the fact that during the Quadrennium we are investing nearly one million dollars in the Program of the National Council, it seems urgent that we provide for adequate Methodist representation on the working Committees of the Council.

I should like to say that this matter was discussed in the meetings of the Committee on Inter-Denominational Relations and Activities, and that what I am saying represents the sentiment of that Committee. It could possibly be taken care of if the Chairman is willing to accept it. It does not call for an additional expense, but for the working in of this item into the General Purposes Fund."

R. F. Curl (Southwest Texas—SC) spoke against the proposed amendment of Norman W. Clemens (Wyoming—NE) as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman, I do not think we could accept it for two reasons: one is that no request has been made from the National Council or from any agency of our Church participating in the activities of the National Council, for such expenses.

The second is that we have no idea what the total amount might be. There must be at least twelve to fifteen Divisions and Departments in the National Council. Methodist representation is to be had on most of those. We think that in most cases the expenses of the Methodist representatives are met by the Agencies which they represent, but we would have no idea as to how much to add to this sum in order to cover all the expenses of every Methodist who might be a member of any Committee related to the National Council. It might become a rather staggering sum of money."

Norman W. Clemens (Wyoming—NE) made the following additional statement of explanation:—

"It is known by the Committee on Inter-Denominational Expenses that the members of the Committees of our Methodist Boards or Agencies who are on the Committee of the National Council, are carried through by their own Budgets. That means that our representation in the active working Program of the Council is by Board members largely. It was the feeling of our group that there should be a much broader representation from the entire Methodist Church.

That is the reason for this proposal."

For Amendment—Miss Georgia Harkness ()*

Miss Georgia Harkness (*) (Troy—NE) spoke in favor of the proposed amendment of Norman W. Clemens (Troy—NE) as follows:—

"I wish very strongly to support this amendment. I do not think it is possible to designate that the total expenses of Methodist members of these various Committees should be allocated. I note, however, under the reference to travel for members of the General Board that within the limits of the funds appropriated, the travel is paid for the Methodist members.

As I understand it, the purpose of this amendment is to ask the Council on World Service and Finance to designate a suitable amount, not adding it to the total figure but under the item 'General Purposes,' for the National Council, specifying that some part, at their discretion, of this $165,139 be set aside for the payment of the travel expenses of Methodist members of these Committees.

It is in my judgment extremely necessary that this be done if there is a general representation of Methodism. The Bishops and the Board Secretaries, more power to them, have Budgets behind them. They get to these meetings. The run of the mill Ministers and the run of the mill Laymen who ought to be there representing The Methodist Church, must either pay their own expenses or stay home. It seems, therefore, not unreasonable to ask that some of this General Purpose money be specified for Methodist members of these Committees, rather than turning this over entirely to the National Council Budget as is suggested under Point 2, column 2, definition of 'General Purposes.'

I hope, therefore, that you will support the amendment."

Questions—Chester A. Smith ()—Answers—R. F. Curl*

Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) asked a series of questions concerning the pending matter, which were answered by R. F. Curl (Southwest Texas—SC), as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman and Members of The General Conference: I desire to ask the Chairman these questions:

First of all, on page 206, the center of the page, the National Council, is the item of $246,639. Does that represent the amount for one year or for the Quadrennium?

Bishop Werner: Can you answer that question, Dr. Curl? It is on the Quadrennium.

R. F. Curl: That is an annual amount—one year.

Chester A. Smith: The same applies to the World Council?

R. F. Curl: The same applies to the World Council, that is true.

Chester A. Smith: So that the total amount which we will be contributing to the two councils—the World Council and the National Council—is $1,506,120.

Now, my second question is, Mr. Chairman and Members of The Conference, what is the total Budget of the National Council per year—its total Budget?

R. F. Curl: Mr. Chairman, the total Budget of the National Council is about nine or ten million dollars per year.

Chester A. Smith: What is our relation to the National Council in so far as our contributions? I mean are we the largest contributor to the National Council?

Bishop Werner: Dr. Curl, will you answer, please?

R. F. Curl: I believe that in the total amount given, The Methodist Church is the largest of the Denominational groups. We are not anywhere near the top on a proportionate basis.

Chester A. Smith: What is the Annual Budget, sir, of the World Council?

R. F. Curl: I did not get the question.

Bishop Werner: Will you ask your question again, Dr. Smith?

Chester A. Smith: What is the yearly Budget of the World Council?

R. F. Curl: The yearly budget of the World Council is, I believe, four to five million dollars.

Chester A. Smith: Mr. Chairman—

Bishop Werner: Just a moment, please. Some one seems to suggest a different figure. Just a moment, we would like to have this as nearly accurate as possible.

All right, Dr. Curl?

R. F. Curl: The amount which I suggested is a round figure, which included the services which the World Council renders in its Refugee Program and in its ministries to suffering humanity.

The Budget of the World Council, so far as its own administration and program is concerned, is between four and five hundred thousand dollars a year. The other amounts are in services rendered to the needy.

Chester A. Smith: It seems to me, Mr. Chairman, and Members of the Conference, that these two Councils—the National Council and the World Council—are spending a vast amount of money. I think before we make our contribution to the extent of $1,506,120, we ought to find out whether or not they could not reduce their Budgets, because if we keep contributing to them every dollar they ask for, they will continue to increase their Budgets until they will reach the point when they will be spending a far greater amount of money than their accomplishments justify."

Ruling—Bishop Hazen G. Werner

Bishop Hazen G. Werner, the Presiding Officer, made the following ruling:—

"May the Chair remind you that we are discussing the matter of amendment, caring for the travel of Committee Members, not National Council gatherings. We must talk to this amendment."

Previous Question—James S. Chubb—Ordered

Motion of James S. Chubb (Nebraska—SC), duly seconded, prevailed by more than the required two-thirds majority vote of The General Conference ordering the Previous Question on all matters before The General Conference.

Closes Debate—R. F. Curl—Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam

In closing the debate on the proposed amendment of Norman W. Clemens (Troy—NE), R. F. Curl (Southwest Texas—SC) moved that The General Conference extend the privilege of the floor to Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam for the closing statement, since no man in Methodism has had closer and more fundamental relationship both to the National Council of Churches and to the World Council than he. The motion to extend the privilege of the floor to Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam for the purpose indicated, duly seconded, prevailed.

Statement—Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam

Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, of the Washington Area,

Northeastern Jurisdiction and Secretary of The Council of Bishops of The Methodist Church, was recognized, and made the following statement:—

“Mr. Chairman and Members of The Conference: It is a heavy, a very heavy responsibility that you have placed upon an individual, without warning. I served as Chairman of the Finance Committee of the World Council of Churches during its first six years. I was President when the original Budget was adopted. We kept that Budget to such a minimum that I wondered whether or no we could operate.

The actual Budget from the Churches of the entire world—please remember there are 162 Churches from 48 nations in the World Council—the World Council is not a Church, it is the Churches themselves in co-operation at the world level. That Budget was $300,000. That paid for the entire staff, the Geneva Headquarters, the services of the World Council throughout the world. So careful an organization as the Rockefeller Foundation, looking into the finances of this organization, voted one million dollars to the World Council of Churches so that we might establish the Ecumenical Institute at Bossey. They gave $500,000 for that and $500,000 for Relief.

I personally had the privilege of meeting the Rockefeller Foundation people. I assure you they go over every statement with the utmost care. They finally gave us $250,000 in addition, so that we might own the property at Bossey.

Now, for six years the World Council of Churches operated on this Budget of $300,000 from the Churches, $60,000 coming from the Rockefeller people in addition, or $360,000 per year. Six years of balanced Budget every year. Those of you who were at Evanston and saw the representatives of the Churches of the entire world there, will understand something of the significance of this, and that I cannot present in just a moment or two all those things.

This Budget of $360,000 was increased after six years to a Budget of $421,000. I do not think that is a substantial increase. Methodism's share in that is indicated here. We are the largest contributor, it is quite true, and we are the largest of the individual Churches in the World Council of Churches. I must not stress this too much, except to say this: the additional Budget of the World Council of Churches, the money that the Churches contribute for the Relief Work throughout the entire world, the Service to Refugees, Inter-Church Aid, and it is not spent until it is contributed. Therefore, you are dealing with an amount that fluctuates in terms of the giving of the Churches. This is the Budget, this $421,000. Now, you will notice there are certain items in here, obviously you have to have your representatives at the Central and Executive Committees, and there is a travel item for it.

Will you please note that there is an item here that is not to be expended until certain conditions are met. There is an item which represents our share over a period of four years, for the building that will be erected in Geneva as the headquarters of the World Council of Churches. $300,000 will come from the Churches, $450,000 from private gifts, for a total of $750,000. Our share is listed there as $18,000 a year.

One additional item: the next Assembly of the World Council of Churches will be held in Ceylon. Representatives of the world will be there. We are putting aside an item of $5,000 a year to contribute toward the expenses. Most of the people will have to pay their way.

$20,000 is a relatively small amount when you are sending 40 representatives of The Methodist Church to the Assembly of the World Churches. I can only say, and it sounds like I am debating, and when I sat upon the floor personally, I guarded it in so far as I could—the principle that Executives do not address The General Conference except to give information.

I am not debating. I am responding to your request simply to give the facts. This is a minimum Budget. It is the proper share of The Methodist Church in that Budget. I am of the opinion that the Conference will wish to stand back of the Council on World Service and Finance.

As regards the National Council, just this word; if I may take the further time. The actual Budget of the National Council of Churches is $13,314,000. Some will say, 'A terrific budget.' But the biggest item in that is a Budget of $5,775,000 which is the work of Church World Service. That is what we, as Americans, are doing in Relief, around the world, around the entire world—and not one cent of that is spent until the Churches actually give it, but it is included here.

Included here is all of the Budget that was done by the former group that dealt with education co-operatively in the United States of America. Here is a big publishing affair, a great deal of our work, for instance, in preparing the curriculum material for our Churches is done co-operatively. This is all included in the Budget.

At the present time the National Council of Churches is operating upon a balanced Budget. We are contributing our proportional share. May I just say one word more and I am through?

In the matter of expenses, personally I would like to see every person appointed to a Committee present at every Committee meeting and every expense paid. I wish it were possible. I wonder if we realize the facts. There are 4,260 people now on the Committees and Boards of the National Council of Churches. The Methodist Church, in all probability, has a third of that number, but let us say one thousand.

You are dealing with a very heavy matter here. We have 119 representatives in the Assembly of the National Council of Churches that meets once in three years. We have not been paying the expenses of our people to the Assembly. The best we could do so far, has been to pay the expenses of the 36 members of the General Board.

Now, if this body wishes to put in an item, a fixed item, of a certain amount and say that is to be used insofar as it will go, for the expenses of our representatives on Committees, that is for you to decide, but to take it out of the actual operation of the National Council is to cripple it at the very moment the National Council needs our support.

Will you forgive me? I know I have been arguing. I don't mean to do that. You asked for the facts. It is a little embarrassing to come—I am quite certain these Budgets are justified, and any businessman who would sit down would be the first to note it. Mr. Hook of the Armco Steel Corporation has been Chairman of the Finance Committee of the National Council of Churches, Mr. Charles E. Wilson former head of General Electric has been its Treasurer. That is the kind of persons who manage these affairs.

Excuse me. It is a little embarrassing to be called up like this. I am not sure the principle is sound. I have tried to do the best I could under the circumstances."

Time Extended—Lud H. Estes—Adopted

Motion of Lud H. Estes (Memphis—SE), Secretary of The General Conference, duly seconded, prevailed, that the time of this session be extended to complete consideration of and action on Report No. 5 of the Council on World Service and Finance.

Request for Reading Amendment—Woodie D. Lester—Bishop Hazen G. Werner—Ernest W. Peterson (*)

Woodie D. Lester (Central West—C) asked that the amendment of Norman W. Clemens (Wyoming—NE) be read for the information of The General Conference.

At the request of Bishop Hazen G. Werner, the Presiding Officer, Ernest W. Peterson (*) (Oregon—W), Secretary of Documents, read the proposed amendment of Norman W. Clemens (Wyoming—NE), as follows:—

“‘I move to amend Report No. 5, page 206, column 2, under the “National Council” by requesting the Council on World Service and Finance to designate from the amount allocated to the National Council of Churches for General Purposes a suitable amount for the defraying of travel expenses of Methodist members of Committees of the National Council.’”

Amendment—Norman W. Clemens—Not Adopted

The proposed amendment of Norman W. Clemens (Wyoming—NE), on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.

No. 5—Council on World Service and Finance—Adopted

Report No. 5 of the Council on World Service and Finance, DCA No. 5, page 205, column 3; page 206, columns 1, 2, and 3; page 207, column 1, Subject, “The Inter-Denominational Co-operation Fund,” on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was adopted. For Report see Appendix, page 2008.

versity, and their Director, Leonard Paulson (*) for their presence and their stirring music.

Committee on Conferences Excused—C. Cooper Bell—A. Wesley Pugh

C. Cooper Bell (Virginia—SE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, requested that the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences be excused from the session of this evening, after the consideration of and action on the Reports of the Council on World Service and Finance had been completed, and gave the following reasons for the request:—

“Mr. Chairman and Members of The Conference: The request is that after the Order of the evening, which as I understand it is completion of the Reports on World Service, the Committee on Conferences be granted the privilege of retiring. May I say in defense of that request that I think you appreciate we have tried to serve you in the interests of The Methodist Church. This has led us, however, to quite a lot of Memorials that we do not want to give secondary consideration to. Therefore, be patient with us. We are working just as hard as we can, under the circumstances. We regret that we have to be absent from any session of The Conference. I am sure you appreciate our position.”

A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee of Chairmen, spoke to the request of C. Cooper Bell (Virginia—SE) as follows:—

“Mr. Chairman, does The General Conference understand that if we come to another point which is controversial and in which we think this Committee would like to have some part, that we will defer action until they return? Is that the understanding, that it will be deferred the way we did this afternoon?”

Bishop Booth: Do you wish to act upon this request now? You have this statement of the circumstances.

A. Wesley Pugh: I should like to add to Dr. Bell's motion that we follow the same sort of procedure, because it is not fair to have a large Committee out of The General Conference and vote on matters in which they may have a real interest without their presence here. They are working hard for us, and we have to honor them.”

By common consent of The General Conference, the request that the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences be excused after the completion of the consideration of and action on the remaining Reports of the Council on World Service and Finance, was unanimously granted.

Gavel—Bishop Newell S. Booth

Bishop Newell S. Booth, the Presiding Officer, made the following statement regarding the gavel he was using at this session of The General Conference of The Methodist Church:—

"While they are coming may I inform The Conference that the gavel I am using tonight is an ivory one from the tusk of one of the great monarchs of the forests in the Congo. It was carved by a Christian craftsman of one of our village Methodist churches and presented to me by the Church of Katakombé. So Africa through the ivory of this gavel speaks in The General Conference, through the Presiding Officer, for the first time from an Area outside of the United States since our United Church was born."

Result of Seventh Ballot for Member of Judicial Council—Luther W. Wells ()—Ivan Lee Holt Jr. ()—Elected

The Results of the Seventh Ballot for members of The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church, were announced by Luther W. Wells (*) (Virginia—SE), Secretary of Ballots and Tellers as follows (DB-80):—

Lay Ballot:—Number of votes cast 628; Void 1; total number of good votes 627; necessary to a choice 314.

Ivan Lee Holt, Jr., (*) (Saint Louis)	352
Paul R. Ervin (*) (Western North Carolina—SE)	245
F. Murray Benson (*) (Baltimore—NE)	11
Leon E. Hickman (*) (Pittsburgh—NE)	9
William G. Brown (*) (Holston—SE)	7
Robert D. Blue (*) (North Iowa—NC)	2
Lester C. Cecil (*) (Ohio—NC)	1

Bishop Newell S. Booth, the Presiding Officer, stated that Ivan Lee Holt, Jr. (*) (Saint Louis—SC) having received the required number of votes, had been elected a Lay Member of The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church, term of office to expire 1960, thus completing the Lay membership of The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church to be elected at this session of The General Conference of The Methodist Church.

First Reserve Ballot Ordered—Albert E. Day—Luther W. Wells—Leonard D. Slutz (*)

Motion of Albert E. Day (Baltimore—NE), duly seconded, prevailed that the election of the Reserve Members of The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church, be entered into at this time.

Leonard D. Slutz (*) (Ohio—NC) moved that the first three Ministerial Reserves elected, shall be elected for a term of eight years, and the first three Lay Reserves elected shall be elected for a term of eight years (DB-81). The motion, duly seconded, prevailed.

Voting Instructions—Lud H. Estes—Bishop Newell S. Booth

At the request of Bishop Newell S. Booth, the Presiding Officer, Lud H. Estes (Memphis—SE), Secretary of The General Conference of The Methodist Church, explained the situation for the election of the Reserve Members of The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church, as follows:—

First. In the adoption of Report No. 1 of the Standing Committee on Judicial Administration, adopted Tuesday, May 1, 1956, an Amendment to Article 2, Paragraph 901 of the 1952 Discipline of The Methodist Church, was adopted, as follows:—

Amend Article 2 of Par. 901 by deleting the words "a like number of" and inserting in place thereof the word six, in the first Paragraph, and by adding to the second Paragraph the following sentence: "Provided, however, that at the 1956 session of The General Conference two Ministerial and one Lay Alternate shall be elected for a term of four years, and three Ministerial and three Lay Alternates shall be elected for a term of eight years," so that said Paragraphs as amended shall read as follows:

Article 2. Alternates. There shall be six Alternates of each Class, and their qualifications shall be the same as for membership on The Judicial Council. The term of Alternates shall be for eight years; provided, however, that an Alternate whose 70th birthday precedes the first day of the regular session of a General Conference shall be released at the close of that General Conference from membership or responsibility in The Council regardless of the date of expiration of his term of office.

The Alternates shall be elected in the manner following: From the nominees of each Class remaining on the ballot after the election of the necessary number of Members of The Judicial Council to be elected at sessions of The General Conference, The General Conference shall by separate ballot, without discussion and by majority vote, elect the number of Alternates of each Class to be elected at such session of The General Conference. An election shall be held at each session of The General Conference for only the number of each Class whose terms expire at such session of The General Conference, or to fill vacancies. Provided, however, that at the 1956 session of The General Conference two Ministerial and one Lay Alternate shall be elected for a term of four years, and three Ministerial and three Lay Alternates shall be elected for a term of eight years.

In the Class of Reserves, terms expiring in 1960, there are Harold H. Hughes, (Virginia—SE) Minister, and Vincent P. Clarke () (New England—NE) and F. Murray Benson () (Baltimore—NE) both Laymen. For the Class of Reserves, terms expiring in 1960, there needs to be elected two Ministers and one Layman. In the Class of Reserves, terms expiring 1964, there needs to be elected three Ministers and three Laymen, hence the Resolution of Leonard D. Slutz (*) (Ohio—NC).

Explanation—Luther W. Wells ()—Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam*

At the request of Luther W. Wells (*) (Virginia—SE), Secretary of Ballots and Tellers, Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, of the Washington Area, Northeastern Jurisdiction, and

Secretary of The Council of Bishops of The Methodist Church, made the following explanation:—

Mr. Chairman, it is not for the Secretary of The Council of Bishops to straighten this out.

The law reads as follows: "The Alternates shall be elected in the manner following: From the nominees of each Class remaining on the ballot after the election of the necessary number of Members of The Judicial Council, to be elected at sessions of The General Conference; The General Conference shall by separate ballot without discussion and by majority vote elect the number of Alternates by each Class to be elected."

In other words, you must choose them from the nominees now before you on the ballot. It ought to be made clear, I think, that in the light of the motion made by Mr. Slutz, that you vote for the total number of Ministers and the total number of Laymen necessary, and he indicated those who would be in the First Class and those in the Second, if I recall correctly.

I think the Secretary indicated you were going to vote by two Classes. I think we should know the total number of Ministers to be elected and the total number of Laymen, and from those now on the ballot you select.

The Secretary states five Ministers and four Laymen from names on the ballot, other than those elected and other than those already in office.

Instructions—Luther W. Wells ()—Inquiry—Embree H. Blackard—Question—Adlai C. Holler—Lud H. Estes*

Luther W. Wells (Virginia—SE), Secretary of Ballots and Tellers gave further instruction concerning the casting of the Ballot for Reserves Members of The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church.

Embree H. Blackard (Western North Carolina—SE), for the information of The General Conference, requested that the names of all nominees ineligible for election as Reserves, be read.

Luther W. Wells () (Virginia—SE), Secretary of Ballots and Tellers, stated that Harold H. Hughes (Virginia—SE), Minister, and Vincent P. Clarke () (New England—NE), Layman, and F. Murray Benson (*) (Baltimore—NE), Layman, were members of the Class of Reserves, terms expiring in 1960, and therefore did not need to be elected.

That the following nominees of The Council of Bishops had been elected as members of The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church at this 1956 session of The General Conference of The Methodist Church:—Ministers:—A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC); Lester A. Welliver (Central Pennsylvania—NE); R. F. Curl (Southwest Texas—SC); J. Russell Throckmorton (Central Kansas—SC). Laymen:

—J. Ernest Wilkins (Lexington—C); Donald A. Odell (Southern California-Arizona—W) and Ivan Lee Holt, Jr. (Saint Louis—SC).

The General Conference, by common consent, instructed that the names of the nominees which had been withdrawn from the ballot for Members of The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church, should now be restored to the ballot, to be voted for as Reserve Members of The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church, as follows:—

Ministers: Ralph Taylor Alton (Wisconsin—NC)
 Dallas L. Browning (Indiana—NC)
 Ben H. Christner (Colorado—W)
 Harry A. Hanson (North India—OS)
 Everett E. Jackman (Nebraska—SC)
 Noah W. Moore, Jr. (Delaware—C)
 Cleo C. Sessions (Central Texas—SC)
 John Owen Smith (South Carolina—SE)
 Albert S. Trulock (South Georgia—SE)
 H. Hughes Wagner (New England—NE)
 Walter G. Williams (Colorado—W)
 Ray Wilson (Detroit—NC)

Laymen: Robert D. Blue (North Iowa—NC)
 William G. Brown (Holston—SE)
 Lester C. Cecil (Ohio—NC)
 Paul R. Erwin (Western North Carolina—SE)
 Leon E. Hickman (Pittsburgh—NE)
 Charles G. Howard (Oregon—W)
 Edward F. McFaddin (Little Rock—SC)
 Samuel W. Witwer, Jr. (Rock River—NC)

Question—Adlai C. Holler—Answer—Lud H. Estes

Adlai C. Holler (South Carolina—SE) asked the following question:—

“Mr. Chairman, do I understand we are to have five Ministerial Reserves as the total number. If we have one already elected, why should we vote for five?”

Lud H. Estes (Memphis—SE), Secretary of The General Conference of The Methodist Church, answered, as follows:—

“The explanation of the five and four, the nine Reserves, is the fact that you already have one Minister, Harold H. Hughes (Virginia—SE), and two Laymen, Vincent A. Clarke (New England—NE) and F. Murray Benson (Baltimore—NE) already in the Class of 1960. You need two Ministers and one Layman in the Class of 1960, and three Ministers and three Laymen in the Class of 1964, a total of nine Reserves to be voted for, five Ministers and four Laymen.”

The ballot was spread; Bishop Newell S. Booth, the Presiding Officer, declared the ballot to be closed; the votes were collected under the direction of Luther W. Wells (*) (Virginia—SE) and the Tellers retired to count the same.

Parliamentary Situation—Bishop Newell S. Booth

Bishop Newell S. Booth, the Presiding Officer, made the following statement regarding the parliamentary situation:—

“Will The Conference please come to order and allow the Chairman to state the situation in which we are in regard to the legislative matter before us?

We are in the midst of the Order of the Day for the presentation of the Reports of the Council on World Service and Finance. You recall that an action upon Report No. 3 was deferred for action until the whole body of The Conference should be present. For the benefit of those who were absent this afternoon and in order that they may have the same situation before them as those who were present, I will call at this time upon Harold C. Case of the New England Conference to present again his amendment and to give his statement in regard to it.”

No. 3—Council on World Service and Finance—“The Episcopal Fund” Resumed—Frank W. Bevan

The continuing Order of the Day, consideration of and action on the Reports of the Council on World Service and Finance, was resumed.

Frank W. Bevan (Troy—NE) presented Report No. 3 of the Council on World Service and Finance, DCA No. 5, page 202, columns 1, 2, and 3; page 203, columns 1, 2, and 3; page 204, columns 1, 2, and 3; page 205, columns 1 and 2, Subject, “The Episcopal Fund.”

Amendment—Harold C. Case—Charles C. Parlin ()—Albert E. Day—Referred*

Harold C. Case (New England—NE) moved to amend Item 1 of Section 1 of Report No. 3 of the Council on World Service and Finance, DCA No. 5, page 202, column 1, Subject, “The Episcopal Fund; Section 1. Bishops Elected by Jurisdictional Conferences,” which reads as follows:—

“1. The salary of an effective Bishop shall be $12,500.00 per year,” by substituting $14,000.00 for $12,500.00, so that Section 1 will read as follows:—

“1. The salary of an effective Bishop shall be $14,000.00 per year.”

The motion to thus amend, being duly seconded, Harold C. Case (New England—NE) spoke to the same, as follows:—

“Mr. Chairman, Members of The Conference: I am happy to offer this amendment to Report No. 3 of the Council on World Service and Finance at a time when the entire Conference is present.

The achievement of unity of spirit among us is so evident that all of us should be able to discuss and to vote on all matters of importance. The motion to reconsider was, I think, a wise one, since certain Committees were absent this afternoon. If there is consent of the house, my motion is now to amend Paragraph 1, page 202, to read, 'the salary of an effective Bishop shall be $14,000.'

If there is consent, I move for $14,000, though this afternoon I moved for $15,000. The inflationary trend has affected all of us. The salaries of Pastors in The Methodist Church were increased an average of 19 per cent during the Quadrennium 1952-56. During this same Quadrennium the salary of Bishops was increased 11 per cent. The increases the past year for Pastors' salaries ranged or averaged 6 per cent. There is evidence that this upward trend will continue.

If it moves at this rate from 1956 to 1960, Pastors will be advanced in salary an average of 24 per cent during this Quadrennium. A salary adjustment to $14,000 for Bishops, if established now, will equal the percentage increase estimated for Pastors in the same period.

This is the only advance to be granted for Bishops for four years, whereas most church officers have salary adjustments annually. This amount will bring the Bishops to a figure comparable with the highest salaries of Pastors in the Church. This step, I think, will be significant as a vote of confidence in the Episcopacy. This salary adjustment is consistent with the salary increase now taking place throughout our economic order. It will prompt favorable action in terms of the improvement of salaries for officers throughout the Church.

It will cost an additional 2/3 of one per cent per member per year in World Service Apportionment to accomplish this increase. In this time, then, when so much is expected of our Bishops in administering the Program of the Church, this amendment seems to me to be in the very best interests of Methodism.

I hope the amendment will prevail."

For Amendment—Charles C. Parlin ()*

Charles C. Parlin (*) (Newark—NE) spoke in favor of the amendment of Harold C. Case (New England—NE), as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman, I take the microphone for two purposes: first, to thank this body for postponing consideration, so that the members of the Committees were able to be here and participate; secondly, I want to speak on this motion to amend.

Those of us who are called upon to sit in conference and adjust wages and salaries these days, know the difficulties and that it is a question on which honest men may differ within a substantial range. Having studied this, however, it seems to me that the amendment is more realistic and fair. I therefore speak in support of Harold Case's amendment."

Moves to Refer—Albert E. Day—Adopted

Albert E. Day (Baltimore—NE) moved to refer Section 1 of Report No. 3 of the Council on World Service and Finance, together with the proposed amendment of Harold C. Case (New England—NE) back to the Council on World Service and Finance, with instructions to reconsider the whole matter in the light of the arguments of Harold C. Case (New England—NE) and any fresh evidence that may appear, and to report back to The General Conference, for final action.

The motion to thus refer, being duly seconded, Albert E. Day (Baltimore—NE) spoke to the same, as follows:—

“The General Conference found itself in an embarrassing situation this afternoon. No sensitive man likes to be present when his own salary is under consideration. Our Episcopal leaders who were compelled to listen to a proposal for an increase in their salary beyond that suggested in the Commission’s Report which proposal was greeted by silence and then by a large negative vote. No sensitive man likes to be compelled to vote upon the salary of those whom he loves and admires when all the facts are not known and the situation seems more complex than a vote of confidence, gratitude, admiration and love. Yet there were many Delegates to this Conference who were put in the position of having to refuse to grant an increase because of such complexities as could not be stated in open debate. Some things seem evident.

No mere increase in salary can or is needed to enhance the status of our Bishops in the eyes of the Church. They are honored and respected because of what they are and do. It is quite another matter if a salary increase is needed for comfort, security or efficiency.

Second, when the motion of an increase to $15,000 was made this afternoon, a group of laymen sitting near went into a huddle and said, ‘What shall we do?’

One of them replied, ‘Our Bishop is worth that much; let’s vote for it.’

I could repeat my Bishop is worth twice that much, but in this vocation a man cannot always be given what he is worth.

Third, the comparison between the percentage advance in ministerial salaries and the proposed increase in Episcopal salaries is not relevant. Many of our ministers need 50 or 100 per cent raise in salary if they and their families are to have even a decent standard of living.

Mr. Chairman, I do not think such considerations close the case for or against. They do explain in part our embarrassment this afternoon and our conviction that this matter ought not to be settled by debate here on the floor, but by the consideration of the World Service Commission in the light of Dr. Case’s argument and the evident feeling of The Conference, as evidenced by the close vote of the afternoon. Whatever the Commission approves, I shall be happy to support, but I think this ought to be determined in the Council of the Commission itself. Thank you.”

The motion of Albert E. Day (Baltimore—NE) to thus refer, being put to the vote of The General Conference, was adopted.

Section II—No. 3. Council on World Service and Finance—Adopted

Frank W. Bevan (Troy—NE) presented Section II of Report No. 3 of the Council on World Service and Finance,

DCA No. 5, page 202, column 3 and page 203, columns 1 and 2, Subject, "II. Bishops Elected by Central Conferences," and moved its adoption. The motion was duly seconded.

Amendment—Mangal Singh—Thomas B. Lugg—Referred

Mangal Singh (Delhi—OS) spoke to paragraph 4 of "Section II. Bishops Elected by Central Conferences," DCA No. 5, page 203, column 1, as follows:—

"I have been going through the Report printed in The Daily Advocate, also the discussions that were conducted at this Conference, and I congratulate The Conference for taking such great care of the Bishops, both in this country and outside of it. I think it is very great of The Methodist Church to think so highly of their Episcopal Leaders, and they do deserve that, because they always are busy, are doing a wonderful work.

I would like to make a little notation, Mr. Chairman, on page 203 of the Report, column 1, section 4, where the traveling allowance for the Overseas Bishop is given. I believe that one week before and one week after The Conference does not seem very reasonable. If the Committee is willing to accept my suggestion, I will make no motion, but if it is not, I would like to move, sir, that instead of one week before and one week after The General Conference, the allowance in the country which is so expensive be given as two weeks before and two weeks afterwards."

Reply—Thomas B. Lugg

Thomas B. Lugg (Illinois—NC), General Secretary and Treasurer of the Council on World Service and Finance, replied as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman, we are quite ready to do what The Conference wants. We were assured by those in the Board of Missions who handle travel that this was adequate time to get transportation to and from the United States. We have made a provision for those who would like to stay longer in the matter of cultivation. The Board of Missions has promised to see that they have speaking engagements and make possible that longer time that is spent here."

Amendment—Mangal Singh—Referred

Mangal Singh (Delhi—OS) moved to amend paragraph 4 of Section "II. Bishops Elected by Central Conferences," DCA No. 5, page 203, column 1, which reads:—

"4. Travel of any Bishop elected by a Central Conference coming to the United States for an official meeting shall be reimbursed for travel expenses to the seat of the meeting and return, and his expenses in the United States shall be paid for not more than one week previous to the official meeting and for not more than one week following the adjournment of the official meeting. Bishops wishing to stay in the United States for a longer period for cultivation purposes may make such arrangements with the Board of Missions."

by substituting the words "two weeks" for the words "one week" in lines seven and nine of this paragraph 4, so that paragraph 4, as amended, will read:—

"4. Travel of any Bishop elected by a Central Conference coming to the United States for an official meeting shall be reimbursed for travel expenses to the seat of the meeting and return, and his expenses in the United States shall be paid for not more than two weeks previous to the official meeting and for not more than two weeks following the adjournment of the official meeting. Bishops wishing to stay in the United States for a longer period for cultivation purposes may make such arrangements with the Board of Missions."

Motion to Refer—Lester W. Auman

Lester W. Auman (New York East—NE) moved that paragraph 4 and the proposed amendment of Mangal Singh (Delhi—OS) be referred back to the Council on World Service and Finance, for their further consideration of and action on, and their report back to The General Conference of The Methodist Church. The motion was duly seconded.

Speaks to Amendment—Frank W. Bevan

Frank W. Bevan (Troy—NE) spoke to the proposed amendment of Mangal Singh (Delhi—OS), as follows:—

"All I wish to say, Mr. Chairman, is that what we desire to do is to have some point of termination, so that the responsibilities which shall be carried by the Episcopal Fund will be very definitely outlined, so that there will be a beginning point and an ending point; and whatever is necessary with regard to the Bishops from Overseas, I am sure we shall be glad to do. But we must have some beginning and some ending."

Speaks to Motion—Mangal Singh

The motion to thus amend, being duly seconded, Mangal Singh (Delhi—OS) spoke to it as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman, we have just now discussed the matter of embarrassing the Bishops. It is equally embarrassing for the Bishops coming from Overseas and it is hard for us to discuss anything on the floor of The Conference. But I believe that The Conference Members will understand that the Bishops Overseas do not get very high salaries nor can they meet the expenses in this country which is so expensive. Therefore, it is essential that they should be given some allowance.

Now, I will quote an instance. One of the Overseas Bishops was invited to speak in a big church in this country, and when he spoke three times on that one Sunday, he was given a check for $15. Now, I wonder what that Bishop can do; and he had to fly on an airplane.

So I believe, Mr. Chairman, that this allowance of two weeks before and two weeks afterwards should be given, not to embarrass them too much and to give them an allowance enough at least for two weeks in this country."

For Referral—Mallappa Vital ()*

Mallappa Vital (*) (Hyderabad—OS) spoke in favor of referral, as follows:—

"In these days of economic depression we find that people are struggling hard to increase their wages, and we know in the houses it is only the crying baby that gets the milk because of the very busy work that the mother has in the home.

It is very hard for us to discuss this matter of increasing and decreasing, and if it is very adverse for us then it becomes still more hard work on those who are listening. So I am strong in support of this amendment, and refer this matter to the Council on World Service and Finance."

Section II Adopted

Section II. Bishops Elected by Central Conferences, DCA No. 5, page 202, column 3 and page 203, columns 1 and 2 was adopted, with the exception of paragraph 4, referred to the Council on World Service and Finance for their consideration and action on, and report back to The General Conference of The Methodist Church.

Section III—Frank W. Bevan—Adopted

Frank W. Bevan (Troy—NE) presented "Section III. Reserve for Pensions of Retired Bishops," DCA No. 5, page 203, column 3, and on his motion, duly seconded, Section III was adopted.

Section IV—Frank W. Bevan—Adopted

Frank W. Bevan (Troy—NE) presented "Section IV. Increase or Decrease During Quadrennium," DCA No. 5, page 203, column 3, and on his motion, duly seconded, Section IV was adopted.

Section V—Frank W. Bevan—Adopted

Frank W. Bevan (Troy—NE) presented "Section V. Travel Expense Vouchers," DCA No. 5, page 203, column 3, and on his motion, duly seconded, Section V was adopted.

Section VI—Frank W. Bevan—Adopted

Frank W. Bevan (Troy—NE) presented "Section VI. Apportionment for The Episcopal Fund," DCA No. 5, page 203, column 3, and page 204, column 1, and, on his motion, duly seconded, Section VI was adopted.

Section VII—Frank W. Bevan—Adopted

Frank W. Bevan (Troy—NE) presented "Section VII. Determination of Validity of Claims," DCA No. 5, page 204, column 1, and, on his motion, duly seconded, Section VII was adopted.

Section VIII—Frank W. Bevan—Lester A. Kilpatrick—Adopted

Frank W. Bevan (Troy—NE) presented "Section VIII. Episcopal Reserve Pension Fund," DCA No. 5, page 204, columns 2 and 3, page 205, columns 1 and 2, and requested Lester A. Kilpatrick (Michigan—NC) Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Pensions to speak to Section VIII from the standpoint of the Standing Legislative Committee on Pensions and of the General Board of Pensions.

Speaks to Report—Lester A. Kilpatrick

Lester A. Kilpatrick (Michigan—NC) Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Pensions, spoke to this Section of Report No. 3 of the Council of World Service and Finance, as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman and Members of The General Conference: The Committee on Pension Legislation for this Conference, or what is known as the Committee on Pensions, concurs with this recommendation and favors its adoption."

Section VIII. Episcopal Reserve Pensions Fund, was then adopted, on motion of Frank W. Bevan (Troy—NE), duly seconded.

Statement—Thomas B. Lugg

Thomas B. Lugg (Illinois—NC), General Secretary and Treasurer of the Council on World Service and Finance, in connection with the adoption of Section VIII. Episcopal Reserve Pensions Fund, made the following statement:—

"Mr. Chairman, this statement about the Reserve Pension Program for the Bishops is also referred to the Committee on Pensions, and our attention has been called to the fact by one of the Editors of the Discipline that he would prefer that it not appear in two different places in the Discipline. I think he has a point, and if it appears in the legislation here in the Episcopal Fund, that will be all that is necessary with a cross reference."

(For final action on Report No. 3, see Journal page 672. Editor)

No. 4—Council on World Service and Finance, "Budget-General Administration Fund"—Amended—Thomas B. Lugg

Thomas B. Lugg (Illinois—NC), General Secretary and Treasurer of the Council on World Service and Finance, made the following statement regarding Report No. 4 of the Council on World Service and Finance, adopted this afternoon:—

"Mr. Chairman, this afternoon when Report No. 4 was presented and adopted, attention was called to the fact that it was to be held open pending other funds that might be needed in the General Administration Fund.

In holding it open we failed to name any plan for apportioning this Fund when it is determined, and I would like to present the following on page 205, the third column, immediately preceding Report No. 5, down near the bottom of the page.

Bishop Booth: If there is no objection.

Thomas B. Lugg: Insert a paragraph that would read like this,

'5. That when all the approved items to be included in the General Administration Fund have been determined, the Council on World Service and Finance is authorized to apportion the same to the Annual Conferences, using as the factor the average total giving for all purposes for the years 1952 to 1955.'

This is practically the same as was adopted in Report No. 5 for the Inter-Denominational Co-operation Fund, and is the same method as was used last Quadrennium."

By unanimous common consent, The General Conference of The Methodist Church authorized the insertion of paragraph 5, as indicated in Report No. 4 of the Council on World Service and Finance, which had previously been adopted. See Journal, page 599; Appendix, page 2006.

No. 6—Council on World Service and Finance—"Unification of Titles"—Amended—George B. McKibbin (*)

George B. McKibbin (*) (Rock River—NC) presented Report No. 6 of the Council on World Service and Finance, DCA No. 5, page 207, columns 2 and 3, and page 208, column 1, Subject, "Unification of Titles," and requested common consent to insert a new paragraph to be numbered 4, the present paragraph No. 4 to be re-numbered No. 5.

Unanimous common consent being given by The General Conference, paragraph 4 was inserted, to follow paragraph 3 on page 207, DCA No. 5, column 3, as follows:—

4. The title of Associate Secretary is used for persons who are second in authority only to the General Secretary, and may be assigned authority to speak for the General Secretary in his absence. In the Board of Missions, the title of Associate General Secretary may be used to designate the person who is assigned this authority and also has certain Executive Secretaries responsible to him.

George B. McKibbin (*) (Rock River—NC) in presenting Report No. 6 spoke to it as follows:—

Mr. Chairman, turning to Report No. 6, the second paragraph, you will notice that the 1952 Discipline provided that the Council on World Service and Finance shall have authority and responsibility to establish titles for the employed Executive Staff of World Service Agencies in the interest of uniformity and consistency.

We did not think it was necessary to come back to this General Conference with that authority that was granted us, except that we wanted to have a complete understanding so that everybody understands the whole thing.

Homer Magee of our Staff has been working during most of the Quadrennium with the Secretaries for the purpose of working out this uniformity. I think the information is that there has been a complete understanding between the Secretaries and Dr. Magee in this matter.

On motion of George B. McKibbin (*) (Rock River—NC), duly seconded, Report No. 6 of the Council on World Service and Finance was adopted, as amended by common consent. For report see Appendix, page 2014.

Committee on Conferences Excused—C. Cooper Bell

C. Cooper Bell (Virginia—SE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences, stated for the Committee that the remaining Reports of the Council on World Service and Finance contained no controversial matters as far as the Committee could determine, and that the Committee asked to be excused that they might complete their work, so vitally important to expediting the work of The General Conference of The Methodist Church.

By unanimous common consent the Standing Legislative Committee on Conferences were excused for the remainder of this evening's session of Thursday, May 3, 1956.

No. 7—Council on World Service and Finance—"Improvements and Economies"—Frank W. Bevan—Adopted

Frank W. Bevan (Troy—NE) presented Report No. 7 of the Council on World Service and Finance, DCA No. 5, page 208, columns 1, 2 and 3, Subject, "Improvements and Economies," and, on his motion, duly seconded, Report No. 7 was adopted. For Report see Appendix, page 2019.

No. 8—Council on World Service and Finance—"Special Days"—Corrected—Frank W. Bevan—Adopted

Frank W. Bevan (Troy—NE) presented Report No. 8 of the Council on World Service and Finance, DCA No. 5, page 208, column 3 and 209, column 1, Subject, "Special Days," requesting common consent to delete a printer's error found on page 209, column 1, paragraph 6, "Methodist Student Day," in line three which reads as follows:—

6. Methodist Student Day: The Council on World Service and Finance recommends the continuance of a space in Methodist Student Day with an offering for the support of National Methodist scholarships and the Student Loan Fund, the receipts from such offerings to be sent through the Annual Conference Treasurer to the Treasurer of the Board of Education of The Methodist Church in Nashville, Tennessee. It further recommends the continuance of a space in the Pastor's Report to the Annual Conference for reporting the amount of the offering.

by deleting line three, as printed, and substituting therefor the words, "ommends approval of the observance of," so that paragraph 6 as corrected will read:—

6. Methodist Student Day: The Council on World Service and Finance recommends approval of the observance of Methodist Student Day with an offering for the support of National Methodist scholarships and the Student Loan Fund, the receipts from such offerings to be sent through the Annual Conference Treasurer to the Treasurer of the Board of Education of The Methodist Church in Nashville, Tennessee. It further recommends the continuance of a space in the Pastor's Report to the Annual Conference for reporting the amount of the offering.

Frank W. Bevan (Troy—NE) spoke to Report No. 8 as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman, Report No. 8, the third column of page 208. The 1952 Discipline charges the Council on World Service and Finance to recommend to The General Conference the days in connection with the Church-wide observance of which the taking of Special Offerings shall be authorized, and in the case of each shall recommend whether or not the receipts derived therefrom shall be credited to the contributing church as a part of its World Service Apportionment, and charged against the claims of the Board or Agency receiving the same. All such recommendations are subject to the approval of The General Conference.

This may seem to be an overlapping with the Co-ordinating Council, but the Paragraph is in the Discipline. We have listed the days or observances when an offering is taken. We have described it to some extent, and where note could be found in the Discipline relative to it we have included that. We have the Week of Dedication, the Fellowship of Suffering and Service, the World Service Sunday, the Church School Rally Day, Race Relations Day, and Methodist Student Day."

Report No. 8 of the Council on World Service and Finance, was adopted, as corrected, on motion of Frank W. Bevan (Troy—NE), duly seconded. For Report see Appendix, page 2021.

No. 9—Council on World Service and Finance—"Specific Duties Assigned"—Thomas B. Lugg

Thomas B. Lugg (Illinois—NC), General Secretary and Treasurer of the Council on World Service and Finance, presented Report No. 9 of the Council, DCA No. 5, page 209, columns 1, 2 and 3, and page 210, column 1, Subject, "Specific Duties Assigned," and on his motion, duly seconded, Report No. 9 of the Council on World Service and Finance was adopted. For Report see Appendix, page 2023.

No. 10—Council on World Service and Finance—"Miscellaneous Recommendations"—Thomas B. Lugg—Harold S. Swales

Thomas B. Lugg (Illinois—NC), General Secretary of the Council on World Service and Finance, presented Report

No. 10 of the Council, DCA No. 5, page 210, columns 1, 2 and 3, Subject, "Miscellaneous Recommendations" and moved its adoption. The motion was duly seconded.

Questions—Harold S. Swales—Answers—Thomas B. Lugg

Harold S. Swales (Central New York—NE) asked the following questions, which were answered by Thomas B. Lugg (Illinois—NC), General Secretary of the Council on World Service and Finance:—

"I would like to ask a question concerning this matter of administrative items included under Section 1. b.

Would you like, sir, to tell us what you mean by 'administrative items'?"

Thomas B. Lugg: On page 210, 1. b bottom of the first column?

Harold S. Swales: Yes, No. 1.

Thomas B. Lugg: I don't find the 1.

Harold S. Swales: 1 is World Service, and Conference Benevolence; and then b, under that, sir.

Thomas B. Lugg: I see what you mean, Mr. Chairman, Administrative Items, as I understand them, are the Items that go into the execution of the Program, the administration of the Program, and would be items such as, well, in this General Administration Fund. It takes up such items as—well—

Well, yes, I got lost there a moment, that's right. The Annual Conference Journal, for example, would be an Administrative Item.

Harold S. Swales: Then, sir, would you consider in a Conference that might have combined Minimum Support and Sustentation Work, that this might be an Administrative Item?

Thomas B. Lugg: Well, I am not sure that I should pass on that. I would presume that is a part of ministerial support.

Harold S. Swales: I think sustentation, however, is very definitely a Benevolent item, is it not?"

Report No. 10 of the Council on World Service and Finance was adopted. For Report see Appendix, page 2027.

No. 11—Council on World Service and Finance—"Recommended Legislation"—Luther W. Wells (*)—Charles F. Berkheimer—Amended—Adopted

Report No. 11 of the Council on World Service and Finance, DCA No. 5, page 210, column 3; page 211, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 212, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 213, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 214, columns 1, 2 and 3, Subject, "Recommended Legislation," was presented by Charles F. Berkheimer (Central Pennsylvania—NE) for Luther W. Wells (*) (Virginia—SE), whose duties as Secretary of Ballots and Tellers had taken him from the seat of The General Conference, to supervise the counting of the First Ballot for Reserve Members of The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church.

Charles F. Berkheimer (Central Pennsylvania—NE) prefaced his presentation of Report No. 11 of the Council on World Service and Finance, with the following statement:—

“Mr. Chairman and Members of The General Conference: The Rules of The General Conference provide that the Council on World Service and Finance and certain other Agencies, may present legislative items to The General Conference directly, and not channel them through the Standing Legislative Committees. Following that provision, we are recommending certain changes that, on the whole, are just matters of editorial clarification. There are actually no matters here that we think call for any debate. They are not controversial, but in each case we shall have to present them. I shall try to say a word concerning the purpose of each one, and if there are no questions, move the adoption.”

On motion of Charles F. Berkheimer (Central Pennsylvania—NE), duly seconded, the following six items of Report No. 11 of the Council on World Service and Finance, were presented separately and adopted separately:—

1st. “Local Church Committee on Wills and Legacies,” DCA No. 5, page 210, column 3.

2nd. “Annual Conference Journals,” DCA No. 5, page 211, column 1.

3rd. “Naming of Funds: Not Now Included,” DCA No. 5, page 211, column 1.

4th. “Corrections of Paragraph 737,” DCA No. 5, page 211, columns 2 and 3, and page 212, column 1.

5th. “Committee on Wills, Bequests and Gifts,” DCA No. 5, page 212, column 1.

6th. “Clarification and Listing of General Funds,” DCA No. 5, page 212, columns 1 and 2.

Amendments Accepted—Mrs. Frank G. Brooks ()—G. Clifford Pettygrove ()—Charles F. Berkheimer

Charles F. Berkheimer (Central Pennsylvania—NE) presented the next item, Subject, “The Reporting of Special Gifts,” DCA No. 5, page 212, column 2, and moved its adoption. The motion was duly seconded.

Mrs. Frank G. Brooks (*) (North Iowa—NC) called attention to a typographical error, the inadvertent omission of the words, “the Divisions of World and National Missions of,” to follow the word “for” at the end of line seven of the paragraph in Bold Face type.

Charles F. Berkheimer (Central Pennsylvania—NE) accepted the correction for the Council on World Service and Finance, no objection being raised by any member of the Council on World Service and Finance, or of any Member of The General Conference.

G. Clifford Pettygrove (*) (California-Nevada—W) suggested that the words "at maturity," be inserted following the words, "the annuity plan," in line two, and gave the following reasons for the insertion:—

"I have a suggestion which I will not put in the form of a motion because I believe it will be accepted. It has just been called to my attention by a representative of the Treasurer's Office of the Board of Missions that there is need for the addition of two words which will change the meaning slightly of the second line of this Proposed Legislation.

Just this word of explanation first: You will understand that while most of the gifts and bequests referred to here would come in the form of cash or its equivalent, but gifts on the annuity plan, however, are not actually gifts until they have matured. The representative of the Treasurer's Office calls my attention to the fact that it would not be consistent to issue cash vouchers for gifts of that nature.

Therefore, it is proposed that on page 212, the middle column, this particular piece of Legislation which begins, 'All gifts, whether for special appeals,' in the second line, after the word 'plan,' 'annuity plan,' to add the two words, 'at maturity'; so that the forepart of that section will read, 'All gifts, whether for special appeals, bequests, gifts on the annuity plan at maturity, or gifts of property,' and so forth, if that is acceptable."

The suggestion of G. Clifford Pettygrove () (California-Nevada—W) was accepted by Charles F. Berkheimer (Central Pennsylvania—NE) for the Council on World Service and Finance, no objection being raised by any member of the Council on World Service and Finance, or of any member of The General Conference, so that the paragraph in Bold Face type, as corrected by Mrs. Frank G. Brooks () (North Iowa—NC) and G. Clifford Pettygrove (*) (California—W) will read as follows:—

"All gifts, whether for special appeals, bequests, gifts on the annuity plan AT MATURITY or gifts for property made to or administered by a General Agency of the Church, shall be acknowledged by a World Service Special Gift Voucher, except that gifts in any of the foregoing classifications for THE DIVISIONS OF WORLD AND OF NATIONAL MISSIONS OF the Board of Missions or the Methodist Committee for Overseas Relief shall be acknowledged by an Advance Special Gift Voucher."

The item, Subject, "The Reporting of Special Gifts," was adopted as corrected.

Charles F. Berkheimer (Central Pennsylvania—NE) next presented seven Items of Report No. 11 of the Council on World Service and Finance, and after his explanation, and on his motion, duly seconded, they were adopted, as follows:—

1st. "Inclusion of Special Services in The General Administration Fund," DCA No. 5, page 212, columns 2 and 3.

2nd. "Method of Apportioning General Administration Fund," DCA No. 5, page 212, column 3.

3rd. "Clarification of Legislation Relating to Apportionment of Episcopal Fund," DCA No. 5, page 212, column 3 and page 213, column 1.

4th. "Listing of Funds Not Now Included in Legislation," DCA No. 5, page 213, column 1.

5th. "Harmonize Terminology So That Each Will Be Described as a Department," DCA No. 5, page 213, column 1.

6th. "Cost of Maintaining 'File of Pastors and Church Officials' A Charge Against General Administration Fund," DCA No. 5, page 213, column 1.

7th. "Service Department," DCA No. 5, page 213, column 1.

Charles F. Berkheimer (Central Pennsylvania—NE) presented the next Item, Subject, "Pastor's Traveling and Moving Expenses," DCA No. 5, page 213, column 2, and requested unanimous common consent to withdraw the same, that he might make a substitution recommended by the Standing Administrative Committee on Correlation and Editorial Revision. Common consent, being unanimously granted by The General Conference, the Item, which reads as follows was withdrawn:—

PASTOR'S TRAVELING AND MOVING EXPENSES.

(1) Amend the last sentence of Paragraph 148 which now reads: "These expenses, when provided for, shall be a separate and additional item" by deleting the words following the word "shall" and substituting the words shall be reported in the current expense of the Pastor's Report to his Annual Conference.

so that the last sentence of the Paragraph as amended will then read:

"These expenses, when provided for, shall be reported in the current expense column of the Pastor's Report to his Annual Conference."

(2) Amend Paragraph 824 beginning with the sentence "The Pastor's salary, thus agreed upon, shall not include the traveling and moving expenses of a new Appointee to the Charge. Where traveling and moving expenses of a new Appointee to a Charge are paid by the Charge, this amount shall be a separate and additional item" by adding the word Pastoral before the word "Charge" and adding words which shall be reported in the current expense column of the Pastor's Report to his Annual Conference.

so that the sentences as amended will read:

"The Pastor's salary, thus agreed upon, shall not include the traveling and moving of a new Appointee to the Pastoral Charge. Where traveling and moving expense of a new Appointee to a Charge are paid by the Charge, this amount shall be a separate and additional item which shall be reported in the current expense column of the Pastor's Report to his Annual Conference."

(3) Amend Paragraph 829 which now reads: "The total of all travel, automobile, and other expenses allowed and paid to a Pastor in addition to his salary shall be reported for insertion in the Journal of the Annual Conference, in a separate column from that of the Pastor's salary and adjacent thereto."

By adding the words provided, however, that the moving expenses of a new Appointee to a Pastoral Charge are to be included in the current expense column of the Pastor's Report to his Annual Conference.

so that the Paragraph as amended will read:

"The total of all travel, automobile, and other expenses allowed and paid to a Pastor in addition to his salary shall be reported for insertion in the Journal of the Annual Conference, in a separate column from that of Pastor's salary and adjacent thereto provided, however, that the moving expenses of a new Appointee to a pastoral Charge are to be included in the current expense column of the Pastor's Report to his Annual Conference."

Substitution—Charles F. Berkheimer

Charles F. Berkheimer (Central Pennsylvania—NE) moved to substitute the recommendations of the Committee on Correlation and Editorial Revision for this Item, and gave his reasons, as follows:—

"It has been called to our attention by the Committee on Correlation and Editorial Revision that we were not accomplishing quite what we wanted to accomplish here and that there was ambiguity and duplication which was unnecessary. They pointed out the fact that they are recommending the deletion of the full Paragraph 824, because it is a duplication in the Discipline and, therefore, all of these references should not be necessary.

Let me point out what the intention is. In 1948, I think, we provided for the inclusion in the Report of the Pastor to the Annual Conference of a column which would indicate any expense items given to the Pastor, the Pastor's traveling and office expense. Then, because of the ambiguity of these three different Paragraphs that mentioned the same things, a good many statisticians and Pastors reported amounts that were paid to them for their moving expenses. This is simply to indicate that moving expenses, when they are paid by a church for a Pastor coming to them, should not be included in that column but reported as current expense items.

We are indebted to the Editorial Committee here for their indicating this, and I think you will be satisfied to hear the reading of this. It is not entirely in legislative form and yet will be quite satisfactory, I think."

On motion of Charles F. Berkheimer (Central Pennsylvania—NE), duly seconded, the following substitution for the Item under discussion, was ordered by The General Conference, as follows:—

First, amend par. 148 by substituting for the last sentence the following:

These expenses, when provided for, shall be classified as current expenses and so reported in the Pastor's Report to the Annual Conference. (See also Paragraph 829)

Second, substitute for all of par. 824 the following:

Paragraph 824. The several Quarterly Conferences shall determine the Pastoral Salaries according to the provisions of Paragraph 148.

Third, add a second sentence to paragraph 829, as follows:

These expenses shall be distinguished from the moving expenses of a new Appointee to a Pastoral Charge, which shall be reported as provided in Paragraph 148.

Financial Secretary—Charles F. Berkheimer—Amendment—Alexander K. Smith—Not Adopted.

Charles F. Berkheimer (Central Pennsylvania—NE) presented the next Item, Subject, "The Election and Duties of The Financial Secretary," DCA No. 5, page 213, columns 2 and 3, and page 214, column 1, and explained the Item.

Alexander K. Smith (Philadelphia—NE) moved to amend this Item, DCA No. 5, page 213, column 3, by deleting the words, "and when deemed desirable," found in lines two and three of paragraph 3 and in lines four and five of paragraph 4; further to delete the words, "If a Financial Secretary has been elected by the Official Board, these records shall be kept by the said Officer" found at the close of paragraphs 5 and 7, and substituting therefor in each case, the words, "The Financial Secretary shall keep these records"; and further to delete the sentence, "When a Financial Secretary is not elected, these Reports shall be made by the Treasurer or Treasurers" so that the amended Item will read, as follows:—

The Election and Duties of the Financial Secretary:

Whereas the 1952 Discipline in Paragraphs 239 and 240 recognizes the existence of a Financial Secretary as an Officer of the Board, and

Whereas no provision has been made indicating the method of election or a statement of the responsibilities of said Officer,

Therefore, Be It Resolved, That the following additions be made to the legislation relative to the Official Board as now appearing in the 1952 Discipline. Amend Paragraph 212 which now reads "The Board shall be organized annually by the election of a Chairman, a Vice-Chairman, a Recording Secretary, a Treasurer or Treasurers (Par. 242), and a Church Lay Leader (Par. 262). These Officers shall be elected by the members of the Board on the nomination of a Committee on Nominations. Additional nominations may be made from the floor."

By adding the following words "a Financial Secretary" the same to be inserted immediately following the clause "... a Treasurer or Treasurers (Par. 242), . . ." so that the amended Paragraph shall read:

"The Board shall be organized annually by the election of a Chairman, a Vice-Chairman, a Recording Secretary, a Treasurer or Treasurers (Par. 242), a Financial Secretary, and a Church Lay Leader (Par. 262). These Officers shall be elected by the members of the Board on the nomination of a Committee on Nominations. Additional nominations may be made from the floor."

Further amend Paragraph 241 Sub-Paragraph 3 by adding to the Paragraph the words The Financial Secretary shall keep these records.

So that the Paragraph as amended shall read:

"Paragraph 241 Sub-Paragraph 3: All payments on pledges shall be credited to the donors and a proper account shall be kept of each subscriber and contributor. The Financial Secretary shall keep these records."

Further amend Paragraph 241 Sub-Paragraph 8 of the 1952 Discipline by making it Paragraph 9. In turn Paragraph 9 will become Paragraph 10. Sub-Paragraph 8 shall then read:

"A Report shall be made by the Financial Secretary to the Board each month and to the Quarterly Conference, when requested, of all receipts by the Financial Secretary and of the disbursements made to the Treasurer or Treasurers of the Board."

The amended Sub-Paragraphs of Paragraph 241 will then read:

"8. A Report shall be made by the Financial Secretary of the Board each month and to the Quarterly Conference when requested of all receipts by the Financial Secretary and of the disbursements made to the Treasurer or Treasurers of the Board."

"(9) Reports shall be made by the Treasurer or Treasurers to the Board each month and to the Quarterly Conference when requested of all receipts and disbursements and of unpaid obligations against the Budget."

"(10) It shall be the continuing duty of the Commission to inform the congregation of the financial needs of the church."

The motion of Alexander K. Smith (Philadelphia—NE) to thus amend, being seconded, Alexander K. Smith (Philadelphia—NE) spoke to the same, as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman, every District Superintendent knows the chaos that has occurred in many a church when the finances have been handled by a single individual without a counter-check as would be offered through the office of a Financial Secretary. And I feel it would be a great advantage to every church, especially the smaller churches—there are larger churches where it is possible to employ a Financial Secretary, and they do—but in the smaller churches there ought to be mandatory election of a Financial Secretary."

Charles F. Berkheimer (Central Pennsylvania—NE)

spoke to the proposed amendment of Alexander K. Smith (Philadelphia—NE) as follows:—

“Bishop Booth: This amendment is before you. Is it acceptable?

Charles F. Berkheimer: No, I think not. I can't accept it for the Council. I think we would not want to debate it. If The General Conference would desire to do that. Many members of the Council felt that it ought to be optional, but I shall not debate it at all.”

The proposed amendment of Alexander K. Smith (Philadelphia—NE) on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.

The Item, “The Election and Duties of the Financial Secretary,” presented by Charles F. Berkheimer (Central Pennsylvania—NE) was adopted, on his motion, duly seconded.

Remaining Items—Charles F. Berkheimer

Charles F. Berkheimer (Central Pennsylvania—NE) separately presented the remaining six Items of Report No. 11 of the Council on World Service and Finance, and each was adopted, on his motion, duly seconded, as follows:—

1st. “Reference to Certified Public Accountant Audit,” DCA No. 5, page 214, column 1.

2nd. “Funds to Be Transmitted to Central Treasury,” DCA No. 5, page 214, column 1.

3rd. “Right of Treasurer to Attend Meetings of The Conference Commission on World Service and Finance,” DCA No. 5, page 214, columns 1 and 2.

Against Item—Olin D. Jackson

Olin D. Jackson (Minnesota—NC) spoke against this Item, as follows:—

“I wish to speak against this because there are times when this Commission must discuss the Treasurer, the future of the Treasurer, what his salary shall be and other items concerning the office, and he should not be present when those things are being discussed.”

Ruling—Bishop Newell S. Booth

Bishop Newell S. Booth, the Presiding Officer, stated that it would take a motion to Reconsider to open debate concerning the Item, and that no motion to reconsider had been made.

Remaining Items Resumed—Charles F. Berkheimer

Charles F. Berkheimer (Central Pennsylvania—NE) resumed presentation of the remaining Items, as follows:—

4th. "Inter-Denominational Co-operation Fund," DCA No. 5, page 214, column 2.

5th. "Deletion of the Words 'And the Materials Authorized by the Council,'" DCA No. 5, page 214, column 2.

6th. "Deletion of Paragraph 1120 (9)," DCA No. 5, page 214, column 2.

Resolution Re Fellowship of Suffering and Service—Charles F. Berkheimer

Charles F. Berkheimer (Central Pennsylvania—NE) presented the Resolution concerning the "Fellowship of Suffering and Service," and asked common consent to insert the word "ALL," between the words, "and Service," and "the offering taken," in line thirteen, DCA No. 5, page 214, column 3, so that the amended Resolution will read:—

RESOLUTION

Whereas The Fellowship of Suffering and Service, established by the Bishops near the beginning of the second World War, is rendering a very valuable service to the Methodist Committee for Overseas Relief, the Commission on Chaplains and the Commission on Camp Activities, and

Whereas this fund should be continued as a Benevolence of The Methodist Church, and

Whereas the method of raising the funds for the agencies involved has received general acceptance by the local churches,

Therefore Be It Resolved. That a paragraph appropriately numbered to follow Paragraph 2035 of the 1952 "Discipline" be inserted to read as follows:

Paragraph : The Fellowship of Suffering and Service.

The General Conference of The Methodist Church recognizes the valuable service rendered through the offerings for "The Fellowship of Suffering and Service" and recommends that it be continued until such time it may be deemed no longer needed; this decision to be made either by a future General Conference, or if between sessions of The General Conference, the decision to be made by a three-fourths vote of The Council of Bishops and the Council on World Service and Finance; each meeting separately. Each local church is requested to transmit to the Conference Treasurer or to the Central Treasury, 740 Rush Street, Chicago 11, Illinois, under the designation of the Fellowship of Suffering and Service ALL the the offering taken on World-wide Communion Sunday and a portion of the offerings taken at subsequent observances of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. The Central Treasury is authorized to distribute the receipts for the Fellowship of Suffering and Service on the basis of 50% to the Methodist Committee for Overseas Relief, 25% to the Commission on Chaplains, and 25% to the Commission on Camp Activities.

Common consent of The General Conference being unanimously given, the insertion was made, and Charles F. Berkheimer (Central Pennsylvania—NE) spoke to the Item, as follows:—

“We have taken this up at other General Conferences and we have had action upon it, but this has never been in the Discipline. You have read the Preamble here which indicates the general acceptance of this idea, but now this Paragraph is to be made a part of the Discipline. It indicates that the Fellowship of Suffering and Service offering should be continued and that ALL of the offering in the Local Church on World Wide Communion Sunday and a portion of the offering of all other observances of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper shall be sent to the Treasurer of the Conference or of the Central Treasury and designated for the Fellowship of Suffering and Service.”

The Item was adopted on the motion of Charles F. Berkheimer (Central Pennsylvania—NE) duly seconded.

No. 11 Adopted as a Whole

Report No. 11 of the Council on World Service and Finance, DCA No. 5, page 210, column 3, page 211, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 212, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 213, columns 1, 2, and 3; and page 214, columns 1, 2 and 3, Subject, “Recommended Legislation,” was then adopted as a whole by The General Conference. For Report see Appendix, page 2030.

Time Extended—Charles F. Berkheimer—Adopted

The hour of adjournment nearing, motion of Charles F. Berkheimer (Central Pennsylvania—NE) duly seconded, prevailed that the time of this session be extended to complete consideration of and action on the last Report of the Council on World Service and Finance.

Supplement to No. 11—Council on World Service and Finance—“When Financial Statement May Be Approved”—Charles F. Berkheimer

Charles F. Berkheimer (Central Pennsylvania—NE) presented a supplement to Report No. 11 of the Council on World Service and Finance, DCA No. 8, page 350, column 3, Subject, “When Financial Statement May Be Approved,” and moved its adoption, and inclusion as a part of Report No. 11 of the Council on World Service and Finance, Subject, “Recommended Legislation,” just adopted as a whole. The motion duly seconded, prevailed. For the Supplement see Appendix, page 2045.

This completed the Order of the Day, consideration of and action on the Reports of the Council on World Service and Finance.

Privileged Motion—W. H. Alderson

William H. Alderson (New York East—NE) moved that if he was not ruled out of order, that James R. Houghton (*) (New England—NE), General Conference Director of Music, led us in singing, "Revive Us Again."

Ruling—Bishop Newell S. Booth

Bishop Newell S. Booth, the Presiding Officer, made the following ruling:—

"I think we would not be out of order. I think you are about ready to adopt most anything that was given you. Perhaps after we have been revived we will be ready to carry on."

Question—Merrill C. Johnson—Answer—Thomas B. Lugg

Merrill C. Johnson (New York—NE) raised the following question:—

"Mr. Chairman, I am a part of the new and fresh 50 per cent of this General Conference, and I should like to raise a question.

Most of these 14 or 15 Reports were hammered out, I take it, quite in advance of this General Conference. Would it be impossible or inadvisable to make the Reports to the Members of this Conference for their study in advance of coming here?"

Thomas B. Lugg (Illinois—NC), General Secretary and Treasurer of the Council on World Service and Finance, replied as follows:—

Mr. Chairman, the hammering began last September, and they have been hammering on until they were presented here for printing in the Advocate.

We had two days of very heavy work on Monday and Tuesday before The General Conference began on Wednesday.

I question the possibility or feasibility of getting them prepared ahead of time.

Motion for Consideration of the Calendar—A. Wesley Pugh

Motion of A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC), duly seconded, prevailed that after singing, "Revive Us Again" we proceed to take up the regular Calendar.

Privileged Motion—Glenn M. Frye

Glenn M. Frye (Michigan—NC) as a matter of high privilege, made the following statement:—

Mr. Chairman, this is a statement of privilege I would like to make. This afternoon I asked Dr. Lugg if the travelling expense qualifications imposed upon a Bishop of the Central Conference was different from that of a Jurisdiction. We did not understand over in our corner his answer to that, yes or no.

Since that time I have had the privilege of speaking to three different Bishops concerned in this. I would like to say that they have told me there is no difference at all, and that they pay travel expenses without question, and that sometimes a Bishop of Central Conference even comes first-class when maybe one of the Jurisdictions has ridden tourist.

I did want the privilege of saying that, and I appreciate so much finding it out. We didn't understand it as such from Dr. Lugg. But we thank you for finding this and allowing us to say so.

Meetings After Adjournment—C. Anderson Davis—Motion Re Calendar Withdrawn—A. Wesley Pugh—Bishop Roy H. Short—Announcement

C. Anderson Davis (East Tennessee—C) called the attention of The General Conference to the scheduled meetings of the Ministerial and Lay Leaders of the Annual Conference Delegations after adjournment tonight, for the purpose of selecting the members of the Commission to Study the Jurisdictional System.

A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC), with the consent of the seconder of his motion to proceed to the consideration of and action on Reports on the regular Calendar, moved a reconsideration of the action of The General Conference in the adoption of his motion to consider Reports on the regular Calendar, that he might withdraw the same in view of the statement of C. Anderson Davis (East Tennessee—C).

The General Conference unanimously acceded to the request of A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC) to be permitted to withdraw his motion for the consideration of and action on Reports on the regular Calendar.

Bishop Roy H. Short, of the Nashville Area, Southeastern Jurisdiction, and newly elected Secretary of The Council of Bishops of The Methodist Church, announced the places of meeting.

Announcement—Leon T. Moore—Prayer For Pilar D. Galima (*)

Leon T. Moore (Philadelphia—NE) Secretary-Designate of The General Conference of The Methodist Church, made the following privileged announcement:—

“Mr. Chairman and Members of The Conference, this announcement is one of request and on an item that is really a privilege. Mr. Pilar D. Galima, the Lay Reserve Delegate from the Northern Philippines Conference, has been a patient in the Asbury Hospital ever since his arrival here in Minneapolis. An exploratory operation is planned on this Member of our body. Mrs. Galima, who is here also as a Reserve Delegate, has requested the prayers of this Conference on behalf of her husband.

Mr. Chairman, I am happy to present this request through you to the Conference."

Before the Benediction, The General Conference of The Methodist Church stood for a moment of silent prayer for the blessings of our heavenly Father on Pilar D. Galima (*) (Northern Philippines—OS).

Pages and Ushers—Bishop Newell S. Booth

Bishop Newell S. Booth, the Presiding Officer, requested all those who had served as ushers or pages in previous General Conferences of The Methodist Church to stand. They stood in various parts of the auditorium and The General Conference applauded.

Thanks—Bishop Newell S. Booth

Bishop Newell S. Booth, the Presiding Officer, thanked the members of The General Conference for their fine spirit of co-operation in carrying on the business of tonight's session.

Adjournment—Hymn—James R. Houghton (*)—Benediction—Jean Mij

The General Conference stood and joined in the singing of "Revive Us Again," under the leadership of James R. Houghton (*) (New England—NE), General Conference Director of Music, and then adjourned at 10:00 P.M., with the Benediction, pronounced by Jean Mij (Southern Congo—OS) in his native language, the Ruung language of the Southern Congo region.

TENTH DAY, FRIDAY, MAY 4, 1956

MORNING SESSION

Opening—Bishop Costen J. Harrell

Pursuant to adjournment The General Conference of The Methodist Church, convened in the morning session of the Tenth Day, Thursday, May 5, 1956, in the Municipal Auditorium, Minneapolis, Minnesota, at 8:30 A.M. with Bishop Costen J. Harrell, of the Charlotte Area, Southeastern Jurisdiction, in the Chair, who announced that the Devotions of the morning would be led by Bishop W. Earl Ledden of the Syracuse Area, Northeastern Jurisdiction, and President of The Council of Bishops of The Methodist Church.

Devotions—Bishop W. Earl Ledden—James R. Houghton (*)

Bishop W. Earl Ledden, of the Syracuse Area, Northeastern Jurisdiction, and President of The Council of Bishops of The Methodist Church, announced Hymn No. 4, "O Worship The King, All Glorious Above." The Conference stood, and under the leadership of James R. Houghton (*) (New England—NE), General Conference Director of Music, joined heartily in the singing of the Hymn.

Prayer—Bishop W. Earl Ledden

Bishop W. Earl Ledden then led in prayer.

Scripture and Message—Bishop W. Earl Ledden

After reading the Scripture lesson from Matthew 16:13-18, the Devotional Message of the morning was brought by Bishop W. Earl Ledden, from the theme, "Thou art Peter."

Hymn No. 111—Benediction—Bishop W. Earl Ledden—James R. Houghton ()*

At the close of his message, Bishop W. Earl Ledden announced Hymn 111, "Fairest Lord Jesus, Ruler of All Nature." Under the direction of James R. Houghton (*) (New England—NE), General Conference Director of Music, The General Conference stood, and joined in the singing of this Hymn, after which the Benediction was pronounced by Bishop W. Earl Ledden.

Business Session—Bishop Costen J. Harrell

Bishop Costen J. Harrell, the Presiding Officer, called The General Conference of The Methodist Church to order for the business session of the Tenth Day, morning session, Friday, May 4, 1956.

No. 6—Journal—George W. Carter, Jr.—Adopted

George W. Carter, Jr. (Louisiana—C) submitted Report No. 6 for the Standing Administrative Committee on Journal, and on his motion, duly seconded, it was adopted, as follows:—

Your Committee on the Journal has examined the Journal for Thursday morning session, May 3, 1956, and have found it correct.

Signed, George W. Carter, Jr.

Corrections for The Daily Christian Advocate—Harry O. Ritter ()—Lud H. Estes—D. Stewart Patterson ()

As a matter of high privilege, Harry O. Ritter (Kansas—SC) stated that the words in black-face type on page 443 of the DCA No. 9, bottom of column 3 were not his words, but of someone else.

Clarifying Statement—Lud H. Estes

Lud H. Estes (Memphis—SE), Secretary of The General Conference, stated that the words were inserted by the Editor of The Daily Christian Advocate; that The Daily Christian Advocate is not the Journal of The General Conference, and that the Secretarial Staff has nothing to do with its compilation and publication.

Statement—D. Stewart Patterson (*)

D. Stewart Patterson (*) (Baltimore—NE) as a matter of high privilege asked for the correction of the DCA, No. 9, column 3 which reads as follows:—

“Last night you heard a very effective statement from Chaplain Carpenter, Chief of the Air Chaplains, pleading with the Church, which would do much to minimize the education needed among our young people.”

The correct statement reads:—

“Last night you heard a very effective word from Chaplain Carpenter, Chief of the Air Force Chaplains, pleading with the Church, to do nothing which would minimize the education needed among our young people.”

No. 10—Courtesies and Privileges—Alexander K. Smith

Alexander K. Smith (Philadelphia—NE), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee on Courtesies and Privileges, presented four matters, and action was taken on each, as indicated:—

First—Telegram from Orville L. Freeman ()—Reply Ordered*

Read the following telegram (DB-82) from Governor Orville L. Freeman (*)

M SPB390 PD FAX-St. Paul, Minn. 3 230PMC
D. Stanley Coors, Methodist Bishop for Minnesota
The Methodist Church, 1987 Summit Ave., St. Paul, Minn.

By your action against segregation you have taken a great step forward toward bringing about a closer realization of the principles of Christianity and the ideals of Democracy and have set an example that merits deep and sincere tribute from all who are working toward that end.

(Signed) Orville L. Freeman, Governor

Motion of Alexander K. Smith (Philadelphia—NE), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee on Courtesies and Privileges, duly seconded, prevailed, instructing the Secretary to make appropriate reply.

Second—Bishop Arthur J. Moore—Bishop Ferdinand Sigg

Requested recognition of Bishop Arthur J. Moore for a matter of high privilege.

Bishop Costen J. Harrell, the Presiding Officer, recognized Bishop Arthur J. Moore of the Atlanta Area, Southeastern Jurisdiction, for the presentation of Bishop Ferdinand Sigg of the Geneva Area, Central and Southern Europe Central Conference.

Bishop Arthur J. Moore made the following statement, after which he presented Bishop Ferdinand Sigg to The General Conference.

“Bishop Harrell, Members of The General Conference: This General Conference is aware of the history and the growth of Methodism on the continent of Europe. In both Norway and Switzerland there are soon to be centennial celebrations. Our Church in Europe is organized into three Central Conferences as follows:

The Central Conference of Germany, ably led by Bishop Friedrich Wunderlich.

The Northern European Central Conference, where Bishop Odd Hagen is the beloved leader.

The Southern and Central European Conference, better known to some of us as the Geneva Area. The Conferences in this Area have been for a long time under the supervision of the Bishops, like Bishop Nuelsen, Bishop Peele, and more recently, Bishop Paul N. Garber. All of these have served with fidelity and distinction.

When The General Conference assembled in San Francisco in 1952, it was hoped that Annual Conferences and the Provisional Annual Conferences in Switzerland, Belgium, Austria, Czechoslovakia, Yugoslavia, Hungary, Bulgaria, and North Africa, would be given authority to organize themselves into a Central Conference and to elect one of their number as Bishop. Such authority was granted, provided certain conditions could be met. Acting under this authority, the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference appointed the speaker as Bishop in charge of the Geneva Area, which of course would be in addition to his other responsibilities.

Immediately after this assignment, I proceeded to Europe to give the best service of which I am capable. Frankly, I feel compelled to admit that there were some stubborn problems associated with this assignment. Five of the Annual Conferences were, and still are, behind the Iron Curtain. I am happy to report that through the prayerful and continued support of preachers and people, we were able at last to find a solution for our problems, and I am happy to report this morning—mission accomplished.

In October of 1954, the Delegates elected to form the Central and Southern European Central Conference assembled in Brussels, Belgium. The structure of a Central Conference was firmly established. When the hour fixed for the election of a Bishop arrived, one man stood out as a providential leader for such a task, and for such a time. On the first ballot he received every vote cast save his own.

This brother was for some time Secretary to the late Bishop John L. Nuelsen, and for some years has been the Director and the guiding genius of our Methodist Publishing House in Zurich. He comes to his office, wise in administrative experience, beloved by his fellow Methodists. He is a scholar, a theologian, a pastor, and an able executive. He is, therefore, in every way, I think, worthy and well-qualified and it is my honor now to present to this General Conference Bishop Ferdinand Sigg."

The General Conference stood in applause.

Third—Presented J. Wesley Hole ()*

Requested that J. Wesley Hole (*) (Southern California-Arizona—W), Chairman of the General Conference Entertainment and Program Commission for 1956 be recognized for a privileged statement:—

Bishop Costen J. Harrell, the Presiding Officer, recognized J. Wesley Hole () (Southern California-Arizona—W), Chairman of the General Conference Commission on Entertainment and Program for 1956, who in well chosen words, paid tribute to the work of Miss Blanche Rutledge () Secretary to Aubry S. Moore (Rock River—NC) Secretary of the General Conference Commission on Entertainment, whose untimely death Dec. 12, 1955 caused Miss Rutledge to assume, at the request of the Commission on Entertainment, many of the responsibilities that went with the office of Secretary of The General Conference Commission on Entertainment and Program for the 1956 session of The General Conference; to Norman L. Conrad (California—Nevada—W) who had taken over the responsibilities, at the request of The General Conference Commission on Entertainment and Program for 1956, of looking after the arrangements in the auditorium; and to Fran L. Faber (*) (Minnesota—NC) Chairman of the Local Committee on Entertainment.

Presented—Fran H. Faber ()—Members of Local Committee*

J. Wesley Hole () (Southern California-Arizona—W), Chairman of The General Conference Commission on Entertainment and Program for 1956, next presented Fran H. Faber () (Minnesota—NC), Chairman of the Local Committee on Entertainment, who spoke of the fine co-operation that had been manifested by all concerned in the entertainment of the 1956 session of The General Conference of The Methodist Church, and then presented all the members of The Minnesota 1956 General Conference Committee.

Thanks—Paul V. Galloway—William H. Alderson—Frank E. Baker ()*

J. Wesley Hole () (Southern California-Arizona—W), Chairman of The General Conference Commission on Entertainment and Program for 1956, expressed his deep appreciation for the labors of Paul V. Galloway (Oklahoma—SC), Chairman of the Program Committee; William H. Alderson (New York—NE), Chairman of the Auditorium Committee and also of the Music Committee, and Frank E. Baker () (Philadelphia—NE), Chairman of the Budget and Finance Committee.

Thanks—Bishop Costen J. Harrell

Bishop Costen J. Harrell, the Presiding Officer, in well chosen words expressed the hearty thanks of The General Conference of The Methodist Church to Bishop D. Stanley Coors, resident host Bishop, to Fran H. Faber (*) (Minnesota—NC), Chairman of The Minnesota 1956 General Conference Committee, and through them to each and all who in any way had had a part in the wonderful and efficient preparation for the entertainment of the 1956 session of The General Conference of The Methodist Church.

Announcement—Paul V. Galloway

Paul V. Galloway (Oklahoma—SC), Chairman of the Program Committee of The General Conference Commission on Entertainment and Program for the 1956 session, made an important announcement concerning the session of Saturday night, May 5, 1956, which is being observed as Youth Night under the supervision of the General Board of Education of The Methodist Church.

Fourth—Recognition Service Tonight—Order of the Day

Motion of Alexander K. Smith (Philadelphia—NE), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee on Courtesies and Privileges, duly seconded, prevailed, that the first order of business at the session of tonight be the recognition of Bishop W. Earl Ledden of the Syracuse Area, Northeastern Jurisdiction, and President of The Council of Bishops, to conduct the Recognition Service for those Bishops who are to retire at the approaching session of their respective Jurisdictional Conferences, and of the Members of The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church who retire from membership on The Judicial Council with the close of the 1956 session of The General Conference of The Methodist Church.

No. 8—Credentials—Elmer E. Mathews (*)

Elmer E. Mathews (New Jersey—NE), Chairman of the Committee on Credentials, presented Report No. 8 of the Committee, and moved its adoption and printing without reading. The motion, duly seconded, prevailed. For Report see page 1206.

No. 8—Chairmen—Afternoon Session—A. Wesley Pugh

Motion of A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee of Chairmen, duly seconded, prevailed, that the afternoon session of today convene at 2:30 P.M., have a 10-minute recess at 3:45 P.M. and adjourn at 5 P.M.

Session of Saturday—A. Wesley Pugh

Motion of A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee of Chairmen, duly seconded, prevailed, that Saturday's session, May 5, 1956, begin at 8:30 A.M., with a 20-minute recess at 12 noon, and adjourn at 2:30 P.M. By unanimous common consent this was done, as a previous motion on yesterday set the time of recess at 11 A.M. for Saturday's session, thus avoiding a motion to reconsider the previous action.

No. 9—Chairmen—Order of the Day—A. Wesley Pugh—Report Commission on Structure of Methodism Overseas

Motion of A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee of Chairmen, duly seconded, prevailed, setting as the Order of the Day, following the noon recess on Saturday, May 5, 1956, consideration of and action on the Report of the Commission on the Structure of Methodism Overseas.

No. 10—Chairmen—Sunday Evening Session Official—A. Wesley Pugh

Motion of A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee of Chairmen, duly seconded, prevailed, making the Sunday evening service of May 6, 1956, a regular session of The General Conference of The Methodist Church, with the Order of the Day being the hearing of and action on the Report of the Committee on Courtesies and Privileges on Complimentary Resolutions.

No. 11—Chairmen—Length of Speeches—Number of Speeches—A. Wesley Pugh

On motion of A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee of Chairmen, duly seconded, the following two motions were separately adopted:—

First:—For the remainder of the sessions of The General Conference of The Methodist Church, speeches shall be limited to three minutes, with the Presiding Officer indicating to the speaker when he is within one-half minute of the expiration of his time, this motion not to affect the right of a Chairman presenting a Report, or a member in charge of a Minority Report in the presentation of it.

Second:—Speeches on amendments shall be limited to two on each side of the question, including the speech of the Delegate presenting such amendment.

Reserve Members Judicial Council—Luther W. Wells ()—H. Hughes Wagner—Ben H. Christner—Walter G. Williams—Paul R. Ervin ()—Robert D. Blue ()—Leon E. Hickman ()—Samuel W. Witwer, Jr. (*)

The results of the First Ballot for Reserve Ministerial Members of The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church were read by Luther W. Wells (*) (Virginia—SE), Secretary of Ballots and Tellers, as follows (DB-83):—

Number of votes cast 725; defective 89; good votes 636; necessary to a choice 319.

Ministers:—

H. Hughes Wagner (New England—NE)	366
Ben H. Christner (Colorado—W)	353
Walter G. Williams (Colorado—W)	333

Harry A. Hanson (North India—OS)	317
Ralph Taylor Alton (Wisconsin—NC)	316
John Owen Smith (South Carolina—SE)	284
Cleo C. Sessions (Central Texas—SC)	280
Albert S. Trulock (South Georgia—SE)	275
Everett E. Jackman (Nebraska—SC)	267
Ray Wilson (Detroit—NC)	205
Dallas L. Browning (Indiana—NC)	157

Bishop Costen J. Harrell, the Presiding Officer, announced that H. Hughes Wagner (New England—NE), Ben H. Christner (Colorado—W) and Walter G. Williams (Colorado—W), each having received more than the required number of votes, have been elected Reserve Ministerial Members of The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church, term of office to expire 1964.

Luther W. Wells (*) (Virginia—SE), Secretary of Ballots and Tellers, reported the results of the First Ballot for Lay Reserve Members of The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church, as follows:—

Total number of votes cast 725; void 50; total number of good votes 675; necessary to a choice 338.

Laymen:—

Paul R. Ervin (*) (Western North Carolina—SE)	483
Robert D. Blue (*) (North Iowa—NC)	427
Leon E. Hickman (*) (Pittsburgh—NE)	356
Samuel W. Witwer, Jr. (*) (Rock River—NC)	341
Charles G. Howard (*) (Oregon—W)	325
William G. Brown (*) (Holston—SE)	297
Edward F. McFaddin (*) (Little Rock—SC)	250
Lester C. Cecil (*) (Ohio—NC)	242

Bishop Costen J. Harrell, the Presiding Officer, announced that Paul R. Ervin () (Western North Carolina—SE), Robert D. Blue () (North Iowa—NC), Leon E. Hickman () (Pittsburgh—NE), term of office to expire 1964, and Samuel W. Witwer, Jr. () (Rock River—NC), term of office to expire 1960, each having received more than the required number of votes had been elected Reserve Lay Members of The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church, thus completing the Reserve Lay Membership of The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church.

Second Ballot for Ministerial Reserve Judicial Council Members—Luther W. Wells (*)

Luther W. Wells (*) (Virginia—SE), Secretary of Ballots and Tellers prepared to spread the ballots for taking the Second Ballot for Reserve Ministerial Members of The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church, when questions were raised concerning the election, as follows:—

Question—Olin Y. Shute—Leon T. Moore—Lynn J. Radcliffe—Bishop Costen J. Harrell

Olin Y. Shute (Newark—NE) raised the following question:—

“Mr. Chairman and Members of The Conference: We were instructed last night, I believe erroneously, to elect or vote for five Ministerial Reserves and four Lay Reserves, in spite of the fact that according to the Discipline, Harold H. Hughes and F. Murray Benson and two others listed in the Discipline of 1952, Vincent P. Clarke and Edward G. Mackay, were already Reserves of the Class of 1960.

I do not know whether or not Vincent P. Clarke and Edward G. Mackay are Ministers or Laymen. I do not know also whether they have been deceased or otherwise left The Judicial Council.

The question was whether we needed five more or seven more all together, and how many Ministers and how many Laymen and whether or not we needed to watch the Jurisdictions in this election.

It now appears that we have more members elected to the Reserves than we need. I would like clarification at this time.”

Leon T. Moore Answers

Leon T. Moore (Philadelphia—NE) Secretary-Designate replied, as follows:—

“Mr. Chairman, Members of The Conference: Five Reserve Ministerial Members of The Judicial Council and four Lay Reserve Members is correct. Under your direction, you are to have a total of twelve Reserve Members, six Ministerial and six Lay. There already was one Ministerial Reserve Member and already two Lay Reserve Members. Therefore, you had to elect five Ministerial and four Lay.”

Reply—Bishop Costen J. Harrell

Bishop Costen J. Harrell, the Presiding Officer, made the following statement:—

“Permit the Chairman to interrupt. If the brother who was asking the questions concerning the number of Ministerial and the number of Lay Reserves to be elected will turn to page No. 237 of The Daily Advocate, he will find that on May 1st, action was taken that changes somewhat the law of the Discipline. I think if he will read this section, he will find the answer for all his questions.”

Question—Lynn J. Radcliffe—Answer—Ernest W. Peterson ()*

Lynn J. Radcliffe (Ohio—NC) asked the following question:—

“Mr. Chairman, did we not have the statement made that the top elected were to be for eight years; the others, for four? Could we have that clarified for the record?”

Reply—Ernest W. Peterson ()*

Ernest W. Peterson (*) (Oregon—W), Secretary of

Documents, stated that The General Conference had adopted the motion of Leonard D. Slutz (*) (Ohio—NC) that the first three Ministerial Alternates and the first three Lay Alternates elected, be elected for the eight year terms.

Names Read—Luther W. Wells ()*

Luther W. Wells (*) (Virginia—SE), Secretary of Ballots and Tellers, in order to prevent confusion and to save the time of The General Conference, read the list of eligible Ministerial Nominees, as follows:—

Ralph Taylor Alton (Wisconsin—NC)
Harry A. Hanson (North India—OS)
John Owen Smith (South Carolina—SE)
Cleo C. Sessions (Central Texas—SC)
Albert S. Trulock (South Georgia—SE)
Everett E. Jackman (Nebraska—SC)
Ray Wilson (Detroit—NC)
Dallas L. Browning (Indiana—NC)

The Second Ballot for Reserve Ministerial Members of The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church was spread.

Bishop Costen J. Harrell, the Presiding Officer, declared the ballot to be closed, the votes collected, and the Tellers retired to count the same, under the direction of Luther W. Wells (*) (Virginia—SE), Secretary of Ballots and Tellers.

Matter of High Privilege—Chester A. McPheeters

As a matter of High Privilege for The General Conference, Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) made the following statement:—

“Mr. Chairman and Members of The General Conference: There seemed to be some confusion in the Jurisdictional meetings last night concerning whether it would be possible to nominate and appoint on one of the Quadrennial Commissions someone who belonged to another Agency. We attempted to cover that in a piece of legislation, or rather a Resolution on page 270, DCA.

Bishop Harrell: Let us give attention to this, because I think it will clear up the matter that concerns many of us.

Chester A. McPheeters: There are at least two Quadrennial Commissions authorized in this General Conference, one on the Study of the Jurisdictional System, and the other in connection with the Quadrennial Program. The question arose; therefore, we brought to you on Tuesday a Resolution found now on page 270, DCA. You adopted that Resolution. I would like to read it to you to refresh your minds, that you may see what is possible.”

Adopted Resolution Read—Chester A. McPheeters

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) then read the following Resolution adopted Tuesday morning, May 1, 1956:—

Column 1, near the bottom of the column.

"The restrictions imposed by Par. 1102 do not apply to membership upon the Special Commission established to direct the Educational Emphasis of the Quadrennial Plan nor to any other Special Study Commission that may be appointed at this General Conference charged with reporting to The General Conference of 1960."

No. 11—World Service and Finance—"Recommended Legislation"—Reconsidered—Amendment—Farris F. Moore—Not Adopted—Report Re-adopted

Farris F. Moore (Tennessee—SE) who voted for the adoption of Report No. 11 of the Council on World Service and Finance, moved that Report No. 11 be reconsidered, for the purpose of making an important amendment. The motion to reconsider, being duly seconded, was adopted.

Farris F. Moore (Tennessee—SE) moved to amend Report No. 11 of the Council on World Service and Finance, Subject, "Recommended Legislation," DCA No. 5, page 210, column 3; page 211, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 212, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 213, columns 1, 2 and 3; and page 214, columns 1, 2 and 3, by adding the words, "Provided that this is determined by the Finance Committee of the Local Church." to immediately follow the words, "of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper," found in lines sixteen and seventeen, last paragraph, DCA No. 5, page 214, column 3, so that the paragraph, as amended, will read:—

The General Conference of The Methodist Church recognizes the valuable service rendered through the offerings for "The Fellowship of Suffering and Service" and recommends that it be continued until such time it may be deemed no longer needed; this decision to be made either by a future General Conference, or if between sessions of The General Conference, the decision to be made by a three-fourths vote of The Council of Bishops and the Council on World Service and Finance; each meeting separately. Each local church is requested to transmit to the Conference Treasurer or to the Central Treasury, 740 Rush Street, Chicago 11, Illinois, under the designation of the Fellowship of Suffering and Service ALL of the offering taken on World-wide Communion Sunday and a portion of the offerings taken at subsequent observances of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, PROVIDED, THAT THIS IS DETERMINED BY THE FINANCE COMMITTEE OF THE LOCAL CHURCH. The Central Treasury is authorized to distribute the receipts for the Fellowship of Suffering and Service on the basis of 50% to the Methodist Committee for Overseas Relief, 25% to the Commission on Chaplains, and 25% to the Commission on Camp Activities.

The motion to thus amend, being duly seconded, Farris F. Moore (Tennessee—SE) spoke to the same, as follows:—

"Now, Mr. Chairman, we begin with the World-wide Communion offering with which I am heartily in favor.

Now, in this particular Conference we say a portion of the subsequent offerings taken at the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. In many of the local churches we have been using for charitable enterprises whatever came in these Special Offerings at the Sacrament.

By the time we come to the next General Conference all of these offerings will be asked of us if we are not very careful, and I believe that this is a matter that ought to be determined on the local level as to whether or not an offering is to be received and as to whether or not a portion or portions of it is to be sent to the World Service and Finance Commission to be used here."

D. Stewart Patterson () Against Amendment*

D. Stewart Patterson (*) (Baltimore—NE) spoke against the proposed amendment of Farris F. Moore (Tennessee—SE) as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman, this legislation is in effect a step down from our higher action of The General Conference. If the gentleman will recall, in two prior General Conferences by Resolution the statement was that all or a portion of a subsequent offering on Communion Services were to go to these Agencies.

Now it is stated that only a portion is requested and, of course, the local church determines. But I call your attention to this, Mr. Chairman, that this is the only source of income for two of the important Agencies involved; namely, The Commission on Chaplains and the Commission on Camp Activities and, therefore, it has been the custom for several quadrenniums for the Church to respond this way.

On the subsequent offerings, the legislation only says a portion, but prior to this it has been all or a portion, and I would, therefore, hope very much in the interest of the one source of revenue for the Agencies named that this Resolution may be defeated."

Charles I. Carpenter Against Amendment

Charles I. Carpenter (Peninsula—NE) spoke against the proposed amendment of Farris F. Moore (Tennessee—SE) as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman and Members of The General Conference: This is the only offering you are taking at all to do anything for the work of your young people who are in military service.

The two sources that Mr. Patterson has mentioned, the Chaplains' Commission and the Camp Activities are supported entirely from these contributions, and I hope you will not, as a Church, turn your back on this obligation by taking this out."

Paul M. Hann for Amendment

Paul M. Hann (Iowa-Des Moines—NC) spoke in favor of the proposed amendment of Farris F. Moore (Tennessee—SE), as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman and Members of The General Conference: I also have served as a Chaplain in the Navy Reserve during the Second World War, and I am in favor of helping our young people at every opportunity. However, I am the Pastor of a local church. We know that we handle this matter as we desire in our local church. Let's be realistic about it. Put it in the Discipline, as we are going to do it, rather than passing a wholesale commitment and then going home and doing it as we want to do it.

I support the amendment, and I think we will take care of it in a very fine fashion.

Thank you."

Question—Claude Garrison—Answer—Thomas B. Lugg

Claude Garrison (Ohio—NC) asked the following question, which was answered by Thomas B. Lugg (Illinois—NC), General Secretary and Treasurer of the Council on World Service and Finance,

"I wish to ask a question of the Council on World Service and Finance. Why does such an important work so relevant to the life of our nation and our armed forces, why does this work depend upon a Special Offering rather than to be placed directly in the Budget of our Church where we recognize it as a real responsibility of the Church today?"

Answer—Thomas B. Lugg

"Mr. Chairman, first of all we discovered that there was nothing in the Discipline that set up the Fellowship of Suffering and Service, although we have had this plan since probably 1942 or thereabouts. It has been a sustaining plan for the Commission on Chaplains and the Commission on Camp Activities.

To my knowledge, this is the first time any question has been made concerning the offering. It is purely permissive. It is a request and not a mandate.

The Council on World Service and Finance gave careful consideration to this. They decided they shouldn't ask for all of the offering, but only a portion of it and I believe I speak the sentiment of the Council on World Service and Finance in saying that they would like—that they would disapprove the amendment as it comes to us."

Question—Wiley C. Newman—Statement—Bishop Costen J. Harrell

Wiley C. Newman (Memphis—SE) raised the following question:—

"If this Communion Offering is to be used for activities and Chaplains, my question is, what does it do to our instruction in the Ritual for the Administration of the Lord's Supper saying, 'After the Hymn has been sung, the minister standing by the Lord's Table shall announce the offering for the needy?'"

Statement—Bishop Costen J. Harrell

Bishop Costen J. Harrell, the Presiding Officer, made the following statement:—

"The Brother has asked a question and I suppose the House must be left to answer it by some kind of Resolution, if it is of a mind to do so.

Is this for information? I think we are coming perilously close to argument on this."

Question—Laurence Everett Nye—Answer—Farris F. Moore

Laurence Everett Nye (Oregon—W) asked the following question:

“I have a question to the maker of this motion. Does it apply to World Communion and all other offerings or just all other Communion Offerings? It would make a great deal of difference to us if we could have that clear.”

Answer—Farris F. Moore

Farris F. Moore (Tennessee—SE) answered the question as follows:—

“I would like to answer by saying that I prefaced what I said by saying that I was heartily and wholeheartedly in favor of the World-wide Communion offering and its being turned in for the purpose intended, but I had intended only the matter of these extra offerings that come at other administrations of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper.”

Amendment—Farris F. Moore—Not Adopted

The proposed amendment of Farris F. Moore (Tennessee—SE), on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.

No. 11—World Service and Finance—Re-adopted

Report No. 11 of the Council on World Service and Finance, Subject, “Recommended Legislation,” DCA No. 5, page 210, column 3; page 211, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 212, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 213, columns 1, 2 and 3; and page 214, columns 1, 2 and 3, was re-adopted. For Report see Appendix, page 2030.

Calendar—Charles D. White

The next Order of Business being the consideration of and action on Reports on the Calendar, Charles D. White (Western North Carolina—SE), Calendar Secretary, made the following statement:—

“The original copy of each Committee Report is on the Secretary's desk.

We also have duplicate copies.

I would call your attention to the fact that Calendar Numbers 1, 33, 35, 43, have been adopted; 44 adopted and referred to the Council on World Service and Finance.

Before starting on the Calendar, however, may I ask Dr. A. Wesley Pugh, the Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee of Chairmen to make a statement concerning procedure.”

No. 12—Chairmen—Calendar Procedure—A. Wesley Pugh

A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee of Chairmen, made the following statement:—

“Mr. Chairman and Members of The General Conference: The Committee of Chairmen in a meeting agreed that we would ask you either by motion or by your consent to proceed with the Calendar not by numerical arrangement but ask at the beginning of the consideration of the Calendar anyhow to allow each Chairman in order to have one-half hour, and to select from his Committee Reports such Reports as he felt ought to come first before The General Conference.

If it is possible that a Chairman can complete his entire Calendar within a half-hour, as some say they may, we will then be in the clear for the other Chairmen to follow on with the remainder of their Reports.

The purpose of this, as you can see, is to prevent a log jam toward the end in which some very important matters might be tied up and we would not have time for adequate consideration.

If the Conference would give consent, I should like to ask that this be done.”

Motion of A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee of Chairmen, duly seconded, prevailed, adopting the above procedure for the consideration of and action on the Calendar.

No. 1—Education—“General and Annual Conference Television, Radio and Film Commissions”—J. Earl Moreland (*) Amended—Adopted

J. Earl Moreland (*) (Virginia—SE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Education, was recognized by Bishop Costen J. Harrell, the Presiding Officer, for the presentation of Reports from the Committee. J. Bullock (Mississippi—SE), General Secretary of the Editorial Division of the General Board of Education of The Methodist Church.

J. Earl Moreland (*) (Virginia—SE) presented Report

No. 1 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Education, Calendar No. 19, Subject, "General and Annual Conference Television, Radio and Film Commissions," DCA No. 5, page 190, columns 2 and 3, explaining briefly Report No. 1 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Education, stating that by the action of The General Conference, in the adoption of Report No. 2 of the Co-ordinating Council, Subject, "General Agency Membership," DCA No. 3, page 112, column 1, the membership of the various General Boards and Agencies of The Methodist Church were to remain numerically the same as set forth by The General Conference of 1952 of The Methodist Church, and asked common consent to delete the proposed legislation as set forth in Paragraph 1590.2, DCA No. 5, page 190, columns 2 and 3 and which reads as follows:—

Subject, "General and Annual Conference Television, Radio and Film Commissions,"

In Paragraph 1590. 2. after the words shall be delete constituted from and. In line 2 change from to by. In line 3 change from to by. In line 6 change from (in two places) to by. After Board of Education insert a comma and the words including one for each of the three Divisions of the Board. After The Methodist Publishing House in line 7 insert two by the Board of Evangelism. After each in the same line change from to by. In line 8 delete Board of Evangelism, the. After Pensions in line 12 insert the Commission on Promotion and Cultivation. After one in line 13 insert Minister and one Layman. After Jurisdiction in the same line delete elected by the College of Bishops of that Jurisdiction and substitute elected by their respective Jurisdictional Conferences. Add a new sentence at the end of the section as follows: Vacancies that occur during the quadrennium in the representation of the Jurisdictions shall be filled by the Commission.

Section 2 as amended will read as follows:

2. The membership shall be elected by the following Agencies: two members by The Council of Bishops; three by the Board of Missions, including the two General Secretaries of the Joint Section of Education and Cultivation and one other elected by the Board; three by the Board of Education, including one for each of the three Divisions of the Board; two by The Methodist Publishing House, two by the Board of Evangelism; and one each by the Board of Hospitals and Homes, the Board of Lay Activities, the Board of World Peace, the Board of Temperance, the Board of Social and Economic Relations, the Commission on Public Relations and Methodist Information, the Board of Pensions, the Commission on Promotion and Cultivation, and the American Bible Society; one Minister and one Layman from each Jurisdiction elected by their respective Jurisdictional Conferences, and five members at large elected by the Commission. Vacancies that occur during the quadrennium in the representation of the Jurisdictions shall be filled by the Commission.

By common consent of The General Conference the above deletion was made.

On motion of J. Earl Moreland (*) (Virginia—SE),

Chairman of the Standing Committee on Education, Report No. 1 of the Committee, as amended, was adopted. For Report see Appendix, page 1440.

No. 2—Education—“Legislation Relating to the Division of Educational Institutions”—J. Earl Moreland ()—Amended—Roy R. Roudebush ()—Mack B. Stokes—John O. Gross—William R. Cannon—Norman L. Trott—R. Franklin Thompson

J. Earl Moreland (*) (Virginia—SE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Education, presented Report No. 2 of the Committee, Calendar No. 29, Subject, “Legislation Relating to the Division of Educational Institutions,” DCA No. 5, page 193, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 194, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 195, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 196, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 197, columns 1, 2 and 3, succinctly explaining Report No. 2, and moved its adoption. The motion to adopt was duly seconded.

Amendment—Roy R. Roudebush ()—Accepted—J. Earl Moreland ()

Roy R. Roudebush (*) (North Indiana—NC) moved to amend Report No. 2 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Education, DCA No. 5, page 195, column 3 (DB-84), Paragraph 1370 by deleting the word “shall” found in lines twenty-six and forty-eight, and substituting therefor the word “may,” making the action permissive rather than mandatory, so that Paragraph 1370, as amended, will read as follows:—

In the first sentence of Par. 1370 after “a given state” insert or region; at the end of the same sentence delete in the state. In the second sentence of Par. 1370 delete Section of Secondary and Higher Education and insert Division of Educational Institutions. Add this sentence: The Inter-Conference Commission MAY elect a State or Regional Director of Student work whose duties and responsibilities shall be determined by the Commission in co-operation with the Executive Secretaries of the Annual Conference Boards of Education involved.

Par. 1370 as amended will read as follows:—

Par. 1370. The Boards of Education of the Annual Conferences of a given State or Region shall create at the beginning of each quadrennium an Inter-Conference Commission on Student Religious Work to co-ordinate all Inter-Collegiate Work of the Methodist Student Movement and to give general oversight to student work at the institutions of higher learning. It shall have such powers and responsibilities as the Conference Boards of Education, in consultation with the Division of Educational Institutions shall delegate to it. The Inter-Conference Commission MAY elect a State or Regional Director of Student Work whose duties and responsibilities shall be determined by the Commis- sion in co-operation with the Executive Secretaries of the Annual Conference Boards of Education involved.

J. Earl Moreland () (Virginia—SE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Education, stated at first that he could not accept the proposed amendment of Roy R. Roudebush () (North Indiana—NC), but that after consultation with the members of the Standing Legislative Committee on Education on the platform he would accept the proposed amendment of Roy R. Roudebush () (North Indiana—NC) if there was no objection raised by any member of the Standing Committee on Education, or by any member of The General Conference. No objection being raised by anyone, the proposed amendment of Roy R. Roudebush () (North Indiana—NC) was accepted.

Question—Mack B. Stokes—Reply—J. Earl Moreland ()*
—Amendment—Mack B. Stokes

Mack B. Stokes (Holston—SE) asked the following question concerning the meaning of Paragraph 1376, section 2, DCA No. 5, page 197, column 1:—

“I should like to ask the Chairman of this Committee if there is any further statement concerning this Paragraph that the Committee would like to make to this group?”

Answer—J. Earl Moreland ()*

J. Earl Moreland (*) (Virginia—SE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Education, answered, as follows:—

“I believe that the matter is before us clearly, Mr. Chairman, as set forth. It was our thought that there should be provision, as it is explained in Paragraph 1 at the top of page 197, that we should clarify the ways whereby In-Service Training could be given. And we think this is clarified.

May I read part of that, if you would care to have that?”

Amendment—Mack B. Stokes—Substitute, Norman L. Trott, Accepted

Mack B. Stokes (Holston—SE) moved to amend (DB-85) Paragraph 1376, Section 2, DCA No. 5, page 197, column 1, as follows:—

“I move that we amend the Paragraph in such a way as to retain the current legislation of the 1952 Discipline in Paragraph 1376, Section 2, which states that the Correspondence Work of the Church shall be related (as specified) to one or more of our established Schools of Theology.”

J. Earl Moreland (*) (Virginia—SE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Education, stated that the Committee could not accept the proposed amendment of Mack B. Stokes (Holston—SE)

The proposed amendment of Mack B. Stokes (Holston—SE) being duly seconded, Mack B. Stokes (Holston—SE) spoke to same as follows:—

"First of all, the problem that is here involved is the problem of authorizing a kind of legislation which would remove the Correspondence Courses from any connection with Theological Schools, which has historically been maintained.

First, I think it is important for The General Conference to know that this is the possibility that is involved. It is not inevitable, but it is a possibility. The proposed changes in The Daily Advocate, page 197, to which I referred, could as I say, remove all of these Schools from historic association with the Schools of Theology in The Methodist Church.

I should like to urge that this connection between the Correspondence Schools—the Correspondence Courses—and our Schools of Theology ought not to be broken. At best, Members of The Conference, Correspondence Courses are probably the poorest form of education and they need all the academic support that we can give them. They ought to be taken under the Department of Ministerial Training, of course, but in connection with a School of Theology or with a number of Schools of Theology. This gives the work prestige. It makes possible efficient administration and academically qualified graders of papers.

As it now is, this Correspondence work is subject not only to the Department of Ministerial Education, it is also subject to the review of qualified Theological faculties. This is not the time, in my judgment, to lower our standards regarding the educational qualifications of the Ministry.

There is another thing here. It is possible for the present connection with Theological Schools to be retained, in keeping with the proposed change here as recorded in The Daily Advocate, but there is no directive in it.

I strongly regret to see a proposed change in the current Discipline which could involve far-reaching consequences, without any statement spelling out what is involved here. Some years ago I heard the story about the young lady who complained because the fellows never paid any attention to her. She was complaining to her aunt and her aunt said, 'Now, listen, Mary, you quit complaining. There is a boy for every girl and a girl for every boy, and you can't improve on that.'

She said, 'I don't want to improve on it. I just want to get in on it!'

What we want to do is to get in on the democratic procedure of which we all approve. I should like, therefore, to amend this portion of the Report to retain the present statement in the Discipline, Paragraph 1376, Section 2, pertaining to Theological Schools.

Thank you."

Reply—J. Earl Moreland ()*

J. Earl Moreland (*) (Virginia—SE), Chairman of the Standing Committee on Education, replied as follows:—

"May I say that after careful study of this Area, and careful and not inconsiderable debate in the Committee, that the plan we recom-ment we feel is the wiser plan. I may say we are returning to the plan in which this was carried forward, many, many years before we had it in the way to which reference is now made.

I should like Dr. Gross of the Division of the Board of Education to make a statement on this."

Statement—John O. Gross

John O. Gross (Kentucky—SE), General Secretary of the Division of Educational Institutions of The Methodist Church, made the following statement:—

"Mr. Chairman, Members of The Conference: This matter is an administrative matter that is before the section on Ministerial Education. A very competent Commission consisted of Dr. Claude Garrison, of this General Conference, Dr. Donald Maynard of Boston University School of Theology, and Dr. Charles C. Grimes, Southern Methodist University. These men made a study of the procedures and decided that the administration of Correspondence Work should be vested in the office of the Director of In-Service Training.

Furthermore, it was the feeling that the distribution of the papers, and so on, should be given a wider stretch than in two Seminaries, reaching into all the Seminaries, perhaps, of the Church who desired to handle some of this work.

It was further felt in connection with this that the administrative matter which was presented by the Committee's Report was too long to try to be spelled out in the Discipline itself. This short, concise statement vests in the decision of the Department of Ministerial Administration full responsibility for operating the Correspondence Work. Furthermore, it will make possible the necessary carrying through of the exact intent, as expressed by Dr. Stokes, in the former Discipline.

Furthermore, in this connection, we do not hesitate to say that we are trying to move as far away from Correspondence Work as we can, putting the emphasis upon approved Pastor Supply Schools to operate where men go to school, rather than to work by Correspondence."

Questions—William R. Cannon—Answers—John O. Gross

William R. Cannon (North Georgia—SE), Dean of the Candler School of Theology, Emory University, asked a series of questions of John O. Gross (Kentucky—SE), General Secretary of the Department of Educational Institutions of the General Board of Education of The Methodist Church, which were answered as follows:—

"The first question is, will all of the 10 Seminaries of Methodism participate in this new arrangement so that the papers will be graded entirely by theological professors?

John O. Gross: The answer is that the papers will be graded by theological professors.

William R. Cannon: Will all 10 Seminaries participate on an equitable basis?

John O. Gross: That is an administrative matter that cannot be answered categorically.

William R. Cannon: Will the papers be mailed directly to the professors and returned directly, or must they be processed through Nashville, which will entail several mailings, adding extraordinary expense to the Church?

John O. Gross: That is again an administrative matter on which I do not have details.

William R. Cannon: Will the theological professors participate in the Standards laid down in this form of education, or will those Standards be arranged through the Department of In-Service-Training in Nashville?

John O. Gross: The Department of Ministerial Education has on it representatives from the Theological Schools who participate in the working out of the details of that Department. There is no limitation on the Agenda that comes to that particular group except the limitation that is imposed in connection with the findings of the institutions themselves.

William R. Cannon: Were these theological representatives in the group consulted when this was done, when these plans were made? Do we have a blueprint of the plans?

J. Earl Moreland: Yes, they were consulted.

William R. Cannon: I was one of the six, I believe, and I have not yet seen the plan.

John O. Gross: Mr. Chairman, the plan was presented for the organization of the Program at the 1955 session of the Board of Education, presented in mimeographed form by a Committee, which I have just mentioned. The details of the administration have not been presented to the Board of Education for the reason they were not completed until after the meeting of the Board in January, 1956.

I repeat, a Member of this General Conference, Dr. Claude Garrison, was a member of the Committee that prepared the administrative procedures."

For Amendment—William R. Cannon

William R. Cannon (North Georgia—SE) spoke in favor of the amendment proposed by Mack B. Stokes (Holston—SE), as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman, I have finished my questions, but may I make one statement in support of Dr. Stokes' amendment. The statement is simply this: that I do not believe The General Conference should ever be called upon to pass loop-hole legislation. This changes not the administration alone, but the whole policy of this form of education. We have had it connected with the School of Theology since unification. In the old Southern Church it has been connected with Schools of Theology for 40 years.

Now, I am not asking that for Emory alone. I want that clearly understood. I would insist that all 10 Seminaries participate in it. However, I do urge that the Theological Schools be responsible for this and not an Agency of the Church, which cannot deal with the administrative and academic procedures of Ministerial Education."

Closes Debate—J. Earl Moreland ()*

J. Earl Moreland (*) (Virginia—SE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Education, made the closing statement for the Committee, as follows:—

“I would like to make a statement before we take the vote. We believe this is a very wise procedure. It will allow participation as was indicated by Dean Cannon of all 10 Seminaries, and will not be restricted to one or two Seminaries.

Moreover, we believe it is important for this General Conference to know that this assists us immeasurably in the proper continued administration of this vitally important Program.

Therefore it is a closely co-operative procedure between the Department of Ministerial Education, of the Board of Education, and the Seminaries. We hope you will sustain it.”

Substitute to Amendment—Norman L. Trott—Accepted—J. Earl Moreland ()*

Norman L. Trott (Baltimore—NE) moved as a substitute for the proposed amendment of Mack B. Stokes (Holston—SE) the following (DB—86):—

“Amend Paragraph 1376, Section 2, DCA No. 5, page 197, column 1, by adding the words, “IN CO-OPERATION WITH THE METHODIST THEOLOGICAL SCHOOLS,” to follow the words, “school or through correspondence,” found in lines thirty-eight and fifty-nine, DCA No. 5, page 197, column 1, so that the amended Paragraph 1376 will read as follows:—

In the first sentence of sub-paragraph 1 of Par. 1376 change Section to Department; delete in the field of In-Service Training. In the second sentence delete Short-term Schools for Ministers, which shall be known as; after “Pastors’ Schools” delete the period and insert which shall be of two kinds: a. Short-term Schools to provide Programs of inspiration and; after “instruction for all Ministers” delete and where advisable shall; insert a semi-colon and b. Schools which; after “offer work in the” delete curriculum of the; after “Courses of Study” insert a period and delete for Undergraduate and Approved Supply Pastors. Delete Within an Annual Conference the administration of these Courses of Study, which shall require extensive written work in addition to instruction in a Pastors’ School, shall be under the supervision of the Conference Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications.

Delete the entire sub-paragraph 2 of Par. 1376 and substitute the following: 2 All work in the Course of Study for those admitted under Paragraph 321, Sub-paragraph 3, and Paragraph 323, Sub-Paragraph 2 and for administering the Sacraments under the provisions of Paragraph 308, shall be taken under the direction of the Department of Ministerial Education either in an Approved Pastors’ School or through correspondence IN CO-OPERATION WITH THE METHODIST THEOLOGICAL SCHOOLS.

Par. 1376 as amended will read:

Par. 1376. 1. The Department shall have a direct relationship with the Conference Boards of Ministerial Training and Qualifications. (See Par. 639-42. It shall co-operate with these and other Conference Boards in organizing, financing, and conducting Pastors’ Schools which shall be of two kinds: a. Short-term Schools to provide Programs of inspiration and instruction for all Ministers; b. Schools which offer work in the Courses of Study.

2. All work in the Course of Study for those admitted under Paragraph 321, Sub-paragraph 3, and Paragraph 323, Sub-paragraph 3, and for Administering the Sacraments under the provisions of Paragraph 308, shall be taken under the direction of the Department of Ministerial Education in either an approved Pastors' School or through correspondence IN CO-OPERATION WITH THE METHODIST THEOLOGICAL SCHOOLS.

Amendment Accepted—J. Earl Moreland ()*

J. Earl Moreland (*) (Virginia—SE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Education, stated the Committee would accept the substitute, if there was no objection from any members of the Standing Legislative Committee on Education, or from any member of The General Conference. There was no objection raised.

Statements—Mack B. Stokes—William R. Cannon—Bishop Costen J. Harrell—Norman L. Trott

The following statements were made, in also accepting the proposed substitute of Norman L. Trott (Baltimore—NE) :—

By Mack B. Stokes (Holston—SE) :—

"Mr. Chairman, I do not want to accept anything that would leave it so that the association would be merely that of faculty members being on it. I think there needs to be some local supervision in connection with the Theological Seminaries, all 10 of them. If that thought is included in Dr. Trott's substitute then I should accept it. Otherwise I have in mind something a little bit different.

Bishop Harrell: Dr. Trott, is that idea included in your Amendment?

Norman L. Trott: That is definitely what I had in mind.

Mack B. Stokes: If that is the sense of the substitute I accept it, sir.

Bishop Harrell: It is accepted and becomes part of the amendment."

By William R. Cannon (North Georgia—SE) :—

"I join Dr. Stokes in saying that we gladly and graciously accept that. That is exactly what we want. It brings the Theological Schools into the picture."

Resolution—R. Franklin Thompson—Ruling—Bishop Costen J. Harrell, A Separate Matter

R. Franklin Thompson (Pacific Northwest—W) requested to further amend Report No. 2 of the Standing Committee on Education by the inclusion of a Resolution expressing the appreciation of The General Conference of The Methodist Church to the Ford Foundation for their gifts to Methodist colleges and universities.

Ruling—Bishop Costen J. Harrell

Bishop Costen J. Harrell, the Presiding Officer, ruled, as follows:—

“I think that is a separate matter. If you will let us clear this I will recognize you then.”

No. 2—Education—Adopted

Report No. 2 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Education, as amended, Calendar No. 29, Subject, “Legislation Pertaining to the Division of Educational Institutions,” DCA No. 5, page 193, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 193, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 195, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 196, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 197, columns 1, 2 and 3 was adopted. For Report see Appendix, page 1442.

Resolution Re Ford Foundation—R. Franklin Thompson—Adopted

Motion of R. Franklin Thompson (Pacific Northwest—W), duly seconded, prevailed, adopting the following Resolution concerning the Ford Foundation (DB-87) :—

RESOLUTION OF APPRECIATION TO THE FORD FOUNDATION

Inasmuch as Methodism was born in historic Oxford University,

Inasmuch as Methodism has founded and nurtured one hundred sixteen existing Colleges and Universities, and

Inasmuch as The Ford Foundation has given these Methodist Colleges and Universities over twenty-five million dollars ($25,000,000.00) as a part of its generous and historic philanthropies Program,

Therefore Be It Resolved, That The General Conference of The Methodist Church, meeting in Minneapolis, Minnesota, this 4th day of May, 1956, express to The Ford Foundation its deep and profound gratitude for this statesmanlike stewardship to the educational challenge of the age.

(Signed) R. Franklin Thompson

No. 3—Education—“Section of the Episcopal Address Dealing With Education”—J. Earl Moreland (*)—Adopted

J. Earl Moreland (*) (Virginia—SE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Education, presented Report No. 3 of the Committee, Calendar No. 37, Subject, “Section of the Episcopal Address Dealing With Education,” DCA No. 6, page 237, column 1, and on his motion, duly seconded, Report No. 3 of the Standing Committee on Education was adopted. For Report see Appendix, page 1461.

Question—The Judicial Council—Bishop Costen J. Harrell

Bishop Costen J. Harrell, the Presiding Officer, stated that the Second Ballot for Ministerial Reserve Members of

The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church had resulted in "No election," and inquired if The General Conference desired to take another ballot now or wait until after recess, which was imminent.

Extend Time for Another Ballot—Embree H. Blackard—Adopted

Motion of Embree H. Blackard (Western North Carolina—SE), duly seconded, prevailed that the time be extended for the taking of the Third Ballot for Reserve Ministerial Members of The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church.

Results Second Ballot for Ministerial Reserves—Luther W. Wells (*)

Luther W. Wells (*) (Virginia—SE), Secretary of Ballots and Tellers read the results of the Second Ballot for Ministerial Reserve Members of The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church, as follows:—

Question—Donald T. Strong (*)—Ruling—Bishop Costen J. Harrell

Donald T. Strong (*) (Michigan—NC) made the following motion:—

"Mr. Chairman, I move that the Rule regarding majority vote as contained in Paragraph 901, 1956 Discipline, Article 2 be suspended, and that we cast one more ballot, and the two Ministers receiving the highest number of votes be declared elected."

Ruling—Bishop Costen J. Harrell

Bishop Costen J. Harrell, the Presiding Officer, ruled as follows:—

"I do not think that is in order. I think in an election of this kind we have to have a genuine election, and cannot use that kind of device."

Third Ballot for Ministerial Reserves The Judicial Council
—Luther W. Wells (*)

Under the direction of Luther W. Wells () (Virginia—SE), Secretary of Ballots and Tellers, the Third Ballot for the two remaining Ministerial Members of The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church, was spread. Bishop Costen J. Harrell, the Presiding Officer, declared the ballot to be closed. The Tellers collected the votes and retired to count the same, under the direction of Luther W. Wells () (Virginia—SE), Secretary of Ballots and Tellers.

Recess

Bishop Costen J. Harrell, the Presiding Officer, declared The General Conference to be in Recess, the hour of recess having arrived.

Reconvene—Bishop Costen J. Harrell

At the conclusion of the Recess period, Bishop Costen J. The proposed amendment of Frederick E. Maser (Philadelphia—NE) on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.

No. 3 Presented—"Bishops Elected By Central Conferences"
—Frank W. Bevan

2nd. Frank W. Bevan (Troy—NE) presented Paragraph 4 of Section II, DCA No. 5, page 203, column 1, Subject, "Bishops Elected By Central Conferences," of Report No. 3 of the Council on World Service and Finance, which reads as follows:—

4. Travel of any Bishop elected by a Central Conference coming to the United States for an official meeting shall be reimbursed for travel expenses to the seat of the meeting and return, and his expenses in the United States shall be paid for not more than one week previous to the official meeting and for not more than one week following the adjournment of the official meeting. Bishops wishing to stay in the United States for a longer period for cultivation purposes may make such arrangements with the Board of Missions.

Frank W. Bevan (Troy—NE) then made the following statement:—

"Referred to the Council also was paragraph 4, under Section 2, Bishops Elected By Central Conferences, which you will find in the first column on page 203.

The Council on World Service and Finance reaffirms its position as stated in paragraph 4, under Section 2.

However, it should be stated to The General Conference that as heretofore, as has been the practice of the Council under the Budget for the Episcopal Fund, that the Council will give consideration as it has always done to unusual circumstances or to hardship cases."

Amendment—Lester W. Auman—Not Adopted

Lester W. Auman (New York East—NE) moved to amend Paragraph 4 of Section II of Report No. 3 of the Council on World Service and Finance, Subject, "Bishops Elected by Central Conferences," DCA No. 5, page 203, column 1, by deleting the words "one week" in lines seven and nine of said Section 4, and substituting therefor the words "two weeks," so that the amended Section 4 will read (DB-91):—

4. Travel of any Bishop elected by a Central Conference coming to the United States for an official meeting shall be reimbursed for travel expenses to the seat of the meeting and return, and his expenses in the United States shall be paid for not more than two weeks previous to the official meeting and for not more than two weeks following the adjournment of the official meeting. Bishops wishing to stay in the United States for a longer period for cultivation purposes may make such arrangements with the Board of Missions.

The motion to thus amend, being duly seconded, Lester W. Auman (New York East—NE) spoke to the same as follows:—

"I think this extra week that we are asking for these Central Conference Bishops may be very well used. Bishop Mondol in 1928 came to America as a young Delegate to The General Conference. He spoke in my church and made such an impression that the church gave him a Ford car for his work. Ever since that day, twenty-eight years ago, that church has supported the work of India under Bishop Mondol from $600 to $1000 a year—each year.

I feel that these Bishops in this extra time that they have, can lay the foundation for greatly increasing the funds for our Overseas work. Of course, they can work through the Board of Missions as is stated here, but the point is that if it is only a week or two, that is hardly enough time to do anything, make any arrangement with the Board of Missions.

When they do speak, they are not likely to receive hundred dollar honorariums, but more likely $10 or $15. I certainly and sincerely hope that this amendment to keep this two weeks instead of one week, will prevail."

For Amendment—Lynn J. Radcliffe

Lynn J. Radcliffe (Ohio—NC) spoke in favor of the proposed amendment of Lester W. Auman (New York East—NE), as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman, there is more than a financial consideration here. There is again a principle. We are a world Church and when these Central Conference Bishops come here, this slight courtesy should be afforded them. To say that they can have only one week in the United States—by the time they cross the continent and get to their meeting, and one week afterwards, hurrying them in and hurrying them out, is certainly not the type of courtesy which we should afford to the dignity of Bishops of the Central Conferences representing world Methodism."

Closes Debate—Frank W. Bevan

Frank W. Bevan (Troy—NE) closed the debate on Section 4 of Report No. 3 of the Council on World Service and Finance, as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman, Members of the Conference: It is understood, of course, that Bishops elected by the Central Conferences are not hurried out of the United States. As far as the Council on World Service and Finance is concerned, they can stay one week, two weeks, three weeks, four weeks, or five weeks. It does not make any difference to us. What we are concerned about is the fact that when they stay, their length of stay shall not be a charge against the Episcopal Fund. If they wish to stay for cultivation and do the kind of work that Brother Auman speaks about, then of course their schedule is set up by the Board of Missions, and that is all to the good.

What we are concerned about here, is that the Bishops elected by Central Conferences and all other Bishops shall be constantly reminded that we pay the bills through the Episcopal Fund. We have no intention whatsoever to make of the Central Conference Bishops a class other than real Bishops in The Methodist Church. We think this is a fair arrangement. We believe it is just and fair not only to the Bishops, but also to the Church at large.

This matter of honorarium for a Bishop from Overseas is a rather complicated thing. The reference that was made to a Bishop who flew from one city to another, received an honorarium of $15, is an interesting story which has been discussed in The Council of Bishops. It is not as it appears to be, to The General Conference. These are matters that are discussed within the Council, and we do not think that they are matters that ought to be discussed in detail before The General Conference.

However, this is a more interesting and more significant problem than The General Conference is aware of. We believe that this recommendation is fair and just to everybody concerned."

Questions—Edward W. Foote—Answers—Frank W. Bevan

Edward W. Foote (Minnesota—NC) asked a series of questions which were answered by Frank W. Bevan (Troy—NE) as follows:—

"I have a point of information. May I ask for information regarding the relationship of this item No. 4 on page 203, as related to the item No. 10 on 202; the wording is a bit different but the expense item is not limited there for Bishops moving from the United States to other Areas of Methodism, across the world, for conferences or official meetings.

Is there any reference or any understanding of limitation that moves from west-to-east or east-to-west?

Frank W. Bevan: Yes, there is a very definite understanding with each member of The Council of Bishops that the Episcopal Fund not pay for side trips that are sightseeing, or have family connections, or just of pure personal interest. Well, when Bishops go from the United States Overseas, they are on a very tight schedule. They go by the shortest route. They return by the shortest route, as far as the Episcopal Fund is concerned.

Edward W. Foote: Mr. Chairman, I think that answers in part, but I am wondering on the time limitation. We have specified one week, and now an amendment for two weeks before and after. Is that time lapse also in the picture as far as our Council is concerned, from the Jurisdictions to the other countries?

Frank W. Bevan: In actual practice it is, sir.

Edward W. Foote: But it is a general understanding; it is not a specific ruling of The General Conference as this item, No. 4 on page 203?

Frank W. Bevan: That is right, sir. We have not spelled it out.

Edward W. Foote: Thank you."

Further Information Sought—Orris G. Robinson—Answers—Frank W. Bevan—Thomas B. Lugg

Orris G. Robinson (Baltimore—NE) asked for further information. The answers were given by Frank W. Bevan (Troy—NE) and Thomas B. Lugg (Illinois—NC), General Secretary of the Council on World Service and Finance, as follows:—

“My question is one of information for The General Conference. Could you tell us what the average salary of the Central Conferences Bishops is?”

Frank W. Bevan: I think, Mr. Chairman, that Dr. Lugg has that information. The Budgets for the Central Conferences are set up by the Central Conferences. The Episcopal Fund makes a contribution to their Budget as they request it, and as it is determined by the Council.

However, I will ask Dr. Lugg to speak to that. That is a technical matter.

Thomas B. Lugg: (Illinois, NC): Mr. Chairman, the salaries for Bishops elected by Central Conferences are essentially determined by the Central Conference. The Central Conference sets up a Committee on Episcopacy. The Committee on Episcopacy reports to the Central Conference its recommendation for salary, house rent, travel, office expense, and so on.

That Budget is set up and sent to the Council on World Service and Finance, and so far as my memory goes, on immediate notice, each recommendation has been accepted over the past eight to twelve years. I think that perhaps twelve years ago there was a slight change, but since then the recommendation of the Central Conference has been accepted.

Now, they vary quite greatly, depending on the part of the country, depending on the strength of The Methodist Church they are in. Any average would not tell the story at all, because it is all relevant.

Orris G. Robinson: Mr. Chairman, that is not answering my question. What is the range, then? We will put it any way you want to so we can get an idea how much salary these men are getting. I know of one whose salary is $2200.

Thomas B. Lugg: I don't have those facts here before me, at the moment, but I think that was four or eight years ago that he had that salary. If you are talking about a Bishop in the Central Conference, I think the salary is the lowest—it is $3,000—for cash.

Further Information Requested—Chester A. Smith ()—
Given—Frank W. Bevan*

Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) asked for further information which was given by Frank Bevan (Troy—NE) as follows:—

“First, what control does the Church have through your Council over the visits by the Bishops abroad? I notice a great many of them go abroad. What control do you have over that; do you have any control there?”

Frank W. Bevan: I think, Mr. Chairman, if I am not mistaken, Members of the Conference, that the overseas trips by Bishops elected by the Jurisdictional Conferences, is determined by The Council of Bishops.

Chester A. Smith: The second question Mr. Chairman, is our balance in the Episcopal Fund, which would be used with reference to this matter particularly, the sum of one million dollars?

Frank W. Bevan: The balance, the surplus in the Episcopal Fund, is somewhere in the neighborhood of $700,000.

The 2 per cent that we voted will not meet the Episcopal Budget for the quadrennium as it has been set up. In order to meet the Budget, we will have to use part of the surplus; and the surplus that we have, as you understand, is a working balance that we must have in order to meet the contingencies that arise from time to time."

Previous Question—B. B. Black—Ordered

On motion of B. B. Black (South Carolina—SE), duly seconded, the Previous Question was ordered in all matters pending in relation to the consideration of and action on Report No. 3 of the Council on World Service and Finance, by more than the required two-thirds majority vote of The General Conference.

Amendment—Lester W. Auman—Not Adopted

The proposed amendment of Lester W. Auman (New York East—NE), on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.

Section II, No. 3—Adopted

The recommendation of the Council on World Service and Finance, paragraph 4 of Section II of Report No. 3 of the Council on World Service and Finance, Subject, "Bishops Elected by Central Conferences," DCA No. 5, page 203, column 1, on motion of Frank W. Bevan (Troy—NE), duly seconded, was adopted as follows:—

4. Travel of any Bishop elected by a Central Conference coming to the United States for an official meeting shall be reimbursed for travel expenses to the seat of the meeting and return, and his expenses in the United States shall be paid for not more than one week previous to the official meeting and for not more than one week following the adjournment of the official meeting. Bishops wishing to stay in the United States for a longer period for cultivation purposes may make such arrangements with the Board of Missions.

No. 3—World Service and Finance—"The Episcopal Fund"—Adopted

Report No. 3 of the Council on World Service and Finance, Subject, "The Episcopal Fund," DCA No. 5, page 201, column 3; page 202, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 203, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 204, columns 1, 2 and 3; and page 205, columns 1 and 2, on motion of Frank W. Bevan (Troy—NE), duly seconded, was adopted as a whole. For Report see Appendix, page 1998.

No. 14—Chairmen—Statement—A. Wesley Pugh

A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee of Chairmen, made the following statement:—

“Mr. Chairman and Members of The Conference: I think you begin to see why the Committee on Chairmen could not recommend an earlier adjournment time than we have recommended. It is certainly up to this Conference to move the business along, if you do not expect our concluding session, our morning session on Monday, to end up by midnight on Monday.

Therefore I believe that we should be conscious of this and without undue haste move the business along. When we come to some of these Amendments, which should not require very much debate, we know the way by which to bring The Conference at the time to the vote.”

Amendment to Rules—Everett W. Palmer—A. Wesley Pugh —Not Adopted

Everett W. Palmer (Southern California-Arizona—W) moved to amend the procedure on debate as follows:—

“Since debate on each question is limited to four speakers, that after two speakers have spoken from the front half of the auditorium, two speakers from the back half of the auditorium be permitted to speak, if there are Delegates in the section who desire to speak.”

The motion to thus amend the procedure of debate, being duly seconded, Everett W. Palmer (Southern California-Arizona—W) spoke to the same, as follows:—

“Mr. Chairman, this is a condition which has obtained throughout the entire Conference. It is no reflection upon any Presiding Officer. Unless the Presiding Officer is equipped with unusual vision or some aid to vision the Delegates in the last half of the auditorium do not have the opportunity always to get the floor. I hope we will support this motion.”

Against Amending Procedure on Debate—A. Wesley Pugh

A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee of Chairmen, spoke against the proposed amendment of Everett W. Palmer (Southern California-Arizona—W) as follows:—

“Mr. Chairman, in the first place I think the Delegate who just spoke made an error in the statement he made. Our motion did not limit debate on every subject to four speeches. It limited debate on Amendments to four speeches, not on the main question.

Further, it would seem to me that we ought to hold to our Rules that we have established. Our Presiding Officers are eminently fair. I have been in the back row most of the time and I have seen a good many people get recognition back there. I think we are all right.”

Amendment—Everett W. Palmer—Not Adopted

The proposed amendment of Everett W. Palmer (Southern California-Arizona—W) to the Rules of debate, on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.

Calendar Resumed—Charles D. White—Lay Activities—Ray H. Nichols (*)

Under the direction of Charles D. White (Western North Carolina—SE), Calendar Secretary, consideration of and action on Reports on the Calendar was resumed.

No. 1—Lay Activities—Ray H. Nichols (*)—“District Board of Lay Activities”—Adopted

Ray H. Nichols (*) (Northwest Texas—SC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Lay Activities, presented Report No. 1 of the Committee, Calendar No. 2. Subject, “District Board of Lay Activities,” DCA No. 3, page 119, column 3, and on his motion, duly seconded, Report No. 1 was adopted. For Report see Appendix, page 1520.

No. 2—Lay Activities—Ray H. Nichols (*)—“Methodist Men”—Adopted

Ray H. Nichols (*) (Northwest Texas—SC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Lay Activities, presented Report No. 2 of the Committee, Calendar No. 3, Subject, “Methodist Men,” DCA No. 3, page 119, column 3, and on his motion, duly seconded, Report No. 2 was adopted. For Report see Appendix, page 1521.

No. 3—Lay Activities—“Laymen’s Day”—Ray H. Nichols (*)—Withdrawn

Ray H. Nichols (*) (Northwest Texas—SC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Lay Activities, presented Report No. 3 of the Committee, Calendar No. 6, Subject, “Laymen’s Day,” DCA No. 5, page 150, column 2, stating that the Committee had reconsidered Report No. 3, had voted Non-concurrence and requested that the said Report No. 3 be withdrawn from the Calendar. On motion of Ray H. Nichols (*) (Northwest Texas—SC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Lay Activities, duly seconded, Report No. 3 of the Committee was withdrawn from the Calendar. For Report see Appendix, page 1521.

No. 4—Lay Activities—“Changing The Term Charge Lay Leader To Church Lay Leader”—Ray H. Nichols (*)—Adopted

Ray H. Nichols (*) (Northwest Texas—SC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Lay Activities, presented Report 4 of the Committee, Calendar No. 12, Subject, "Changing The Term Charge Lay Leader To Church Lay Leader," DCA No. 5, page 189, columns 1 and 2, and on his motion, duly seconded, Report No. 4 was adopted. For Report see Appendix, page 1522.

In connection with presentation of Report No. 4, Ray H. Nichols (*) (Northwest Texas—SC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Lay Activities, made the following statement:—

"In connection with Report No. 4 I think I should make reference to an editorial conflict between the action we took with reference to the Charge Lay Leader and the Church Lay Leader, that it is in conflict with a Memorial approved yesterday from another Committee, which simply brought forward the old Discipline provision.

It is our understanding that approval of this Resolution would be authorization for the Book Editors to make this conform with the Paragraph adopted yesterday. That Paragraph adopted yesterday was simply routine and not really germane to the action of that Committee."

The General Conference, by unanimous common consent, authorized the Book Editors to make the changes, as indicated.

No. 5—Lay Activities—"Election Of Church Lay Leader And Publication Of Names"—Ray H. Nichols (*)—Withdrawn

Ray H. Nichols () (Northwest Texas—SC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Lay Activities, presented Report No. 5 of the Committee, Calendar No. 13, Subject, "Election Of Church Lay Leader And Publication Of Names," and requested common consent to withdraw Report No. 5. Common consent being unanimously granted, Ray H. Nichols () (Northwest Texas—SC), Chairman of the Standing Committee on Lay Activities, withdrew Report No. 5 for the Committee. For Report see Appendix, page 1523.

No. 6—Lay Activities—"Report Of The General Board Of Lay Activities"—Ray H. Nichols (*)—Adopted

Ray H. Nichols (*) (Northwest Texas—SC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Lay Activities, presented Report No. 6 for the Committee, Calendar No. 14, Subject, "Report Of The General Board Of Lay Activities," DCA No. 5, page 189, column 2, and on his motion, duly seconded, Report No. 6 was adopted. For Report see Appendix, page 1524.

No. 7—Lay Activities—“Achieving The Objectives Of Methodist Men”—Ray H. Nichols—Adopted

Ray H. Nichols (*) (Northwest Texas—SC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Lay Activities, presented Report No. 7 of the Committee, Calendar No. 18, Subject, “Achieving The Objectives Of Methodist Men,” DCA No. 5, page 190, columns 1 and 2, and on his motion, duly seconded, Report No. 7 was adopted. For Report see Appendix, page 1524.

No. 8—Lay Activities—“Report Of The Second Assembly Of The World Council Of Churches”—Ray H. Nichols (*)—Adopted

Ray H. Nichols (*) (Northwest Texas—SC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Lay Activities, presented Report No. 8 of the Committee, Calendar No. 25, Subject, “Report Of The Second Assembly Of The World Council Of Churches,” DCA No. 5, page 192, columns 1 and 2, and on his motion, duly seconded, Report No. 8 was adopted. For report see Appendix, page 1525.

Questions Concerning Reports Lay Activities—Harold E. Burns—Ray H. Nichols ()—Murray H. Leiffer—Mrs. John H. Werner ()

Harold E. Burns (Erie—NE) raised a point of information which was answered by Ray H. Nichols (*) (Northwest Texas—SC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Lay Activities and Murray H. Leiffer (Southern California-Arizona—W), Secretary of the Standing Administrative Committee on Correlation and Editorial Revision, as follows:—

“Mr. Chairman, point of information.

Mr. Nichols, I should like to know if in Report No. 5 the withdrawing of that section of the Report means that we are not requesting the publication of the names and addresses of Church Lay Leaders in Conference Journals?

Ray H. Nichols: No, it does not mean that.

Bishop Harrell: Give the page number.

Ray H. Nichols: Page 189. I think a statement from the Editors will be helpful. Murray Leiffer, Chairman of the Committee on Correlation.

Murray H. Leiffer: There are two legislative recommendations which request the District Superintendent to report names and addresses of certain persons. This particular Report, and also Report 27 from the Committee on the Ministry.

Since two of the proposed actions make the Superintendent responsible, the Committee on Correlation proposes that these directives become part of one inclusive statement and that this be placed under Paragraph 362 in the Discipline. You may recall that 362 lists all of the duties of the District Superintendent.

We therefore propose this as an action to cover both Reports.

Now, this is one of a series of items under duties of the District Superintendent.

Bishop Harrell: That will come before the Conference later, will it not?

Murray H. Leiffer: This can come as a substitute which has been accepted by both Committees, or it can come as a separate Report.

Ray H. Nichols: As to the question, it is not easy to eliminate that provision but to have it in the manner just suggested. When this matter comes before us, it will be included as an amendment from the other Committee and will be covered in order that the desire to have the names and addresses of the Lay Leaders printed in the Conference Journal will be included in the legislation to come up later."

Information Requested—Mrs. John H. Werner ()—Answered—Ray H. Nichols ()

Mrs. John H. Werner () (Baltimore—NE) raised a question for information and the answer was given by Ray H. Nichols () (Northwest Texas—SC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Lay Activities, as follows:—

"On page 190, under Report No. 7, under paragraph 267, subsection 2, they say, 'To co-operate with the Commission on Stewardship and Finance.' I realize that there will come another Report before this Conference recommending the change of the name from Commission on Finance to Commission on Stewardship. At this time the name has not been changed. May I ask the method of procedure?

Ray H. Nichols: With reference to that point, it will be understood that our covering motion will authorize the Editors of the Discipline to make this legislation conform with any subsequent legislation."

Calendar—Charles D. White—Membership and Evangelism—Ray W. Ragsdale

Under the direction of Charles D. White (Western North Carolina—SE), Calendar Secretary, Reports of the Standing Legislative Committee on Membership and Evangelism, Ray W. Ragsdale (Southern California-Arizona—W), Chairman, were taken up as follows:—

“A Mission To America”—Adopted

Ray W. Ragsdale (Southern California-Arizona—W), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Membership and Evangelism, presented Report No. 2 of the Committee, Calendar No. 5, Subject, “A Mission To America,” DCA No. 4, page 150, column 1, and on his motion, duly seconded, Report No. 2 was adopted. For Report see Appendix, page 1528.

No. 3—Membership and Evangelism—Ray W. Ragsdale—“Observance Of Day Of Pentecost”—Adopted

Ray W. Ragsdale (Southern California-Arizona—W), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Membership and Evangelism, presented Report No. 3 of the Committee, Calendar No. 7, Subject, “Observance Of Day Of Pentecost,” DCA No. 4, page 150, column 2, and on his motion, duly seconded, Report No. 3 was adopted. For Report see Appendix, page 1528.

No. 4—Membership and Evangelism—Ray W. Ragsdale—“Annual Conference Board Of Evangelism”—Adopted

Ray W. Ragsdale (Southern California-Arizona—W), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Membership and Evangelism, presented Report No. 4 of the Committee, Calendar No. 8, Subject, “Annual Conference Board Of Evangelism,” DCA No. 4, page 150, columns 2 and 3, and on his motion, duly seconded, Report No. 4 was adopted. For Report see Appendix, page 1529.

No. 5—Membership and Evangelism—Ray W. Ragsdale—“Monthly Report Of Commission On Membership And Evangelism To Official Board”—Adopted

Ray W. Ragsdale (Southern California-Arizona—W), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Membership and Evangelism, presented Report No. 5 of the Committee, Calendar No. 9, Subject, “Monthly Report Of Commission On Membership And Evangelism To Official Board,” DCA, No. 4, page 150, column 3, and on his motion, duly seconded, Report No. 5 was adopted. For Report see Appendix, page 1529.

No. 8—Membership and Evangelism—Ray W. Ragsdale—
“Chairman Of Local Church Commission On Membership And Evangelism”—Referred

Ray W. Ragsdale (Southern California-Arizona—W), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Membership and Evangelism, presented Report No. 8 of the Committee, Calendar No. 10, Subject, "Chairman Of Local Church Commission On Membership And Evangelism," DCA No. 4, column 3 and page 151, column 1, and moved its reference to the Standing Administrative Committee on Correlation and Editorial Revision. The motion to refer, being duly seconded, Ray W. Ragsdale (Southern California-Arizona—W), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee, spoke to the motion to refer as follows:—

Our Calendar Report No. 10 and our Committee Report No. 8 refers to the matter of having the Chairman of the Commission on Membership and Evangelism elected at the fourth Quarterly Conference. There is other legislation to come before us respecting this and, therefore, Mr. Chairman, I move to refer this Report to the Committee on Correlation, with the instruction to report back to The Conference after comparable proposals from other Legislative Committees are received also.

The motion to refer was adopted.

No. 10—Membership and Evangelism—Ray W. Ragsdale—
"Personnel Of General Board Of Evangelism"— AMENDED—Adopted

Ray W. Ragsdale (Southern California-Arizona—W), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Membership and Evangelism, presented Report No. 10 of the Committee, Calendar No. 15, Subject, "Personnel Of General Board Of Evangelism," DCA No. 5, page 189, columns 2 and 3, and requested common consent to insert the words, "TWELVE MEMBERS FROM THE CHURCH-AT-LARGE, TO BE ELECTED BY THE BOARD," which had been inadvertently omitted by the printer, at the beginning of the bold-face type in line twenty-two of Report No. 10, so that the amended Report No. 10 will read as follows:—

That the portion of Chapter VIII, Sec. III, Paragraph 1468 Art. 3 membership that refers to Youth Members and reads as follows (beginning with line seven): ". . . three Youth Members elected by the National Conference of Methodist Youth; and twelve Members from the Church-at-Large, to be elected by the Board. Vacancies occurring during the quadrennium shall be filled in the following manner: those occurring among the Bishops to be filled by The Council of Bishops; those occurring in the memberships of the Jurisdictions to be filled by the Bishops of the Jurisdiction in which the vacancy occurs; those occurring among the Youth Members to be filled by the National Conference of Methodist Youth; and those occurring in the Membership at Large to be filled by the Board itself," be changed to read as follows (beginning with line seven): ". . . TWELVE MEMBERS FROM THE CHURCH-AT-LARGE, TO BE ELECTED BY THE BOARD; three Youth Members, twenty-three years of age or under at the time of their election, nominated by the National Conference of Methodist Youth, and elected by the Board. In making the nominations to the Board, the National Conference of Methodist Youth, in consultation with the appropriate Staff of the Board involved, shall consider suggestions of nominations made by Annual Conference Methodist Fellowships and State or similar Units of The Methodist Student Movement. Vacancies shall be filled by the Board upon nomination by the National Conference of Methodist Youth. The Chairman of the Program Area of Christian Witness of the National Methodist Youth Fellowship Commission shall be one of the three youth members."

Ray W. Ragsdale, Chairman
Mrs. Ralph K. Surface (*), Secretary

Common consent being unanimously granted by The General Conference, the words inadvertently omitted by the printer were inserted at the proper place.

Question—Embree H. Blackard—Answer—Ray W. Ragsdale

Embree H. Blackard (Western North Carolina—SE) asked if this Report No. 10, would enlarge the membership of the General Board of Evangelism, as by previous action of The General Conference in the adoption of Report No. 2 of the Co-ordinating Council on Wednesday, May 2, 1956, the membership of the various General Boards and Commissions of The Methodist Church were to remain the same during the quadrennium of 1956-1960.

Ray W. Ragsdale (Southern California-Arizona—W), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee answered that the membership of the General Board of Evangelism was not enlarged by Report No. 10 of the Committee.

On the motion of Ray W. Ragsdale (Southern California-Arizona—W), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Membership and Evangelism, duly seconded, Report No. 10 was adopted. For Report see Appendix, page 1531.

No. 11—Membership and Evangelism—Ray W. Ragsdale—
"Transfer Of A Church Member"—Adopted

Ray W. Ragsdale (Southern California-Arizona—W), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Membership and Evangelism, presented Report No. 11 of the Committee, Calendar No. 16, Subject, "Transfer Of A Church Member," DCA No. 5, page 189, column 3 and page 190, column 1, and on his motion, duly seconded, Report No. 11 was adopted. For Report see Appendix, page 1532.

No. 12—Membership and Evangelism—Ray W. Ragsdale—
"Duties Of Commission On Membership And Evangelism"—
—Adopted

Ray W. Ragsdale (Southern California-Arizona—W), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Membership and Evangelism, presented Report No. 12 of the Committee, Calendar No. 17, Subject, "Duties Of Commission On Membership And Evangelism," DCA No. 5, page 190, column 1, and his motion, duly seconded, Report No. 12 was adopted. For Report see Appendix, page 1532.

No. 13—Membership and Evangelism—Ray W. Ragsdale—
"Chairman And Vice-Chairman Of District Committee On Evangelism"—Action Deferred

Ray W. Ragsdale (Southern California-Arizona—W), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Membership and Evangelism, presented Report No. 13 of the Committee, and made two requests concerning Report No. 13, as follows:—

1st. Stated that the Subject should read, "Chairman And Vice-Chairman Of District Committee ON Evangelism," instead of "Chairman And Vice-Chairman Of District Committee AND Evangelism," a printer's error.

2nd. Asked permission to hold Report No. 13 for consideration of and action on until a later time, when a companion recommendation would be presented for consideration of and action on by The General Conference. By unanimous common consent, this request was granted.

No. 14—Membership and Evangelism—Ray W. Ragsdale—
"Pages 18-25 Of Report Second Assembly Of The World Council Of Churches"—Adopted

Ray W. Ragsdale (Southern California-Arizona—W), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Membership and Evangelism, presented Report No. 14 of the Committee, Calendar No. 76, Subject, "Pages 18-25 Of Report Of Second Assembly Of The World Council Of Churches," DCA No. 8, page 373, column 1, and on his motion, duly seconded, Report No. 14 was adopted. For Report see Appendix, page 1534.

No. 15—Membership and Evangelism—Ray W. Ragsdale—
"A Bible Emphasis During The Quadrennium 1956-1960"
—Adopted

Ray W. Ragsdale (Southern California-Arizona—W), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Membership and Evangelism, presented Report No. 15 of the Committee, Calendar No. 77, Subject, "A Bible Emphasis During The Quadrennium 1956-1960," DCA No. 8, page 373, columns 1 and 2, and on his motion, duly seconded, Report No. 15 was adopted. For Report see Appendix, page 1534.

No. 16—Membership and Evangelism—Ray W. Ragsdale—
“Opportunity For Evangelism”—Amended—Ralph Taylor
Alton—Adopted

Ray W. Ragsdale (Southern California-Arizona—W), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Membership and Evangelism presented Report No. 16 of the Committee, Calendar No. 78, Subject, “Opportunity For Evangelism,” DCA No. 8, page 373, column 2, and moved its adoption. The motion to adopt was duly seconded.

Amendment—Ralph Taylor Alton—Accepted—Ray W. Ragsdale

Ralph Taylor Alton (Wisconsin—NC) raised a question which was answered by Ray W. Ragsdale (Southern California-Arizona—W), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Membership and Evangelism as follows:—

“With regard to this matter and the matter just adopted, they are a part of a group of recommendations which my study indicates to me will be presented by different Commissions concerning Quadrennial Emphases; and in implementing them I wonder if it is the plan that these be referred to the Quadrennial Commission on the Local Church in the Annual Conference which we adopted the other day on the recommendation of the Co-ordinating Council.

Ray Ragsdale: I am sure, sir, this could be done very well. It was our thought not to be in competition with the Quadrennial Program at all, but simply to give additional grist to the mill.

Ralph Taylor Alton: As I read the Report of that Quadrennial Committee on the Local Church, it indicated as points of emphasis to which this seems to me to refer, and I would like to have a correlation between this recommendation and that of the Quadrennial Committee on the Annual Conference level, which would seem to me to implement this motion.”

Ray W. Ragsdale (Southern California-Arizona—W), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Membership and Evangelism, accepted the suggestion of Ralph Taylor Alton (Wisconsin—NC), there being no objection raised by any member of the Standing Legislative Committee on Membership and Evangelism, or by any member of The General Conference.

Report No. 16 of the Committee was then adopted. For Report see Appendix, page 1535.

No. 17—Membership and Evangelism—“Membership Of Abandoned Churches”—Ray W. Ragsdale—Adopted

Ray W. Ragsdale (Southern California-Arizona—W), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Membership and Evangelism, presented Report No. 17 of the Committee, Calendar No. 79, Subject, “Membership Of Abandoned Churches," DCA No. 8, page 373, columns 2 and 3, and on his motion, duly seconded, was adopted. For Report see Appendix, page 1536.

Amendment Proposed—Chester A. Smith ()—Ruling—Bishop Costen J. Harrell—Not Reconsidered*

Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) moved to amend Report No. 17 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Membership and Evangelism, just adopted.

Ruling—Bishop Costen J. Harrell

Bishop Costen J. Harrell, the Presiding Officer, made the following ruling:—

"Wait one minute, Brother Smith. The Chair certainly desired not to cut off any discussion, but this Report has already been approved, and if you wish to go back to it, it will be necessary for us to move reconsideration."

Motion to Reconsider—Chester A. Smith ()—Not Adopted*

Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) moved to reconsider Report No. 17 of the General Standing Legislative Committee on Membership and Evangelism. The motion was duly seconded, but on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.

Question—Mrs. Helen C. Waters ()—Answer—Ray W. Ragsdale*

Mrs. Helen C. Waters (*) (Delaware—C), a member of the Standing Legislative Committee on Membership and Evangelism, inquired of the Chairman of the Committee what disposition had been made of Report No. 18 of the Committee, Calendar No. 120, Subject, "Engaging Evangelistic Help," and Ray W. Ragsdale (Southern California—W), Chairman of the Committee, stated the Report No. 18 would be presented later.

Calendar—Ministry—Charles D. White—Clergy Rights for Women

Under the direction of Charles D. White (Western North Carolina—SE), Calendar Secretary, Reports from the Standing Legislative Committee on the Ministry, were next considered.

No. 2—Ministry—"Clergy Rights For Women"—James S. Chubb—Minority Report—J. Dewey Muir

James S. Chubb (Nebraska—SC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry, presented

Report No. 2 of the Committee, Calendar No. 26, Subject, "Clergy Rights For Women," DCA No. 5, page 192, column 3, with a Minority Report, DCA No. 9, page 439, column 3, and moved that the Rules be suspended for the consideration of and action on the Minority Report, which had appeared in the Daily Christian Advocate of this morning. The motion to suspend the Rules for the purpose indicated, being duly seconded, was adopted by more than the required two-thirds vote of The General Conference.

Amendment—James S. Chubb—Approved

James S. Chubb (Nebraska—SC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry, stated that the Standing Administrative Committee on Correlation and Editorial Revision had suggested that the words, "the foregoing," found in line one of Paragraph 313, at the bottom of Majority Report No. 2 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry be deleted, and the word "all," be substituted therefor, so that Paragraph 313, as amended will read, as follows:—

"Women are included in all provisions except that only unmarried women and widows may apply as candidates for the traveling ministry or continue therein."

By unanimous common consent of The General Conference, the proposed amendment of James S. Chubb (Nebraska—SC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry, was approved.

Report No. 2 Presented—James S. Chubb—R. Marvin Stuart

At the request of James S. Chubb (Nebraska—SC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry, R. Marvin Stuart (California-Nevada—W) Chairman of the Sub-Committee, preparing Majority Report No. 2 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry, presented the same to The General Conference.

James S. Chubb (Nebraska—SC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry, before presenting R. Marvin Stuart (Nebraska-California—W) made the following statement:—

"Now, you have before you, of course, the Report to which all of us have been looking forward. It has been discussed pro and con. I think there is nothing new about it. It is before you now and in order that you might have the story of how we worked on it in this Committee of The General Conference, I have asked R. Marvin Stuart of the California-Nevada Conference, Chairman of the Sub-Committee, to present it."

R. Marvin Stuart (California-Nevada—W), Chairman of the Sub-Committee presented Majority Report No. 2 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry, and made the following statement:—

“Mr. Chairman and Members of The Conference: I must confess that when I was made Chairman of this particular Sub-Committee and looked at the number of Memorials we had to consider, I felt as if the roof had fallen in on me.

This might not have been true had I had more experience in prior Conferences in working with either a Committee or Sub-Committee, but I immediately recognized, as did the members of our Sub-Committee, that we had an issue before us which must be considered very carefully.

As you know, there were more than 2000 Memorials on this subject.

Our first decision was to divide these Memorials among members of the Committee in groups of two members of the Committee, and each Memorial was considered; that is, we looked at all the Memorials.

After we had done this and following a period of informal discussion, we decided that we would ask each member of the Committee to express his or her opinion about this matter, raising questions or more particularly at this point indicating the point of view held by each person.

After this was done we agreed that we would take a straw vote on one matter, a clear-cut straw vote on Full Clergy Rights For Women—period.—or not.

When we had taken this straw vote by ballot, we realized that we had seven on one side and seven on the other.

We then came back and spent a number of hours in working on this.

Let me say that each one continued, without any thought of pressure, to think about this and to consider each point carefully.

I'd like to say that out of the Committee on Ministry, two members of that Committee are on this particular Committee.

One woman on our Sub-Committee said, “I came here to fight for Full Clergy Rights For Women,” but she said it with a smile, which is quite different from an experience I had in the Seminary when I had the opportunity to preach my first sermon.

I had come from a conservative background, and when I arrived at the Seminary I was under the false impression that the faculty members and student body lacked a real religious experience, and so I could hardly wait until my first opportunity in preaching clothes when I could at least convert the professor and members of that class.

I worked hard on that sermon. I remember the subject, ‘Redemptive Creation,’ from the text ‘Create in me a clean heart, O God.’

When I finished what I thought was a very persuasive presentation, my professor sat on the edge of the desk and said, “Marvin, your sermon would have been much more persuasive when, as you spoke about love, you had not gritted your teeth and pounded the desk so hard.”

Now, the women on our Committee presented the point of view which they had come to present in the spirit of love.

After we had worked through this carefully without any thought of making a motion, turning especially to the District Superintendents, who are on our Committee, we recognized, as we went along, that we were up against two decisions; one, is this right as a matter of principle, the matter of Full Clergy Rights For Women. I think that almost, if not all, were persuaded that in principle we could not object to it.

The question then we faced, was this, are the difficulties, the practical difficulties in the way of this principle insurmountable?

We turned again, as I say, to our District Superintendents and as they presented very carefully, very persuasively some of the problems, practical problems, involved, it seemed to us that we were moving toward a conclusion which would, we realize, still be discrimination, would still be a compromise for some, but nevertheless which might be the most effective step which could be taken at this time.

Therefore, after hours of consideration, we finally came to the point where a member of the Committee presented the action which you have before you. And this Committee, which earlier in its deliberations had been divided on the more clear-cut issue, seven to seven, now unanimously approved what you have before you.

I think that gives you a careful and a complete report on the consideration and the action taken by the Sub-Committee on Full Clergy Rights for Women."

Question—William R. Cannon—Statement—Bishop Costen J. Harrell

William R. Cannon (North Georgia—SE) asked the question if the Majority Report should not be perfected before the Minority Report is presented, and cited Rule 23 of The Rules of Order, which reads as follows:—

Rule 23. PROCEDURE FOR CONSIDERATION OF SUBSTITUTES

When a Resolution or Committee Report is properly before The Conference for consideration and action (even if amendments thereto are pending), a substitute therefor may be offered by any member moving that the same may be substituted for the Resolution or Report under consideration. The motion to substitute may not be considered or put, however, until the original Report or Resolution is perfected, including consideration of and action on any amendments to it which may have been offered. The Conference may terminate this perfecting process by ordering the Previous Question on the motion to adopt to Report or Resolution. If this be done, the vote shall immediately be taken on any amendments, to the Report or Resolution then pending, but the vote shall not be taken on the adoption of the Report or Resolution or on making the substitution until the substitute is also perfected. The main question, or Report, or Resolution, having been perfected, the substitute shall be considered, which consideration may be terminated at any time by ordering the Previous Question, in which case, after action on any amendments to the substitute then pending, the vote shall be taken on the motion to substitute. After this, without further notice, debate or amendment, the vote shall be taken on the motion to adopt, if the Previous Question thereon was ordered as above indicated as being allowable, or if it was ordered later. In the course of the foregoing perfecting process in the case of either the main question or the substitute, or both, the time to be consumed in presenting, considering and acting on amendments may be limited by action of The Conference. If this be done, the Previous Question may not be put on the adoption of the Report or Resolution, or on making the proposed substitution until two members (including the Chairman of Committee presenting the Report and the member presenting the Substitute, if the pending question is the adoption of a Report of a Committee) shall have spoken on each side of the proposal to substitute or adopt, as the case may be, after the motions to amend, if there be any, have been acted upon if there be those who desire so to speak.

Ruling—Bishop Costen J. Harrell

Bishop Costen J. Harrell, the Presiding Officer, made the following statement:—

“We are presenting the Reports. We will perfect the Majority Report and perfect the Minority Report before a vote is taken.”

Notice of Proposed Amendment—William R. Cannon

William R. Cannon (North Georgia—SE) stated that he desired to make an amendment to Report No. 2 before it is finally put.

Minority Report Presented with Request—J. Dewey Muir—Ruling—Bishop Costen J. Harrell

J. Dewey Muir (Illinois—NC) presented the Minority Report attached to the Majority Report No. 2 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry, Calendar No. 26, Subject, “Clergy Rights For Women,” DCA No. 9, page 439, column 3, making the following statement:—

“My name is Dewey Muir from the Illinois Conference, a Ministerial Delegate, presenting, Mr. Chairman and Members of the Conference, the Minority Report which you will find on page 439 of The Daily Advocate, Report No. 2. This is numbered 26 and 2.

Dewey Muir: I am requesting, Mr. Chairman, if it is possible, that in this Report, if the Substitute Report is not adopted the privilege of presenting to The General Conference another Substitute Report, which would not come from the Minority Committee but from myself, will be granted.

Bishop Harrell: I do not know a Rule by which that may be done.

Dewey Muir: I will ask for the privilege later.

Bishop Harrell: Very well, you ask for the privilege later and The Conference can act as it sees fit.”

Statement—J. Dewey Muir

In presenting the Minority Report, attached to Report No. 2 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry, Subject, “Clergy Rights For Women,” DCA No. 9, page 439, column 3, J. Dewey Muir (Illinois—NC) made the following statement:—

“I will not take your time to read the preliminaries. It is the recommendation of the Minority group, nine of us who have participated or are participating in this, calling to your attention that in the General Committee the vote was 40 to 32, which does not indicate any unanimity of opinion.

Our recommendation is that Therefore It Be Resolved That this General Conference retain its present policy as it relates to candidates for the traveling ministry as stated in Paragraph 313, Discipline of 1952.

The ability to preach and to give leadership in the Church is not in any sense determined by sex. This is acknowledged. That some women have done excellent and outstanding work and service, is recognized. Ability to preach, to give leadership, have little to do with the real issue of granting Full Ministerial Rights to Women.

The General Conference has been deluged with a multiplicity of Memorials dealing with this question. Not all of these Memorials were in agreement that Full Clergy Rights should be granted to women. Without examination, however, one might assume that the multiplicity of these Memorials is a mandate from the churches and Conferences.

Upon examination of these Memorials, because of their similarity of statement, one may well conclude that they have come from a limited segment of the Church. Since the burden of these Memorials has to do with Full Clergy Rights For Women, let us raise this question: what are Full Clergy Rights and how are they constituted?

Ministerial rights we believe are vested in ordination rather than in Conference membership. Ordination is now available to the women of Methodism. We remind you that ordination, either as Deacon or Elder, gives to every recipient thereof, male or female, traveling preacher or local preacher, exactly the same rights, privileges, and prerogatives. There is no ministerial function or service which can be performed by an Ordained Elder who is a member of an Annual Conference, which cannot be performed by a Local Elder, man or woman.

The issue then becomes the sole matter of Ministerial Membership in an Annual Conference. It is the judgment of the Ministerial Members of the Committee on the Ministry that such request as has come before The General Conference is based upon a general theory that basically no privilege should be granted one sex which is denied to the other. In that noble sentiment we share. However, we are facing the realistic problems of administration of the law of the Church. It is at this point that our conclusions differ from the Majority Report.

We submit to you that the proposed legislation is an admission of the administrative problems involved, for it proposes that admission to Conference Membership shall be restricted to unmarried women and widows, and further provides that upon marriage, Conference Membership of a traveling woman preacher shall be discontinued.

We remind you that our traveling ministry operates within an appointive system in which ministering to churches where appointed, and churches accept pastors appointed to them. If the proposed legislation is enacted, let us not assume that women preachers will be sent to little churches, to undesirable churches, to undesirable circuits, or places no one else wishes to fill.

Rather, let it be assumed that any church to which a Bishop sees fit to appoint a Minister will accept that appointment without raising any question as to the sex of the Minister. In other words, admitting women to the traveling ministry ought never to be restrictive as to appointment, but open the way for appointment of a woman Minister to any church in Methodism.

We remind you that when any person is admitted as a Ministerial Member of an Annual Conference, the presiding Bishop must appoint that person to a pastoral charge. If our Charges operated upon a Call System, the proposed legislation would present no problem, for under such a system a church would issue a call only to a minister whom the congregation desired.

Under our appointive system, every Ministerial Member of an Annual Conference must be appointed to a Pastoral Charge or some Special Appointment of the Conference, whether there is a Charge that wants that Minister or not.

I am keenly aware of the problems involved in appointing some men to churches, yet no church has said, 'No, we just do not want a man preacher.' Yet in trying to appoint even good women ministers—and I remind you that I come from one of the Annual Conferences of Methodism which has in its ministerial membership a woman member, plus our quota of women who are Approved Supply Pastors—yet in trying to appoint good women pastors, ministers, it is not uncommon for the answer to be, 'We just do not want a woman minister.'

In this, if they are—which we agree to, aside from the fact of the differences dependent on the fact that God created his children male and female, there ought to be no difference of standard or privilege based upon differences of sex.

Practically, until those demanding such legislation are committed not only to the legislation but to the receiving of women traveling preachers, not in general but in particular as Pastors of their own particular Charges, we are of the opinion that our present legislation, which does provide for ordination of women with all the rights appertaining thereto, but without membership in the Ministerial Membership of an Annual Conference, is best for our particular Church.

I trust that The General Conference, not out of any spirit of division, not out of any spirit of ill-will, but only with a sense of the importance of the problem of administration, will see fit to adopt the Substitute Report.

Thank you."

Substitute Offered—Leonard D. Slutz ()—Not Adopted*

Leonard D. Slutz (Ohio—NC) presented a Substitute for the Majority Report No. 2 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry, as follows (DB-92) :—

"I move that Paragraph 313 of the Discipline be amended to read as follows:

'Women are eligible for all Orders of the ministry and full Conference Membership, provided, however, that a woman may be left without appointment, and thereby located, whenever the Bishop and Cabinet are satisfied that all reasonable efforts have been made and no suitable Appointment for her can be found.

'Her status and pension rights shall then be the same as those of a minister who has located at his own request.'

The motion to thus substitute, being duly seconded, Leonard D. Slutz (*) (Ohio—NC), spoke to the same, as follows :—

"Mr. Chairman, we have had the issue very well defined for us by these two presentations. We have been told that both groups desire to end discrimination but they are concerned with a practical problem, so we have been told we will reduce discrimination.

I submit that we would retain discrimination at one of the most important points. If my children are to be educated in the Sunday school, I would prefer that to be under the leadership of a married woman, rather than a single woman. I feel that a married woman with a normal family life is on the average better fitted to lead our Church than is a single woman.

We have been told, however, that there is a distinct problem, a practical problem, that of obtaining Appointments. I have talked with many District Superintendents on that score who say that that is the real objection.

Then, on the other hand, I have talked with as many as I could reach, of the women who were favoring this legislation. They say this substitute would be discrimination, but would be acceptable. They say that what they are looking for is to be treated as equals. They want equal rights and equal opportunity, where they are acceptable. They say they do not want a guaranteed appointment or a sure job or a guaranteed annual wage. But they want a right to be accepted where the church is willing to have them and where they can serve.

Therefore, I move this substitute."

Rulings—Bishop Costen J. Harrell—Leonard D. Slutz ()*

Bishop Costen J. Harrell, the Presiding Officer, asked this question:—

"You are offering this as a Substitute to the Substitute?"

Leonard D. Slutz (*) (Ohio—NC) replied, as follows:—

"No, I am offering this as a Substitute to the Majority Report, which is the item before us for perfection."

Bishop Costen J. Harrell, the Presiding Officer, made the following Ruling:—

"The Minority Report is in the form of a Substitute. It may be offered as an amendment to the Minority Report, if you so desire."

Time of Adjournment—Ruling—Bishop Costen J. Harrell

The hour of adjournment having arrived, Bishop Costen J. Harrell, the Presiding Officer, made the following Ruling:—

"Now we are at the time of adjournment, and the Chair can recognize no one else."

The Secretary will please make the necessary announcements.

Announcements—Lud H. Estes—Leon T. Moore

Announcements were made by Lud H. Estes (Memphis—SE), Secretary, and Leon T. Moore (Philadelphia—NE), Secretary-Designate.

No. 15—Presiding Officers—H. Hughes Wagner

H. Hughes Wagner (New England—NE), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee on Presiding Officers, presented Report No. 15 of the Committee, and on his motion, duly seconded, it was adopted as follows:—

We are pleased to announce that the Presiding Officer at the session for Saturday morning, May 5, 1956, will be Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, of the Washington Area, Northeastern Jurisdiction, until the Recess period; that from the recess period until adjournment, Saturday morning, May 5, 1956, the Presiding Officer will be Bishop J. Waskom Pickett of the Delhi Area, Southern Asia Central Conference.

(Signed) H. Hughes Wagner, Chairman
William R. Cannon, Secretary

Thanks—Gavel—Bishop Costen J. Harrell

Bishop Costen J. Harrell thanked The General Conference for their courtesy and efficiency in helping to conduct the business of the morning's session.

Speaking of the gavel used at this session, Bishop Costen J. Harrell, the Presiding Officer, made the following statement:—

"The gavel I hold in my hand is not an old one. It is not connected with the past, but with a dream and a future. It speaks of a glorious piece of work that has been approved by our Church, and that is being undertaken, a Liberal Arts College in Alaska. Let it be a symbol of that task achieved."

Adjournment—Report No. 2—Clergy Rights for Women Pending—Benediction—Bishop James C. Baker

The morning session of the Ninth Day, Friday, May 4, 1956, adjourned at 12:30 P.M. with the Benediction pronounced by Bishop James C. Baker, Retired, with further consideration of and action on Report No. 2 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry, Subject, "Clergy Rights for Women," and a Minority Report attached thereto, pending.

TENTH DAY, FRIDAY, MAY 4, 1956

AFTERNOON SESSION

Opening—Bishop Willis J. King

Pursuant to adjournment The General Conference of The Methodist Church convened in the afternoon session of the Tenth Day, Friday, May 4, 1956, in the Municipal Auditorium of Minneapolis, Minnesota, with Bishop Willis J. King, of the Overseas Service, and also of the New Orleans Area, Central Jurisdiction, in the Chair with consideration of and action on Report No. 2 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry, Calendar 26, DCA No. 5, page 192, Column 3, Subject, "Clergy Rights For Women," with a Minority Report attached, DCA No. 9, page 439, column 3, pending.

Bishop Willis J. King, the Presiding Officer, stated that James R. Houghton, General Conference Director of Music, would announce the Hymn.

Hymn No. 342—James R. Houghton ()*

James R. Houghton () (New England—NE), General Conference Director of Music, announced Hymn No. 342, "Dear Lord and Father of Mankind," The General Conference stood and joined in the singing of the Hymn, under the leadership of James R. Houghton () (New England—NE), General Conference Director of Music.

Prayer—Bishop Edgar A. Love

Bishop Edgar A. Love, of the Baltimore Area, Central Jurisdiction, then led in prayer.

No. 15—Chairmen—A. Wesley Pugh

A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee of Chairmen, made Report No. 15 of the Committee, as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman and Members of The General Conference: The Committee of Chairmen feel that we have begun to make real progress in our consideration and adoption of the Reports of our Legislative Committees, and we urge you to continue this very fine record that you have been making so that we shall give proper attention to all important matters and get through on time and without too much haste.

The Committee would like to say this, that our Committee on the State of the Church has worked long and hard and had intended to have printed in this morning's Advocate three Reports. These Reports your Committee feels should be presented tomorrow morning. They will be printed in the Advocate tomorrow. The Chairman of the Committee feels that while these are very important and have to do with the Social Creed, Family Life, and matters of that kind, that probably only one of these Reports will elicit debate. I am simply alerting the Conference now to the fact that tomorrow morning, at the suggestion of the Committee of Chairmen, we shall ask that the Rules be suspended and that these three Reports be considered following the recess probably of tomorrow, and following the Order of the Day which we have established then.

It would be after the Order of the Day, following Recess.

The point is that if you can find an occasion before the session tomorrow morning or sometime during the morning to read these three Reports from the State of the Church carefully, you will then feel that you had an opportunity to think about them, and after 12 o'clock, after noon then, we will ask that they be considered."

Business Session—Parliamentary Situation—Bishop Willis J. King—No. 2 Ministry and Minority Report

Bishop Willis J. King, the Presiding Officer, made a statement regarding the parliamentary situation, as follows:—

"We shall resume The General Conference by Calendar No. 26. The Report is No. 2 that is before us. That has to be presented. There was an amendment made. I think we were under process of discussing that when we closed."

Against Substitute—Allen B. Rice

Allen B. Rice (Northwest Indiana—NC) spoke against the proposed substitute of Leonard D. Slutz (*) (Ohio—NC), as follows:—

"I am one of those peculiar individuals that is neither fish nor fowl. I am a District Superintendent, neither Minister nor Layman so far as I can see. I am speaking to this last amendment that was made. I am against discrimination, any kind of discrimination, and particularly that which throws in the lap of the Cabinet the solution of such a ticklish and difficult problem as would be involved in the matter of deciding on their part whether or not a woman in such a position was or was not capable of being appointed.

I think that is the kind of a difficult spot to put the Cabinet of any Conference in without the action of the Conference in particular. I certainly would be opposed, and I have a feeling that the District Superintendents who are here in some numbers have enough trouble of their own already without being given this extra onerous kind of duty. I certainly am opposed to it."

For Substitute—Claude Garrison

Claude Garrison (Ohio—NC) spoke for the proposed substitute of Leonard D. Slutz (*) (Ohio—NC), as follows:—

"Members of the Conference, I belong to this same class which Brother Rice described as neither fish nor fowl, but I differ in opinion with him. It seems to me that under this amendment the Cabinet, the Bishop and the Cabinet have a directive that if and when it becomes impossible to make an appointment for a given individual and all possibilities of such an appointment have been exhausted by the Bishop and his Cabinet, it is clearly out of their hands. I favor the amendment as it has been presented."

Substitute—Marvin L. Boyd—Rulings—Bishop Willis J. King

Marvin L. Boyd (Northwest Texas—SC) desiring to offer a Substitute, asked for the ruling of the Presiding Officer on this point, as follows:—

Bishop King: Are you for the amendment or against it?

Marvin L. Boyd (Northwest Texas—NC): Against.

I would like to offer a substitution and to inquire whether it is in order at this time.

Bishop King: There can be, as I understand it, one amendment to an amendment.

Marvin L. Boyd: Yes, sir.

Bishop King: You have a substitute motion already. A substitute would not be in order; but if this is an amendment, we can hear it.

Marvin L. Boyd: I wish to offer it as a substitute when it is in order.

Bishop King: Yes, sir. Well, it would not be in order now.

Marvin L. Boyd: My point is I would not want the Previous Question to be ordered and not have the privilege of offering it later.

Bishop King: We will give you opportunity, sir.

Against Substitute—Robert H. Duncan

Robert H. Duncan (Holston—SE) spoke against the proposed substitute of Leonard D. Slutz (*) (Ohio—NC), as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman and Members of The Conference: I am opposed to the amendment.

I do believe that it raises a question that is not fair to men and women. I would not vote for such a Rule applying to us men.

I have an idea that other people, other Conferences, find the problem we have; namely, that many men would not get Appointments except that we have a Rule now that every man must be given an Appointment.

I feel like we should not have a Rule, a law, that would label people and suggest that churches might close their doors to these Pastors.

I am against the amendment, Mr. Chairman, because I believe it does not get at the problem before us. It seems to me that the problem is the matter of women rearing a family and that is avoided in the original Majority Report when it applies to women who are not rearing families.

I am opposed to the amendment."

Speaks to Pending Question—Henry Lyle Lambdin

Henry Lyle Lambdin (Newark—NE) spoke to the pending matters, as follows:—

“Mr. Chairman, a great question can be discussed on any one of several different levels.

The tendency in the discussion of the question concerning the admission of women into Full Conference Membership tends to drift always to the administrative level. The arguments seem to center around the perplexity of the District Superintendent who is trying to promote the Reverend Jane Doe, let us say, from Hardscrabble Circuit to the First Church of Licksillet.

Pity the poor District Superintendent, is the sum and substance of most of the arguments that have been presented. When I was a District Superintendent the only time I needed any pity was when I was at the mercy of my fellow District Superintendents, but I could always say, “Wait, for your day is coming.”

After a District Superintendent has had his first round with what someone has called the Attacky Order of Pastoral Relations Committees, he should have developed an epidermis that is tough enough to move a rhinoceros to envy. I don't pity the District Superintendents because these men are a sturdy breed.

Whatever their limitations, they are specialists in human relations.

I should like to suggest that there is another level at which the amendment and the whole question needs to be considered, and that is the sort of level that seems to me to be expressed by Dr. Bosley's fine phrase of ‘hard final ground.’ Is this Conference—in other words, is this Conference prepared to say in the year of our Lord 1956 that no woman, however well qualified educationally, whatever demonstration she has given of gifts and grace and loveliness, no woman shall be called of God, to spiritual leadership within that part of the organizational structure of The Methodist Church that we call the Annual Conference?

Now, that is the issue, whether any woman, no matter what her qualifications—make the qualifications as exacting as you may—no woman shall be called to spiritual leadership within the organizational structure of The Methodist Church that we call the Annual Conference.

Are we prepared to say that no woman regardless of her qualification is not fit to be a member of an Annual Conference? That is the question before us.”

Suspend Rules—Charles F. Golden—Not Suspended

Charles F. Golden (Lexington—C) moved to suspend the Rules affecting the proposed amendment of Leonard D. Slutz (*) (Ohio—NC) in order that we might have ample debate at any point necessary. The motion was duly seconded, but on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.

Parliamentary Situation—Bishop Willis J. King

Bishop Willis J. King, the Presiding Officer, stated the parliamentary situation to be as follows:—

Bishop and the Cabinet have a directive that if and when it becomes impossible to make an appointment for a given individual and all possibilities of such an appointment have been exhausted by the Bishop and his Cabinet, it is clearly out of their hands. I favor the amendment as it has been presented."

Substitute—Marvin L. Boyd—Rulings—Bishop Willis J. King

Marvin L. Boyd (Northwest Texas—SC) desiring to offer a Substitute, asked for the ruling of the Presiding Officer on this point, as follows:—

Bishop King: Are you for the amendment or against it?

Marvin L. Boyd (Northwest Texas—NC): Against.

I would like to offer a substitution and to inquire whether it is in order at this time.

Bishop King: There can be, as I understand it, one amendment to an amendment.

Marvin L. Boyd: Yes, sir.

Bishop King: You have a substitute motion already. A substitute would not be in order; but if this is an amendment, we can hear it.

Marvin L. Boyd: I wish to offer it as a substitute when it is in order.

Bishop King: Yes, sir. Well, it would not be in order now.

Marvin L. Boyd: My point is I would not want the Previous Question to be ordered and not have the privilege of offering it later.

Bishop King: We will give you opportunity, sir.

Against Substitute—Robert H. Duncan

Robert H. Duncan (Holston—SE) spoke against the proposed substitute of Leonard D. Slutz (*) (Ohio—NC), as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman and Members of The Conference: I am opposed to the amendment.

I do believe that it raises a question that is not fair to men and women. I would not vote for such a Rule applying to us men.

I have an idea that other people, other Conferences, find the problem we have; namely, that many men would not get Appointments except that we have a Rule now that every man must be given an Appointment.

I feel like we should not have a Rule, a law, that would label people and suggest that churches might close their doors to these Pastors.

I am against the amendment, Mr. Chairman, because I believe it does not get at the problem before us. It seems to me that the problem is the matter of women rearing a family and that is avoided in the original Majority Report when it applies to women who are not rearing families.

I am opposed to the amendment."

Speaks to Pending Question—Henry Lyle Lambdin

Henry Lyle Lambdin (Newark—NE) spoke to the pending matters, as follows:—

“Mr. Chairman, a great question can be discussed on any one of several different levels.

The tendency in the discussion of the question concerning the admission of women into Full Conference Membership tends to drift always to the administrative level. The arguments seem to center around the perplexity of the District Superintendent who is trying to promote the Reverend Jane Doe, let us say, from Hardscrabble Circuit to the First Church of Licksillet.

Pity the poor District Superintendent, is the sum and substance of most of the arguments that have been presented. When I was a District Superintendent the only time I needed any pity was when I was at the mercy of my fellow District Superintendents, but I could always say, “Wait, for your day is coming.”

After a District Superintendent has had his first round with what someone has called the Attacky Order of Pastoral Relations Committees, he should have developed an epidermis that is tough enough to move a rhinoceros to envy. I don’t pity the District Superintendents because these men are a sturdy breed.

Whatever their limitations, they are specialists in human relations.

I should like to suggest that there is another level at which the amendment and the whole question needs to be considered, and that is the sort of level that seems to me to be expressed by Dr. Bosley’s fine phrase of ‘hard final ground.’ Is this Conference—in other words, is this Conference prepared to say in the year of our Lord 1956 that no woman, however well qualified educationally, whatever demonstration she has given of gifts and grace and loveliness, no woman shall be called of God, to spiritual leadership within that part of the organizational structure of The Methodist Church that we call the Annual Conference?

Now, that is the issue, whether any woman, no matter what her qualifications—make the qualifications as exacting as you may—no woman shall be called to spiritual leadership within the organizational structure of The Methodist Church that we call the Annual Conference.

Are we prepared to say that no woman regardless of her qualification is not fit to be a member of an Annual Conference? That is the question before us.”

Suspend Rules—Charles F. Golden—Not Suspended

Charles F. Golden (Lexington—C) moved to suspend the Rules affecting the proposed amendment of Leonard D. Slutz (*) (Ohio—NC) in order that we might have ample debate at any point necessary. The motion was duly seconded, but on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.

Parliamentary Situation—Bishop Willis J. King

Bishop Willis J. King, the Presiding Officer, stated the parliamentary situation to be as follows:—

"As I understand it, may I state the situation as I understand it? You have the amendment offered by Dr. Slutz.

The Rules say that we may have two speeches on either side, or both sides. I am not quite clear whether we have exhausted that or not, that is the situation."

Point of Order—A. Wesley Pugh

A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC) raised the Point of Order that already we have had more than two speakers on each side of the proposed amendment of Leonard D. Slutz () (Ohio—NC) and that if the Rules were not suspended, that speeches should be at an end on the substitute proposed by Leonard D. Slutz () (Ohio—NC).

Information and Question—John R. Wilkins ()—Ruling—Bishop Willis J. King*

John R. Wilkins (California-Nevada—W) called attention to the Constitution of The Methodist Church, Paragraph 22 of the 1952 Discipline, which reads as follows:—

¶ 22. Art. II.—The Annual Conference is the basic body in the Church, and as such shall have reserved to it the right to vote on all Constitutional Amendments, on the election of Ministerial and Lay Delegates to The General and the Jurisdictional or Central Conferences, on all matters relating to the character and conference relations of its Ministerial Members, and on the ordination of Ministers, and such other rights as have not been delegated to The General Conference under the Constitution, with the exception that the Lay Members may not vote on matters of Ordination, Character, and Conference Relations of Ministers. It shall discharge such duties and exercise such powers as The General Conference under the Constitution may determine.

and raised the following question:—

"Now, under the Constitution this matter is in the hands of the Annual Conference. Can a General Conference legislate and delegate that to the Cabinet?"

Ruling—Bishop Willis J. King

Bishop Willis J. King, the Presiding Officer, made the following statement:—

"The matter before us at the moment, sir, is the vote on this amendment. By the Rules we have had two speakers on both sides. The question now before you is the vote."

Questions—Merrill C. Johnson—Answers—Bishop Willis J. King

Merrill C. Johnson (New York—NE) asked the following questions, which were ruled upon by Bishop Willis J. King, the Presiding Officer, as follows:—

"I have a point of information or interpretation. When an amendment is to substitute, sir, that limits debate on the original Report, does it not? If we adopt the substitute we do not debate the original Report.

Bishop King: This, sir, is not a substitute. It is an amendment, and we are clarifying the original motion.

Merrill C. Johnson: It is an amendment to substitute. If we adopt this, we do not adopt the other.

Bishop King: The Chair understands that it is an amendment to the original Report and this discussion is made with a view of clarifying and perfecting the original Report.

Merrill C. Johnson: I beg to differ."

Speaks to Pending Amendment—James S. Chubb

James S. Chubb (Nebraska—SC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry, spoke to the pending substitute of Leonard D. Slutz (*) (Ohio—NC), as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman, we did not quite know what to say about this. This is very much in the spirit of the same legislation you find in the Majority Report. We find ourselves inclined to enthusiastically continue to support the Majority Report because it is a compromise legislation. It opens the door and enables us to get rid of another form of discrimination. I hope you defeat the substitution."

Substitute Amended by Common Consent—Leonard D. Slutz ()*

In view of the Constitutional question raised by James S. Chubb (Nebraska—SC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry, Leonard D. Slutz (*) (Ohio—NC) asked common consent of The General Conference to amend his proposed substitute by inserting the words, "WITH THE APPROVAL OF THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE," between the words, "may be left without appointment," and, "thereby located," so that the amended amendment will read (DB-93):—

"Women are eligible for all Orders of the ministry and full Conference membership; provided, however that a woman may be left without appointment, and WITH THE APPROVAL OF THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE, thereby located whenever the Bishop and Cabinet are satisfied that all reasonable efforts have been made and no suitable appointment for her can be found. Her status and pension rights shall then be the same as those of a minister who has been located at his own request."

The General Conference gave unanimous common consent for the insertion of the aforesaid words.

Amended Substitute Not Adopted—Leonard D. Slutz ()
—Ernest W. Peterson*

A request being made by The General Conference for a reading of the proposed amended amendment of Leonard D. Slutz () (Ohio—NC), Ernest W. Peterson () (Oregon—W), Secretary of Documents, read the amended amendment as set forth above.

The proposed amended substitute of Leonard D. Slutz (*) (Ohio—NC) on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.

*Substitute—Amendment—C. Anderson Davis—Not Adopted
—Ruling—Bishop Willis J. King*

C. Anderson Davis (East Tennessee—C) stated that he wished to make a substitute motion to the Majority Report at this time.

Ruling—Bishop Willis J. King

Bishop Willis J. King, the Presiding Officer, made the following ruling:—

“You are not in order, sir. There is a substitute, which is the Minority Report. You can only make an amendment this time.”

C. Anderson Davis (East Tennessee—C) moved to amend the Majority Report by deleting the words (DB-94), “that only unmarried women and widows may apply.”

The motion to thus amend, being duly seconded, C. Anderson Davis (East Tennessee—C) spoke to the same, as follows:—

“Mr. Chairman and Members of The Conference: I am of the opinion that if we should pass this legislation without striking out this particular sentence we would still be discriminating against a large group of our women. In our own Annual Conference of the five women who are preachers, four of them are married women. These four married women have no children, or no home responsibility.

It seems there are many women who are married who would be more capable of carrying on this ministry than the women who are not married and those who are working.”

Point of Order—Norman L. Trott—Ruling—Bishop Willis J. King

Norman L. Trott (Baltimore—NE) raised the following Point of Order:—

“Mr. Chairman, as I understand it we have a Minority Report before us, a substitute for the Majority Report. This gentleman is submitting an amendment to the Majority Report, and should be out of order.”

Ruling—Bishop Willis J. King

Bishop Willis J. King, the Presiding Officer, ruled as follows:—

"No. It is the Majority Report that is being perfected, sir, and being clarified. So he is in order if he is offering an amendment to the Majority Report."

Speech Resumed—C. Anderson Davis

C. Anderson Davis (East Tennessee—C) resumed his speech, as follows:—

"I do not believe, Bishop and Members of The Conference, that we should discriminate against any of the women. It is the same type of thing that prevailed when women were trying to get suffrage, to vote. If we discriminate against our women in this particular thing it does away with the whole principle of women having equal rights in any field.

Women who go into the field of medicine, into the field of law and similar fields do not crowd it and do not create a problem.

I do not feel they would create a problem in the ministry. I feel that they would bring much dignity and add much to it. The District Superintendents and the Bishop have great problems at times placing our men who are in the ministry, and I am sure they would not have any more trouble placing the women."

Previous Question—Olin D. Jackson—Ruling—Bishop Willis J. King

Olin D. Jackson (Minnesota—NC) moved the Previous Question on the Minority Report.

Statement—Bishop Willis J. King

Bishop Willis J. King, the Presiding Officer, asked if the Previous Question was moved on the pending amendment of C. Anderson Davis (East Tennessee—C)?

Olin D. Jackson (Minnesota—NC) stated his Previous Question was on the Minority Report.

Bishop Willis J. King, the Presiding Officer, made the following statement:—

"The Minority Report is not before us, sir. We are trying to perfect the Majority Report."

For Amendment—Everett W. Palmer

Everett W. Palmer (Southern California-Arizona—W) spoke in favor of the proposed amendment of C. Anderson Davis (East Tennessee—C), as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman, I would like to speak in support of the amendment. We are in agreement, I think, by and large, that the principle at stake we support. Our problem is at the point of administration. We say it is more difficult to administer. However, we have two Paragraphs in the Discipline, Par. 375 and Par. 377, which will enable us, District Superintendents and Bishops, to deal with any woman who cannot be appointed satisfactorily. She can be dealt with exactly as a man can be dealt with, and that is what they want.

We give them opportunity to have Full Rights in the Clergy and to have Full Rights as Members of the Conference. Then with the Full Rights come the responsibility of meeting the standards and being able to be appointed. If they cannot be appointed as acceptable they may be persuaded to accept voluntary location, and if they cannot be persuaded there is always the possibility of resorting to involuntary location.

I believe they may be dealt with when there is an administrative problem exactly as men are dealt with when they are administrative problems.

I hope we support this amendment. We need to do this thing and we will have to do it some day. Why not do it now and do it graciously?"

Against Amendment—Joe E. Bowers

Joe E. Bowers (Oklahoma—SC) spoke against the proposed amendment of C. Anderson Davis (East Tennessee—C), as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman, theory is one thing and practice is another. We are all familiar, of course, with the fact that the Discipline does provide that a person may be located because of inefficiency or unacceptableness, but we also know the embarrassment that is brought to an Annual Conference when such a situation does arise.

A good deal of talk has been made about the predicament of the District Superintendent in this matter. He is not the one who is on the spot at all. Actually it is the local church. I think it should be made perfectly clear here, as was made clear formerly in a statement concerning this originally, that if we support this we should support it with the understanding that it means the local church is willing to accept the Appointment of a lady as a minister.

If we have the situation, as we have all had in our Annual Conferences and will have more repeatedly in our Annual Conferences if this substitution should pass, where an individual is unacceptable, it will not be as easy as one might think to simply bring about the embarrassing situation of publicly announcing that this person is not acceptable to be appointed, and therefore must be located.

In my honest opinion the women would be in a much poorer position with this substitute than they now are."

For Majority Report—Ashoke B. Singh ()*

Ashoke B. Singh (*) (Bengal—OS) spoke in favor of Full Clergy Rights for Women, as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman, I want to make just a short statement. It will be for you to find out whether I am for the amendment or against the amendment. All I am for, Mr. Chairman, is for Full Clergy Rights For Women.

We from the far-flung ends of the world look up to America for inspiration and guidance in matters of progress and forward movement. I am amused at myself by the fact that I should come from the back woods of Bengal to champion the Full Clergy Rights of the all-powerful American woman.

The sentiments displayed by some of the masculine men of this Conference can be traced to our country also.

Some 50 years ago, there goes a story, a friend went to a village on a hunting expedition. There by the side of a river stood a master boatman. He asked, 'Do the crocodiles in the river cause any harm to human life?'

The master boatman smiled and casually replied, 'No harm to human life. They occasionally carry away goats and women.'

I have not yet stated my case. This is just an introduction.

Mr. Chairman, I can trace this splendid sentiment of masculine men back to England. Samuel Johnson, the famous English writer, was told that a certain woman preached remarkably. He replied, 'It may be remarkable preaching, sir, but it is not natural. Like a dog walking on his hind legs, you do not ask whether it is well done, but you are surprised that it is done at all.'

I was wondering whether such is the sentiment that you express here.

I should support Full Clergy Rights For Women."

Amendment to Amendment—Lynn J. Radcliffe

Lynn J. Radcliffe (Ohio—NC) moved to amend the proposed amendment of C. Anderson Davis (East Tennessee—C) as follows (DB-95) :—

Paragraph 313 shall read, "Women are included in all provisions, except that married women can only be so included by a three-fourths ($\frac{3}{4}$) vote of the Annual Conference."

The motion to thus amend the proposed amendment of C. Anderson Davis (East Tennessee—C) being duly seconded, Lynn J. Radcliffe (Ohio—NC), spoke to the same as follows :—

"Mr. Chairman and Members of The Conference: A day or two ago this Conference took historic action, action that moved forward upon a great principle. We moved forward against discrimination in one realm.

I believe we should with equal seriousness and similar Christian spirit face the principle involved today. It is long since the battle has been fought for equality for rights of women. In this Conference I hope that we may take equal pleasure in moving forward, in our action today, in this realm.

I have put in the safeguard of a three-fourths vote of the Annual Conferences involved. Certainly if you have that much democracy at work I can trust it and so can you.

The principle, Mr. Chairman, is a great one. Let us not be confused on this issue. Let us not lose our way in the multiplicity of amendment and parliamentary situation. The principle is, does Jesus Christ treat women as a child of God, entitled to the same privileges and rights as a man? I hope that we will not merely vote for the Majority Report and extend this right to unmarried women, but that we will likewise extend it under this safeguard of a three-fourths vote to the married women of our Methodism."

Against Amendment to Amendment—Farris F. Moore

Farris F. Moore (Tennessee—SE) spoke against the proposed amendment of Lynn J. Radcliffe (Ohio—NC) to the proposed amendment of C. Anderson Davis (East Tennessee—C) as follows:—

“Mr. Chairman, I am against the amendment which has been proposed by Brother Radcliffe, but I want to ask a question. In the matter of our talking about non-discrimination, if you will simply turn to the back of the Discipline, on page 725, and take the word ‘deaconess’ and move it down the page, you will discover that there is a category that is set up specifically for women. They allow no man to invade it. There are dozens of categories within the work of the Church that no man is allowed to invade. If we are going to talk about discrimination let’s talk about discrimination in all of the phases of the Church’s life.

I am against it. I am in favor of retaining in the Discipline that which we already have.”

Against Amendment to Amendment—W. Jackson Huneycutt

W. Jackson Huneycutt (Western North Carolina—SE) spoke against the proposed amendment of Lynn J. Radcliffe (Ohio—NC) to the proposed amendment of C. Anderson Davis (East Tennessee—C), as follows:—

“Mr. Chairman, I am speaking against this amendment to the amendment, because I favor Full Clergy Rights For Women, without respect of their marital status.

I would like to tell the Conference of a married woman Approved Supply Pastor, who works in Western North Carolina, who in 1953 was selected as the Rural Minister of North Carolina for the year. Her name is Mrs. C. O. Newell. She worked on the Crabtree charge and the Waynesville District for a period of six years. Part of that time was as Associate to her husband who was a Methodist Minister.

During her ministry there, four weak churches of a four-point Charge were revived; two new churches were built. At the other two points, extensive renovations were made on the sanctuaries, and educational facilities were built.

I am heartily in favor of Full Clergy Rights For Women, regardless of whether they are married or unmarried.”

For Amendment to Amendment—Lance Webb

Lance Webb (Ohio—NC) spoke in favor of the proposed amendment of Lynn J. Radcliffe (Ohio—NC) to the proposed amendment of C. Anderson Davis (East Tennessee—C), as follows:—

“Mr. Chairman and Members of this Conference: I would like to speak to this issue in favor of this amendment, to bring up a point which I do not think has yet been brought up—that is, concerning our Lay Preachers.

In Ohio we have had an increase in Accepted Supplies of about 73 per cent in the last few years. I assure you we have had some very fine Local Women Preachers who have served acceptably in local charges, but it seems to me if we give them the Full Rights of belonging to the Conference, that we will be making it possible for many more women who have the ability and the training and all the qualifications, to respond to our need. Therefore, I believe that we should open the way.

This amendment, it seems to me, will remove the objections, or at least will make it possible for at least three-fourths of the vote of any Conference to decide whether a woman has the qualifications and does not have the drawbacks that would hinder her from serving acceptably. Therefore, I hope that we vote for this amendment."

Previous Question—Roy R. Roudebush (*)—Ordered

Motion of Roy R. Roudebush (*) (North Indiana—NC), for the Previous Question on all matters pertaining to the prefecting of Report No. 2 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry, now before The General Conference, for its consideration and action on, duly seconded, prevailed by more than the required two-thirds majority vote.

Debate Closed—James S. Chubb

James S. Chubb (Nebraska—SC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry, closed the debate on the pending matter, as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman, I find myself very favorably impressed in its favor, but we have worked on the Committee and we got the type of compromise you would find in the Majority Report. I think perhaps on that basis and because we recognize here that we have a compromise, it would be well for the House to continue to support the Majority Report by continuing to reject the amendment."

Reading Called for—Ernest W. Peterson ()*

The General Conference requesting the reading of the proposed amendment of Lynn J. Radcliffe (Ohio—NC) to the proposed amendment of C. Anderson Davis (East Tennessee—C), Ernest W. Peterson (*) (Oregon—W), Document Secretary, at the request of Bishop Willis King, the Presiding Officer, read the amendment to the amendment, as follows:—

"Women are included in all provisions except that married women can only be so included by a three-fourths vote of the Annual Conference."

Proposed Amendment to Amendment Lynn J. Radcliffe— Not Adopted

The proposed amendment of Lynn J. Radcliffe (Ohio—NC) to the proposed amendment of C. Anderson Davis (East Tennessee—C), on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.

Proposed Amendment—C. Anderson Davis—Not Adopted

The proposed amendment of C. Anderson Davis (East Tennessee—C) to the Majority Report, on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.

For Minority Report—Lacy H. Burns

Lacy H. Burns (West Virginia—NE) rose to support the Minority Report.

Point of Order—James S. Chubb

James S. Chubb (Nebraska—SC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry, raised the following Point of Order:—

“Mr. Chairman, I think the parliamentary situation is that now the substitute for the Majority Report is before you.”

For Minority Report—Lacy H. Burns

Lacy H. Burns (West Virginia—NE) stated that he was attempting to support the Minority Report.

Ruling—Bishop Willis J. King

Bishop Willis J. King, the Presiding Officer, made the following statement:—

“That will come before us in just a moment, sir. I want to get the gentlemen over there.”

Substitute for Majority Report—Marvin L. Boyd—Ruling—Bishop Willis J. King

Marvin L. Boyd (Northwest Texas—SC) requested permission to present a substitute for the Majority Report, and made the following statement:—

“I desire to introduce a substitute for the Majority Report. I was told that it was not in order at that time, and you had promised me the privilege of introducing that substitute when it comes to be in order.

The question had been called for on the perfecting of the Majority Report. I do not want to have it perfected without the privilege of offering the substitute.”

Ruling—Bishop Willis J. King

Bishop Willis J. King, the Presiding Officer, ruled, as follows:—

“There is before us this Minority Report, which is a substitute for the Majority Report.

Marvin L. Boyd: And you are ruling that under the rules—

Bishop King: That it would have first consideration, sir. That the Minority Report would now need to be perfected before we could consider another substitute.

The Minority Report is before you now for clarification and for perfection."

Perfecting Minority Report—J. Dewey Muir

J. Dewey Muir (Illinois—NC) spoke in favor of the Minority Report as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman, I do not know that there is much to do in perfecting the Minority Report, for the Minority Report simply calls for the retaining in the legislation of the Church, that legislation which already is in effect, to continue Paragraph 313 as it is presented stated.

I would like, Mr. Chairman, to make just one or two observations. First of all, I again remind you that the Report coming as the Majority Report, was adopted by the very slim majority of the Committee of 40 voting for it and 32 voting against it.

I also would call to your attention the fact that the very discussion which we have had this afternoon is at least in some measure indicative of our contention that such legislation as is proposed in the Majority Report would be very difficult to administer. Hence, Mr. Chairman and Members of The General Conference, it is for this reason that we bring before you this Minority Report, feeling that it should be lifted up and in your consideration, and that lest we be swept off our feet through just sentiment without considering all of the implications that are involved in administration, we submit to you this Minority Report for your decision."

For Minority Report—Mrs. Henry D. Ebner ()*

Mrs. Henry D. Ebner (*) (New Jersey—NE) spoke in favor of the Minority Report, as follows:—

"Bishop, first of all I would like to say that I think this is a very serious question that is before us, and although we have had some funny things happening, I think we should consider it in a very serious light.

I would also like to say that as a woman, as a Local Preacher in my Church, I have never felt that my Church has discriminated against me, but that wherever I wanted to serve, there seemed to be a door opened to me, to be able to serve.

I would remind you all of the many times that you have sat in a meeting where you have been privileged to see great groups of Missionaries coming to the platform, as well as groups of Deaconesses, and we have been impressed by the great number of years of service that they have given to our Church. But we have also been impressed with the fact that many of these women are beyond 50 years of age and we do not seem to be able to attract the younger women to fill up the ranks.

Now, if I were a young woman and God was calling me into full-time Christian service, I feel that the Ministry would be a very attractive field for me. I won't go into all of the details as to why it would; but if we open up another field of service for our younger women, when at this time we do not have enough Deaconesses to work in our institutions and when we are bereft of those we need to fill up the ranks of the older Missionaries, I feel that we are making a big mistake.

I am not impressed, Bishop and Members of The Conference, Brothers and Sisters included, by the number of Memorials that have been sent in regard to this question, because I feel that many of them were sent in without the people realizing all that would be involved if this legislation were passed. I do know that of those that I have interviewed, and some in this very Conference, they said, 'Yes, we are in favor of Full Clergy Rights For Women, but I don't want a woman minister serving our church.'

Now, we do not want to discriminate further against our women, but if we enact such legislation we will find ourselves in the very embarrassing position of belittling many of our women who would be very glad to serve.

Now, there is an opportunity in our great Church for women to preach and we are very thankful for that. But before we vote on this question, those of us who might be tempted to vote to change our Discipline would have to answer yes to three very important questions, and I submit them in all seriousness.

First of all, if I voted yes, I would be able to say to my District Superintendent, 'Yes, send me a Woman Pastor.'

Secondly, the Ministers as well as the Laymen would have to say, 'I am willing to serve under a woman District Superintendent,' for if this goes through, we are not going to discriminate.

I do not like even to use the word 'discrimination' because in my mind it has always been connected with unhappiness and discontent. I have never felt that I needed as a woman to fight for equal rights with men. I feel I have far more rights than the men will ever have.

Furthermore, Bishop, my last question that I believe the Delegates of this Conference would have to answer in the affirmative if they vote yes, would be this: We are willing to elect a woman Bishop. Now, you may think that is rather exaggerated, but, believe me, it is not. You have had reference to the power of womanhood. I leave that to your own thinking.

I would urge that this be considered very seriously, that no more joking about it be passed around, and that you vote no when it comes to the Majority Report and that you support the Minority Report for the sake of the women of our Church."

Previous Question—A. Wesley Pugh—Not Ordered

A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC) moved the Previous Question on all before The General Conference. The motion was duly seconded.

Point of Order—Lynn J. Radcliffe—Ruling—Bishop Willis J. King

Lynn J. Radcliffe (Ohio—NC) raised the following Point of Order:—

"Does not our Rules provide there must be two speeches on each side of a major question like this before we move the Previous Question. I believe they do."

Ruling—Bishop Willis J. King

Bishop Willis J. King, the Presiding Officer, ruled, as follows:—

“I think you are correct, sir.”

Against Minority Report—Mrs. Edwin S. Anderson ()*

Mrs. Edwin S. Anderson (*) (New England—NE) spoke against the Minority Report as follows:—

“I am President of the Conference Woman’s Society of Christian Service. In considering women’s place in the Church, since the early days when she was not even permitted to sit in the pew with the men of her family, to say nothing of having a voice in Church policy, to the turn of the century when she was gradually given more recognition, the present time finds women being given more recognition in all areas of service and meeting the same standards as men.

Membership in our Methodist Church has increased by nearly two million in the past fifteen years, and as a result is far short of ministers to stock adequately the churches and expand its Program. The reserve of well-trained women ministers is ignored because of tradition, thus losing valuable and much needed leadership.

Women are accepted as candidates for the ministry and are permitted to graduate from seminaries. They are permitted to perform all the services that men ministers perform, and they are required to attend the sessions of Annual Conference. Each woman minister brings her Lay Delegate. The Lay Delegate is permitted to sit within the bower of the church and has the privilege of the floor; but the woman minister has no privileges. Much of the opposition, I believe, to Full Clergy Rights is based on difficulties which may arise, should women become Conference Members. I believe that most of these difficulties are hypothetical and are magnified out of all proportion to their importance.

I should like to comment very briefly on one or two of them. We hear that the churches will not accept women ministers; but we know that some Conferences are already using them most satisfactorily. The Maine Annual Conference, for instance, has Mrs. Margaret Henrichsen, who started out with two small churches and is now serving five additional churches which had no Pastors. There are many other instances which I might cite, but time does not permit.

A woman Conference Member is guaranteed an Appointment is another one of the objections. But why not for women as well as for men, if they have equal opportunities and equal qualifications?

Occasionally a member has taken the Supernumerary Relation because for one reason or another he was not willing to accept the Appointment offered. A woman Member of a Conference would have the same privilege. A woman joining a Conference would understand the difficulties which might be encountered, and I feel sure that these difficulties would be in some way satisfactorily solved.

The churches which have given Full Clergy Rights to women have been greatly pleased with the results. The Methodist Church has always been able to adapt itself to change and should set an example in granting equal rights and opportunities of service to all its members, regardless of sex.

There is a definite trend toward giving Full Clergy Rights to qualified women, and I believe that Methodism should join that trend. After discussion with some of the District Superintendents, I am, of course, well aware of the difficulties involved in Full Clergy Rights. However, I feel that this Majority Report should be accepted and, therefore, I am speaking against the Minority Report."

Recess—Bishop Willis J. King

Bishop Willis J. King, the Presiding Officer, called the attention of The General Conference to the fact that Recess was only five minutes away. By common consent The General Conference indicated that it desired to complete all matters pertaining to the consideration of and action on the Minority before Recess.

Against Minority Report—Miss Mary Lou Barnwell ()*

Miss Mary Lou Barnwell (*) (New York—NE), General Secretary of the Commission on Deaconess Work of the Woman's Division of Christian Service of the General Board of Missions of The Methodist Church, spoke against the Minority Report, as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman, I should like to make a statement regarding the second 'Whereas' in the Minority Report on page 439, the reference to recruitment of Deaconesses seems irrelevant to the subject of Clergy Rights For Women.

There is no intention to seek to recruit Deaconesses for the ministry, although Full Clergy Rights will enable any qualified Deaconess to apply for full membership in an Annual Conference, if she feels called to do so. This privilege should evoke no fear that there will be a great group of these women making application. Of 500 Deaconesses now active in The Methodist Church, all except 29 favor Full Clergy Rights For Women.

However, only 27 have any thought of possible consideration of assuming such relationship for themselves. They are primarily those who are serving in certain rural areas which are now handicapped because of the lack of sufficient number of well-trained ministers. Ten of the 27 are already serving as Supply Pastors. Full Membership in the Annual Conference will enable a greater degree of effectiveness for any minister.

We trust that the Program of Deaconess Work will in no way be confused with this issue on Clergy Rights For Women; in no way do we believe that the extension of Full Clergy Rights will affect the recruitment of Deaconesses."

Against Minority Report—Harold A. Bosley

Harold A. Bosley (Rock River—NC) was recognized and indicated he would like to speak against the Minority Report.

Point of Order—J. Dewey Muir—Sustained—Bishop Willis J. King

J. Dewey Muir (Illinois—NC) made the Point of Order that there had already been two speeches against the Minority Report, and therefore a third speech against the Minority Report would be out of order.

Ruling—Bishop Willis J. King

Bishop Willis J. King, the Presiding Officer, made the following statement:—

“That is the point we wanted to make. We need one speech in favor.”

Time Extended—A. Wesley Pugh—Adopted

Motion of A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC), duly seconded, prevailed that the time be extended to complete consideration of and action on the Minority Report, attached to Report No. 2 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry, Subject, “Clergy Rights For Women.”

Statement—James S. Chubb

James S. Chubb (Nebraska—SC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry, made the following statement:—

“Mr. Chairman and Members of The Conference: We are right now to the crucial issue which all of us recognize, as to how you vote. I suppose the issue is this, whether we are taking the daring or brand new opportunity to secure the type of woman who heretofore thought she could not actively enter the ministry.

I recognize the problems. I am a minister. I wouldn't want every woman on my Staff, but I know a couple in this Conference, if they will make application, they will get very good consideration and they would get their chance to preach regularly like the rest of us on the Staff, and I do it because of their merit, and that is exactly where we are.”

Closes Debate for Minority Report—J. Dewey Muir

J. Dewey Muir (Illinois—NC) closed the debate for the adoption of the Minority Report, attached to Report No. 2 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry, Subject, “Clergy Rights For Women,” with the following statement:—

“Let us understand that we move together, in whatever direction we move, seeking not only that here may be accomplished that which to the best of our ability and to the best of our particular judgment will fulfill the will of God as it relates to the ministry of The Methodist Church.

That we are of divided opinion, of course, is self-evident. Yet I am sure that those who are for this or for that are all of them trying to be motivated and guided by a spirit of love and a spirit of our Christ.

In presenting the Minority Report, the group doing so have brought in the Report without any thought of malice, without any urge of contention, without any thought of anything other than that in our judgment it is to the best interest of our Methodist Church that we continue under the legislation under which we now operate. We do not have in our minds any thought of discrimination.

As has already been pointed out to you, so far as the functions of the Christian ministry are concerned, it is ordination which grants that privilege, and there is nothing which an ordained woman who is a member of an Annual Conference can do which she cannot do without membership other than to vote in the Annual Conference.

Already she has the same pension rights. Already she has the same privilege of the Sacraments. But we are convinced, as is evidenced even in the Report which comes from the majority of the Committee, that there are certain administrative problems which are involved.

We leave it to your hands and for your decision, and I have faith to believe that that which we propose and do shall be done only with the thought in all our minds that we are instruments in the hands of God trying to work out here not that which serves any special group, male or female, but that which serves the best interests of the Church and on-going Kingdom of our God."

J. Dewey Muir (Illinois—NC) moved that the Minority Report, DCA No. 9, page 439, column 3, Subject, "Clergy Rights For Women" be substituted for Report No. 2 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry, Calendar No. 26, DCA No. 5, page 192, column 3, Subject, "Clergy Rights For Women."

The motion was duly seconded.

Closes Debate for Committee—James S. Chubb

James S. Chubb (Nebraska—SC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry, closed the debate for the Committee, with the following statement:—

"Mr. Chairman and Members of The Conference: I don't know, I find myself particularly proud of our Methodist women. I think they are about as capable, about as good-looking as any crowd of women I want to meet anywhere.

I don't know how the women are in your family but the one thing they don't get and want is the thing that makes them very unhappy. They tripped me up until I got smart and gave it to them. The one thing that many of them want, perhaps an overwhelming majority of them want, is the privilege, if they qualify, to become members of the Conference. Many of them think they do not get the church that they should—any Methodist minister must be used to that. We can't solve the practical problems until we have the opportunity to do so.

We have said for several quadrenniums now, 'Some day we will do it.' The time has come to do it now!

I hope you will reject the Minority Report and come speedily to a vote on the Majority Report.

I thank you.

And in the spirit of Dr. Muir, we say these things in the best of spirit, knowing that Methodists always do the things which in their judgment they think are wise and good and Christian.

Let us get on with the voting."

Minority Report Not Substituted

The vote was taken on the substitution of the Minority Report for the Majority Report, being Report No. 2 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry, Subject, "Clergy Rights For Women," and Bishop Willis J. King, the Presiding Officer, stated that the motion to substitute the Minority Report was not adopted.

Count Vote—Adlai C. Holler—Ordered

On motion of Adlai C. Holler (South Carolina—SE), duly seconded, a count vote was ordered by more than the required one-third vote of The General Conference, as provided in Rule 11 of the Rules of Order.

Count Vote Taken—William H. Wilcox () For 310—Against 425*

Under the direction of William H. Wilcox (*) (Oklahoma—SC), Secretary of Count Votes, a count vote was taken on substituting the Minority Report for Report No. 2, of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry, Subject, "Clergy Rights For Women," with the following results:—For substituting 310; Against substituting 425.

Bishop William J. King, the Presiding Officer, stated that the Minority Report was not substituted for Report No. 2, the Majority Report, of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry, Subject, "Clergy Rights For Women."

Recess Ordered—A. Wesley Pugh

A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC) made the following statement:—

"Mr. Chairman and Members of The Conference: A while ago we moved to extend the time for the completion of this matter. But we did so with the idea that perhaps we were ready to vote on it. If it should develop that we are still going to debate the main question, the Majority Report, I think we owe something in courtesy to the ladies who are outside here.

We have told them that we would have a Recess at 3:45. They have been so kind to us that I believe we ought to take recess after this vote is announced, if there are to be other motions or substitutes presented."

Recess

Bishop Willis J. King, the Presiding Officer, declared The General Conference to be in Recess.

Reconvene—Bishop Willis J. King—Garrett Glee Club—Austin C. Lovelace—James R. Houghton (*)

At the conclusion of the Recess period, Bishop Willis J. King, the Presiding Officer, called The General Conference to order for the completion of the business pertaining to the afternoon session of the Tenth Day, Friday, May 4, 1956, stating that James R. Houghton (*) (New England—NE), General Conference Director of Music, would present the singers.

Garrett Glee Club Presented—James R. Houghton ()*

James R. Houghton () (New England—NE), General Conference Director of Music, presented the Glee Club of Garrett Biblical Institute of Evanston, Illinois, and their Director, Austin C. Lovelace () (Rock River—NC).

Under the direction of Austin C. Lovelace (*), (Rock River—NC), the Glee Club of Garrett Biblical Institute rendered the following selections:—

"Sing Ye Praises"	Schuetz
"Out of the Depths"	Bach
"Built on the Rock"	Lindemann
"Salvation Belongeth to Our God"	Tschesnokov
"When Jesus Wept"	Billings

Thanks—Bishop Willis J. King

Bishop Willis J. King, the Presiding Officer for The General Conference, expressed thanks to Austin C. Lovelace (*) Director and the Glee Club of Garrett Biblical Institute, for their presence and their inspiring music.

Parliamentary Situation—Bishop Willis J. King

Bishop Willis J. King, the Presiding Officer, made the following statement:—

"As the Chair sees the parliamentary situation it is as follows: The Minority Report was not accepted. The Majority Report is before you. Before it is presented there are two matters I would like to have you indulge the Chair in. The first is a question of privilege to Dr. J. Dewey Muir who is the Chairman of the Minority Report. The second has to do with a substitute to be offered by Dr. Marvin L. Boyd of the Northwest Texas Conference. We promised to let him have the privilege after Recess, and we feel in honor bound to do that.

I shall now be glad to have Dr. J. Dewey Muir state his privilege."

Personal Privilege—J. Dewey Muir

Bishop Willis J. King, the Presiding Officer, recognized J. Dewey Muir (Illinois—NC) for a matter of high personal privilege.

J. Dewey Muir (Illinois—NC) made the following statement:—

“Mr. Chairman and Members of The Conference: I voice to you my very great appreciation for the very fine way in which you received the presentation of the Minority Report which has been before you, which you have rejected, and come now to a consideration of the Majority Report.

I am quite convinced of this: that Methodists ought not always to agree, but in this we really ought always to agree that we disagree agreeably. You have been a great crowd to present a Minority Report before, and I want you to know that personally I am deeply appreciative.

I also want to state my position: that the Minority Report having not been accepted I am swinging my support to the Majority Report, and trust that without a great deal of further debate or deliberation you will enact it as the legislation of this General Conference.”

Substitute—Marvin L. Boyd—Withdrawn

Marvin L. Boyd (Northwest Texas—SC) was recognized and presented a substitute for Report No. 2 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry, Calendar No. 26, DCA No. 5, page 192, column 3, Subject, “Clergy Rights For Women,” as follows (DB-96):—

Delete all of Paragraph 313 of the 1952 Discipline which reads as follows: “Women are included in the foregoing provisions, except in so far as they apply to candidates for the traveling ministry.” and insert a new Paragraph to read, as follows:—

“Any Annual Conference may include women in the provisions of the Discipline which apply to the traveling ministry, and may establish limitations for the inclusion of women in such provisions.”

The motion to thus substitute, being duly seconded, Marvin L. Boyd (Northwest Texas—SC) spoke to the same, as follows:—

“Mr. Chairman and Members of The Conference: I have no disposition to delay the final decision of this Conference. It is my opinion that this is one possibility which has not been before us for consideration and which should be considered before our final decision is made.

In all of these matters we have talked in terms of a principle and then of implementing that principle. It seems to me that when we permit women to be admitted in Annual Conferences anywhere we approve the principle of Clergy Rights For Women.

The chief problem is not a problem of principle but a problem of obstacles which seem to many of us in some places to be almost insurmountable. Because of that fact we believe that the Constitution of the Church places great responsibility in the matter of the traveling ministry upon the Annual Conference, and that is where it properly belongs. It is the Annual Conference that assumes the responsibility of providing for a traveling preacher once they have been admitted into the Membership of that Conference.

Now, if any Annual Conference is ready at this time to admit married women without restriction, this substitute makes that possible. It makes it possible for any Annual Conference when and if it is ready to admit women either with or without restriction to do so.

It seems to me the Annual Conference being the body which assumes the responsibility should have this privilege. Those of us who do not think our Conferences are ready certainly do not want to do anything that would prevent any Conference that is ready from admitting women under these circumstances.

We feel that when and if we should be ready, this would give us the opportunity and provide the proper procedure to make that possible.

I simply offer this in the belief that it might represent the way that would most nearly enable every Conference to do the thing which it is ready and prepared to do, and which would ultimately bring about the best solution.

Some discussion has been made along the line that if this Majority Report prevails, four years from now another step will be taken.

If this is adopted there would be no necessity for ever taking another step, for every Annual Conference would always be able to go as far in this matter as it is ready and willing to go, and it seems to me a very difficult matter to expect an Annual Conference to go any further than that until it is ready.

I think that is about all I have to say, sir."

Point of Order—A. Wesley Pugh

A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC) raising a Point of Order, made the following statement:—

"Mr. Chairman, Point of Order, if you please, sir. The Point of Order is that we are acting under the Previous Question made by Roy R. Roudebush (*) and passed by The Conference relating to the completion of the Majority Report. The Presiding Officer very courteously extended to Mr. Boyd the privilege of presenting his substitute.

It seems to me unless we back up on what we have already done, in ordering the Previous Question, that this courtesy should be curtailed pretty quickly."

Withdraws Substitute—Marvin L. Boyd

Marvin L. Boyd (Northwest Texas—SC) made the following statement:—

"Mr. Chairman, if we were acting under the Previous Question then I was out of order in presenting the substitute.

Bishop King: I admitted that to begin with, Mr. Boyd. It was a matter of indulgence.

Marvin L. Boyd: I was then out of order, sir, I would like to withdraw it. I do not wish to present anything when I am not in order. I understood previously that I was out of order at that time, before Recess, and that when the time came, before somebody offered a motion on the Previous Question on all before us—the very thing that has happened—I would have the privilege to present this substitute, when it would be in order. I do not wish to present anything if I am out of order."

Previous Question Reconsidered—Bishop Willis J. King

Bishop Willis J. King, the Presiding Officer, made the following statements:—

"Will the body agree to reconsider the Previous Question? As many as will agree, let it be known by a show of hands; opposed. It is reconsidered.

You are now in order, Dr. Boyd."

Statement—Marvin L. Boyd—Substitute Not Adopted

Marvin L. Boyd (Northwest Texas—SC) stated that he did not desire to consume the time of The General Conference, and moved the adoption of his offered substitute. The motion was duly seconded.

The motion to substitute, on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.

Substitute—William H. Alderson—Amended—Adopted

William H. Alderson (New York East—NE) moved as a substitute for Report No. 2 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry, Calendar No. 26, DCA No. 5 page 192, column 3, Subject, "Clergy Rights For Women," that Paragraph 313 of the 1952 Discipline reading as follows:—

"Par. 313. Women are included in the foregoing provisions, except in so far as they apply to candidates for the traveling ministry."

be deleted.

The motion to thus substitute, being duly seconded, William H. Alderson (New York East—NE), spoke to the same, as follows:—

"We have just voted in this Conference by a vote of 345 to 310, I think it was, that we did not want this Paragraph to remain in the Discipline as it is. I feel that that means we want some change at this point. If we delete Paragraph 313, we have solved the problem of discrimination which some have been calling it, and both men and women are on an equal basis, when they come before the Annual Conference for Admission. It is then wide open without any conditions whatsoever, for the Annual Conference to decide whether or not on the basis of qualifications, the man or the woman, the applicant—whichever it is—shall be admitted.

This Conference started out very cautiously on the question of discrimination. It then became very bold and, I think, Divinely led and took some great forward steps at that point. We have been very cautious on this question up to the present time. I think the moment has come for us to take this Paragraph out of the Discipline, which lets us start with everybody on an equal basis.

The Methodist Church has always been capable of handling situations by proper legislation, as these necessities have arisen, and if the elimination of this Paragraph creates difficulties, then in future years we can take care of those difficulties.

I hope, sir, that this motion to substitute will prevail."

No Remarks—James S. Chubb

James S. Chubb (Nebraska—SC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry stated that he had nothing further to say.

Amendment to Substitute—Zach T. Johnson—Adopted

Zach T. Johnson (Kentucky—SE) moved to amend the substitute of William H. Alderson (New York East—NE) by changing its phraseology to read as follows (DB-98):—

Paragraph 313 when amended will read, "Women are included in the foregoing provisions, and may apply as candidates for the traveling ministry as provided for in Chapter 3 of the Discipline, Title—Traveling Preachers." Paragraphs 321-356.

The motion to thus amend the substitute, being duly seconded, Zach T. Johnson (Kentucky—SE), spoke to the same as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman and Members of The General Conference: This is a positive approach to this, and it simply says we are willing to admit any woman who can meet the same conditions that men now meet, to enter any Conference. It leaves the matter for the Conference to decide on the basis of the general conditions laid down in the Discipline, and the specific requirements for admission into any Conference.

Let us give the women the perfect right to apply on the same basis as any member of any Annual Conference in Methodism. This does that."

Previous Question—Lynn J. Radcliffe—Ordered

On motion of Lynn J. Radcliffe (Ohio—NC), duly seconded, the Previous Question was ordered in all matters pending before The General Conference.

Question—Marvin L. Boyd—Answer—Lynn J. Radcliffe

Marvin L. Boyd (Northwest Texas—SC) raised a question which was answered by Lynn J. Radcliffe (Ohio—SC) as follows:—

"Are we to interpret the fact that a motion has been admitted for the Previous Question, to indicate that we have not been operating under the Previous Question?

It seems to me that we are either under the Previous Question or we are not under the Previous Question. We should have these motions before us and permit debate. If we are under it, we should be under it.

Lynn J. Radcliffe: I moved the Previous Question on the main motion. We must, under our Rules, proceed to perfect the substitute which was the Minority Report.

After that is turned down, other substitutes are in order. My motion, however, precludes further discussion of substitutes and is on the entire matter that is before us."

Amendment to Substitute Read—Ernest W. Peterson ()*

At the request of The General Conference, Ernest W. Peterson (*) (Oregon—W) Secretary of Documents, read the proposed amendment of Zach T. Johnson (Kentucky—SE) to the proposed substitute of William H. Alderson (New York East—NE) for Report No. 2 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry, Subject, "Clergy Rights For Women," as follows:—

"That Paragraph 313 shall be amended to read: Women are included in the foregoing provisions and may apply as candidates for the traveling ministry as provided for in chapter 3 of the Discipline, Title—Traveling Preachers, paragraphs 321-356."

Result of Vote Announced—Bishop Willis J. King

Bishop Willis J. King, the Presiding Officer, stated that it seemed that from the show of hands the proposed amendment of Zach T. Johnson (Kentucky—SE) was not adopted.

Count Vote Ordered—Zach T. Johnson

On motion of Zach T. Johnson (Kentucky—SE), duly seconded, a count vote was ordered by The General Conference by more than the one-third vote required by Rule 11 of the Rules of Order

Question—Russell E. Clay—Answer—Ernest W. Peterson ()*

Russell E. Clay (Southern California-Arizona—W) asked for a clear statement of the pending matter, and the answer was given by Ernest W. Peterson (*) (Oregon—W), Secretary of Documents, at the request of the Presiding Officer, Bishop Willis J. King, as follows:—

"A YES vote would be in favor of the proposed amendment of Zach T. Johnson (Kentucky—SE) to the substitute of William H. Alderson (New York East—NE); a NO vote would be in opposition to it."

Further Calls for the Reading of Proposed Amendment

Further requests for the reading of the proposed amendment of Zach T. Johnson (Kentucky—SE) to the proposed substitute of William H. Alderson (New York East—NE) being made, Ernest W. Peterson (*) (Oregon—W) Secretary of Documents, again read the proposed amendment of Zach T. Johnson (Kentucky—SE), as follows:—

“Paragraph 313, when amended will read, ‘Women are included in the foregoing provisions and may apply as candidates for the traveling ministry as provided for in Chapter III of the Discipline, entitled “Traveling Preachers,” Paragraphs 321 to 356 inclusive.’”

Suggestion—W. Ralph Ward

Motion of W. Ralph Ward (Pittsburgh—NE) duly seconded, prevailed, that The General Conference be seated, and then the Count Vote be taken.

Parliamentary Situation—Bishop Willis J. King

Bishop Willis J. King, the Presiding Officer, made the following statement:—

“You are now voting on the amendment to the substitute. The substitute proposes to eliminate Paragraph 313. The amendment to the substitute proposes to retain much of Paragraph 313, but rephrasing it, adding to it in the language that was read by the Secretary.”

Question—Leonard D. Slutz ()—Answer—Bishop Willis J. King*

Leonard D. Slutz (*) (Ohio—NC) asked a question, which was answered by Bishop Willis J. King, the Presiding Officer, as follows:—

“Mr. Chairman, I want to ask a question of parliamentary inquiry. I want to ask the Chair if the Chair interprets this amendment to grant Full Clergy Rights To Women, which is what I understand it to be and is the reason I am for it.

Bishop King: My understanding is that this amendment grants Full Clergy Rights To Women.”

Question—Ralph Taylor Alton—Answer—Bishop Willis J. King

Ralph Taylor Alton (Wisconsin—NC) raised a question which was answered by Bishop William J. King, the Presiding Officer, as follows:—

“Bishop, I would like to ask for a judgment from the Chair, too, as to whether the substitute to which this is an amendment is not also an enactment for Full Clergy Rights For All Women.

Bishop King: I think so. What the substitute does is to eliminate any reference to women putting them in the same class as other candidates for the ministry. This proposes, as I understand it, simply to make it definite as to women.

Ralph Taylor Alton: Then, this is discriminatory legislation in favor of women.”

Count Vote—William H. Wilcox (*) For Amendment 389—Against 297

Under the direction of William H. Wilcox (*) (Oklahoma—SC), Secretary of Count Votes, a Count Vote was taken on the proposed amendment of Zach T. Johnson (Kentucky—SE) and resulted, as follows:—For the amendment 389 votes, against the amendment 297.

Bishop Willis J. King, the Presiding Officer, announced that the substitute of William H. Alderson (New York East—NE) as amended by the proposed amendment of Zach T. Johnson (Kentucky—SE) had been adopted, and reads as follows:—

“Paragraph 313, when amended, will read, ‘Women are included in the foregoing provisions, and may apply as candidates for the traveling ministry as provided in Chapter III of the Discipline, entitled “Traveling Preachers,” Paragraphs 321 to 356 inclusive.’”

Motion to Adjourn—Charles P. Bowles—Not Adopted

Charles P. Bowles (Western North Carolina—SE) moved that we do now adjourn.

Point of Order—James S. Chubb

James S. Chubb (Nebraska—SC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry raised the Point of Order that The General Conference had moved to extend the time to complete all matters in connection with the consideration of and action on Report No. 2 of the Committee, Subject, “Clergy Rights For Women.”

Point of Order—G. Alfred Brown

G. Alfred Brown (Central Texas—SC) raised a further Point of Order that the motion to extend the time was simply for the hearing of the results of the Count Vote, and not to complete the pending legislation.

Motion to Complete Pending Matters—Asbury Smith

Asbury Smith (Baltimore—NE) moved to extend the time to complete consideration of and action on Report No. 2 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry. The motion was duly seconded.

Motion to Adjourn—Charles P. Bowles—Not Adopted

The motion of Charles P. Bowles (Western North Carolina—SE) that we do now adjourn, on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.

Complete Pending Legislation—Asbury Smith—Adopted

The motion of Asbury Smith (Baltimore—NE) to extend the time to complete consideration of and action on Report No. 2 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry, Subject, "Clergy Rights For Women," on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was adopted.

Previous Question—James M. Ewing (*)—Ordered

Motion of James M. Ewing (*) (Mississippi—SE), duly seconded, prevailed, ordering the Previous Question on all pending matters before The General Conference.

Amended Substitute Adopted

The motion to substitute the substitute proposed by William H. Alderson (New York East—NE) as amended by the adopted amendment of Zach T. Johnson (Kentucky—SE) for Report No. 2 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry, Calendar No. 26, DCA No. 5, page 192, column 3, Subject, "Clergy Rights For Women," the Majority Report of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry, on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was adopted.

No. 2—Ministry—Adopted as Amended

Report No. 2 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry, Calendar No. 26, DCA No. 5, page 192, column 3, Subject, "Clergy Rights for Women," as amended by substitution and amendment, was then adopted. For Report see Appendix, page 1546.

Appreciation—James S. Chubb

James S. Chubb (Nebraska—SC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry, thanked all parties concerned for their spirit of co-operation and courtesy in the consideration of and action on Report No. 2 of the Committee, Subject, "Clergy Rights for Women."

Onita McCulloh—Silent Prayer—James S. Chubb—James W. Henley

As a highly privileged matter James S. Chubb (Nebraska—SC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry, made the following statement:—

"Mr. Chairman, Members of The Conference, may I express to you my sincere thanks for the courtesy and your good judgment. Will you please pause a moment. Gerald McCulloh, who was to have been on the platform with us, was called home as his daughter is very, very ill.

May I not have the high courtesy of asking us to pause for one moment of silent prayer for him?

Bishop King: A matter of privilege. We will ask Dr. Henley if he will come forward to make a statement. Dr. Henley is the Pastor of Mr. McCulloh.

Dr. Henley: A host of you who are here know and love Gerald McCulloh. He was called home last night because of the severe illness, sickness of his daughter, Onita. Word has come this afternoon that Onita is at the point of death and the doctors give very little encouragement, and all of us who have heard that have been tremendously distressed.

Let me suggest, Mr. Chairman, a request to you that you invite all of us to stand in a few moments of silent prayer for this daughter of one of our own families, and for the family and those who minister to her."

The General Conference stood in silent prayer.

Announcements—Lud H. Estes—Leon T. Moore

Various announcements were made by Lud H. Estes (Memphis—SE), Secretary of The General Conference, and by Leon T. Moore (Philadelphia—NE) Secretary-Designate of The General Conference.

Thanks—Gavel—Bishop Willis J. King

Bishop Willis J. King, the Presiding Officer, thanked The General Conference for the courtesy shown him this afternoon, and stated that the gavel used was presented to him by the Liberian Annual Conference, and that it is made of ivory.

Adjournment—Benediction—Bishop John M. Springer

The afternoon session of the Tenth Day, Friday, May 4, 1956, of The General Conference of The Methodist Church, adjourned at 5:10 P.M. with the Benediction pronounced by Bishop John M. Springer, Retired, of Africa.

TENTH DAY, FRIDAY, MAY 4, 1956

EVENING SESSION

Opening—Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy—James R. Houghton (*)—Charles I. Carpenter

Pursuant to adjournment, The General Conference of The Methodist Church convened in the evening session of the Tenth Day, Friday, May 4, 1956, in the Municipal Auditorium at Minneapolis, Minnesota, at 7:45 P.M., with Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy, of the Los Angeles Area, Western Jurisdiction, presiding, who stated that due to the absence of James R. Houghton (*) (New England—NE), caused by a slight illness, that Charles I. Carpenter (Peninsula—NE), Chief of Air Force Chaplains, would lead the singing.

Hymn 44—Charles I. Carpenter

Charles I. Carpenter (Peninsula—NE) announced Hymn No. 44, "Day Is Dying In the West." The General Conference stood, and joined in the singing of the Hymn, under the direction of Charles I. Carpenter (Peninsula—NE).

Prayer—Bishop A. Frank Smith

Still standing, The General Conference was led in prayer by Bishop A. Frank Smith, of the Houston-San Antonio Area, South Central Jurisdiction.

MacMurray College Choir—Charles I. Carpenter

Charles I. Carpenter (Peninsula—NE) presented the Choir of MacMurray College of Jacksonville, Illinois, the Director, Henry E. Busche () (Illinois—NC), and the Organist, Robert Glasgow () (Illinois—NC).

Under the direction of Henry E. Busche (*) (Illinois—NC), Director, the MacMurray College Choir rendered the following selections:—

"Father Almighty," by Brahms

"O Magnum Mysterium," by De Victorio

"We Hasten With Feeble But Diligent Footsteps," by Bach

Thanks—Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy

Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy, the Presiding Officer, expressed the thanks of The General Conference for the presence of the MacMurray College Choir, their Director, and the fine music they had rendered.

Announcement—Leon T. Moore

Leon T. Moore (Philadelphia—NE), Secretary-Designate of The General Conference made an important announcement at this time.

Recognition—Miss Georgia Harkness (*)—Lynn H. Corson

On a matter of high personal privilege Lynn H. Corson (New Jersey—NE) was recognized, and made the following statement:—

“Mr. Chairman, this is a day of particular triumph and significance to one of the Members of this group who for many years has been looking forward to this moment when Full Clergy Rights For Women would be voted by this General Conference. I refer to Dr. Georgia Harkness.

I think that it is a matter only due her as a courtesy from The General Conference to express the appreciation of The Conference for this valiant fight she has waged for this cause for many years and express to her how we know that on this day she must have peculiar satisfaction in the knowledge that this fight has eventuated in final victory for her cause.

Let us salute Dr. Georgia Harkness.”

The General Conference stood in applause.

Response—Miss Georgia Harkness (*)

Miss Georgia Harkness (*) (Troy—NE) responded with the following statement:—

“I must have a moment to thank you for this very wonderful expression.

Some of you wondered why I didn't speak this afternoon. It says in the Bible there is a time to speak and a time to be silent. I thought we would do better if we let the rest of you speak. Thank you.”

Order of the Day—Recognition Service—Bishop W. Earl Ledden—Clarence M. Dannelly (*)

The Order of the Day having arrived, the Recognition Service for the Bishops who are to retire at the approaching session of their respective Jurisdictional and Central Conferences, and also for those Members of The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church, who retire at this session of The General Conference of The Methodist Church, Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy recognized Bishop W. Earl Ledden of the Syracuse Area, Northeastern Jurisdiction and President of The Council of Bishops of The Methodist Church.

Retiring Bishops Recognized—Bishop W. Earl Ledden

Bishop W. Earl Ledden, of the Syracuse Area, Northeastern Jurisdiction, and President of The Council of Bishops of The Methodist Church invited those Bishops who are to retire at the 1956 session of their respective Jurisdictional and Central Conferences to come to the platform, namely:—

Bishop Raymond L. Archer, Singapore Area, Southeastern Asia, Central Conference.

Bishop Costen J. Harrell, Charlotte Area, Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference.

Bishop Ivan Lee Holt, St. Louis Area, South Central Jurisdictional Conference.

Bishop J. Waskom Pickett, Delhi Area, Southern Asia Central Conference.

Bishop Clare Purcell, Birmingham Area, Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference.

Bishop Clement D. Rokey, Lucknow Area, Southern Asia Central Conference.

Bishop Ralph A. Ward, China Central Conference.

Bishop W. Earl Ledden, of the Syracuse Area, Northeastern Jurisdiction, and President of The Council of Bishops of The Methodist Church, addressed The General Conference as follows:—

"I know it seems incongruous to have these strong leaders of the Church standing before us as Bishops who will be retired before the next session of The General Conference. They are all known, trusted and loved, and there will be full recognition at the Jurisdictional Conferences and others to which they are related; but they are also related to every one of us; in a sense they dramatize the unity of the Church and that is why you wanted them presented at this session of The General Conference.

Theodore Parker once paid a most unusual tribute to a man. He said, 'Praise be to God for three good things—the sun, the moon and Ralph Waldo Emerson.'

Now, is man dwarfed in such cosmic company? Not in the Christian view, for the only meaning there is to the world and the whole creative process is in the life and the meaning of man, and I am sure that the Christ who said how much greater than a sheep would likewise say, how much greater than the sun and the moon is a man, and when a man has devoted his life to the service of God and has given such distinguished services as these dear leaders of ours have given, we feel that there is no company in the universe that can dwarf them.

I would be inclined, Mr. Chairman, to move to amend the motion by Theodore Parker by substituting for Ralph Waldo Emerson the name of any one of these Bishops. The world has been their parish. I do not dare start to speak about any one of them individually. It would take the entire session, because there is a fascinating story that might be told about the service of any one of them, a story that is well known and will be better known as the years go by.

We do recognize them on this occasion. Before all the trumpet sound for them on the other side, a fanfare, we pray, that may be long deferred, we sound their name before God in gratitude for their fellowship and in tribute to their shining achievements by God's grace."

Bishop W. Earl Ledden then presented the Bishops and The General Conference stood, and applauded.

Judicial Council Members Presented—Bishop W. Earl Ledden
—Clarence M. Dannelly ()—J. Ernest Wilkins ()

Bishop W. Earl Ledden, of the Syracuse Area, Northeastern Jurisdiction, and President of The Council of Bishops of The Methodist Church, presented Clarence M. Dannelly (*) of The Judicial Council, with the following statement:—

"The Judicial Council has an increasingly significant place in the life of the Church and in our sense of appreciation. At this time, I would like to call upon Dr. Clarence M. Dannelly to give recognition to some things upon the hearts of The Judicial Council, and I am sure upon ours, too."

Clarence M. Dannelly ()—J. Ernest Wilkins ()—Presented

Clarence M. Dannelly (*) (Alabama—SE) spoke of the work of The Judicial Council in the work of The Methodist Church, as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman, ladies and gentlemen, friends of The Conference, Council of Bishops, visitors in the galleries: The Judicial Council begins its part of this period of recognition with the statement about its place of service in the work of the Church. The Judicial Council, which is included within the structural organization of The Methodist Church, is one of the three co-ordinate branches of its government, analagous, in fact, to the government of the United States with its Executive, Legislative and Judicial Branches.

Division II of the Church's Constitution establishes The General Conference as the Legislative Branch.

Division III deals with the Bishops as the Executive Branch, and Division IV constitutes The Judicial Council as the Judicial Branch.

The historical development of this achievement by the Church is interesting. Prior to 1934, when The General Conference of The Methodist Episcopal Church, South, established The Judicial Council, the Bishops made Judicial Decisions, including Decisions on the Constitutionality and legality of the acts of The General Conference as well as of their own actions.

Prior to the United Conference in 1939, The General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church passed on the constitutionality and legality of Denominational Actions, including those of its own body. This was done through adopting Reports of the Judiciary Committee which made Reports as other Committees. This Committee was in existence only during The General Conference session.

The Plan of Union provided that there should be a Judicial Council and the Uniting Conference, in accepting The Judicial Council from the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, established in the structure of The Methodist Church this third branch of government. The Judicial Council has tremendous responsibilities. When decisions from Bishops, actions of your body, requests of Boards and Commissions reach this Council for review and ruling, it must act. You can realize the concern in which it acts in the light of the Constitutional provision, 1952 Discipline, Paragraph 44, that 'all decisions of The Judicial Council shall be final.'

The Judicial responsibility is discharged obviously with the hope and prayer that under God decisions will always be in accordance with the Constitution of The Methodist Church, pleasing in the sight of the Lord and profitable for the Church and the Kingdom.

Apparently there is need in the Church of more information concerning the place of The Judicial Council in the structure of the Church. It is the understanding of The Council that plans are under-way to accomplish this purpose.

And now, Mr. Chairman and Members of The Conference, it is my privilege to present the only officer of the Council not retiring at the end of this Conference by direction of the recognitions.

He is held in high esteem by The Council members. He is held in this high esteem for his unusual effectiveness. In addition to entering into deliberations fully, in the discussions of The Council, he is an All-America Secretary, and if he continues in that position as long as Bishop Oxnam did as Secretary of The Council of Bishops, I am sure that his associates will present him with a Paul Revere bowl.

I present a valiant associate, the Honorable J. Ernest Wilkins, prominent Chicago attorney and at present Assistant Secretary of Labor in President Eisenhower's official family.

Mr. Wilkins."

The General Conference stood, and applauded.

Recognition of the Judicial Council—J. Ernest Wilkins (*)

Deceased Members—Charles B. Ketcham—Walter C. Buckner—Walter A. Stanbury.

J. Ernest Wilkins (*) (Lexington—C), Secretary of The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church, made a brief statement concerning the Deceased Members, the Retiring Members, and the Retired Members of The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church present at this session of The General Conference, as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman, this is neither the time nor the place when I should either admit or deny or attempt to explain the gracious remarks made by Mr. Dannelly. I hope that the historian will sometime record his prophecy as an accurate one.

During the past quadrennium The Judicial Council has lost three Members by death.

On April 2, 1953, Dr. Charles B. Ketcham, Minister from the North East Ohio Conference and President of Mount Union College, Alliance, Ohio. Dr. Ketcham was elected to The Council in 1944 and re-elected in 1952. He was Secretary of The Council from 1948 until the date of his death. He had given nine years of service on The Council.

On September 12, 1953, Dr. Walter C. Buckner, Minister from the Southern California-Arizona Conference. Dr. Buckner was elected to The Council at the Uniting Conference in 1939, re-elected in 1940 and 1948, and had served as Vice-President of The Council from 1952 until the date of his death. He had given fourteen years of service on The Council.

On March 10, 1954, Dr. Walter A. Stanbury, Minister from the Western North Carolina Conference. Dr. Stanbury had been elected to The Council in 1948 and served until the date of his death. He had given six years of service on The Council.

On the minutes of The Judicial Council are Resolutions concerning these three men. We shall not read them now, but we trust that some Member of this Conference will make it possible for us to record in the Journal of this General Conference these Resolutions.

Perhaps some of you do not know, but during this General Conference we have had in attendance Judge Henry R. Van Deusen of Pennsylvania, Judge Martin E. Lawson of Missouri and Dr. W. G. Henry, Sr., of Alabama, three of the Members which served on this Council continuously from 1939 to 1952, and two of whom served on The Judicial Council of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, from 1934 to 1939.

Unfortunately, Judge Van Deusen and Judge Lawson had to return to their homes before this time. We do have with us, however, Dr. W. G. Henry, Sr., who has given more than fifty years of service to The Methodist Church, and I am asking you to permit me to introduce him for a bow at this time.

Dr. W. G. Henry, Sr.

Five members of the present Judicial Council come to retirement at the close of The General Conference by reason of age. It is the desire of The Council to present them to you with a few brief words of appreciation. We begin with the youngest and end with the oldest in years of service on The Council.

Dr. Hawes P. Clarke, Minister from the Virginia Conference. Dr. Clarke was elected a Reserve Member of The Judicial Council in 1949. When Dr. Buckner died on September 12, 1953, Dr. Clarke took his place on The Council. Although the years in which Dr. Clarke has had opportunity to be of service on The Council have been few, his long years of experience in the ministry and his discernment in the interpretation of the law of the Church have enabled him to make valuable contributions to the Decisions that have been before us.

Dr. L. Dorsey Spaugy, Minister from the Pittsburgh Conference. Dr. Spaugy was elected a Reserve Member of The Judicial Council in 1948. When Dr. Ketcham died on April 2, 1953, Dr. Spaugy took his place on The Council. His years of service have been few in number also but we have learned to value highly the integrity of his spirit and his thought and his rugged insistence upon an unswerving loyalty to the law as set forth in the Discipline.

Fred B. Noble, a Layman from the Florida Conference—SE. Dr. Noble was elected a Member of The Council 1952. All of us regret that the age limitations in our law prevent him from finishing his term. His legal experience and his long years of service in many areas of the work of The Methodist Church have made him a very valuable member of The Council. His insight of legal interpretations and his aptness in expression have served The Council again and again in clarifying its thinking and finding proper expression for its judgments.

Dr. John Taylor Alton, Minister from the Ohio Conference. Dr. Alton was elected to The Council in 1948 and now completes eight years of service. He has served as Vice-President of The Council since July, 1954. During his years of service, The Council has had the benefit of his clear thinking and sober judgment with respect to all matters coming before The Council. His judicial mind, his wide experience in every phase of the Church work and his penetrating insight into the fundamental law and Discipline of the Church have made him a most valuable Member of The Council.

Marvin A. Childers, Layman from the Southwest Texas Conference, President of the Council. Only man left on The Council from the time of its organization in 1939. Elected to The Judicial Council of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at the time of its formation in 1934, elected to The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church in 1939; re-elected in 1940 and in 1948. Has served longer than any other man in this capacity, twenty-two years of continuous service on The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church. He has been President of The Council since 1949 and has given an effective leadership to the work of The Council during the past years.

And may I say to you, because of his abiding interest in The Methodist Church, Judge Childers got up off a sick bed after two major operations less than three months ago to come here to be with us in our meeting this year.

All of these men have rendered an effective service for The Council and The Methodist Church.

I took my pencil out and added up their years of service in the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and the Methodist Episcopal Church and The Methodist Church and despite their youth the record will show that they have contributed more than 250 years of service to the Christian Church.

Certainly I consider it a great privilege and a great honor to have this privilege to present them to you, and while I do not have a vote on the floor of The Conference, Mr. Chairman, may I have the courage to request that Judge Childers, by reason of his long and faithful and efficient service to the Church, be permitted the privilege of speaking to this General Conference on behalf of our Retiring Members?"

Addresses Conference—Marvin A. Childers ()*

Marvin A. Childers (*) (Southwest Texas—SC), President of The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church, addressed The General Conference, as follows:—

"Bishop Kennedy, Members of The General Conference: I am grateful for the privilege that you have extended me in speaking to you briefly concerning the work of The Judicial Council.

I am very grateful to you, Mr. Wilkins, for those gracious words of introduction, and I join with him in every nice thing he said about the other Members of the Council.

I believe that the twenty-two years of service entitles me to tell a story which I believe has some bearing on the length of time that I have served on The Judicial Council.

There is a phonograph record known as 'Ten Little Fingers and Ten

Little Toes,' from Alabama. A lady down in Texas decided she wanted that record and she looked up in the telephone directory the number of what she thought was a record shop and she called and a man's voice answered. She said, 'Have you Ten Little Fingers and Ten Little Toes From Alabama?'

He said, 'No, but I have a wife and ten children in Texas.'

She said, 'Is that a record?'

He said, 'I do not know whether it is a record or not, but it is above the average.'

Unless you have elected someone at this session of The Conference under 48 years of age, I presume my record will have to stand for some time to come.

The work of The Judicial Council is not always easy. Occasionally we receive something of great importance. We receive a number of things by way of reference that are of very little importance to the Church at large, but occasionally we find something that is of great importance to the Church at large. We have to make research. We carry with us a trunk library, and occasionally we have to call libraries. At this session even we had to call on the Journal of the Methodist Episcopal Church, 1936 Session of The General Conference in order to make sure we were making a correct Decision.

We have adopted a policy. We adopted it in the beginning in 1939, that the Plan of Union is the Constitution of The Methodist Church, and that we are to follow it and not the Constitution of the ME Church, South, or the Methodist Episcopal Church or the Methodist Protestant Church.

We have tried as far as possible to maintain that policy all along and see that the Constitution of The Methodist Church is upheld and that it is not whittled away by Jurisdictional discussions.

During this session of The Conference we have made, I believe, nine Decisions. Five had accumulated during the year. The Council of Bishops has referred two matters to us for decision, and the Commission on the Structure of Methodism Overseas has referred two matters to us. So you see we have work that affects The Methodist Church around the world.

I want again, to express my appreciation for the fine association that I have had with the men on The Council across the years. Four of the men of The Council remain. I have had experience with them. I know them, and I am sure from the type of the men that you have elected at this session that we need have no apprehension concerning 'leaderization' for the future. They will be held on a high plane indeed.

We are grateful to you for all your courtesies and we hope that our service will be of service to you in your regular work as members and officers in this great Church we love.

Thank you."

Statement—Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy

Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy, the Presiding Officer, made the following statement:—

"It is a very high moment. I know you will realize what service has come to our Church through these men we have honored tonight, Bishops and Members of The Judicial Council."

Motions Re Judicial Council Decisions—Chester A. Smith (*)

Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) was recognized and moved that The General Conference request the Publisher of The Methodist Church to publish the Decisions of The Judicial Council in book form, starting from the beginning to the present time.

Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy, the Presiding Officer, stated that this was being done, authorized by former action of The General Conference.

No. 16—Committee of Chairmen—A. Wesley Pugh

A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee of Chairmen, presented Report No. 16 of the Committee, as follows:—

“Mr. Chairman and Members of The Conference: The Committee would like me to say to you that we trust there will be nothing that will hinder a fairly lengthy session tonight, and one that will move with as much speed as you will allow. You will begin to see that with this session tonight and only part of tomorrow available to us, we shall have a long session on Monday and one that perhaps you will not much enjoy, because of the speed that will be necessary in passing many of the Reports.

Unless we move as rapidly as we can, we will not accomplish all that we must do.

Further, the Committee desires to have presented before you the Reports in which we feel that there is the deepest interest and where we ought to give you sufficient time for proper consideration on the part of all of you. Therefore, Mr. Chairman, with the consent of the Conference, I should like to ask that we permit the Chairman of the Committee on Ministry to proceed and to present one additional Report from his Committee before we move on to the next Committee.”

No. 5—Ministry—“Limitation Of Episcopal Tenure”—James S. Chubb—Minority Report—Norman L. Trott

James S. Chubb (Nebraska—SC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry, was recognized for the presentation of Report No. 5 of the Committee, a Majority Report, Calendar No. 54, DCA No. 7, page 290, column 3, Subject, “Limitation Of Episcopal Tenure,” and a Minority Report attached thereto, presented by Norman L. Trott (Baltimore—NE) and others, DCA No. 8, page 380, column 3.

James S. Chubb (Nebraska—SC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry, requested the following to come to the platform to assist in the presentation of both the Majority Report and the Minority Report:—Albea Godbold (Saint Louis—SC), J. Willard Leggett, Jr. (Mississippi—SE), and Norman L. Trott (Baltimore—NE).

Jurisdictional Men Serving Overseas Not Involved—James S. Chubb

James S. Chubb (Nebraska—SC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry, made the following statement:—

“If you will turn to page 290 DCA; Calendar 54—Report No. 5—Committee on the Ministry. It is the understanding of the Chairman that there is one statement that should be in. Several members of the Committee have reminded me that we agreed among ourselves that this Report would not apply to the Jurisdictional men who served overseas.”

By common consent of The General Conference, the following amendment was added to Report No. 5, as explained by James S. Chubb (Nebraska—SC):—

“AND FURTHER, THIS PROVISION SHALL NOT APPLY TO BISHOPS ELECTED BY JURISDICTIONAL CONFERENCE, WHO SERVE OVERSEAS.”

Majority Report Presented—James S. Chubb

James S. Chubb (Nebraska—SC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry, presented Report No. 2 of the Committee, the Majority Report, Calendar No. 54, DCA No. 7, page 290, column 3, Subject, “Limitation of Episcopal Tenure,” with the following statement:—

I think the parliamentary situation is that after this presentation he (Norman L. Trott) makes his presentation of the Minority Report and then moves a substitution. Just a word about this:

I was very, very proud this afternoon due to the fact that we Methodists can handle controversial subjects in good, hearty fashion. I think Dr. Muir set a good, high standard of sportsmanship and high Christian conduct, something I wish I could do myself under similar circumstances. Our attitude has always been in The Methodist Church that it is better to bring all feelings out on the floor in open discussion, particularly where it might be able to get on the level of personalities. We must not let it be so tonight.

There have been some 373 Memorials concerning this subject in various forms coming to this Conference. They came from all over the Church, practically speaking, and that was the reason why the Sub-Committee brought in a Report. We discussed it in our Major Committee and then we brought in the Report which we bring to you tonight, which in brief is this:

That within the continental United States, beginning in 1960, to be effective, the tenure of a Bishop in an Area shall be eight years.

This is in response to a general petition and feeling on the part of the Church. A good deal of feeling was there, and as you can see the result of the voting was 46 for, and 29 against. I gladly present this report to this body, for your consideration, for your debate, and for your adoption.

Thank you.”

Proposed Amendment—J. Wesley Hole ()—Not in Order at This Time*

J. Wesley Hole (*) (Southern California-Arizona—W) moved to amend the Majority Report by deleting the word "two," in the bold face type in line two of the proposed amended Paragraph 440 and in line four of Paragraph 440, and substituting therefor the word "three," so that the amended Paragraph 440 will read as follows:—

Resolution on appointment of Bishops for limited period on a given Area.

To amend Paragraph 440 of the 1952 Discipline, line 3, by adding after the word "same," For a period not to exceed THREE successive quadrenniums. This provision, however, shall not apply until the Jurisdictional Conference of 1960. So that the Paragraph as amended shall read as follows:

Par. 440. Each Jurisdictional Conference may fix the Episcopal Residences within its Jurisdiction and assign the Bishops to the same for a period not to exceed THREE successive quadrenniums. This provision, however, shall not apply until the Jurisdictional Conference of 1960. The Bishops of the Jurisdiction shall fix the boundaries of the Episcopal Areas.

The motion to thus amend, being duly seconded, J. Wesley Hole (*) (Southern California—W) spoke to the same, as follows:—

"I think I can understand, Mr. Chairman, why a farmer who has experienced a long dry spell would enjoy a change in the weather more than one who has been enjoying normal rainfall. Where I come from we are very well pleased with the Episcopal weather we have had, and are not committed to change.

I am committed to the policy of rotation and I would favor, if we are going to have a policy of rotation for the Bishops, certainly at least a twelve-year period rather than an eight-year one, and I will give you two reasons:

In the first place, if there is a situation that needs correction, our present legislation provides the process by which it can be accomplished. I do not see the logic in requiring all of our Bishops to be rotated every eight years in order to provide relief for one or two isolated situations which can be corrected under the present legislation.

My second reason is a matter of consistency with the policy we adopted for ourselves. In 1952 we adopted a policy of rotation for members of Boards and Commissions. We set a period of eight years as the limit. After four years of trying an eight-year limit, we came to the conclusion at this session that eight years was not enough, and so we extended it to twelve years. It seems to me that if we are going to give ourselves twelve years of tenure on Boards and Commissions, the least we should do is to give the Bishops the same length of time in the Areas to which they are assigned. To me, this is simply a matter of good judgment, and I hope that you will agree with me that the sensible thing to do on this, if we are going to have tenure, is to extend it to twelve years."

Point of Order—A. Wesley Pugh

A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee of Chairmen, made the following statement:—

“I think we ought to straighten ourselves out here. I am not sure whether I can do it, but the Chairman of the Committee has not presented fully this Report. They intended to present it through two voices, within the time limit assigned for the Majority Report.

Immediately after that presentation, as I understand it, should be the Minority Report which will be presented, and then we have the amendment to perfect these two Reports.”

Ruling—Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy

Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy, the Presiding Officer, made the following Ruling:—

“I will be guided by The Conference, but I read the Rule and it sounds to me as if we perfect the Majority Report before the Minority Report comes in.”

Further Statement—A. Wesley Pugh

A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC) made a further statement, as follows:—

“We haven’t had the presentation.”

Ruling—Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy

Bishop Gerald Kennedy, the Presiding Officer, made the following Ruling:—

“We can certainly have the presentation. I thought it had been presented and there was nothing else to add to it. If you will wait, however—whoever was going to speak—I will recognize you in a minute.

We will first have the other person or persons speak to this.

Dr. Godbold.”

Majority Report—Albea Godbold

Albea Godbold (Saint Louis—SC) spoke for the Majority Report as follows:—

“Mr. Chairman and Members of The General Conference: I am a Ministerial Delegate from the St. Louis Conference. Let me say at the outset that we hold in high esteem the office of Bishop, and the fine men who serve in that capacity. Let me say, also, that the proposed legislation has nothing to do with current Episcopacy. As a matter of fact, many Memorials came before our Committee on the Ministry dealing with that subject, and we voted Non-concurrence in all of them.

As we think of it, the Term ‘Episcopacy,’ is not in keeping with the historic concept of the term ‘Episcopacy’ in Christendom. Let me say also that the proposed legislation we think will be helpful to The Methodist Church and for several reasons. For one thing, the present legislation in the Discipline is not entirely adequate. As it is written, the idea is that we shall move our Bishops from time to time as we move the Pastors and the District Superintendents. But in effect it is difficult, under the present legislation, to move a Bishop. It is difficult to move a Bishop unless he desires to move.

I am thinking of one of our Districts, one of our Jurisdictions. The Methodist Union has been in effect for seventeen years. There were six Episcopal Areas in that Jurisdiction until four years ago; now there are seven, there. In the seventeen years, only three of the Bishops have moved, and in each instance at their own wish, usually going back to what they considered their home Area.

When the Jurisdictional Conference meets this year, one of those Bishops will retire, and six will remain Effective. Of the six Effective, five will have been in their Areas for eight years or more, and while I cannot say what will be done at the Jurisdictional Conference, there are indications that probably not one of those five will move at that Jurisdictional Conference. It is not easy, under our present legislation, to move a Bishop in our Church. It may be somewhat like an ex-President of the United States said about the President in the White House—that if he wants the nomination for a second term, he can get it.

It may be that the leaders of his party and many of the people may want to nominate someone else, but he said, in his position he can have it if he wants it. In view of that we think the legislation should be improved in the manner which we are suggesting. Then we think it would be helpful in the second place, because we need a variety in our leadership and our administration. We are not thinking only of moving Bishops, we are thinking of bringing Bishops into the Area.

Every man is somewhat different in his type of administration. We need the benefit of the different types, and that can be done only if we move our Bishops from time to time.

In the third place, I think this legislation will be helpful because it will improve the morale of our preachers and our churches. You understand, of course, that if a Bishop has been in an Area for two quadrenniums or so, many times he has had to say no. He has to say no to preachers and to churches. He would not be a good Bishop unless he knew how and when to say no. And if those to whom he has to say no realize that within three years, four years, or five years there will be a change, perhaps they can take our Methodist system with more grace and loyalty. Of course, the new Bishop who comes in will probably have to say no to the same people and to the same churches, but they will feel better about it.

We know, of course, there will be objections to this proposed legislation. We would not try to make out to you that there are not arguments on both sides. There are. There is no system that will completely be perfect. But what we wish to say is that we believe the legislation proposed will be more effective and more helpful in our Church, which we now have in the Discipline. Someone will object, I am sure, that a Bishop has to remain in an Area at least four years before he knows the preachers and the churches, but let me say to you that the same arguments were presented when there were proposals to limit the time that a District Superintendent can serve on a District.

And then, the argument is not as cogent as it seems, because of the character of the work of a Bishop. He is an administrator; he is an ecclesiastical strategist. A General in the army does not know the privates by name. He has Colonels and Captains and Lieutenants and Sergeants who can give him information, while he gives his time to the responsibility of strategy, military strategy and tactics!

So the Bishop is not a Bishop like those in the Churches that have a Diocesan form of government, where they go around and baptize the babies and confirm those who are to be received into the Church. We have a General Superintendancy. Their task is that of Ecclesiastical Statesmanship and Administration. So I think it is a little beside the point to say that it takes a Bishop four years to learn his Area.

Then some will say when a Bishop goes into an Area and builds it up that he gets work started and that he needs to stay on and on, in order that he may carry out that work. That is the same as saying a man is indispensable. We believe there are no indispensable men. General Omar Bradley in his Memoirs of the Second World War said that in the Pentagon they say all the indispensable men in the army are already buried in Arlington Cemetery.

Some will say if you are going to apply it to the Bishops you should apply it to the Pastors and have a limit on the pastorate."

Statement—Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy

Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy, the Presiding Officer, made the following statement:—

"Will you excuse me, Doctor, I want to interrupt. I want to do what The Conference wants done. We were instructed to spend just ten minutes. If Dr. Chubb is going to talk he will have very little time, unless you stop right away. But if you want to take the whole ten minutes it is all right. Whatever The Conference wants to do. We have been urged to move along tonight. I want to follow the Rules, if that is what you want done."

Question—Albea Godbold—Reply—Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy

Albea Godbold (Saint Louis—SC), made the following statement:—

"Dr. Pugh said we might have ten minutes. I thought I had only taken about five."

Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy, the Presiding Officer, replied, as follows:—

"No, you have taken eight. It is just whatever you think ought to be done."

Continues Remarks—Albea Godbold

Albea Godbold (Saint Louis—SC) made a statement, and continued his remarks, as follows:—

"Unless Dr. Chubb wishes to take the time I will continue at least another minute.

There is a difference between the work of the Pastor and that of the Bishop. The Minister is a Pastorate preacher, the Bishop is an Administrator. Therefore we have reached the time, I think, when in democracy, whether it be in the State or in the Church, if democracy is functioning we desire a change in our leadership from time to time.

The Constitution of the United States now says that the President of the United States, however capable he may be as an administrator and leader, shall serve only eight years.

We realize, of course, that some will say if you are going to have it, make it twelve years, but in our opinion that would be unwise. Most of our Bishops, though not all certainly, are elected in their fifties or late fifties. If a man serves twelve years probably he would have only one more Quadrennium. It would hardly be fair to ask him to move into that Quadrennium.

So we bring before you this legislation. We believe it is important for the work of the Church. We believe that it will be helpful. Let me say again that we hold in high esteem our Bishops and their great work. We have fine men; yes, some great men in our Council of Bishops today. They are doing great work. We believe that this will help them to do greater work in the Church. We believe this will lessen the demand for Term Episcopacy.

As our Chairman says, we have scores and scores of those Memorials requesting that the Bishops be moved once every eight years. We believe our people will accept. We believe this will lift up in the eyes of our people the office of the Bishop. It will cause our people to hold these great leaders in esteem, and it will make more effective their work in The Methodist Church and the Kingdom of God."

Ruling—Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy

Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy, the Presiding Officer, stated that the time was up for the presentation of the Majority Report, and ruled that the Minority Report should now be presented, before we begin to perfect the Majority Report.

Minority Report Presented—Norman L. Trott

Norman L. Trott (Baltimore—NE) presented the Minority Report, DCA No. 8, page 380, column 3, Subject: "Limitation Of Episcopal Tenure," with the following statement:—

"Mr. Chairman, I would like to present for your attention the Minority Report as found on page 180 of the Daily Advocate. It is under the caption Minority Report, to be attached to Calendar No. 54, the Committee on the Ministry, Report No. 5.

I do not believe that you need to have this read to you. In substituting the Minority Report for the Majority Report all that we intend to do is to preserve the present structure of the Discipline.

In presenting this Report I would like to divide the time if I may, having Dr. Finis Crutchfield and Dean William Cannon speak to the Minority Report."

For Minority Report—Finis A. Crutchfield, Jr.

Finis A. Crutchfield, Jr. (Oklahoma—SC) spoke in favor of the Minority Report as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman and Members of this General Conference: We are limited in time in our presentation of this Minority Report. We are going to talk rapidly and cover parts very quickly, if possible. I hope you will stay with us on it.

We of the Minority have listed about 25 good reasons why this should not be done, why the Minority Report should be substituted for the Majority Report. We won't have time to list them all but I shall pick out some of the more salient ones and present them.

First of all, we believe that if The General Conference had acted on its 'Commission for A Study of the Jurisdictions' before the Commission on the Ministry had adopted this Resolution, our Report would be the Majority Report.

Two nights ago we set up 'A Commission to Study the Jurisdictions.' We said in Section 1: We hereby wish this Commission to make a thorough study of the Jurisdictional System, with special reference to its philosophy, its effectiveness, its weaknesses, and its relationship to consider this very fully.

The Study Commission of the Jurisdictions that you have set up will face this problem every time it meets. We already have machinery to the future of The Methodist Church.

There is no real reason for this General Conference to take any quick or abortive action on this matter now.

The second thing is that there are many persons here with minds more judiciously inclined than mine, who think this is a Constitutional matter and will end up in a judicial snarl inside of two days. I cite Division 3, the Section on the Episcopacy, Item 34, Article I of the Constitution of The Methodist Church, in which this action is very definitely involved. It seems to me that this is a Constitutional matter, and it seems to many more of you who know more about it than I do that it is a Constitutional matter.

The third reason: Everything that we desire to effect can now be taken care of by the 'Committee on the Episcopacy' in each Jurisdictional Conference. There are perhaps some abuses in isolated situations. If with the same courage we go to the Jurisdictional Conferences that we come to this General Conference, we can handle this matter.

I would like to point out also that those who desire a redress for certain grievances and relief are not going to get it under this present Resolution of the Majority. It goes into effect in 1960. And frankly, the Majority Report is so vaguely written—and I mean this very kindly—that you cannot tell by reading it whether it means that the eight-year period is retroactive or whether it begins in 1960 and begins to be applied eight years thereafter. I don't think this group at all would agree after reading it as to what it really means.

Another thing about all the Memorials that have come in. I served on the Commission on the Ministry, and I picked out as a typical example—I happen to know the church personally, the minister and the persons within that church that sent in the Memorial—a church that has less than 90 members, and the Methodist Youth Fellowship is comprised of three little girls in the 7th grade. They have sent in a Memorial on limiting the tenure of the Episcopacy. If anybody challenges this I shall be happy to point to that particular reference in the Daily Christian Advocate, but I would rather not do so here, unless there is a challenge on the matter.

Now let's get down to the real reasons for not adopting the Majority Report. In the first place, it affects the age at which we elect our Bishops. This General Conference has no right to suggest to the Jurisdictions when they shall elect Bishops. The present Majority Report says to elect them for an eight-year period, or rather, to change them at the end of an eight-year period. Suppose that a person is in his late 50s, almost turning 60. He has eight years then to serve before he is to be moved in the last four years. He will serve in perhaps some other Area. Nobody will want a man facing retirement and only has four years to go to work.

This will say to elect men either earlier or later. It discriminates against an age which some of us feel is a very good age at which to consider men for the Episcopacy. The General Conference has no right to set up certain age discriminations. We talked about discriminations all this week. It is well for us to consider this now.

Then there is the bedlam it will create in the College of Bishops in the matter of moving. Listen, brethren, everybody here regrets to have to move because some other fellow was forced to move.

All of these Bishops do not get elected at the same age, and they do not die at the same time, and they do not retire exactly at the same age, because of the law of their birthdays and the time of retirement. That means that some Bishops will have to be moved at the end of an eight-year period, and some who have only served four years will have to move to accommodate others. This will create a sort of grasshopper situation in the College of Bishops.

That brings up another matter I am concerned about. This sort of a Majority proposition does not grant The Methodist Church the right to develop great regional leaders. I will be very brief.

I want to give time to Dean Cannon, so may I skip a lot of things I want to say and get down to the one basic thing.

All this matter bears on what you really think the Episcopacy is. The Bishops to me are the living symbols of The Methodist Church in action. They are the only symbols we have. This is the beginning of a movement and trend in our Church to move away, to box in and cut down and reduce the effectiveness of our Bishops to the status of General Secretaries. I would oppose anything in this field.

Thank you."

For Minority Report—William R. Cannon

William R. Cannon (North Georgia—SE), Dean of Candler School of Theology, Emory University, spoke in favor of the Minority Report, as follows:—

"This proposed legislation limiting the tenure of Bishops seems to me very unwise legislation. Brother Crutchfield has already called attention to the fact that it is unnecessary. The Episcopacy in Methodism is not Diocesan. That is, it is reviewed every quadrennium and Bishops are assigned on the basis of the needs of the Area and their talents to meet those needs. This legislation is obviously unfair. We lay upon the Bishop the proposition that we do not require of any other of our men in the Church except District Superintendents. One of the Laymen in our Committee on Ministry said to me with an amusing grin on his face, 'You were willing to vote the Bishops an eight-year tenure in one Area, but we could not get a beggar's dozen to move the preachers every four or eight years.'

This compromises the dignity and prestige of the office. Historically in the Roman Church and in the Greek Church, a man stays put, unless he is transferred to some other Diocese or for some real reason. A Methodist Bishop will be moved out of a given place, while the Roman Catholic and the Episcopal Bishop stays on and becomes the symbol of Christianity in that place.

Do you think Bishop Corson should have been invited to pray the prayer of both the Democratic and Republican National Conventions if he had not had a long and honorable stay in the Philadelphia area?

But I am concerned with one thing, and one only. This arbitrary moving of the Bishops may prove actually injurious to the Church. Bishop Candler spent all of his Episcopal life living in the City of Atlanta. He had a home there. Well, I am a part of the faculty of the University which has capital assets of more than fifty million dollars. That University was started by Bishop Candler and as long as it continues to operate, his name will be blessed by every region and person that it serves.

Just one statement more and I am through. If a Bishop is no more than the Presiding Officer of an Annual Conference, the President of a General Board, the Chief Member of a Cabinet which stations preachers and a world traveler at the expense of the Church, then he is, in my humble judgment, a creature most miserable and the more quickly our Church adopts the Term Episcopacy with as short a term as possible, the better. But if a Bishop is, as I believe he should be, a preacher of the word of God without compromise, a man of brilliant, intelligent and humble spirit, a wise administrator and a farsighted ecclesiastical planner, a true statesman who dreams world dreams and has the ability to bring them to realization among men, then he should be honored in heart and love and we should not lay careless hands upon legislation that would impair his effectiveness.

After all, a Bishop should be what Pope Gregory I said about himself—a servant of the servants of God—and he works for the whole world wherever the Church is, though he may be stationed in one place.

I think of what the Church historian said about Pius. He said about him that he was a simple parish priest whose parish became the world. We have great Bishops and they must be allowed to exercise their influence where it is needed and to continue that influence until the great enterprises of the Kingdom of God are brought about through their leadership and their inspiration.

I hope that we will accept the Minority Report as a substitute for the Majority Report."

Parliamentary Situation—Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy

Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy, the Presiding Officer, stated the parliamentary situation to be as follows:—

"Let the Chair state the situation as he understands it now. The Minority Report has been presented. It cannot be acted upon now until the Majority Report is perfected. Dr. Hole, a little while ago, presented an amendment to that Majority Report, as you recall, substituting three quadrenniums for two quadrenniums. The body is now at liberty to make any changes, anything they want to do in the perfecting of the Majority Report."

Against Majority Report—Harold A. Bosley

Harold A. Bosley (Rock River—NC) spoke against the Majority Report as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman, I should like to oppose the Majority Report and the amendment also that is offered to it, because of what seems to me to be a refusal on our part to face the simple fact that we do not have confidence in the structure of our Church at this point. We have a Committee on Episcopacy. I believe in Democracy. I believe that that Committee, if it carries out its duly authorized functions, is the one that ought to look after this matter. I do not believe we ought to create rules in which we take automatic refuge from the hard duty of democratic leadership. We are a Church put together in such fashion that we assign real responsibility to groups of men, and after this afternoon, women, who meet together for a specific purpose of passing on judgment, the purpose of passing judgment as to character and effectiveness of the leadership of the Church.

I am speaking very bluntly when I say we ought to take full advantage of the fact that this Committee is charged with the duty of appraising and, if necessary, reassigning the Episcopal Leaders of the Church every four years. Four years, I am quite certain, though I have not had this experience, under some Bishops might be quite enough. There might be other circumstances where a Bishop at the end of eight years would be leading a church in a certain Area in a kind of struggle for civil liberties, in such a critical fashion that he needed to be left there. It is easy to imagine situation after situation and to call up from our own experience situations in which we may need the continuous leadership of a man who has demonstrated the ability to lead.

I believe that in the present machinery of the Church we have all we need in order to guard ourselves against an ineffectiveness and inefficiency, and it is our fault if we don't use it."

*For Minority Report—Laurence Everett Nye—Out of Order
—Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy*

Laurence Everett Nye (Oregon—W) started to speak for the Minority Report.

Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy, the Presiding Officer, ruled that as The General Conference was perfecting the Majority Report, a speech in favor of the Minority Report was not in order at this time but would be later when the process of perfecting the Minority Report had been reached.

For Majority Report—Against Amendment—John Owen Smith

John Owen Smith (South Carolina—SE) spoke for the Majority Report, and against the proposed amendment of J. Wesley Hole (*) (Southern California-Arizona—W) as follows:—

"I am speaking for the Majority Report.

There is one factor here, sir, that seems to me has not been lifted up thus far. I have a feeling that through the years there has been some merit in the itinerant system of The Methodist Church. We down our way have not called it the grasshopper maneuver or leaping from one point to the other when we thought of the itinerant system.

I don't think a Bishop has ever come to our Area during my ministry that I wasn't very—I regretted very greatly when he left, but that does not mean I did not come to love the one who was coming in very greatly and our entire Conference and our Jurisdiction, I feel it will do the same in our Methodism. It seems to me we are getting pretty close to a point of abolishing this itinerant system in a great many respects.

There seems to me no relationship whatsoever in this idea that because we have lifted the tenure of members of our various Commissions and Committees to twelve that we should do the same for the members of our Episcopacy. There is no relationship there. It is an entirely different thing.

I have a feeling that some way, somehow it will be the best for the most in the long run, a finer sense of unity, if there is merit in this itinerant system that it go all the way through.

Thank you very much."

Ruling—Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy

Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy, the Presiding Officer, ruled as follows:—

"That speech was against the amendment and we are on the amendment, Brethren, so the next one in order would be someone who wants to speak for it."

Point of Order—James S. Chubb

James S. Chubb (Nebraska—SC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry, raised the following Point of Order:—

"Has there been two speeches on each side of the amendment? If so, we are under that Rule."

Ruling—Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy

Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy, the Presiding Officer, ruled as follows:—

"Has there been, Mr. Secretary? I thought we had one more here. Am I wrong? Nobody calls me, so we go ahead."

Motion to Refer—W. Ralph Ward—Not Adopted

W. Ralph Ward (Pittsburgh—NE) moved to refer the entire matter under consideration to the newly created Commission on Study of the Jurisdictional System, and made the following statement:—

"Mr. Chairman, it has been suggested here by one of the speakers from the platform that if the action of day before yesterday had been known that this matter would have been brought to The Conference differently. If it is in order, I would like to ask The Conference to refer this matter to this new Commission set up to study the Jurisdiction of our Church."

The motion to refer was duly seconded.

Constitutional Question—Nolan B. Harmon

Nolan B. Harmon (Virginia—SE) was recognized and called the attention of The General Conference to Paragraph 37, Article IV of "Division Three. Episcopacy," which reads as follows:—

"The Bishops of each Jurisdiction and Central Conference shall arrange the plan of Episcopal Supervision of the Annual Conferences, Mission Conferences, and Missions within their respective territories."

and then called attention to Paragraph 440 of the 1952 Discipline of The Methodist Church, which reads as follows:—

"Section V. Assignment of Bishops.

Par. 440. Each Jurisdictional Conference may fix the Episcopal Residences within its Jurisdiction and assign the Bishops to the same. The Bishops of the Jurisdiction shall fix the boundaries of the Episcopal Areas."

Statement Challenged—Alva I. Cox, Sr.—Finis A. Crutchfield, Jr.

Alva I. Cox, Sr. (North-East Ohio—NC) spoke to the statement of Finis A. Crutchfield, Jr. (Oklahoma—SC) as follows:—

"I happen to have been Secretary of the Committee on Ministry. At this moment, in the light of the basis on which the motion to refer was made, I should like to challenge the statement the speaker made concerning his conviction about what the Committee might have done had it acted later than it did.

There was no further official discussion of the motion, of the matter, after the action was taken about the study of the Jurisdictions in the Committee. What was said in the cloakrooms and in the corridors of course I do not know. I think it would be a mistake to presume that a different action might have been taken had it been taken later in the week."

Reply—Finis A. Crutchfield, Jr.

Finis A. Crutchfield, Jr., replied to the statement of Alva I. Cox, Sr. (North-East Ohio—NC) as follows:—

"I made the statement to which Dr. Cox refers. As he has indicated my conviction was a personal conviction. I do not say that the Committee had said so. I will say this, however, the Committee on Ministry was heavily burdened, as you know, with more Memorials than perhaps any other Committee had at this Conference. Our Chairman and Secretary have done a magnificent job, but on a matter so important and with other matters so important before us.

I do not feel that the limited time that we spent on this one afternoon is sufficient, and several of the members of the Committee, if they would care to rise at this time and sustain me, who have told me, and I take them at their words, they would have changed had this been done, and I believe the weight or the evidence of their testimony would support what I said.

And I think a subsequent vote will bear it out."

Previous Question—Embree H. Blackard—Ordered

On motion of Embree H. Blackard (Western North Carolina—SE), duly seconded, the Previous Question on the matter of referral was ordered by The General Conference, by more than the required two-thirds majority vote.

Closes Debate—James S. Chubb

James S. Chubb (Nebraska—SC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry, closed the debate on the question of referral as follows:—

"I think it would be a mistake to make this referral and to imply that this is not proper for The General Conference. We went into that a bit before we decided to enthusiastically bring this before the body.

I think it is within your province. You have every right to rule on this. I hope you do not refer it; that is, vote on it tonight."

Motion to Refer—W. Ralph Ward—Not Adopted

The motion of W. Ralph Ward (Pittsburgh—NC) to refer the pending matters regarding "Limitation of Episcopal Tenure," to the new created "Commission to Study the Jurisdictional System," on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.

Parliamentary Situation—Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy

Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy, the Presiding Officer, made the following ruling:—

"We are still on the amendment—no, we are not because two have spoken on each side, and I think you cannot speak further on the amendment, unless you wish to amend the amendment or bring in some other motion referring to this general Report. We must pass along to the consideration of the Minority Report.

Is there any other word on this?"

*Amendment by Common Consent—Chester A. McPheeters
—James S. Chubb—Accepted*

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) raised a question which was answered by James S. Chubb as follows:—

"I am wondering where is the protection or the safeguards for Bishops elected in Jurisdictions to serve in the mission fields in either of these Reports? I think that is very important and needs to be provided for somewhere in one of these Reports.

James A. Chubb: As a matter of fact, I said editorially in the beginning it was my understanding, it was called to my attention by many members of the Committee, that Jurisdictional Bishops serving in the Overseas Areas would not be affected by this. For some reason it did not get there. You accepted it so it is in the minutes and it would be provided for.

Chester A. McPheeters: It would be a part of your Majority Report?

James S. Chubb: Correct."

Report No. 5 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry, the Majority Report, Calendar No. 54, DCA No. 7, page 290, column 3, as thus amended by common consent of The General Conference, reads as follows:—

COMMITTEE ON MINISTRY

Report No. 5

Subject: Limitation of Episcopal Tenure.

Adopted April 30, 1956.

Memorial Serial Number, or Numbers, 3800, 3827, 4310, 4311, 4312, 4494.

Resolution On Appointment Of Bishops For Limited Period On A Given Area.

To amend Paragraph 440 of the 1952 Discipline, line 3, by adding after the word "same," For a period not to exceed two successive quadrenniums. This provision, however, shall not apply until the Jurisdictional Conference of 1960 and further, this provision shall not apply to Bishops elected by Jurisdictional Conferences, serving overseas. So that the Paragraph as amended shall read as follows:

Par. 440. Each Jurisdictional Conference may fix the Episcopal Residences within its Jurisdiction and assign the Bishops to the same for a period not to exceed two successive quadrenniums. This provision, however, shall not apply until the Jurisdictional Conference of 1960 and further, THIS PROVISION SHALL NOT APPLY TO BISHOPS ELECTED BY JURISDICTIONAL CONFERENCES, SERVING OVERSEAS. The Bishops of the Jurisdiction shall fix the boundaries of the Episcopal Areas.

James S. Chubb, Chairman

Alva I. Cox, Sr., Secretary

Amendment—J. Wesley Hole ()—Not Adopted—James S. Chubb Speaks on Amendment*

James S. Chubb (Nebraska—SC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry, spoke to the proposed amendment of J. Wesley Hole (*) (Southern California-Arizona—W) as follows:—

"I hope you do not sustain this amendment for twelve years for practical purposes. That means that, well, you couldn't do much moving if you wanted to. We thought of eight years, we had twelve and, of course, we thought of four. We struck the compromise of eight because we thought it would give a Bishop a chance. It would be very practical legislation."

Motion of J. Wesley Hole () to Amend—Not Adopted*

The proposed amendment of J. Wesley Hole (*) (Southern California-Arizona—W), on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.

Amendment—Russell E. Clay—Not Adopted

Russell E. Clay (Southern California-Arizona—W) moved to amend Report No. 5, the Majority Report, of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry, Calendar No. 54, DCA No. 7, page 290, column 3, Subject, "Limitation Of Episcopal Tenure," by deleting "1960," from lines eight and seventeen, and substituting therefor "1964," so that the amended Report No. 5, the Majority Report will read, when amended, as follows:—

COMMITTEE ON MINISTRY

Report No. 5

Subject: Limitation on Episcopal Tenure.

Adopted April 30, 1956.

Memorial Serial Number, or Numbers, 3800, 3827, 4310, 4311, 4312, 4494.

Resolution On Appointment Of Bishops For Limited Period On A Given Area.

To amend Paragraph 440 of the 1952 Discipline, line 3, by adding after the word "same," For a period not to exceed two successive quadrenniums. This provision, however, shall not apply until the Jurisdictional Conference of 1964 and further, this provision shall not apply to Bishops elected by Jurisdictional Conferences, to serve overseas.

So that the Paragraph as amended shall read as follows:

Par. 440. Each Jurisdictional Conference may fix the Episcopal Residences within its Jurisdiction and assign the Bishops to the same for a period not to exceed two successive quadrenniums. This provision, however, shall not apply until the Jurisdictional Conference of 1964 AND FURTHER, THIS PROVISION SHALL NOT APPLY TO BISHOPS ELECTED BY JURISDICTIONAL CONFERENCES, TO SERVE OVERSEAS. The Bishops of the Jurisdiction shall fix the boundaries of the Episcopal Areas.

James S. Chubb, Chairman
Alva I. Cox, Sr., Secretary

The motion to thus amend, being duly seconded, Russell E. Clay (Southern California-Arizona—W), spoke to the same as follows:—

"If you will turn to the Daily Christian Advocate, page 112, you will find that under tenure in the Report of the Co-ordinating Council, second Report, concerning our Boards and Agencies, we said that we would not make tenure for our Boards and Agencies retroactive. Eight years from this General Conference would be 1964.

I certainly hope that this General Conference does not set up for itself those who are on the Boards and Agencies of the Church a standard which they are not willing to have our Bishops have. Certainly we do not want to discriminate in this way, and, therefore, I hope that we will make this substitution and make it begin in 1964."

For Minority Report—Ralph W. Sockman

Ralph W. Sockman (New York—NE) spoke in favor of the Minority Report as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman and Members of The Conference: I want to support the position of the Minority Report, but I think this is the only time I will get my speech in because I want to oppose the amendment just for these one or two reasons.

I am for Democracy. I am also for flexibility. I do not believe that you can rigidly prescribe a tenure in The General Conference without crippling the action of the Jurisdictional Conference.

That Conference now is losing its prestige because it has so little authority unless there are Bishops to be elected. It seems to me that our members of the Episcopacy Committees of the Jurisdictional Conferences are probably all here in The General Conference. They have heard this debate.

They know that there is a sentiment throughout the Church that feels we should have a rotation in the Episcopacy, and I agree that the principle of rotation is sound, but I do think that the Jurisdictional Committee of the Jurisdictional Conference through its Episcopacy Committee is the one who will assume that responsibility and it is the one which has really the ability to assume it.

Therefore I speak in opposition to setting 1964 just because I am against the general principle of tenure in its fixed application."

Parliamentary Situation—Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy

Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy, the Presiding Officer, stated the parliamentary situation to be as follows:—

"Now the amendment is before you which makes it 1964 instead of 1960."

Closed Debate on Amendment—James S. Chubb

James S. Chubb (Nebraska—SC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry, spoke to the proposed amendment of Russell E. Clay (Southern California—W) as follows:—

"I think this amendment would quite undo anything we had in mind. There were those who said to start it this year. We thought that would not be fair and with the wisdom Methodists usually have, we have said 1960, if it were feasible to do it at all, 1960 will do.

I hope you will leave the date 1960 in and then vote on the main motion."

Amendment Russell E. Clay—Not Adopted

The proposed amendment of Russell E. Clay (Southern California-Arizona—W), on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.

For Minority Report—Alexander K. Smith

Alexander K. Smith (Philadelphia—NE) spoke in favor of the Minority Report as follows:—

"I want to speak, Mr. Chairman, in support of the Minority Report because I believe that the proposition of the Majority Report is bad legislation, and for the following reasons:

First of all, it is bad because it does not take into account a local situation. It has an inflexibility about it that virtually cancels out the consideration of Area needs in particular. It overlooks the question of the advisability of the continuing leadership in an Area, and it rules out, so it seems to me, the possibility of the consideration of personal factors in the continuation of Episcopal leadership.

An arbitrary principle oftentimes gives rise to abominable practice.

Our Bishops now can be moved at the end of four years if in the judgment of the Committee on Episcopacy, a competent Committee, deems advisable. We could not as Ministers want to operate under an arbitrary law for good reasons. The principle of Ministerial Tenure in any one church was abolished in Methodism long ago, and we ministers hope for good.

Why, therefore, is the principle thought to be any more meritorious as applying to the Episcopacy? Why should a great Church like The Methodist Church reduce the stature of the high office of the Episcopacy by making it temporary and transient? Neither the Episcopal Church nor the Roman Catholic Church make this mistake.

In the second place, I think it is bad legislation because it can put a Bishop in a position of having four years remaining before retirement and under the proposed rule having to move to a new Area; conceivably some Area that had just had such a four-year Episcopal Appointment might be faced with a second similar Appointment of four years, that would be fair neither to the Episcopal leadership nor to the Area.

I support, Mr. Chairman, the Resolution of the Minority Report."

For Majority Report—Robert H. Duncan

Robert H. Duncan (Holston—SE) spoke in favor of the Majority Report as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman and Members of The General Conference: It has been said in this debate that—or at least it has been implied that one of our chief purposes is to correct some difficulty in a misfit or undesirable Bishop. I am a member of the Committee on Ministry. That element has not at any time entered the discussion.

As far as I am concerned, we are one of the very privileged Areas. We like to keep our Bishop indefinitely. I think every man in the Committee on Ministry felt that the Bishop in his Area was entirely satisfactory; at least nobody said anything to the contrary.

It is the feeling of the Committee, certainly it is my feeling, and I believe the Committee making the Majority Report that we ought to have the itinerant ministry all the way from Bishops down to our local Pastors.

I have this quote from one of our Bishops a few years ago. We were talking about terms for Pastors, District Superintendent and Bishops. He said this to me:

‘I believe that if a Bishop is any good, he ought to be passed around. If he isn’t any good nobody ought to have to put up with him more than eight years.’

Well, I believe that. I believe that the strong Bishops—I guess they are all strong—I believe that the Bishops ought to be passed around as the strong leaders in the pastorates. If they have peculiar gifts, they can do great work building an Area in those particular interests and abilities that they have, and then go to another Area where that same type of ministry is needed.

There is nothing personal against our Bishops. There is nobody that I know of trying to get rid of a Bishop. It is merely an attempt, it seems to me, to apply the itinerant ministry in our Methodism.

For Minority Report—Laurence Everett Nye

Laurence Everett Nye (Oregon—W) spoke in favor of the Minority Report as follows:—

“I wish to support the Minority Report. I wonder what would have happened to Ralph Sockman’s ministry if we had been passing him around all these many years?

We are talking about an itinerant Methodist ministry. Itinerant does not mean a limitation. I have sought particularly to speak because I am now in my twelfth year in a local church. If I were now finishing up a period of twelve years, which say, would have been the limit, which I could have stayed there, I would be spending my time, as would a Bishop or anyone under the same circumstances, looking and wondering and preparing for the next stopping place.

We are talking tonight, in my estimation, not about administrators who should be passed around, but about shepherds who should build fundamentally and on strong foundations as long as they possibly can. Our Bishops go into these Areas, shepherd Ministers and shepherd people and shepherd churches. By the time they come to know the last little outpost in their Area and the last little man in their Annual Conferences, they are prepared to build for the long future.

If you will pardon me, at the time of the death of the late Bishop Bruce R. Baxter, which occurred on Friday afternoon at six o’clock, of his Oregon Annual Conference which took place in my church, he carried with him the destinies of no less than fifteen to twenty young men whom he had personally brought to the Pacific Northwest to help him build that into a greater Area.

Sure, his successors have done well, by all of these men, but their real destinies lay in the heart of the man who brought them there.

When our Bishops scour the seminaries and bring to our Areas the finest men they can find and build together personal attachments and personal loyalties to these Areas, it means that through the long years this fundamental building will be done by shepherds who stay put, not by administrators who jump around!"

Previous Question—Weldon Crossland—Ordered

On motion of Weldon Crossland (Genesee—NE), duly seconded, the Previous Question on all matters pertaining to Report No. 5 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry, was ordered by The General Conference, by more than the required two-thirds majority vote.

Closes Debate for Minority Report—Norman L. Trott

Norman L. Trott (Baltimore—NE) closed the debate in favor of the Minority Report, as follows:—

"First, may I express appreciation for the fine spirit in which I was privileged to work with the Committee on Ministry. While we have honest differences of opinion, I think that we all hold each other in great appreciation. I would like to say that I particularly respect the statement of Dr. Duncan of the Holston Conference. There wasn't a single man who spoke for this limited tenure but who prefaced his remarks with a statement indicating great affection for the Bishops of his Area and appreciation for the fact that each had an exceptional one.

The only particular desires I could discover were that these men were all anxious that no particular Area should have a monopoly on a single Bishop, and that all these Bishops should be shared. I believe that we should curb these benevolent impulses in the interest of all the Areas involved and that we should adopt the Minority Report, which simply maintains the present legislation.

As you make up your minds, may I quickly lift up these additional facts for your consideration? First, will you remember that every Bishop except those elected this quadrennium—that is, in the Jurisdictional Conferences coming up—every Bishop will change in 1960. Think of that.

Second, on the law of averages, one half of the Bishops will be able to serve only four years in their last Area assignments.

Next, I know we all want to select the best men that the Church can offer for our Council of Bishops. Each time we impose a restriction, we reduce our choice.

Next, it has been stated that the legislation embodied in the Majority Report would not affect our Overseas Bishops. I would like to call to your attention the fact that the Judicial Decision eliminated anything of distinction between the Bishops in the Jurisdictions serving at home and those who serve abroad. And I believe that if this eight-year rule is imposed, it will affect our Overseas men. It will mean that Bishop Booth will come back from Africa, and that one of the men, perhaps without particular skills in this field or particular inclinations, will have to take his place."

Norman L. Trott (Baltimore—NE) moved to substitute the Minority Report, DCA No. 8, page 380, column 3, Subject, "Limitation of Episcopal Tenure," for Report No. 5, the Majority Report, of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry, DCA No. 7, page 290, column 3, Subject,

"Limitation of Episcopal Tenure." The motion was duly seconded.

Closes Debate for Majority Report—James S. Chubb

James S. Chubb (Nebraska—SC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry closed the debate in favor of the Majority Report as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman and Members of The Conference: Undoubtedly most of us have made up our minds exactly how we are going to vote on this. That is the nice thing about Methodists—we can do it. I think a couple of things should be said. One is this:

Suppose we let The Judicial Council make its Judicial decisions after we vote on this. That is what we have them for.

In the second place, this is our Council. My attitude, my destiny, my relations with the Bishops—and I have had nothing but the nicest, and I anticipate nothing else—nevertheless it is the purpose of the Methodists to have their own thoughts and accord them an opportunity.

If you believe in the Majority Report, vote your convictions; if it is the Minority Report you want, vote your convictions.

We brought in this Majority Report under pressure, somewhat. The more we brought it in, the better we thought of it. It is somewhat like the little boy who did so well his daddy went to the kennel to buy him a dog. He made the mistake of taking the little boy with him. When they got there, the daddy wanted a nice looking dog, and the boy didn't. He picked up a little red puppy. 'Why did you want that little red pup,' the dad asked the boy.

'Because the little red pup has a happy ending.'

We want our Episcopal system to have a very happy ending in operation."

Parliamentary Situation—Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy

Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy, the Presiding Officer, made the following statement:—

"The Minority Report is before us and the Previous Question has been called for.

I will allow questions, but no debate."

Secret Ballot—Leonard D. Slutz ()—Rulings—Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy*

Leonard D. Slutz (*) (Ohio—NC) raised the question of a secret ballot and Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy, the Presiding Officer, ruled, as follows:—

Mr. Chairman: I rise to make a privileged motion.

Bishop Kennedy: I don't think that is in order, Mr. Slutz.

Leonard D. Slutz: Yes, it is, Bishop.

Bishop Kennedy: All right, we will hear it.

Leonard D. Slutz: Last night Dr. Albert Day spoke more effectively and more succinctly than ever I could, concerning the delicacy and sensitivity with which we have to approach any problem affecting in any way either the office or persons of Bishops for whom we have so much affection and respect.

Men from many sections of the country have indicated to me that the question before us is another which is so bound up with sentiment and personal affection that they find it difficult, if not impossible, to express their convictions without grave danger of misinterpretation.

Bishop Kennedy: Mr. Slutz, you are out of order, and I so call it.

Leonard D. Slutz: I will make the motion first.

Bishop Kennedy: There is no motion to be made.

Leonard D. Slutz: I am calling the method of motion, which is a privileged motion.

Bishop Kennedy: All right, let's hear it.

Leonard D. Slutz: I would like to finish my sentence, if I may. I have just two or three words to say.

Bishop Kennedy: I think it is argument. If you make the motion, make it.

Leonard D. Slutz: I will make the motion first, and then the statement, if it is seconded.

Bishop Kennedy: All right.

Motion for Secret Ballot—Leonard D. Slutz ()*

Leonard D. Slutz () (Ohio—NC) moved that the Rules be suspended to take a secret ballot on the pending matter. The motion to suspend the Rules being duly seconded, Leonard D. Slutz () (Ohio—NC) spoke to the same as follows:—

“What I was trying to say was that men from many sections of the country have indicated that the question before us is one that is so bound up with sentiment and personal affection that they find it difficult, if not impossible to express their sentiments without misinterpretation, but mistaken inference.”

Ruling—Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy

Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy, the Presiding Officer, ruled as follows:—

“You can make the motion, but you cannot argue it. It is before the House for vote. If you wish a secret ballot, you may lift the hand; opposed, the same.”

Motion for Secret Ballot—Leonard D. Slutz ()—Not Adopted*

The motion of Leonard D. Slutz (*) (Ohio—NC) for a secret ballot on the pending matter, on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.

Questions—Charles S. Kendall—Rulings—Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy

Charles S. Kendall (Southern California-Arizona—W) asked questions which were ruled on by the Presiding Officer, Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy, as follows:—

"I have a question which I think will further confuse the issue. As I understand it, if the Minority Report is adopted, then the situation continues as it is. Under our Jurisdictional System, that is. Would the Chair rule whether that is correct?

Bishop Kennedy: I would say that that is right.

Charles S. Kendall: If that is defeated and the Majority Report is adopted, then as you read this carefully, I am sure it would take The Judicial Council to decide whether or not it starts the eight years in 1960.

Bishop Kennedy: Dr. Kendall, we are on the Minority Report, and when we take care of that we will go on to whatever you have in mind. However, I think that is out of order right now.

The Previous Question is called for. We are about to vote on the Minority Report."

Minority Report Adopted—Substituted For Majority Report

On being put to the vote of The General Conference, the Minority Report, attached to Report No. 5, the Majority Report of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry, Calendar No. 54, DCA No. 8, page 380, column 3, Subject, "Limitation Of Episcopal Tenure," was adopted and substituted for the Majority Report; Report No. 5 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry, Calendar No. 54, DCA No. 7, page 290, column 3, Subject, "Limitation of Episcopal Tenure."

No. 5—Ministry—"Limitation Of Episcopal Tenure"— Adopted as Substituted

The Minority Report of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry, Calendar No. 54, DCA No. 8, page 380, column 3, Subject, "Limitation Of Episcopal Tenure," having previously been adopted and substituted for the Majority Report of the said Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry, appearing on page 290, column 3 of DCA No. 7, was now adopted as Report No. 5 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Ministry. For Report see Appendix, page 1548.

No. 17—Committee of Chairmen—A. Wesley Pugh

A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee of Chairmen, presented Report No. 17 of the Committee as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman, according to our procedure, which you established, we would normally come to the Committee on Missions, but Mrs. Brooks has asked to pass her time because some of the Reports that she would like to present have not been printed. Therefore we turn to the Committee on Pensions, Lester A. Kilpatrick, the Chairman."

Motion Withdrawn—Monk Bryan

Monk Bryan (Missouri—SC) moved, as a privileged motion, that The General Conference make unanimous the action of this afternoon in granting Full Clergy Rights For Women, with the understanding with the Presiding Officer, that if the proposed motion would cause any debate, he would withdraw it. The motion was duly seconded.

The Presiding Officer, Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy, inquired if there was any objection to the motion. Objection being raised; Monk Bryan (Missouri—SC) withdrew his motion.

Resolutions of Appreciation of Deceased Members of the Judicial Council—Ordered Printed—Merrill B. McFall

On motion of Merrill B. McFall (Indiana—NC), duly seconded, the Resolutions of Appreciation of the Deceased Members of The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church, prepared by The Judicial Council, were ordered printed in the Journal of The General Conference, without reading. For Resolutions see Appendix, pages 2047-2052.

No. 1—Pensions—"Pension Legislation"—Lester A. Kilpatrick—Charles L. Calkins—A. Thomas McIlwain—George A. Huggins ()—Charles L. Burrall, Jr. ()—Frank Webber ()—Adlai C. Holler—Harold C. Buckingham—Roland P. Riddick—Donald A. Odell ()

Lester A. Kilpatrick (Michigan—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Pensions, was recognized and stated that Report No. 1 of the Committee Calendar No. 41, DCA No. 6, page 239, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 240, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 241, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 242, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 243, columns 1, 2 and 3; and page 244, column 1, Subject, "Pension Legislation," would be presented in three sections, namely, Chapter I, General Board of Pensions; Chapter II, Permanent Funds; Chapter III, Annual Conference Organizations, would be presented by Frank Webber (*) (California-Nevada—W); Section II, to be presented by Adlai C. Holler (South Carolina—SE) consists of Chapter IV, Pension Code; the third section will be presented by Harold C. Buckingham (Wyoming—NE) consisting of Chapter V, Ministers Reserve Pension Fund, and Chapter VI, Lay Employees Pension Fund.

Lester A. Kilpatrick (Michigan—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Pensions, requested the following to come to the platform to assist in the presentation of Report No. 1 of the Committee:—

A. Thomas McIlwain (North Mississippi—SE), General Secretary of the Missouri Corporation; Charles L. Calkins (South Dakota—NC), General Secretary of the Illinois and Maryland Corporations; George A. Huggins (), Actuary for the General Board of Pensions of The Methodist Church; Charles L. Burrall, Jr. (), Assistant Actuary of the General Board of Pensions of The Methodist Church; Frank Webber (*) (California-Nevada—W); Adlai C. Holler (South Carolina—SE); Harold C. Buckingham (Wyoming—NE); Roland P. Riddick (Virginia—SE); and Donald A. Odell (Southern California-Arizona—W).

Lester A. Kilpatrick (Michigan—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Pensions, made a preliminary statement as follows:—

"Report 1 of the Committee on Pensions represents the results of four years of study given by the members of the Board of Pensions and by the members of the Committee on Pension Legislation. Consideration has been given to matters referred by the 1952 General Conference and to other matters arising from suggestions received from numerous Annual Conference organizations and pension offices.

The Reports and Recommendations to this General Conference were unanimously adopted by the members of the Board of Pensions and the Pension Legislation Committee. The Pension Committee of The General Conference has considered these Reports and Recommendations and numerous Memorials.

Report 1 comes to you with the unanimous vote of the Pension Committee of The General Conference. The Report will be presented to The General Conference in three sections, the first being Chapters 1, 2, 3 and 4 on pages 239, 240 and column 1 on page 241, DCA. We are asking Mr. Frank Webber of the California-Nevada Conference to present for your consideration the first section of the Report."

Frank Webber (*) (California-Nevada—W) presented the first section, consisting of Chapter I, "General Board Of Pensions"; DCA No. 6, page 239, columns 1, 2 and 3, and page 240, column 1; Chapter II, "Permanent Funds," DCA No. 6, page 240, columns 1 and 2; Chapter III, "Annual Conference Organizations," DCA No. 6, page 240, columns 2 and 3; and page 241, column 1, with the following statement:—

Mr. Chairman, this Report deals with a great deal of detail. We are going to attempt to summarize it, the provisions here, and then give opportunity for questions after the summary.

First of all, I would like to call your attention to the note which appears in column 1 on page 239 DCA, just above the section that is marked Part VIII, which states that the title General Board of Pensions is to be substituted for the title Board of Pensions whenever it appears, and the Annual Conference Board of Pensions or its abbreviated form Conference Board of Pensions is to be substituted for the title Board of Conference Claimants wherever it appears throughout the text; that is, the text of Part VIII.

The 1952 General Conference ordered the Board of Pensions to prepare during the ensuing quadrennium and to present to this General Conference a Plan for merger of offices so that the Board may operate as the single Agency preserving the three present legal corporate entities.

Beginning with the first meeting of the Board of Pensions following The General Conference of 1952 the Board initiated the study as directed and continued the consideration throughout the Quadrennium. The Report and Recommendations of the Board were unanimously adopted by the Committee on Pensions of this Conference and are presented here in Paragraph 1601 to 1613. A, inclusive.

Now if you will turn to your text on page 239 DCA we will attempt to summarize the paragraphs.

Frank Webber (*) (California-Nevada—W) moved the adoption of Chapters I, "General Board Of Pensions," Chapter II, "Permanent Funds," and Chapter III, "Annual Conference Organizations," which he had just presented and explained to The General Conference.

The motion was duly seconded.

Questions—Frank C. Love ()—Answers—Frank Webber ()

Frank C. Love () (Central New York—NE) asked several questions which were answered by Frank Webber () (California-Nevada—W), as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman, since these are important matters that are being thrown out at us hurriedly, I ask that I be allowed to ask a question.

Bishop Kennedy: All right.

Frank C. Love: What is the provision for the election of the Directors or Trustees, whatever they may be termed, for this Pension Fund? How are they elected? How are they chosen?

Frank Webber: I understand, Mr. Chairman, the election is for an eight-year term. The classes are staggered.

Frank C. Love: By whom are they elected?

Frank Webber: They are elected by the Jurisdictional Conferences.

Frank C. Love: And to whom will the Corporation make a Report?

Frank Webber: The Corporation reports to The General Conference. The Report is found in the Book of Reports that was sent to each Delegate prior to this session of The Conference.

Frank C. Love: So they will make a report each Quadrennium to The General Conference?

Frank Webber: I understand that is correct."

Question—Lloyd M. Bertholf ()—Answer—Frank Webber ()

Lloyd M. Bertholf () (California-Nevada—W) asked the following question, which was answered by Frank Webber () (California-Nevada—W) :—

“Mr. Chairman, on page 239 of the Advocate, the third column, where it refers to Executive Secretary, are we to understand now that that will be changed to General Secretary in accordance with the action we took, as shown by the chart on page 207 ?

Frank Webber: I am informed that the answer is yes, it will be so changed.”

Question Re Membership General Board of Pensions—Dwight E. Walter ()—Answer—Frank Webber ()

Dwight E. Walter () (Ohio—NC) raised the question regarding the membership of the General Board of Pensions which was answered by Frank Baker () (California—W) as follows :—

“Mr. Chairman, did I understand you to say that the number of members of the General Board is changed from the standard which we have established ?

Frank Webber: No. My statement was that the method of selecting the numbers was slightly changed, of selecting the members, but that the total number was the same as was authorized by the 1952 General Conference.”

Chapters I, II, III Adopted

Chapters I, II and III of Report No. 1 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Pensions, as presented by Frank Webber (*) (California-Nevada—W), on being put to the vote of The General Conference, were adopted.

Chapter IV. Pension Code—Adlai C. Holler

Adlai C. Holler (South Carolina—SE) next presented Chapter IV, “Pension Code,” DCA No. 6, page 241, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 242, columns 1, 2 and 3, explaining the changes proposed and requested common consent to insert the words,

“PROVIDED, ALSO, THAT RELIEF MAY BE GRANTED TO AN APPROVED SUPPLY PASTOR WHO HAS BEEN RETIRED BY REASON OF AGE OR DISABILITY PRIOR TO HAVING RENDERED TEN YEARS OF APPROVED SERVICE,” to follow Item 20 in bold face type at the top of column 2, page 242, DCA No. 6, so that the amended Item will read as follows :—

20. Money received for the support of Conference Claimants shall be appropriated only for the payment of pension or relief benefits to Conference Claimants and the administrative costs of the Pension Program PROVIDED, ALSO, THAT RELIEF MAY BE GRANTED TO AN APPROVED SUPPLY PASTOR WHO HAS BEEN RETIRED BY REASON OF AGE OR DISABILITY PRIOR TO HAVING RENDERED TEN YEARS OF APPROVED SERVICE.

The General Conference gave unanimous common consent for the insertion of the words requested, the omission being caused by a printer's error.

Courtesy Request—J. Earl Moreland ()*

J. Earl Moreland (*) (Virginia—SE) asked if the rest of the Chapter IV could not be presented without reading, as The General Conference had the printed record.

Adlai C. Holler (South Carolina—SE) stated he was almost through with the presentation of Chapter IV.

Amendment—Albert D. Hagler—Adopted

Albert D. Hagler (Florida—SE) moved to amend Paragraph 1620, DCA No. 6, page 241, column 2, by adding the following paragraph (DB-99):—

“An Annual Conference, on recommendation of its Board of Conference Claimants, may, by a two-thirds vote of THOSE PRESENT AND VOTING IN the Annual Conference, grant annuity and/or necessitous relief to a wife for her years of approved service without granting annuity to a husband who may have disqualified himself by some moral dereliction, mental illness or other cause beyond the wife's control.”

so that Paragraph 1620, as amended, will read:—

¶ 1620.

3. The widow of a deceased Ministerial Member of an Annual Conference or of a deceased Approved Supply Pastor who remarries shall have no Annuity Claim during such marriage until her attainment of age 65, at which time her Annuity Claim may be reinstated; but if such subsequent marriage be dissolved by such husband's death or by legal process, the Annual Conference on recommendation of the Conference Board of Pensions may reinstate her Annuity Claim thereafter subject to the provisions of the Pension Code.

5. The Clearinghouse is hereby authorized to assign and transfer the obligation for the payment of the claims of the widow and minor children of a deceased Member of an Annual Conference to such other Annual Conference as said widow may request in writing, subject to the consent of the Conference Board of Pensions of the Annual Conference thereby obligated; provided, however, that the requirements of Divided Annuity Responsibility as set forth in ¶ 1636 shall be observed.

“An Annual Conference, on recommendation of its Board of Conference Claimants, may, by a two-thirds vote of THOSE PRESENT AND VOTING IN the Annual Conference, grant annuity and/or necessitous relief to a wife for her years of Approved Service without granting annuity to a husband who may have disqualified himself by some moral dereliction, mental illness or other cause beyond the wife's control.”

The motion to thus amend, being duly seconded, Albert D. Hagler (Florida—SE) spoke to the same as follows:—

"It would seem to me, sir, that the wording of the amendment would be its own argument. I recognize that it takes a great deal of courage to submit an amendment in this highly technical field, but I would like to make the suggestion that a Memorial covering this went before the Committee and they felt it was sufficiently important to refer it to a Study Committee of the Committee on Pensions for Report, I take it, at the next General Conference. That action is reported on page 104 of the Advocate. The Committee made a partial coverage in its recommendation on page 241, column 2, Disciplinary Paragraph 1620, section 3, with regard to widows or divorcees. But the Committee failed to cover certain problems of wives who are neither widows nor divorcees. I should like to cite just one illustration, though I could cite several. In the four years since I have been taken out of religious work and made a District Superintendent, I have known of three such cases. I served as President of the Board of Stewards in The Methodist Episcopal Church of a Conference, as Chairman of the Committee on Transition of two Conferences at the time of unification, by appointment of the Bishop, and as Chairman of the Board of Conference Claimants since, so that I am trying not to be too forward in offering this amendment, but I regret the Committee's action to refer to a Committee for an additional four years, for this reason, and I will cite but one case.

If you were the wife of a Methodist minister who had given long years of service to the Church and you were now seventy years of age, if your husband had been under psychiatric treatment but surrendered his credentials and departed for parts unknown with the major fraction of the family's lifetime savings and you had waited for three years for some possible correction in the Pension Code to take care of such a matter, and then your General Conference voted to postpone an additional four years, so that seven long years went by after the age of seventy, you might think that it demanded attention, as I do.

I would like to read the amendment again. I think the Conference can then make up its mind. You will notice the protection and restrictions given here which I think are ample safeguards.

'An Annual Conference, on recommendation of its Board of Conference Claimants, may, by a two-thirds vote of those present and voting in the Annual Conference, grant annuity and/or necessitous relief to a wife for her years of Approved Service, without granting annuity to a husband who may have disqualified himself by some moral dereliction, mental illness or other cause beyond the wife's control.'

If the Committee, or if Dr. Kilpatrick can give to the Conference some good reason why this should not be done, I would be happy to withdraw my amendment, but meanwhile I move its adoption."

Amendment Not Accepted—Lester A. Kilpatrick

Lester A. Kilpatrick (Michigan—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Pensions, stated the Committee does not accept the proposed amendment as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman and Members of the Conference: This very question and even the specific case was before the Committee. It was discussed at length and, in the first place, we do not feel that it is wise to adopt legislation for one case. Second, we felt that this should be submitted to our Pension Legislation Committee for study.

The Committee does not accept the amendment."

For Amendment—William H. Alderson

William H. Alderson (New York East—NE) spoke in favor of the proposed amendment of Albert D. Hagler (Florida—SE) as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman and Members of the Conference: I simply rise to add my word of sincere support in behalf of this addition or amendment to this Report.

I am the head of our Board of Conference Claimants in our Conference, and we could duplicate a number of times the case which this brother has cited, parallel cases to it. This is a point in this legislation that ought to be covered. It is technical, I know that, but those of us who have to deal with these cases firsthand plead for the support of this Conference. If it should prove unwise legislation it can be changed later. In the meanwhile it will give us a chance to help necessitous cases that now are barred from help because this point in the legislation is not covered.

I hope that this amendment will prevail."

Refer Amendment—Lester L. Roush—Not Referred

Lester L. Roush (Ohio—NC) spoke to the pending amendment, and moved its reference to the Pension Legislation Committee as follows:—

"This matter has been carefully and thoroughly considered by the Committee on Pension Legislation with a great many hours spent in study and consideration as to how this need might be met.

We see no way of meeting it now on any basis or philosophy on which our Pension Code now rests. We believe that it needs to be referred for consideration for another quadrennium in spite of what has been said in regard to its postponement. We believe if all the points that are involved in this are to be argued out it will take a long time yet on this Conference floor and if they are to be argued out and thoroughly settled, of course, it must be done on this floor.

If The Conference wishes to do that, we are prepared to do it. I doubt if you do. I, therefore, move that it be referred to the Pension Legislation Committee and report back to the next General Conference, sir."

Against Referring—Anthony Hearn

Anthony Hearn (South Georgia—SE) spoke against referring the proposed amendment of Albert D. Hagler (Florida—SE), as follows:—

"I hope the Conference will not pass this motion to refer, but will adopt the amendment. As a District Superintendent and also as a Pastor, I, too, could cite instances where such permissive legislation would be an act of mercy."

Closes Debate—Lester A. Kilpatrick

Lester A. Kilpatrick (Michigan—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Pensions, closed the debate on the pending amendment, as follows:

“Mr. Chairman and Members of The Conference: I do not desire this Committee to prolong the debate. We stated that it was before us and was given very careful consideration. At the same time it is a tug on our heart strings just the same as it is on yours.

We feel that the Conference Claimant, the old one, we used to call the former, would be sort of sitting in judgment on particular cases; that is, as to who was guilty of what. That is one thing.

The second is we do not feel that we are in a position now to adopt this legislation but, of course, it is up to The General Conference, Mr. Chairman.”

Motion to Refer—Lester L. Roush—Not Adopted

The proposed motion of Lester L. Roush (Ohio—NC) to refer the proposed amendment of Albert D. Hagler (Florida—SE) to the Pension Legislation Committee, on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.

Amendment Adopted—Albert D. Hagler

The proposed amendment of Albert D. Hagler (Florida—SE), on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was adopted.

Amendment—Farris F. Moore—Not Adopted

Farris F. Moore (Tennessee—SE) moved to amend Paragraph 1623, DCA No. 6, page 241, column 3 (DB-100), by inserting the words, “after consultation with the World Service and Finance Commission of the Annual Conference,” to follow the words, “of the Conference Board of Pensions,” in line two of the second paragraph of Paragraph 1623, so that the amended Paragraph will read as follows:—

¶ 1623. Apportionments. 1. The recommended Standard Annuity Rate shall be a sum equivalent to one per cent of the average salary of the Conference. (See ¶ 1618 §§ 5, 6.)

The Annual Conference, on recommendation of the Conference Board of Pensions, AFTER CONSULTATION WITH THE WORLD SERVICE AND FINANCE COMMISSION OF THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE, shall determine the Annuity Rate payable; whereupon the said Board shall compute the amount necessary to meet the prospective Annuity disbursements according to the Annuity Rate determined. After taking into consideration any amount to be received from other sources for the support of Conference Claimants, the total amount necessary shall be apportioned to the several pastoral charges of the Conference on such basis as the Annual Conference may from time to time determine. In case the basis of Apportionment adopted is that of a percentage of the cash salaries of the ministers, where there is more than one minister serving a pastoral charge the Apportionment thereto shall be on the basis of all cash salaries paid to such ministers.

Amendment Not Accepted—Lester A. Kilpatrick

Lester A. Kilpatrick (Michigan—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Pensions, stated the Committee could not accept the proposed amendment of Farris F. Moore (Tennessee—SE).

Speaks to Amendment—Farris F. Moore

The proposed amendment of Farris F. Moore (Tennessee—SE), being duly seconded, Farris F. Moore (Tennessee—SE) spoke to the same, as follows:—

“Now, Brethren, I served for a good time on the World Service and Finance Commission of an Annual Conference, and there has to be some Financial Program set up and some Budget determined within the Annual Conference, and I do not believe that any single claim within the Annual Conference ought to take place over the rest of the claims at the Annual Conference, and I think it is only fair that the World Service and Finance Commission be consulted in the matter of setting of these rates since they do have to bring it finally to the Annual Conference. And I believe that it is only fair and just that they be consulted. Therefore, I move this amendment and I hope certainly that it shall prevail.”

Speaks to Pending Amendment—Lester A. Kilpatrick

Lester A. Kilpatrick (Michigan—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Pension, spoke to the pending amendment of Farris F. Moore (Tennessee—SE) as follows:—

“Mr. Chairman and Members of The Conference: In the handling of this particular part of the work, the Committee on Conference Pensions—I will call it, the old Conference Board of Conference Claimants does not consult with the Commission on World Service and Finance although in some Conferences we do say something to them about the total amount of Apportionment we may wish to levy upon the churches. But as far as setting the Annuity Rate, the money comes into this particular fund, it does not pass through the World Service and Finance Commission's Funds. It is really a separate matter. That is why we do not consult with the World Service and Finance Commission.”

For Amendment—George H. Atkinson ()*

George H. Atkinson (*) (California-Nevada—W) spoke in favor of the proposed amendment of Farris F. Moore (Tennessee—SE) as follows:—

“As a Chairman of the Conference Budget Committee for the World Service and Finance Commission, in the Conference Commission we have had this problem and I am in favor of this amendment. I do not think that the World Service Commission should have the right to set the Annuity Payment without regard to the Board of Conference Claimants. On the other hand, it is a very difficult thing to work up a Budget and have this item come in with no total control over it whatsoever.

We in the West in rapidly growing Conferences, where we have a large stake and Church Extension, Missions and so forth, are having our Conference Budgets go up between fifteen and twenty per cent almost every year, and this idea of having the Conference Claimants be able to send their Apportionment directly to the Conference without any regard to the World Service Program is very embarrassing to say the least.

I think that for a Unified Program this amendment would help, and I would like to support it."

Against Amendment—Nathaniel J. Golding

Nathaniel J. Golding (North Mississippi—SE) spoke against the proposed amendment of Farris F. Moore (Tennessee—SE) as follows:—

"I simply would like to say this, that when the Apportionment Rate is suggested by the Board of Conference Claimants, it must be voted on and approved by the Annual Conference and it, therefore, has a chance and the opportunity of voting it down.

One other item I would say. I am heartily in favor of Church Extension, Mission Programs and everything else that pertains to the on-going Church, but if each one of you could happen to be a Treasurer of the Fund to which these people must look for support, I believe you would come to the conclusion that meat and bread sometimes is a little more important than the building of a new church."

Closes Debate—Lester A. Kilpatrick

Lester A. Kilpatrick (Michigan—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Pensions, closed the debate on the proposed amendment of Farris F. Moore (Tennessee—SE) as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman, just a word: I think that the last speaker has pretty well covered the ground, and it has been an established custom and practice of The Methodist Church for many years to have this particular Fund handled by the Conference Board, or the Board of Conference Claimants, and the Apportionment Rate and so on fixed and the Annuity Rate, and it is our mind that it should remain there."

Amendment Not Adopted—Farris F. Moore

The proposed amendment of Farris F. Moore (Tennessee—SE), on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.

Amendment—Claude M. Temple—Accepted—Lester A. Kilpatrick

Claude M. Temple (Illinois—NC) moved to amend (DB-101) Paragraph 1630, Item 8, at the bottom of page 242, column 1, DCA No. 6, by the insertion of the words, "those present and voting in," between the words, "three-fourths vote of," and, "The Annual Conference," in the last line at the bottom of page 242, column 1, DCA No. 6, so that the amended Item 8 will read as follows:—

¶ 1630.

8. A minister cannot present his credentials to and be accepted into the ministry of another Denomination and at the same time retain his standing in an Annual Conference of The Methodist Church. Such action constitutes withdrawal from our ministry; provided, however, that if a Ministerial Member while in good standing in an Annual Conference voluntarily withdraw from the ministry of The Methodist Church in order to enter the ministry of another Church, upon the attainment of age sixty-five and retirement from the ministry of such other Church or Denomination, upon recommendation of the Conference Board of Pensions and a three-fourths vote of THOSE PRESENT AND VOTING IN the Annual Conference in which ministerial membership was last held, he may be recognized as a Conference Claimant and allowed an Annuity Claim on account of Approved Service in The Methodist Church.

and also to amend the adopted amendment of Albert D. Hagler (Florida—SE) by adding the words, "THOSE PRESENT AND VOTING IN," between the words, "by a two-thirds vote of," and, "the Annual Conference," so that this adopted amendment, as amended by the proposed amendment of Claude M. Temple (Illinois—NC), will read as follows:—

"An Annual Conference, on recommendation of its Board of Conference Claimants, may, by a two-thirds vote of THOSE PRESENT AND VOTING IN the Annual Conference, grant annuity and/or necessitous relief to a wife for her years of approved service, without granting annuity to a husband who may have disqualified himself by some moral dereliction, mental illness, or other cause beyond the wife's control."

Lester A. Kilpatrick (Michigan—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Pensions, accepted the proposed amendment of Claude M. Temple (Illinois—NC) for the Committee, at both places indicated, there being no objection being raised by any member of the Standing Legislative Committee on Pensions, or by any member of The General Conference.

Question—Charles W. Avery, Jr. ()—Answer—Lester A. Kilpatrick*

Charles W. Avery, Jr. (*) (Genesee—NE) raised a question concerning "Proportional Payment," as set forth in Paragraph 1624, DCA No. 6, page 241, column 3, which was answered by Lester A. Kilpatrick (Michigan—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Pensions, as follows:—

"I would like to ask the Chairman of the Committee a question relative to Paragraph 1624, the third column of page 241, entitled 'Proportional Payment.' It seems to be inconsistent with the Paragraph numbered 1618 above it in the middle of that column because it makes no reference to any other manner in which the Apportionment shall be levied other than a direct Apportionment of the Pastor's cash salary. If that is the case, I desire to make an amendment if the option of the Annual Conference is taken away.

Lester Kilpatrick: I think, Brother Avery, if you look at that, it is not a matter of the Apportionment so much as it is this matter of the four items of ministerial support and the meeting of same and so on and so forth, rather than the amount of the Apportionment which is just as we have always done, and if a man didn't pay, say, for instance, for the Conference Claimants Fund or the Episcopal Fund, he was then—well, he was guilty of not paying it, that is all."

Amendment—Charles W. Avery, Jr. ()—Not Adopted*

Charles W. Avery, Jr. (*) (Genesee—NE) stated that if the Chairman, Lester A. Kilpatrick (Michigan—NC) does not see fit to clarify the matter, he would move to delete section 1 of Paragraph 1624.

Lester A. Kilpatrick (Michigan—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Pensions, stated he had no further comment.

Charles W. Avery, Jr. (*) (Genesee—NE) then moved to delete (DB-102) Item 1 of Paragraph 1624, DCA No. 6, page 241, column 3, which reads as follows:—

¶ 1624. Proportional Payment. 1. The amount payable by any pastoral charge on the Apportionment to it for the support of Conference Claimants and for the Ministers Reserve Pension Fund shall be directly proportionate to the total amount of cash salary or salaries paid by the charge to the Minister or Ministers serving it. When the Apportionment to the pastoral charges for the support of Conference Claimants has been determined, payments made thereto by each pastoral charge shall be exactly proportionate to the amount of salary or salaries paid to the Minister or Ministers serving it. (¶¶ 822, 823)

The motion to thus delete, being duly seconded, Charles W. Avery, Jr. (*) (Genesee—NE), spoke to the same as follows:—

"In the Genesee Conference we have concluded with several other Conferences the study of this Apportionment situation, and we are now on the basis of the decimal weighing in the Pastor's cash salary and membership. Some Conferences include current expenses less building and major repairs in weighing in for the decimal.

It seems a step backward to penalize the Pastor's cash salary with every Apportionment of this kind, and I do not desire to see this General Conference take that step backward with this type of legislation."

Speaks to Proposed Deletion—Adlai C. Holler

Adlai C. Holler (South Carolina—SE) spoke to pending motion of Charles W. Avery, Jr. (*) (Genesee—NE) to delete as follows:—

"I think the point has already been covered and is an unnecessary addition because this does not say that it must be fixed by any percentage of the salary, but regardless of the method the Annual Conference uses to fix it, when you fix the amount for Conference Claimants, it then becomes relative to the Pastor's salary. My own Annual Conference, for instance, does not use the salary as a basis, but amounts to my charge are relatively fixed as soon as the amount is fixed and the percentage thereby fixed and it can differ in every Annual Conference."

Reply—Charles W. Avery, Jr. ()*

Charles W. Avery, Jr. (*) (Genesee—NE) made the following statement:—

"I simply refer the Chairman again to the statements that are in that Paragraph which say the Apportionment shall be in direct proportion to the Pastor's cash salary, and unless that is rectified, I think that should be deleted."

Motion to Delete—Charles W. Avery, Jr. ()—Not Adopted*

The motion of Charles W. Avery, Jr. (*) (Genesee—NE) to delete Item 1 of Paragraph 1624, DCA No. 6, page 241, column 3, on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.

Previous Question—Embree H. Blackard—Ordered

Motion of Embree H. Blackard (Western North Carolina—SE), duly seconded prevailed, ordering the Previous Question in all matters before The General Conference, by more than the required two-thirds majority vote.

Ruling—Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy

Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy, the Presiding Officer, made the following ruling:—

"The Previous Question is called for. We may have questions but not debate."

Question—Harold F. Kellogg

Harold F. Kellogg (Ohio—NC) raised the question if there was any provision made for widowers of ministerial members? The Committee had no reply.

Inquiry—H. Hughes Wagner—Answer—Adlai C. Holler

H. Hughes Wagner (New England—NE) raised some questions which were answered by Adlai C. Holler (South Carolina—SE) as follows:—

"I wish to ask just a question. This is a serious question. I have not read this through; I confess that. I also confess that if I did I probably wouldn't understand it. However, I do know that in our Annual Conferences in the Board of Ministerial Training, every new young preacher taken in On Trial costs the Conference something for his Pension needs. I know it is difficult now to take a young man in On Trial who is going into educational work, to be a teacher or perhaps a Chaplain on a campus.

Is there any place in here where it is possible for a young preacher to waive his Pension rights and therefore waive the necessity of the Annual Conference to pay into the Fund for him?

Bishop Kennedy: Can you answer that, Dr. Holler?

Adlai C. Holler: I think I get your point, and it is a little difficult to answer. We take these new men coming in, these young men, and we take up their years of what we call "prayer to be admitted into the full Conference," in connection, from the time they join On Trial, and so forth. But if they are going into some other branch of service, that will pay them a Pension, then they themselves must relinquish their right to an Annuity at a certain time. They usually do, but we are covering them until they do that thing.

H. Hughes Wagner: Do I understand they cannot do it at the time they come in On Trial, knowing they will never be a minister in a parish, knowing they will always be covered by some other forms of Pensions? Can they not waive it and still be a Christian minister and a member of the Conferences?

Adlai C. Holler: Brother, that is one of the items that is being considered for further study. It is something just coming into the picture in recent years. We will have something for you at a subsequent Conference, but not at this Conference.

H. Hughes Wagner: In 1960, or so on?

Adlai C. Holler: I guess so.

Inquiry—G. Wesley Lewis ()—Answers—Adlai C. Holler

G. Wesley Lewis (*) (Wyoming—NE) raised some questions which were answered by Adlai C. Holler (South Carolina—SE) and Charles L. Calkins (South Dakota—NC) as follows:—

"I would like to direct through you a question to the Chairman. It is relative to procedure: at the bottom of page 248, DCA, Paragraph 1630, under the heading No. 8. It is relative to a minister who has served a number of years and is in this Conference, then leaves the Conference and goes to another Denomination.

When he has reached the age of 65, if he has left his money with the Conference where he held membership, why should it be necessary for him to go through this procedure in order to get the money which he is entitled to? And I refer to the two-thirds vote of the Ministerial Members of the Conference.

Adlai Holler: This is a section we have not yet come to.

G. Wesley Lewis: There is one question asked regarding this, and I hoped to get mine in, but it wasn't possible.

Bishop Kennedy: That is not before us yet. Will you hold it until we get to that? We are on the Previous Question.

Adlai Holler: May I say something in answer to that?

Bishop Kennedy: Yes.

Adlai Holler: On page 242, DCA, at the bottom of the column there are two places where this provision is made. One is in the Reserve Pension Program, which is not yet under consideration. In the Reserve Pension Program is the provision that if a minister leaves his money in the Fund, he will have the right to claim an Annuity at the attainment of age 65, or retirement from such other Denomination. The money that he has put in he either gets back in cash or he retains his Annuity Claim thereby.

However, in this other situation, in the Pension Code, we have to make some provision if we are going to do this, whereby this Annuity Claim may be re-established.

The Presbyterian Church, the Baptist Church, the Congregational Church, have established comity of relationship on Pension Programs. In the Pension Program then, it is necessary for us to provide a way whereby an Annual Conference may re-establish the man's claim after he has left the Church and retired from such other Denomination, and if he is in good standing.

G. Wesley Lewis: If he is in good standing?

Charles L. Calkins: If he is in good standing he is entitled to make this petition to his Annual Conference, and the Annual Conference can do what is provided."

Inquiry—W. Vernon Middleton—Answer—Charles L. Calkins

W. Vernon Middleton (Philadelphia—NE) raised the question which was answered by Charles L. Calkins as follows:—

"I would like to ask Dr. Calkins this question concerning the legislation proposed in Paragraph 1631, in the middle column. I realize it is under Special Conference Claimants, but in the bold face type you list Agencies of The Methodist Church which may be counted for determining eligibility, but that the Annuity will be based only on terms of a preferred service of his pastorate charge.

Is that not confusing?

Charles L. Calkins: I suppose it is confusing, but it is not confusing for the purpose it is intended. This situation has arisen where we have had individuals who are serving as Supply Pastors, Approved Supply Pastors up to seven or eight years. Then they were offered by an Annual Conference Board an opportunity to serve as a Director of a religious, educational, so forth, group for the Conference Board, or something of that sort. If they took it, it would disqualify them for Pension under Special Conference Claimants Provisions.

Now, this says that if such persons had seven or eight years of service as a Special Conference Claimant and then begins to work for such Board or Agency, the Board or Agency providing the Pension thereafter, the seven or eight years prior to that time is not lost, but is counted, and the service with the Board or Agency added to the seven or eight years qualifies the person for the ten years of minimum.

Now, it is a backward way to get at it, but it seemed to be the only proper way we could, at this time.

W. Vernon Middleton: But it refers only to Approved Supply Pastors.

Amendment—Asbury Smith—Ruling—Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy

Asbury Smith (Baltimore—NE) moved an amendment, which was ruled out of order, as follows:—

"I am referring to Paragraph 1623, page 241, DCA. The last part of that Paragraph closes, 'In case the basis of Apportionment adopted is that of a percentage of the cash salaries of the Ministers, where there is more than one Minister serving a pastoral charge the apportionment thereto shall be on the basis of all cash salaries paid to such Ministers.'

I would like to ask the Chair if the group would object to changing 'shall' to 'may'? This makes a great deal of difference.

Bishop Kennedy: I think that is out of order. We are on the Previous Question. You can ask a question, but you cannot argue. We are going to vote on it.

Asbury Smith: I ask if it can be changed to 'may' from 'shall'?

Bishop Kennedy: It is still out of order."

Questions—Dean E. Richardson—Answers—Charles L. Calkins

Dean E. Richardson (Genesee—NE) raised some questions which were answered by Charles L. Calkins (South Dakota—NC) as follows:—

"I should like to ask concerning the Paragraph 1620, Section 3, on the comment relative to widows of deceased Ministers, and so forth. I would like to ask Dr. Calkins or the Chairman whether or not this is in line with the general practice of Pension Codes of other Denominations, and of similar professional groups to our own. I have in mind particularly the matter that relates to the deprivation of Annuity Claim during a period a woman is married.

Charles L. Calkins: Mr. Chairman, this is not in accord with most Pension Programs.

Dean E. Richardson: Will you give us the reason for that?

Charles L. Calkins: There has been considerable discussion and considerable amount of correspondence which has come to the Pension Legislation Committee, and some Memorials, which would provide that since the widows pension is really upon the Minister-husband's service, that she has some sort of an earned right in the Pension. That just because of re-marriage she should not lose that right.

Now, the Pension Legislation Committee and your Pension Committee here were unwilling to give her that right from the time of her re-marriage on. However, they felt that it might be proper to give her that right after she had attained the age of 65. Thus if a widow of 35 or 40 re-married a couple of years later, she would lose her right until age 65, but then she could get it back again.

Now that, again, is somewhat in line with the legislation that you just passed over the Committee's recommendation, giving a person, a woman, a claim when her husband was still living. It is all the same type of legislation.

Dean E. Richardson: Well, it is quite distinctive with this Code, then. It is not in common practice?

Charles L. Calkins: It is not in common practice."

Question—Bruce L. Middaugh—Answer—Charles L. Calkins

Bruce L. Middaugh (Erie—NE) raised a question which was answered by Charles L. Calkins (South Dakota—NC) as follows:—

"I should like to ask for an interpretation of Paragraph 1624 on page 241, DCA, Section 1, proportional payment. I may not understand it properly, and maybe it doesn't mean what it seems to say, but it looks to me as if it says that in the latter part of it, that if a charge overpays its Pastors' salaries by 10 per cent, it must also overpay its Conference Claimant's amount by 10 per cent. Does it say that, sir?

Charles L. Calkins: No, sir."

Ruling—Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy

Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy, the Presiding Officer, made the following statement:—

"We will have questions as long as you wish to ask them, but we are still under the Previous Question."

Question—Elmer D. Landreth—Answer—Adlai C. Holler

Elmer D. Landreth (Northwest Texas—SC) asked a question which was answered by Adlai C. Holler (South Carolina—SE) as follows:—

"On page 241, DCA, the second column, at the top of the page, I would like to ask the Chairman to say a word, tell us the reason for this added wording, 'or completed forty years of full time approved service, as defined . . .' That hasn't been discussed. We would like a little light on it.

Adlai C. Holler: Mr. Chairman, when a man reaches 65 there is no argument of course; that is mandatory. We are not going to have many people now coming under this who will reach forty years' service before reaching 65 years of age, but in industry and many other areas of life, forty years is well beyond the time required before a person is eligible to retire.

It was the sense of our Committee, after discussing this quite at length, that we should at least make provision for those who had forty full years of service, even though they had not made the calendar year 65, make them eligible to retire at their own request."

Chapter IV Pension Code Adopted as Amended

Chapter IV, Pension Code, General Regulations, DCA No. 6, page 241, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 242, columns 1, 2 and 3, was adopted, as amended.

Motion to Adjourn—John R. Van Sickle (*)—Adopted

John R. Van Sickle (*) (Rock River—NC) moved that we do now adjourn. The motion, duly seconded, prevailed, with the proviso that the following matters requested by the Presiding Officer, Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy, be taken up and disposed of:—

“Will the Conference allow two brief matters that have to come before us before we adjourn? There are nominations to be given by the Secretary of The Council of Bishops, Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam. I am going to ask him to give those at this time.

Dr. John Wilkins asked for a privilege a while ago, and I told him I would recognize him. I don't think this will take long.”

Nominations Council of Bishops—Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam

Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, of the Washington Area, Northeastern Jurisdiction, and Secretary of The Council of Bishops of The Methodist Church, presented elections and nominations of The Council of Bishops for nine different groups, separately, and action was taken on each, as indicated:—

No. 4—Commission to Study and Recommend Action Concerning the Jurisdictional System (DB-106)—Amendment—Chester A. Smith—Out of Order—Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy—Point of Order—Benjamin I. Thornton ()*—Ernest J. Peterson ()*

Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, of the Washington Area, Northeastern Jurisdiction, and Secretary of The Council of Bishops of The Methodist Church, read the names of the nominations of The Council of Bishops for the Commission To Study And Recommend Action Concerning The Jurisdictional System.

Question—Chester A. Smith ()*—Answer—Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam

Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) asked a question which was answered by Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam as follows:—

“Mr. Chairman, I desire to ask Bishop Oxnam whether or not in the nominations for members from the Northeastern Jurisdiction there is a Negro?”

Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam: The answer is, there is no Negro. Last evening the body charged with consulting with The Council of Bishops made no such nomination after the matter had been proposed to it, and the College of Bishops did not bring such a nomination. The answer is no.”

Chester A. Smith () Nominates Peter J. White ()—Point of Order—Benjamin I. Thornton ()*—Sustained—Ruling—Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy

Chester A. Smith () (New York—NE) moved to amend the list of nominations by deleting the name of Hurst R. Anderson () from the Lay Nominees of the Northeastern Jurisdiction, and substituting therefor the name of Peter J. White, Sr. (*). The motion to thus amend was duly seconded.

Point of Order—Benjamin I. Thornton (*)—Well Taken

Chester A. Smith () (New York—NE) started to speak to his proposed motion to amend when Benjamin I. Thornton () (South Georgia—SE) raised the following Point of Order:—

“The Conference ordered The Council of Bishops to make these nominations after consulting with their Delegation or Delegation Leaders. There are no nominations to be made from the floor.”

Ruling—Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy

Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy, the Presiding Officer, ruled as follows:—

"I think your point of order is well stated. I think Brother Smith is out of order on this.

The motion therefore is to elect, those who have been nominated. It is before you. Is there further discussion?"

Ruling Challenged—Chester A. Smith ()—Ruling Sustained—The General Conference*

Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) challenged the ruling of the Presiding Officer, Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy, as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman, do you rule that I am out of order?"

Bishop Kennedy: Yes.

Chester A. Smith: I appeal from the decision of the Chair.

Bishop Kennedy: All right. Would you like to speak first?

Chester A. Smith: Yes, sir.

Bishop Kennedy: Go ahead."

Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) spoke as follows concerning his challenge of the ruling of the Presiding Officer, Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy:—

"Mr. Chairman and Members of The Conference: We have come to the point in this General Conference of whether or not we are going to accept everything which the Bishops present to us in the way of nominations, or whether we are going to accept and stand by our rights, and if we want to change one of their nominees we will have that right. It is the privilege of The General Conference to change the nominations of the Bishops, and to substitute for any name they present to us another name.

I think the ruling of the Bishop that I am out of order in presenting this name is a disfranchising of the Members of this General Conference and is a most undemocratic procedure.

I ask the Members of The General Conference not to sustain the Bishop in his ruling."

Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy, the Presiding Officer, spoke as follows concerning his ruling:—

"Now I think according to the Rule the Chair has a right to speak one word to defend his Ruling. All I will say is that according to our action the Bishops were instructed to nominate, after consulting with the leaders of their Delegations. There was no provision made for nominations from the floor of The Conference. I therefore assume that you expected only the Bishops to make the nominations after this consultation.

Will those who would sustain the Chair raise their hand. Those who will not sustain the Chair.

I guess the Chair is sustained. Thank you.

Now the motion before us to elect, to elect those who have been nominated. Is there a motion?"

On motion of Ernest J. Peterson (*) (Oregon—W), duly seconded, the following nominations of The Council of Bishops of The Methodist Church were elected to constitute the Commission To Study And Recommend Action Concerning The Jurisdictional System:—

Northeastern Jurisdiction:—

Bishops:—G. Bromley Oxnam (Washington Area)
Fred P. Corson (Philadelphia Area)

Ministers:—Ralph W. Sockman (New York)
John E. Hannifan (West Virginia)
Walter G. Muelder (New England)
Dean E. Richardson (Genesee)

Laymen:—Charles C. Parlin (Newark)
George W. Culberson (Pittsburgh)
Mrs. Emil M. Hartl (New England)
DeWitt C. LeFevre (Northern New York)
Hurst R. Anderson (Minnesota)
Mrs. Christine Marple (New Jersey)

Southeastern Jurisdiction:—

Bishops:—Arthur J. Moore (Atlanta Area)
Paul N. Garber (Richmond Area)

Ministers:—Nolan B. Harmon (Virginia) (A)
C. Cooper Bell (Virginia)
Leonard H. Cochran (South Georgia)
R. Laurence Dill, Jr. (North Alabama)
D. Trigg James, Sr. (Holston)

(A) Note:—Nolan B. Harmon was elected a Bishop by the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference, Thursday, July 12, 1956. The College of Bishops of the Jurisdiction elected W. Lemuel Clegg (North Carolina) to fill the vacancy. Editor)

Laymen:—Ben M. Stevens (Mississippi)
Edwin L. Jones, Sr. (Western North Carolina)
Fred B. Noble (Florida)
Mrs. J. Fount Tillman (Tennessee)
R. Lee Blackwell (Louisville)
Lee Roy Ussery (Alabama)
J. Carlisle Holler (South Carolina)

Central Jurisdiction:—

Bishops:—Willis J. King (New Orleans Area)
Edgar A. Love (Baltimore Area)

Amendment to Rules of Order—John R. Wilkins—Withdrawn

John R. Wilkins (California-Nevada—W) moved to amend the Plan of Organization and Rules of Order, page 193, 1956 Handbook for Delegates, by deleting “(1) Committee of Chairmen, which reads as follows:—

“(1) Committee of Chairmen. The Chairmen of the several Standing Legislative Committees, the Chairman of the Committee on Plan of Organization and Rules of Order, and the Chairman of the Commission on Entertainment shall be constituted a Committee whose function it shall be to arrange for the presentation of Committee Reports to the Conference in such order as to expedite the business.” and substitute therefor the following (DB-112):—

(1) Business Committee. This Committee shall be composed of four Laymen and three Ministers appointed by The Council of Bishops from the regularly elected Delegates to the ensuing General Conference at the winter meeting of the said Council of Bishops, preceding the session of The General Conference. The Secretary of the General Conference shall be an ex-officio member of this Committee, and shall convene the Committee prior to the opening of The Conference. Its duties shall be as follows.

a. Consult with Agencies and leaders of The Methodist Church concerning the timing of their Reports to The General Conference.

b. Obtain from the Chairmen of Legislative and Administrative Committees their requests for the scheduling of their Reports on the Business Agenda.

c. Report to each business session of The General Conference its recommendations for the Business Agenda, including Committee Reports and other business.

The motion to refer, being duly seconded, on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was adopted.

No. 18—Chairmen—A. Wesley Pugh

A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee of Chairmen, was recognized, and made the following statement:—

"Our Rules require, if you refer this now to the Committee on Rules, that the Committee shall report thereon not later than the following day.

I want you to know what you are doing if you refer this to us. You are asking us to consider a matter as important as this, with the business that we have on us now, and report on it tomorrow. I do not think we can do it.

What I want to say is this: I thought I had it perhaps arranged with Brother Wilkins that this could be presented as an amendment when we present our Report which sets up the Plan of Organization and Rules of Order for the next General Conference. He can present it as an amendment then. But to ask us to take it now and report tomorrow, I don't think it could be done."

Amendment Withdrawn—John R. Wilkins

John R. Wilkins (California-Nevada—W), with the consent of the seconder of his motion to refer, asked that he be permitted to withdraw his proposed amendment at this time and present it tomorrow, when the Standing Administrative Committee on Plan of Organization and Rules of Order will present their Report concerning the Rules for The General Conference of 1960. By common unanimous consent of The General Conference, the proposed amendment of John R. Wilkins (California-Nevada—W) was withdrawn, to be presented tomorrow, Saturday, May 5, 1956.

Point of Order—Lynn J. Radcliffe

Lynn J. Radcliffe (Ohio—NC) raised the Point of Order that The General Conference had moved to adjourn, that the motion had been adopted, and that all of this was out of order.

Ruling—Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy

Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy, the Presiding Officer, stated that he agreed with the Point of Order raised, but that the motion to adjourn was adopted with the proviso to consider two matters, namely, the nominations from the Council of Bishops and the proposed amendment of John R. Wilkins (California-Nevada—W).

Announcements—Leon T. Moore

Announcements were made by Leon T. Moore (Philadelphia—NE), Secretary-Designate of The General Conference of The Methodist Church.

Thanks—Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy

Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy, the Presiding Officer, thanked the members of The General Conference for their spirit of co-operation in conducting the business of the evening session.

Adjournment—Benediction—Bishop W. Earl Ledden

The evening session of the Tenth Day, Friday, May 4, 1956, of The General Conference of The Methodist Church, adjourned at eleven o'clock P.M., with the Benediction pronounced by Bishop W. Earl Ledden, of the Syracuse Area Northeastern Jurisdiction, and President of The Council of Bishops, with further consideration of and action on Report No. 1 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Pensions pending.

ELEVENTH DAY, SATURDAY, MAY 5, 1956

MORNING SESSION

Opening—Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam

Pursuant to adjournment, The General Conference of The Methodist Church assembled in the morning session of the Eleventh Day, Saturday, May 5, 1956, at 8:30 A.M., in the Municipal Auditorium at Minneapolis, Minnesota, with Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, of the Washington Area, North-eastern Jurisdiction, presiding, and with the further consideration of and action on Report No. 1 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Pensions, Calendar No. 41, Subject, "Pension Legislation," DCA No. 6, page 239, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 240, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 241, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 242, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 243, columns 1, 2 and 3; and page 244, column 1, pending.

Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, the Presiding Officer, announced that James R. Houghton (*) (New England—NE), General Conference Director of Music, would announce a Hymn, and that the Devotional Service of the morning would be conducted by Bishop William T. Watkins, of the Louisville Area, Southeastern Jurisdiction.

Hymn No. 148—James R. Houghton ()*

James R. Houghton (*) (New England—NE), General Director of Music, announced Hymn No. 148, "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross." The General Conference stood and joined in the singing of the Hymn announced. The General Conference remained standing while Bishop William T. Watkins led in prayer.

Devotions—Bishop William T. Watkins

Bishop William T. Watkins, of the Louisville Area, Southeastern Jurisdiction, brought the devotional message of the morning from the theme, "The Kingdom of God."

Hymn 148—James R. Houghton ()—Benediction—Bishop William T. Watkins*

At the close of the Devotional Message, The General Conference stood and joined in the singing of Hymn No. 148, "In the Cross of Christ I Glory," announced by James R. Houghton (*) (New England—NE), General Conference Director of Music, after which Bishop William T. Watkins of the Louisville Area, Southeastern Jurisdiction, pronounced the Benediction.

Business Session—Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam

Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, the Presiding Officer, called The General Conference of The Methodist Church to order for the business session at 8:50 A.M., Saturday, May 5, 1956, no objection being raised by any Member of The General Conference to beginning the business session before 9 o'clock A.M.

No. 7—Journal—George B. Ahn (*)

George B. Ahn (*) (Central New York—NE) Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee on Journal, presented Report No. 7 of the Committee, and on his motion, duly seconded, it was adopted as follows:—

“Your Committee has examined the Journal for Thursday afternoon, May 3rd and has found it to be correct.”

(Signed) George B. Ahn (*), Chairman

Statement—George B. Ahn ()*

George B. Ahn (*) (Central New York—NE) made the following statement:—

“The record appearing in the Daily Christian Advocate this morning for Thursday evening and Friday morning have been taken from the Stenotype and not examined by the Committee.”

No. 11—Courtesies and Privileges—Alexander K. Smith

Alexander K. Smith (Philadelphia—NE), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee on Courtesies and Privileges, presented two matters, and action was taken on each as indicated:—

First—Presented Bishop A. Frank Smith—Earl R. Brown

Requested that Bishop A. Frank Smith of the Houston-San Antonio Area, South Central Jurisdiction, be recognized for a privileged matter.

Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, the Presiding Officer, recognized Bishop A. Frank Smith, of the Houston-San Antonio Area, South Central Jurisdiction for a highly privileged matter, and stated that inasmuch as Bishop A. Frank Smith desired to present a person, and called attention to the last sentence of section (e) of the duties of the Standing Administrative Committee on Courtesies and Privileges, which reads as follows:—

"No person or persons shall be presented after the sixth day unless approved by a two-thirds vote of The Conference."

The General Conference unanimously gave more than the required two-thirds vote for the presentation of Earl R. Brown (North-East Ohio—NC).

Bishop A. Frank Smith, of the Houston-San Antonio Area, South Central Jurisdiction made the following statement in presenting Earl R. Brown (North-East Ohio—NC):—

"Mr. Chairman and Members of The Conference: There is one great moment in the life of every person who was present in Kansas City upon that historic evening in 1939. It was when the hand of every Member of The General Conference, of every person associated with it, took the pledge and declared the Methodists were one people.

We left Kansas City for the shakedown cruise through 1939. Various Agencies were meeting to learn just what the rights of each were now that union had been effected.

And in 1940 The Methodist Church set forth bravely upon that voyage which has brought us down to the present moment.

Among the many Agencies affected by union, none presented more problems than were to be found in the Board of Missions composed of the four Divisions with which you are familiar. And of those Divisions the Division of Home Missions and Church Extension, I think without peradventure of doubt, had the most problems. In reality through that quadrennium three Boards operated. If you have occasion ever to look at the Discipline of 1940 you will discover that the Division of Home Missions and Church Extension was provided with three Executive Secretaries of co-ordinate and equal authority.

We came through that quadrennium with many problems, but exceedingly successful in what was achieved, and in 1944 a new departure was enterprised.

There was created the office not before existent of Executive Secretary of the Division of Home Missions and Church Extension with three co-ordinate Executive Secretaries, one of Home Missions and two of Church Extension, one in Philadelphia, Pa., and one in Louisville, Ky., serving under him.

To that office was called the Reverend Dr. Earl R. Brown from the old mother church of Cleveland Methodism, to which he had but recently gone after a successful term upon the Cleveland District.

During these succeeding three quadrennia there has been fashioned that which was envisioned when unification was effected, that the Board of Missions as a unit should be located in New York and operate as such.

It has required time and tact and patience. I cannot say too much by way of appreciation of all who have co-operated to make it possible at this moment for me to say to you that the Section of Church Extension is in Philadelphia with a subordinate department in Louisville, with one Secretary of the Section of Church Extension and one Secretary likewise operating in the Department of Home Missions.

The idea has been given flesh and blood and character by the man who occupied that newly created office, Earl R. Brown.

Through these years he not only by his spirit, his administrative genius, has wrought this transformation in the Division of National Missions, but he has occupied prominent places in the Councils of the Federal Council and of the National Council.

He has carried the message of Home Missions and Church Extension across this continent and administered it from the grass roots in most effective fashion.

He now comes to the period when within the year he will be retiring.

I can stand here and say these things out of my heart and not because of any prepared statement because I have had the privilege of being the President of that Division since unification.

I think I can without presumption say that which we have seen and heard, we are now declaring unto you, and likewise as I, with your permission, present Dr. Earl R. Brown to you this morning, feel that you wish to join with us in the Division and the Board in saying, done now are your faithful services, enter thou into the joys of retirement whatever they may be."

The General Conference stood in applause.

Reply—Earl R. Brown

Earl R. Brown (North-East Ohio—NC) replied as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman, Bishop Smith, and Members of The Conference: One is well nigh overwhelmed by a statement like that.

I was reminded to say, "Those of us who are about to die now salute you," but I don't expect to die now or hereafter.

I have been a Methodist preacher for 48 years. This is the eighth General Conference I have attended as a Delegate, and I have been very conscious all those years of the value of your time.

I have used very little of it on the floor. I discovered early I could get what I wanted done in the Committees or in the corridors much more efficiently than by debate. It is a mingled emotion that one finds at a moment like this, and I am not going to hold you only just a second.

Whatever honors that may have come to us have been undeserved, the many recognitions we did not earn, for we only desired 'to live in a house by the side of the road and be a friend to man.'

But there is along with the Board and with Bishop Smith and the other Bishops who have been such assistance to me one to whom I do pay a tribute this morning.

Forty-six years ago I persuaded a very lovely girl to marry me, You can't understand I know, but I did. I was receiving $300 a year at that time in the little Mission church, and I think I had the best of the bargain. I was getting more than she did.

I sometimes wonder if she didn't question whether we would have enough to eat or not. I think evidence could be submitted to prove that her fears were ungrounded. But during these years a certain lady has made our home a place where the sad and the broken-hearted have come for comfort; where young people have come for counsel.

I want to pay tribute this morning to a lady who is in the back balcony. She is that good-looking lady back there with the nice gray hair.

Both of us express from the bottom of our hearts our thanks for the opportunity that The Methodist Church has given to us to serve. And we expect to go on serving as long as God gives us the physical strength.

May the Lord bless you and keep you. May His face shine upon you always.

Thank you."

Second—Greetings to Generalissimo and Madam Chiang Kai-shek

On motion of Alexander K. Smith (Philadelphia—NE), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee on Courtesies and Privileges, duly seconded, the Secretary of The General Conference of The Methodist Church, now in session in Minneapolis, Minnesota, was directed to send the Fraternal Greetings of The General Conference of The Methodist Church to Generalissimo and Madam Chiang Kai-shek, Taipei, Formosa.

No. 9—Credentials—Elmer E. Mathews (*)

Elmer E. Mathews (*) (New Jersey—NE), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee on Credentials, presented Report No. 9 of the Committee, and on his motion, duly seconded, it was adopted without reading. For Report see Appendix, page 1210.

No. 19—Chairmen—A. Wesley Pugh—Adopted

A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee of Chairmen, presented Report No. 19 of the Committee, with the following statement:—

"Mr. Chairman, your Committee of Chairmen feel that we are making reasonably good progress, but as you can see, we have a long, long way to go as yet in the Legislative Calendar. We have a couple of Orders of the Day for this morning, and we must make real progress if we are not going to be here until very late on Monday.

The Committee wants me to urge you to use all the speed you can in your giving rightful and due consideration to all of these important matters.

In view of that, I should like to offer this motion. The motion is this: 'Whenever an amendment is offered to a Report of a Committee, consideration thereof shall be confined to the speech of the Delegate presenting such amendment, and a statement limited to three minutes by the Chairman presenting the Report, provided, however, that a majority vote of The General Conference shall be sufficient at any time to suspend the application of this Rule.'

You can see the purpose of this, Members of The Conference. Sometimes we would have been able to have saved a good many minutes if we had had this kind of Rule in effect. But it still leaves with The Conference the judgment as to whether an amendment is of sufficient importance that the debate ought to go on. However, it would allow a statement of three minutes from a person presenting an amendment, and a statement on the part of the Committee by the Chairman not to exceed the same length of time.

I should like to move this as a motion to guide us throughout the remainder of the session."

On the motion of A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC), Chairman of the Administrative Committee of Chairmen, duly seconded, the following was adopted as a method of procedure by The General Conference of The Methodist Church (DB-114) :—

"Whenever an amendment is offered to a Report of a Committee, consideration thereof shall be confined to the speech of the Delegate presenting such amendment, and a statement limited to three minutes by the Chairman presenting the Report, provided, however, that a majority vote of The General Conference shall be sufficient at any time to suspend the application of this Rule."

No. 2—Entertainment and Program—J. Wesley Hole (*)

J. Wesley Hole (*) (Southern California-Arizona—W), Chairman of The General Conference Commission on Entertainment and Program, presented Report No. 2 of the Commission, DCA No. 9, page 433, columns 1 and 2, explaining the same, and, on his motion, duly seconded, the Report was adopted. For Report see Appendix, page 1223.

Calendar—Edward P. O'Rear

Under the direction of Edward P. O'Rear (Southern California-Arizona—W), Assistant Secretary of the Calendar, consideration of and action on the Reports of Standing Legislative Committees that had been placed on the Calendar was resumed.

No. 1—Pension—"Pension Legislation—Resumed—Lester A. Kilpatrick—Harold C. Buckingham

Consideration of and action on Report No. 1 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Pensions, Calendar No. 41, DCA No. 6, page 239, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 240, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 241, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 242, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 243, columns 1, 2 and 3; and page 244, column 1, Subject, "Pension Legislation," was resumed, the aforesaid Report No. 1 having been submitted to the General Conference for its consideration and action on at last night's session, Friday, May 4, 1956.

Lester A. Kilpatrick (Michigan—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Pensions, made the following statement:—

DCA, Page 242. Mr. Chairman, Members of the Conference: You were very kind and merciful to the Committee on Pensions last night, and we are very appreciative of the interest that you took in this matter which is quite technical, but very near to our hearts.

The third section, Chapter 5 on page 242, DCA, will be presented by Dr. Harold C. Buckingham of the Wyoming Conference.

Chapters V and VI—Harold C. Buckingham

Harold C. Buckingham (Wyoming—NE) presented Chapter V, Subject, "Ministers Reserve Pension Fund," DCA No. 6, page 242, column 3 and page 243, columns 1, 2 and 3; and Chapter VI, Subject, "Lay Employees Pension Fund," DCA No. 6, page 243, column 3 and page 244, column 1, explaining all changes made.

Harold C. Buckingham (Wyoming—NE) requested common consent to insert the word, "ANNUALLY," in Paragraph 1648-2, after the word "granted," at the beginning of line four, so that the amended Paragraph 1648-2 will read:—

2. If the Service Annuity of a widow be less than $600, at the discretion of the General Board of Pensions, she may be granted ANNUALLY an additional amount from the Disability, Widows and Children's Fund; provided, however, that in such case the total of the Service Annuity and the grant shall not exceed $600 per annum. The Income Annuity payable under the provisions of § 1 of this Paragraph shall be paid in addition to said Service Annuity and said grant.

The General Conference ordered the proposed insertion, by unanimous common consent.

Harold C. Buckingham (Wyoming—NE) moved the adoption of Chapters V and VI just presented to The General Conference. The motion to thus adopt was duly seconded.

Amendment—Ralph Taylor Alton—Not Adopted

Ralph Taylor Alton (Wisconsin—NC) moved to amend Paragraph 1646, DCA No. 6, page 243, column 1, by deleting the word "directly," found in line twenty-three between the words, "remitted," and "to the." and substituting therefor the words (DB-115) "THROUGH THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE TREASURER," and also the same amendment in Paragraph 1656-4, found in the same place and line in said Paragraph 1656-4, so that Paragraph 1646 and Paragraph 1656-4, as amended, will read:—

¶ 1646. Contributions by Members. 1. An annual contribution, the equivalent of three per cent of the average salary of the Conference

(as defined in ¶ 1618 § 6 of the Pension Code), shall be paid directly to the Fund by each qualified member thereof in quarterly installments, payable in advance in accordance with the schedule of payment dates as determined by the General Board of Pensions; provided, however, that if his support (as defined in ¶ 1643 § 2) be less than the average salary of the Conference, a member may elect to contribute annually the equivalent of three per cent of such support, and provided, furthermore, that by vote of an Annual Conference, upon recommendation of the Committee on Reserve Pensions, the amounts of the annual contributions required of members of the Fund shall be withheld by the Treasurers of the pastoral charges or organizations concerned, and remitted THROUGH THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE TREASURER to the Fund in monthly or quarterly installments. Such contributions shall be applicable to income annuity credit only.

¶ 1656.

4. Contributions by Members. a) An annual contribution, the equivalent of three per cent of the average salary of the Conference (as defined in ¶ 1618 § 6 of the Pension Code), shall be paid directly to the Fund by each qualified member thereof in quarterly installments, payable in advance in accordance with the schedule of payment dates as determined by the General Board of Pensions; provided, however, that if his support (as defined in ¶ 1643 § 2) be less than the average salary of the Conference, a member may elect to contribute annually the equivalent of three per cent of such support; and provided, furthermore, that by vote of an Annual Conference, upon recommendation of the Committee on Reserve Pensions, the amounts of the annual contributions required of members of the Fund shall be withheld by the Treasurers of the pastoral charges or organizations concerned, and remitted THROUGH THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE TREASURER to the Fund in monthly or quarterly installments. Such contributions shall be applicable to income annuity credit only.

The motion to thus amend both Paragraphs was duly seconded.

Not Accepted by Committee—Harold C. Buckingham

Harold C. Buckingham (Wyoming—NE) said the Committee could not accept the proposed amendment of Ralph Taylor Alton (Wisconsin—NC).

Speaks to Amendment—Ralph Taylor Alton

Ralph Taylor Alton (Wisconsin—NC) spoke to his proposed amendment, as follows:—

“My reason for that is that yesterday we adopted on the previous page, 241, at the bottom of column 3, the statement that the amount apportioned to each pastoral charge for the support of the Conference Claimants and for the Ministers Reserve Pension fund shall be paid to the Conference Treasurer monthly or quarterly.

If the matter carries as is here presented it would mean that if the Annual Conference set up this withholding program the Local Church Treasurer would be required to send the portion that is apportioned to the churches to the Annual Conference Treasurer, and the part that is withheld from the ministers directly to the Fund. I think this would confuse the matter considerably.

I think I need make no further speech than the comment I have already made. It is to avoid confusion of the Local Church Treasurer, which I think would be quite advisable."

Against Amendment—Harold C. Buckingham

Harold C. Buckingham (Wyoming—NE) spoke against the proposed amendment of Ralph Taylor Alton (Wisconsin—NC) as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman and Members of The Conference: We are talking about two different things here. What the Conference Treasurer remits is Conference Claimants money. That which we are talking about here is the minister's own contribution. It is a personal matter. It ought not to be mixed up with the Conference funds. It is something on which he is going to get interest. It is simply a provision which makes it easier at the response of, for instance, one of our Conferences which has sent in a Memorial saying they would like to have help in order to get the ministers to contribute their share to the Pension Fund. It is to give them an opportunity to help if the Conference wishes to use it. It is an optional thing.

If The Conference votes to do this then the Local Church Treasurer would deduct at the source the minister's payment and remit it directly to the Board in Chicago. It is the same policy which has been adopted, was adopted the other day in connection with the new Reserve Pension Fund for our Bishops. The Bishops are to have 3 per cent of their salary deducted at the source and sent in directly to the World Service office. So it is with this. It would be deducted at the source by the church Treasurer and sent in directly to Chicago to the credit of the Pastor."

Amendment Ralph Taylor Alton—Not Adopted

The proposed amendment of Ralph Taylor Alton (Wisconsin—NC) on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.

Rights of a Widow—Referred—Glenn M. Frye—Accepted—Harold C. Buckingham

Glenn M. Frye (Michigan—NC) moved to refer to the Board of Pensions (DB-116) for study and report to the 1960 General Conference the question of the rights of a widow to a fairer share of her husband's annuity claim, than simply that afforded by her years of active service.

Harold C. Buckingham (Wyoming—NE) accepted the matter of reference for the Standing Legislative Committee on Pensions, there being no objection raised by any member of the Standing Legislative Committee on Pensions or by any member of The General Conference.

Question—Harold S. Swales—Answer—Harold C. Buckingham

Harold S. Swales (Central New York—NE) asked a question which was answered by Harold C. Buckingham (Wyoming—NE) as follows:—

“If the member fails to make a contribution is there any penalty other than his loss of the value of his contribution?”

Harold C. Buckingham: “No.”

Chapter V and Chapter VI—Subject, “Ministers Reserve Pension Fund,”—Harold C. Buckingham—Adopted As Amended

Chapter V, Subject, “Ministers Reserve Pension Fund,” DCA No. 6, page 242, column 3; page 243, columns 1, 2 and 3; and Chapter VI, Subject, “Lay Employees Pension Fund,” DCA No. 6, page 243, column 3 and page 244 column 1, were adopted as amended.

Chapter VIII—Subject, “Committee On Pension Legislation”—Lester A. Kilpatrick—Adopted

Chapter VIII, Subject, “Committee On Pension Legislation,” DCA No. 6, page 244, column 1 was adopted on motion of Lester A. Kilpatrick (Michigan—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Pensions, duly seconded.

No. 1—Pensions—Subject, “Pension Legislation”—Adopted As A Whole

Report No. 1 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Pensions, Subject, “Pension Legislation,” DCA No. 6, page 239, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 240, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 241, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 242, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 243, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 244, columns 1, 2 and 3; and page 244, column 1, was then adopted, as a whole, as amended. For Report see Appendix, page 1632.

Statement Re Calendar—Edward P. O’Rear

Edward P. O’Rear (Southern California-Arizona—W), Assistant Calendar Secretary made a statement to expedite the business of The General Conference as follows:—

“May I say for the Calendar Secretaries the work of the Committee is not completed until all of the Reports have been returned to the Secretary’s office. This must be done as early as possible today in order to be included in the Advocate for Monday. If we do not have them, we cannot complete the business.”

No. 1—Missions—Mrs. Frank G. Brooks (*)—Lynn J. Radcliffe—W. Vernon Middleton—Eugene L. Smith—Earl R. Brown

The Presiding Officer, Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, recognized Mrs. Frank G. Brooks (*) (North Iowa—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Missions, for the presentation of the Reports from the Committee.

Brooks (*) (North Iowa—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Missions, presented Report No. 5 of the Committee, Calendar No. 49, Subject, "Continuation Of Methodist Committee For Overseas Relief," DCA No. 7, page 289, column 3, and on her motion, duly seconded, the Report was adopted. For Report see Appendix, page 1594.

No. 6—Missions—"Constituting Annual Conference Commission On Town And Country Work"—Mrs. Frank G. Brooks (*)—Amended—Cleo C. Sessions—Accepted—Adopted

Mrs. Frank G. Brooks (*) (North Iowa—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Missions, presented Report No. 6 of the Committee, Calendar No. 50, Subject, "Constituting Annual Conference Commission On Town And Country Work," DCA No. 7, page 289, column 3, and page 290, column 1, and moved its adoption. The motion was duly seconded.

Amendment—Cleo C. Sessions—Accepted—Mrs. Frank G. Brooks (*)

Cleo C. Sessions (Central Texas—SC) moved to amend the Report by adding the words (DB-117) :—

"ALL GENERAL AND JURISDICTIONAL TOWN AND COUNTRY COMMISSION MEMBERS IN THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE SHALL BE EX-OFFICIO MEMBERS OF THE COMMISSION."

to follow the words, "members of the Commission," found in line nineteen of Paragraph 1231-1, DCA No. 7, page 290, column 1, so that the amended Paragraph 1231-1 will read as follows:—

123.1. Each Annual Conference having town and country churches shall set up, under the direction of the Bishop and his Cabinet, a Commission on Town and Country Work. The membership of the Commission shall be the Bishop in charge of the Conference; the District Superintendents; the Conference missionary Secretary; the Conference Secretary of Evangelism; the Executive Secretary of the Board of Education; the President of the Conference Woman's Society of Christian Service; a representative elected by each of the following Conference Agencies: the Board of Missions, the Board of Education, the Woman's Society of Christian Service, the Board of Lay Activities, the Board of Evangelism, the Conference Youth Fellowship, the Methodist Rural Fellowship; and one rural Layman and one rural Pastor from each District, nominated by the District Superintendents or the Nominating Committee of the Conference, and elected by the Annual Conference. The Commission may add to its membership, upon recommendation of its Executive Officers, and upon nomination by the District Superintendents, or the Nominating Committee of the Conference, and upon election by the Annual Conference, not to exceed five Members-at-Large who may be either Ministers or Laymen especially interested in rural work but not otherwise Members of the Commission. ALL GENERAL AND JURISDICTIONAL TOWN AND COUNTRY COMMISSION MEMBERS IN THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE SHALL BE EX OFFICIO MEMBERS OF THE COMMISSION. All special workers in the Annual Conference employed by The Methodist Church in rural communities shall be ex officio members of the Commission, but without vote.

Amendment Accepted—Mrs. Frank G. Brooks ()—W. Vernon Middleton*

Mrs. Frank G. Brooks (*) (North Iowa—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Missions, accepted the proposed amendment of Cleo C. Session (Central Texas—SC). with the approval of W. Vernon Middleton (Philadelphia—NE), General Secretary of the Section of Church Extension, Philadelphia office, of the Division of National Missions, of the General Board of Missions of The Methodist Church, there being no objection raised by any member of the Standing Legislative Committee on Missions, or of any member of The General Conference of The Methodist Church.

The Report, as amended by acceptance, was adopted. For Report see Appendix, page 1594

No. 7—Missions—"Inter-Board Committee For Ministry To Neglected Areas And Unchurched Peoples"—Mrs. Frank G. Brooks (*)—Earl R. Brown—Adopted

Mrs. Frank G. Brooks (*) (North Iowa—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Missions, presented Report No. 7 of the Committee, Calendar No. 51, Subject, "Inter-Board Committee For Ministry To Neglected Areas And Unchurched Peoples," DCA No. 7, page 290, columns 1 and 2, and moved its adoption. The motion was duly seconded.

At the request of Mrs. Frank G. Brooks (North Iowa—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Missions, and with the permission of The General Conference, Earl R. Brown (North-East Ohio—NC), General Secretary of the Division of National Missions of the General Board of The Methodist Church, made a brief statement, as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman and Members of The Conference: Early in this quadrennium, in response to some of the recommendations in the Survey Report, I took the initiative in calling representatives of several of these Boards mentioned in this Report together and we spent two days in Cincinnati discussing our common responsibility and the points wherein we seemed to overlap. This Report comes, I think, in a very fine time to help us go on with those kinds of studies.

The five Boards that are represented here are in some sense all working in the same field. They all have a responsibility in these neglected Areas. If we can have an instrument of this kind through which a Program can be set up and responsibilities assigned, all of us are confident we can do a better collective job and correlate the Programs for which we are responsible.

That is all I wish to say."

Report No. 7 was adopted. For Report see Appendix, page 1595.

No. 8—Missions—"Episcopal Representation On The Divisions Of Board Of Missions"—Mrs. Frank G. Brooks (*)
—Ruling—Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam—Action Deferred
—Embree H. Blackard

Mrs. Frank G. Brooks (*) (North Iowa—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Missions, presented Report No. 8 of the Committee, Calendar No. 52, Subject, "Episcopal Representation On Division Of The Board Of Missions," DCA No. 7, page 290, column 2, stating that this Report is concurrent with a Report which will be presented later during the day from the Commission on The Structure Of Methodism Overseas, and moved the adoption of the pending Report. The motion was duly seconded.

Statement—Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam

Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, the Presiding Officer, made the following statement:—

"It is a little unusual to concur with a Report that has not yet been adopted; but I take it if the body wishes to, it can act upon this."

Statement—Mrs. Frank G. Brooks ()*

Mrs. Frank G. Brooks (*) (North Iowa—C), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Missions, made the following statement:—

“Mr. Chairman, it has had discussion with them.”

Motion to Defer Action—Embree H. Blackard—Adopted

Embree H. Blackard (Western North Carolina—SE) moved to defer action upon Report No. 8 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Missions until the Report from the Commission on the Structure of Methodism Overseas was presented. The motion, duly seconded, prevailed, and Report No. 8 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Missions was withdrawn from consideration of The General Conference until that time.

No. 9—Missions—“Continuation Of Emphasis On Church Extension”—Mrs. Frank G. Brooks (*)—Adopted

Mrs. Frank G. Brooks (*) (North Iowa—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Missions, presented Report No. 9 of the Committee, Calendar No. 53, Subject, “Continuation Of Emphasis On Church Extension,” DCA No. 7, page 290, columns 2 and 3, and on her motion, duly seconded, the Report was adopted. For Report see Appendix, page 1597.

No. 10—Missions—“Board Of Missions Proposed Legislative Changes”—Mrs. Frank G. Brooks (*)—Adopted

Mrs. Frank G. Brooks (*) (North Iowa—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Missions, presented Report No. 10 of the Committee, Calendar No. 101, Subject, “Board Of Missions Proposed Legislative Changes,” DCA No. 9, page 401, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 402, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 403, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 404, columns 1, 2, and 3; page 405, columns 1, 2 and 3; and page 406, columns 1 and 2, explaining succinctly the changes proposed, and moved the adoption of the Report. The motion was duly seconded.

Paragraphs 1202 and 1204—Eugene L. Smith

In the consideration of and action on Paragraphs 1202 and 1204, DCA No. 9, page 401, column 3 and page 402, column 1, Mrs. Frank G. Brooks (*) (North Iowa—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Missions, asked the privilege of having Eugene L. Smith (Newark—NE), General Secretary of the Division of World Missions of the General Board of Missions of The Methodist Church, speak briefly to the same.

The General Conference granted the request by unanimous common consent, and Eugene L. Smith (Newark—NE) spoke as follows:—

“In 1202 the change is much more than editorial. One of the great advantages of Methodism in its work in the Central Conferences is the Field Committee which acts as a liaison between the Board of Missions and the work within the Annual Conferences of the Central Conferences. This is a change growing out of requests from the field, a change which was worked out in its final form in the Inter-field Consultation where Lay Leadership from all the Mission fields were present.

It provides the National Members shall be elected by the Annual Conferences. This is the final election. The Missionary Members elected by the Missionary Committee and their election ratified by the Board of Missions. This comes to you with strong support from all the fields.”

Paragraph 1215—W. Vernon Middleton

When Paragraph 1215 DCA No. 9, page 402, columns 1 and 2, was presented, W. Vernon Middleton (Philadelphia—NE), a Delegate and the General Secretary of the Philadelphia office, Section of Church Extension of the Division of National Missions of the General Board of Missions of The Methodist Church, at the request of Mrs. Frank G. Brooks (*) (North Iowa—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Missions, explained the changes in Paragraph 1215 as follows:—

“Mr. Chairman, if I may be permitted, I think that there is something other than editorial change in Paragraph 1215 which is stated at the bottom of page 402, and I can state it in one or two words. Please note that the Division has dropped all designations of racial groups, and we are attempting to do our administration without reference to any racial group.

There is nothing in the section to which Mrs. Brooks referred that needs comment, but we are prepared to answer questions.”

Time Extended—A. Wesley Pugh—Adopted

Report No. 10 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Missions being a lengthy Report, and the time allocated to each Chairman for the presentation of Reports nearing the limit, motion of A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC), duly seconded, prevailed extending the time of Mrs. Frank G. Brooks (*) (North Iowa—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Missions, five minutes for the completion of the presentation of Report No. 10 of the Committee.

Explanations—W. Vernon Middleton

At the request of Mrs. Frank G. Brooks (*) (North Iowa —NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Missions, W. Vernon Middleton (Philadelphia—NE), a Delegate and the General Secretary of the Philadelphia office, Section of Church Extension of the Division of National Missions of the General Board of Missions of The Methodist Church, explained the changes in the following Paragraphs:—

“Thank you, Bishop Oxnam and Members of The Conference: Par. 1296 points out and provides that the Chairman of an Annual Conference Commission on Town and Country Work may be a member of the Annual Conference Board of Missions.

Paragraph 1296 (DCA No. 9, page 405, column 2) adds two new Paragraphs, 4 and 5, to Paragraph 1296:

Paragraph No. 4 to be added: ‘The Board may appoint a Committee on Research and Survey which may conduct surveys and make research studies within the bounds of the Annual Conference, and shall co-operate with the Department of Research and Survey of the Division of National Missions.’

Paragraph No. 5 to be added: ‘The Conference Board of Missions shall operate in consultation with the Cabinet a Committee on Urban Work.’

Paragraph 1229 (DCA No. 9, page 405, column 2) places responsibility for the Quadrennial Church Extension Survey rightly on the Board of Missions.

Paragraph 1320 (DCA No. 9, page 405, column 2) gives the Board of Missions membership on the Inter-Board Commission on the Local Church.

Paragraph 1412 (DCA No. 9, page 405, column 2) changes the name of the Joint Committee on Religious Education to the Joint Committee on Christian Education, and this term is also found, and we wish it changed, in Paragraph 1283 of the present Discipline.

Paragraph 1417 (DCA No. 9, page 405, column 3) provides that the Joint Committee on Stewardship and the Board of Education and the Board of Lay Activities and the Board of Missions be deleted because this work is already provided for in a Joint Committee of the Board of Education, The Board of Lay Activities and the Commission on Promotion and Cultivation.

If there are questions, I shall be glad to attempt to answer them.”

Request to Speak—Jesse A. Engle—Ruling—Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam

Jesse A. Engle (Virginia—SE) requested to speak at this time.

Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, the Presiding Officer, replied,

“Not now, please.”

Motion to Adopt—Mrs. Frank G. Brooks ()*

Mrs. Frank G. Brooks (*) (North Iowa—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Missions, moved the adoption of Report No. 10 of the Committee. The motion was duly seconded.

Question—George A. Butters—Answer—Mrs. Frank G. Brooks ()—Statement—Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam*

George A. Butters (Minnesota—NC) asked a question which was answered by Mrs. Frank G. Brooks (*) (North Iowa—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Missions, as follows:—

“On page 401 in the middle of the second column, “Shall be limited to twelve consecutive years.” Is that word “consecutive” a joker? Does that mean that you could drop off one year and go on for twelve more? That is my question. Is it limited to twelve years?”

Mrs. Frank G. Brooks: I would think no such thing would be thought of, necessarily. This is a concurrent Report with the Report 2 of the Co-ordinating Council. Perhaps Dr. McPheeters would like to speak to it, if there is discussion.”

Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, the Presiding Officer, made the following statement:—

“The answer is, that the fear that was expressed is not involved.”

Amendment—D. Trigg James, Sr.—Not Adopted

D. Trigg James, Sr. (Holston—SE), moved to amend Paragraph 1172-5, DCA No. 9, page 401, column 3, by deleting the word, “twenty-three,” in line four, and substituting therefor the word “TWENTY-ONE,” so that Paragraph 1172-5, as amended will read:—

Par. 1172.5. Six youth members of the Board, representing all Jurisdictions and divided between Youth and Student groups, TWENTY-ONE years of age or under at the time of their election, nominated by the National Conference of Methodist Youth and elected by the Board. In making the nominations to the Board, the National Conference of Methodist Youth, in consultation with the appropriate Staff of the Board, shall consider suggestions of nominations made by Annual Conference Methodist Youth Fellowships, and State or similar units of the Methodist Student Movement. Vacancies shall be filled by the Board upon nomination by the National Conference of Methodist Youth. The Chairman of the Program Area of Christian Outreach of the National Methodist Youth Fellowship Commission and the World Christian Community Chairman of the National Methodist Student Commission shall be Members of the Board.

The motion to thus amend, being duly seconded, D. Trigg James, Sr. (Holston—SE), spoke to the same, as follows:—

“This is in the interest of correlation. In the present Discipline the members on the General Board of Education, the age limit is twenty-one. On page 332, in Chapter 7, the Board of Education in Paragraph 1326 near the bottom gives it. The reason for this is this:

near the bottom gives it. The reason for this is this:

If a youth is nominated to a General Board or Agency in the twenty-third year, which this permits, they would have to drop off at the end of one year. In the interest of correlation and other Reports that carry twenty-one, if they are nominated in their twenty-first year, they would be able to serve out the quadrennium, which seems desirable and would avoid the necessity of replacing members at frequent intervals.

I should hope they would accept this."

Proposed Amendment Not Accepted—Mrs. Frank G. Brooks ()*

Mrs. Frank G. Brooks (*) (North Iowa—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Missions, stated that the Committee could not accept the proposed amendment of D. Trigg James, Sr. (Holston—SE), and made the following statement:—

"Because this came in this specific way from the National Conference of Methodist Youth."

Amendment—D. Trigg James, Sr.—Not Adopted

The proposed amendment of D. Trigg James, Sr. (Holston—SE), on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.

Amendment—Subarna B. Tewarson ()—Not Adopted*

Subarna B. Tewarson (*) (North India—OS), moved to amend (DB-118) Paragraph 1202, Article 3, DCA No. 9, page 401, column 3 and page 402, column 1, by inserting the words, "AND THE CONFERENCE TREASURER," to follow the words, "District Superintendents," in lines three and four at the top of column 1 of page 402, so that Paragraph 1202. Article 3 will read as follows:—

Par. 1202, Art. 3. Foreign Field Committees and Estimates. In a Foreign Mission Field of the Board each Annual Conference and each Provisional Annual Conference shall have a Field Committee made up of the presiding Bishop and wherever possible an equal number of National and Missionary Members. The National Membership (which should wherever possible be an equal number of men and women) shall be elected by the Annual Conference. The Missionary Membership (which should wherever possible be an equal number of men and women) shall be nominated by the Missionaries within the bounds of the Conference and approved by the Division of World Missions and the Woman's Division of Christian Service. Upon authorization by the Central Conference, the Annual Conference may add the District Superintendents AND THE CONFERENCE TREASURER as Members ex officio without vote. The duties of the Field Committee shall be:

1. To elect its Chairman and Secretary; to forward its minutes promptly to the respective Divisions of the Board, and the Report of its recommendations to the Divisions for approval.

2. To study and co-ordinate the work of the Division of World Missions and the Woman's Division of Christian Service.

3. To consult with the Board of Missions through the respective Divisions on all matters of mutual concern.

4. To receive and transmit to the Board Reports from all the Institutions and Agencies of the Church which receive aid from the Board of Missions.

5. To prepare estimates of funds requested from the Board for aid to work in the Annual Conference or Provisional Annual Conference and for aid to Institutions and other projects; except the financial requirement for missionary support, which is the direct responsibility of the Board.

Par. 1204. In line 1, add following the word "In" Central Conferences or, so that Par. 1204 as amended shall read:

Par. 1204. In Central Conferences or Provisional Central Conferences where there is no Executive Board or Council of Co-operation, the estimates shall be sent directly to the Division of World Missions and to the Woman's Division of Christian Service from the Field Committee of each Annual Conference and Provisional Annual Conference.

The motion to thus amend, being duly seconded, Subarna B. Tewarson (*) (North India—OS) spoke to the same, as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman, sometimes it happens that the Conference Treasurer is not elected as a member of the Field Committee. The Conference Treasurer has to report so many things to the Field Committee, and his presence is necessary in the Field Committee.

I therefore suggest that his name should be added there."

Question—Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam—Reply—Mrs. Frank G. Brooks ()*

Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, the Presiding Officer, inquired if the Committee would accept the proposed amendment of Subarna B. Tewarson (*) (North India—OS).

Mrs. Frank G. Brooks (*) (North Iowa—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Missions, replied, as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman, I personally would see no objection. I am not an authority on that; perhaps Dr. Smith would reply, since it was considered by that group."

Statement—Eugene L. Smith

Eugene L. Smith (Newark—NE), General Secretary of the Division of World Missions of the General Board of Missions of The Methodist Church spoke, as follows:—

"This is a rather difficult response to have to make at this time. The request, as far as I know, has never been made by the Field Committees of the Annual Conferences themselves. The request did not come up in long discussion of this matter at the Inter-Field consultation.

In lieu of that, I can only personally express a bit of reluctance in putting in a matter now on which we have never received any official request from the field. I speak only out of a concern to do what the field has wanted. This is the first time, as far as I know, that we have ever had this kind of request from the field.

I believe it would be wiser to wait and see if the field wanted it, and it can be done four years from now."

Amendment—Subarna B. Tewarson—Not Adopted

The proposed amendment of Subarna B. Tewarson (*) (North India—OS), on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.

No. 10 Missions Adopted

Report No. 10 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Missions, Calendar No. 101, Subject, "Board of Missions Proposed Legislative Changes," DCA No. 9, page 401, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 402, columns 1, 2, and 3; page 403, columns 1, 2, and 3; page 404, columns 1, 2, and 3; page 405, columns 1, 2, and 3; and page 406, columns 1 and 2 was adopted as amended. For Report see Appendix, page 1597.

No. 1 Publishing Interests—"An Official Depository Of Methodist Historical Records"—J. Otis Young—Adopted —J. Clinton Hawkins ()—Wiley C. Newman—Robert D. Blue ()—Oscar Thomas Olson—C. Anderson Davis—George E. Clary, Sr.—Marshall T. Steele—F. Murray Benson ()—Warren P. Clark ()

The Standing Legislative Committee on Publishing Interests, being next on the Calendar, J. Otis Young (Ohio—NC), Chairman of the Committee, requested the following to come to the platform to assist in the presentation of the Reports of the Committee:—J. Clinton Hawkins () (Saint Louis—SC); Wiley C. Newman (Memphis—SE); Robert D. Blue () (North Iowa—NC); Oscar Thomas Olson (North-East Ohio—NC); C. Anderson Davis (East Tennessee—C); George E. Clary, Sr. (South Georgia—SE); Marshall T. Steele (North Texas—SC); F. Murray Benson () (Baltimore—NE); Warren P. Clark () (Rock River—NC) Circulation Manager of The Christian Advocate.

J. Otis Young (Ohio—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Publishing Interests, presented Report No. 1 of the Committee, Calendar No. 30, Subject, "An Official Depository Of Methodist Historical Records," DCA No. 5, page 197, column 3, and, on his motion, duly seconded, the Report was adopted. For Report see Appendix, page 1656.

No. 2 Publishing Interests—"Publication Of A History Of American Methodism"—Adopted

J. Otis Young (Ohio—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Publishing Interests, presented Report No. 2 of the Committee, Calendar No. 31, Subject, "Publication Of A History Of American Methodism," DCA No. 5, page 197, column 3 and page 198, column 1, and, on his motion, duly seconded, the Report was adopted. For Report see Appendix, page 1657.

No. 3 Publishing Interests—"New Church Papers Program Endorsement"—J. Otis Young—Amended—Adopted

J. Otis Young (Ohio—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Publishing Interests, presented Report No. 3 of the Committee, Calendar No. 32, Subject, "New Church Papers Program Endorsement," DCA No. 5, page 198, column 1, and moved its adoption. The motion was duly seconded.

Statement—Loyd F. Worley

Loyd F. Worley (New York East—NE) was recognized by the Presiding Officer, Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, and made the following statement pertaining to the pending Report:—

"I do not rise to oppose the Report, the principle of which has already been accepted by The General Conference. But I do wish to point out in the last paragraph the apparent necessity of pressure, which will be put upon every church to make this Bold New Venture successful, and to respectfully suggest that if the same type of pressure had been exerted during the past quadrennium, we would not have lost The Christian Advocate."

Amendment—Chester A. Smith () J. Otis Young—Not Adopted*

Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) moved to amend Report 3 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Publishing Interests by deleting the last paragraph, which reads as follows:—

That we urgently recommend to the various Jurisdictions, Conferences, Districts, and local churches that every effort be made to the end that these periodicals be made available to those for whom they are intended through having the subscription costs carried in the regular Local Church Budgets.

The motion to thus amend, being duly seconded, Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) spoke to the same, as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman and Members of The General Conference: I think it would be very unfortunate to have the subscription costs of The Advocate or the magazine Together taken from the regular Church Budgets. I think this matter should be left to the individual members of the church; if they wish to subscribe to these magazines, and pay for the subscriptions themselves, that is their privilege. However, the church should not be forced to take from the local Church Budgets money to pay for subscriptions to either one of these publications."

Ruling—Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam

Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, the Presiding Officer, made the following ruling:—

"This is a motion to amend by deleting. Unless you change the Rule there is to be one speech given by the proposer and a reply from the Chairman of the Committee. The Chairman of the Committee may now respond."

Closes Debate—J. Otis Young

J. Otis Young (Ohio—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Publishing Interests, closed the debate, as follows:—

"It is our feeling that what we have suggested in this last paragraph is not much different from what we have proposed in the years past to promote the sale of The Christian Advocate. First of all, there is nothing mandatory about it. In the final analysis each local church will do as it wishes when it comes to this matter of selling and promoting these two papers.

However, it is our feeling that if this which you have voted is going to succeed, we should like for you to try it under this particular plan."

Question—Paul V. Galloway—J. Otis Young—Warren P. Clark (*)

Paul V. Galloway (Oklahoma—SC) asked a question which was answered by Otis J. Young (Ohio—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Publishing Interests and Warren P. Clark (*) (Rock River—NC) Publication Manager of The Christian Advocate, as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman, I wanted to ask if the Commission that was in charge of studying these magazines has been given the right in case they go in debt terribly—which I am afraid of—to change the style and either drop it or change the type of publication in the next four years, or will they be required to continue publishing, with tremendous costs? Do you know, Mr. Chairman?"

J. Otis Young (Ohio—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee, requested Warren P. Clark (*) (Rock River—NC), Circulation Manager of The Christian Advocate to reply.

Warren P. Clark (*) (Rock River—NC), Circulation

Manager of The Christian Advocate, made the following statement:—

“Mr. Chairman and Members of The Conference: The authority to publish these publications is left with the Board of Publication. Should this project not meet with the enthusiasm that we all know it will I am certain that they would be able to take care of it.”

Motion to Delete—Chester A. Smith ()—Not Adopted*

The motion of Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) to delete the last paragraph of the Report, on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.

Amendment—William W. Reid ()—Accepted—J. Otis Young*

William W. Reid (*) (New York East—NE) moved to amend Report No. 3 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Publishing Interests, by adding the following statements (DB-119) from The Methodist Press Association:—

That we ask the Publishing House in printing this to consider these items:—

That there is inadequate news coverage, we feel, both because of the small space allocated to news and because the monthly publication cannot present news while it is still timely;

The lack of editorial opinion as indicated in the sample copies; and inadequate discussion of issues which will be before the Church in the next few years.

I move that this be added to it as instruction for help to the Committee in planning the paper.

J. Otis Young (Ohio—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Publishing Interests, accepted the proposed amendment of William W. Reid (*) (New York East—NE) for the Committee, there being no objection raised by any member of the Standing Legislative Committee on Publishing Interests, or by any member of The General Conference.

The Report was then adopted, as amended. For Report see Appendix, page 1657.

No. 4 Publishing Interests—“Record And Report Forms, And Statistical Blanks”—J. Otis Young—Adopted

J. Otis Young (Ohio—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Publishing Interests, presented Report No. 4 of the Committee, Calendar No. 36, Subject, “Record And Report Forms, And Statistical Blanks,” DCA No. 6, page 237, column 2, and on his motion, duly seconded, the Report was adopted. For Report see Appendix, page 1658.

No. 5 Publishing Interests—"Revision Of Discipline, Part VII, Chapter IV, Dealing With The Methodist Publishing House"—J. Otis Young—Amended—Adopted

J. Otis Young (Ohio—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Publishing Interests, presented Report No. 5 of the Committee, Calendar No. 74, Subject, "Revision Of Discipline, Part VII, Chapter IV, Dealing With The Methodist Publishing House," DCA No. 8, page 369, column 3; page 370, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 371, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 372, columns 1, 2 and 3 and moved its adoption. The motion to adopt was duly seconded.

Question—Lester W. Auman—Ruling—Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam—Answer—Otis J. Young

Lester W. Auman (New York East—NE) asked a question relative to the Report, which was answered by J. Otis Young (Ohio—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Publishing Interests, after a ruling by the Presiding Officer, Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman and Members of The General Conference: I do not wish to make a motion but I wish to make a brief statement relative to the Report, and then to direct a question to the Chairman presenting the Report.

Bishop Oxnam: Will you proceed?

Lester W. Auman: In my judgment the office of the Publishing Agent, now to be called Publisher, is one of the most powerful offices in the structure of The Methodist Church. There are those who would go still further and say that it is the most powerful office of the Church.

I question the wisdom of putting all of this power and authority in the hands of one individual, whoever the individual may be or however capable he may be. One of the great dangers confronting The Methodist Church is, I believe, the centralization of power, putting too much power in the hands of too few individuals.

Ever since unification we have had two Publishing Agents and both apparently have had enough to do. Now we propose to put all of this power and authority in the hands of one Publisher.

That is my statement, and this is my question: If for seventeen years we have needed two Publishing Agents, why now do we discover that we have need for only one?"

Ruling—Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam

Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, the Presiding Officer, ruled as follows:—

"The Report is now under discussion. If anyone wishes to speak in favor of the Report he may. This question is in the nature of open discussion, I take it. Is there anyone wishing to speak in favor before the Chairman speaks?"

The Chairman will speak."

Answers Question—J. Otis Young

J. Otis Young (Ohio—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Publishing Interests, answered the question of Lester W. Auman (New York East—NE) as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman, the recommendation of this Report is based primarily upon the Survey Commission that worked for a period of four years and reported to the 1952 General Conference. One of their recommendations was that we look with favor upon one head, one person heading up the Publishing Interests of our Church.

We feel that the following reasons can be given for establishing authority or vesting it in one person: First of all, it will keep down delay. Two Publishing Agents vested with the same power spend a great deal of time bowing to each other, trying to keep out of each other's way. Second, it will keep down indecision. It will make for decisions that can be made on the spot. In the third place, it will bring about greater harmony in the staff. Finally, it is difficult to do a job well with such divided, or what we would choose to call multiple responsibility."

Statement—Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam

The Presiding Officer, Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, made the following statement:—

"While the brother who desires to speak is coming to the microphone, so that the House may recall its action, you voted to remain in session today until 12:00 o'clock, at which time you would take Recess for 20 minutes, and return for the afternoon session. No Recess will be called at 10:30. Some may have forgotten that action."

Amendment—John R. Van Sickle () Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam—Otis J. Young—Chester A. McPheeters—Accepted*

John R. Van Sickle (*) (Rock River—NC) moved to amend Paragraph 1129 of Report No. 5 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Publishing Interests, DCA page 370, column 3, by deleting the figure, "forty-seven," in line two, and substituting therefor the figure "forty-five," because that is the present Membership of the Board of Publication, and in line with our previous action that we should maintain the same Membership as the other Boards have done, so that Paragraph 1129 will read, as amended:—

Par. 1129. The Board of Publication shall consist of forty-five Members, including two Bishops selected by The Council of Bishops. The remaining members shall be elected by the Jurisdictional Conferences on a ratio which will provide for an equitable distribution among the various Jurisdictions, based on the memberships thereof, provided that no Jurisdiction shall be represented by fewer than two members. Membership on the Board shall be equally divided, as far as practicable, between Ministers and Laymen. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the General Conference to inform the various Jurisdictional Secretaries of the number of Members to be elected from their Jurisdictions, the ratio of such representation being computed on the basis of the latest Official Membership Statistics available. The tenure of office of any member of the Board of Publication shall be limited to twelve years. In the first election, as nearly as may be, one-third of the members from each Jurisdiction shall be elected for only four years, one-third for eight years, and one-third for twelve years, the Jurisdictional Conference determining the tenure of office of each member elected. In case a vacancy occurs between sessions of the Jurisdictional Conference for any cause, the Board shall fill the vacancy, for the un-expired term, from that Jurisdiction in the representation of which the vacancy occurs. The President of the Board of Publication, Incorporated, shall be an ex officio Member of the Board, without vote.

Question—Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam—Answer—J. Otis Young—John R. Van Sickle ()*

Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, the Presiding Officer, raised a question which was answered by J. Otis Young (Ohio—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Publishing Interests, as follows:—

Bishop Oxnam: The motion is seconded, and it is to amend the Report to read forty-five instead of forty-seven. Will the Chairman answer? Is it an Incorporated body?

J. Otis Young: Yes, it is, sir. I might give an answer why it is put at forty-seven instead of forty-five if the Conference wishes that answer.

Bishop Oxnam: Brother Van Sickle, you have made an amendment. You may speak to it if you have anything further to say.

John R. Van Sickle: No, sir.

Bishop Oxnam: The Chairman may now answer. He has three minutes.

Speaks to Amendment—J. Otis Young

J. Otis Young (Ohio—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Publishing Interests, spoke to the pending matter, as follows:—

“Mr. Chairman, up until 1952 there were no Bishops on the Board of Publication. On recommendation of the Survey Committee two Bishops were to be placed on the Board of Publication.

When the Discipline was written in 1952 it said the membership on the Board should consist of 45 members; two of them shall be Bishops of the Church; and that the Jurisdiction from which these Bishops came would be charged against for ministerial representation.

There are two reasons why we have requested you to seriously consider lifting this from 45 to 47. First, in placing the membership in classes of four, eight, twelve, 45 is divisible. Then greater than that, we had on our Board last year two Bishops. One of those Bishops came from a Jurisdiction whose membership is not as great as some other Jurisdictions. Because of that the Jurisdiction was deprived of having more than one representative from the entire Jurisdiction except the Bishop that represented that particular Jurisdiction.”

Statement—Chester A. McPheeters

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) made the following statement:—

“Mr. Chairman, I am calling your attention to the fact that we have already gone on record adopting the recommendation that the number of members on General Boards and Agencies remain the same for another quadrennium, as of 1952. That has already been adopted in the Co-ordinating Council Report. So I could not quite understand why any Agency should come in and ask for an increase, after we have already established this.”

Amendment Accepted—J. Otis Young

J. Otis Young (Ohio—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Publishing Interests, accepted the proposed amendment of John R. Van Sickle (*) (Rock River—NC) for the Committee, there being no objection raised by any member of the Standing Legislative Committee on Publishing Interests, or by any member of The General Conference.

Information Requested—Allen B. Rice—Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam—Answer—J. Otis Young—Warren P. Clark ()*

Allen B. Rice (Northwest Indiana—NC) asked a question which was answered by J. Otis Young (Ohio—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Publishing Interests and Warren P. Clark (*), (Rock River—NC), Circulation Manager of The Christian Advocate, as follows:—

“I simply wanted to ask a question. That is, I would like to know the salary of the Publishing Agent.

Bishop Oxnam: There is a request for information, namely, what is the salary of the Publishing Agent?

J. Otis Young: Agent or Agents? We have now two Publishing Agents.

Bishop Oxnam: I think the Brother had in mind the salary of the Proposed Publisher.

J. Otis Young: I am not in possession of that information at this time. The salaries of the Publishing Agents have been fixed from year to year, as well as the election of these Agents from year to year. It might be that Mr. Clark is in possession of that information and can give it to the Conference.

Warren P. Clark: Mr. Chairman and Members of The Conference: That is information I have never asked the boss.

Bishop Oxnam: The point is, Brethren, that The General Conference has a right to any information concerning any of its enterprises, I suppose, and the question has been raised. Is there someone here who can answer it?

Allen B. Rice: I think we have a right to know.

J. Otis Young: Mr. Chairman, I have been advised by one of the brethren back of me here they think that the salary of the Publishing Agent is $20,000."

Question—William R. Guffick—Answer—J. Otis Young

William R. Guffick (New Jersey—NE) raised questions which were answered by J. Otis Young (Ohio—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Publishing Interests, as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman, I would like to ask the Committee what will be the relationship between the present Publishing Agents and the new proposed Publisher.

J. Otis Young: It is my understanding, Mr. Chairman, that if you adopt the legislation that is before you, there will be no Publishing Agent. In keeping with your new corporate structure, in order to harmonize with that, there will be a President who will also have the title of Publisher. The reason why that dual title is in there is because for the business world the word "President" is the better term. For the Church and the relationship of the Church, the word "Publisher" seems to be better.

William R. Guffick: May I ask, sir, what will happen to the present Publishing Agents? Will one of them become the President?

J. Otis Young: I would not know. That is a matter decided annually at their meeting. It will be at this coming fall meeting, the annual meeting, sir."

Questions—Allen Whitfield ()—Answers—J. Otis Young
—Ruling—Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam*

Allen Whitfield (*) (Iowa-Des Moines—NC) raised questions which were answered by J. Otis Young (Ohio—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Publishing Interests, as follows:—

"Could I inquire of the Chairman presenting this Report as to whether or not the proposed plan for staggering the election of Members of this Board, as provided in column 3, page 370, Paragraph 1129, represents a change in the form of lengthening the term of Members of this Board from four to eight or twelve years as the case may be?

J. Otis Young: Mr. Chairman, I believe the answer to that would be that the Board of Publication will attempt to place its membership in classes of four, eight and twelve. As to those members who will be holding a twelve-year term, an eight-year term and a four-year term, that will be decided not by the Board of Publication, but by the respective Jurisdictional Conferences where they are elected.

Allen Whitfield: Then, Mr. Chairman, if I understand correctly, instead of electing the Members of the Board after the stagger system gets into effect for a term of four years, the plan is to elect them for a term of twelve years, rotating so that they will retire in the form of classes. Is that correct?

J. Otis Young: Yes. The Jurisdictional Conference, sir, will be given instructions as to how many they will be entitled to have. It will be up to that Jurisdictional Conference. After they have elected those that they are entitled to elect, they will place them in whatever classes they may wish to place them.

Allen Whitfield: Then, Mr. Chairman—

Bishop Oxnam: Just a moment Brother Whitfield: A Delegate is entitled to a question, not to a continuous series of questions. Will you ask one more and then I shall have to recognize others, if they wish the floor.

Allen Whitfield: Thank you, sir.

May I inquire, sir, if this does not represent a change from policy which was authorized in lengthening the term of Board members from eight to twelve years, that is providing for them to be re-elected so they could serve a total of twelve years, in that we now are contemplating the election of men to serve for twelve years?

J. Otis Young: Only one-third, sir, of the Class will be elected for twelve years and each Jurisdiction will have to take its proportional share of those who will be in the twelve-year Class, those in the eight-year Class and those in the four-year Class."

Question Harold C. Phend (*)—Answer—J. Otis Young

Harold C. Phend (*) (Northwest Indiana—NC) raised a question which was answered by J. Otis Young (Ohio—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Publishing Interests, as follows:—

"On page 369, the third column, at the bottom of the page, the next to the last line, "who shall be the Publisher of The Methodist Church." I would like to ask the Chairman for a clarification of that statement. Does that mean the Board of Lay Activities, the Board of Education and the Board of Evangelism? How far-reaching is that?

J. Otis Young: Mr. Chairman, that is very easy to answer. He will have the same supervision over the same publications—I will put it this way: He will supervise only those publications that are under the direction of the Board of Publications, which does not affect The Methodist Layman or The Outlook or the Women's Paper. It only affects these two magazines that we have been talking about plus the books that are published."

Amendment—W. Ralph Ward—Not Adopted

W. Ralph Ward (Pittsburgh—NE) moved to amend Paragraph 1133, DCA No. 8, page 371, column 1, by deleting the word "may," in line, and substituting therefor the word, "SHALL," so that Paragraph 1133 as amended, will read:—

Par. 1133. The Board of Publication, at its discretion SHALL continue the publication of the Quarterly, Religion in Life, with the Book Editor responsible for its editorial content.

The motion to thus amend, being duly seconded, W. Ralph Ward (Pittsburgh—NE) spoke to the same, as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman, I would hope that the first comment here would be acceptable to this Committee. It seems to me, sir, that in the light of changes which we are making in our Publishing Program, in the attempt to popularize our magazines and our journals, as we are, for a wide distribution, we as a Methodist people should publish such a theological journal of such high quality as Religion in Life has always been, one knows from reading the records that this is not a profitable adventure and that it has cost our Church something to publish it across the years; but it is the kind of a religious document which I think we have been proud of and the kind of a document which both Ministers and Laymen who have a great concern for the more profound interests and needs of the Church look to constantly. It would be a shame at the time in which we are, when there is a renewed interest in the Church, the doctrine of the Church, theological doctrine, teaching of the Bible, and other matters of great importance, for us all, that this journal should not be published by our Church for its wide and useful purposes.

I hope that this amendment will be supported."

Amendment Not Accepted—J. Otis Young

J. Otis Young (Ohio—NE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Publishing Interests, stated the Committee could not accept the proposed amendment of W. Ralph Ward (Pittsburgh—NE).

Time Extended—Edward P. O'Rear—Adopted

Motion of Edward P. O'Rear (Southern California—Arizona—W) Assistant Calendar Secretary, duly seconded, prevailed extending the time allotted to the Standing Legislative Committee on Publishing Interests, in order that the Committee might complete the presentation of the pending Report.

Amendment—W. Ralph Ward—Not Adopted

J. Otis Young (Ohio—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Publishing Interests, stating he had nothing further to say, the proposed amendment of W. Ralph Ward (Pittsburgh—NE) on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.

Amendment—Edward W. Foote—Accepted—J. Otis Young

Edward W. Foote (Minnesota—NC) moved to amend Paragraph 1140 (DB-120) DCA No. 8, page 371, column 3, by deleting the word "he" in line five and substituting therefor the word "THEY," so that Paragraph 1140 as amended, will read:—

Par. 1140. The President (Publisher), with the approval of the Board, shall have authority to extend the business of The Methodist Publishing House in such manner as THEY may judge to be for the best interests of the Church.

The proposed amendment of Edward W. Foote (Minnesota—NC), was accepted by J. Otis Young (Ohio—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Publishing Interests, there being no objection raised by any member of the Committee, or by any member of The General Conference.

Amendment—Russell E. Clay—J. Otis Young—Marshall T. Steel—Adopted

Russell E. Clay (Southern California-Arizona—W) moved to amend Paragraph 1139, DCA No. 8, page 371, column 3, by adding (DB-121):—

“THE BOARD SHALL REPORT THE PERSONNEL AND SALARIES OF ALL EXECUTIVES IN THE QUADRENNIAL REPORTS TO THE 1960 GENERAL CONFERENCE.”

so that Paragraph 1139, as amended, will read:—

Par. 1139. The Board shall require written quarterly Reports to the Executive Committee covering the current condition and operating status of the business.

“THE BOARD SHALL REPORT THE PERSONNEL AND SALARIES OF ALL EXECUTIVES IN THE QUADRENNIAL REPORTS TO THE 1960 GENERAL CONFERENCE.”

The motion to thus amend, being duly seconded, Russell E. Clay (Southern California-Arizona—W) spoke to the same, as follows:—

“I think this General Conference has a right to know all of that, and it seems to me that there was an evasion of giving that information to us, and I think it ought to be in our hands before we come to The General Conference. I hope it carries.”

At the request of J. Otis Young (Ohio—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Publishing Interests, Marshall T. Steel (North Texas—SC) spoke to the pending amendment, as follows:—

“Mr. Chairman, Brethren: Surely the Board will want to do what you want done in this connection. The matter of the salaries of our Executives is a little bit difficult inasmuch as we are in a very highly competitive field, and cannot command the kind of leadership that The Publishing House needs without some larger salaries than we Ministers are normally accustomed to. We have had some substantial difficulty in maintaining top leadership for many of our Houses and many Departments of our organization because competitive publishing interests have been able to take men away from us with very substantial increases in salary.

I think that the situation here is a little bit different from the setting of salaries for Ministers.

Surely, if you want those salaries published it will be all right. I do not think it is good as a business procedure to announce the salaries of all of your Executives to the public.”

Amendment Adopted—Statement—Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam

Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, the Presiding Officer, put the proposed amendment of Russell E. Clay (Southern California-Arizona—W) to the vote of The General Conference, and announced the result of the vote in the following statement:—

“Just a moment, brethren. The amendment is now before you. I think it is clear. Those who will favor the amendment will lift the hand. Those who are opposed to the amendment.

I find it very difficult to decide, so I think we will vote again. Some, I think, are not voting.

The amendment is an order to publish the names of the Executives and their salaries. Those who favor the amendment, will you lift the hand. Down, please. Those who are opposed to the amendment?

The Chair is of the opinion the amendment has carried. Is there any question?

I hear no question raised. The amendment is carried.”

No. 5 Publishing Interests Adopted As Amended

Report No. 5 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Publishing Interests, Calendar No. 74, Subject, “Revision Of Discipline, Part VII, Chapter IV, Dealing With The Methodists Publishing House,” DCA No. 8, page 369, column 3; page 370, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 371, columns 1, 2 and 3; and page 372, columns 1, 2 and 3 was adopted, as amended. For Report see Appendix, page 1659.

Calendar Status—Edward P. O’Rear—Harold C. Phend (*)
—Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam

Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, the Presiding Officer, requested Edward P. O’Rear (Southern California-Arizona—W), Assistant Calendar Secretary to give the parliamentary situation pertaining to the Calendar.

Edward P. O’Rear (Southern California-Arizona—W), Assistant Calendar Secretary stated that the order of the presentation of Reports for the Consideration of and action on by The General Conference is as follows:—

First:—Standing Legislative Committee on Temporal Economy, R. F. Curl (Southwest Texas—SC), Chairman.

Harold C. Phend (*) (Northwest Indiana—NC), Secretary of the Standing Legislative Committee on Temporal Economy, stated that R. F. Curl (Southwest Texas—SC), Chairman of the Committee, had been called from the room for an organizational meeting of The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church to which he had recently been elected a Member, and requested a postponement of the presentation of the Reports of the Standing Legislative Committee on Temporal Economy until the return of the Chairman, and that the Committee hold its regular place on the Calendar program.

Second:—After Recess consideration of and action on the Report of the Commission on the Structure of Methodism Overseas.

Third:—Consideration of and action on Reports from the Standing Legislative Committee on the State of the Church.

Statement—Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam

Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, the Presiding Officer, made the following statement:—

“Brethren, this was the correct order, and you are waiting for the Chairman of the Committee who is on duty, as I understand it. May we take up the next Order and when the Chairman comes, may we restore his proper place and go on? Would that be your desire? If there is no objection, we will proceed that way and will Brother O’Rear indicate the Report to be considered until Dr. Curl gets here.”

Announcement Re Service Tonight and Tomorrow Night—
Paul V. Galloway

Paul V. Galloway (Oklahoma—SC), Chairman of the Program Committee of the Commission on Entertainment and Program, made the following important announcement:—

“The Committee on Education asked that we make this notice since there is a change in time for tonight because some on the Program have to leave early, and I hope many of them will want to get away before too late. The time of the Program has been set for 7:25. According to the program the benediction is to be at 9:30—so it may be.

The service tonight Saturday, May 5, 1956, has been requested especially by the Minnesota Delegation for a Youth Night, and we hope that we will be here in large numbers to support them for they have done so very much to help us in getting ready for this Conference.

We feel a certain moral obligation for they have put more money into this than we have given to help in the total expense.

This is in regard to reserve seat holders in the balcony. All reserve seat holders will have their tickets honored down here on the lower floor tonight.

We ask that each Delegation fill its places with members or with their families, and also if there are Delegations leaving before tonight, if you will let the ushers know by note so we may fill those places.

Then one other thing about tomorrow evening. Sunday, May 6, 1956, The Choral Prelude begins at 7:30. On page 2 of today’s Daily Christian Advocate you will find the Program.

Dr. Sockman will be here to preach on the subject of 'Limits of Love.'

Please remember that the service tonight is at 7:25; tomorrow evening at 7:30."

Official Session Tonight—J. Earl Moreland (*)

On motion of J. Earl Moreland (*) (Virginia—SE), duly seconded, the service tonight, Saturday, May 5, 1956, scheduled as Youth Night, was made an official session of The General Conference of The Methodist Church, with the proviso that the Addresses would not be recorded in the Journal, and that there would not be any interference with the seating plans worked out by the Commission on Entertainment for the Youth Night Service.

No. 1 Temperance and Prohibition—"General Resolution On Temperance And Public Morals"—Lynn H. Corson—Mrs. Frank E. Lochridge (*)—Caradine R. Hooton—Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam—Amended—Adopted

Lynn H. Corson (New Jersey—NE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Temperance and Prohibition, requested Mrs. Frank E. Lochridge (*), Secretary of the Committee, and Caradine R. Hooton (Oklahoma—SC), General Secretary of the General Board of Temperance of The Methodist Church, to come to the platform to assist in the presentation of the Reports of the Committee.

Statement—Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam

Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, the Presiding Officer, made the following statement:—

"Just a moment, Brother Corson.

It is my understanding that if Dr. Curl arrives, we interrupt this Order at that time and we take up the Calendar regularly. That is understood, is it not? Thank you. Go ahead, Dr. Corson."

Lynn H. Corson (New Jersey—NE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Temperance and Prohibition, presented Report No. 1 of the Committee, Calendar No. 80, Subject, "General Resolution On Temperance And Public Morals," DCA No. 8, page 373, column 3, and page 374, columns 1, 2 and 3, and asked the privilege of inserting a new paragraph reading as follows (DB-122):—

"WE RECOMMEND THAT ORGANIZATIONS AND INSTITUTIONS RELATED TO THE METHODIST CHURCH REFRAIN FROM ACCEPTING AND PRINTING ADVERTISEMENTS FOR ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES OR TOBACCO."

said insertion to follow immediately after the paragraph which reads as follows on page 374, column 1, DCA No. 8:—

“We urge and support education in our public schools regarding the harmful effects of the use of alcoholic beverages.”

Ruling—Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam

Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, the Presiding Officer, made the following ruling in regard to the proposed insertion:—

“Just a moment. This is quite a debatable matter and I suppose I will have to get the consent of The Conference. If you include it, you can debate it later, of course.

Here is a request to include an additional paragraph. Is there any objection? I hear none. It is included, and will be in the Report when you come to debate.”

Parliamentary Situation—Lynn H. Corson—Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam

Lynn H. Corson (New Jersey—NE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Temperance and Prohibition, began reading the Report when Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, the Presiding Officer, made the following statement:—

Bishop Oxnam: Brother Corson, are you reading from the Report? Or is this an address?

Lynn H. Corson: I am reading from the Report.

Bishop Oxnam: There is no reason to read a Report that is published. We are under instruction to have the Chairman speak to it and not read it. Am I correct? (See Rule 34, bottom of page. Editor)

Lynn H. Corson: Mr. Chairman, having read certain Sections of the Report, I then move its adoption and that the Report be printed in the Appendix of the 1956 Discipline. The motion was duly seconded.

Bishop Oxnam: The Chair did not mean for a moment to stop Dr. Corson in his presentation, but your Rule is that Reports printed shall not be read, and it appeared to me he was reading it. He still has time under the ten minutes, to speak about six minutes.

Lynn H. Corson: Mr. Chairman, it was the desire of the Committee that this Section, the first Section of the Report, be read.

Bishop Oxnam: The Conference has already expressed its desire concerning reading. Do you have any additional remarks to make on this subject?

Lynn H. Corson: There are no additional remarks, except to emphasize the stand which our Methodist Church must continually take in terms of its Temperance Program, doing nothing to undermine or undercut that Program, and having an affirmative Program in reference to our entire Church Agencies, bringing to the attention of our people all matters relevant to the Temperance Program of our Church.

Rule 34. PREPARATION AND PRINTING OF REPORTS

All Committee Reports shall be presented to the Secretary of The Conference in triplicate on paper provided therefor and bearing at the top the name of the Committee, its total membership, the number present at the time the Report was adopted, the number voting for and the number voting against the report respectively, and the number not voting. Reports of the Legislative Committees shall be printed in The Daily Advocate at least one day before being presented for consideration by the Conference AND THEY SHALL NOT BE READ UNLESS BY ITS ORDER.

Reports of Minorities of Committees adopted by them with a view of their being offered as substitutes for Committee reports shall likewise conform to this rule so far as it is applicable, indicating clearly to what Committee the respective minorities belong and for what Reports by Serial Numbers, etc., they propose the respective substitutes.

For Report—B. Clyde Clark ()*

B. Clyde Clark (*) (Oklahoma—SC). spoke in favor of the Report, as follows:—

"I think this great Church of ours ought to make the greatest pronouncement possible on the liquor question. If you study the statistics you will see if the use of alcoholic beverages continues for the next 25 years like it has the last 25, we will almost be a nation of drunkards. And I think that we, as a great Church, ought to try in every way we can to stress the temperance cause.

You know, with the way it is now on television and all, where it shows young people how nice it is to drink, unless we as Church members and as parents set an example before them, well, a good many of our young people will form the habit.

Do you know we are spending now, in this nation, which we call a Christian nation, several times more money for alcoholic beverages than we are for all of our Christian organizations and Churches?

So I am in hopes that this Report will carry."

Amendment—Dillon Wesley Throckmorton—Accepted—Lynn H. Corson

Dillon Wesley Throckmorton (California-Nevada—W) moved to amend the second paragraph in column 3, page 374, DCA No. 8, by deleting the word, "should," in line four of said paragraph, and substituting therefor the word, "shall," so that the amended paragraph will read:—

The dubious gains of petty gambling are neither needed nor wanted in financing the work of the Church. All Methodist churches shall abstain from the use of raffles, lotteries, and other forms of games of chance in the raising of money for the purposes of the Church and should protest similar gambling practices by secular organizations in their communities.

Lynn H. Corson (New Jersey—NE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Temperance and Prohibition, accepted the proposed amendment of Dillon Wesley Throckmorton (California-Nevada—W) for the Committee, there being no objection raised by any member of the Committee, or by any member of the The General Conference.

Amendment—Loyd F. Worley—Withdrawn

Loyd F. Worley (New York East—NE) moved to amend

Report No. 1 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Temperance and Prohibition, Subject, "General Resolution on Temperance and Public Morals," by adding a sentence (DB-123) which reads as follows:—

"We regret that the Vice-President of the United States has named a man prominent in the liquor industry to a position of influence in the Government, where his previous connections might seriously impair his public usefulness."

If it is seconded, I would like to speak on it.

said sentence to be added to the seventh paragraph on page 374, column 1, DCA No. 8, which when amended, will read, as follows:—

"We commend the Secretary of Defense for his action in prohibiting the sale of package liquors on most armed services installations. We urge the extension of this policy to include the outlawing of beer and liquor by the drink on all armed forces installations.

"We regret that the Vice-President of the United States has named a man prominent in the liquor industry to a position of influence in the Government, where his previous connections might seriously impair his public usefulness."

The motion to thus amend, being duly seconded, Loyd F. Worley (New York East—NE), spoke to the same, as follows:—

"It is not so much a speech I should like to make as a question I should like to direct to Secretary Hooton, because in the Voice, he brought out certain facts during the quadrennium that substantiated the need of the amendment which I have offered.

If that situation has been corrected, I should be glad to withdraw the proposed amendment. If it has not been corrected, we already have the example of commendation to a certain Government official, and a word of regret would be equally in order."

Answer—Caradine R. Hooton

Caradine R. Hooton (Oklahoma—SC), General Secretary of the General Board of Temperance of The Methodist Church, answered the question, as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman, to the best of my knowledge the situation has been so corrected as to do away with the desirability of this particular amendment."

Parliamentary Situation—Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam

Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, the Presiding Officer, set forth the parliamentary situation regarding the proposed amendment of Loyd F. Worley (New York East—NE), as follows:—

Bishop Oxnam: Just a moment, then, Dr. Worley. As I understand it, do you withdraw your amendment?

Loyd F. Worley: Mr. Chairman, in view of the Secretary's statement, and with the consent of the seconder of my proposed amendment, I am very happy to withdraw the amendment at this time.

Bishop Oxnam: If there is no objection in the house, the amendment is withdrawn.

Amendment—Lemuel K. Lord—Accepted—Lynn H. Corson

Lemuel K. Lord (New England—NE) moved to amend Report No. 1 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Temperance and Prohibition, by deleting the word, "Among," at the beginning of the third paragraph on page 373, column 3, DCA No. 8, and substituting therefor the word, "AGAINST," so that the amended paragraph will read:—

AGAINST the confused moral judgments of our age with respect to drinking and the liquor traffic, The Methodist Church lifts the clear voice of the Christian conscience. The teaching of Christ emphasizes, as one of its basic principles, the sacredness of each human personality. The use of alcoholic beverages impairs the functions of the body and mind. It slows perception and judgment. It delays reaction.

The proposed amendment of Lemuel K. Lord (New England—NE) was accepted by Lynn H. Corson (New Jersey—NE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Temperance and Prohibition there being no objection raised by any member of the Committee, or by any member of The General Conference.

For Report—Chester A. Smith ()*

Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) spoke to the content of paragraph six, page 374, column 1, DCA No. 8, of the Report, as follows:—

"Column 1. 'We commend the Secretary of Defense . . .' I think it is wise to commend those who stand right as officials on the side of the liquor question, and I desire to call attention to the fact that in the State of New York the Legislature in 1955 passed a bill which, if it had been adopted or signed by the Governor, would have permitted the sale of intoxicating liquor on credit. If there is any one thing that ought not to be sold on credit, it is intoxicating liquor.

The legislature of 1956 passed the very same law. Some of us, among them myself, asked Governor Averill Harriman to veto both the bill passed in 1955 and the bill passed in 1956, which would have permitted the sale of liquor on credit. Governor Harriman vetoed both those bills, and I want to call attention of the Conference to that fact.

I want to commend Governor Harriman for doing that thing, and I want to say that I am very proud as a citizen of the State of New York, that we now have a Governor who refuses to sign and to approve these bad liquor bills which I am very sorry to say, our legislature unfortunately passes."

Amendments—Albea Godbold—Chester A. Smith ()—Virgil D. Morris—Carl W. Haggard ()—Charles S. Kendall—Accepted and Adopted—Lynn H. Corson

Albea Godbold (Saint Louis—SC) asked if there was anything in the Report concerning the serving and drinking of liquor aboard airplanes?

Lynn H. Corson (New Jersey—NE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Temperance and Prohibition, stating there was no such statement in the Report, Albea Godbold (Saint Louis—SC) moved to amend the Report by inserting at the proper place a statement deploring the serving of liquor to passengers on airplanes. (DB-124).

Lynn H. Corson (New Jersey—NE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Temperance and Prohibition, accepted the proposed amendment of Albea Godbold (Saint Louis—SC) for the Committee, there being no objection raised by any member of the Committee, or by any member of The General Conference.

Amendment Amended—Chester A. Smith () Adopted*

Chester A. Smith (New York—NE) moved to amend the amendment of Albea Godbold (Saint Louis—SC), just accepted by Lynn H. Corson (New Jersey—NE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Temperance and Prohibition, by making the amendment stronger and to include an earnest request to all airlines to cease the sale and service of intoxicating liquors on their air lines. (DB-125).

The motion to thus amend the amendment was duly seconded, and on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was adopted.

Further Amendment—Virgil D. Morris—Adopted

Virgil D. Morris (Louisiana—SC), moved to amend the amendment of Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) just adopted by adding to it (DB-126) that we commend those air lines that do not serve alcoholic beverages. The motion to thus amend, being duly seconded, the proposed amendment of Virgil D. Morris (Louisiana—SC) on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was adopted.

Further Amendment—Carl W. Haggard ()—Adopted*

Carl W. Haggard (*) (Kentucky—SE) moved to further amend the Report (DB-127) by adding the “railroads, and all other public carriers,” to the adopted amendment of Albea Godbold (Saint Louis—SC). The motion was duly seconded, and being put to the vote of The General Conference, was adopted.

Amended Further—Charles S. Kendall—Adopted

Charles S. Kendall (Southern California-Arizona—W) moved to further amend the original amendment of Albea Godbold (Saint Louis—SC) by adding the following (DB-128):—

“That we further request the Civil Aeronautics Authority to enact such legislation that will prohibit the service of intoxicating liquors on the air lines.”

The motion to thus amend, being duly seconded, on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was adopted.

The original amendment of Albea Godbold (Saint Louis—SC) as amended by Chester A. Smith () (New York—NE); Virgil D. Morris (Louisiana—SC); Carl W. Haggard () (Kentucky), and Charles S. Kendall (Southern California-Arizona—W) reads as follows:—

We commend those air lines that refuse to serve alcoholic beverages on their airplanes, and request each of the other air lines to join in this voluntary policy. We also call on the Civil Aeronautics Board and the Congress to enact legislation to prohibit the serving of alcoholic beverages on airplanes. We request the railroads and all other public carriers likewise to stop the serving of alcoholic beverages on their methods of transportation.

Previous Question—Asbury Smith—Ordered

On motion of Asbury Smith (Baltimore—NE), duly seconded, the Previous Question was ordered on Report No. 1 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Temperance and Prohibition, by more than the required two-thirds majority vote.

Debate Closed—Lynn H. Corson—Report Adopted

Lynn H. Corson (New Jersey—NE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Temperance and Prohibition, closed the debate on the pending question, with the following statement:—

“No additional word, Mr. Chairman, except to compliment The Council of Bishops in taking action in reference to the serving of liquor on the airplanes by their own Resolution. We are proud of the action which they took and commend them for it.”

Report No. 1 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Temperance and Prohibition. Calendar No. 80, Subject, “General Resolution on Temperance and Public Morals,”

DCA No. 8, page 373, column 3, and page 374, columns 1, 2, and 3, was adopted as amended. For Report see Appendix, page 1718.

Information Sought—Percy D. Wilson—Given—Lynn H. Corson

Percy D. Wilson (North Alabama—SE) asked if provision had been made for the printing of Report No. 1 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Temperance and Prohibition on the 1956 Discipline?

Lynn H. Corson (New Jersey—NE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Temperance and Prohibition, replied that The General Conference had unanimously adopted his motion, duly seconded, to that effect.

MacMurray Choir—Statement—Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam

Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, the Presiding Officer, made the following statement:—

“Brethren, a request has come to the Chair which contravenes your Order, but it would appear that the Chair should read it: The MacMurray College Girls’ Chorus has come 1000 miles to sing for us. When our schedule for today was changed the Choir was enroute and could not be reached. The question comes from one of the members of this body as a matter of privilege for The Conference, and courtesy.

Would you entertain a motion that the Chorus be given six minutes to give us two numbers before we come to the noon Recess? It would seem to meet with favor. Those who will authorize this, when the Choir can come upon the platform, will please lift the hand; those opposed.

It is done.”

No. 2 Temperance and Prohibition—“Membership Of Jurisdictional Boards Of Temperance”—Lynn H. Corson—Adopted—Chester A. McPheeters—Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam—Adopted

Lynn H. Corson (New Jersey—NE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Temperance and Prohibition, presented Report No. 2 for the Committee, Calendar No. 81, Subject, “Membership Of Jurisdictional Boards Of Temperance, 2 DCA No. 8, page 374, column 3 and page 375, column 1, and moved its adoption. The motion to adopt was duly seconded.

Chester A. McPheeters (Detroit—NC) asked some questions which were answered by Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, the Presiding Officer, and Lynn H. Corson (New Jersey—NE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Temperance and Prohibition, as follows:—

Chester A. McPheeters: Mr. Chairman, a question of information.

Bishop Oxnam: Brother McPheeters.

Chester A. McPheeters: Is this a change?

Bishop Oxnam: The Chairman stated not.

Lynn H. Corson: A change in the number, Doctor.

Chester A. McPheeters: Well, you are saying all the Bishops on the Jurisdictional Board.

Lynn H. Corson: The former legislation said if and when established the Board shall be composed of the active Bishops of the Jurisdiction.

Report No. 2 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Temperance and Prohibition was then adopted. For Report see Appendix, page 1723.

No. 3 Temperance and Prohibition—"Personnel Of The Annual Conference Board of Temperance"—Lynn H. Corson—Amendment—Chester A. Smith (*)—Not Adopted—Amended—Dillon Wesley Throckmorton—Adopted

Lynn H. Corson (New Jersey—NE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Temperance and Prohibition, presented Report No. 3 of the Committee, Calendar No. 82, Subject, "Personnel Of The Annual Conference Board Of Temperance," DCA No. 8, page 375, columns 1 and 2, and moved its adoption. The motion to adopt was duly seconded.

Amendment—Chester A. Smith—Not Adopted

Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) moved to amend (DB-129) Paragraph 1541 by inserting the words, "THE CONFERENCE LAY LEADER AND THE DISTRICT LAY LEADERS," after the words, "of the Cabinet," in lines two and three of the said Paragraph, so that the Paragraph as amended, will read:—

Paragraph 1541. Each Annual Conference shall elect, on the nomination of the Cabinet, THE CONFERENCE LAY LEADER AND THE DISTRICT LAY LEADERS, or otherwise as the Conference may direct, a Conference Board of Temperance, consisting of not less than ten Members and no more than eighteen Members, with equal representation of Ministers and Lay Members, two of whom shall be young people under twenty-three years of age at the time of their election, nominated by the Council of the Annual Conference Methodist Youth Fellowship; also included shall be the Conference Secretary of Christian Social Relations of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, or her representative, and Members of the General Board of Temperance residing within the bounds of the Annual Conference, the remainder of the Lay Membership consisting of an equal number of men and women. Its duty shall be to promote the work of the Board within the bounds of the Annual Conference. It shall have power to elect its own Officers and raise its own funds; provided that no General Funds collected for the General Board shall be allocated to the Conference Board except by action of the General Board. Among the Officers elected shall be a Chairman of the Board who shall be responsible for direction of the Program of Temperance in the Annual Conference.

The motion to thus amend, being duly seconded, Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE), spoke to the same, as follows:—

“I think that the Laymen should have a part in making the nominations on this matter, because this question of temperance and prohibition is of great moment and very great concern for the Laymen. I want to establish whenever possible the principle that the nominations for Boards and Committees should not be confined simply to the Cabinet of an Annual Conference, but that there should also be included the Laymen of the Conference. I think the Laymen of the Conference are represented officially by the Lay Leader of the Conference and the District Lay Leaders.

I see no possible objection to including the Conference Lay Leader and the District Lay Leaders as a part of this Nominating Committee of the Cabinet. It will establish the principles for which I have contended in many General Conferences, which I desire to contend for here, and which I trust will have your support.”

Lynn H. Corson (New Jersey—NE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Temperance and Prohibition, closed the debate, as follows:—

“Mr. Chairman, because of the wide variety of securing nominations for Conference Boards and Commissions which prevails through the Annual Conferences, we are of the opinion that the wording as presented in Report No. 3 should be kept in this Report unchanged.”

Amendment—Chester A. Smith ()—Not Adopted*

The proposed amendment of Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.

Amendment—Dillon Wesley Throckmorton—Accepted—Lynn H. Corson

Dillon Wesley Throckmorton (California-Nevada—W) moved to amend Paragraph (DB-130) DCA No. 8, page 385, column 2, by inserting the words, “AND SUCH JURISDICTIONAL BOARD MEMBERS,” following the words, “of the General Board of Temperance,” in lines one and two at the top of column 2, page 375, DCA, so that Paragraph 1541 as amended, will read:—

Paragraph 1541. Each Annual Conference shall elect, on the nomination of the Cabinet, or otherwise as the Conference may direct, a Conference Board of Temperance, consisting of not less than ten members and no more than eighteen members, with equal representation of Ministers and Lay Members, two of whom shall be young people under twenty-three years of age at the time of their election, nominated by the Council of the Annual Conference Methodist Youth Fellowship: also included shall be the Conference Secretary of Christian Social Relations of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, or her representative, and members of the General Board of Temperance AND SUCH JURISDICTIONAL BOARD MEMBERS residing within the bounds of the Annual Conference, the remainder of the Lay Membership consisting of an equal number of men and women. Its duty shall be to promote the work of the Board within the bounds of the Annual Conference. It shall have power to elect its own Officers and raise its own funds; provided that no General Funds collected for the General Board shall be allocated to the Conference Board except by action of the General Board. Among the Officers elected shall be a Chairman of the Board who shall be responsible for direction of the Program of Temperance in the Annual Conference.

Lynn H. Corson (New Jersey—NE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Temperance and Prohibition, accepted the proposed amendment of Dillon Wesley Throckmorton (California-Nevada—W) for the Committee, no objection being raised by any member of the Committee, or by any member of The General Conference.

The Report, as thus amended, was adopted. For Report see Appendix, page 1724.

Calendar—Edward P. O'Rear

Edward P. O'Rear (Southern California-Arizona—W), Assistant Calendar Secretary, stated that the next Reports would be from the Standing Legislative Committee on Hospitals and Homes.

No. 2 Hospitals and Homes—"The Healing Ministry Of Jesus"—Ernest W. Peterson(*)—Adopted

Ernest W. Peterson (*) (Oregon—W), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Hospitals and Homes, presented Report No. 2 of the Committee, Calendar No. 20, Subject, "The Healing Ministry Of Jesus," DCA No. 5, page 191, column 1, and on his motion, duly seconded, the Report was adopted. For Report see Appendix, page 1500.

Dean E. Richardson (Genesee—NE) inquired on what page the Report would be found. Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, the Presiding Officer, answered the question.

No. 3 Hospitals and Homes—"Golden Cross Contributions"—Ernest W. Peterson (*)—Marvin L. Boyd—G. Alfred Brown—Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam—Not Adopted

Ernest W. Peterson (*) (Oregon—W), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Hospitals and Homes, presented Report No. 3 of the Committee, Calendar No. 21, Subject, "Golden Cross Contributions," DCA No. 5, page 191, columns 1 and 2, and moved its adoption. The motion was duly seconded.

Against Report—Marvin L. Boyd

Marvin L. Boyd (Northwest Texas—SC), spoke against the Report, as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman, I wish to speak a word in opposition to the adoption of this particular Report. The reference to Paragraph 1567 in the Discipline is a reference to a description of the means of support of the General Board of Hospitals and Homes.

It says that since the Board of Hospitals and Homes acts in an advisory, educational and co-operative capacity, it therefore receives support from these two sources in the present Discipline, one of them from gifts, devises, wills, bequests, and from administration of trust funds.

I do not know the amount which it receives from these various sources.

In the second place, it says from such share in General Benevolences as determined by The General Conference.

On page 199, column 3 of the Daily Advocate, we would see that there has been allocated to the support of this Board, 1.13 per cent, and further down the same column the estimate is given that the amount would be approximately $125,000 annually.

Now, this proposal is to add (c) and to make it permissive for the Annual Conference to take five per cent of the money contributed for Golden Cross.

We are here as Delegates of our Annual Conferences and our Conference delegation has been alerted by our Hospital people to be on guard against this very proposal which is now before us. I think many of us should at least know what we are voting on before we vote for it.

This Memorial 2817, which was the basis of this Resolution, came from the Board of Hospitals and Homes. I would like to ask a question or two. Did that Board ask for all the money it needs from the Commission on World Service and Finance? If not, why not? If so, and if they did not get it, why should they have another door through which they may enter to ask for additional funds any more than the same privilege should be given to any other Board?

This would be a very indefinite amount. Five per cent of the amount some Conferences might give might be too little; it might be too much.

Now, then, the principle is this: Golden Cross money is given for a purpose, and if five per cent of it is given to the General Board, that means one person in every twenty who has been aided by Golden Cross money will not receive that aid. It is a matter of principle of support of General Agencies from local offerings. It is left to the Annual Conference; but I submit to you it puts an Annual Conference in a sort of awkward position if it should refuse to allocate this money. It would be in an awkward position of being able to request the advice, the education and the co-operation that it ought to have from the General Board. I think we should ask our General Board to give us $125,000 worth of advice, education and co-operation per year, plus whatever else they can give from their receipts, from gifts, devises, and so forth, and leave this money given to relieve human sufferings and save human lives for that purpose by voting against this particular report."

Speaks to Pending Report—Ernest W. Peterson ()*

Ernest W. Peterson (*) (Oregon—W), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Hospitals and Homes, spoke to the pending matter as follows:—

"I think one or two figures might be helpful to the group. The total raised in gifts last year from Golden Cross in the Annual Conferences which chose to have the Golden Cross Society, most of them being in the part of the Church which was formerly the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, was $260,000; of that amount, 5 per cent would have been $13,000. The amount which was contributed to the Board last year was $1,387, or less than one-half of 1 per cent.

This is permissive legislation. It is a courtesy that is being asked from us by Annual Conferences which has come to us through the Board of Hospitals and Homes who desire to have this provision in the Discipline."

Against Report—G. Alfred Brown

G. Alfred Brown (Central Texas—SC) spoke against the Report as follows:—

"I happen to be a member of the Board of Trustees of Paris Hospital in Fort Worth, where we do have the Golden Cross work. One of the great talking points in our Conference is when we go to our people for funds to tell them that not one cent of this will go for administration but every penny of it goes for helping the needy. I hope that that can be encouraged in as many places as possible, because we find a very happy response to that.

If this motion, this paragraph, should prevail, it is permissive but it would also put us in the embarrassing position of not doing what other Conferences are doing in carrying out a suggestion. So I hope that will be defeated and we will leave it as it is."

Statement—Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam

Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, the Presiding Officer, made the following statement:—

"The Chair must beg the pardon of The Conference. I permitted someone to speak after the Chairman had closed debate; but there is another Rule which calls for two on either side, and it seemed to be appropriate to allow this Brother to speak, since he had called for the floor.

I am sorry."

Report Not Adopted

On being put to the vote of The General Conference, Report No. 3 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Hospitals and Homes, was not adopted. For Report see Appendix, page 1501.

No. 4—Hospitals and Homes—"Golden Cross Society Of The Methodist Church"—Ernest W. Peterson (*)—Adopted

Ernest W. Peterson (*) (Oregon—W), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Hospitals and Homes, presented Report 4 of the Committee, Calendar No. 22, Subject "Golden Cross Society Of The Methodist Church," DCA No. 5, page 191, column 2, and on his motion, duly seconded, Report 4 was adopted. For Report see Appendix, page 1502.

No. 5—Hospitals and Homes—"Report Of The General Board Of Hospitals And Homes, Pages 410 Through 438 Of The Quadrennial Report of Boards and Commissions"—Ernest W. Peterson (*)—Adopted

Ernest W. Peterson (*) (Oregon—W), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Hospitals and Homes, presented Report No. 5 of the Committee, Calendar No. 23, Subject, "Report Of The General Board Of Hospitals And Homes, Pages 410 Through 438 Of The Quadrennial Reports of Boards and Commissions," DCA No. 5, page 191, columns 2 and 3, and on his motion, duly seconded, Report No. 5 was adopted. For Report see Appendix, page 1502.

MacMurray College Choir—William H. Alderson

William H. Alderson (New York East—NE), Chairman of the Music Committee of The General Conference Commission on Entertainment and Program, was recognized, and made the following statement:—

"I was in hopes that this might have come during the Temperance Report, because we are all familiar with the advertising slogan, 'The pause that refreshes.' I wonder whether we might be granted the privilege of stopping now for just five or six minutes and having the MacMurray College girls appear. They are ready. As Chairman of the Music Committee, I want to express very sincere appreciation to the Chairman for the very kindly and courteous way in which he interrupted the Conference to present this matter. They are all ready to come in."

Request—Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam

Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, the Presiding Officer, made the following request:—

"Will you allow the Chair to make a request of The Conference? The six minutes given to the young ladies will take us to about a quarter to twelve. If we start rushing out, brethren, we will lose that time in the business of The Conference. Will you be in order after the music? We will go into Recess promptly at twelve o'clock.

May we now have the privilege of hearing the choir?"

MacMurray College Choir—James R. Houghton ()—Henry E. Busche ()—Robert Glasgow (*)

James R. Houghton () (New England—NE), General Conference Director of Music, presented the MacMurray College Choir; their Director, Henry E. Busche () (Illinois—NC) and their organist, Robert Glasgow (*) (Illinois—NC).

The MacMurray College Choir rendered the following selections, under the leadership of Henry E. Busche (*) (Illinois—NC) their Director:—

“How Excellent Is Thy Name,” by Howard Hansen
“Sanctus,” by Chesnokof

Thanks—Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam

Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, the Presiding Officer, in behalf of The General Conference, thanked the MacMurray College Choir, Director Henry E. Busche () (Illinois—NC) and the organist, Robert Glasgow () (Illinois—NC) for their presence and inspiring music they had just rendered.

Judicial Council Officers—Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam

For the information of The General Conference, Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, the Presiding Officer, announced the Officers of The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church for the quadrennium 1956-1960 to be:—

President:—J. Ernest Wilkins (*) (Lexington—C)

Vice-President:—Clarence M. Dannelly (*) (Alabama—SE)

Secretary:—Ralph M. Houston (New York East—NE)

Order of the Day—Temporal Economy—Edward P. O’Rear—Ordered

Edward P. O’Rear (Southern California-Arizona—W), Assistant Calendar Secretary, stated that the Calendar situation is as follows:—

Immediately after Recess the Report of the Commission on the Structure of Methodism Overseas; following that Report of the Standing Legislative Committee on the State of the Church.

In view of the fact that there was not sufficient time before Recess to complete consideration of and action on the Reports of the Standing Legislative Committee on Temporal Economy, Edward P. O’Rear (Southern California-Arizona—W), Assistant Calendar Secretary, moved that the Standing Legislative Committee on Temporal Economy be permitted to complete the presentation of their Reports immediately following the presentation of the Reports of the Standing Legislative Committee on the State of the Church, this afternoon at 1:30 P.M.

The motions, duly seconded, suspending the original order of the Calendar presentation, and establishing the new order of Calendar presentation, on being put to The General Conference, were separately adopted.

No. 1—Temporal Economy—"Continuation Of Methodist Committee For Overseas Relief"—R. F. Curl—Adopted

R. F. Curl (Southwest Texas—SC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Temporal Economy, requested Harold C. Phend (*) (Northwest Indiana—NC), Secretary of the Committee, to come to the platform to assist in the presentation of the Reports of the Committee.

R. F. Curl (Southwest Texas—SC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Temporal Economy, presented Report No. 1 of the Committee, Calendar No. 62, Subject, "Continuation Of Methodist Committee For Overseas Relief," DCA No. 7, page 303, column 1, and on his motion duly seconded, the Report was adopted. For Report see Appendix, page 1731.

For Report see Appendix, page 1732.

No. 4—Temporal Economy—"Trustees Of John Street Church"—Elected—R. F. Curl—Adopted

R. F. Curl (Southwest Texas—SC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Temporal Economy, presented Report No. 4 of the Committee, Calendar No. 65, Subject, "Trustees Of John Street Church," DCA No. 7, page 303, columns 2 and 3, and moved that the Secretary of

The General Conference of The Methodist Church cast the vote of The General Conference for those persons recommended for election as Trustees of John Street Church. The motion duly seconded, prevailed.

In accordance with the above motion, duly seconded, and adopted by The General Conference of The Methodist Church, Lud H. Estes (Memphis—SE), Secretary of The General Conference of The Methodist Church, cast the vote of the same for the following:—

Bishop assigned to the New York Area
 Leigh A. Brown (*) (New York—NE)
 Everett R. Filley (*) (New York—NE)
 Frederick Kraft (*) (New York—NE)
 Charles C. Parlin (*) (Newark—NE)
 Ellis L. Phillips (*) (New York—NE)
 Edna Stitt Robinson (*) (New York—NE)
 Clayton Snyder (*) (New York—NE)
 Wilson R. Tanner (*) (New York East—NE)

and Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, the Presiding Officer, declared the same to have been duly elected Trustees of John Street Church for the ensuing quadrennium, 1956-1960.

No. 6—Temporal Economy—"Employment Of Agency For Financial Campaigns"—R. F. Curl—Adopted

R. F. Curl (Southwest Texas—SC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Temporal Economy, presented Report No. 6 of the Committee, Calendar No. 67, Subject, "Employment Of Agency For Financial Campaigns," DCA No. 7, page 303, column 3, and on his motion, duly seconded, the Report was adopted. For Report see Appendix, page 1733.

Chairmen Called—A. Wesley Pugh

A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC), Chairman of the Administrative Committee of Chairmen, called the Committee to meet on the platform during the Recess period.

Thanks—Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam

Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, the Presiding Officer, thanked the Members of The General Conference for their courtesy and co-operation in the conduct of the business of the morning's session.

Recess—Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam

Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, the Presiding Officer, declared The General Conference of The Methodist Church, to be in Recess at this time.

ELEVENTH DAY, SATURDAY, MAY 5, 1956

AFTERNOON SESSION

Reconvene—Opening—Bishop J. Waskom Pickett—James R. Houghton (*)

The Recess period ending, Bishop J. Waskom of the Delhi Area, Southern Asia Central Conference, the Presiding Officer for the afternoon session of The General Conference of The Methodist Church, Saturday, May 5, 1956, called The General Conference to order for the business session and announced Hymn No. 627, "Rise Up, O Men of God."

Under the direction of James R. Houghton (*) (New England—NE), General Conference Director of Music, The General Conference stood and joined in the singing of this stirring Hymn.

A Personal Word—Bishop J. Waskom Pickett

Bishop J. Waskom Pickett, the Presiding Officer, made the following statement:—

"If The Conference will permit just a brief personal word—I am aware of the fact that for the first time in the history of the United Church, a Bishop elected by a Central Conference is in the Chair.

I make no special appeal for kindly treatment but I should say that all my experience of administration in twenty-one years in the Episcopacy, has been with the gentle and very courteous people of India. I am confident that this Inter-National gathering will do its best to maintain that high standard of kindness to the Chair.

Your Order of the Day now is the presentation of the Report of the Committee on the Structure of Methodism Overseas. However, before that Report, that Order of the Day is called, Dr. Bell of the Virginia Conference has a matter of personal privilege in which he represents many others. Will you grant him that privilege?"

Recognition of Karl P. Meister—C. Cooper Bell

C. Cooper Bell (Virginia—SE), a member of The General Board of Hospitals and Homes was recognized and presented a tribute to Karl P. Meister (North-East Ohio—NC) and on his motion, duly seconded, it was ordered to be printed in the Daily Christian Advocate as follows:—

TRIBUTE TO KARL P. MEISTER

"Mr. Chairman and Members of The Conference: Just a very brief moment to read a statement in appreciation of Dr. Karl P. Meister, the General Secretary of the General Board of Hospitals and Homes, who is now retiring. I shall read it very quickly and then move to have it printed in the Daily Advocate.

"Dr. Karl P. Meister, who retired on May 1, as General Secretary of the General Board of Hospitals and Homes, has served his Church long and faithfully. In his career, which spans forty-two years in a Church-related capacity, he has been a local pastor, District Superintendent, Administrator in a Methodist home for older persons, in a Methodist Hospital, and served in a Methodist Children's Home. For twelve fruitful years he has served as the General Secretary of the General Board of Hospitals and Homes.

"Through his leadership, the activities and services of this Board of our Church have become recognized not only to Methodism but to the nation. His contributions to the field of health and welfare have been marked by Christian purpose, and through his efforts the stamp of The Methodist Church is synonymous with the highest standards of hospital and home care.

"A man of courage, foresight and determination, his selfless service in the name of Methodism will be remembered wherever there are older persons, dependent children, youth and the sick.

"This General Conference of The Methodist Church considers it a high privilege to recognize and commend Dr. Meister for his exemplary service."

Calendar—Edward P. O'Rear

Edward P. O'Rear (Southern California-Arizona—W), Assistant Calendar Secretary, stated that the Order of the Day had arrived; the consideration of and action on the Report of the Commission on the Structure of Methodism Overseas, Bishop W. Angie Smith, Chairman.

Structure of Methodism Overseas—Bishop W. Angie Smith —Leon T. Moore

Bishop W. Angie Smith, of the Oklahoma-New Mexico Area, South Central Jurisdiction, and Chairman of the Commission on the Structure of Methodism Overseas, presented Leon T. Moore (Philadelphia—NE), Secretary of the Commission, and requested him to present and explain the Report of the Commission.

Leon T. Moore (Philadelphia—NE), Secretary of the Commission on the Structure of Methodism Overseas, presented the Report of the Commission, DCA No. 9, page 429, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 430, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 431, columns 1, 2 and 3; and page 432, columns 1 and 2, and requested common consent to insert Memorial No. 4840 in the list of Memorials at the heading of the Report, and also to make any and all necessary editorial corrections without in any way changing the content of the Report. The General Conference unanimously granted this request.

Recommendations—Leon T. Moore

Leon T. Moore (Philadelphia—NE), Secretary of the Commission of the Structure of Methodism Overseas, called particular attention to "III. Recommendations" of the Commission, DCA No. 9, page 431, column 3 and page 432, columns 1 and 2, and requested common consent to insert the following, under Section 3 of "III. Recommendations,"

"Bishop Clement D. Rockey in the College of Bishops of the North Central Jurisdiction."

On the motion of Leon T. Moore (Philadelphia—NE), duly seconded, "III. Recommendations," DCA No. 9, page 431, column 3 and page 432, columns 1 and 2, were adopted.

Leon T. Moore (Philadelphia—NE), Secretary of the Commission on the Structure of Methodism Overseas, succinctly explained the remainder of the Report and moved its adoption. The motion was duly seconded.

Question—Mangal Singh—Answer—Leon T. Moore

Mangal Singh (Delhi—OS) asked a question which was answered by Leon T. Moore (Philadelphia—NE) as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman, in view of the increased number of Annual Conferences in Southern Asia and also in view of the possible union of the Churches in our country, we feel that the number of Bishops now assigned by The Conference is too small to meet the needs of the country.

If we go into union, which we believe we will do, our proportion of Methodist Bishops will be overwhelmingly overcrowded by the other Bishops who will come from the Anglican churches.

I therefore ask the Chairman of the Commission if it would not be possible for them to increase the number from five to six, assigning five to India and one to Pakistan, in view of the two reasons that I have given here.

Leon T. Moore: Mr. Chairman and Members of The Conference: There was no single question that occupied more time of your Commission in its pre-General Conference meetings and in the three days that we met here in Minneapolis prior to the convening of this General Conference, than this question.

India, in so far as it is in the Southern Asia Central Conference, which of course includes Pakistan, now has four Bishops. We had the request to make it six. It was voted that it should be five. There is an added provision which I read to you just a few moments ago.

On page 429, the center column, under No. 4: that should there be any emergency whatsoever by which it would be necessary that we should have to do something in this way, we could then have the College of Bishops involved, or The Council of Bishops, alternately, take care of this matter which would provide for six Bishops, if it were necessary in India and Pakistan. We feel we have covered this.

Mangal Singh: Thank you, sir."

Editorial Correction—Brunner M. Hunt—Mrs. Pilar D. Galima

Brunner M. Hunt (Mississippi—SE) was recognized and requested the floor for Mrs. Pilar D. Galima (Northern Philippines—OS) for an editorial correction in Paragraph 1 of Section V, Paragraph 1867.

Mrs. Pilar D. Galima (Northern Philippines—OS) moved to amend paragraph 1 of Section 1, Paragraph 1867 (DB-131), by deleting the word, "Kiangnan," in line five of the paragraph and substituting therefor the word, "IFUAGO," so that the amended paragraph will read, as follows:—

Section V.

1867. Annual Conferences:

1. NORTHERN PHILIPPINES CONFERENCE shall include the work in the provinces of Cagayan, Isabela, Nueva Vizcaya, and Batanes; and the sub-provinces of Apayao, Kalinga, and the Ifuago of Mountain Province.

By common consent of The General Conference the above editorial correction was approved.

Questions—Gregorio R. Bailen—Answers—Bishop J. Waskom Pickett—Leon T. Moore

Gregorio R. Bailen (Northwest Philippines—OS) asked questions concerning the boundary lines of the Northwest Philippines Annual Conference (DB-132), as set forth in paragraph 2 of Section V, Paragraph 1867, which were answered by Bishop J. Waskom Pickett and Leon T. Moore (Philadelphia—NE) as follows:—

Gregorio R. Bailen (Northwest Philippines, OS): I would like to offer an amendment on No. 2, Section V, page 431, and if the Committee will not add it, I would move it, and if I have a second, I would like to speak on it.

The entire Paragraph shall be rewritten.

2. Northwest Philippines Conference shall include the work in the Provinces of Pangasinan, La Union, Ilocos Sur, Ilocos Norte, and Abra; all Ilocon-speaking congregations in the provinces of Tarlac, Veba, Ecija and Quezon, the sub-provinces of Benuet and Bontoc of Mountain Province; the City of Baguio.

Bishop Pickett: I take it at this time the Brother is making an inquiry. Will you respond to it, Dr. Moore?

Leon T. Moore: I rather suspect I would do it in time. Bishop and Members of The Conference, I stated there would have have to be changes in editorial statements and the lining up of these things, that they were highly technical. May I say that in every case, these delineations have been given to us by either the Bishops in charge of these Areas or by the Delegates, sometimes by both. So that if there are changes—and I could have taken the time to have given you one for the South Germany Conference, but I felt that my over-all statement in the beginning would save you time, and any of these changes can be made without the necessity of taking your time and offering various motions. We will accept any of those changes and ask that the changes be made properly through the proper authorities.

Bishop Pickett: Is that satisfactory, Brother? It will greatly facilitate the work of The Conference if the Brother from the Philippines and any others who have issues of this sort to raise will submit them directly to this Commission, it being understood that The General Conference is entrusting any necessary revision of this technical sort to that body.

Will that be satisfactory to you, sir?

Gregorio R. Bailen: Does that mean that the amendment I bring will be fully accepted?

Leon T. Moore: Do I understand you to ask is your amendment wholly acceptable? Was that your question?

Gregorio R. Bailen: Yes.

Leon T. Moore: I would have to say to this Conference that it would be acceptable if certainly agreed upon by the Bishop and those in charge of your Area. I would not be competent, and I do not want to be misunderstood, but I don't believe that there are too many in The General Conference competent to say that your statement would be a wholly correct one regarding this delineation of this particular Conference.

Gregorio R. Bailen: Mr. Chairman, I would like to make a record in this Conference that the Delegate of the Northwest Philippines Conferences has never been informed or advised of this matter. The amendment I am offering is in accordance with Memorial No. 3480. I think the Bishop is not ignorant of this part.

Bishop Pickett: Dr. Moore!

Leon T. Moore: Mr. Chairman, my statement was we had this given by a Bishop or by the Delegates, or by both, in our Commission. So that if a Bishop of a Central Conference gave us this outline in any particular Central Conference, we accepted it and passed it on to this Conference, with the understanding that any changes that have to be made we, of course, will automatically accept.

Bishop Pickett: I believe the Brother from the Philippines inserted the word "Annual," so this reads "The Northwest Philippines Annual Conference." The Chair is not clear as to whether that means a change of status for that body.

Leon T. Moore: Mr. Chairman, could I answer that? The caption of that Section 1867 is "Annual Conferences."

Bishop Pickett: That is correct.

Gregorio R. Bailen: Mr. Chairman, the other important point here that we are trying to bring is all Ilocon-speaking congregations in the provinces of Eciyr and Queson. The reason for this is these towns were under the Communists when we were deciding what the boundaries of this Conference would be in 1952. Now they would like to enter our domain in that Conference, and so we are requesting that they now be finally and totally placed within our Conference.

Request Referred—Norman L. Trott

Motion of Norman L. Trott (Baltimore—NE), duly seconded, prevailed, that the matter presented by Gregorio R.

Bailen (Northwest Philippines—OS) be referred to the Commission on the Structure of Methodism Overseas, with power to accept, if deemed wise.

Report Adopted

The Report of the Commission on the Structure of Methodism Overseas was then adopted as a whole. For Report see Appendix, page 1864.

Request for Withdrawal of Enabling Act and Authorization of Another Enabling Act—Leon T. Moore

Leon T. Moore (Philadelphia—NE) made the following motion (DB-133) which was duly seconded:—

First:—The Commission on the Structure of Methodism Overseas requests that Calendar No. 156, Report No. 3 of the Standing Legislative Committee on Enabling Acts and Legal Forms, DCA No. 10, page 471, column 1, Subject, "Southeastern Asia Central Conference Election Of Bishops," be withdrawn.

Second:—That this General Conference authorize the granting of an Enabling Act, or Enabling Acts, necessary to continue any Central Conference or Annual Conference, or Provisional Annual Conference of any Central Conference, that may fall below the Disciplinary requirements during the quadrennium of 1956-1960.

Point of Order—Edward P. O'Rear—Reply—Leon T. Moore

Edward P. O'Rear (Southern California-Arizona—W) raised the Point of Order that the Standing Legislative Committee on Enabling Acts and Legal Forms should institute such procedure.

Leon T. Moore (Philadelphia—NE) made the following statement:—

"Mr. Chairman, I did not make a motion to withdraw Calendar No. 156. I simply asked it be done through the proper procedures which would be through that Committee. My motion for adoption is my request that this General Conference authorize the enacting of a, or certain Enabling Acts for the continuation of these groups that I have named.

Bishop Pickett: Then, Dr. Moore, you agree to the reference to this Committee on Enabling Acts and Legal Forms to present that matter in the regular way?

Leon T. Moore: Yes; yes, certainly.

I asked that it be granted. I didn't ask for me to draw it up. It has to be drawn up by the Enabling Acts and Legal Forms Committee, the same as all the Enabling Acts have been drawn up and are part of our recommendation, which will come later on under the Enabling Acts and Legal Forms Committee presentation.

The motion of Leon T. Moore (Philadelphia—NE), on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was adopted.

Organization Meeting Commission on Structure of Methodism Overseas—Bishop H. Bascom Watts

Bishop J. Waskom Pickett, the Presiding Officer, recognized Bishop H. Bascom Watts for an important announcement at this particular time.

Bishop H. Bascom Watts stated that he had been directed by The Council of Bishops to organize the Commission on the Structure of Methodism Overseas for the quadrennium of 1956-1960, and that the Commission for the quadrennium 1956-1960 would meet in the Bishops' Lounge at 2:30 P.M. for organization, and requested that The General Conference excuse the members of Commission for this purpose, if at the designated time The General Conference was still in session. By common consent the request was granted.

Per Diem for Provisional Annual Conference and Mission Representatives—Everett W. Palmer—Adopted

Everett W. Palmer (Southern California-Arizona—W) called attention to Paragraph 613, just adopted in the adoption of the Report of the Commission of the Structure of Methodism Overseas, which reads as follows:—

Par. 613. This Paragraph is to be rewritten to read as follows: "Provisional Annual Conferences and Missions outside the United States may designate a member to meet with the Standing Committees of The General Conference; and have the privilege of the floor of The General Conference on matters affecting the interests of his Conference or Mission, but without vote; and further, without expense to The General Conference except for the per diem during the sessions of The General Conference."

and moved that such representatives who are in attendance at this General Conference, shall receive the per diem for the 1956 session of The General Conference. The motion, duly seconded, on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was adopted.

At the request of Thomas B. Lugg (Illinois—NC) Treasurer of the General Conference Expense Fund, the Commission on the Structure of Methodism Overseas stated they would furnish the names of those persons, who had just been voted per diem for the 1956 session of The General Conference of The Methodist Church,

Changes in Personnel of Commission on Structure of Methodism Overseas—Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam—Edward P. O'Rear—Lud H. Estes—Leon T. Moore

Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, of the Washington Area, Northeastern Jurisdiction, and Secretary of The Council of Bishops of The Methodist Church, was recognized by the Presiding Officer, Bishop J. Waskom Pickett, for a matter of high privilege and stated that The Council of Bishops desired to make a change in the personnel of the Commission on the Structure of Methodism Overseas for the quadrennium of 1956-1960.

Motion of Edward P. O'Rear (Southern California—Arizona—W) duly seconded, prevailed, reconsidering the action of The General Conference of Friday evening, May 4, 1956, when the Commission on the Structure of Methodism Overseas, was elected.

Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, of the Washington Area, Northeastern Jurisdiction, and Secretary of The Council of Bishops of The Methodist Church, presented the nominations of The Council of Bishops substituting Merrill B. McFall (Indiana—NC) for Stewart D. White (Rock River—NC) and James K. Matthews (Bombay—OS) for Edwin B. Paul (Madhya Pradesh—OS) on the Commission on the Structure of Methodism Overseas for the quadrennium 1956-1960, and on motion of Lud H. Estes (Memphis—SE), duly seconded, they were substituted.

Motion of Leon T. Moore (Philadelphia—NE), duly seconded, prevailed, electing the Commission on the Structure of Methodism Overseas for 1956-1960, whose personnel had been changed by substitutions.

No. 20—Chairmen—Rules Suspended—A. Wesley Pugh—Adopted

Motion of A. Wesley Pugh (North Indiana—NC), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee of Chairmen, duly seconded, prevailed suspending the Rules of Order, for the consideration of and action on Reports appearing for the first time in the Daily Christian Advocate of today, Saturday, May 5, 1956.

No. 3—State of the Church—"The Social Creed"—Charles C. Parlin (*)—Harold A. Bosley—H. Hughes Wagner—A. Dudley Ward—Ernst P. Scholz

Charles C. Parlin (*) (Newark—NE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on State of the Church, was recognized and requested that Harold A. Bosley (Rock River—NC), H. Hughes Wagner (New England—NE), A. Dudley Ward (New York East—NE), General Secretary of the General Board of Social and Economic Relations, and Ernst P. Scholz (Northeast Germany—OS) come to the platform to assist in the presentation of the Reports of the Committee.

Charles C. Parlin (*) (Newark—NE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on State of the Church, presented Report No. 3 of the Committee, Calendar No. 176, Subject, "The Social Creed," DCA No. 10, page 473, columns 1, 2 and 3, and page 474, columns 1 and 2, and explained the Report fully and yet succinctly, and stated there was a printer's error, DCA No. 10, page 474, column 2 in paragraph "3. The Christian Conscience And War," that needed correcting.

Charles C. Parlin (*) (Newark—NE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on State of the Church, requested common consent of The General Conference, which was unanimously granted, to make the following correction:—

Delete the last eleven lines in paragraph "3. The Christian Conscience And War," which reads as follows:—

In this, members of The Methodist Church have the authority and support of their Church. We also recognize the right of the individual to answer the call of his government according to the dictates of his Christian conscience and believe that The Methodist Church should give all possible aid in preparing our youth for military service and in guiding and supporting them while in the armed services.

and substituting therefor the following (DB-134):—

"We also recognize the right of the individual to answer the call of his government according to the dictates of his Christian conscience. In both of these situations members of The Methodist Church have the authority and support of this Church."

so that paragraph "3. The Christian Conscience and War," will read as amended as follows:—

3. The Christian Conscience and War. The Methodist Church, true to the principles of the New Testament, teaches respect for properly constituted civil authority. It encourages both love of country and love of all men. Believing that government rests upon the support of its conscientious citizens, it holds within its fellowship those who sincerely differ as to the Christian's duty in regard to war. We ask and claim exemption by legal processes from all forms of military preparation or service for all religious conscientious objectors, as for those of the historic peace churches.

"We also recognize the right of the individual to answer the call of his government according to the dictates of his Christian conscience. In both of these situations members of The Methodist Church have the authority and support of this Church."

Amendment—Loyd F. Worley—Not Adopted

Loyd F. Worley (New York East—NE) moved to amend Section “(F) War and Peace,” by adding at the close of the first paragraph of said Section (DB-135) the words, “We stand for the abolition of War,” so that the first paragraph of said Section (F), as amended, will read:—

(F) War and Peace. 1. Principles. We stand for these propositions: Christianity cannot be nationalistic; it must be universal in its outlook and appeal. War makes its appeal to force and hate, Christianity to reason and love. The influence of the Church must therefore always be on the side of every effort seeking to remove animosities and prejudices which are contrary to the spirit and teaching of Christ. It does not satisfy the Christian conscience to be told that war is inevitable. It staggers the imagination to contemplate another war with its unspeakable horrors in which modern science will make possible the destruction of whole populations. The methods of Jesus and the methods of war move in different directions. We stand for the abolition of War.

The motion to thus amend, being duly seconded, Loyd F. Worley (New York East—NE) spoke to the same as follows:—

“Mr. Chairman, these words of high principle, I think all of them duplicate—and they should be preserved—duplicate statements which were made in 1944 or earlier. But a change has taken place in the world situation. We cannot be satisfied with principles that simply stagger the imagination. The effect of war now is much more serious than that. The atom bomb, the hydrogen bomb, nuclear warfare and all the rest make a different proposition than it was in 1944.

The nuclear scientists and General Douglas MacArthur have given us fair warning, and it seems to me we need as strong a statement as I propose that we shall put it as part of our principles that we stand for the abolition of war.”

Against Amendment—Charles C. Parlin ()*

Charles C. Parlin (*) (Newark—NE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on State of the Church, spoke to the pending question as follows:—

“This is a new sentence. It has never been in the Social Creed before. Our attitude was that rather than open up the redrafting of this difficult subject which has been debated at many General Conferences, that we would do no redrafting, and all attempts to redraw or add sentences dealing with this subject were rejected by the Committee.

I hope that this body would remain satisfied with the statement of the Social Creed as it now exists and not attempt redrafting at this time.

I, therefore, would oppose the insertion.”

Against Amendment—Albea Godbold—Ruling—Bishop J. Waskom Pickett

Albea Godbold (Saint Louis—SC) started speaking against the proposed amendment of Loyd F. Worley (New York East—NE) as follows:—

“I rise to speak against the amendment. It seems to me that we cannot just simply abolish war. We obviate war by the procedures of government and by removing the conditions.”

Ruling—Bishop J. Waskom Pickett

Bishop J. Waskom Pickett, the Presiding Officer, ruled as follows:—

“Pardon me for interrupting, but the Chairman of the Rules Committee calls my attention to the fact the body has voted that there may be but one speech for an amendment and one against unless The Conference give specific permission for an additional speech.”

Question—Albea Godbold—Ruling—Bishop J. Waskom Pickett

Albea Godbold (Saint Louis—SC) raised the following question:—

“Is there no privilege of speaking against a motion from the floor as well as from the Committee Chairman?”

Ruling—Bishop J. Waskom Pickett

Bishop J. Waskom Pickett, the Presiding Officer, ruled as follows:—

“The Conference can give that permission if it wishes. The Chair cannot. The Chair is not allowed to grant that permission.

Albea Godbold: Thank you, sir.”

Speaks to Pending Question—Paul V. Shearer ()—Ruling—Bishop J. Waskom Pickett*

Paul V. Shearer (*) (Iowa-Des Moines—NC) was recognized and made the following statement:—

“There is a motion to defer, and I will abide by it.”

Bishop J. Waskom Pickett, the Presiding Officer, replied as follows:—

“There is no question about that, and I call attention to the Rules under which we are operating.”

Amendment—Loyd F. Worley—Not Adopted

The proposed amendment of Loyd F. Worley (New York East—NE) on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.

Amendment—W. McFerrin Stowe—Not Accepted—Charles C. Parlin ()—Not Adopted*

W. McFerrin Stowe (Oklahoma—SC) moved to amend Section "C. Intoxicants and Narcotics," DCA No. 10, page 474, column 1, by deleting the first sentence of the paragraph which reads as follows:—

"Total abstinence is the historic position of our Church."

and substituting therefor (DB-136) the following sentence,

"METHODISTS STAND FOR THE PRINCIPLE AND PRACTICE OF TOTAL ABSTINENCE," so that paragraph (C), as amended, will read as follows:—

METHODISTS STAND FOR THE PRINCIPLE AND PRACTICE OF TOTAL ABSTINENCE. We seek to protect the individual, the home and society from social, economic and moral waste of any traffic in intoxicants and habit-forming drugs and from the invasion of the home by the advertising of alcoholic beverages. We urge objective and scientific study of the effects of alcoholic beverages and narcotics, and the use and support of educational processes in teaching abstinence through knowledge of these effects. The Church should also seek to understand the causes of alcoholism and drug addiction, and to give help to their victims in a healing and redemptive ministry and fellowship.

The motion to thus amend, being duly seconded, W. McFerrin Stowe (Oklahoma—SC) spoke to same as follows:—

"I have nothing to say except that it would make a stronger statement concerning the Methodist viewpoint at this point."

Amendment Not Accepted—Charles C. Parlin ()*

Charles C. Parlin (*) (Newark—NE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on State of the Church, spoke to the pending question, as follows:—

"Frankly, that seems to appear the same to me, but may I say when we are dealing with a Social Creed, we are dealing with things that have been fought over so long, where the commas and the text of every sentence have been gone over many, many times. Those of you who were present at earlier General Conferences will know that.

I believe I would be exceeding my authority as Chairman to accept any redrafting. Of course the body can do as it sees fit, but I think the Chairman should not accept anything dealing with the Social Creed."

Amendment—W. McFerrin Stowe—Not Adopted

The proposed amendment of W. McFerrin Stowe (Oklahoma—SC), on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.

Amendment—Chester A. Smith ()—Not Adopted*

Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) moved to amend the Report by deleting the first fifteen lines of Section "B. Economic Life," DCA No. 10, page 473, columns 2 and 3, which reads as follows:—

(B) Economic Life. 1. Christianity and the Economic Order. With full acknowledgement of Stewardship under God and accountability to Him, we stand for the acquisition of property by Christian processes and the right of private ownership thereof. We refuse to identify Christianity with any economic system. We test every economic order by the commands of our Christ and judge its practices by the Christian gospel. We believe that it is our duty not only to bring Christ to the individual, but also to bring the society within which we live more nearly into conformity with the teachings of Christ.

and substituting therefor, the following (DB-137) :—

"We stand for the principle of the acquisition of property by Christian processes and the right of private ownership thereof, with full acknowledgment of Stewardship under God and accountability to Him of its use.

"We feel called upon in the face of the Master's refusal to remain silent, in the face of moral wrong, to pass moral judgment upon both the two economic systems which now control mankind—Capitalism and Communism.

"Capitalism is unchristian because it rests upon the profit motive and not upon the service motive of Jesus, and because it is undemocratic, the workers not being represented upon the Boards of Directors of its Corporations, and therefore having no voice except by the expensive method of the strike, in deciding how the wealth they help to create shall be distributed.

"Communism is unchristian because it is despotic and ignores God.

"Both must be succeeded by a share in society, the Comrade Kingdom of Jesus, under which men of all races and of all kinds shall share equally in the necessary good things of life and enjoy freedom.

"We set ourselves under the leadership and guidance of God to bring this about, believing that it is our duty not only to bring Christ to the individual, but also to bring the society of America and of the world into conformity with His spirit and His teachings, a society in which all men shall enjoy peace and plenty and the opportunity for that abundant life of brotherhood and good will which the Master came to establish upon our earth."

so that paragraph 1 of Section (B), as amended, will read as follows:—

"We stand for the principle of the acquisition of property by Christian processes and the right of private ownership thereof, with full acknowledgement of Stewardship under God and accountability to Him of its use.

"We feel called upon in the face of the Master's refusal to remain silent, in the face of moral wrong, to pass moral judgment upon both the two economic systems which now control mankind—capitalism and communism.

"Capitalism is unchristian because it rests upon the profit motive and not upon the service motive of Jesus, and because it is undemocratic, the workers not being represented upon the Boards of Directors of its Corporations, and therefore having no voice except by the expensive method of the strike, in deciding how the wealth they help to create shall be distributed.

"Communism is unchristian because it is despotic and ignores God.

"Both must be succeeded by a share in society, the comrade Kingdom of Jesus, under which men of all races and of all kinds shall share equally in the necessary good things of life and enjoy freedom.

"We set ourselves under the leadership and guidance of God to bring this about, believing that it is our duty not only to bring Christ to the individual, but also to bring the society of America and of the world into conformity with His spirit and His teachings, a society in which all men shall enjoy peace and plenty and the opportunity for that abundant life of brotherhood and good will which the Master came to establish upon our earth." We believe that the free democratic way of life ruled by Christian principles can bring to mankind a society in which liberty is preserved, justice established, and brotherhood achieved. We therefore pledge ourselves to sustain these values and to implement the teachings of Christ by voting our Christian convictions in all elections, by participating in political action as party members or independents and by offering and supporting candidates who will translate our social ideas into social reality.

The motion to thus amend was duly seconded.

Previous Question—Embree H. Blackard—Ruling—Bishop J. Waskom Pickett

Embree H. Blackard (Western North Carolina—SE) moved the Previous Question on all before The General Conference.

Bishop J. Waskom Pickett, the Presiding Officer, ruled that the motion of Embree H. Blackard (Western North Carolina—SE) out of order at this time, as the proposed amendment of Chester A. Smith () (New York—NE) had been seconded, and therefore Chester A. Smith () (New York—NE) was entitled to the floor.

Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) spoke to his proposed amendment as follows:—

"The 1952 General Conference struck out of the sections on the Social Creed of 1948 the words, 'We stand for the subordination of the profit motive to the creative and co-operative spirit.' And said in place of that, 'The Church espouses no particular economic system.'

That puts the Church in a neutral position both as to Capitalism and Communism. But that was not the position of Jesus. He was no neutral, and neither should the Church be neutral. The Capitalistic System is not a Christian system and the Church should have the courage to say so.

The General Conference of 1952 surrendered to reaction in striking out the approval of the profit motive being subordinated to the service motive. It was a reversal of a position taken by The Methodist Church in 1908 and in 1928, when it stated the supremacy of the service motive rather than the profit motive in the acquisition of property, was the Church's position.

If Methodism is to have any impact upon the world outside of the United States, it must consider conditions in the rest of the world. It is not the will of God, I believe, that America should have an abundance of food while a third of the world are hungry. It is not right, I think that the average yearly income of every man, woman and child in America is $1,675, while the income of the peasants of India is only $25 a year. We must raise the standard of living of all the rest of the world by being willing to pay enough for the things their peoples make, so that they can receive the same high wages our people receive. Then they will not only be as prosperous as we are, but they will safeguard our own prosperity by being able to purchase from us those things we make which they want, but which they cannot now purchase because of a low income.

High wages have made America prosperous. High wages for the rest of the world will help to make the rest of the world prosperous. America cannot be permanently prosperous unless all the rest of the world is prosperous. America cannot be permanently safe, unless the rest of the world is safe."

Lay on Table—William B. Robinson—Ruling—Bishop J. Waskom Pickett—Out of Order

William B. Robinson (North-East Ohio—NC) moved to lay the proposed amendment of Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) on the table.

Bishop J. Waskom Pickett, the Presiding Officer, ruled that the motion to lay on the table was not in Order.

Previous Question—Orris G. Robinson—Ordered

On motion of Orris G. Robinson (Baltimore—NE), duly seconded, the Previous Question—on all before The General Conference was ordered by more than the required two-thirds majority vote.

Amendment—Chester A. Smith ()—Not Adopted*

The proposed amendment of Chester A. Smith (*) (New York—NE) on being put to the vote of The General Conference was not adopted.

Amendment—Paul V. Shearer ()—Accepted—Charles C. Parlin ()

Paul V. Shearer (*) (Iowa-Des Moines—SC) moved to amend paragraph "3. Wealth," DCA No. 10, page 473, column 3, by deleting the word "unconsciously," in line six, and substituting therefor the word, "UNWITTINGLY," so that paragraph "3. Wealth," as amended, will read:—

3. Wealth. We recognize the perils of prosperity. Our Lord has told us that we cannot serve God and mammon. As Christians we must examine earnestly before God both our personal and business practices, lest we UNWITTINGLY adopt the standards and assumptions of a materialistic society to the exclusion of our Christian Stewardship.

Since Churches and their institutions as well as individuals own property, invest funds, and employ labor, care must be exercised that all such relationships conform to the highest Christian standards. Any judgment upon society must "begin at the house of God."

Charles C. Parlin () (Newark—NE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on State of the Church, accepted the proposed amendment of Paul V. Shearer () (Iowa-Des Moines—NC) for the Committee, there being no objection raised by any member of the Committee, or by any member of The General Conference.

Point of Order—Orris G. Robinson—Ruling—Bishop J. Waskom Pickett

Orris G. Robinson (Baltimore—NE) raised the Point of Order that his motion for the Previous Question had been adopted and the Previous Question ordered.

Bishop J. Waskom Pickett, the Presiding Officer, made the following statement:—

"Well, the Chair has not yet found the purpose of what is being proposed from microphone No. 4, and cannot say whether he is preparing to speak in contravention of that motion."

Question—John W. Chittum ()—Reply—Charles C. Parlin ()

John W. Chittum () (North-East Ohio—NC) asked a question that was answered by Charles C. Parlin () (Newark—NE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on State of the Church, as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman, there seems to be a few people who are not quite sure of the status of the last five lines in the second column of page 474, immediately above Section G.

Is it true that the last five lines are completely lost in the light of the substitution that the Chairman proposed? I believe it is, but we would like a clarification.

Charles C. Parlin: That is correct."

The paragraph deleted with the last five lines in bold-face type reads as follows:—

In this, members of The Methodist Church have the authority and support of their Church. We also recognize the right of the individual to answer the call of his government according to the dictates of his Christian conscience and believe that The Methodist Church should give all possible aid in preparing our youth for military service and in guiding and supporting them while in the armed services.

The substitution of Charles C. Parlin (*) (Newark—NE) accepted by The General Conference:—

"We also recognize the right of the individual to answer the call of his government according to the dictates of his Christian conscience. In both of these situations members of The Methodist Church have the authority and support of this Church."

Amendment—Gabriel Sundaram—Not Permissible—Bishop J. Waskom Pickett

Gabriel Sundaram (Hyderabad—OS) moved to amend Section IV, at the bottom of page 474, column 2, DCA No. 10, by deleting the words, "orally or," found in line three, so that Section IV, "Our Mandate—Read, Study, Apply," would read, as amended, as follows:—

IV. OUR MANDATE—READ, STUDY, APPLY. We recommend that this Social Creed be presented to our congregations in printed form at least once a year, and that frequent references be made to it. We further recommend that in every local church a Committee shall encourage the study of our Social Creed and seek in every possible way to apply its principles.

Bishop J. Waskom Pickett, the Presiding Officer, ruled as follows:—

"I am afraid that is not permissible now. We are operating under a vote for the Previous Question. If it is an issue that can be dealt with purely as an editorial revision it will be open to the Members to submit it to the Committee."

Questions—Louis Spilman ()—Answers—Charles C. Parlin ()

Louis Spilman () (Virginia—SE) asked some questions which were answered by Charles C. Parlin () (Newark—NE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on State of the Church, as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman, as a matter of further clarification of the question Brother Chittum just asked, it was announced, I believe, by Mr. Parlin that the lines just above (g) in the second paragraph, page 474, second column, that the lines beginning about the 11th line up had been mixed up by the printers, and that the re-wording he submitted did not change the thought of that. Is that correct?"

Charles C. Parlin: It certainly changes the thought as it is expressed in this print, because this print makes no sense. It is all garbled up. I hope nobody reads it; it will simply confuse you.

Louis Spilman: As a matter of personal privilege, now that I am unable to understand this, I ask that the part that can be understood be read again.

Charles C. Parlin: Right. This is a very important thing. This has been fought over in Conferences gone by, as many of you will remember. We have come to an agreement. This is the established phraseology of our Church. Therefore let me go back and read the entire thing, if the body permits.

Bishop Pickett: Does the body agree?

It is agreed, Mr. Parlin.

Charles C. Parlin: The Report which is before you would read as follows, the end of that paragraph:

We ask and claim exception by legal processes from all forms of military preparation or service for all religious conscientious objectors as for those of the historic peace churches.

We also recognize the right of the individual to answer the call of his government according to the dictates of his Christian conscience. In both of these situations members of The Methodist Church have the authority and the support of their church.

Louis Spilman: Mr. Chairman, may I thank you for your indulgence and tell you that even I understand that."

No. 3—State of the Church Adopted

Report No. 3 of the Standing Legislative Committee on State of the Church, Calendar No. 176, Subject, "The Social Creed," DCA No. 10, page 473, columns 1, 2 and 3, and page 474, columns 1 and 2, on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was adopted. For Report see Appendix, page 1695.

No. 6—State of the Church—"World Order And Inter-National Peace"—Charles C. Parlin—Amended—Adopted

Charles C. Parlin (*) (Newark—NE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on State of the Church, presented Report No. 6 of the Committee, Calendar No. 180, Subject, "World Order And Inter-National Peace," DCA No. 10, page 476, columns 1, 2 and 3; page 505, columns 1, 2 and 3; and page 506, column 1, with the following statement:—

"The Resolutions now on that subject will expire with this quadrennium, and this is necessary in order to continue in the back of the Discipline Resolutions in this manner. Certain new material has been incorporated. For example, upon a Memorial from The Council of Bishops we incorporated some of the text from the Second Assembly of the World Council of Churches in 1954. No Resolution proposing any substantive change in this field was accepted by your Committee.

I have three minutes in which to introduce this Report, and I am going to turn the balance of my time over to Dr. Scholz, our District Superintendent in the City of Berlin, who crosses and recrosses in his daily work the lines of tension. He will speak to this report."

Speaks to Report—Ernst P. Scholz

Ernst P. Scholz (Northeast Germany—OS) spoke to the Report as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman and Members of this General Conference: In connection with this Report I should like to say some words of gratitude. I was asked to join the Sub-Committee for Peace in order to discuss with the members the questions about ideology beyond the demarkation line. When I entered the room of this Committee I noticed at once activity and a difference of opinion among these intelligent men.

I was reminded of one day when 20 or more of your Senators and Governors came to Berlin for a discussion about a situation in our city. Our friend, Dr. George McKibben, from Chicago, was then in the Chair. After having delivered a very short speech about Berlin and East Germany one of the Senators asked me the question: Is it true, Pastor, that German people are trained to obey immediately and to say always, Yes, sir?

My answer was, "Senator, do you not know the saying that where there are two Germans there are three opinions?"

Therefore, friends, I was not surprised to find in the Committee different points of view. But there was an accommodating attitude of the members in regard to our special situation in Germany, and a willingness to avoid anything in the wording of the Report which could create difficulties in the work of the Church. This emphasis and understanding of the Brethren impressed us Germans deeply, not only this Committee but also other groups with experience; the wonderful fellowship, the spirit of Jesus Christ.

I should like to express as the leader of the German Delegation our sincere gratitude to all of you for your kindness and support. We are happy to be here and attend The General Conference. We will go home with new ideas and with a new inspiration. We are strengthened by the glorious fact that in our Church there is no East or West, North or South. In the Church we are one great fellowship of love in Christ.

May God bless our beloved Methodist churches everywhere in the world."

Charles C. Parlin (*) (Newark—NE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on State of the Church, moved the adoption of Report No. 6 of the Committee and the motion was duly seconded.

Amendment—Albert E. Day—Accepted—Charles C. Parlin ()*

Albert E. Day (Baltimore—NE) moved to amend Report No. 6, DCA No. 10, page 505, column 2, by deleting the fourth paragraph under the heading, "The Individual and Military Training," which reads as follows:—

We believe that Christians should develop an attitude toward the government of patriotic loyalty as well as intelligent criticism. Faced with the dilemma of decision regarding military training, the individual must decide prayerfully before God, between his duty for military service or his classification as a conscientious objector. We believe each individual should bear in mind both his obligation to God and his obligation to country.

and to substitute therefor the statement found in paragraph 4, page 644, 1952 Discipline, Paragraph 2026, which reads as follows:—

Regarding the duty of the individual Christian, opinions sincerely differ. Faced by the dilemma of participation in war he must decide prayerfully before God what is to be the course of action in relation thereto. What the Christian citizen may not do is to obey men rather than God, or overlook the degree of compromise in our best acts, or gloss over the sinfulness of war. The Church must hold within its fellowship persons who sincerely differ at this point of critical decision, call all to repentance, mediate to all God's mercy, minister to all in Christ's name.

Charles C. Parlin (*) (Newark—NE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on State of the Church, accepted the proposed amendment of Albert E. Day (Baltimore—NE) for the Committee, there being no objection raised by any member of the Committee, or by any member of The General Conference.

Amendment—Albert E. Day—Not Accepted—Charles C. Parlin ()—Not Adopted*

Albert E. Day (Baltimore—NE) moved to amend the paragraph of the 1952 Discipline of The Methodist Church, just accepted by Charles C. Parlin (*) (Newark—NE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on State of the Church, and inserted in lieu of the fourth paragraph in column 2, page 505 of DCA No. 10, under the heading, "The Individual and Military Training," by the insertion (DB-138) of the words, "or in military training," in the second sentence of the said fourth paragraph after the words, "Faced by the dilemma of participation in war," so that paragraph four will read as follows:—

Regarding the duty of the individual Christian, opinions sincerely differ. Faced by the dilemma of participation in war, OR IN MILITARY TRAINING, he must decide prayerfully before God what is to be the course of action in relation thereto. What the Christian citizen may not do is to obey men rather than God, or overlook the degree of compromise in our best acts, or gloss over the sinfulness of war. The Church must hold within its fellowship persons who sincerely differ at this point of critical decision, call all to repentance, mediate to all God's mercy, minister to all in Christ's name.

The motion to thus amend was duly seconded.

Charles C. Parlin (*) (Newark—NE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on State of the Church, stated the Committee could not accept the proposed amendment of Albert E. Day (Baltimore—NE).

Information Requested—Charles I. Carpenter—Answer——Bishop J. Waskom Pickett

Charles I. Carpenter (Peninsula—NE) asked a question which was answered by the Presiding Officer, Bishop J. Waskom Pickett, as follows:—

"May I ask a question of the Chairman? We are planning to substitute or place into what is before us, as I understand it, the Paragraph in the Discipline on page 644, which has been read. I would like to ask for an interpretation of the last sentence. 'The Church must hold within its fellowship persons who sincerely differ at this point of critical decision, call all to repentance, mediate to all God's mercy, minister to all in Christ's name.'

Would the Chairman interpret that sentence to mean in the light all that went before that the utilization of that word "all" is talking of those who are conscientious participators?

Bishop Pickett: General Carpenter, the Chair is of the opinion that that is another matter; that it is not the issue of the motion that is before the body that has been made and seconded to add to the statements that have been read those few words. If you will hold it—

Charles I. Carpenter: I will be glad to hold it and ask it after the motion has been passed."

Amendment Albert E. Day—Not Adopted

The proposed amendment of Albert E. Day (Baltimore—NE), on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.

Renews Question—Charles I. Carpenter—Answer—Charles C. Parlin ()*

Charles I. Carpenter (Peninsula—NE) renewed his question, and it was answered by Charles C. Parlin (*) (Newark—NE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on State of the Church, as follows:—

"My question, Mr. Chairman, is to an interpretation on the last sentence on page 644, the fourth paragraph of the Discipline. The last sentence reads: 'The Church must hold within its fellowship persons who sincerely differ at this point of critical decision, call all to repentance, mediate to all God's mercy, minister to all in Christ's name.'

The utilization of 'all,' in the light of the forward part of that paragraph, does that in itself, that word 'all,' mean all who are conscientious participators only?"

Bishop Pickett: The question is addressed to the Chairman. I am sure it is the Chairman of the Committee to whom it is addressed, Mr. Parlin!

Charles C. Parlin: So far as I am concerned, it is very clear that that applies with equal force to those who conscientiously refrain from war and those who conscientiously enter the uniform.

Charles I. Carpenter: I think the paragraph we had said it more clearly."

Amendment—Lloyd F. Worley—Not Accepted—Charles C. Parlin ()—Not Adopted*

Lloyd F. Worley (New York East—NE) moved to amend Report No. 6 by inserting the words (DB-139), "untrue and unjust citations and public listings by Congressional Committees," to follow the words, "loyalty oaths," in line twelve of the second paragraph under the caption, "Civil Liberties," DCA No. 10, page 505, column 3, so that the second paragraph will read, as amended, as follows:—

In this time of fear, areas of freedom of speech and thought are being narrowed all over the world. Everywhere there is increasing limitation of the expression of variant ideas and opinions, and even of factual information. In some lands thought control uses the techniques of absolute censorship, surveillance by secret police, torture, imprisonment and death. In other lands the techniques are those of social rejection, calling of names, demands for "loyalty oaths," untrue and unjust citations and public listings by Congressional Committees, denial of employment, irresponsible accusations and assertion of "guilt by association."

The proposed amendment of Loyd F. Worley (New York East—NE) to thus amend being duly seconded, he spoke to the same, as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman, the whole statement on 'Civil Liberties' is pretty well generalized. We speak about it in other lands, and then we speak about lands that are evidently a little closer home. We list some infringements on civil rights and religious liberty.

The reference to loyalty oaths had a very great meaning to churches in California this last year. It is to the great credit that it was a Methodist church that undertook several actions in order to protect all of the churches from these loyalty oaths which would have taken away the privileges of relief from taxation unless these loyalty oaths were made. We owe a great debt of gratitude to the Methodist Church of San Leandro, California.

One of the great events of this quadrennium was the courageous stand taken by Bishop Oxnam on civil and religious liberty before a Congressional Committee. There has been little or no reference to this very significant matter.

At the present time, a Committee of the United States Senate is in litigation over a pamphlet which they have published, in which there is contained the bold-faced falsehood that members of a voluntary organization in The Methodist Church were organized by Communists. That is the word that is said, even though on the internal evidence of this pamphlet this organization was made in 1907 and the Communist party in the United States came into existence in 1919.

Surely The Methodist Church is not going to keep silent when Congressional Committees give such false impressions to the public. If they want to say anything that is true, we want to hear it; but we do object to this characterization, and we think that the Church should say something about it by adding it at this point."

Closes Debate—Charles C. Parlin ()*

Charles C. Parlin (*) (Newark—NE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on the State of the Church, closed the debate as follows:—

"I think our Committee does not accept that. We felt that we did a pretty good job on Civil Liberties. No one that knows me will accuse me of being soft on Civil Liberties, I am sure; but I do not think that it fits in there and it is a little redundant, and, again, you come to the problem of weakening rather than strengthening something that is already covered by tacking something on here."

Amendment—Lloyd F. Worley—Not Adopted

The proposed amendment of Lloyd F. Worley (New York East—NE) on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.

Amendment—Merrill C. Johnson—Accepted—Charles C. Parlin—Harold A. Bosley

Merrill C. Johnson (New York—NE) moved to amend (DB-140) the second paragraph under the caption, "Civil Liberties," on page 505, column 3, DCA No. 10, which reads as follows:—

In this time of fear, areas of freedom of speech and thought are being narrowed all over the world. Everywhere there is increasing limitation of the expression of variant ideas and opinions, and even of factual information. In some lands thought control uses the techniques of absolute censorship, surveillance by secret police, torture, imprisonment and death. In other lands the techniques are those of social rejection, calling of names, demands for "loyalty oaths," denial of employment, irresponsible accusations and assertion of "guilt by association."

By deleting the words, "In some lands," at the beginning of the third sentence in the paragraph, and also deleting the words, "In other lands," at the beginning of the fourth sentence in said paragraph, so that the second paragraph, as amended, will read as follows:—

In this time of fear, areas of freedom of speech and thought are being narrowed all over the world. Everywhere there is increasing limitation of the expression of variant ideas and opinions, and even of factual information. Thought control uses the techniques of absolute censorship, surveillance by secret police, torture, imprisonment and death. The techniques are those of social rejection, calling of names, demands for "loyalty oaths," denial of employment, irresponsible accusations and assertion of "guilt by association."

The proposed amendment of Merrill C. Johnson (New York—NE) was accepted by both Charles C. Parlin (*) (Newark—NE), Chairman, and Harold A. Bosley (Rock River—NC), Vice-Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on State of the Church, there being no objection raised by any member of the Committee, or by any member of The General Conference.

Previous Question—James S. Chubb—Ordered

Motion of James S. Chubb (Nebraska—SC), duly seconded, prevailed, ordering the Previous Question on all before The General Conference, by more than the required two-thirds majority vote.

Report No. 6—Adopted

Report No. 6 of the Standing Legislative Committee on State of the Church, was adopted, as amended. For Report see Appendix, page 1706.

Fraternal Messenger—M. Lafayette Harris—Excused

M. LaFayette Harris (Lexington—C) having been appointed as Fraternal Messenger to The General Conference of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, by The Council of Bishops of The Methodist Church, requested that he be excused from attendance upon the session of Monday, May 7, 1956, of The General Conference of The Methodist Church, in order that he might fulfill his assignment and that Damon P. Young, Reserve Delegate from the Lexington Conference, be seated in his place at that time.

By unanimous common consent the above request was granted.

Amendment to Rules of Order—Bishop J. Waskom Pickett—John R. Wilkins—A. Wesley Pugh—Withdrawn

John A. Wilkins (California-Nevada—W) requested the privilege of presenting amendments to the Plan of Organization and Rules of Order, and having them referred to the Standing Administrative Committee on Plan of Organization and Rules Of Order, as follows:—

“Mr. Chairman and Members of The General Conference: Last evening at a very late hour, I introduced a subject and out of deference to the hour and the parliamentary situation, withdrew it. It is a matter of privilege dealing with the welfare of The General Conference. It is a suggestion of amending the Rules and the Plan of Organization. I would like to present it and then have it referred to the Committee on Rules.

Bishop Pickett: This is outside of the ordinary provisions of the Rules. But will you permit this as a matter of privilege for the House?

A. Wesley Pugh: You can see where we are getting to here with reference to our afternoon session, and we had this up last night and thought we had the understanding that this would be presented as a possible amendment to the Report of the Committee on Rules which will come up on Monday morning.

It seems to me that it is very obviously out of order. If you wish to take the time for something like this, it is up to you, but I do not think we ought to do it.

Bishop Pickett: It could not be done, I think, unless you suspended the Rules. I hear no motion to that effect, doctor.

John R. Wilkins: May I ask Dr. Pugh then if at that time there will be given consideration if it is presented as an amendment to the Rules of Order when presented?

A. Wesley Pugh: Mr. Chairman, if Brother Wilkins secures recognitition, which I assume he could, and presents this as an amendment, it would be considered the same as any other amendment to the Report.

John R. Wilkins: Thank you."

Garrett Seminary Singers—William H. Alderson—Bishop Charles W. Brashares—James R. Houghton (*)

The Presiding Officer, Bishop J. Waskom Pickett, recognized William H. Alderson (New York East—NE), Chairman of the Music Committee of The General Conference Commission on Entertainment and Program, who requested that Bishop Charles W. Brashares, of the Chicago Area, North Central Jurisdiction, be recognized for a privileged matter.

Bishop Charles W. Brashares, of the Chicago Area, North Central Jurisdiction, being recognized by the Presiding Officer, Bishop J. Waskom Pickett, presented the Garrett Seminary Singers.

James R. Houghton () (New England—NE), General Conference Director of Music, then presented the Garrett Seminary Singers to The General Conference, and their Director, Austin V. Lovelace () (Rock River—NC).

Under the direction of Austin V. Lovelace (*) (Rock River—NC) the Garrett Seminary Singers presented the following selections:—

"Brother Van's Hymn," Montana Traditional
"God Is My Strong Salvation," by Lovelace

Thanks—Bishop J. Waskom Pickett

Bishop J. Waskom Pickett, the Presiding Officer, in well chosen words, expressed to Austin V. Lovelace (*) (Rock River—NC), Director, and to the Garrett Seminary Singers, the thanks and appreciation of The General Conference, for their presence and the musical selections rendered.

No. 16—Presiding Officers—H. Hughes Wagner

H. Hughes Wagner (New England—NE), Chairman of the Standing Administrative Committee on Presiding Officers, presented Report No. 16 of the Committee and on his motion, duly seconded, it was adopted as follows:—

We are pleased to announce the following Presiding Officers:—

For tonight's Official Session, Saturday, May 5, 1956, Bishop Fred Pierce Corson of the Philadelphia Area, Northeastern Jurisdiction.

For Sunday night, May 6, 1956, Bishop Paul E. Martin, of the Arkansas-Louisiana Area, South Central Jurisdiction.

For Monday morning, May 7, 1956, Bishop Ivan Lee Holt of the Saint Louis Area, South Central Jurisdiction.

(Signed) H. Hughes Wagner, Chairman
William R. Cannon, Secretary

H. Hughes Wagner (New England—NE) briefly addressed The General Conference as follows:—

"Mr. Chairman, I desire to say something nice about the way the Presiding Officers have presided and how gracious they have been, how efficient, how co-operative and how patient, and to explain to some of the Brothers who have asked—and I quote them—"Why haven't our best Bishops presided?"—to explain that the reason is that there are twice as many Bishops as there are sessions of The General Conference.

But we have accomplished four things of which we are proud.

First of all, every Bishop who was elected during or prior to the current quadrennium has either presided at this session of the Conference or has been invited to preside.

Second, every Bishop who retires, every effective Bishop from America who retires during the next quadrennium, has presided or will preside at this session.

And in the third place, we tried as equitably to use representatives from all of the Jurisdictions.

And in the fourth place, we have for the first time in our history a member of the College of Bishops of a Central Conference presiding in the Chair right now.

Of those things we are very, very proud."

Nominations Council of Bishops—Bishop G. Bromley

Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, of the Washington Area, Northeastern Jurisdiction, and Secretary of The Council of Bishops of The Methodist Church, presented nominations from The Council of Bishops of The Methodist Church (DB-141), for the following organizations, and by common consent in each case, action was taken separately, approving and electing the nominees.

George E. Clary, Sr. (South Georgia—SE) substituted for Leonard H. Cochran (South Georgia—SE), serving on another organization.

Amendments to Plan of Organization and Rules of Order—
 George H. Atkinson (*)—To Be Published in DCA

George H. Atkinson (*) (California-Nevada—W) requested and obtained the common consent of The General Conference to have printed in the Daily Christian Advocate some proposed changes in the Plan of Organization and Rules of Order, without reading, to be considered and acted on Monday morning, May 7, 1956, when the Report of the Standing Administrative Committee on Plan of Organization and Rules of Order is presented for the consideration of and action on by The General Conference.

Report No. 6—State of the Church—"World Order And Inter-National Peace"—State of the Church to Be Printed in Discipline—Charles C. Parlin (*)—Adopted

Motion of Charles C. Parlin (*) (Newark—NE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on State of the Church, duly seconded, prevailed, ordering the printing of Report No. 6 of the Standing Legislative Committee on State of the Church, Subject, "World Order And Inter-National Peace," in the Appendix of the 1956 Discipline of The Methodist Church.

No. 4—State of the Church—"The Christian Family"— Charles C. Parlin (*) Adopted—Printed in Discipline

Charles C. Parlin (*) (Newark—NE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on State of the Church, presented Report No. 4 of the Committee, Calendar No. 178, Subject, "The Christian Family," DCA No. 10, page 474, column 3; page 475, columns 1, 2 and 3, and moved its adoption and printing in the Appendix of the 1956 Discipline of The Methodist Church. The motion was duly seconded.

Charles C. Parlin (*) (Newark—NE), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on State of the Church, requested H. Hughes Wagner (New England—NE) to speak to the Report.

H. Hughes Wagner (New England—NE) spoke to the Report, taking especial notice of the statement,

“We believe that planned parenthood, practiced in Christian conscience, may fulfill rather than violate the will of God.”

found in lines six, seven and eight of the first paragraph under the caption, “III. Marriage Relations,” page 475, column 1, DCA No. 10 as follows:—

“Thank you, Mr. Parlin, and Mr. Chairman. This is what I was up here for. I will not take advantage. The sentence is short; it is brief; it has the strength of brevity and it says—and it means exactly what it says. I believe this is the only place in all the official documents of Methodism where any mention is made of birth control or the birth control issue, but those of us who come from the States of Massachusetts and Connecticut, which are the only two States in the Union where it is against the law for anyone, even a physician, to give information of a birth control or planned parenthood nature, even in the case of a woman whose life might be in jeopardy if children were born. It is a very short matter.

Every time it comes up for a referendum—I think it is every six years—there is another Church, a very influential Church of that section, which advertises publicly on billboards and in newspapers, not that that is our opinion, but says, definitely, that this is against the law of God.

I am so happy, or hope that I shall be so very happy, that somewhere in our Discipline there shall be a statement which will contravene that so we will be able to say, when these matters come up, that it is the opinion of one Church. There are other Churches everywhere which think differently. Our Methodist Church, for example, believes that planned parenthood practiced in Christian conscience, may fulfill rather than violate, the will of God.

I sincerely hope that this will be passed.”

Amendments Plan of Organization and Rules of Order—Request for Printing—Allen Whitfield (*)

Allen Whitfield (*) (Iowa-Des Moines—NC) requested permission to have printed in the Daily Christian Advocate of Monday, May 7, 1956, some proposed amendments to the Plan of Organization and Rules of Order, to be considered and acted upon when the Report of the Standing Administrative Committee on Plan of Organization and Rules of Order is considered and acted on Monday morning, May 7, 1956. The General Conference unanimously granted the request.

Time Extended—Thomas B. Clay (*)—Adopted

Motion of Thomas B. Clay (*) (Genesee—NE), duly seconded, prevailed, extending the time to hear a Report from the Standing Legislative Committee on Judicial Administration.

No. 2—Judicial Administration—"Payment Of Expenses Of Retired Members Of The Judicial Council Attending General Conference"—Leonard D. Slutz (*)—Adopted

Leonard D. Slutz (Ohio—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Judicial Administration, presented Report No. 2 of the Committee, Calendar No. 109, Subject, "Payment Of Expenses Of Retired Members Of The Judicial Council Attending General Conference," DCA No. 9, page 408, column 3, and moved its adoption. The motion was duly seconded.

Amendment—Ray H. Nichols (*)—Not Adopted

Ray H. Nichols (*) (Northwest Texas—SC) moved to amend the Report by deleting the word "eight," found in the last line of the third paragraph, and substituting therefor the word, "four," so that the Report as amended, will read:—

Whereas, by action of the 1948 General Conference the expenses to succeeding General Conferences of members of The Judicial Council retiring at that session were authorized to be paid; and,

Whereas, no such provision was made by the 1952 session of The General Conference covering the expenses to succeeding sessions of The General Conference of Members of The Judicial Council retiring at that session; and

Whereas, such expenses should be provided for all retired members of The Judicial Council who retired because of the age rule, after serving at least one full term of FOUR years;

Therefore Be It Resolved by The General Conference of The Methodist Church that expenses be paid all retired members of The Judicial Council of The Methodist Church who retired because of age after serving at least one full term of FOUR years, who are in attendance at this 1956 General Conference or who may attend any future session of The General Conference, such expenses to be allowed on the same basis as applies to active Members of The Judicial Council.

The motion to thus amend, being duly seconded, Ray H. Nichols (*) (Northwest Texas—SC) spoke to the same, as follows:—

“My reason for submitting this amendment is in order that an honored and very distinguished member of The Judicial Council is retired this year on account of age, after only four years on The Council. He has served the Church in other capacities for many, many years. He is Mr. Fred B. Noble, of Florida, SE. I would like to see this amendment accepted in order that he may have this privilege along with the others. Only one man is involved in this matter.”

Amendment Not Accepted—Leonard D. Slutz ()*

Leonard D. Slutz (Ohio—NC), Chairman of the Standing Legislative Committee on Judicial Administration, spoke to the pending matter, as follows:—

“Mr. Chairman, this was presented to our Committee and we discussed it. I do not feel we have the authority to accept it. However, if the House accepts, we are willing.”

Speaks to Pending Question—Paul V. Galloway

Paul V. Galloway (Oklahoma—SC) spoke to the pending question, as follows:—

“Mr. Chairman, I am not speaking for or against, only this: The General Conference Entertainment Commission had this request. We felt like we could not accept it. It was handed over to the Council on World Service and Finance. I understand they turned it down. So I think the Committee should let us hear from the Council on World Service and Finance, to see if they have been talked to.”

Amendment Ray H. Nichols ()—Not Adopted*

The proposed amendment of Ray H. Nichols (*) (Northwest Texas—SC), on being put to the vote of The General Conference, was not adopted.
